

APPENDIX V

SUMMARY OF ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION

SHARES

Issuance of Shares

The shares of the Company shall be in the form of share certificates.

The issuance of the Company’s shares shall adhere to the principles of openness, fairness and impartiality. Each share of the same class shall have equal rights.

For shares of the same class issued at the same time, the issuance conditions and prices per share shall be the same; any entity or individual subscribing for shares shall pay the same price for each share.

All the shares issued by the Company are shares with par value, and the par value shall be denominated in Renminbi, with each share having a par value of RMB0.1.

Increase, Reduction and Repurchase of Shares

Increase of Registered Capital

The Company may increase its capital in the following ways:

- (i) publicly issue shares;
- (ii) privately issue shares;
- (iii) distribute bonus shares to existing shareholders;
- (iv) convert capital reserve into share capital;
- (v) other methods as prescribed by laws and administrative regulations, approved by the China Securities Regulatory Commission (the “CSRC”), the securities regulatory authorities of the stock exchange where the Company’s shares are listed and the Hong Kong Stock Exchange.

Reduction of Registered Capital

The Company is permitted to decrease its registered capital. When reducing the registered capital, the Company must comply with the Company Law of the PRC (《中華人民共和國公司法》) (the “Company Law”), the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on the Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (《香港聯合交易所有限公司證券上市規則》) (the “Listing Rules”), other pertinent regulations, and the procedures specified in the Articles of Association.

Repurchase of Shares

Subject to compliance with all laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules, securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company’s shares are listed, the Listing Rules, and the Articles of Association, the Company may acquire its own shares under the following circumstances:

- (i) reducing the Company’s registered capital;

APPENDIX V

SUMMARY OF ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION

- (ii) merging with another Company that holds the Company’s shares;
- (iii) using the shares for an employee shareholding plan or equity incentive;
- (iv) when a shareholder, objecting to the Company’s resolution on merger or division adopted by the shareholders’ meeting, requests the Company to purchase their shares;
- (v) using the shares to convert into the convertible corporate bonds issued by the Company;
- (vi) as necessary to safeguard the Company’s value and the rights and interests of shareholders;
- (vii) other circumstances permitted under applicable laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules, normative documents, the relevant provisions of the securities regulatory authority of the stock exchange where the Company’s shares are listed, and the Listing Rules.

Except for the above-mentioned circumstances, the Company shall not engage in activities of buying or selling its own shares.

If the Company repurchases its own shares for the reasons set out in items (i) and (ii) above, it shall be subject to the resolution of the shareholders’ meeting. For the repurchase of the Company’s own shares under the circumstances specified in items (iii), (v) and (vi) above, it should be resolved by a meeting of the board of directors (the “Board”) attended by more than two-thirds of the directors.

After the Company repurchases its own shares in accordance with the above-mentioned provisions, in the case of item (i), the repurchased shares shall be cancelled within 10 days from the date of acquisition; in the case of items (ii) and (iv), the repurchased shares shall be transferred or cancelled within 6 months; in the case of items (iii), (v) and (vi), the total number of the Company’s own shares held by the Company shall not exceed 10% of the total number of issued shares of the Company, and shall be transferred or cancelled within 3 years. Where laws, regulations, and the securities regulatory authorities of the place where the Company’s shares are listed otherwise provide for the matters related to share repurchases, such provisions shall prevail.

Transfer of Shares

The Company’s shares may be transferred in accordance with the law.

Shares issued by the Company before its public offering of shares shall not be transferred within 1 year from the date of listing of the Company’s shares on the stock exchange. The controlling shareholder of the company shall comply with the restrictions on the disposal of shares by controlling shareholders after a new listing under the Listing Rules.

The Company does not accept its own shares as the subject of a pledge.

Directors, and senior management personnel of the Company shall declare to the Company the shares they hold and any changes in such shares. During their term of office, the number of shares transferred each year shall not exceed 25% of the total number of shares they hold in the Company; the shares they hold shall not be transferred within 1 year of the date of listing of the Company’s shares. Within 6 months after leaving the office, the above-mentioned personnel shall not transfer the shares they hold in the Company. Where the listing rules of the exchange where the company's shares are listed contain separate provisions regarding restrictions on the transfer of the shares, such provisions shall prevail.

