Chairman's Statement

To all shareholders,

I hereby present the annual report of China Smartpay Group Holdings Limited (the "Company") and its subsidiaries (collectively referred to as the "Group") for the financial year ended 31 March 2021 (the "Reporting Period") to the shareholders of the Company.

For the Reporting Period, we recorded a net loss of approximately HK$117.27 million. The loss was due to factors such as (i) the significant decrease in the revenue of approximately HK$135.83 million; (ii) interest expenses related to our bonds of approximately HK$25.67 million; and (iii) the adverse impact on the Group's overall business performance and financial results caused by the outbreak of the COVID-19 pandemic.

We will strengthen our business infrastructure, implement system reconstruction, focus on internal operation management, and strictly control various costs and expenses. In relation to payment platform and independently developed payment transaction system, the payment risk-control management system, coverage of merchant onboarding, risk assessment and approval, concurrent transaction monitoring and other payment processes will be optimised. In respect of the prestige benefits business, the back-office IT systems will be restructured to meet business needs, including resources management system, appointment management system, merchant verification system, commodity item management system, sales management system and membership management system.

In May 2021, the Group has successfully renewed the license from People's Bank of China for national internet payment and prepaid card service for another period of five years, thanks to the unwavering focus from the management in overhauling the Company's compliance system following an incident occurred in 2019. In order to build a more resilient operation system in line with regulatory requirements, the focus of this business unit among other competing operational priorities in the Reporting Period was to roll out the upgraded procedures and to monitor the execution effectively, as well as to conduct internal trainings. At the same time, the Company expanded the risk management system and internal audit procedures to capture early signs of potential loopholes in anti-money laundering.

During the Reporting Period, the Group has implemented more stringent cost saving measures in order to reduce the expenditure to a more reasonable and justifiable level. The Group will stay alert to the development and situation of the COVID-19 pandemic, continue to assess its impacts on the financial position and operating results of the Group and take necessary actions to maintain the stability of the businesses. The Group will keep proactive to seek business opportunities that will contribute and sustain the Group's future development in generating better return to the shareholders.

On behalf of the Board, I would like to take this opportunity to express my gratitude to all shareholders, investors, and customers for their strong support.

Zhang Xi

Management Discussion and Analysis

BUSINESS REVIEW AND OUTLOOK

China Smartpay Group Holdings Limited (the “Company” or “We”) and its subsidiaries (collectively referred to as the “Group”) offers a wide range of value-added and internet payment services to its customers and controls one of the only six payment service licences for nationwide prepaid cards and internet payment services in the People’s Republic of China (the “PRC” or “China”). It has always been the Group’s intention to provide its users with a one-stop solution combining payment, benefits and credit services. The Group operated in a steady and compliant manner and received recognition and commendation from regulatory authorities.

For internet payment business, the Group focuses on areas with rapid growth potentials and strives to establish partnerships with various parties to provide secure and convenient internet payment services for different financial institutions and bulk commodity trading platforms on one hand, and provide cross-border payment and custom clearance services for cross-border e-commerce enterprises on the other hand. As one of the limited national prepaid card enterprises, we will utilise the resources of our branches to vigorously develop prepaid cards business across the nation in the future and intensively strengthen its presence in the areas of industry cooperation leveraging its own advantages.

According to the business data from third party payment industry, prepaid card industry steadily developed within the criteria. A continuous stable growth of gross domestic product and residents’ income resulted in a general enhancement of self-discipline in the industry, a full acceleration of industrial opening and an extensive application and innovation of financial technology, and hence payment industry will keep growing rapidly.

However, due to the impacts of the outbreak of the COVID-19 pandemic, the domestic consumption is trending toward online consumption, and the consumption of traditional prepaid cards has been suppressed to a certain extent at the merchant side, resulting in a decline in the number of cards issued. Nevertheless, the main reason for the decline in revenue was that the development of Internet business and cross-border business did not progress as expected. Firstly, due to the domestic impacts of the outbreak of the COVID-19 pandemic, the development of cross-border business has been stagnant for a long period of time because of the impact of the general environment; secondly, the Company has raised the rating standard for the internet business at the merchant onboarding side, and we have also strengthened our efforts in anti-money laundering to fulfil the inspection requirements of the People’s Bank of China (“PBOC”) for the license renewal of the Company in 2021. But with the successful completion of the license renewal, we are already actively expanding the corresponding payment business. Regarding the traditional prepaid cards, we will continue to strengthen our efforts in further developing our existing client base while also actively expanding other forms of card issuance (i.e. online card issuing and co-branded cards); cross-border RMB business has completed system integration with several banks while the whole operation processes of the “big trade function (大貿功能)” have successfully launched online. In terms of internet business, the branches of Open Union Payment (開聯通) are actively expanding the onboarding of qualified merchants, and all the currently onboarded merchants process a certain transaction scale. At this point, we will achieve quality and sound development and growth in the payment business in the new financial year.

In May 2021, the Group has successfully renewed the license from the PBOC for national internet payment and prepaid card service for another period of five years, thanks to the unwavering focus from the management in overhauling the Company’s compliance system following an incident occurred in 2019. In order to build a more resilient operation system in line with regulatory requirements, the focus of this business unit among other competing operational priorities in the financial year ended 31 March 2021 (the “Reporting Period”) was to roll out the upgraded procedures and to monitor the execution effectively, as well as to conduct internal trainings. At the same time, the Company expanded the risk management system and internal audit procedures to capture early signs of potential loopholes in anti-money laundering.

Management Discussion and Analysis

For prestige benefits business, with the increased market demands and business cooperation needs, we launched the new official website and additional online sales channels to roll-out prestige benefits products directly to end customers in a gradual pace. In the prestige membership benefit service industry of banking and credit card organizations, in addition to the leading banks that issued more volume of the original credit cards, there are more and more small-and-medium banks concerned with benefit service for the cardholders and providing the customers of retail or credit card businesses with value-added benefit services. Besides, with the emerging consumption pattern of paid membership, there will be more demand for membership benefit in new retail sector and on internet platform. As to the industry ahead, there will be more service targets and larger market scale. The original scheduled equity procurement contract projects with major cooperative banks have completed in September 2020. The number of cooperative equity procurement projects with banks have been significantly reduced due to the continued impact of the outbreak of COVID-19 pandemic, resulting in approximately RMB6 million in revenue in the second half of the year.

For internet micro-credit business, the Group entered into a sale and purchase agreement on 13 March 2020 (as amended, supplemented or modified by the supplemental agreement dated 8 May 2020 and the side letter dated 30 June 2021) with the purchasers, Geerong (HK) Limited and Oak Bay International Limited, pursuant to which the Company has conditionally agreed to sell 75% of the entire issued share capital of Keen Best Investments Limited (“Keen Best”) and its indirect wholly-owned subsidiary, 重慶市眾網小額貸款有限公司 (Massnet Microcredit Company (Chongqing) Limited*) (“Massnet Microcredit”) at a total consideration of HK$225 million (the “Disposal”). During the past few years, the business environment for microcredit in the PRC has become more competitive with the tightening regulatory policies. Massnet Microcredit’s financial performance and position has been deteriorating as a result of the intense competition in the market and the increase in default risk. The Group will continue to hold 25% of the equity interests in Keen Best which would become an associate of the Group. A resolution in relation to the Disposal was passed by independent shareholders of the Company at the extraordinary general meeting of the company held on 12 June 2020. The Disposal was completed on 29 September 2020.

During the Reporting Period, Oriental Payment Group Holdings Limited (“OPG”, together with its subsidiaries, the “OPG Group”) has continuously faced the risks of the uncertainties in the impact of Sino-US trade war and the outbreak of the COVID-19 pandemic, which would affect Chinese tourists’ spending in Thailand. In particular, the outbreak of COVID-19 pandemic which led to the suspension of a majority of international flights to Thailand resulted in a material adverse effect to the income of the OPG Group. It is uncertain as to when the international flights to Thailand would be completely resumed, and hence OPG has been proactive in exploring other business opportunities, especially payment related business, that could sustain OPG’s business development and growth for generating a better return to the shareholders of OPG.

The OPG Group is exploring investment opportunities in online and offline payment related business in Asia Pacific and has undergone a placing of convertible bonds to raise funds in June 2020. Taking into account the speedy recovery of the PRC from the COVID-19 pandemic and the favourable policies towards the Guangdong – Hong Kong – Macau Greater Bay Area (the “Greater Bay Area”), the OPG Group is also exploring investment opportunities in new economies like fintech industry and IT industry in the PRC, and in particular in the Greater Bay Area.

During the Reporting Period, the Group has implemented more stringent cost saving measures in order to reduce the expenditure to a more reasonable and justifiable level. The Group will stay alert to the development and situation of the COVID-19 pandemic, continue to assess its impacts on the financial position and operating results of the Group and take necessary actions to maintain the stability of the businesses. The Group will keep proactive to seek business opportunities that will contribute and sustain the Group’s future development on generating better return to the shareholders of the Company.

Management Discussion and Analysis

FINANCIAL REVIEW (CONTINUING AND DISCONTINUED OPERATIONS)

Revenue

The internet micro-credit services, the merchant acquiring transaction fee income and the foreign exchange rate discount income generated from merchant acquiring business in Thailand, the prepaid cards and internet payment business and the prestige benefits business all contributed to the total revenue of the Group for the Reporting Period. Total revenue of the Group for the Reporting Period amounted to approximately HK$83 million (2020: approximately HK$242 million), of which approximately HK$34 million (2020: approximately HK$60 million) was attributed to the prepaid cards and internet payment business; approximately HK$22 million (2020: approximately HK$63 million) was attributed to the prestige benefits business; approximately HK$15 million (2020: approximately HK$38 million) was attributed to the internet micro-credit business; and approximately HK$12 million (2020: approximately HK$81 million) was attributed to the merchant acquiring business in Thailand respectively.

The Group's revenue for the Reporting Period was approximately HK$83 million, representing a decrease of approximately 66% as compared to that of the previous financial year (2020: approximately HK$242 million) because of the significant decrease in the revenue of the prepaid cards and internet payment business and the prestige benefits business. Such decrease was mainly due to the adverse impact on the Group's overall business performance and financial results caused by the outbreak of the COVID-19 pandemic.

The significant decrease in the revenue of prepaid cards and internet payment business was due to the ongoing effects of prepaid cards policy in China and regular review by the PBOC led to a decrease in the value of prepaid cards issued, which directly affected the merchant and technical support service fee income of prepaid cards.

Regarding the prestige benefits business, the revenue from the sales of prestige benefits card decreased mainly because the Group recorded a significant decrease in issuance of prestige benefits cards as the gross profit margin was too low in regard to issuing prestige benefits cards. At the same time, the Group stopped to cooperate with some cold call centers because cold call marketing became less effective due to the PRC government's promotion and public awareness of telephone scam.

As for the merchant acquiring business in Thailand, there was a decrease in the merchant discount rate income (the "MDR income") and foreign exchange rate discount income by approximately HK$52 million and HK$15 million, respectively when comparing with that recorded in the previous financial year. The decrease in these two income streams was primarily due to the decrease in the transaction volume via UnionPay processed by the Group for the Reporting Period as compared with that of the previous financial year as a result of the uncertainties of the overall Chinese tourists' spending sentiments in Thailand, the challenges brought by Alipay as well as WeChat Pay, and the outbreak of the COVID-19 pandemic leading to the suspension of Chinese tour groups to Thailand.

Cost of Services Rendered

Total cost of services rendered amounted to approximately HK$40 million, representing a decrease of approximately 78% as compared with that recorded in the previous financial year. The cost of services rendered decreased in line with the decrease in revenue.

General Administrative Expenses

The general administrative expenses of the Group for the Reporting Period were approximately HK$111 million, representing a decrease of approximately 34% from that of the previous financial year. The decrease was primarily attributable to the half-year general administrative expenses recognised in the Disposal completed on 29 September 2020.

Selling and Distribution Costs

The selling and distribution costs for the Reporting Period amounted to approximately HK$19 million, representing a decrease of approximately 4% from that in the previous financial year.

Management Discussion and Analysis

Finance Costs

The finance costs for the Reporting Period amounted to approximately HK$33 million, representing an increase of approximately 3% from that in the previous financial year. The increase was mainly due to the increase in the effective interest expenses on convertible bonds issued by OPG and the increase on the finance costs for financial liabilities at amortised cost.

Loss for the Year

During the Reporting Period, the Group reported a net loss attributable to equity holders of the Company amounted to approximately HK$99 million. Basic loss per share was approximately 5.73 HK cents as compared with approximately 43.16 HK cents recorded in the previous financial year.

Impairment loss on non-current assets

In view of the deteriorating economy and the outbreak of COVID-19 pandemic during the Reporting Period, the Group considered that there is impairment indicator on non-current assets under the prepaid card and internet payment services and the merchant acquiring services. The Group assessed that the purchased software for the prepaid cards and internet payment services in the PRC (the “Payment Software”) and acquiring and clearing system developed in prior years for the payment processing services via major payment networks in Thailand (the “PN System”), which was not used by the Group due to the change in the business operations and market development strategy of the Group, may not be able to generate future economic benefits, in particular, after the outbreak of COVID-19 pandemic. Accordingly, the recoverable amount of the Payment Software and PN System was minimal. Impairment loss on the Payment Software and PN System of approximately HK$4.4 million and HK$5.6 million, respectively, was recognised for the Reporting Period (2020: Nil).

At 31 March 2021, the Group further assessed the recoverable amounts of the remaining intangible assets, property, plant and equipment and right-of-use assets based on the value-in-use calculation using pre-tax cash flow projections covering a 5-year and 3-year period and considered that no further impairment loss should be recognised at 31 March 2021.

During the previous financial period, goodwill of the business of 微科睿思在綫(北京)科技有限公司 (Wei Ke Rui Si Online (Beijing) Technology Company Limited*, “Beijing Weike”) and its subsidiaries was impaired by approximately HK$424 million and goodwill of the business of AE Investment Consulting Limited and its subsidiaries was impaired by approximately HK$68 million respectively. Details were set out in pages 11 to 13 of Annual Report 2020.

Impairment loss on trade receivables/other receivables

(1) Trade receivables

The Group’s customer base consists of a wide range of clients and the trade receivables are categorised by common risk characteristics representing customers’ abilities to pay all amounts due in accordance with the contractual terms. The Group applies a simplified approach in calculating the expected credit loss (“ECL”) for trade receivables and recognises a loss allowance based on lifetime ECL at each reporting date. The ECL under the provision matrix is calculated based on historical observed loss over the expected life of the trade receivables and adjusted for current and forward-looking factors to reflect differences between economic conditions during the period over which the historical data has been collected, current conditions and the Group’s estimate on future economic conditions over the expected lives of the trade receivables. At 31 March 2021, the Group recognised accumulated loss allowance of approximately HK$26,263,000 (2020: approximately HK$19,617,000) on the trade receivables.

(2) Other receivables

The Group’s other receivables consists of deposits on investments, deposits paid to merchants, deposits, prepayments and other debtors and due from a related party and an associate. Impairment on other receivables is measured on lifetime ECL and reflects the short maturities of the exposures.

* English translation for identification purpose only

Management Discussion and Analysis

In estimating the ECL, the Group has taken into account the financial position of the counterparties by reference to, among others, its management or audited accounts and available press information, adjusted for forward-looking factors that are specific to the counterparties and general economic conditions of the industry in which the counterparties operate, in estimating the probability of default of the financial asset, as well as the loss upon default. At 31 March 2021, the Group recognised accumulated loss allowance of approximately HK$31,869,000 (2020: approximately HK$27,118,000) on other receivables.

LIQUIDITY AND FINANCIAL RESOURCES

The Group financed its operation through internally generated cash flows, public fund raising and other borrowings.

At 31 March 2021, the Group's other long-term borrowings amounted to Baht 25,500,000 (equivalent to approximately HK$6,327,000) (2020: Baht 25,500,000 (equivalent to approximately HK$6,050,000)) because a non-controlling shareholder, holding the issued and paid up preference share capital of Oriental City Group (Thailand) Company Limited ("OCG Thailand"), carries a cumulative dividend at 9.5% per annum and such dividend was recorded as finance costs.

The gearing ratio of the Group, calculated as a ratio of total borrowings to total assets, for the Reporting Period was approximately 25% (2020: approximately 30%).

At 31 March 2021, the Group had net current liabilities of approximately HK$118 million (2020: approximately HK$43 million). Current ratio at 31 March 2021 was approximately 0.80 (2020: approximately 0.95). The cash and cash equivalents of the Group at 31 March 2021 were approximately HK$67 million (2020: approximately HK$198 million).

CAPITAL STRUCTURE

The total equity attributable to equity holders of the Company amounted to approximately HK$129 million at 31 March 2021 (2020: approximately HK$136 million).

FOREIGN EXCHANGE EXPOSURE

The Group mainly operates in Hong Kong, the PRC and Thailand with the majority of business transactions being denominated and settled in Hong Kong dollars ("HK$"), Renminbi ("RMB") and Baht, which are the functional currencies of relevant subsidiaries. The Group's trade receivables arising from the operation of merchant acquiring business in Thailand are mainly denominated in United States dollars ("US$"). The directors of the Company (the "Directors") and senior management have monitored the related foreign currency risk exposure closely. Pursuant to a written foreign currency hedging policy approved by the Directors, the Group will enter into foreign currency forward contracts should the needs arise. At 31 March 2021, the Group has no outstanding foreign currency forward contracts for the exchange of US$ with Baht (2020: US$600,000 (equivalent to approximately HK$4,652,000)). The Directors and senior management will continue to monitor the foreign exchange exposure and will consider other applicable derivatives when necessary. Save as disclosed above, the Group did not have other derivatives for hedging against the foreign exchange rate risk at 31 March 2021.

RESULTS AND DIVIDENDS

For the Reporting Period the Group recorded a revenue of approximately HK$83 million (2020: approximately HK$242 million) and a loss attributable to equity holders of the Company of approximately HK$99 million as compared with approximately HK$710 million for the previous financial year. The basic loss per share was 5.73 HK cents (2020: basic loss per share 43.16 HK cents).

