In accordance with Rule 3.8 of the Takeovers Code, reproduced below is the full text of Note 11 to Rule 22 of the Takeovers Code:

*"Responsibilities of stockbrokers, banks and other intermediaries

Stockbrokers, banks and others who deal in relevant securities on behalf of clients have a general duty to ensure, so far as they are able, that those clients are aware of the disclosure obligations attaching to associates of an offeror or the offeree company and other persons under Rule 22 and that those clients are willing to comply with them. Principal traders and dealers who deal directly with investors should, in appropriate cases, likewise draw attention to the relevant Rules. However, this does not apply when the total value of dealings (excluding stamp duty and commission) in any relevant security undertaken for a client during any 7 day period is less than $1 million.

This dispensation does not alter the obligation of principals, associates and other persons themselves to initiate disclosure of their own dealings, whatever total value is involved.

Intermediaries are expected to co-operate with the Executive in its dealings enquiries. Therefore, those who deal in relevant securities should appreciate that stockbrokers and other intermediaries will supply the Executive with relevant information as to those dealings, including identities of clients, as part of that co-operation."

Shareholders and potential investors of the Company should note that, as the making of the China Mobile Offer is subject to the satisfaction or, if capable of being waived, waiver of certain pre-conditions as detailed in the China Mobile R3.5 Announcement, the China Mobile Offer may or may not be made. Further, completion of the China Mobile Offer is subject to certain conditions being satisfied or, if capable of being waived, waived on or before the long stop date as disclosed in the China Mobile R3.5 Announcement and therefore the China Mobile Offer may or may not become unconditional and may or may not be completed.

Shareholders and/or potential investors of the Company are advised to exercise caution in dealing in the securities of the Company. Persons who are in doubt as to the action they should take or their position should consult their stockbrokers, bank managers, solicitors or other professional advisers.