Controlling shareholders and De Facto Controllers

The Company's controlling shareholders and de facto controllers shall comply with the following provisions:

- (i) to exercise their shareholder rights in accordance with the law, and not to abuse their controlling power or use their connected relationships to harm the legal rights and interests of the Company or other shareholders;
- (ii) to strictly fulfill public statements and all commitments made, and not to alter or waive such commitments from performance;
- (iii) to strictly fulfill information disclosure obligations in accordance with relevant regulations, and to actively cooperate with the Company in its information disclosure, and to promptly inform the Company of any material events that have occurred or are proposed;
- (iv) not to occupy the Company's funds in any way;
- (v) not to compel, instruct, or require the Company and relevant personnel to provide guarantees in violation of laws and regulations;
- (vi) not to use the Company's undisclosed material information to seek benefits, not to disclose any undisclosed material information related to the Company in anyway, and not to engage in illegal activities such as insider trading, short-swing trading, or market manipulation;
- (vii) not to harm the legal rights and interests of the Company and other shareholders through any means such as unfair connected transactions, profit distribution, asset reorganisation, or external investments;
- (viii) to ensure the integrity of the Company's assets, the independence of its personnel, finances, organization and business, and not to affect the Company's independence in any way;
- (ix) other provisions of laws, administrative regulations, securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed, and the Articles of Association.

If the Company's controlling shareholders or de facto controllers instructs a director or senior management to engage in acts that harm the interests of the Company or shareholders, they shall bear joint and several liability with that director or senior management.

APPENDIX V

SUMMARY OF ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION

SHAREHOLDERS AND SHAREHOLDERS’ MEETING

Shareholders

The Company establishes the register of members based on the certificates provided by the securities registration and clearing institution, and the register of members is conclusive evidence of the shareholders’ ownership of the Company’s shares.

The original register of holders of H-shares is kept in Hong Kong, and the appointed overseas agent shall ensure that the original and duplicate copies of the overseas-listed share register remain consistent at all times. The Hong Kong branch register of shareholders must be available for inspection by shareholders, but the Company may suspend the registration of shareholders in accordance with the applicable laws and regulations and the laws and regulations of the place where the Company’s shares are listed.

Shareholders of the Company have the following rights:

- (i) to receive dividends and other forms of profit distribution in accordance with the proportion of shares they hold;
- (ii) to legally request, convene, preside over, attend, or appoint a proxy to attend the meeting and exercise the corresponding right to vote;
- (iii) to supervise the Company’s operations, make suggestions, or ask questions;
- (iv) to transfer, donate, or pledge the shares they hold in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations, securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company’s shares are listed, and the Articles of Association;
- (v) to review and copy the Articles of Association, the register of members, the records of the shareholders’ meeting, the resolutions of the Board meeting, and the financial accounting reports. Shareholders may review the Company’s accounting books and vouchers in accordance with the Company Law;
- (vi) to participate in the distribution of the Company’s remaining properties in the event of the Company’s dissolution or liquidation, in accordance with the proportion of shares they hold;
- (vii) to request the Company to purchase their shares in the event that they object to the meeting resolutions of the shareholders on the Company’s merger or division; and
- (viii) other rights stipulated by laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules, securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company’s shares are listed, or the Articles of Association.

Where shareholders request to inspect or copy relevant Company materials shall comply with the provisions of the Company Law, the Securities Law of the PRC (《中華人民共和國證券法》) (the “Securities Law”), and other laws and administrative regulations, securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company’s shares are listed, and shall submit written documentation to the Company, certifying the types and quantities of shares held. Upon verification of the shareholder’s identity, the Company shall furnish the requested information in accordance with the shareholder’s requirements.

If the content of the resolution of the Company’s shareholders’ meeting or the Board meeting violates laws or administrative regulations, the Shareholders have the right to request the people’s court to clarify it invalid.

If the convening procedures or voting methods of the shareholders’ meeting or the Board meeting violate laws, administrative regulations or the Articles of Association, or the content of the resolution violates the Articles of Association, the Shareholders have the right to request the people’s court to revoke the resolution within 60 days from the date on which the resolution is made, unless there are only minor flaws in the convening procedures or voting methods of the shareholders’ meeting or the Board meeting resulting in no substantial impact on the resolution.