The board of Directors (the "Board") does not recommend the payment of a final dividend for the Reporting Period (2020: Nil).

EMPLOYEES AND REMUNERATION POLICY

At 31 March 2021, the Group had a total staff of 192 (2020: 284) of whom 26 (2020: 25) was based in Hong Kong, 150 (2020: 240) were based in the PRC, 15 (2020: 18) were based in Thailand and 1 (2020: 1) was based in Singapore. The Group develops its human resources policies and procedures based on performance, merit and market conditions. The benefits provided by the Group to its employees include discretionary bonuses, medical schemes and share options. - (v) not to incur any unsecured personal loan (either oneoff or accumulated) in an aggregate amount of more than RMB100,000 without written consent of Colourful or its direct or indirect shareholders.

2. Revenue and assets subject to the Colourful Structured Agreements

The revenue attributable to Shanghai Jingyuan (i.e. the Colourful Structured Agreements) amounted to approximately RMB19,205,000 (equivalent to approximately HK$22,026,000) for the year ended 31 March 2021 (2020: approximately RMB56,667,000 (equivalent to approximately HK$63,401,000)). The total assets and net liabilities attributable to Shanghai Jingyuan (i.e. the Colourful Structured Agreements) amounted to approximately RMB176,111,000 (equivalent to approximately HK$90,138,000) (2020: approximately RMB38,321,000 (equivalent to approximately HK$41,737,000)) and RMB73,907,000 (equivalent to approximately HK$87,528,000) (2020: approximately RMB38,011,000 (equivalent to approximately HK$41,496,000)) at 31 March 2021.

3. Reasons for using the Colourful Structured Agreements

Shanghai Jingyuan is principally engaged in the issue and sale of prestige benefits card and it has commissioned its partner banks and credit card centers to sell its benefit cards via telemarketing. The sales of the benefit cards through telemarketing represented over 70% of Shanghai Jingyuan's total revenue. Telemarketing of Shanghai Jingyuan is mainly done through two channels, namely the third party call center and the call centers of the partner banks. However, the partner banks are aware of the privacy issues in respect of customers' data being handled by third party call center and are seeking to separate its sales and marketing functions of the benefit cards from its own call center business. As a result, the partner banks have requested Shanghai Jingyuan to set up its own call center and gradually shift all telemarketing activities to Shanghai Jingyuan's call center.

Shanghai Jingyuan currently possesses the licence for value-added telecommunications business operation (增值電信業務經營許可證) (the "Licence") issued by 中華人民共和國工業和信息化部 (the Ministry of Industry and Information Technology of the PRC) ("MIIT") which permits Shanghai Jingyuan's operation of call center business in the PRC.

According to the PRC legal adviser of the Group, the call center business operated by Shanghai Jingyuan is regulated by the relevant telecommunications regulatory departments of the PRC and is a type of value-added telecommunications business in which foreign investment is restricted. Foreign investment in such business is subject to the pre-approval by the MIIT. According to 外商投資電信企業管理規定 (the Provisions on the Administration of Foreign-funded Telecommunications Enterprises), the ultimate proportion of contribution of the foreign investors of a foreign-funded telecommunications enterprise that is engaged in the value-added services (including the radio paging business in the basic telecommunications services) shall not be more than 50%. In addition, according to 外商投資產業指導目錄(2015年修訂) (the Catalogue of Industries for Guiding Foreign Investment (2015 Amended)), value-added telecommunications business is a business with restricted foreign investment and foreign ownership in such business cannot exceed 50% (except for e-commerce business).

Management Discussion and Analysis

In 2015, Shanghai Jingyuan has obtained the licence for value-added telecommunications business operation issued by 中華人民共和國工業和信息化部 (the Ministry of Industry and Information Technology of the PRC) which allows it to operate the call center business in the PRC and it is expected that the call center of Shanghai Jingyuan will begin operation in mid-2015. Therefore, having considered that the call center operation is an essential sales channel of the benefits card issued by Shanghai Jingyuan, Colourful, Shanghai Jingyuan and Shanghai Jingyuan Shareholders have entered into a series of the Colourful Structured Agreements to enable Colourful to be entitled to the entire economic benefits and to bear the risks of the businesses of Shanghai Jingyuan and to gain control over Shanghai Jingyuan. Each of Shanghai Jingyuan Shareholders has also entered into an Undertaking Letter to safeguard the interest of Colourful and its direct or indirect shareholders.

4. Risks relating to the Colourful Structured Agreements

The PRC government may determine that the Colourful Structured Agreements do not comply with the applicable laws and regulations:

The PRC legal adviser of the Group is of the opinion that the Colourful Structured Agreements do not violate the mandatory laws and regulations in the PRC and are not considered to be in violation of Article 52 of the PRC Contract Law, which renders void any contracts deemed to be “concealing illegal intentions with a lawful form,” and the related rules of the General Principle of Civil Law of the PRC, and therefore they are valid, binding and enforceable among relevant parties. However, the PRC legal adviser of the Group is also of the view that there can be no assurance that the Colourful Structured Agreements will be deemed by the relevant governmental or judicial authorities to be in compliance with the existing or future applicable PRC laws and regulations, or the relevant governmental or judicial authorities may in the future interpret the existing laws or regulations in the way that the Colourful Structured Agreements will be deemed to be in compliance of the PRC laws and regulations.

The Colourful Structured Agreements may not be as effective as direct ownership in providing control over Shanghai Jingyuan:

The Group relies on contractual arrangements under the Colourful Structured Agreements with Shanghai Jingyuan to operate the benefits card business in the PRC. These contractual arrangements may not be as effective in providing the Group with control over Shanghai Jingyuan as direct ownership in rare circumstances. If the Group had direct ownership of Shanghai Jingyuan, the Group would be able to deal with the equity interests in and the assets of Shanghai Jingyuan under any winding up situation.

Shanghai Jingyuan Shareholders may have potential conflict of interests with the Group:

The Group's control over Shanghai Jingyuan is based on the contractual arrangement under the Colourful Structured Agreements. Therefore, conflict of interests of Shanghai Jingyuan Shareholders will adversely affect the interests of the Company.

The contractual arrangements under the Colourful Structured Agreements may be subject to scrutiny of the PRC tax authorities and transfer pricing adjustments and additional tax may be imposed:

The Group could face material adverse tax consequences if the PRC tax authorities determine that the contractual arrangements under the Colourful Structured Agreements were not entered into based on arm's length negotiations. If the PRC tax authorities determine that the Colourful Structured Agreements were not entered into on an arm's length basis, they may adjust the Group's income and expenses for PRC tax purposes in the form of a transfer pricing adjustment. A transfer pricing adjustment could adversely affect the Group's financial position by increasing the relevant tax liability without reducing the tax liabilities of Shanghai Jingyuan, and this could further result in late payment fees and other penalties to Shanghai Jingyuan for under-paid taxes. As a result, any transfer pricing adjustment could have a material adverse effect on the Group's financial position and results of operations.

Management Discussion and Analysis

The Company does not have any insurance which covers the risks relating to the Colourful Structured Agreements and the transactions contemplated thereunder:

The insurance of the Group does not cover the risks relating to the Colourful Structured Agreements and the transactions contemplated thereunder and the Company has no intention to purchase any new insurance in this regard. If any risk arises from the Colourful Structured Agreements in the future, such as those affecting the enforceability of the Colourful Structured Agreements and the relevant agreements for the transactions contemplated thereunder and the operation of Shanghai Jingyuan, the results of the Group may be adversely affected.

Certain provisions in the Colourful Structured Agreements may not be enforceable under the PRC laws:

The Colourful Structured Agreements include a clause in relation to dispute resolution among the parties where upon request by a disputing party, the courts in the PRC, Hong Kong and Cayman Islands shall have the power to grant interim remedies, such as withholding or freezing of the assets or on the equity interests of the party in breach. Upon the coming into effect of the relevant arbitral award, any party shall have the right to apply to the courts in the abovementioned jurisdictions for execution of such award. However, due to restrictions of the PRC laws, the PRC legal adviser of the Group is of the view that, even though the Colourful Structured Agreements provide that overseas courts (i.e. courts in Hong Kong and the Cayman Islands) shall have the power to grant interim remedies, such interim remedies (even if so granted by courts in Hong Kong or the Cayman Islands in favour of an aggrieved party) may not be recognised or enforced by the PRC courts. As a result, in the event that Shanghai Jingyuan or any of Shanghai Jingyuan Shareholders breaches the terms of the Colourful Structured Agreements, the Company may not be able to obtain sufficient remedies in a timely manner, and its ability to exert effective control over Shanghai Jingyuan could be materially and adversely affected.

The Company may incur substantial costs when the equity interests in Shanghai Jingyuan are transferred from Shanghai Jingyuan Shareholders to the Group:

As advised by the PRC legal adviser of the Group, under the current PRC laws, the legal or regulatory restriction in exercising the Equity Interests Purchase Option is 外商投資電信企業管理規定 (the Provisions on the Administration of Foreign-funded Telecommunications Enterprises) and 外商投資產業指導目錄(2015年修定) (the Catalogue of Industries for Guiding Foreign Investment (2015 Amended)). The Company will unwind the Colourful Structured Agreements and procure Colourful to acquire the equity interests of Shanghai Jingyuan as soon as the relevant foreign investment restrictions in the PRC no longer exist. However, even if the foreign ownership restriction is relaxed, the transfer of the equity interests in Shanghai Jingyuan from Shanghai Jingyuan Shareholders to the Group may still be subject to substantial costs.

5. Material change

Saved as disclosed above, as at the date of this annual report, there is no material change in the Colourful Structured Agreements entered between Shanghai Jingyuan and Colourful and/or the circumstances under which they were adopted.

6. Unwinding of the Colourful Structured Agreements

The Company has undertaken to unwind the Colourful Structured Agreements entered between Shanghai Jingyuan and Colourful as soon as the relevant foreign investment restrictions in the PRC no longer exist such that the Company is allowed to hold interests in Shanghai Jingyuan directly or indirectly.

Management Discussion and Analysis

However, as at the date of this annual report, there is no unwinding of any of the Colourful Structured Agreements entered between Shanghai Jingyuan and Colourful nor any changes to the relevant foreign investment restrictions in the PRC.

(ii) The Shenzhen Yongle Structured Agreements

On 25 May 2014, the Group entered into a framework agreement (the “Framework Agreement”) on the acquisition of 33% interests in Beijing Weike, which is a company established in the PRC with limited liability and holds 90% equity interests in Open Union. On 23 September 2014, upon completion of the acquisition of 33% interest in Beijing Weike and its 90%-owned subsidiary, Open Union (collectively referred as to the “Beijing Weike Group”), which are engaged in the issuance and acceptance of prepaid cards and the provision of internet payment service, through the Shenzhen Yongle Structured Agreements (as defined below) with 上海雍勒信息技术有限公司 (Shanghai Yongle Information Technology Company Limited*, “Shanghai Yongle”), at an aggregated cash consideration of RMB156,000,000 (equivalent to approximately HK$196,076,000) (the “Beijing Weike JV Transaction”), Beijing Weike is classified as a joint venture of the Group and accounted for in the Group’s consolidated financial statements under the equity method. Details of the Beijing Weike JV Transaction are set out in the Company’s circular dated 1 September 2014.

Upon completion of the Beijing Weike Acquisition on 27 January 2015, Shenzhen Yongle, through Shanghai Yongle, acquired the remaining 67% interest in Beijing Weike at an aggregated consideration of RMB312,000,000 (equivalent to approximately HK$392,152,000) which was settled by cash. Management Discussion and Analysis

Further details of the Shenzhen Yongle Structured Agreements are set out in the Company's circulars dated 1 September 2014 and 29 December 2014.

2. Revenue and assets subject to the Shenzhen Yongle Structured Agreements

The revenue attributable to Shanghai Yongle (i.e. the Shenzhen Yongle Structured Agreements) amounted to approximately RMB30,224,000 (equivalent to approximately HK$34,664,000) for the year ended 31 March 2021 (2020: approximately RMB55,027,000 (equivalent to approximately HK$61,685,000)). The total assets and net assets attributable to Shanghai Yongle (i.e. the Shenzhen Yongle Structured Agreements) amounted to approximately RMB821,343,000 (equivalent to approximately HK$972,717,000) (2020: approximately RMB819,747,000 (equivalent to approximately HK$894,921,000)) and RMB434,644,000 (equivalent to approximately HK$514,749,000) (2020: approximately RMB441,476,000 (equivalent to approximately HK$481,961,000)) at 31 March 2021.

3. Reasons for using the Shenzhen Yongle Structured Agreements

Open Union is engaged in the issuance and acceptance of prepaid cards and internet payment services in the PRC and it possesses a licence which allows it to issue and accept prepaid cards within the PRC on a nationwide basis. The payment service business currently engaged by Open Union is subject to regulations in accordance with, among others, the "Administrative Measures Relating to Payment Services by Non-financial Institutions (非金融機構支付服務管理辦法)" (hereinafter referred to as the "Payment Service Measures") promulgated by the PBOC. The Payment Service Measures stipulates that non-financial institutions must not engage in the provision of payment services (such as online payments, the issue and acceptance of prepaid cards, and POS systems) without first obtaining an approval and a payment service licence from the PBOC. In accordance with Article 9 of the Payment Service Measures, regulations and rules addressing the scope of business and ownership restrictions for foreign investment in non-financial institutions engaged in payment services shall be separately stipulated by the PBOC and approved by the State Council of the PRC. At the Latest Practicable Date, the PBOC has not yet stipulated any relevant rules and regulations nor granted any payment service licence to any foreign invested enterprise intending to be engaged in the provision of prepaid card business and internet payment services.

Management Discussion and Analysis

Moreover, according to the Guidance of Foreign Enterprise Investments (2011 Amended) the internet payment service provided by Open Union is a type of value-added telecommunications business where foreign investment is restricted. According to the Administrative Provisions on Foreign-Invested Telecommunications Enterprises, the foreign investor of a foreign-invested telecommunications services provider needs to demonstrate a good track record and experience in providing value-added telecommunications services. Based on the consultation with the MIIT by the PRC Legal Adviser, it is understood that if the nature or substance of business run by a foreign enterprise is the same or similar to the value-added services in the telecommunications industry as described in 電信業務分類目錄 (“Category of Telecommunications Businesses”) of the PRC, such foreign enterprise can be deemed to have the required operating track records and operating experience in value added telecommunications industry. Since the Group has been conducting business of card acceptance using public telecommunications networks in Thailand, the PRC Legal Adviser considers that the industry experience requirements of the MIIT should be satisfied.

After consultation with the PBOC, the Company was advised by the PRC Legal Adviser that since no relevant administrative measures have been promulgated by the State Council of the PRC, the PBOC normally does not accept any application for foreign direct investment in (i) a PRC company holding a payment service licence (which allows the holder to engage in internet payment and issuance and acceptance of prepaid card businesses); and (ii) the parent company of such licensed company (irrespective of the proportion of interests to be invested). Therefore, the PRC Legal Adviser considers that the PBOC currently does not allow foreign investors to invest in the internet payment business either directly or indirectly and irrespective of the proportion of such investment. Thus, it is not possible for the Group to participate in prepaid card business and internet payment services in the PRC through direct or indirect acquisition of the equity interests in Open Union and the most feasible way in achieving this is to provide capital to Shanghai Yongle by way of loans to facilitate its acquisition of Beijing Weike, which holding 100% equity interests (2020: 100%) in Open Union, and to obtain effective control over and the rights to enjoy the economic benefits in the assets of Beijing Weike, including 100% equity interests (2020: 100%) in Open Union through the Shenzhen Yongle Structured Agreements and other arrangements under the New Framework Agreement.

4. Risks relating to the Shenzhen Yongle Structured Agreements

The PRC government may determine that the Shenzhen Yongle Structured Agreements and the Loan Agreements do not comply with the applicable laws and regulations:

The PRC Legal Adviser is of the opinion that the Shenzhen Yongle Structured Agreements and the Loan Agreements do not violate the mandatory laws and regulations in the PRC and are not considered to be in violation of Article 52 of the PRC Contract Law, which renders void any contracts deemed to be “concealing illegal intentions with a lawful form”; and the related rules of the General Principle of Civil Law of the PRC, and therefore they are valid, binding and enforceable among relevant parties. However, the PRC Legal Adviser is also of the view that there can be no assurance that the Shenzhen Yongle Structured Agreements and the Loan Agreements will be deemed by the relevant governmental or judicial authorities to be in compliance with the existing or future applicable PRC laws and regulations, or the relevant governmental or judicial authorities may in the future interpret the existing laws or regulations with the result that the Shenzhen Yongle Structured Agreements and the Loan Agreements will be deemed to be in compliance of the PRC laws and regulations. In particular, any future acquisition of rights, benefits or assets of or equity interests in Open Union pursuant to the Shenzhen Yongle Structured Agreements and the Loan Agreements will be subject to the laws and regulations then applicable.

Management Discussion and Analysis

The Shenzhen Yongle Structured Agreements may not be as effective as direct ownership in providing control over Open Union:

The Group relies on the Shenzhen Yongle Structured Agreements with Shanghai Yongle to operate the prepaid card business and internet payment services of Open Union (i.e. value-added telecommunications service) in the PRC. These Shenzhen Yongle Structured Agreements may not be as effective in providing the Group with control over Open Union as direct ownership in rare circumstance. If the Group had direct ownership of Open Union, the Group would be able to deal with the equity interests in and the assets of Open Union in winding up situation rather than acquiring such assets by exercising its exclusive acquisition right which are subject to the approval of the PBOC.

The Shanghai Yongle Shareholders may potentially have a conflict of interests with the Group:

The Group's control over Open Union is based on the contractual arrangement under the Shenzhen Yongle Structured Agreements and the Loan Agreements with, among others, Shanghai Yongle. Therefore, conflict of interests of the Shanghai Yongle Shareholders will adversely affect the interests of the Company. Since the Shanghai Yongle Shareholders are employees of the Company, they are required to follow instructions of the Company. However, there is no absolute certainty that the Shanghai Yongle Shareholders will act in favour of the Group at all times and the Group may suffer from any potential conflict of interests.

