MEDIA RELEASE

Technology leader Harmonic Drive Systems enters Joint Sales Agreement with ISDN's Servo Dynamics in the Asian Market

Singapore, 18 July 2025 – ISDN Holdings Limited ("ISDN" or the "Group"), a leading industrial automation firm in Asia announced that its subsidiary Servo Dynamics Pte. Ltd. ("SD" or "Servo Dynamics") has entered into a strategic joint sales agreement with Harmonic Drive Systems Inc. ("HDSI" or "Harmonic"), a Tokyo-based global technology leader in precision control systems.

The strategic agreement aims to expand HDSI's products and solutions throughout Asia including China, Singapore, Taiwan, Vietnam, Thailand, Malaysia, and other key regions in Asia. The collaboration will focus on promoting HDSI's industry-leading strain wave gear reducers, planetary gear units, and mechatronics product lines. Strategic emphasis will be placed on sectors such as semiconductor manufacturing equipment, medical devices, and AI robotics. The companies will proactively pursue new business opportunities in these regions, targeting an increase of over JPY 2 billion in sales by fiscal year 2030.

The strategic joint sales agreement is not expected to have a material impact on the Company's earnings per share and net tangible assets per share for the financial year ending 31 December 2025. None of the Directors or substantial shareholders of the Company has any interest, direct or indirect, in the strategic joint sales agreement other than through their shareholdings (if any) in the Company.

HDSI will provide SD with technical training and sales support to ensure high-value customer engagement, while SD will provide customers with its complementary systems engineering capabilities and contribute pan-Asia sales reach to the partnership.

Mr. Akira Maruyama, President & CEO of HDSI commented: "Forming a new partnership with Servo Dynamics — a company with a strong presence across the Asian market — marks a significant strategic step forward for HDSI as we pursue our vision of becoming the best provider of total motion control solutions in harmony with the future. This collaboration will serve as a vital foothold for our growth across Asia, a region full of dynamic opportunities."

"We're pleased to inaugurate this highly strategic partnership," remarked ISDN Managing Director and President Teo Cher Koon, noting that "the collaboration connects Harmonic's global leadership in technology with Servo Dynamics' extensive reach across regions and industries throughout Asia. Both companies share a vision of delivering state-of-the-art technology to customers across Asia, and the new partnership combines the best capabilities of both companies to push the frontier of advanced automation and robotics throughout the continent."