Where there is a dispute among the Board, shareholders and other relevant parties as to the validity of a shareholders’ meeting resolution, they should promptly institute legal proceedings before the people’s court. Before the people’s court makes a judgment or ruling to revoke the resolution, etc., the relevant parties shall implement the shareholders’ meeting resolution. The Company, directors and senior management shall effectively perform their duties to ensure the normal operation of the Company.

If the people’s court makes a judgment or ruling on relevant matters, the Company shall fulfill its information disclosure obligations in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations and provisions of the China Securities Regulatory Commission (the “CSRC”) and the securities regulatory authorities of the place where the Company’s shares are listed, fully explain the impact, and actively cooperate with the execution after the judgment or ruling takes effect. If correction of prior matters is involved, it will be handled promptly, and corresponding information disclosure obligations will be fulfilled.

A resolution of the Company’s shareholders’ meeting or the Board meeting is invalid under any of the following circumstances:

- (i) the resolution was made without holding a shareholders’ meeting or the Board meeting;
- (ii) the shareholders’ meeting or the Board meeting did not vote on the resolution matter;
- (iii) the number of attendees or the voting rights held by them did not reach the quorum required by the Company Law or the Articles of Association;
- (iv) the number of persons or the voting rights held by them agreeing to the resolution matter did not reach the majority required by the Company Law or the Articles of Association.

Shareholders of the Company undertake the following obligations:

- (i) to comply with laws, administrative regulations, the securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company’s shares are listed, and the Articles of Association;
- (ii) to pay the share subscription amount in accordance with the shares they subscribe for and the method of subscription;

APPENDIX V

SUMMARY OF ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION

- (iii) except as otherwise provided by laws and regulations, not to withdraw share capital;
- (iv) not to abuse shareholders' rights to prejudice the interests of the Company or other shareholders; not to abuse the independent status of a legal person or the joint stock limited liability of shareholders to prejudice the interests of the Company's creditors; and
- (v) other obligations stipulated by laws, administrative regulations, the securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed, and the Articles of Association.

If a shareholder of the Company abuses his/her rights and causes loss to the Company or other shareholders, he/she shall be liable for compensation in accordance with the law. If a shareholder of the Company abuses the independent status of the independent status of a legal person and the joint stock limited liability of shareholders to evade debts and seriously harm the interests of the Company's creditors, he/she shall bear joint and several liability for the Company's debts.

General Provisions on the Meeting of Shareholders

The shareholders' meeting of the Company shall be composed of all shareholders. The shareholders' meeting is the authority of the Company and shall exercise the following powers in accordance with the law:

- (i) to elect and replace directors who are not elected by employee representatives, and to determine the remuneration of directors;

- (vii) other guarantee matters, subject to the determination of the shareholders' meeting, stipulated by laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules, the securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed, and the Articles of Association.

The shareholders' meeting is divided into the annual meeting and the extraordinary meeting. The annual meeting shall be held once a year and shall be held within 6 months after the end of the previous financial year.

In the event of any of the following circumstances, the Company shall convene an extraordinary meeting within 2 months from the date of occurrence thereof:

- (i) the number of directors is less than the number stipulated by the Company Law or two-thirds of the number stipulated in the Articles of Association;
- (ii) the Company's unrecovered losses reach one-third of the total paid-up capital;
- (iii) at the request of shareholders who individually or collectively hold more than 10% of the Company's shares;
- (iv) the Board deems it necessary;

APPENDIX V

SUMMARY OF ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION

- (v) the Audit Committee proposes to convene it; and
- (vi) other circumstances stipulated by laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules, the securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed or the Articles of Association.

Convening of Shareholders' Meetings

The shareholders' meeting shall be convened by the Board within the time limit specified.

After obtaining the consent of a majority of all independent non-executive directors (the "INEDs"), an INED has the right to propose to the Board to convene an extraordinary shareholders' meeting. Upon receiving such a proposal, the Board shall, in accordance with the provisions of laws, administrative regulations, the securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed and the Articles of Association, provide a written response within 10 days of receipt, indicating whether it agrees or disagrees to convene an extraordinary shareholders' meeting.

If the Board agrees to convene an extraordinary shareholders' meeting, it shall issue a notice of the shareholders' meeting within 5 days after making the Board resolution. If the Board disagrees to convene an extraordinary shareholders' meeting, it shall state the reasons and make an announcement.