The Shenzhen Yongle Structured Agreements under the Framework Agreement may be subject to scrutiny of the PRC tax authorities and transfer pricing adjustments and additional tax may be imposed:

The Group could face material adverse tax consequences if the PRC tax authorities determine that the arrangements under the Shenzhen Yongle Structured Agreements, the Loan Agreements, the agreements in relation to the exclusive acquisition rights of the Company to acquire Open Union were not entered into based on arm's length negotiations. If the PRC tax authorities determine that these agreements were not entered into on an arm's length basis, they may adjust our income and expenses for PRC tax purposes in the form of a transfer pricing adjustment. A transfer pricing adjustment could adversely affect the Group's financial position by increasing the relevant tax liability without reducing the tax liabilities of Shanghai Yongle, and this could further result in late payment fees and other penalties to Shanghai Yongle for under-paid taxes. As a result, any transfer pricing adjustment could have a material adverse effect on the Group's financial position and results of operations.

The Company does not have any insurance which covers the risks relating to the Framework Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereunder:

The insurance of the Group does not cover the risks relating to the Framework Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereunder and the Company has no intention to purchase any new insurance in this regard. If any risk arises from the Framework Agreement in the future, such as those affecting the enforceability of the Shenzhen Yongle Structured Agreements and the relevant agreements for the transactions contemplated thereunder and the operation of Shanghai Yongle, Beijing Weike and Open Union, the results of the Group may be adversely affected.

Certain provisions in the Shenzhen Yongle Structured Agreements and the Loan Agreements may not be enforceable under PRC laws:

The Shenzhen Yongle Structured Agreements and the Loan Agreements contain a provision for resolving disputes by arbitration at South China International Economic and Trade Arbitration Commission, Shenzhen in accordance with its then prevailing arbitration rules. The Shenzhen Yongle Structured Agreements and the Loan Agreements include a clause in relation to dispute resolution among the parties where upon request by a disputing party, the courts in the PRC, Hong Kong and Cayman Islands shall have the power to grant interim remedies, such as withholding or freezing of the assets or on the equity interests of the party in breach. Upon the coming into effect of the relevant arbitral award, any party shall have the right to apply to the courts in the abovementioned jurisdictions for execution of such award.

Management Discussion and Analysis

However, due to restrictions of the PRC laws, the PRC Legal Adviser is of the view that, even though the Shenzhen Yongle Structured Agreements and the Loan Agreements provide that overseas courts (i.e. courts in Hong Kong and the Cayman Islands) shall have the power to grant interim remedies, such interim remedies (even if so granted by courts in Hong Kong or the Cayman Islands in favour of an aggrieved party) may not be recognised or enforced by the PRC courts. As a result, in the event that Shanghai Yongle or any of the Shanghai Yongle Shareholders breaches the terms of the Shenzhen Yongle Structured Agreements and the Loan Agreements, the Company may not be able to obtain sufficient remedies in a timely manner, and its ability to exert effective control over Shanghai Yongle, Beijing Weike and Open Union could be materially and adversely affected.

The Company may incur substantial costs when the ownership of Shanghai Yongle is transferred to Shenzhen Yongle:

The Group does not currently hold any equity interests in Shanghai Yongle and the Group (through Shenzhen Yongle) maintains effective control over Shanghai Yongle under the Shenzhen Yongle Structured Agreements. Pursuant to the Company's undertaking in relation to the contractual arrangement under the Framework Agreement and the terms of the Framework Agreement and the Shenzhen Yongle Structured Agreements, the Company will unwind the Shenzhen Yongle Structured Agreements and the Loan Agreements and procure Shenzhen Yongle to acquire the equity interests of Shanghai Yongle as soon as the relevant foreign investment restrictions in the PRC no longer exist. As a result, the exact time for such acquisition is uncertain and it is possible that such acquisition may be subject to substantial costs which may materially affect the financial positions and results of the Company.

5. Material change

Saved as disclosed above, as at the date of this annual report, there is no material change in the Shenzhen Yongle Structured Agreements and/or the circumstances under which they were adopted.

6. Unwinding of the Shenzhen Yongle Structured Agreements

The Company has undertaken to unwind the Shenzhen Yongle Structured Agreements as soon as the relevant foreign investment restrictions in the PRC no longer exist such that the Company is allowed to hold interests in Open Union directly or indirectly.

However, as at the date of this annual report, there is no unwinding of any of the Shenzhen Yongle Structured Agreements or failure to unwind when the restrictions that led to the adoption of the Shenzhen Yongle Structure Agreements are removed.

Environmental, Social and Governance Report

OVERVIEW & REPORTING BOUNDARY

China Smartpay Group Holdings Limited (the “Company”) is pleased to present this Environmental, Social and Governance Report in accordance with the Environmental, Social and Governance Reporting Guidelines (the “ESG Guidelines”) in Appendix 20 of the GEM Listing Rules to disclose the Company’s sustainable development action from 1 April 2020 to 31 March 2021. This report which included the Company’s business operations in Hong Kong, the People’s Republic of China (the “PRC” or “China”) and its subsidiaries in Thailand, is consistent with the scope of the annual report.

The Company has been engaged primarily in the businesses of prepaid cards and internet payment and prestige benefits in the PRC. It also holds 32.5% equity of Oriental Payment Group Holdings Limited (“OPG”, together with its subsidiaries, the “OPG Group”), a listed entity in Hong Kong GEM board that was spun off from the Company three years ago. OPG operates merchant acquiring business in Thailand for the PRC payment means. The Company divested 75% of internet micro-credit business in this reporting year.

During this reporting year, international travel restrictions remained effective in most countries, and the hotel business were relied solely on domestic customers and tourists within the PRC. These factors led to a continued pressure on the prestige benefits business in China and merchant acquiring business in Thailand.

This May, the Company successfully renewed its license from People’s Bank of China (“PBOC”) for national internet payment and prepay service for another five years, thanks to the unwavering focus from the management in overhauling the Company’s compliance system following an incident occurred in 2019. In order to build a more resilient operation satisfying regulatory requirements, the focus of this business unit among other competing operational priorities in the reporting year, was to roll out the upgraded procedures and monitor the execution effectively, as well as conduct internal trainings. At the same time, the Company expanded the risk management and internal audit to capture early signs of potential loopholes in Anti-Money Laundering (“AML”).

STAKEHOLDER ENGAGEMENT

Despite of the pandemic and uncertain business outlook, the Company kept all stakeholder engagement channels open as an important component of our day-to-day business dealings.

Environmental, Social and Governance Report

Stakeholder feedbacks received during this reporting year were mostly directly or indirectly associated with the pandemic restriction triggered situations. For instance, the service of prestige benefits was severely affected due to contingent closure of many hotels and restaurants, as a result the Company received customer complaints on the reliability of our services. Employees were concerned about their job security as they experienced the sluggishness of our business caused by the pandemic restrictions.

However, the management team remains confident these problems will get resolved as the Company resumes its business activity with renewed license along with the turnaround of overall economic environment following the vaccination in China and overseas. Our customer service team addressed complaints via hotlines and emails or text messages. Human Resources supervisors took initiatives to talk with staff who were in need.

MATERIALITY AND MATERIAL ISSUE

Among many external market challenges coupled with the urgency to restore compliance effectiveness, the Board deemed the internal reform of ensuring regulatory compliance in prepaid cards and internet payment business being the most material issue for this reporting year.

Under his leadership together with the management, the compliance rebuilding program of the prepaid cards and internet payment business was conducted around five major areas covering consumer rights, business operation, technical specification, anti-money laundering and industry practices. These were needed changes and the Board is confident that the management will be more focused than ever in expanding merchant network and growing customer base so as to groom a healthy eco-system for a more resilient business going forward.

Environmental, Social and Governance Report

AML activities were required to be carried out before, during and post transaction with rigor, following strictly the internal policies and procedures to achieve the intended goals. In addition, the Company leveraged internal training to bring AML on top of the radar among all staff. In this reporting year, a 40 minutes training session, "Anti-money laundering, we are Serious!", was organized and 51 staff and management personals attended.

- BEFORE enrolling a new merchant, a comprehensive set of information and documents is collected. All information is thoroughly reviewed and validated through channels such as risk information sharing system of the Payment Clearing Association and China UnionPay, risk information management system developed by the PBOC, the anti-money laundering blacklist system, execution information website of Supreme People's Court of the PRC, etc. Further investigation and verification may be carried out as necessary with the Administration for Industry and Commerce, the merchant's bank or third parties to order to establish a thorough and complete profile of the merchant.

PRODUCT RESPONSIBILITY

Prepaid Cards and Internet Payment

The reduced business scale resulting from Covid-19 did not distract our focus on product quality and the system stability in prepaid cards and internet payment. The Company reviewed and upgraded multiple product and customer related internal policies to ensure the grounds for better services were duly laid.

Customer service policy is reviewed at least once a year to cater the evolving customer needs and compliance requirements. All employees handling customer inquiries are duly trained, and their interactions with customers are properly documented, forming a solid base for customer satisfaction analysis.

The Company places equal importance on customer education as part of complaints handling process. Asymmetry in financial product knowledge compounded with consumer rights and personal data protection illiteracy render many customers incapable to identify risk and protect their financial interests. Therefore, the Company hosted three events that were open to the public on consumer rights and data privacy protection, as well as financial knowledge promotion.

Given prepaid cards and internet payment business is relatively nascent, it has become apparent that additional support and options are needed by the group of elderly and senior citizens. This February, the Company issued a new policy to guide product and service development becoming more elderly friendly.

Elderly-Friendly Payment Service Policy

- ✓ On-site service when appropriate
- ✓ Using elderly friendly language with extra patience
- ✓ Complaints handled within 2-5 working days
- ✓ Assist and act as the elderly intended with no manipulation

Prestige Benefits

Prestige benefits service, which issues redeemable coupons as benefit for customers of partnered brands and corporations, was hindered as a large number of participating merchants reduced their operation with less and inflexible opening hours or stayed closed during early period of the pandemic. As a result, certain customers had limited or no opportunity to redeem their coupons before they expire. To ensure our product quality and most importantly the interest of customers protected, we setup an emergency task force who negotiated with major partners for a compensation scheme, that either offered extension or alternative services/products. Such timely scheme was taken positively by customers and society at large. We are grateful to our partners for their thoughtfulness and generosity rendered during this difficult period of time.

Merchant Acquiring

As an integral part of overseas merchant payment infrastructure, we have always strived to improve the speed and operational efficiency of payment links to improve the overall end-user experience. Strict Know Your Customer (“KYC”) process, transaction monitoring and exception handling mechanism were in place for risk control purposes. Customer’s feedback also plays a significant role in developing a reliable and desirable services. We value all customer inputs. In addition to our day-to-day business dealings, we have a customer service hotline and email to ensure that all customers have a timely channel to reach us. All collected information is filed properly and followed up until loop closed.

The water consumption, sewage and solid waste disposal involved in our operations are handled by the office building's property management. Separate consumption data is not readily available to office tenants. The amount of consumption and waste is limited to that generated by the company's employees during office hours, which is estimated to be insignificant.

During the reporting year, the Company fully complied with relevant laws and regulations including but not limited to the Waste Disposal Ordinance of Hong Kong, the Environmental Protection Law of the PRC, Thailand's "Enhancement and Conservation of National Environmental Quality Act, B.E. 2535535.)

COMMUNITY

The Company fully acknowledges its responsibility to the community and always seeks ways to give back within its capacity. Under privileged children's well-being has been the focus our community work. Before the pandemic, we regularly organised employees to visit and volunteer at orphanages and held fundraising events. During this reporting year, our community activities were held at a smaller scale to avoid large crowd gathering facing the pandemic. We organised sessions to educate the community, especially senior citizens, helping them to better adapt to this internet and mobile area.

To the members of
China Smartpay Group Holdings Limited
(Incorporated in the Cayman Islands with limited liability)

OPINION

We have audited the consolidated financial statements of China Smartpay Group Holdings Limited (the “Company”) and its subsidiaries (together the “Group”) set out on pages 76 to 179, which comprise the consolidated statement of financial position as at 31 March 2021, and the consolidated income statement, the consolidated statement of comprehensive income, the consolidated statement of changes in equity and the consolidated statement of cash flows for the year then ended, and notes to the consolidated financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies.

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements give a true and fair view of the financial position of the Group as at 31 March 2021, and of its financial performance and cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards (“HKFRSs”) issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants (the “HKICPA”) and have been properly prepared in compliance with the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance.

BASIS FOR OPINION

We conducted our audit in accordance with Hong Kong Standards on Auditing (“HKSAs”) issued by the HKICPA. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the “Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements” section of our report. We are independent of the Group in accordance with the HKICPA's Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants (the “Code”), and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the Code. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

MATERIAL UNCERTAINTY RELATED TO GOING CONCERN

We draw attention to the “Going concern” section in Note 3 to the consolidated financial statements concerning the adoption of the going concern basis on which the consolidated financial statements have been prepared. The Group incurred loss from continuing operations of approximately HK$121,822,000 for the year ended 31 March 2021 and, as at that date, the Group had net current liabilities of approximately HK$117,682,000. In addition, the Company is required to settle the fixed rate senior secured bonds in the aggregate principal amount of approximately US$26,972,000 (equivalent to approximately HK$210,385,000) on demand. These conditions indicate that a material uncertainty exists that may cast significant doubt on the Group's ability to continue as a going concern. The board of directors, having considered the measures being taken by the Group, are of the opinion that the Group would be able to continue as a going concern. Our opinion is not modified in respect of this matter.

Independent Auditor's Report

KEY AUDIT MATTERS

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgement, were of most significance in our audit of the consolidated financial statements for the year ended 31 March 2021. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the consolidated financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters. In addition to the matter described in the "Material Uncertainty Related to Going Concern" section, we have determined the matters described below to be the key audit matters to be communicated in our report.

Key Audit Matter

Control over entities under structured agreements (the "Relevant Entities")

Refer to significant accounting policy and critical accounting estimate and judgement in Note 3 and the disclosures of the Relevant Entities in Notes 14(a) and 14(c) to the consolidated financial statements

The Group, through certain of its indirect wholly-owned subsidiaries, entered into a series of structured agreements (the "Structured Agreements") in the People's Republic of China (the "PRC") with the Relevant Entities and the legal owners of the Relevant Entities. The Group, through the Structured Agreements, has exposure and rights to variable returns from its involvement with the Relevant Entities and has ability to affect those returns through its power over the Relevant Entities. Therefore, the Group is considered to have control over the Relevant Entities.

In determining the extent of the Group's involvement with and control over the Relevant Entities, the management considers a number of factors including whether the Group has: (1) exercised effective financial and operational control over the Relevant Entities; (2) exercised equity holders' voting rights of the Relevant Entities; (3) received substantially all of the economic interest returns generated by the Relevant Entities; (4) obtained an irrevocable and exclusive right to purchase the remaining entire equity interests in the Relevant Entities from the respective equity holders; and (5) obtained a pledge over the entire equity interests of the Relevant Entities from their respective equity holders under the Structured Agreements.

We have identified the above matter as a key audit matter because the Relevant Entities are material to the Group and the determination of whether the Group has control over the Relevant Entities involves a significant degree of management judgement.

How our audit addressed the Key Audit Matter

Our key procedures, among others, included:

- a) evaluating the terms in the Structured Agreements in connection with the Group's control over the Relevant Entities;
- b) understanding how the Group controls the daily business operation of the Relevant Entities;
- c) evaluating the management's assessment in relation to the control over the Relevant Entities according to HKFRS 10 Consolidated Financial Statements;
- d) obtaining an updated legal opinion from the Company's PRC legal counsel regarding whether the Structured Agreements are in compliance with relevant PRC laws and regulations and are legally binding and enforceable; and
- e) evaluating the Company's PRC legal counsel's competence, capabilities and objectivity.

Key Audit Matter

Recognition of revenue from prepaid cards and internet payment business and internet micro-credit business

Refer to significant accounting policy in Note 3 and the disclosures of revenue (continuing and discontinued operations), loan receivables and unutilised float funds in Notes 6, 12 and 25(c) to the consolidated financial statements respectively

The Group maintains sophisticated information technology ("IT") systems in (1) prepaid cards and internet payment business, in order to keep track the point of service provision for each transaction and also to keep track the issuance and subsequent consumption and utilisation of prepaid cards and the internet payment accounts; and (2) internet micro-credit business, in order to review the creditability of each borrower, monitor each outstanding loan balance and calculate interest income arising from the loans. Revenue recognition in both businesses highly relies on information generated from the IT systems.

We have identified the above matter as a key audit matter because revenue is one of the Group's key performance indicators and it involves complicated IT systems, all of which give rise to an inherent risk that revenue could be recorded in an incorrect accounting period or could be subject to manipulation to meet targets or expectations.

How our audit addressed the Key Audit Matter

Our key procedures, among others, included:

- a) with the involvement of our IT experts, assessing the design, implementation and operating effectiveness of the Group's general IT controls and key application controls over the Group's IT systems which govern revenue recognition, including access controls, controls over program changes, interfaces among different systems and key manual internal controls over revenue recognition;
- b) evaluating our IT experts' competence, capabilities and objectivity;
- c) testing the key controls over the calculation of the amounts billed to merchants and borrowers and capturing and recording of the revenue transactions;
- d) reconciling revenue recognised in the systems to the general ledger and assessing whether the reconciling items were properly supported by underlying documentation, on sample basis;
- e) testing the key controls over the authorisation of the rate changes and the input of such rates to the systems;
- f) performing analytical procedures on revenue from prepaid cards and internet payment business and internet micro-credit business by extracting each type of revenue from the Group's IT systems;
- g) inspecting underlying documents for any journal entries which were considered to be significant or met other specified risk-based criteria; and
- h) inspecting the key terms and conditions of contracts with business partners and borrowers to assess if there were any terms and conditions that may affect the accounting treatment of the related revenue on sample basis.

