MATTERS IN RELATION TO WITHHOLDING INCOME TAX

1. For holders of H Shares (except for the H Shareholders of the Southbound Trading)

According to the Law on Enterprise Income Tax of the PRC and its implementing rules which came into effect on 1 January 2008 and the “Notice of the Issues concerning Withholding Income Tax on the Dividend Paid by Chinese Resident Enterprises to H Share Holders Which are Overseas Non-resident Enterprises” issued by the State Taxation Administration (the “STA”) on 6 November 2008, the Company is required to withhold enterprise income tax at the rate of 10% before distributing dividends to non-resident enterprise shareholders whose names appear on the register of members of H Share of the Company. According to the requirements of Guo Shui Han [2011] No. 348 issued by the STA, the Company is required to withhold the enterprise income tax for H Shareholders which are non-resident enterprises. At the same time, H Shareholders which are non-resident enterprises are entitled to the relevant preferential tax treatment according to the provisions in respect of the tax agreements between the countries where they reside and China and the tax arrangements between the mainland China and Hong Kong (Macau). If the H Shareholders which are non-resident enterprises are residents of the countries having an agreed dividend tax rate of less than 10% with China, the Company shall withhold the enterprise income tax at a rate of 10%. According to the requirements of the Announcement of the STA on Promulgating the Administrative Measures for Tax Convention Treatment for Non-resident Taxpayers (STA Announcement [2015] No. 60) and the Guo Shui Han [2011] No. 348 documents, once the H Shareholders which are non-resident enterprises have submitted applications and the relevant materials, the withholding agent would make applications on their behalf to seek entitlement of the relevant agreed preferential treatments, and upon approval by the tax authorities, over withheld tax amounts will be refunded. Any shares registered in the name of non-individual registered shareholders, including HKSCC Nominees Limited, other nominees, trustees or other organisations and groups will be treated as being held by non-resident enterprise shareholders and therefore dividends payable to them will be subject to the withholding of the enterprise income tax. Should any holders of H Shares wish to change their shareholder status, please consult their agent or trust institution over the relevant procedures. The Company will withhold the enterprise income tax strictly in accordance with the relevant laws or requirements of the relevant governmental departments and strictly based on what has been registered on the Company’s H Share register of members at the close of business on 16 June 2021. However, the Company has no obligation to withhold such enterprise income tax when distributing final dividends to the resident enterprise shareholders whose names appear on the register of members of H Shares on the record date. A resident enterprise (with the same meaning as defined in the tax laws) which is incorporated in the PRC or is incorporated under the law of a foreign country (or region) with its de facto management organisation located within the PRC should submit to the H Share registrar of the Company, Computershare Hong Kong Investors Services Limited, at or before 4:30 p.m. on the record date a legal opinion (stamped with the chop of the law firm) issued by a qualified PRC practicing lawyer ascertaining its resident enterprise status. Otherwise, the Company will not be held responsible for disputes in relation to withholding enterprise income tax arising from the shareholder’s failure to submit the legal opinion within the prescribed period.

According to the regulation of Guo Shui Han [2011] No. 348 issued by the STA, the Company is required to withhold the individual income tax in respect of dividend for its individual H Shareholders and the individual H Shareholders are entitled to certain tax preferential treatments according to the provisions in respect of the tax agreements between those countries where the individual H Shareholders are residents and China and tax arrangements between the mainland China and Hong Kong (Macau). The Company would withhold the individual income tax at the tax rate of 10% on behalf of the individual H Shareholders who are Hong Kong residents, Macau residents or residents of those countries having agreements with China for individual income tax rate in respect of dividend of 10%. For individual H Shareholders who are residents of those countries having agreements with China for individual income tax rate in respect of dividend of lower than 10%, the Company would withhold the individual income tax at the tax rate of 10% on behalf of them. According to the requirements of the Announcement of the STA on Promulgating the Administrative Measures for Tax Convention Treatment for Non-resident Taxpayers (STA Announcement [2015] No. 60) and the Guo Shui Han [2011] No. 348 documents, once the individual shareholders have submitted applications and the relevant materials, the withholding agent would make applications on their behalf to seek entitlement of the relevant agreed preferential treatments, and upon approval by the tax authorities, over withheld tax amounts will be refunded. For individual H Shareholders who are residents of those countries having agreements with China for individual income tax rate in respect of dividend of higher than 10% but lower than 20%, the Company would withhold the individual income tax at the agreed-upon effective tax rate. For individual H Shareholders who are residents of those countries without any taxation agreements with China or having agreements with China for individual income tax in respect of dividend of 20% and other situations, the Company would withhold the individual income tax at a tax rate of 20%. The Company will determine the country of domicile of the individual H Shareholders based on the registered address as recorded in the register of members of the Company (hereinafter referred to as the “Registered Address”) at the close of business on 16 June 2021 and will accordingly withhold the individual income tax. If the country of domicile of the individual H Shareholder is not the same as the Registered Address, the individual H Shareholder shall notify the H Share registrar of the Company and provide relevant supporting documents on or before 4:30 p.m., 16 June 2021. The contact details are as follows: Computershare Hong Kong Investor Services Limited, Shops 1712-1716, 17th Floor, Hopewell Centre, 183 Queen’s Road East, Wanchai, Hong Kong. If the individual H Shareholders do not provide the relevant supporting documents to the share registrar of the Company’s H Shares within the time period stated above, the Company will determine the country of domicile of the individual H Shareholders based on the recorded Registered Address on 16 June 2021. The Company assumes no liability whatsoever in respect of any claims arising from any delay in, or inaccurate determination of, the status of the shareholders of the Company or any disputes over the withholding tax.