The Audit Committee has the right to propose to the Board to convene an extraordinary shareholders' meeting and shall submit the proposal to the Board in writing. The Board shall, in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations, the securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed and the Articles of Association, provide a written response within 10 days after receiving the proposal, indicating whether it agrees or disagrees to convene an extraordinary shareholders' meeting. If the Board agrees to convene an extraordinary shareholders' meeting, it shall issue a notice of the extraordinary shareholders' meeting within 5 days after making the Board resolution. Any changes to the original proposal in the notice shall be subject to the consent of the Audit Committee. If the Board disagrees to convene an extraordinary shareholders' meeting or fails to respond within 10 days after receiving the proposal, it shall be deemed that the Board is unable or fails to perform its duty to convene the shareholders' meeting. The Audit Committee may convene and preside over the meeting on its own.

A shareholder or shareholders holding more than 10% of the Company's shares shall have the right to request the Board to convene an extraordinary shareholders' meeting and shall submit the request to the Board in writing. The Board shall, in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association, provide a written response within 10 days after receiving the request, indicating whether it agrees or disagrees to convene an extraordinary shareholders' meeting. If the Board agrees to convene an extraordinary shareholders' meeting, it shall serve a notice for the extraordinary shareholders' meeting within 5 days after making the Board resolution. Any changes to the original request in the notice shall be subject to the consent of the relevant shareholders. If the Board disagrees to convene an extraordinary shareholders' meeting or does not respond within 10 days after receiving the request, a shareholder or shareholders holding more than 10% of the Company's shares have the right to propose to the Audit Committee to convene an extraordinary shareholders' meeting and shall submit the request to the Audit Committee in writing. If the Audit Committee agrees to convene an extraordinary shareholders' meeting, it shall serve a notice for the extraordinary shareholders' meeting within 5 days after receiving the request. Any changes to the original request in the notice shall be subject to the consent of the relevant shareholders. If the Audit Committee does not serve a notice for the extraordinary shareholders' meeting within the prescribed period, it shall be deemed that the Audit Committee does not convene and preside over the general meeting. A shareholder or shareholders holding more than 10% of the Company's shares continuously for more than 90 days may convene and preside over the meeting on their own.

If the Audit Committee or a shareholder decides to convene the shareholders' meeting on their own, they shall notify the Board in writing before serving the notice of the shareholders' meeting and, if required, report, announce or file with the stock exchange in accordance with the securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed. The proportion of shares held by the convening shareholder shall not be less than 10% before the announcement of the shareholders' meeting resolution. The Audit Committee or the convening shareholder shall submit relevant supporting materials in accordance with the requirements of the stock exchange where the Company's shares are listed when serving the notice of the shareholders' meeting and the announcement of the shareholders' meeting resolution.

Proposals and Notices of Shareholders' Meetings

The matters contained in a proposal shall be fall within the terms of reference of the shareholders' meeting and shall have explicit topics and specific matters for resolution, and shall be in compliance with the relevant provisions of laws, administrative regulations, the securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed and the Articles of Association.

For convening a shareholders' meeting of the Company, the Board, the Audit Committee, and a shareholder or shareholders holding more than 1% of the Company's shares have the right to propose it to the Company.

A shareholder or shareholders holding more than 1% of the Company's shares may submit a interim proposal in writing to the convener 10 days before the date of the shareholders' meeting.

The convener shall issue a supplementary notice of the shareholders' meeting within 2 days after receiving the proposal, state the name of the shareholder who proposes the temporary proposal, their shareholding ratio, and the content of the new proposal and submit the interim proposal for review at the shareholders' meeting. However, this does not apply if the interim proposal violates the laws, administrative regulations, or the Articles of Association, or is not within the scope of the powers of the shareholders' meeting.

Except for the circumstances specified in the preceding paragraph, after the convener has issued the notice of the shareholders' meeting, it shall not modify the proposals already listed in the notice or add new proposals.

Any proposal that is not stated in the notice of the shareholders' meeting or does not comply with the provisions of the preceding paragraph shall not be voted and approved at the shareholders' meeting.

The convener shall notify each shareholder in writing at least 21 days before the annual shareholders' meeting, and at least 15 days before the extraordinary shareholders' meeting.