Independent Auditor's Report

Key Audit Matter

How our audit addressed the Key Audit Matter

Impairment of interests in associates

Refer to significant accounting policy and critical accounting estimate and judgement in Note 3 and the disclosures of interests in associates in Note 15 to the consolidated financial statements

At 31 March 2021, the Group had interests in associates (net of impairment loss) of approximately HK$295,632,000 (2020: approximately HK$206,351,000).

The Group estimated the recoverable amount of interests in associates, with reference to the value-in-use (the "VIU") calculations using cash flow projections, when an impairment indication existed. In carrying out the impairment assessments, significant management judgement was used to identify and evaluate indication of impairment and determine the key assumptions underlying the VIU calculations.

Management has engaged an independent professional valuer to provide assistance in estimating the recoverable amount of the interests in associates. No impairment loss on the interests in associates has been recognised for the current reporting period.

We have identified the above matter as a key audit matter because those items are material to the Group and the interests in associates and assessment of impairment indication on each investment in associate involved a significant degree of management judgement and therefore was subject to an inherent risk of error.

Our key procedures, among others, included:

- a) evaluating the appropriateness and reasonableness of the Group's policies and process to identify indicators of impairment of interests in associates to perform the impairment test;
- b) assessing the appropriateness of the valuation methodologies used by the independent professional valuer and management to estimate recoverable amount of interests in associates;
- c) reconciling key input data applied in the VIU calculations to reliable supporting evidence;
- d) evaluating the independent professional valuer's competence, capabilities and objectivity;
- e) evaluating the reasonableness of key assumptions based on our knowledge and understanding of the businesses and industry; and
- f) evaluating the sensitivity of the impairment tests to changes in key assumptions.

Key Audit Matter

Recoverability assessment of trade and other receivables

Refer to significant accounting policy and critical accounting estimate and judgement in Note 3, the disclosures of trade and other receivables in Note 22 and the disclosures of the financial risk management — credit risk in Note 37(a)(iii) to the consolidated financial statements

At 31 March 2021, the Group had trade and other receivables of approximately HK$163,162,000 (2020: approximately HK$148,435,000), net of loss allowances of approximately HK$67,415,000 (2020: approximately HK$55,408,000).

Management performed credit evaluations for the Group's customers and assessed expected credit losses of trade and other receivables. These assessments were focused on the customers' settlement record, their current repayment ability and forward-looking information, and also took into account information specific to respective customer as well as pertaining to the economic environment in which the customer operate.

All of these assessments involved significant judgements of the management.

We have identified the above matter as a key audit matter because the balances are material to the Group and significant degree of judgements were made by the management in assessing the credit standing of the Group's customers and therefore the estimation of expected credit losses of trade and other receivables.

How our audit addressed the Key Audit Matter

Our key procedures, among others, included:

- a) obtaining management's assessment of expected credit losses of trade and other receivables and assessing the reasonableness of the key underlying information referenced by the management;
- b) evaluating the methodologies, inputs and assumptions used by the Group in calculating the expected credit loss;
- c) checking and assessing whether the loss allowance was considered available forward-looking information, the debtors' ageing analysis, settlement record and history of default; and
- d) in respect of receivables of individual debtors which had not been identified by management as potentially impaired on sample basis, corroborating management's assessment with the external evidence obtained, such as public and background information available to us, and assessing the debtors' payment records during the current period and subsequent to the end of the reporting period, as well as the historical collection records.

Independent Auditor's Report

OTHER INFORMATION

The directors of the Company are responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the Company's 2021 annual report but does not include the consolidated financial statements and our auditor's report thereon.

Our opinion on the consolidated financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the consolidated financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the consolidated financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF DIRECTORS AND THOSE CHARGED WITH GOVERNANCE FOR THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The directors of the Company are responsible for the preparation of the consolidated financial statements that give a true and fair view in accordance with HKFRSs issued by the HKICPA and the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance, and for such internal control as the directors determine is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, the directors of the Company are responsible for assessing the Group's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the directors of the Company either intend to liquidate the Group or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with governance are responsible for overseeing the Group's financial reporting process.

AUDITOR'S RESPONSIBILITIES FOR THE AUDIT OF THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. This report is made solely to you, as a body and for no other purpose. We do not assume responsibility towards or accept liability to any other person for the contents of this report.

Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with HKSAAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with HKSAAs, we exercise professional judgement and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Group's internal control.

- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the directors.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of the directors' use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Group's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Group to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the group audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, actions taken to eliminate threats or safeguards applied.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

1. CORPORATE INFORMATION

China Smartpay Group Holdings Limited (the “Company”) was incorporated in the Cayman Islands on 12 December 2007 as an exempted company with limited liability. The Company’s shares are listed on GEM of The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (the “Stock Exchange”). The Company’s registered office is located at Cricket Square, Hutchins Drive, P.O. Box 2681, Grand Cayman, KY1-1111, Cayman Islands. The Company is an investment holding company and the principal activities of its subsidiaries and associates are set out in Notes 14 and 15 to the consolidated financial statements, respectively.

The Company and its subsidiaries are herein collectively referred to as the “Group”.

2. STATEMENT OF COMPLIANCE

The consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards (“HKFRSs”), which collective term includes all individual applicable HKFRSs, Hong Kong Accounting Standards (“HKASs”) and Interpretations issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants (the “HKICPA”), accounting principles generally accepted in Hong Kong and the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance. The consolidated financial statements also comply with the applicable disclosure requirements under the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on GEM of the Stock Exchange (the “GEM Listing Rules”).

The consolidated financial statements have been prepared on a basis consistent with the accounting policies adopted in the 2020 consolidated financial statements, except for the adoption of the new/revised HKFRSs that are relevant to the Group and effective from the current year as set out in Note 3 to the consolidated financial statements. The consolidated financial statements are rounded to the nearest thousand, unless otherwise indicated.

A summary of the principal accounting policies adopted by the Group is set out in Note 3 to the consolidated financial statements.

3. PRINCIPAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Adoption of new/revised HKFRSs

The Group has applied, for the first time, the following new/revised HKFRSs:

Amendments to HKASs 1 and 8	Definition of Material
Amendments to HKAS 39, HKFRSs 7 and 9	Interest Rate Benchmark Reform — Phase 1
Amendments to HKFRS 3	Definition of a Business
Amendments to HKFRS 16	COVID-19-Related Rent Concessions Beyond 30 June 2021

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

3. PRINCIPAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)

Amendments to HKASs 1 and 8: Definition of Material

The amendments clarify the definition of material and align the definition used across HKFRSs.

The adoption of the amendments does not have any significant impact on the consolidated financial statements.

Amendments to HKAS 39, HKFRSs 7 and 9: Interest Rate Benchmark Reform – Phase 1

The amendments modify some specific hedge accounting requirements to provide relief from potential effects of the uncertainties caused by interest rate benchmark reform (the market-wide reform of an interest rate benchmark, including the replacement of an interest rate benchmark with an alternative benchmark). In addition, the amendments require companies to provide additional information to investors about their hedging relationships which are directly affected by these uncertainties.

The adoption of the amendments does not have any significant impact on the consolidated financial statements.

Amendments to HKFRS 3: Definition of a Business

The amendments, among others, revise the definition of a business and include new guidance to evaluate whether an acquired process is substantive.

The adoption of the amendments does not have any significant impact on the consolidated financial statements.

Amendments to HKFRS 16: COVID-19-Related Rent Concessions Beyond 30 June 2021

The amendments exempt lessees from having to consider individual lease contracts to determine whether rent concessions occurring as a direct consequence of the COVID-19 pandemic are lease modifications and allow lessees to account for such rent concessions as if they were not lease modifications. It applies to COVID-19-related rent concessions that reduce lease payments due on or before 30 June 2022. The amendments do not affect lessors.

These amendments shall be applied for annual periods beginning on or after 1 April 2021 with earlier application permitted. The Group has elected to early adopt the amendments in the current year. In accordance with the transition provisions therein, the amendments have been applied retrospectively by the Group recognising the cumulative effect of initially applying the amendments as an adjustment to the opening balance of accumulated losses and therefore the comparative information has not been restated.

The early adoption of the amendments has no impact to the opening accumulated losses at 1 April 2020. The Group recognised changes in leases payments that resulted from rent concessions of approximately HK$136,000 in the profit or loss for the year ended 31 March 2021.

Going concern

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, the directors of the Company (the “Directors”) have given careful consideration to the future liquidity of the Group in light of the fact that the Group’s current liabilities exceeded its current assets by approximately HK$117,682,000 at 31 March 2021 and the Bonds (as defined in Note 29) which is repayable on demand. In addition, the Group incurred a loss from continuing operations of approximately HK$121,822,000 for the year ended 31 March 2021. There is a material uncertainty related to these matters that may cast significant doubt on the Group’s ability to continue as a going concern and, therefore, the Group may be unable to realise its assets and discharge its liabilities in the normal course of business.

The Directors are of the opinion that the Group will have sufficient working capital to finance its operations and to meet its financial obligations for at least the next twelve months from the date of approval of the consolidated financial statements, after taking into consideration of the followings:

- (a) Mr. Zhang Xi, an executive director and the Chairman of the Company (the “Chairman”), has committed and proved his ability to provide continuous financial support to the Group as is necessary to enable the Group to meet its day-to-day operations and its financial obligations as they fall due;
- (b) the Chairman of the Company has provided personal guarantee for the Bonds;
- (c) on 21 May 2021, the Group entered into a placing agreement (as modified and supplemented by the side letter dated 11 June 2021) with the placing agent to place up to 394,603,738 shares (the “Placing Shares”), representing approximately 20% of the existing issued share capital of the Company, at a placing price of HK$0.18 per share. If all the Placing Shares are placed, the estimated net proceeds (after deduction of placing commission and other fees, costs, charges and expenses) will be approximately HK$70.1 million, completion of which has not taken place as the date hereof;
- (d) the Group is negotiating and discussing with the Subscribers (as defined in Note 29) for the existing and future settlement/schedule plan related to the Bonds and actively exploring the availability of fund raising activities as and when appropriate; and
- (e) the Group continues to improve the operating efficiency by implementing measures to tighten cost controls over various operating expenses in order to enhance its profitability and to improve the cash flow from its operation in future.

Having regard to the cash flow projection of the Group, which are prepared assuming that the above measures are successful, the Directors are of the opinion that, in the light of the measures taken to-date, together with the expected results of the other measures in progress, the Group will have sufficient funding resources to satisfy its future working capital and other financing requirements. The Directors believe that the aforementioned measures will be successful, based on the continuous efforts by the management of the Group.

However, should the above measures not be able to implement successfully, the Group may not have sufficient funds to operate as a going concern, in which case adjustments might have to be made to reduce the carrying values of the Group’s assets to their recoverable amounts, to reclassify the non-current assets and non-current liabilities as current assets and current liabilities, respectively and to provide for any further liabilities which might arise.

Basis of measurement

The measurement basis used in the preparation of these consolidated financial statements is historical cost except for certain financial instruments which were stated at fair value as explained in the accounting policies set out below.

Basis of consolidation

The consolidated financial statements comprise the financial statements of the Company and all of its subsidiaries. The financial statements of the subsidiaries are prepared for the same reporting year as that of the Company using consistent accounting policies.

All intra-group balances, transactions, income and expenses and profits and losses resulting from intra-group transactions are eliminated in full. The results of subsidiaries are consolidated from the date on which the Group obtains control and continue to be consolidated until the date when such control ceases.

Non-controlling interests are presented, separately from equity holders of the Company, in the consolidated income statement and the consolidated statement of comprehensive income and within equity in the consolidated statement of financial position. The non-controlling interests in the acquiree, that are present ownership interests and entitle their holders to a proportionate share of the acquiree's net assets in event of liquidation, are measured initially either at fair value or at the present ownership instruments' proportionate share in the recognised amounts of the acquiree's identifiable net assets. This choice of measurement basis is made on an acquisition-by-acquisition basis. Other types of non-controlling interests are initially measured at fair value, unless another measurement basis is required by HKFRSs.

Allocation of total comprehensive income

Profit or loss and each component of other comprehensive income are attributed to the equity holders of the Company and to the non-controlling interests. Total comprehensive income is attributed to the equity holders of the Company and the non-controlling interests even if this results in the non-controlling interests having a deficit balance.

Changes in ownership interests

Changes in the Group's ownership interest in a subsidiary that do not result in a loss of control are accounted for as equity transactions. The carrying amounts of the controlling and non-controlling interests are adjusted to reflect the changes in their relative interests in the subsidiary. Any difference between the amount by which the non-controlling interests are adjusted and the fair value of the consideration paid or received is recognised directly in equity and attributed to the equity holders of the Company.

When the Group loses control of a subsidiary, the profit or loss on disposal is calculated as the difference between (i) the aggregate of the fair value of the consideration received and the fair value of any retained interest determined at the date when the control is lost and (ii) the carrying amount of the assets (including goodwill), and liabilities of the subsidiary and any non-controlling interests at the date when the control is lost. The amounts previously recognised in other comprehensive income in relation to the disposed subsidiary are accounted for on the same basis as would be required if the holding company had directly disposed of the related assets or liabilities. Any investment retained in the former subsidiary and any amounts owed by or to the former subsidiary are accounted for as a financial asset, associate, joint venture or others as appropriate from the date when the control is lost.

Subsidiaries

A subsidiary is an entity that is controlled by the Group. The Group controls an entity when it is exposed, or has rights, to variable returns from its involvement with the entity and has the ability to affect those returns through its power over the entity. The Group reassesses whether it controls an investee if facts and circumstances indicate that there are changes to one or more of the elements of control.

In the Company's statement of financial position which is presented in Note 40 to the consolidated financial statements, an investment in subsidiary is stated at cost less impairment losses. The carrying amount of the investment is reduced to its recoverable amount on an individual basis, if it is higher than the recoverable amount. The results of subsidiaries are accounted for by the Company on the basis of dividends received and receivable.

Associates

An associate is an entity over which the Group has significant influence. Significant influence is the power to participate in the financial and operating policy decisions of the investee but is not control or joint control of those policies.

The Group's investment in associate is accounted for under the equity method of accounting, except when the investment or a portion thereof is classified as held for sale. Under the equity method, the investment is initially recorded at cost and adjusted thereafter for the post-acquisition changes in the Group's share of the investee's net assets and any impairment loss relating to the investment. Except to the extent that the Group has incurred legal or constructive obligations or made payments on behalf of the investee, the Group discontinues recognising its share of further losses when the Group's share of losses of the investee equals or exceeds the carrying amount of its interest in the investee, which includes any long term interests that, in substance, form part of the Group's net investment in the investee.

Goodwill arising on an acquisition of an associate is measured as the excess of the cost of investment over the Group's share of the net fair value of the identifiable assets and liabilities of the acquired associate. Such goodwill is included in interests in associates. On the other hand, any excess of the Group's share of its net fair value of identifiable assets and liabilities over the cost of investment is recognised immediately in profit or loss as an income.

Unrealised profits and losses resulting from transactions between the Group and its associates are eliminated to the extent of the Group's interest in the investees, except where unrealised losses provide evidence of an impairment of the asset transferred, in which case they are recognised immediately in profit or loss.

If an investment in an associate becomes an investment in a joint venture, any retained interest is not remeasured. Instead, the investment continues to be accounted for under the equity method. In all other cases, on the loss of significant influence, the Group remeasures any retained interest in the former investee at fair value. The difference between the fair value of any retained investment and proceeds from disposing of the partial interest in the investee and the carrying amount of the investment at the date when significant influence is lost is recognised in profit or loss. In addition, all amounts previously recognised in other comprehensive income in respect of the former investee are accounted for on the same basis as would be required if the former investee had directly disposed of the related assets or liabilities. The fair value of the retained interests on the date of ceasing to be an associate is regarded as the fair value on initial recognition as a financial asset.

Goodwill

Goodwill arising on an acquisition of a subsidiary is measured at the excess of the consideration transferred, the amount of any non-controlling interest in the acquiree and the fair value of any previously held equity interests in the acquiree over the acquisition date amounts of the identifiable assets acquired and the liabilities assumed of the acquired subsidiary.

Goodwill on acquisition of subsidiary is recognised as a separate asset and is carried at cost less accumulated impairment losses, which is tested for impairment annually or more frequently if events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying value may be impaired. For the purpose of impairment test and determination of gain or loss on disposal, goodwill is allocated to cash-generating units. An impairment loss on goodwill is not reversed.

On the other hand, any excess of the acquisition date amounts of identifiable assets acquired and the liabilities assumed of the acquired subsidiary over the sum of the consideration transferred, the amount of any non-controlling interests in the acquiree and the fair value of the acquirer's previously held interest in the acquiree, if any, after reassessment, is recognised immediately in profit or loss as an income from bargain purchase.

Any resulting gain or loss arising from remeasuring the previously held equity interests in the acquiree at the acquisition-date fair value is recognised in profit or loss or other comprehensive income, as appropriate.

Non-current assets held for sale and discontinued operations

Non-current assets and disposal groups are classified as held for sale if their carrying amount will be recovered principally through a sale transaction rather than through continuing use. This condition is regarded as met only when the sale is highly probable and the asset (or disposal group) is available for immediate sale in its present condition. Management must be committed to the sale, which should be expected to qualify for recognition as a completed sale within one year from the date of classification. Non-current assets (and disposal groups) classified as held for sale are measured at the lower of their previous carrying amount and fair value less costs to sell.

A discontinued operation is a component of the Group that comprises operations and cash flows that can be clearly distinguished, operationally and for financial reporting purposes, from the rest of the Group. It represents a separate major line of business or geographical area of operations, or is part of a single co-ordinated plan to dispose of a separate major line of business or geographical area of operations, or is a subsidiary acquired exclusively with a view to resale. Classification as a discontinued operation occurs upon disposal or when the operation meets the criteria to be classified as held for sale, if earlier. It also occurs when the operation is abandoned.

Property, plant and equipment

Property, plant and equipment are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and impairment losses. The cost of an item of property, plant and equipment comprises its purchase price and any directly attributable costs of bringing the asset to its working condition and location for its intended use. Repairs and maintenance are charged to profit or loss during the period in which they are incurred.

Depreciation is provided to write-off the cost less accumulated impairment losses of property, plant and equipment, over their estimated useful lives as set out below from the date on which they are available for use and after taking into account their estimated residual values, using the straight-line method. Where parts of an item of property, plant and equipment have different useful lives, the cost of the item is allocated on a reasonable basis and depreciated separately:

Leasehold improvements	3 years
Furniture and office equipment	3-5 years
Motor vehicles	4 years

An item of property, plant and equipment is derecognised upon disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected to arise from the continued use of the asset. Any gain or loss arising on derecognition of the asset (calculated as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the item) is included in profit or loss in the period in which the item is derecognised.

Intangible assets

Research and development costs

Research costs are expensed as incurred. Costs incurred on development activities, which involve the application of research findings to a plan or design for the production of new or substantially improved products and processes, are capitalised if the product or process is technically and commercially feasible and the Group has sufficient resources to complete the development. The expenditure capitalised includes the cost of materials, direct labour and an appropriate proportion of overheads. Other development expenditure is recognised in profit or loss as an expense as incurred. When the asset is available for use, the capitalised development costs are amortised on a straight-line basis over a period of 5 years.

Licence rights

Licence rights for the transaction processing system are stated at cost less accumulated amortisation and impairment losses. Amortisation is provided on the straight-line basis over the estimated useful lives of 10 years. Licence rights are tested for impairment where an indicator of impairment appears.

Computer software

Computer software represents costs incurred for the development of the technology systems which are under the prepaid cards and internet payment business, prestige benefits business and internet micro-credit business. The costs are capitalised and amortised under the straight-line method over 5 years. Computer software are tested for impairment where an indicator of impairment appears.

Payment network membership

The initial cost of payment network membership is capitalised. Payment network membership with indefinite useful lives is carried at cost less accumulated impairment losses as the Directors consider that there is no foreseeable limit on the period of time over which the payment network membership can be used to generate economic benefits.

Financial instruments

Financial assets

Recognition and derecognition

Financial assets are recognised when and only when the Group becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instruments and on a trade date basis.

A financial asset is derecognised when and only when (i) the Group's contractual rights to future cash flows from the financial asset expire or (ii) the Group transfers the financial asset and either (a) it transfers substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership of the financial asset, or (b) it neither transfers nor retains substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership of the financial asset but it does not retain control of the financial asset.

If the Group retains substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership of a transferred financial asset, the Group continues to recognise the financial asset.

If the Group neither transfers nor retains substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership and continues to control the transferred asset, the Group recognises the financial asset to the extent of its continuing involvement and an associated liability for amounts it may have to pay.

Classification and measurement

Financial assets (except for trade receivables without a significant financing component) are initially recognised at their fair value plus, in the case of financial assets not carried at fair value through profit or loss ("FVPL"), transaction costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition of the financial assets. Such trade receivables are initially measured at their transaction price.

On initial recognition, a financial asset is classified as (i) measured at amortised cost; (ii) debt investment measured at fair value through other comprehensive income; (iii) equity investment measured at fair value through other comprehensive income; or (iv) measured at FVPL.

The classification of financial assets at initial recognition depends on the Group's business model for managing the financial assets and the financial asset's contractual cash flow characteristics. Financial assets are not reclassified subsequent to their initial recognition unless the Group changes its business model for managing them, in which case all affected financial assets are reclassified on the first day of the first annual reporting period following the change in the business model.

Derivatives embedded in a hybrid contract in which a host is an asset within the scope of HKFRS 9 are not separated from the host. Instead, the entire hybrid contract is assessed for classification.

1) Financial assets measured at amortised cost

A financial asset is measured at amortised cost if it meets both of the following conditions and is not designated at FVPL:

- (i) it is held within a business model whose objective is to hold financial assets in order to collect contractual cash flows; and
- (ii) its contractual terms give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.

Financial assets at amortised cost are subsequently measured using the effective interest method and are subject to impairment. Gains and losses arising from impairment, derecognition or through the amortisation process are recognised in profit or loss.

The Group's financial assets at amortised cost included trade and other receivables, restricted funds and cash and bank balances.

2) Financial assets at FVPL

These investments include financial assets that are not measured at amortised cost, including financial assets held for trading, financial assets designated upon initial recognition at FVPL, financial assets resulting from a contingent consideration arrangement in a business combination to which HKFRS 3 applies and financial assets that are otherwise required to be measured at FVPL. They are carried at fair value, with any resultant gain and loss recognised in profit or loss, which does not include any dividend or interest earned on the financial assets.

A financial asset is classified as held for trading if it is:

- (i) acquired principally for the purpose of selling it in the near term;
- (ii) part of a portfolio of identified financial instruments that are managed together and for which there is evidence of a recent actual pattern of short-term profit-taking on initial recognition; or
- (iii) a derivative that is not a financial guarantee contract or not a designated and effective hedging instrument.

The Group's financial assets mandatorily measured at FVPL included unlisted equity investments in Hong Kong.

Financial liabilities

Recognition and derecognition

Financial liabilities are recognised when and only when the Group becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instruments.

A financial liability is derecognised when and only when the liability is extinguished, that is, when the obligation specified in the relevant contract is discharged, cancelled or expires.

Classification and measurement

Financial liabilities are initially recognised at their fair value plus, in the case of financial liabilities not carried at FVPL, transaction costs that are directly attributable to the issue of the financial liabilities.

The Group's financial liabilities include trade and other payables, bonds payables, lease liabilities, other long-term liabilities and liability component of convertible bonds issued by a listed subsidiary. All financial liabilities, are recognised initially at their fair value and subsequently measured at amortised cost, using the effective interest method, unless the effect of discounting would be insignificant, in which case they are stated at cost.

Impairment of financial assets and other items

The Group recognises loss allowances for expected credit losses ("ECL") on financial assets that are measured at amortised cost to which the impairment requirements apply in accordance with HKFRS 9. Except for the specific treatments as detailed below, at each reporting date, the Group measures a loss allowance for a financial asset at an amount equal to the lifetime ECL if the credit risk on that financial asset has increased significantly since initial recognition. If the credit risk on a financial asset has not increased significantly since initial recognition, the Group measures the loss allowance for that financial asset at an amount equal to 12-month ECL.

Measurement of ECL

ECL is a probability-weighted estimate of credit losses (i.e. the present value of all cash shortfalls) over the expected life of the financial instrument.

For financial assets, a credit loss is the present value of the difference between the contractual cash flows that are due to an entity under the contract and the cash flows that the entity expects to receive.

Lifetime ECL represents the ECL that will result from all possible default events over the expected life of a financial instrument while 12-month ECL represents the portion of lifetime ECL that is expected to result from default events on a financial instrument that are possible within 12 months after the reporting date.

Where ECL is measured on a collective basis, the financial instruments are grouped based on the following one or more shared credit risk characteristics:

- (i) past due information
- (ii) nature of instrument
- (iii) nature of collateral
- (iv) industry of debtors
- (v) geographical location of debtors
- (vi) external credit risk ratings

Loss allowance is remeasured at each reporting date to reflect changes in the financial instrument's credit risk and loss since initial recognition. The resulting changes in the loss allowance are recognised as an impairment gain or loss in profit or loss with a corresponding adjustment to the carrying amount of the financial instrument, the loss allowance is recognised in other comprehensive income and accumulated in the fair value reserve (recycling).

Definition of default

The Group considers the following as constituting an event of default for internal credit risk management purposes as historical experience indicates that the Group may not receive the outstanding contractual amounts in full if the financial instrument that meets any of the following criteria:

- (i) information developed internally or obtained from external sources indicates that the debtor is unlikely to pay its creditors, including the Group, in full (without taking into account any collaterals held by the Group); or
- (ii) there is a breach of financial covenants by the counterparty.

Irrespective of the above analysis, the Group considers that default has occurred when a financial asset is more than 90 days past due unless the Group has reasonable and supportable information to demonstrate that a more lagging default criterion is more appropriate.

Assessment of significant increase in credit risk

In assessing whether the credit risk on a financial instrument has increased significantly since initial recognition, the Group compares the risk of a default occurring on the financial instrument as at the reporting date with the risk of a default occurring on the financial instrument as at the date of initial recognition. In making this assessment, the Group considers both quantitative and qualitative information that is reasonable and supportable, including historical experience and forward-looking information that is available without undue cost or effort. In particular, the following information is taken into account in the assessment:

- the debtor's failure to make payments of principal or interest on the due dates;
- an actual or expected significant deterioration in the financial instrument's external or internal credit rating (if available);
- an actual or expected significant deterioration in the operating results of the debtor; and
- actual or expected changes in the technological, market, economic or legal environment that have or may have a significant adverse effect on the debtor's ability to meet its obligation to the Group.

Irrespective of the outcome of the above assessment, the Group presumes that the credit risk on a financial instrument has increased significantly since initial recognition when contractual payments are more than 30 days past due.

Low credit risk

A financial instrument is determined to have low credit risk if:

- (i) it has a low risk of default;
- (ii) the borrower has a strong capacity to meet its contractual cash flow obligations in the near term; and
- (iii) adverse changes in economic and business conditions in the longer term may, but will not necessarily, reduce the ability of the borrower to fulfil its contractual cash flow obligations.

No financial instruments are determined to have low credit risk.

Simplified approach of ECL

For trade receivables without a significant financing components, the Group applies a simplified approach in calculating ECL. The Group recognises a loss allowance based on lifetime ECL at each reporting date and has established a provision matrix that is based on its historical credit loss experience, adjusted for forward-looking factors specific to the debtors and the economic environment.

Credit-impaired financial asset

A financial asset is credit-impaired when one or more events that have a detrimental impact on the estimated future cash flows of that financial asset have occurred. Evidence that a financial asset is credit-impaired include observable data about the following events:

- (a) significant financial difficulty of the issuer or the borrower.
- (b) a breach of contract, such as a default or past due event.
- (c) the lender(s) of the borrower, for economic or contractual reasons relating to the borrower's financial difficulty, having granted to the borrower a concession(s) that the lender(s) would not otherwise consider.
- (d) it is becoming probable that the borrower will enter bankruptcy or other financial reorganisation.
- (e) the disappearance of an active market for that financial asset because of financial difficulties.
- (f) the purchase or origination of a financial asset at a deep discount that reflects the incurred credit losses.

Write-off

The Group writes off a financial asset when the Group has no reasonable expectations of recovering the contractual cash flows on a financial asset in its entirety or a portion thereof. The Group has a policy of writing off the gross carrying amount based on historical experience of recoveries of similar assets. The Group expects no significant recovery from the amount written off. However, financial assets that are written off could still be subject to enforcement activities under the Group's procedures for recovery of amounts due, taking into account legal advice if appropriate. Any subsequent recovery is recognised in profit or loss.

Convertible bonds issued by a listed subsidiary

Convertible bonds issued by a listed subsidiary that can be converted to equity share capital of a listed subsidiary at the option of the holders, where the number of shares that would be issued on conversion and the value of the consideration that would be received at that time do not vary, are accounted for as compound financial instruments which contain both a liability component and an equity component.

At initial recognition, the liability component of convertible bonds issued by a listed subsidiary is measured as the present value of the future interest and principal payments, discounted at the market rate of interest applicable at the time of initial recognition to similar liabilities that do not have a conversion option. Any excess of proceeds over the amount initially recognised as the liability component is recognised as the equity component, which is recognised as potential non-controlling interests. Transactions costs that related to the issue of a compound financial instrument are allocated to the liability and equity components in proportion to the allocation of the proceeds.

The liability component is subsequently carried at amortised cost. The interest expenses recognised in profit or loss on the liability component is calculated using the effective interest method. In particular, once the convertible bonds issued by a listed subsidiary were exercised by the bondholders, the equity component would be transferred to the non-controlling interests.

If the convertible bonds are converted, the amount previously recognised in potential non-controlling interests, together with the carrying amount of the liability component at the time of conversion, are transferred to share capital and share premium as consideration for the shares issued.

If the convertible bonds are redeemed, any difference between the amount paid and the carrying amount of the liability component is recognised in profit or loss and the amount previously recognised in potential non-controlling interests is released directly to accumulated profits or losses.

Share capital

Ordinary shares are classified as equity. Preference shares are classified as liabilities if they are redeemable at a specific date or at the shareholders' option; or if dividend payments are not discretionary. Preference shares that are not redeemable, or are redeemable only at the Group's option; and any dividend payments are discretionary, are classified as equity.

Cash equivalents

For the purpose of the consolidated statement of cash flows, cash equivalents represent short-term highly liquid investments which are readily convertible into known amounts of cash and which are subject to an insignificant risk of change in value.

Revenue recognition

Revenue from contracts with customers within HKFRS 15

Nature of goods or services

The nature of the goods or services provided by the Group is as follows:

- (i) Prepaid cards and internet payment business
- (ii) Prestige benefits business
- (iii) Merchant acquiring business
- (iv) Internet micro-credit business (Discontinued)

Identification of performance obligations

At contract inception, the Group assesses the goods or services promised in a contract with a customer and identifies as a performance obligation each promise to transfer to the customer either:

- (a) a good or service (or a bundle of goods or services) that is distinct; or
- (b) a series of distinct goods or services that are substantially the same and that have the same pattern of transfer to the customer.

A good or service that is promised to a customer is distinct if both of the following criteria are met:

- (a) the customer can benefit from the good or service either on its own or together with other resources that are readily available to the customer (i.e. the good or service is capable of being distinct); and
- (b) the Group's promise to transfer the good or service to the customer is separately identifiable from other promises in the contract (i.e. the promise to transfer the good or service is distinct within the context of the contract).

Timing of revenue recognition

Revenue is recognised when (or as) the Group satisfies a performance obligation by transferring a promised good or service (i.e. an asset) to a customer. An asset is transferred when (or as) the customer obtains control of that asset.

The Group transfers control of a good or service over time and, therefore, satisfies a performance obligation and recognises revenue over time, if one of the following criteria is met:

- (a) the customer simultaneously receives and consumes the benefits provided by the Group's performance as the Group performs;
- (b) the Group's performance creates or enhances an asset (for example, work in progress) that the customer controls as the asset is created or enhanced; or
- (c) the Group's performance does not create an asset with an alternative use to the Group and the Group has an enforceable right to payment for performance completed to date.

If a performance obligation is not satisfied over time, the Group satisfies the performance obligation at a point in time when the customer obtains control of the promised asset. In determining when the transfer of control occurs, the Group considers the concept of control and such indicators as legal title, physical possession, right to payment, significant risks and rewards of ownership of the asset, and customer acceptance.

Revenue or income is recognised on the following bases:

- Card issuing service fee income is recognised at a point in time by delivering the prepaid cards to customers.
- Management fee income of prepaid cards is recognised over time at specific rate on the unutilised float funds which has been inactive over three years which is recognised on an agreed percentage over the unutilised float funds outstanding.
- Merchant and technical support services fee income are recognised at a point in time by the Group to merchants at specific rates on the monetary value of consumptions made by the prepaid cards' holders/ internet payment accounts users of the merchants' stores on a trade date basis and when the technical support services are rendered.
- Service fee income of point of sales ("POS") machines and hotel booking agency service income are recognised at a point in time when services are rendered.
- Issuance income of prestige benefits cards is recognised at a point in time when the prestige benefits cards are delivered to customers.
- Sales of POS machines are recognised at a point in time when the goods are delivered to customers and the title is passed.
- Merchant acquiring transaction fee income ("MDR income") and marketing and distribution service income are recognised at a point in time at which the service is provided, which generally coincides with the time when the transactions are approved and executed.

Variable consideration

If the consideration promised in a contract includes a variable amount, the Group estimates the amount of consideration to which it will be entitled in exchange for transferring the promised goods or services to a customer. The variable consideration is estimated by using either the expected-value or the most-likely-amount method whichever is better to predict the entitled amount. The estimated variable consideration is then included in the transaction price only to the extent that it is highly probable that a significant reversal in the amount of cumulative revenue recognised of the contract will not occur when the uncertainty associated with the variable consideration is subsequently resolved.

Income from financial assets

Loan interest income is recognised over time on a time proportion basis, taking into account the principal amounts outstanding and the effective interest rate applicable.

Foreign exchange rate discount income is recognised when the foreign currency denominated funds are received from the merchant acquiring business partner who offered a favourable exchange rate in settling its outstanding payable to the Group and converted into local currency which is usually on every business day.

Interest income from financial assets is recognised using the effective interest method. For financial assets measured at amortised cost that are not credit-impaired, the effective interest rate is applied to the gross carrying amount of the assets while it is applied to the amortised cost (i.e. the gross carrying amount net of loss allowance) in case of credit-impaired financial assets.

Foreign currency translation

Items included in the financial statements of each of the Group's entities are measured using the currency of the primary economic environment in which the entity operates (the "functional currency"). Hong Kong Dollars ("HK$") is the Company's functional currency.

Foreign currency transactions are translated into the functional currency using the exchange rates prevailing at the dates of the transactions. Foreign exchange gains and losses resulting from the settlement of such transactions and from the translation at period-end exchange rates of monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are recognised in profit or loss.