APPENDIX V

SUMMARY OF ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION

A notice of a shareholders’ meeting shall include the following:

- (i) the time, venue, format, convener, and duration of the meeting;
- (ii) matters and proposals submitted to the meeting for consideration;
- (iii) a prominent written statement that all ordinary shareholders (including preferred shareholders with restored voting rights), as well as shareholders holding special voting rights shares, are entitled to attend the shareholders’ meeting and are entitled to appoint in writing a proxy to attend and vote at the meeting and that such a proxy need not be a shareholder of the Company;
- (iv) the name and telephone number of the regular contact person for the meeting;
- (v) the record date of shareholders entitled to attend the meeting;
- (vi) the time and procedure for voting online or through other means; and
- (vii) matters stipulated by the laws, administrative regulations, securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company’s shares are listed, as well as other provisions set forth in the Articles of Association.

Notices and supplementary notices of shareholders’ meetings shall adequately and completely disclose the full contents of all proposals. Where matters to be discussed require the opinion of the INEDs, their opinions and reasons shall be disclosed simultaneously with the notice or supplementary notice of the shareholders’ meeting.

Holding the Shareholders’ Meeting

All shareholders or their proxies registered on the equity registration date shall be entitled to attend the shareholders’ meeting and exercise their voting rights at the meeting in accordance with relevant laws, regulations, the securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company’s shares are listed and the Articles of Association.

A shareholder may attend the shareholders’ meeting in person or entrust a proxy to attend and vote on his/her behalf.

Individual shareholders attending the meeting in person shall present their identity card or other valid documents or proof that can indicate their identity; proxies attending the meeting on behalf of others shall present their valid identity documents and the shareholders’ powers of attorney.

Corporate shareholders shall be represented by the legal representative or a proxy appointed by the legal representative to attend the meeting. The legal representative attending the meeting shall present his/her identity card and valid proof of his/her qualification as the legal representative; the proxy attending the meeting shall present his/her identity card and the power of attorney issued by the legal representative of the corporate shareholder (except for shareholders who are recognized clearing houses or their agents as defined from time to time under the laws of Hongkong or regulations of the place where the Company’s shares are listed).

APPENDIX V

SUMMARY OF ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION

The shareholders’ meeting shall be presided over by the chairman of the Board. If the chairman of the Board is unable to perform his/her duties or fails to perform his/her duties, a director shall be jointly elected by more than half of the directors to preside over the meeting.

For the shareholders’ meeting convened by the Audit Committee on its own, it shall be presided over by the convener of the Audit Committee. If the convener of the Audit Committee is unable to perform his/her duties or fails to perform his/her duties, a member of the Audit Committee shall be jointly elected by more than half of its members to preside over the meeting. For the shareholders’ meeting convened by shareholders on their own, a convener shall be chaired or a representative shall be elected by the convener to preside over the meeting. If the presiding officer of the shareholders’ meeting violates the rules of procedure in such a way that the shareholders’ meeting cannot continue, with the consent of more than half of the shareholders present at the shareholders’ meeting who have voting rights, the shareholders’ meeting may elect one person to act as the presiding officer to continue the meeting.

Voting and Resolutions of Shareholders’ Meetings

The resolutions of the shareholders’ meeting are divided into ordinary resolutions and special resolutions.

An ordinary resolution at a shareholders’ meeting shall be passed by more than half of the voting rights held by the shareholders (including shareholder proxies) present at the shareholders’ meeting.

A special resolution at a shareholders’ meeting shall be passed by at least two-thirds of the voting rights held by the shareholders (including shareholder proxies) present at the shareholders’ meeting.

The following matters shall be approved by the shareholders’ meeting through ordinary resolutions:

- (i) the work reports of the Board and;
- (ii) the profit distribution plans and loss compensation plans proposed by the Board;

Financial Accounting System

The Company shall formulate its financial accounting system in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations, relevant national departments and the securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company’s shares are listed.

The Company shall not maintain any accounting books other than the statutory ones. The Company’s assets shall not be deposited or stored in any account opened in any individual’s name.

APPENDIX V

SUMMARY OF ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION

Profit Distribution

When distributing the after-tax profits of the current year, the Company shall appropriate 10% of the profits to the Company’s statutory common reserve. If the accumulated amount of the Company’s statutory common reserve exceeds 50% of its registered capital, no further appropriation may be made.

If the Company’s statutory common reserve is insufficient to cover the losses of previous years, the Company shall first use the current year’s profits to cover the losses before any appropriation of the statutory common reserve as stipulated above.

After the Company has appropriated its statutory common reserve from the profits after tax, it may, upon a resolution of the shareholders’ meeting, appropriate a discretionary common reserve from the profits after tax.

The after-tax profits remaining after the Company has covered its losses and appropriated its common reserves shall be distributed in proportion to the number of shares held by the shareholders, except as otherwise provided by laws and regulations, the securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company’s shares are listed, and the resolutions of the shareholders’ meeting.

In the event that a shareholders’ meeting violates the Company Law by distributing profits to shareholders, the shareholders shall refund the profits distributed in breach of the regulations to the Company; if this causes loss to the Company, the shareholders and the responsible directors and senior management shall be liable for compensation.

The shares held by the Company in itself shall not participate in the distribution of profits.

The Company’s common reserve shall be used to cover the Company’s losses, expand the Company’s production and operations, or increase its registered capital. To cover losses with the common reserve, the discretionary common reserve and the statutory common reserve shall first be used; if still insufficient, the capital common reserve may be used in accordance with the regulations. When the statutory common reserve is converted into registered capital, the retained balance of such common reserve shall not be less than 25% of the Company’s registered capital before the conversion.

Internal Audit

The Company shall implement an internal audit system, which specifies the leadership structure, responsibilities and authorities, staffing, financial support, application of audit results, and accountability for internal audit work. The internal audit system of the Company shall be implemented after approval by the Board and shall be disclosed externally.

The internal audit organization shall be accountable to the Board.

Engagement of an Accounting Firm

The Company shall engage an accounting firm that complies with the Securities Law and the securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company’s shares are listed, to conduct audit of financial statements, verification of net assets, and other related consultancy services. The term of engagement shall be 1 year, and the engagement may be renewed.

APPENDIX V

SUMMARY OF ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION

The engagement or dismissal of an accounting firm by the Company shall be decided by the shareholders' meeting, and the Board shall not appoint an accounting firm prior to the decision of the shareholders' meeting.

The Company shall ensure that the accounting vouchers, accounting books, financial accounting reports, and other accounting materials provided to the engaged accounting firm are true and complete, and shall not refuse delivery, or conceal or misrepresent them.

The audit fees of the accounting firm shall be determined by the shareholders' meeting.

When the Company terminates or does not renew the engagement of an accounting firm, it shall notify the accounting firm 15 days in advance. When the shareholders' meeting votes on the dismissal of an accounting firm, the accounting firm shall be allowed to present its opinions.

If an accounting firm proposes to resign, it shall explain to the shareholders' meeting whether there are any irregularities in the Company.

MERGER, DIVISION, INCREASE AND REDUCTION OF CAPITAL, DISSOLUTION, AND LIQUIDATION

Merger, Division, Increase and Reduction of Capital

Merger of companies can be by absorption or by establishment of a new entity.

If one company absorbs another company, it is a merger by absorption, and the absorbed company shall be dissolved. If two or more companies merge to form a new company, it is a merger by creation, and all merging parties shall be dissolved.

In the event of a merger of companies, the merging parties shall enter into a merger agreement and compile a balance sheet and a inventory of assets. The Company shall notify its creditors of the merger within 10 days from the date of the resolution on the merger and make an announcement in newspapers or the National Enterprise Credit Information Publicity System within 30 days. Within 30 days from the date of receipt of the notice, or within 45 days from the date of the announcement if the notice has not been received, the creditors may request the Company to settle the debts or provide corresponding guarantees.

When the Company involves a merger, the claims of debts and liabilities of the merging parties shall be inherited by the surviving company or the newly established company after the merger.

When the Company is divided, its assets shall be divided accordingly.

When the Company is divided, the parties involved shall enter into a division agreement and compile a balance sheet and a inventory of assets. The Company shall notify its creditors within 10 days from the date of the resolution on the division and announce it in the newspaper or the National Enterprise Credit Information Publicity System within 30 days.

APPENDIX V

SUMMARY OF ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION

When the Company is merged or divided, and there is a change in the registration, it shall lawfully apply for a change of registration with the company registration authority. If the Company is dissolved, it shall lawfully apply for cancellation of registration. If a new company is established, it shall lawfully apply for registration of establishment.

When the Company increases or decreases its registered capital, it shall lawfully apply for a change of registration with the company registration authority.

Dissolution and Liquidation

The Company shall be dissolved for the following reasons:

- (i) the business term of its operations stipulated in the Articles of Association expires or other dissolution events stipulated in the Articles of Association occur;
- (ii) resolution of the shareholders' meeting to dissolve;
- (iii) dissolution is required due to the Company's merger or division;
- (iv) the business license is revoked by law, the Company is ordered to be closed down or revoked; and
- (v) the Company's operations and management encounter serious difficulties, and its continued existence would cause significant losses to the shareholders' interests, which cannot be resolved through other means. The shareholders holding more than 10% of the total voting rights of all shareholders of the Company may request the people's court to dissolve the Company.

If the Company encounters any of the dissolution events mentioned above, it shall display the reasons for dissolution through the National Enterprise Credit Information Publicity System within 10 days.

If the Company is dissolved due to the occurrence of the events mentioned in (i) and (ii) above, and has not yet distributed the Company's assets to the shareholders, the Company may continue to exist by amending the Articles of Association or by resolution of the shareholders' meeting. Any amendment to the Articles of Association or resolution made by the shareholders' meeting in accordance with the provisions of the preceding paragraph shall be passed by more than two-thirds of the voting rights held by the shareholders present at the shareholders' meeting.

If the Company is dissolved due to the occurrence of the events mentioned in (i), (ii), (iv), or (v) above, a liquidation group shall be established within 15 days from the occurrence of the dissolution event. The liquidation group shall be composed of directors, unless otherwise resolved by the shareholders' meeting to select other persons. If the Company is dissolved due to the occurrence of the event mentioned in (iv) above, the department or company registration authority that made the decision to revoke the business license, order the Company to close down, or revoke the Company may apply to the people's court to appoint relevant persons to form a liquidation group to commence liquidation.

APPENDIX V

SUMMARY OF ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION

The liquidation group shall notify the creditors within 10 days from the date of its establishment and shall announce it in the designated media or the National Enterprise Credit Information Publicity System within 60 days. Creditors shall declare their claims to the liquidation group within 30 days from the date of receiving the notice, and those who have not received the notice may declare their claims within 45 days from the date of the announcement.

When declaring claims, creditors shall specify the relevant matters of the claims and provide proof. The liquidation group shall register the claims.

During the period for declaration of claims, the liquidation group shall not make repayments to the creditors.

After the liquidation group has liquidated the Company's assets, compiled a balance sheet, and an inventory of assets, it shall formulate a liquidation plan and submit it to the shareholders' meeting or the people's court for confirmation. During the liquidation period, the Company shall continue to exist but shall not engage in any business activities unrelated to the liquidation. The Company's assets shall not be distributed to the shareholders before the claims are settled in accordance with the provisions of the preceding paragraph.

If the liquidation group discovers, after liquidating the Company's assets, compiling a balance sheet, and an inventory of assets, that the Company's assets are insufficient to repay its debts, the liquidation group shall apply to the people's court for bankruptcy declaration in accordance with the law. After the People's Court accepts the bankruptcy application, the liquidation group shall transfer the liquidation matters to the bankruptcy administrator appointed by the People's Court.

After the Company's liquidation is completed, the liquidation group shall prepare a liquidation report, submit it to the shareholders' meeting or the people's court for confirmation, and file it with the company registration authority to apply for the cancellation of the Company's registration and announce the termination of the Company.

If the Company is declared bankrupt by law, it shall be liquidated in accordance with the relevant laws on enterprise bankruptcy.

Amendment of the Articles of Association

The Company shall amend the Articles of Association under any of the following circumstances:

- (i) after the amendment of the Company Law or relevant laws, administrative regulations, or the securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed, and the provisions of the Articles of Association conflict with the amended laws, administrative regulations, or the securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed;
- (ii) changes in the Company's situation that are inconsistent with the matters recorded in the Articles of Association; and
- (iii) resolution of the shareholders' meeting to amend the Articles of Association.

APPENDIX V

SUMMARY OF ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION

The matters of amendment to the Articles of Association passed by the shareholders’ meeting shall be approved by the competent authorities if required; if they involve matters of company registration, the change of registration shall be handled in accordance with the law.

The Board shall amend the Articles of Association in accordance with the resolution of the shareholders’ meeting on the amendment of the Articles of Association and the approval opinions of the competent authorities.