The results and financial position of all the group entities that have a functional currency different from the presentation currency ("foreign operations") are translated into the presentation currency as follows:

- Assets and liabilities for each statement of financial position presented and, where applicable, goodwill and fair value adjustments on the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities arising on an acquisition of a foreign operation which are to be treated as assets and liabilities of that foreign operation, are translated at the closing rate at the end of the reporting period;
- Income and expenses for each income statement and statement of comprehensive income are translated at average exchange rates;
- All resulting exchange differences arising from the above translation and exchange differences arising from a monetary item that forms part of the Group's net investment in a foreign operation are recognised as a separate component of equity;
- On the disposal of a foreign operation, which includes a disposal of the Group's entire interest in a foreign operation, a disposal involving the loss of control over a subsidiary that includes a foreign operation, or a partial disposal of an interest in a joint arrangement or an associate that includes a foreign operation of which the retained interest is no longer equity-accounted for, the cumulative amount of the exchange differences relating to the foreign operation that is recognised in other comprehensive income and accumulated in the separate component of equity is reclassified from equity to profit or loss when the gain or loss on disposal is recognised;
- On the partial disposal of the Group's interest in a subsidiary that includes a foreign operation which does not result in the Group losing control over the subsidiary, the proportionate share of the cumulative amount of the exchange differences recognised in the separate component of equity is re-attributed to the non-controlling interests in that foreign operation and are not reclassified to profit or loss; and
- On all other partial disposals, which includes partial disposal of associates or joint ventures that do not result in the Group losing significant influence or joint control, the proportionate share of the cumulative amount of exchange differences recognised in the separate component of equity is reclassified to profit or loss.

Inventories

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost and net realisable value. Cost, which comprises all costs of purchase and, where applicable, other costs that have been incurred in bringing the inventories to their present location and condition, is calculated using the first in, first out method. Net realisable value represents the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business less the estimated costs necessary to make the sale.

When inventories are sold, the carrying amount of those inventories is recognised as an expense in the period in which the related revenue is recognised. The amount of any write-down of inventories to net realisable value and all losses of inventories are recognised as an expense in the period of the write-down or loss occurs. The amount of any reversal of any write-down of inventories is recognised as a reduction in the amount of inventories recognised as an expense in the period in which the reversal occurs.

Impairment of non-financial assets, other than goodwill

At the end of each reporting period, the Group reviews internal and external sources of information to assess whether there is any indication that its property, plant and equipment, right-of-use assets, intangible assets or interests in associates may be impaired or impairment loss previously recognised no longer exists or may be reduced. If any such indication exists, the recoverable amount of the asset is estimated, based on the higher of its fair value less costs of disposal and value in use. Where it is not possible to estimate the recoverable amount of an individual asset, the Group estimates the recoverable amount of the smallest group of assets that generates cash flows independently (i.e. cash-generating unit (the "CGU")).

If the recoverable amount of an asset or a CGU is estimated to be less than its carrying amount, the carrying amount of the asset or CGU is reduced to its recoverable amount. Impairment losses are recognised as an expense in profit or loss immediately.

A reversal of impairment losses is limited to the carrying amount of the asset or CGU that would have been determined had no impairment loss been recognised in prior periods. Reversal of impairment losses is recognised as income in profit or loss immediately.

The accounting policy for recognition of the impairment loss for goodwill is stated in the accounting policy for goodwill in the earlier part of this note.

Borrowing costs

Borrowing costs incurred, net of any investment income on the temporary investment of the specific borrowings, that are directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of qualifying assets, i.e. assets that necessarily take a substantial period of time to get ready for their intended use or sale, are capitalised as part of the cost of those assets. Capitalisation of such borrowing costs ceases when the assets are substantially ready for their intended use or sale. All other borrowing costs are recognised as an expense in the period in which they are incurred.

Provisions

Provisions are recognised when the Group has a present legal or constructive obligation as a result of past events, when it is probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation, and when a reliable estimate of the amount of obligation can be made. Expenditures for which a provision has been recognised are charged against the related provision in the period in which the expenditures are incurred. Provisions are reviewed at the end of each reporting period and adjusted to reflect the current best estimate. Where the effect of the time value of money is material, the amount provided is the present value of the expenditures expected to be required to settle the obligation. Where the Group expects a provision to be reimbursed, the reimbursement is recognised as a separate asset but only when the reimbursement is virtually certain.

Government grants

Government grants are recognised at their fair value where there is reasonable assurance that the grant will be received and all attaching conditions will be complied with. When the grant relates to an expense item, it is recognised as income over the years necessary to match the grant on a systematic basis to the costs that it is intended to compensate. Where the grant relates to an asset, the fair value is credited to a deferred income account and is released to profit or loss over the expected useful life of the relevant asset by equal annual instalments.

Leases

The Group assesses whether a contract is, or contains, a lease at inception of the contract. A contract is, or contains, a lease if the contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset for a period of time in exchange for consideration.

As lessee

The Group applies the recognition exemption to short-term leases and low-value asset leases. Lease payments associated with these leases are recognised as an expense on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

The Group has elected not to separate non-lease components from lease components, and accounts for each lease component and any associated non-lease components as a single lease component.

The Group accounts for each lease component within a lease contract as a lease separately. The Group allocates the consideration in the contract to each lease component on the basis of the relative stand-alone price of the lease component.

Amounts payable by the Group that do not give rise to a separate component are considered to be part of the total consideration that is allocated to the separately identified components of the contract.

The Group recognises a right-of-use asset and a lease liability at the commencement date of the lease.

The right-of-use asset is initially measured at cost, which comprises:

- (a) the amount of the initial measurement of the lease liability;
- (b) any leases payments made at or before the commencement date, less any lease incentives received;
- (c) any initial direct costs incurred by the Group; and
- (d) an estimate of costs to be incurred by the Group in dismantling and removing the underlying asset, restoring the site on which it is located or restoring the underlying asset to the condition required by the terms and conditions of the lease, unless those costs are incurred to produce inventories.

Subsequently, the right-of-use asset is measured at cost less any accumulated depreciation and any accumulated impairment losses and adjusted for any remeasurement of the lease liability. Depreciation is provided on a straight-line basis over the shorter of the lease term and the estimated useful lives of the right-of-use asset (unless the lease transfers ownership of the underlying asset to the Group by the end of the lease term or if the cost of the right-of-use asset reflects that the Group will exercise a purchase option — in which case depreciation is provided over the estimated useful life of the underlying asset) as follows:

Leasehold land and buildings	Over the shorter of unexpired term of lease and their estimated useful life
Office premises	Over the term of lease
Machinery	Over the term of lease

The lease liability is initially measured at the present value of the lease payments that are not paid at the commencement date of the contract.

The lease payments included in the measurement of the lease liability comprise the following payments for the right to use the underlying asset during the lease term that are not paid at the commencement date:

- (a) fixed payments (including in-substance fixed payments), less any lease incentives receivable;
- (b) variable lease payments that depend on an index or a rate;
- (c) amounts expected to be payable under residual value guarantees;
- (d) exercise price of a purchase option if the Group is reasonably certain to exercise that option; and
- (e) payments of penalties for terminating the lease, if the lease term reflects the Group exercising an option to terminate the lease.

The lease payments are discounted using the interest rate implicit in the lease, or where it is not readily determinable, the incremental borrowing rate of the lessee.

Subsequently, the lease liability is measured by increasing the carrying amount to reflect interest on the lease liability and by reducing the carrying amount to reflect the lease payments made.

The lease liability is remeasured using a revised discount rate when there are changes to the lease payments arising from a change in the lease term or the reassessment of whether the Group will be reasonably certain to exercise a purchase option.

The lease liability is remeasured by using the original discount rate when there is a change in the residual value guarantee, the in-substance fixed lease payments or the future lease payments resulting from a change in an index or a rate (other than floating interest rate). In case of a change in future lease payments resulting from a change in floating interest rates, the Group remeasures the lease liability using a revised discount rate.

The Group recognises the amount of the remeasurement of the lease liability as an adjustment to the right-of-use asset. If the carrying amount of the right-of-use asset is reduced to zero and there is a further reduction in the measurement of the lease liability, the Group recognises any remaining amount of the remeasurement in profit or loss.

A lease modification is accounted for as a separate lease if:

- (a) the modification increases the scope of the lease by adding the right to use one or more underlying assets; and
- (b) the consideration for the lease increases by an amount commensurate with the stand-alone price for the increase in scope and any appropriate adjustments to that stand-alone price to reflect the circumstances of the particular contract.

When a lease modification is not accounted for as a separate lease, at the effective date of the lease modification,

- (a) the Group allocates the consideration in the modified contract on the basis of relative stand-alone price as described above.
- (b) the Group determines the lease term of the modified contract.
- (c) the Group remeasures the lease liability by discounting the revised lease payments using a revised discount rate over the revised lease term.
- (d) for lease modifications that decrease the scope of the lease, the Group accounts for the remeasurement of the lease liability by decreasing the carrying amount of the right-of-use asset to reflect the partial or full termination of the lease and recognising any gain or loss relating to the partial or full termination of the lease in profit or loss.
- (e) for all other lease modifications, the Group accounts for the remeasurement of the lease liability by making a corresponding adjustment to the right-of-use asset.

The Group has applied the practical expedient provided in Amendments to HKFRS 16: COVID-19-Related Rent Concessions Beyond 30 June 2021 and does not assess whether eligible rent concessions occurring as a direct consequence of the COVID-19 pandemic are lease modification. The Group accounts for any change in lease payments resulting from the rent concession the same way it would account for the change applying HKFRS 16 if the change were not a lease modification.

The practical expedient applies only to rent concessions occurring as a direct consequence of the COVID-19 pandemic and only if all of the following conditions are met:

- (a) the change in lease payments results in revised consideration for the lease that is substantially the same as, or less than, the consideration for the lease immediately preceding the change;
- (b) any reduction in lease payments affects only payments originally due on or before 30 June 2022; and
- (c) there is no substantive change to other terms and conditions of the lease.

The Group has applied the practical expedient consistently to all eligible rent concessions with similar characteristics and in similar circumstances.

Defined contribution plans

The obligations for contributions to defined contribution retirement scheme in Hong Kong are recognised as expense in profit or loss as incurred. The assets of the scheme are held separately from those of the Group's entities established in Hong Kong in an independently administered fund.

In accordance with the rules and regulations in the People's Republic of China (the "PRC") and Thailand, the employees of the Group's entities established in the PRC and Thailand are required to participate in defined contribution retirement plans organised by local governments. Contributions to those plans are expensed as incurred and other than these monthly contributions, the Group has no further obligation for the payment of retirement benefits to its employees.

Long service payments

The Group's net obligation in respect of long service payments under the Employment Ordinance is the amounts of future benefit that employees have earned in return for their services in the current and prior periods. The obligation is calculated using the projected unit credit method and discounted to its present value and after deducting the fair value of any related assets, including those retirement scheme benefits.

Share-based payment transactions

Equity-settled transactions

The Group's employees, including directors, receive remuneration in the form of share-based payment transactions, whereby the employees rendered services in exchange for shares or rights over shares. The cost of such transactions with employees is measured by reference to the fair value of the equity instruments at the grant date. The fair value of share options granted to employees is recognised as an employee cost with a corresponding increase in a reserve within equity. The fair value is determined using the binomial model, taking into account any market conditions and non-vesting conditions.

The cost of equity-settled transactions is recognised, together with a corresponding increase in equity, over the period in which the vesting conditions are to be fulfilled, ending on the date on which the entitlement of relevant employees to the award is no longer conditional on the satisfaction of any non-market vesting conditions (the "vesting date"). During the vesting period, the number of share options that is expected to vest ultimately is reviewed. Any adjustment to the cumulative fair value recognised in prior periods is charged/credited to profit or loss for the period of the review, with a corresponding adjustment to the reserve within equity.

When the share options are forfeited after the vesting date or are still not exercised at the expiry date, the amount previously recognised in share options reserve will be transferred to accumulated losses.

No expense is recognised for awards that do not ultimately vest, except for awards conditional on a market condition or non-vesting condition, which are treated as vested irrespective of whether or not the market condition or non-vesting conditions satisfied, provided that all other performance conditions are satisfied. Where the terms of an equity-settled award are modified, an additional expense is recognised for any increase in the value of the transaction as a result of the modification, as measured at the date of modification. Where an equity-settled award is cancelled, it is treated as if it had vested on the date of cancellation, and any expense not yet recognised for the award is recognised immediately. However, if a new award is substituted for the cancelled award, and designated as a replacement award on the date that it is granted, the cancelled and new awards are treated as if they were a modification of the original award, as described above.

Share-based compensation cost payment transactions with parties other than employees are measured at fair value of the goods or services received, except where the fair value cannot be reliably estimated, in which case they are measured at the fair value of the equity instruments granted. In all cases, the fair value is measured at the date the Group obtains the goods or the counterparty renders the services.

Taxation

The charge for current income tax is based on the results for the period as adjusted for items that are non-assessable or disallowed. It is calculated using tax rates that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period.

Deferred tax is provided, using the liability method, on all temporary differences at the end of the reporting period between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts in the consolidated financial statements. However, any deferred tax arising from initial recognition of goodwill, or other asset or liability in a transaction other than a business combination that at the time of the transaction affects neither the accounting profit nor taxable profit or loss is not recognised.

The deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply to the period when the asset is recovered or the liability is settled, based on tax rates and tax laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted at the end of the reporting period.

Deferred tax assets are recognised to the extent that it is probable that future taxable profit will be available against which the deductible temporary differences, tax losses and credits can be utilised.

Deferred tax is provided on temporary differences arising on investment in subsidiaries and associates, except where the timing of the reversal of the temporary differences is controlled by the Group and it is probable that the temporary difference will not reverse in the foreseeable future.

Segment reporting

Operating segments, and the amounts of each segment item reported in the consolidated financial statements, are identified from the financial information provided regularly to the Group's most senior executive management for the purpose of allocating resources to, and assessing the performance of, the Group's various lines of business and geographical locations.

Operating segments that meet the quantitative thresholds are not aggregated for financial reporting purposes unless the segments have similar economic characteristics and are similar in respect of the nature of products and services, the type or class of customers, the methods used to distribute the products or provide the services, and the nature of the regulatory environment. Other operating segments may be aggregated if they share a majority of these criteria.

Critical accounting estimates and judgements

Estimates and assumptions concerning the future and judgements are made by the management in the preparation of the consolidated financial statements. They affect the application of the Group's accounting policies, reported amounts of assets, liabilities, income and expenses, and disclosures made. They are assessed on an on-going basis and are based on experience and relevant factors, including expectations of future events that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances. Where appropriate, revisions to accounting estimates are recognised in the period of revision and future periods, in case the revision also affects future periods.

(a) Critical judgements made in applying accounting policies

(i) Subsidiary — Oriental City Group (Thailand) Company Limited ("OCG Thailand")

According to the relevant laws and regulations in Thailand, in particular the Foreign Business Act (the "FBA"), OCG Thailand, being a company engaged in merchant acquiring business in Thailand, must be owned as to more than 50% by Thai citizens.

With reference to the capital and voting rights structure of ordinary shares and preference shares (together the "Preference Shares Structure") of OCG Thailand as described in Note 14(e) to the consolidated financial statements, all the OCG Thailand's issued preference share capital is owned by Thai citizens. However, the Group is able to exercise majority 50% voting power in any shareholders' meeting of OCG Thailand.

The Company's legal advisors have confirmed that the Preference Shares Structure is in compliance with all existing laws and regulations in Thailand, in particular the FBA. In light of no previous supreme court judgement ruling the invalidity of capital structure similar to that of OCG Thailand as opposed to the FBA and related interpretations, after due and careful consideration of all relevant factors together with the legal opinion obtained, the management assesses and concludes that the Preference Shares Structure is valid, legal and enforceable in Thailand.

Based upon the management's judgement on the Preference Shares Structure, the Company accounts for OCG Thailand as a subsidiary on the ground that it is able to control OCG Thailand by exercising its majority voting power in any shareholders' meeting of OCG Thailand.

(ii) Subsidiary — 上海雍勒信息技術有限公司 (Shanghai Yongle Information Technology Limited*, "Shanghai Yongle")

By implementation of a series of structured agreements entered among an indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company, 深圳前海雍勒信息技術服務有限公司 (Shenzhen Qianhai Yongle Information Services Limited*, "Shenzhen Yongle"), Shanghai Yongle and the legal owners of Shanghai Yongle (the "Shenzhen Yongle Structured Agreements") as described in Note 14(a) to the consolidated financial statements, Shenzhen Yongle had obtained control over Shanghai Yongle and Shenzhen Yongle is exposed, or has rights, to variable returns from its involvement with Shanghai Yongle and has the ability to affect those returns through its power over Shanghai Yongle.

The Company's legal advisors as to the applicable laws and regulations in the PRC have confirmed that the Shenzhen Yongle Structured Agreements are in compliance with all existing laws and regulations in the PRC. After due and careful consideration of all relevant factors together with the legal opinion obtained, the management assesses and concludes that the Shenzhen Yongle Structured Agreements are valid, legal and enforceable in the PRC.

Based upon the management's judgement on the Shenzhen Yongle Structured Agreements, the Company accounts for Shanghai Yongle and its subsidiaries, 微科睿思在綫(北京)科技有限有限公司 (Wei Ke Rui Si Online (Beijing) Technology Company Limited*, “Beijing Weike”) and 開聯通支付服務有限有限公司 (Open Union Payment Services Limited*, “Open Union”), as subsidiaries in accordance with HKFRS 10.

As the Group holds no equity interests in Shanghai Yongle but is subject to the Shenzhen Yongle Structured Agreements, significant judgement is necessary as to whether these contracts give the Group the ability to exercise control over Shanghai Yongle, including consideration of the PRC legal and regulatory requirements, foreign exchange control, or other influences, such as, force majeure etc.

- (iii) Subsidiary — 上海靜元信息技術有限公司 (Shanghai Jingyuan Message Technology Limited, “Shanghai Jingyuan”)*

By implementation of a series of structured agreements entered among an indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company, 客樂芙信息技術(上海)有限有限公司 (Colourful Message Technology (Shanghai) Limited*, “Colourful”), Shanghai Jingyuan and the legal owners of Shanghai Jingyuan (the “Colourful Structured Agreements”) as described in Note 14(c) to the consolidated financial statements, Colourful had obtained control over Shanghai Jingyuan and Colourful is exposed, or has rights, to variable returns from its involvement with Shanghai Jingyuan and has the ability to affect those returns through its power over Shanghai Jingyuan.

The Company's legal advisors as to the applicable laws and regulations in the PRC have confirmed that the Colourful Structured Agreements are in compliance with all existing laws and regulations in the PRC. After due and careful consideration of all relevant factors together with the legal opinion obtained, the management assesses and concludes that the Colourful Structured Agreements are valid, legal and enforceable in the PRC.

Based upon the management's judgement on the Colourful Structured Agreements, the Company accounts for Shanghai Jingyuan and its subsidiary, 上海遨樂網絡科技有限有限公司 (Shanghai Aole Internet Technology Limited*, “Shanghai Aole”), as subsidiaries in accordance with HKFRS 10.

As the Group holds no equity interests in Shanghai Jingyuan but is subject to the Colourful Structured Agreements, significant judgement is necessary as to whether these contracts give the Group the ability to exercise control over Shanghai Jingyuan, including consideration of the PRC legal and regulatory requirements, foreign exchange control, or other influences, such as, force majeure etc.

(a) Critical judgements made in applying accounting policies (continued)

(iv) Control over subsidiary — OPG

Although the Group owns less than half of the ownership interests and voting rights in OPG, the Group has determined that it has control over OPG on a de facto power basis after considering all relevant facts and circumstances including the Group's absolute size of voting rights and the relative size and dispersion of the voting rights held by other shareholders.

More details can be found in Note 14(d) to the consolidated financial statements.

(b) Key sources of estimation uncertainty

(i) Impairment of investments and receivables

The Group assesses annually if its interests in subsidiaries/associates suffered any impairment in accordance with HKAS 36 and follows the guidance of HKFRS 9 in determining whether amounts due from these entities are impaired. Details of the approach are stated in the respective accounting policies. The assessment requires an estimation of future cash flows, including expected dividends, from the assets and the selection of appropriate discount rates. Future changes in financial performance and position of these entities would affect the estimation of impairment loss and cause in the adjustments of their carrying amounts.

(ii) Useful lives of property, plant and equipment, right-of-use assets and intangible assets

The management determines the estimated useful lives of the Group's property, plant and equipment, right-of-use assets and intangible assets based on the historical experience of the actual useful lives of the relevant assets of similar nature and functions. The estimated useful lives could be different as a result of technical innovations which could affect the related depreciation charges included in profit or loss.

(iii) Impairment of property, plant and equipment, right-of-use assets and intangible assets

Property, plant and equipment, right-of-use assets and intangible assets are stated at costs less accumulated depreciation/amortisation, and any impairment losses. In determining whether an asset is impaired, the Group has to exercise judgements and make estimations, particularly in assessing: (1) whether an event has occurred or any indicators that may affect the asset value; (2) whether the carrying value of an asset can be supported by the recoverable amount, in the case of value-in-use, the net present value of future cash flows which are estimated based upon the continued use of the asset; and (3) the appropriate key assumptions to be applied in estimating the recoverable amounts including cash flow projections and an appropriate discount rate. When it is not possible to estimate the recoverable amount of an individual asset (including right-of-use assets), the Group estimates the recoverable amount of the CGU to which the assets belongs. Changing the assumptions and estimates, including the discount rates or the growth rate in the cash flow projections, could materially affect the net present value used in the impairment test.

(b) Key sources of estimation uncertainty (continued)

(iv) Discount rates for calculating lease liabilities — as lessee

The Group uses the lessee's incremental borrowing rates to discount future lease payments since interest rates implicit in the leases are not readily determinable. In determining the discounts rates for its leases, the Group refers to a rate that is readily observable as the starting point and then applies judgement and adjusts such observable rate to determine the incremental borrowing rate.

(v) Provision of hotel and catering expenses

The management estimates the provision of hotel and catering expenses on the Group's prestige benefit cards with consideration of the current unclaimed hotel and catering benefits entitlements (the "Entitlements"), the historic redemption rates on the Entitlements, the estimates and assumptions on future redemption rates on the Entitlements and estimates of costs to fulfill the Entitlements. Differences between actual and estimated redemption rates generally affect the recognised expense and provision in future periods.

(vi) Loss allowance for ECL

The Group's management estimates the loss allowance for trade receivables by using various inputs and assumptions including risk of a default and expected loss rate and loan receivables. The estimation involves high degree of uncertainty which is based on the Group's historical information, existing market conditions as well as forward-looking estimates at the end of each reporting period. Where the expectation is different from the original estimate, such difference will impact the carrying amount of trade receivables. Details of the key assumption and inputs used in estimating ECL are set out in Note 37 to the consolidated financial statements.

(vii) Income taxes

There are certain transactions and calculations for which the ultimate tax determination is uncertain during the ordinary course of business. The Group recognises liabilities for anticipated tax issues based on estimates of whether additional taxes will be due. Where the final tax outcome of these matters is different from the amounts that were initially recorded, such differences will impact the income tax and deferred tax provisions in the period in which such determination is made. In addition, the realisation of the future income tax assets is dependent on the Group's ability to generate sufficient taxable income in future periods to utilise income tax benefits and income tax loss carry-forwards, as appropriate. Deviations of future profitability from estimates or in the income tax rate would result in adjustments to the value of future income tax assets and liabilities that could have a significant effect on results and financial position of the Group.

5. SEGMENT REPORTING

The executive directors have been identified as the chief operating decision makers to evaluate the performance of operating segments and to allocate resources to those segments. Based on risks and returns and the Group's internal financial reporting, the executive directors consider that the operating segments of the Group comprise:

- (i) prepaid cards and internet payment business in the PRC;
- (ii) prestige benefits business in the PRC;
- (iii) merchant acquiring business in Thailand; and
- (iv) internet micro-credit business in the PRC (Discontinued).

In addition, the executive directors consider that the Group's place of domicile is Hong Kong, where the central management and control is located.

Segment results, which are the measures reported to the chief operating decision makers for the purposes of resources allocation and assessment of segment performance, represent the profit earned or loss incurred by each segment without allocation of other income, other gain or loss, gain on deregistration of a subsidiary, gain on disposal of subsidiaries (included in "Profit for the period from discontinued operations"), finance costs, general administrative expenses incurred by corporate office, penalty expense, impairment loss on goodwill, share of results of associates and income tax.

Segment assets include property, plant and equipment, right-of-use assets, intangible assets, goodwill, interests in associates, deferred tax assets, inventories, tax recoverable, trade and other receivables, financial assets at FVPL, restricted funds and cash and bank balances. All assets are allocated to operating segments other than unallocated head office and corporate assets as these assets are managed on a group basis.

Segment liabilities include trade and other payables, tax payables, bonds payables, deferred tax liabilities, leases liabilities, other long-term liabilities and liability component of convertible bonds issued by a listed subsidiary. All liabilities are allocated to operating segments other than unallocated head office and corporate liabilities as these liabilities are managed on a group basis.

In determining the Group's geographical segments, revenue is attributed to the segments based on the location where services are provided, assets and capital expenditure are attributed to the segments based on the location of the assets. The geographical segment information is reflected within operating segment information as the Group's four distinctive business activities are provided in two different locations.

Revenue from customers contributing 10% or more of the total revenue of the Group is also reflected within the operating segment information.

Internet micro-credit business

On 13 March 2020, the Group entered into a sale and purchase agreement to dispose of its 75% equity interest of Keen Best Investment Limited (“Keen Best”) and its subsidiaries, Union Evernew Investment Limited (“Union Evernew”), 重慶市眾網小額貸款有限公司 (Massnet Microcredit Company (Chongqing) Limited*, “Massnet Microcredit”) and 上海洋芋信息科技有限公司 (Shanghai Yangyu Information Technology Company Limited*, “Shanghai Yangyu”) (together the “Disposal Group” or “Keen Best Group”), to an independent third party and a related company of the Company, which is beneficially owned by Mr. Yan Dinggui, an ex-executive director of the Company, who was resigned during the year ended 31 March 2021, at a consideration of HK$105,000,000 and HK$120,000,000, respectively (the “Disposal”).

Because the Disposal Group carried out most of the Group’s internet micro-credit business, in the opinion of the Directors, such Disposal would cause the Group’s internet micro-credit business to be discontinued. The Disposal was completed on 29 September 2020.

The basic and diluted earnings (loss) per share for the Disposal Group are calculated by dividing the profit (loss) for the period/year from the Disposal Group attributable to owners of the Company by the weighted average number of ordinary shares for basic earnings (loss) per share computation and weighted average number of ordinary shares for diluted earnings (loss) per share computation respectively. The denominators used are the same as those detailed in Note 13 to the consolidated financial statements.

14. SUBSIDIARIES (continued)

Except for the preference share capital issued by OCG Thailand, none of the subsidiaries had any debt securities outstanding at the end of the reporting period, or at any time during the reporting period.

Notes:

- (i) Registered under the laws of the PRC as wholly-owned foreign enterprise
- (ii) Registered under the laws of the PRC as domestic enterprise

<Note a>

The Group's indirect wholly-owned subsidiary, Shenzhen Yongle, entered into the Shenzhen Yongle Structured Agreements with Shanghai Yongle and the legal owners of Shanghai Yongle which enable Shenzhen Yongle to:

- exercise effective financial and operational control over Shanghai Yongle;
- exercise the entire owners' voting rights of Shanghai Yongle;
- receive and be exposed to substantially all of the economic interest returns generated by Shanghai Yongle;
- have an irrevocable option to purchase the entire equity interests in Shanghai Yongle when and to the extent permitted under the PRC laws; and
- obtain pledges over the entire equity interests of Shanghai Yongle from the legal owners of Shanghai Yongle.

The Directors are of the opinion that, notwithstanding the lack of the equity ownership, the Shenzhen Yongle Structured Agreements give Shenzhen Yongle control over Shanghai Yongle in substance under the principles set out in HKFRS 10 where Shenzhen Yongle is exposed, or has rights, to variable returns from its involvement with Shanghai Yongle and has the ability to affect those returns through power over Shanghai Yongle. Therefore, the Group regards Shanghai Yongle together with its subsidiaries (i.e. Beijing Weike and Open Union) as indirect subsidiaries of the Group and Shanghai Yongle, Beijing Weike and Open Union are consolidated into the Group's consolidated financial statements.

<Note b>

On 8 December 2015, Beijing Weike and 開聯信息技術有限公司 (Open Union Message Technology Limited*, "Open Union Message"), a non-controlling shareholder of Open Union, entered into an agreement for Beijing Weike to acquire from Open Union Message the remaining 10% equity interests of Open Union at the aggregate consideration of RMB52.0 million (equivalent to approximately HK$56.8 million). On 1 March 2020, Beijing Weike entered into a supplementary agreement with Open Union Message, to confirm that the transfer of the remaining 10% equity interests of Open Union to Beijing Weike had been completed based on the relevant legal advices. Accordingly, Open Union became a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company from 1 March 2020.

<Note c>

The Group's indirect wholly-owned subsidiary, Colourful, entered into the Colourful Structured Agreements with Shanghai Jingyuan and the legal owners of Shanghai Jingyuan which enables Colourful to:

- exercise effective financial and operational control over Shanghai Jingyuan;
- exercise the entire owners' voting rights of Shanghai Jingyuan;
- receive and be exposed to substantially all of the economic interest returns generated by Shanghai Jingyuan;
- have an irrevocable option to purchase the entire equity interests in Shanghai Jingyuan when and to the extent permitted under the PRC laws; and
- obtain pledges over the entire equity interests of Shanghai Jingyuan from the legal owners of Shanghai Jingyuan.

The Directors are of the opinion that, notwithstanding the lack of the equity ownership, the Colourful Structured Agreements give Colourful control over Shanghai Jingyuan in substance under the principles set out in HKFRS 10 where Colourful is exposed, or has rights, to variable returns from its involvement with Shanghai Jingyuan and has the ability to affect those returns through power over Shanghai Jingyuan. Therefore, the Group regards Shanghai Jingyuan together with its subsidiary (i.e. Shanghai Aole) as indirect subsidiaries of the Group and Shanghai Jingyuan and Shanghai Aole are consolidated into the Group's consolidated financial statements.

<Note d>

In January 2020, Charm Act Group Limited ("Charm Act"), a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company and the controlling shareholder holding 52.5% of the total issued share capital of OPG, entered into a placing agreement (as amended and supplemented by the side letter dated 23 January 2020) (the "Placing Agreement") with a placing agent to place up to 200,000,000 shares (the "Placing Shares") of OPG at the placing price of HK$0.07 per Placing Share on a best effort basis (the "Placing"). After the completion of the Placing on 3 February 2020, the Group received approximately of HK$14,000,000 from the Placing and Charm Act holds 325,000,000 ordinary shares of OPG, representing 32.5% of the total issued share capital of OPG. The Directors consider that the Group shall remain as the controlling shareholder and continue to control over OPG.

The Directors assessed that:

- the Group has control over OPG as the Group has the practical ability to direct the relevant activities of OPG unilaterally;
- other shareholders are passive in nature as demonstrated by their voting patterns at previous shareholders' meetings;
- the Group has sought declaration from several placees of the Placing in the aggregate of 13.1% voting rights of OPG to confirm that they have no intention to vote and/or authorise any person to vote, in any circumstances, in any shareholder meetings for every decisions/resolutions of OPG; and
- the executive director of OPG, Mr. Lin Xiaofeng, is appointed by the Company who exercised effective control on the operating decisions of OPG at all material times during the year.

After assessment, although the Group holds 32.5% of the voting rights of OPG, the Group has determined that it has control over OPG on a de facto power basis after considering all relevant facts and circumstances including the Group's absolute size of voting rights and the relative size and dispersion of the voting rights held by other shareholders.

At the end of the reporting period, OCG Thailand's share capital is comprised of 2,500,000 ordinary shares with paid up amount of Baht 25,000,000 (equivalent to approximately HK$5,857,000) (2020: Baht 25,000,000 (equivalent to approximately HK$5,857,000)) and 2,550,000 preference shares with paid up amount of Baht 25,500,000 (equivalent to approximately HK$6,327,000) (2020: Baht 25,500,000 (equivalent to approximately HK$6,050,000)).

The holders of ordinary shares are entitled to receive dividends as declared from time to time and are entitled to one vote per share on any resolution of OCG Thailand.

The holder of preference shares, who is a Thai citizen, has the following rights:

- one vote for every ten preference shares held on any resolution of OCG Thailand;
- the right to receive cumulative dividend declared by OCG Thailand at the rate of 9.5% per annum on paid up value of the shares issued, prior to the ordinary shares; and
- the right to receive the distribution of the share capital, in the case of the winding up of OCG Thailand, prior to the ordinary shares, but limited to the paid up amount of the preference shares.

The preference shares as issued by OCG Thailand are classified as liabilities instead of equity in the consolidated financial statements in accordance with applicable accounting standards because, although they are not redeemable, the holders of which are entitled to receive 9.5% (per annum) cumulative dividend on the paid up value of the preference shares issued, which is treated as cost of financing, and are only entitled to OCG Thailand's residual assets limited to the nominal value of their paid-up capital.

Therefore, the results and financial position of OCG Thailand are included in the Group's consolidated financial statements, after accounting for the paid up value of the preference shares issued and its related cumulative dividend, to the extent of 32.5% (2020: 32.5%) ordinary equity interests attributable to the equity holders of the Company according to the proportion of ordinary shares indirectly held by the Company, taking into the effect of dilution of interest in OPG, the immediate holding company of OCG Thailand, as mentioned in Note 14(d) to consolidated financial statements.

All of the above associates are accounted for using the equity method in the consolidated financial statements. There are no capital commitment and contingent liabilities in relation to the associates themselves.

The Directors considered that the reasonably possible change in the key assumptions adopted on the determination of the recoverable amount of interests in associates would not cause an impairment loss.

The impairment assessment of goodwill of CUL and its wholly-owned subsidiaries including CUL E-commerce and HKUL (collectively referred to as the "CUL Group") is based on the valuation by an independent valuer.

15. INTERESTS IN ASSOCIATES (continued)

<Note a>

The Group owned 22.21% equity interests in Koolcloud and its wholly-owned subsidiary, Kuyin (together the “Koolcloud Group”). In view of continuous diminishing in the revenue growth by Koolcloud Group in recent years and coming future and profit will be diminishing significantly in the future, interests in associates of the Koolcloud Group amounting of approximately HK$16,041,000 was fully impaired in prior years.

<Note b>

The Group owned the equity interests in Chengfu Investment, which in turn holds 48.88% equity interests in CUL Group. The CUL Group belongs to prepaid cards and internet payment business segment, and implicit goodwill (before the impairment loss) of approximately HK$208,133,000 was recognised upon completion of acquisition of the CUL Group during the year ended 31 March 2018.

The Group carried out an impairment assessment for the interests in the CUL Group at 31 March 2021, with reference to a value-in-use calculation based on a cash flow projection of the CUL Group. The calculation uses cash flow projection based on financial budgets approved by the directors of the CUL Group covering a 5-year period. Cash flows beyond the 5-year period have been extrapolated using a 2% (2020: 3%) long-term growth rate. This growth rate is based on the relevant industry growth forecasts and does not exceed the average long-term growth rate for the relevant industry. Management of the CUL Group determined the growth rate based on past performance and the expectation of market development. Goodwill was not impaired for the years ended 31 March 2021 and 2020. Management believed that any reasonably possible change in any of these assumptions would not cause the aggregate carrying amount of the associates to significantly exceed the aggregate recoverable amount.

<Note c>

On 29 February 2020, the Group acquired 33% equity interests in Alldebit from two independent third parties at a cash consideration of approximately HK$2,200,000.

<Note d>

On 29 September 2020, the Group disposed its 75% equity interests of the Keen Best Group to an independent third party and a related party company of the Group. Upon the completion of the Disposal, Keen Best ceases to be a subsidiary and will only be accounted as an associate of the Group.

16. GOODWILL (continued)

16(b) Prepaid Cards and Internet Payment CGU

On 23 September 2014 and 27 January 2015, Shanghai Yongle acquired 33% and 67% interests in Beijing Weike, respectively, at an aggregate consideration of RMB468 million (equivalent to approximately HK$588 million). Beijing Weike, through its subsidiary, Open Union, is engaged in the issuance and acceptance of prepaid cards and the provision of internet payment service (the “Prepaid Cards and Internet Payment CGU”). The excess of the consideration transferred and the amount of NCI over the acquisition-date fair values of the identifiable assets acquired and the liabilities assumed of approximately RMB375,073,000 (equivalent to approximately HK$471,429,000) was recognised as goodwill.

At 31 March 2020, the Group assessed the recoverable amount of the Prepaid Cards and Internet Payment CGU with reference to a value-in-use calculation based on cash flow projection of Beijing Weike and its subsidiary. The calculation uses cash flow projection based on financial budgets approved by the Directors covering a 5-year period. Cash flows beyond the 5-year period have been extrapolated using a 3% long-term growth rate. This growth rate is based on the relevant industry growth forecasts and does not exceed the average long-term growth rate for the relevant industry.

In view of the deteriorate economy which would cause further decrease in revenue growth of prepaid cards and internet payment business and the outbreak of COVID-19, the recoverable amount of the Prepaid Cards and Internet Payment CGU based on the value-in-use calculation was approximately HK$136,463,000 at 31 March 2020. Accordingly, having compared with the carrying amount of the Prepaid Cards and Internet Payment CGU, impairment loss of approximately HK$424,053,000 was made on goodwill associated with the Prepaid Cards and Internet Payment CGU during the year ended 31 March 2020.

Key assumptions and inputs used for the value-in-use calculation are as follows:

	2020
Average gross profit margin	44.0%
Average growth rate	15.2%
Long-term growth rate	3%
Discount rate	22.4%

Management determined the budgeted growth rate based on past performance and the expectation of market development. The discount rate used is pre-tax and reflects specific risks relating to the Prepaid Cards and Internet Payment CGU.

16(c) Prestige Benefits CGU

On 8 July 2015, Firm Idea Limited ("Firm Idea") acquired the entire equity interests in AE Investment Consultancy Limited ("AE Investment") and its subsidiaries (i.e. Colourful and Shanghai Jingyuan) at an aggregate consideration of approximately HK$192,968,000. The excess of the consideration transferred over the acquisition-date fair values of the identifiable assets acquired and the liabilities assumed of approximately HK$190,721,000 was recognised as goodwill. Further in September 2015, Shanghai Jingyuan acquired the entire equity interests in Shanghai Aole at an aggregate consideration of approximately HK$765,000. The excess of the consideration transferred over the acquisition-date fair values of the identifiable assets acquired and the liabilities assumed of approximately HK$1,696,000 was recognised as goodwill. AE Investment, through its subsidiaries, Colourful, Shanghai Jingyuan and Shanghai Aole, is engaged in the issuance of prestige benefits cards to premium consumers and financial institutions (the "Prestige Benefits CGU").

At 31 March 2020, the Group assessed the recoverable amount of the Prestige Benefits CGU with reference to a value-in-use calculation based on cash flow projection of AE Investment and its subsidiaries. The calculation uses cash flow projection based on financial budgets approved by the Directors covering a 5-year period. Cash flows beyond the 5-year period have been extrapolated using a 3% long-term growth rate. This growth rate is based on the relevant industry growth forecasts and does not exceed the average long-term growth rate for the relevant industry.

During the year ended 31 March 2020, in light of the challenging business environment in the Prestige Benefits CGU which is facing a more competitive market. In addition, one of the major customers was stopped to cooperate and some cold call centres because cold call marketing became less effective due to PRC government's promotion and public awareness of telephone scam. Furthermore, due to the outbreak of COVID-19, it caused the adverse impact on the Prestige Benefits CGU performance and financial results, and hence the Group applied a lower growth rate in the cash flow projections for valuation of the goodwill of the Prestige Benefits CGU. Accordingly, the average growth rate was lower to 4.0%, whilst the gross profit margin was lowered to 0.6%.

At 31 March 2020, the recoverable amount of the Prestige Benefits CGU based on the value-in-use calculation was approximately HK$3,000,000. Accordingly, having compared with the carrying amount of the Prestige Benefit CGU, impairment loss of approximately HK$67,853,000 was made on goodwill associated with the Prestige Benefits CGU during the year ended 31 March 2020.

The Group has recognised the following amounts for the year:

	2021 HK$'000	2020 HK$'000
Finance costs on lease liabilities	350	528
Depreciation of right-of-use assets	8,044	9,638

The Group leases various office premises and machinery for its daily operations and the lease terms ranging from one to five years (2020: one to five years). The total cash outflow for leases was approximately HK$9,892,000 (2020: approximately HK$8,421,000) for the year ended 31 March 2021.

At 31 March 2021, the weighted average effective interest rate for the lease liabilities of the Group was 4.62% per annum (2020: 3.59%).

COVID-19-related rent concessions

The amount recognised in profit or loss during the year ended 31 March 2021 to reflect changes in lease payments that arise from rent concessions to which the Group has applied the practical expedient for COVID-19-related rent concessions provided in Amendments to HKFRS 16 is approximately HK$136,000.

Restrictions or covenants

Most of the leases impose a restriction that, unless approval is obtained from the lessor, the right-of-use asset can only be used by the Group and the Group is prohibited from selling or pledging the underlying assets. The Group is also required to keep those properties in a good state of repair and return the properties in their original condition at the end of the leases.

Extension and termination options

The lease contract of office premises contains an extension and termination option, respectively. These options aim to provide flexibility to the Group in managing the leased assets with options to extend at the end of the term from 1 to 2 years (2020: 1 to 2 years).

Commitment under leases

At 31 March 2021, the Group was committed to pay approximately HK$162,000 (2020: approximately HK$1,225,000) for short-term leases.

19. INTANGIBLE ASSETS (continued)

Notes:

- (a) Computer software mainly represents enhancement of host system to extend the payment processing services to cover other payment network associations with carrying amount of HK$4,900,000 (2020: acquiring and clearing system with carrying amount of HK$7,200,000 and enhancement of host system to extend the payment processing services to cover other payment network associations with carrying amount of HK$6,300,000). At the end of the reporting period, the remaining amortisation period of the computer software is 3.5 years (2020: 4.5 years).
- (b) The useful life of the payment network membership is determined to be indefinite because the Group is able to renew the payment network membership without incurring significant cost that there is no foreseeable limit to the period over which the payment network membership is expected to generate net cash inflows for the Group.

Impairment assessments

The intangible assets are tested for impairment where an indicator of impairment appears by comparing their recoverable amounts to their carrying amounts at the end of each reporting period.

The Group, through i) Qijun Information Technology and Qijun Investments Consultancy Service and ii) OCG Thailand, is engaged in the Prepaid Cards and Internet Payment CGU and the provision of merchant acquiring services (the "Merchant Acquiring CGU"), respectively. In view of the deteriorating economy and the outbreak of COVID-19 pandemic during the year ended 31 March 2021, the management considered that there is impairment indicator under the Prepaid Cards and Internet Payment CGU and Merchant Acquiring CGU.

The management assessed that the purchased software for the Prepaid Cards and Internet Payment CGU in the PRC (the "Payment Software") and acquiring and clearing system developed in prior years for the payment processing services via major payment networks in Thailand (the "PN System"), which was not used by the Group due to the change in the business operations and market development strategy of the Group, may not be able to generate future economic benefits, in particular, after the outbreak of COVID-19 pandemic. Accordingly, the recoverable amount of the Payment Software and PN System was minimal. Impairment loss on the Payment Software and PN System of approximately HK$4,399,000 and HK$5,600,000, respectively, was recognised during the year ended 31 March 2021.

At 31 March 2021, the Group further assessed the recoverable amount of the Prepaid Cards and Internet Payment CGU, Prestige Benefits CGU and Merchant Acquiring CGU based on the value-in-use calculation using pre-tax cash flow projections covering a 5-year, 5-year and 3-year period, respectively, which is provided by the management. The estimated revenue and costs for each individual intangible asset were based on management expectation. Cash flows beyond the projected period have been extrapolated using a 2% long-term growth rate. This growth rate is based on the relevant industry growth forecasts and does not exceed the average long-term growth rate for the relevant industry. Management determined the growth rate based on past performance and the expectation of market development. Accordingly, no further impairment loss was recognised for the remaining non-current assets allocated to the Prepaid Cards and Internet Payment CGU, Prestige Benefits CGU and Merchant Acquiring CGU at 31 March 2021.

At 31 March 2020, the management was of the view that no impairment loss should be recognised for the intangible assets already in use as their recoverable amounts exceeded their carrying amounts.

At 31 March 2021	283	(6,294)	(768)	—	(6,779)

Recognised deferred tax assets (liabilities) at the end of the reporting period represent the following:

	Assets		Liabilities
	2021 HK$'000	2020 HK$'000	2021 HK$'000	2020 HK$'000
Provisions	9	9	(6,303)	(5,579)

Amount expected to be recovered (settled) after more than 12 months	292	194	(7,071)	(8,056)

At the end of the reporting period, deferred tax liabilities of approximately HK$768,000 (2020: approximately HK$1,213,000) have been recognised for the future withholding tax implications of the portion of undistributed earnings of OCG Thailand that may be distributed in the foreseeable future. Certain retained earnings of OCG Thailand are kept for financing the continuing operations with reference to the working capital level. After considering the remaining retained earnings available for distribution in the foreseeable future, reversal of deferred taxation of approximately HK$445,000 (2020: Nil) has been made for the year ended 31 March 2021.

For the retained earnings required for financing the continued operation, such retained earnings would be subject to additional taxation if they are distributed. At the end of the reporting period, the estimated withholding tax effect on the distribution of such retained earnings of OCG Thailand was approximately of HK$512,000 (2020: approximately HK$894,000).

26. DEFERRED TAXATION (continued)

In addition to OCG Thailand, the accumulated profits of certain subsidiaries in the PRC would be subject to additional taxation if they are distributed. At 31 March 2021, the estimated withholding tax effect on the distribution of accumulated profits of these entities was approximately of HK$921,000 (2020: approximately HK$1,775,000). In the opinion of the Directors, these accumulated profits, at the present time, are required for financing the continuing operations of the entities and no distribution would be made in the foreseeable future. Accordingly, no provisions for additional deferred taxation have been made.

Unrecognised deferred tax assets

The Group has not recognised deferred tax assets in respect of the tax losses, as set out below, because it is not probable that future taxable profit will be available against which the Group can utilise the benefits therefrom. The unrecognised tax losses will expire as follows:

	2021 HK$'000	2020 HK$'000
Year 2021	—	6,847
Year 2022	93	91
Year 2023	41	40

Year 2027	8,920	—
No expiry	29,775	12,160
	143,739	92,830

27. OTHER LONG-TERM LIABILITIES

Other long-term liabilities represent preference shares issued by OCG Thailand.

At the end of the reporting period, the Group had an outstanding amount due to a non-controlling shareholder of Baht 25,500,000 (equivalent to approximately HK$6,327,000) (2020: Baht 25,500,000 (equivalent to approximately HK$6,050,000)) in respect of the issued and paid up preference share capital of OCG Thailand, which carries cumulative dividend at 9.5% per annum, with no accrued dividend payable (2020: Nil).

28. CONVERTIBLE BONDS ISSUED BY A LISTED SUBSIDIARY

On 26 June 2020 (the “Bond Issue Date”), OPG issued convertible bonds (the “OPG CBs”), with a coupon interest rate of 7% per annum, in an aggregate principal amount of HK$11,850,000 to not less than six independent placees who, and where applicable, whose ultimate beneficial owners were independent third parties. The OPG CBs will mature on the date (the “Maturity Date”) falling upon the expiry of two years from the Bond Issue Date or if such date is not a business day, the immediate preceding business day.

The coupon interest is accrued on a day to day basis on the principal amount of the OPG CBs outstanding and shall only be payable by OPG semi-annually in arrears on the dates falling six months and one year after the Bond Issue Date and on the anniversary(ies) of such dates for each year thereafter up to and including the Maturity Date. Bondholders will be entitled to receive an additional interest at the rate of 10% per annum from the Bond Issue Date up to and including the Maturity Date chargeable on the principal amount of the OPG CBs, which will be payable by OPG on the Maturity Date, if they have not converted any of the OPG CBs into new shares of OPG.

The OPG CBs can be converted into a maximum number of 79,000,000 ordinary shares of OPG at the initial conversion price of HK$0.15 per share of OPG.

28. CONVERTIBLE BONDS ISSUED BY A LISTED SUBSIDIARY (continued)

Assuming all OPG CBs were fully converted into the ordinary shares of OPG, the Company's shareholding in OPG would be diluted from 32.5% to 30.1% which would result in a deemed disposal of the equity interest in OPG. Accordingly, the equity component of OPG CBs is reported as "Potential non-controlling interests" in the consolidated financial statements.

At initial recognition, the OPG CBs were separated into a liability component and an equity component representing the conversion options of the bondholders. The fair values of the liability component and the equity conversion component were determined at the Bonds Issue Date. The fair value of the liability component was calculated using market interest rates ranged from 21.33% to 21.44% per annum for instruments without a conversion option of comparable credit status which is referenced to professional valuation conducted by an independent professionally qualified valuer. The residual amount, representing the value of the equity conversion component, has been reported as potential non-controlling interests.

The liability component was amortised over the term of the OPG CBs with the effective interest method. The effective interest rate of the liability component of the OPG CBs on initial recognition is 21.93% per annum and is subsequently carried at amortised cost.

The OPG CB recognised at the end of the reporting period are calculated as follow:

	HK$'000
Liability component
Fair value of liability component at the Bond Issue Date	10,951
Issue costs	(284)
	10,667
Effective interest expenses	1,823
Interest paid	(420)
Interest accrued	(211)
At 31 March 2021	11,859
Potential non-controlling interests
Nominal value of the OPG CBs	11,850
Fair value of liability component at the Bond Issue Date	(10,951)

37. FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

(a) Financial risk management objectives and policies

The Group's principal financial instruments comprise of restricted funds, cash and bank balances, other long-term liabilities, liability component of convertible bonds issued by a listed subsidiary and bonds payables. The main purpose of these financial instruments is to raise and maintain finance for the Group's operations. The Group has various other financial instruments such as trade and other receivables and trade and other payables, which arise directly from its business activities.

The main risks arising from the Group's financial instruments are (i) interest rate risk, (ii) liquidity risk and (iii) credit risk. The Directors meet regularly and co-operate closely with key management to identify and evaluate risks and generally adopt conservative strategies on the risk management and limit the Group's exposure to these risks to a minimum as follows:

(i) Interest rate risk

The Group's exposure to market risk for changes in interest rates is related primarily to its interest-bearing financial assets including certain other investments, restricted funds and cash and bank balances.

At the end of the reporting period, if interest rates had been 50 basis points higher/lower and all other variables were held constant, the Group's loss before tax for the year would have been approximately HK$2,222,000 (2020: approximately HK$2,653,000) lower/higher.

The Group's sensitivity to interest rates would change in the same direction as the changes in its interest-bearing balances of financial assets as mentioned above.

The sensitivity analysis above has been determined assuming that the change in interest rates had occurred throughout the reporting period and had been applied to the exposure to interest rate risk for the average balances of the interest-bearing financial assets in existence during the reporting period. The 50 basis point increase or decrease represents management's assessment of a reasonably possible change in interest rates.

(ii) Liquidity risk

Management of the Group aims at maintaining sufficient level of cash and cash equivalents to finance the Group's operations and expected expansion. The Group's primary cash requirements include payments for operating expenses and additions or upgrades of property, plant and equipment and intangible assets. The Group finances its working capital requirements mainly by the funds generated from operations, public fund raisings and inception of interest-bearing borrowings (if any).

(a) Financial risk management objectives and policies (continued)

(iii) Credit risk

The carrying amount of financial assets recognised on the consolidated statement of financial position, which is net of impairment losses, represents the Group's exposure to credit risk without taking into account the value of any collateral held or other credit enhancements.

Trade receivables

The Group trades only with recognised and creditworthy third parties. It is the Group's policy that all customers who wish to trade on credit terms are subject to credit verification procedures. The Group limits its exposure to credit risk from trade receivables by establishing a maximum payment period of three months.

The Group's exposure to credit risk is influenced mainly by the individual characteristics of each customer. The default risk of the industry and country in which customers operate also has an influence on credit risk but to a lesser extent. Credit quality of a customer is assessed based on an extensive credit rating and individual credit limit assessment which is mainly based on the Group's own trading records.

The Group's customer base consists of a wide range of clients and the trade receivables are categorised by common risk characteristics that are representative of the customers' abilities to pay all amounts due in accordance with the contractual terms. The Group applies a simplified approach in calculating ECL for trade receivables and recognises a loss allowance based on lifetime ECL at each reporting date and has established a provision matrix that is based on its historical credit loss experience, adjusted for forward-looking factors specific to the debtors and the economic environment. The expected loss rate used in the provision matrix is calculated for each category based on historical observed loss rates over the expected life of the trade receivables and adjusted for current and forward-looking factors to reflect differences between economic conditions during the period over which the historical data has been collected, current conditions and the Group's estimate on future economic conditions over the expected lives of the receivables.

The information about the exposure to credit risk and ECL for trade receivables using a provision matrix at 31 March 2021 and 2020 is summarised below.

The Group's customer base consists of a wide range of borrowers are categorised by common risk characteristics that are representative of the customers' abilities to pay all amounts due in accordance with the contractual terms. In estimating the ECL and in determining whether there is a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition and whether the financial asset is credit-impaired, the Group has taken into account the historical actual credit loss experience for the borrowers and adjusted for forward-looking factors that are specific to the debtors and general economic conditions of the industry in which the counterparties operate, in estimating the probability of default of these financial assets, as well as the loss upon default in each case.

The information about the ECL for the loan receivables at 31 March 2021 and 2020 is summarised below. The gross carrying amounts of the financial assets, by credit risk rating grades, are as follows:
