

APPENDIX V SUMMARY OF THE ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION

This appendix is mainly intended to provide potential investors with an overview of the Articles of Association. As the following information is merely a summary, it does not record all information that may be material to potential investors.

ISSUANCE OF SHARE

The issuance of shares by the Company shall follow the principles of openness, fairness and impartiality. Each share of the same class shall have equal rights.

For shares of the same class issued in the same offering, the issuance conditions and price per share shall be identical; and the same price shall be paid for each share subscribed by subscribers.

INCREASE/REDUCTION AND REPURCHASE OF SHARES

According to the operation and development needs of the Company, subject to the laws and regulations, the Company may increase the share capital by the following ways upon approval by way of resolutions at the shareholders’ meeting:

- (I) issuance of shares to unspecified parties;
- (II) issuance of shares to specified parties;
- (III) distribution of bonus shares to existing shareholders;
- (IV) conversion of capital reserve into share capital;
- (V) Other methods prescribed by laws, administrative regulations, the CSRC, and the securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company’s shares are listed.

The Company may reduce its registered capital. The Company shall reduce its registered capital in accordance with the procedures stipulated in the Company Law and other relevant regulations and the Articles of Association.

The Company shall not repurchase its own shares, save as under one of the following the circumstances:

- (I) reduction of the Company’s registered capital;
- (II) merger with another company holding shares in the Company;
- (III) using the shares for employee stock ownership plan or equity incentives;

APPENDIX V SUMMARY OF THE ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION

- (IV) purchasing its shares from shareholders who have voted against the resolutions on the merger or division of the Company at the shareholders' meeting upon their request;
- (V) using shares for the conversion of corporate bonds which are convertible into shares issued by the Company;
- (VI) as necessary for maintaining the value of the Company and safeguarding the rights and interests of shareholders.

The Company may repurchase its own shares through open centralized trading methods, or other methods prescribed by laws, administrative regulations, the securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed, and recognized by the CSRC and the Hong Kong Stock Exchange.

When the Company repurchases its own shares under circumstances specified in items (III), (V) and (VI) above, it shall do so through open centralized trading methods. After the Company repurchases its own shares, it shall fulfill information disclosure obligations in accordance with the Securities Law, the Hong Kong Listing Rules, and other applicable laws, regulations, and the securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed.

When the Company repurchases its own shares under circumstances specified in items (I) and (II) above, it shall be subject to resolution by the shareholders' meeting; when the Company repurchases its own shares under circumstances specified in items (III), (V) and (VI) above, unless otherwise provided by the securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed, it shall be subject to resolution by a board meeting attended by more than two-thirds of the directors.

After the Company repurchases its shares in accordance with the Articles of Association, unless otherwise provided by the securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed, for circumstances under item (I) above, the shares shall be canceled within ten days from the date of repurchase; for circumstances under items (II) and (IV) above, the shares shall be transferred or canceled within six months; for circumstances under items (III), (V) and (VI) above, the total number of the Company's own shares held by the Company shall not exceed 10% of the total issued shares of the Company, and such shares shall be transferred or canceled within three years.

If applicable laws and regulations, other provisions of the Articles of Association, and the securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed provide otherwise regarding the aforementioned matters related to share repurchase, the Company shall comply with such provisions. The repurchase of the Company's H shares shall comply with the Hong Kong Listing Rules and other relevant laws, regulations, and regulatory provisions of the place where the Company's H shares are listed.

APPENDIX V SUMMARY OF THE ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION

TRANSFER OF SHARES

The Company’s shares shall be transferred in accordance with law. When shareholders transfer their shares, such transfer shall be conducted on legally established securities trading venues or in other manners prescribed by the State Council. All transfers of H shares shall be effected by instruments of transfer in writing in the usual or common form or any other form acceptable to the board of directors (including the standard transfer form or transfer form prescribed by the Hong Kong Stock Exchange from time to time); and such instruments of transfer may be executed by hand only or, if the transferor or transferee is a corporation, under seal. Where the transferor or transferee is a recognized clearing house as defined in relevant ordinances in force from time to time under the laws of Hong Kong (hereinafter referred to as the “Recognized Clearing House”) or its nominee(s), instruments of transfer may be executed by hand or by machine imprinted signatures. All instruments of transfer shall be maintained at the legal address of the Company or other place designated by the board of directors from time to time.

Shares issued by the Company before the public offering of A shares shall not be transferred within one year from the date when the Company’s A shares are listed and traded on a stock exchange. Where laws, administrative regulations, or the CSRC and stock exchanges have other provisions regarding the transfer of shares held by the Company’s shareholders and de facto controllers, such provisions shall prevail.

Directors and senior management of the Company shall report to the Company their shareholdings in the Company and changes therein. During their term of office determined upon them taking office, the shares they transfer each year shall not exceed 25% of the total shares of the same class they hold in the Company. The shares transferred each year through centralized bidding, block trading, agreement transfer, and other methods shall not exceed 25% of the total shares they hold in the Company, except for share changes due to judicial enforcement, inheritance, bequest, legal property division, and other reasons. Where the securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company’s shares are listed provide otherwise regarding transfer restrictions on the Company’s shares, such provisions shall prevail.

The Company shall not accept its own shares as the subject matter of pledge rights. Where shares are pledged during the restricted transfer period prescribed by laws and administrative regulations, the pledgee may not exercise pledge rights during the restricted transfer period.

Directors, senior management, and shareholders holding more than 5% of the Company’s shares who sell their shares or other equity securities of the Company within six months after purchase, or purchase again within six months after sale, shall return the gains therefrom to the Company, and the Company’s board of directors shall recover such gains. However, this excludes securities companies holding more than 5% of shares due to purchasing remaining shares after underwriting and other circumstances prescribed by the CSRC and the securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed. The aforementioned shareholders holding more than 5% of the Company's shares do not include the Recognized Clearing House as defined in relevant ordinances in force from time to time under the laws of Hong Kong and their nominees.

The shares or other equity securities mentioned in the preceding paragraph held by directors, senior management, and natural person shareholders include those held by their spouses, parents, children, and through others' accounts.

Where the Company's board of directors fails to implement the above provisions, shareholders have the right to require the board of directors to implement them within 30 days. Where the Company's board of directors fails to implement them within the aforementioned period, shareholders have the right to directly file lawsuits with the people's court in their own name for the Company's benefit. Where the Company's board of directors fails to implement the above provisions, responsible directors shall bear joint and several liability in accordance with law.

SHAREHOLDERS AND SHAREHOLDERS' MEETING

Shareholders

The Company shall establish a register of members based on certificates provided by securities registration and settlement institutions. The register of members is sufficient evidence proving shareholders' shareholdings in the Company. The original H share register of members shall be maintained in Hong Kong for shareholders' inspection, but the Company may suspend the registration procedures for shareholders in accordance with applicable laws, regulations, and the securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed. The appointed overseas agency shall ensure consistency between the original and duplicate copies of the overseas listed share register at all times. Any shareholder registered in the register of members or any person requesting registration of their name in the register of members may apply to the Company for new share certificates if their share certificates are lost. Where A share shareholders lose their share certificates and apply for new ones, this process shall be handled in accordance with relevant provisions of the Company Law. Where H share shareholders lose their share certificates and apply for new ones, this process may be handled in accordance with laws, securities regulatory rules, or other relevant provisions of the place where the original H share register of members is maintained.

Shareholders shall enjoy rights and bear obligations according to the class of shares they hold; shareholders holding shares of the same class shall enjoy equal rights and bear the same obligations.

Shareholders of the Company shall enjoy the following rights:

- (I) to receive dividends and other forms of benefits according to the number of shares held;

APPENDIX V SUMMARY OF THE ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION

- (II) to require to hold, convene, chair, attend or appoint a proxy to attend shareholders' meetings and exercise the corresponding voting rights in accordance with the laws;
- (III) to supervise the operations of the Company, and to put forward suggestions or raise enquiries;
- (IV) to transfer, grant or pledge shares held by them according to the provisions of the laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association;
- (V) to inspect and duplicate the Articles of Association, registers of members, the minutes of shareholders' meetings, resolutions of the Board meetings and the financial accounting reports. Shareholders who meet the requirements may inspect the Company's accounting books and certificates;
- (VI) in the event of the termination or liquidation of the Company, the right to participate in the distribution of the remaining assets of the Company in proportion to the number of shares held;
- (VII) with respect to shareholders who voted against any resolution adopted at the shareholders' meeting on the merger or division of the Company, the right to demand the Company to acquire the shares held by them;
- (VIII) other rights stipulated in the laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules or the Articles of Association.

Shareholders who individually or collectively hold 3% or more of the Company's shares for 180 consecutive days or more and request to inspect the Company's accounting books and accounting vouchers shall submit written requests to the Company, stating the purpose. Where the Company has reasonable grounds to believe that shareholders' inspection of accounting books and accounting vouchers has improper purposes and may harm the Company's legitimate interests, it may refuse to provide inspection and shall provide written reply to shareholders within 15 days from the date of shareholders' written request, explaining the reasons. Where the Company refuses to provide inspection, shareholders may file lawsuits with the people's court.

Where the content of resolutions by the Company's shareholders' meeting or board of directors violates laws or administrative regulations, shareholders have the right to request the people's court to declare them invalid. Where the convening procedures or voting methods of shareholders' meetings or board meetings violate laws, administrative regulations or the Articles of Association, or the content of resolutions violates the Articles of Association, shareholders have the right to request the people's court to revoke them within 60 days from the date the resolutions are made. However, this excludes cases where the convening procedures or voting methods of shareholders' meetings or board meetings have only minor defects that do not substantially affect the resolutions.

APPENDIX V SUMMARY OF THE ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION

Where directors other than audit committee members and senior management violate laws, administrative regulations or the Articles of Association in performing duties for the Company and cause losses to the Company, shareholders who individually or collectively hold 1% or more of the Company's shares for 180 consecutive days or more have the right to make written requests to the audit committee to file lawsuits with the people's court; where audit committee members violate laws, administrative regulations or the Articles of Association in performing duties for the Company and cause losses to the Company, the aforementioned shareholders may make written requests to the board of directors to file lawsuits with the people's court.

Where the audit committee or the board of directors refuses to file lawsuits after receiving the written requests from shareholders as specified in the preceding paragraph, or fails to file lawsuits within 30 days from the date of receiving the requests, or in urgent circumstances where failure to immediately file lawsuits would cause irreparable damage to the Company's interests, the shareholders specified in the preceding paragraph have the right to directly file lawsuits with the people's court in their own name for the Company's benefit.

Where directors or senior management violate laws, administrative regulations or the Articles of Association and harm shareholders' interests, shareholders may file lawsuits with the people's court.

The shareholders of the Company shall assume the following obligations:

- (I) complying with laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association;
- (II) paying share payments as per the shares subscribed for and the method of subscription;
- (III) not to withdraw its share capital, except for circumstances stipulated by laws and regulations;
- (IV) not to abuse the shareholders' rights to impair the interest of the Company or other shareholders; not to abuse the independent legal person status of the Company and the limited liability of shareholders to impair the interest of creditors of the Company;
- (V) other obligations required to be assumed under laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association.

Shareholders of the Company shall be liable for making compensation for any loss suffered by the Company or other shareholders arising from their abuse of shareholders' rights in accordance with law. Shareholders of the Company who abuse the independent legal person status of the Company and the limited liability of shareholders to evade debts and seriously impair the interest of creditors of the Company shall be jointly and severally liable for the debts of the Company.

APPENDIX V SUMMARY OF THE ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION

Controlling Shareholders and De Facto Controllers

The controlling shareholders and de facto controllers of the Company shall comply with the following provisions:

- (I) exercise shareholders' rights in accordance with the law, not to abuse controlling interest, or exploit connected-party relationships to harm the legitimate rights and interests of the Company or other shareholders;
- (II) strictly fulfill public statements and commitments made, without unauthorised changes or waivers;
- (III) strictly fulfill information disclosure obligations in accordance with relevant regulations, actively cooperate with the Company in information disclosure work, and promptly inform the Company of significant events that have occurred or are planned to occur;
- (IV) shall not misappropriate the Company's funds in any way;
- (V) shall not coerce, instruct, or require the Company and related personnel to illegally provide guarantees;
- (VI) shall not seek benefits using the Company's undisclosed significant information, shall not disclose any undisclosed significant information about the Company in any way, shall not engage in insider trading, short term trading, market manipulation, or other illegal activities;
- (VII) shall not damage the legitimate rights and interests of the Company and other shareholders through unfair related party transactions, profit distribution, asset reorganization, external investments, or any other means;
- (VIII) ensure the integrity of the Company's assets, personnel independence, financial independence, institutional independence, and business independence, and shall not in any way affect the Company's independence;
- (IX) comply with laws, administrative regulations, provisions of the CSRC, the securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed and other provisions of the Articles of Association.

Where any controlling shareholder or de facto controller of the Company instructs a director or senior management officer to engage in conduct that harms the interests of the Company or shareholders, such controlling shareholder or de facto controller shall bear joint and several liabilities with that director or senior management officer.

APPENDIX V SUMMARY OF THE ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION

General Provisions for Shareholders' Meetings

The shareholders' meeting of the Company shall be composed of all shareholders. The shareholders' meeting is the authority of power of the Company which shall exercise the following functions and powers in accordance with the laws:

- (I) elect and replace the directors who are not representatives of the employees, and decide on matters relating to the remuneration of the directors;
- (II) examine and approve the reports of the board of directors;
- (III) consider and approve the Company's profit distribution plans and loss recovery plans;
- (IV) resolve to increase or reduce the registered capital of the Company;
- (V) resolve on the issuance of corporate bonds;
- (VI) resolve on merger, division, dissolution and liquidation or change in corporate form of the Company;
- (VII) amend the Articles of Association;
- (VIII) resolve on the engagement or dismissal of accounting firms engaged in the audit work of the Company;
- (IX) examine and approve the guarantees prescribed in Article 47 of the Articles of Association;
- (X) examine and approve financial assistance matters prescribed in Article 49 of the Articles of Association;
- (XI) examine and approve transactions between the Company and related parties prescribed in Article 50 of the Articles of Association;
- (XII) examine matters regarding the purchase and sale of material assets by the Company within one year which reach over 30% of the latest audited total assets of the Company;
- (XIII) examine and approve the changes in the use of proceeds raised;
- (XIV) examine the equity incentive plans and employee stock ownership plans;
- (XV) resolve on the Company's repurchase of its own shares under the circumstances specified in items (I) and (II) of Article 25 of the Articles of Association;

APPENDIX V SUMMARY OF THE ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION

- (XVI) examine other matters which shall be decided by the shareholders' meetings as stipulated by laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules or the Articles of Association.

The shareholders' meeting may authorize the board of directors to resolve on the issue of corporate bonds.

All external guarantees provided by the Company shall be submitted to the board of directors for deliberation and approval. The following external guarantees of the Company shall also be submitted to the shareholders' meeting for consideration after consideration and approval by the board of directors, and shall be disclosed externally in a timely manner:

- (I) guarantee with a single sum of guarantee that has exceeded 10% of the latest audited net assets of the Company;
- (II) any guarantee after the total amount of external guarantees provided by the Company and its holding subsidiaries has exceeded 50% of the latest audited net assets of the Company;
- (III) guarantee to be provided for a party with a gearing ratio of over 70%;
- (IV) guarantee amounts exceeding 50% of the latest audited net assets of the Company and with absolute amounts exceeding RMB50 million within twelve consecutive months;
- (V) guarantee amounts exceeding 30% of the latest audited total assets of the Company within twelve consecutive months;
- (VI) guarantees provided to the shareholders, de facto controllers and their related parties;
- (VII) other guarantee circumstances prescribed by laws, regulations, normative documents, stock exchanges where the Company's shares are listed or the Articles of Association.

When a guarantee is raised for consideration by the board of directors, it shall be considered and approved by more than two-thirds of the directors attending the board meeting. When the shareholders' meeting considers the guarantee mentioned in item (V) of the preceding paragraph, it shall be approved by more than two-thirds of the voting rights held by the shareholders attending the meeting.

When the shareholders' meeting considers guarantee proposals for shareholders, de facto controllers, and their related parties, such shareholders or shareholders controlled by such de facto controllers shall not participate in the voting, and such voting shall be approved by more than half of the voting rights held by other shareholders attending the shareholders' meeting.

APPENDIX V SUMMARY OF THE ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION

Where the Company provides guarantees for its wholly-owned subsidiaries, or provides guarantees for controlling subsidiaries with other shareholders of the controlling subsidiaries providing guarantees in the same proportion according to their interests, unless otherwise provided by the securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company’s shares are listed, circumstances under items (I) to (IV) of the first paragraph above may be exempted from submission to the shareholders’ meeting for consideration.

Where the Company provides guarantees for controlling shareholders, de facto controllers, and their related parties, the controlling shareholders, de facto controllers, and their related parties shall provide counter-guarantees.

Where the Company’s directors, senior management, and relevant responsible personnel sign guarantee contracts without authorization beyond approval authority and review procedures or neglect their duties, the Company shall impose punishments on the responsible personnel including internal criticism, economic penalties, job transfers, dismissal, and other disciplinary actions depending on the severity of the circumstances; where Company losses are caused, they shall bear compensation liability; where criminal offenses are suspected, they shall be transferred to judicial authorities for handling in accordance with law.

Shareholders’ meetings include annual shareholders’ meetings and extraordinary shareholders’ meetings. Annual shareholders’ meetings are held once every year and within 6 months from the end of the preceding financial year.

The Company shall convene an extraordinary shareholders’ meeting within 2 months from the date of the occurrence of any of the following circumstances:

- (I) where the number of directors is less than the number stipulated in the Company Law or two-thirds of the number prescribed in the Articles of Association;
- (II) where the losses of the Company that have not been made up represent one-third of its total share capital;
- (III) where such meeting is requested by shareholders individually or jointly holding more than 10% of the shares of the Company;
- (IV) where such meeting is deemed necessary by the board of directors;
- (V) where such meeting is proposed to be convened by the audit committee;
- (VI) other circumstances specified in laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules, the securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company’s shares are listed or the Articles of Association.

APPENDIX V

SUMMARY OF THE ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION

Convening of Shareholders' Meeting

The board of directors shall convene the shareholders' meeting on time within the stipulated period.

With the consent of more than half of all independent directors, independent directors shall be entitled to propose to the board of directors to convene an extraordinary general meeting. The board of directors shall, in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association, furnish a written reply stating whether it agrees or disagrees with the convening of the extraordinary general meeting within 10 days after receiving such a proposal from the independent directors. In the event that the board of directors agrees to convene an extraordinary general meeting, the notice of shareholders' meeting shall be issued within 5 days after the board of directors passes the relevant resolution. In the event that the board of directors does not agree to convene an extraordinary general meeting, it shall state the reasons and make an announcement.

The Audit Committee shall propose to the board of directors to convene an extraordinary general meeting, and such proposal shall be made in writing. The board of directors shall, in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association, furnish a written reply stating whether it agrees or disagrees with the convening of an extraordinary general meeting within 10 days after receiving such proposal. In the event that the board of directors agrees to convene an extraordinary general meeting, the notice of shareholders' meeting shall be issued within 5 days after the board of directors passes the relevant resolution. Any changes to the original proposal made in the notice shall be approved by the Audit Committee. In the event that the board of directors does not agree to convene an extraordinary general meeting or does not furnish any reply within 10 days after receiving such proposal, the board of directors shall be deemed as unable to perform or failure to perform its duty of convening a shareholders' meeting, in which case the Audit Committee may convene and preside over a shareholders' meeting by itself.

Shareholders individually or jointly holding more than 10% of the shares of the Company shall request the board of directors to convene an extraordinary general meeting, and such request shall be made in writing. The board of directors shall, in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association, furnish a written reply stating whether it agrees with the convening of the extraordinary general meeting within 10 days after receiving such request. In the event that the board of directors agrees to convene an extraordinary general meeting, the notice of shareholders' meeting shall be issued within 5 days after the board of directors passes the relevant resolution. Any changes to the original request made in the notice shall be approved by the relevant shareholders. In the event that the board of directors does not agree to convene an extraordinary general meeting or does not furnish any reply within 10 days after receiving such request, shareholders individually or jointly holding more than 10% of the shares of the Company shall propose to the Audit Committee to convene an extraordinary general meeting, and such proposal shall be submitted in writing to the Audit Committee. In the event that the Audit Committee agrees to convene an extraordinary general meeting, the notice of shareholders' meeting shall be issued within 5 days after receiving such request. Any changes to the original request made in the notice shall be approved by the relevant shareholders. Failure of the Audit Committee to issue the notice of shareholders’ meeting within the prescribed time limit shall be deemed as failure of the Audit Committee to convene and preside over a shareholders’ meeting, and shareholders individually or jointly holding more than 10% of shares of the Company for more than 90 consecutive days are entitled to convene and preside over a shareholders’ meeting on their own initiatives.

Where the Audit Committee or shareholders decide(s) to convene a shareholders’ meeting on their own initiatives, the board of directors shall be notified in writing, and records shall be filed with the Shenzhen Stock Exchange. During the period from the issuing of the notice of the shareholders’ meeting to the date on which the meeting is closed, the shareholding of the shareholders convening such meeting shall not be less than 10%. The Audit Committee and the shareholders convening the meeting shall submit the relevant materials for proof to the Shenzhen Stock Exchange at the time of issuance of notice of shareholders’ meeting and announcement on the resolutions passed at the shareholders’ meeting. For the shareholders’ meeting convened by the Audit Committee or shareholders on their own initiatives, the board of directors and its secretary will cooperate. The board of directors shall provide the register of members as at the date of shareholding registration.

For the shareholders’ meetings convened by the Audit Committee or the shareholders on their own initiatives, the necessary expenses in relation to the meetings shall be borne by the Company.

Proposals and Notices of Shareholders’ Meetings

The content of the proposals shall be within the scope of the terms of reference of the shareholders’ meeting, and have clear subjects and specific resolutions, and shall comply with the relevant requirements of the laws, administrative regulation, the securities regulatory rules of the places where the Company’s shares are listed and the Articles of Association.

When the Company convenes a shareholders’ meeting, the board of directors, the Audit Committee, as well as shareholder(s) individually or jointly holding more than 1% of the shares of the Company, shall be entitled to put forward proposals to the Company.

Shareholder(s) individually or jointly holding more than 1% of the shares of the Company may raise provisional proposals and submit the same in writing to the convener 10 days prior to the date of the shareholders’ meeting. The convener shall issue a supplemental notice of shareholders’ meeting and submit such proposal to the shareholders’ meeting for review within 2 days after receiving such proposal and announce the content of the provisional proposal. Unless the provisional proposal violates laws, administrative regulations, the securities regulatory rules of the places where shares of the Company are listed, or the Articles of Association, or falls outside the scope of the authority of the shareholders’ meeting. If the securities regulation rules of the places where shares of the Company are listed requires the shareholders' meeting to be postponed as a result of the supplemental notice, the convening of the shareholders' meeting shall be postponed in accordance with the requirements of such securities regulation rules.

Other than the circumstances referred to in the preceding paragraph, after the convener issues the notice for shareholders' meeting, no changes shall be made to the proposals set forth in the notice of shareholders' meeting and no further proposals shall be added.

The shareholders' meeting shall not vote or resolve on proposals not set forth in the notice of shareholders' meeting or not in compliance with the requirements of the Articles of Association.

The convener shall notify each shareholder in writing (including announcement) 21 days before the annual general meeting, and the extraordinary general meeting shall notify each shareholder in writing (including announcement) 15 days before the meeting. The date of the meeting shall not be included in the calculation of the commencement period.

The notice of shareholders' meeting shall include the following:

- (I) time, place and duration of the meeting;
- (II) the matters and proposals submitted to the meeting for consideration;
- (III) the notice shall state clearly that all shareholders are entitled to attend the shareholders' meeting or appoint proxies in writing to attend and vote at such meeting on their behalf and that such proxies need not to be a shareholder of the Company;
- (IV) the date of shareholding registration for shareholders who are entitled to attend the shareholders' meeting;
- (V) the names and telephone numbers of the contact person for the meeting affairs;
- (VI) the timing and procedures for voting online or otherwise.

After the notice of the shareholders' meeting has been given, the shareholders' meeting shall not be postponed or canceled without justifiable reasons, and the proposals specified in the notice of the shareholders' meeting shall not be canceled. In case of postponement or cancelation, the convener shall send a notice at least 2 trading days before the scheduled date and explain the reasons. In case of a postponed shareholders' meeting, the revised date of the meeting shall be announced in the notice. Where the securities regulatory rules of the place where shares of the Company are listed have special provisions on the procedures for postponing or canceling the shareholders' meeting, such provisions shall prevail.

APPENDIX V SUMMARY OF THE ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION

Conducting the Shareholders' Meeting

All shareholders in the register as at the date of shareholding registration or their proxies shall be entitled to attend the shareholders' meeting, and to speak and exercise their voting rights at the shareholders' meeting pursuant to the relevant laws and regulations, the securities regulatory rules of the place where shares of the Company are listed and the Articles of Association (unless individual shareholders are required to waive their voting rights on certain matters under the securities regulation rules of the places where shares of the Company are listed).

A shareholder may attend and vote at the shareholders' meeting in person or by proxy. Where a shareholder appoints a proxy to attend the shareholders' meeting, the scope, authority, and term of the proxy appointment shall be clearly specified. The proxy shall submit to the Company a power of attorney granted by the shareholder and exercise voting rights within the authorized scope.

Individual shareholders attending the shareholders' meeting in person shall present their identity cards or other valid identity documents or proof. In the case of attending by proxies, the proxies shall present valid identity documents and the proxy forms from the shareholders. Any shareholder entitled to attend and vote at the shareholders' meeting is entitled to appoint one or more persons (who need not be a shareholder) as his/her proxy(ies) to attend and vote on his/her behalf.

Where a shareholder is a legal entity, its legal representative or a proxy entrusted by such legal representative shall attend the meeting. If the meeting is attended by the legal representatives, they shall produce their identity cards and valid proof of their status as legal representatives; if the meeting is attended by proxies of such legal representatives, such proxies shall present their identity cards and the written authorization letter legally issued by the legal representative of the legal entity shareholder (except for shareholders who are recognized clearing houses as defined by the relevant regulations in force from time to time under the Hong Kong laws or the securities regulation rules of the places where shares of the Company are listed and their proxies).

If the shareholders' meeting requires directors and members of the senior management to be present at the meeting, the directors and members of the senior management shall be present and accept enquiries from shareholders.

A shareholders' meeting shall be presided over by the chairman of the board of directors. If the chairman is unable or unwilling to perform his/her duties, the vice chairman shall preside. If the vice chairman is unable or unwilling to perform his/her duties, a director nominated by a majority of the directors shall preside. A shareholders' meeting convened by the Audit Committee on its own initiative shall be presided over by the convener of the Audit Committee. If the convener of the Audit Committee is unable or unwilling to perform his/her duties, a member of the Audit Committee nominated by a majority of the members of the Audit Committee shall preside. A shareholders' meeting convened by the shareholders on their own initiative shall be presided over by the convener or a representative nominated by the convener.

APPENDIX V SUMMARY OF THE ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION

Voting at and Resolutions of Shareholders' Meetings

Resolutions of a shareholders' meeting include ordinary resolutions and special resolutions. Ordinary resolutions of a shareholders' meeting shall be passed by votes representing more than half of the voting rights held by shareholders attending the shareholders' meeting. Special resolutions of a shareholders' meeting shall be passed by votes representing more than two-thirds of the voting rights held by shareholders attending the shareholders' meeting.

The following matters shall be resolved by way of ordinary resolutions at a shareholders' meeting:

- (I) work reports of the board of directors;
- (II) profit distribution plan and loss make-up plan formulated by the board of directors;
- (III) appointment and dismissal of directors, their remuneration and payment terms;
- (IV) matters other than those to be approved by special resolutions in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations, requirements under the securities regulations and rules of the places where shares of the Company are listed or the Articles of Association.

The following matters shall be resolved by way of special resolutions at a shareholders' meeting:

- (I) increase or reduction of the registered capital of the Company;
- (II) division, spin-off, merger, dissolution and liquidation of the Company;
- (III) amendments to the Articles of Association;
- (IV) purchase or disposal of material assets or provision of guarantees to others by the Company within one year, of which the amount exceeds 30% of the latest audited total assets of the Company;
- (V) stock option incentive schemes;
- (VI) other matters stipulated by laws, administrative regulations, securities regulatory rules of the places where Company's shares are listed or the Articles of Association, and other matters which are considered to have a significant impact on the Company and therefore need to be passed by way of a special resolution as determined by the shareholders' meeting with an ordinary resolution.

APPENDIX V SUMMARY OF THE ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION

Shareholders shall exercise their voting rights according to the number of voting shares held by them, and each share shall have one vote. When voting, a shareholder (including a shareholder's proxy) with two or more votes is not required to cast all votes uniformly in favor of, against, or as abstentions. Where the securities regulatory rules of the stock exchange where shares of the Company are listed provide otherwise, such rules shall prevail.

When material issues affecting the interests of the small and medium investors are considered at shareholders' meeting, the votes of the small and medium investors shall be counted separately. The separate voting results shall be disclosed publicly in a timely manner.

The shares of the Company held by the Company itself do not have voting rights, and such shares shall not be included in the total number of voting shares present at the shareholders' meeting.

If the shareholder's purchase of the voting shares of the Company violates paragraphs 1 and 2 of Article 63 of the Securities Law, voting rights of the shares in excess of the prescribed proportion shall not be exercisable within 36 months after the purchase and shall not be included in the total number of voting shares present at the shareholders' meeting.

The board of directors, independent directors and shareholders holding more than 1% of the voting shares or the investor protection institutions established in accordance with laws and regulations may act as solicitors, and publicly solicit the shareholders, either by themselves or through an entrusted securities firm or securities service provider, to engage them as proxies to attend the shareholders' meeting and exercise their voting rights or rights of proposal on their behalf. Provided that such public solicitation of shareholders' rights shall not be conducted in a paid or disguised paid manner.

The solicitors shall make sufficient disclosure of the information such as their voting preference to the shareholders from whom the voting rights are being solicited. Solicitation of voting rights of shareholders involving compensation or disguised compensation shall be prohibited. The Company shall not impose any limitation in respect of the minimum shareholding ratio on the solicitation of voting rights except as required by law.

When a related transaction is considered at a shareholders' meeting, the related shareholders shall abstain from voting and shall not exercise voting rights on behalf of other shareholders. The number of voting shares represented by such shareholder(s) shall not be included in the total number of valid votes. The resolutions of the shareholders' meeting shall fully disclose the voting results of non-related shareholders.

- (XIII) to make proposal to the shareholders' meeting on the engagement or change of the accounting firm performing audits for the Company;
- (XIV) to listen to the work reports from the president of the Company and review the work of the president;
- (XV) to decide on the repurchase of the Company's own shares by the Company under the circumstances stipulated in Article 25(III), (V) and (VI) of the Articles of Association;
- (XVI) other powers conferred by laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules, securities regulation rules of the places where the shares of the Company are listed and the Articles of Association.

Matters exceeding the scope of the authority of the shareholders' meeting shall be submitted to the shareholders' meeting for consideration.

The chairman of the board of directors shall exercise the following functions and powers:

- (I) Preside over the shareholders' meetings and convene and preside over the board meetings;
- (II) Supervise and inspect the implementation of resolutions of the board of directors;
- (III) Other powers conferred by the board of directors.

The vice-chairman of the Company shall assist the chairman of the board of directors in his work. If the chairman of the board of directors is unable to perform his duties or fails to perform his duties, the vice-chairman shall perform his duties; if the vice-chairman is unable to perform his duties or fails to perform his duties, one director jointly nominated by more than half of the directors shall perform his duties.

The board of directors shall convene at least four meetings every year, which shall be convened by the chairman of the board of directors and shall notify all directors in writing 14 days prior to the meeting.

APPENDIX V SUMMARY OF THE ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION

Shareholders representing more than one-tenth of the voting rights, more than one-third of the directors or the Audit Committee and more than one-half of the independent directors may propose to convene an extraordinary meeting of the board of directors. The chairman of the board of directors shall convene and preside over a board meeting within ten days after receiving the proposal.

A notice of extraordinary meeting of the board of directors may be provided to all participants at least 5 days prior to the meeting. In cases of emergency or other special circumstances, the service of notices can be issued through telephone or other oral ways, but the convener should make explanations in the meeting. The aforementioned notice period may be waived for an extraordinary meeting of the board of directors with the consent of all directors.

The board meeting shall be held only when more than half of the directors are present. Resolutions made by the board of directors must be passed by more than half of all directors, unless otherwise provided by laws, regulations, securities regulations and rules of the places where the Company's shares are listed, and the Articles of Association.

Resolutions of the board of directors are voted by way of poll with each director having one vote.

If any director is related to the enterprise or individual involved in the resolution at a board meeting, the said director shall promptly report to the board of directors in writing. The director with a related party relationship shall not exercise his voting rights on the said resolution for himself or on behalf of another director. Such board meeting may be held when more than half of the non-related directors attend the meeting. The resolution of such board meeting shall be passed by more than half of the non-related directors. If the number of non-related directors attending the board meeting is fewer than three, the matter shall be submitted to the shareholders' meeting for consideration. Where the laws and regulations and securities regulations and rules of the places where the Company's shares are listed have any additional limitations in respect of the participation and voting by directors in board meetings, the Company shall comply with such provisions.

Directors shall attend the board meetings in person. Where a director is unable to attend a meeting for any reason, he/she may authorize another director to attend the meeting on his/her behalf in writing. The authorization letter shall set out the name of the authorized person, the matters to be authorized, scope of authorization and valid period, which shall be signed or sealed with the chop by the director who authorizes. The directors who attend the meeting on behalf of another director shall exercise the rights as directors within the scope of authorization. If a director fails to attend a board meeting and does not authorize a representative to attend on his/her behalf, he/she shall be deemed to have waived his/her voting rights at such meeting.

APPENDIX V SUMMARY OF THE ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION

A director shall not accept proxies from more than two directors to attend a board meeting on his/her behalf. An independent director may not appoint a non-independent director to attend the meeting on his/her behalf. A non-related director shall not appoint a related director to attend the meeting on his/her behalf when considering related-party transactions.

The responsibility of the director for voting matters remains even when another director represents him/her.

Independent Directors

Independent directors shall, in accordance with the provisions of laws, administrative regulations, the CSRC, securities regulations and rules of the places where the Company's shares are listed, and the Articles of Association, diligently perform their duties, play roles in participating in decision-making, providing checks and balances and offering professional consultation within the board of directors, safeguard the interests of the Company as a whole, and protect the legitimate rights and interests of small and medium shareholders.

The Company shall establish a mechanism for special meetings composed entirely of independent directors. Where the board of directors deliberates related-party transactions and other matters, prior consent shall be obtained through such special meetings of independent directors.

The Company shall convene special meetings of independent directors on a regular or ad hoc basis. The matters listed in items (I) to (III) under the first paragraph of Article 138 and in Article 139 of the Articles of Association shall be reviewed at such special meetings of independent directors.

Special meetings of independent directors may also, as needed, study and discuss other matters of the Company.

A convenor and chairperson for a special meeting of independent directors shall be jointly elected by more than half of all independent directors. If the convenor fails or is unable to perform his or her duties, two or more independent directors may convene the meeting themselves and elect a representative to preside.

Minutes shall be prepared for special meetings of independent directors in accordance with the relevant requirements, and the opinions of independent directors shall be clearly recorded in the minutes. Independent directors shall sign to confirm the minutes.

The Company shall provide convenience and support for the convening of special meetings of independent directors.

APPENDIX V SUMMARY OF THE ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION

Special Committees of the Board of Directors

The board of directors of the Company shall establish an Audit Committee, which shall exercise the powers and functions of a board of supervisors as prescribed by the Company Law. The Audit Committee shall consist of three non-executive directors who do not hold any senior management positions within the Company. Independent directors shall constitute a majority of the committee, and the professional accountants among the independent directors shall act as the convener. Employee representatives on the board of directors may serve as members of the Audit Committee.

The board of directors of the Company shall establish the special committees such as the Strategy and Sustainability Committee, the Nomination Committee, the Remuneration and Appraisal Committee, which shall perform their duties in accordance with the Articles of Association and the authorization of the board of directors. Proposals made by these special committees shall be submitted to the board of directors for consideration and decision. The terms of reference of these special committees shall be formulated by the board of directors.

Independent directors shall constitute a majority in the Nomination Committee and the Remuneration and Appraisal Committee, and shall serve as the convenors. The Strategy and Sustainability Committee shall be composed of three members. The chairman of the Company is an ex-officio member of the Strategy and Sustainability Committee, and the other members shall be elected by the board of directors of the Company from among the directors.

SENIOR MANAGEMENT MEMBERS

The Company shall have one president, who shall be appointed or dismissed by the board of directors. The Company shall have several senior vice presidents and vice presidents, who shall be appointed or dismissed by the board of directors.

The provisions in the Articles of Association in relation to the circumstances under which a person may not serve as a director and the resignation management system shall mutatis mutandis apply to the senior management members. The provisions in the Articles of Association regarding the fiduciary duties of directors and the duty of diligence of directors shall mutatis mutandis apply to the senior management members.

The president is responsible to the board of directors and exercises the following powers:

- (I) To be in charge of the Company's production, operation and management, and to organize and implement the resolutions of the board of directors and report on works to the board of directors;
- (II) To organize and implement the Company's annual business plan and investment proposals;

APPENDIX V SUMMARY OF THE ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION

- (III) To draft plans for the establishment of the Company's internal management organizations;
- (IV) To draft the fundamental management system of the Company;
- (V) To formulate specific rules and regulations for the Company;
- (VI) To propose to the board of directors on the appointment or dismissal of senior vice president, vice president, and financial controller of the Company;
- (VII) To decide on the appointment or dismissal of management personnel other than those required to be appointed or dismissed by the board of directors;
- (VIII) Other functions and powers conferred by the Articles of Association or the board of directors.

The president shall attend the board meetings.

The senior management members of the Company shall faithfully perform their duties, and safeguard the best interests of the Company and all shareholders. Any senior management members of the Company who fails to faithfully perform his/her duties or breaches the fiduciary duty shall indemnify the Company and the public shareholders for the damages arising therefrom according to law.

FINANCIAL AND ACCOUNTING SYSTEM, PROFIT DISTRIBUTION AND AUDIT

Financial and Accounting System

The Company shall establish its financial and accounting system in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations, securities regulations and rules of the places where the Company's shares are listed and the provisions stipulated by the relevant authorities of the PRC.

The Company shall submit and disclose its annual reports to the relevant branch office of the CSRC and the stock exchange of the place where the shares of the Company are listed within four months from the end of each fiscal year, and its interim reports to the relevant branch office of the CSRC and the stock exchange of the place where the shares of the Company are listed within two months from the end of the first half of each fiscal year.

The above annual reports and interim reports shall be prepared in accordance with relevant laws, administrative regulations and requirements of the CSRC and securities regulations and rules of the places where the Company's shares are listed.

The Company will not establish account books other than the statutory account books. The assets of the Company shall not be deposited in any personal account.

APPENDIX V SUMMARY OF THE ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION

The Company is required to allocate 10% of its profits into its statutory reserve fund when distributing each year’s after-tax profits. When the cumulated amount of the statutory reserve fund of the Company has reached 50% or more of its registered capital, no further allocations is required.

Where the statutory reserve fund of the Company is insufficient to make up the losses of the Company for the preceding year, profits of the current year shall be applied to make up the losses before any allocation to the statutory reserve fund in accordance with the provisions in the preceding paragraph.

Subject to a resolution of the shareholders’ meeting, after allocation has been made to the Company’s statutory reserve fund from its after-tax profits, the Company may set aside funds for the discretionary reserve fund.

After making up of losses and appropriation to reserve funds, balance of the profit after tax shall be distributed to shareholders in proportion to their shareholdings.

Where the shareholders’ meeting distributes profits to shareholders in violation of the Company Law, the shareholders shall return the profits so distributed in breach of regulations to the Company; if losses are caused to the Company, the shareholders and the directors and senior management members who are responsible shall bear liability for compensation.

No profit shall be distributed in respect of the shares of the Company which are held by the Company.

The Company shall entrust one or more payment receiving agents in Hong Kong for shareholders of H Shares. The payment receiving agents shall receive and hold on behalf of such shareholders of H Shares any dividends allocated to H Shares and other amounts payable by the Company, for future payments to such shareholders of H Shares. The payment receiving agents appointed by the Company shall comply with laws, regulations and securities regulations and rules of the places where the Company’s shares are listed.

The Company’s common reserve shall be used to cover losses of the Company, expand the Company’s production and operations, or be converted into additional registered capital of the Company.

To make up for the losses of the Company, the discretionary reserve and the statutory reserve shall be used first; if still insufficient, the capital reserve may be used in accordance with regulations.

Upon transfer from the statutory reserve to the increase of registered capital, the remainder of such reserve shall not be less than 25% of the registered capital of the Company before such transfer takes effect.

APPENDIX V SUMMARY OF THE ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION

After a resolution on the profit distribution plan is made at the shareholders' meeting of the Company, or after a specific plan is formulated by the board of directors of the Company based on the conditions and cap for interim dividends for the next year considered and approved by the annual general meeting, the distribution of dividends (or shares) shall be completed within 2 months.

The Company shall implement an active profit distribution policy, attach importance to the reasonable and stable investment returns for investors.

Profit distribution may be made in the form of cash, shares, or a combination of cash and shares, with cash dividends being the preferred method. Such profit distribution shall not exceed the cumulative distributable profits and must not undermine the Company's ability to sustain its operations.

Internal Audit

The Company has implemented an internal audit system, which shall specify the leadership structure, responsibilities and authorities, staffing, funding safeguards, utilization of audit results, and accountability mechanisms for internal audit work.

The internal audit system of the Company shall be implemented upon approval by the board of directors and shall be disclosed externally.

The internal audit department of the Company shall supervise and inspect the Company's business activities, risk management, internal controls and financial information.

Appointment of Accounting Firm

The Company shall appoint such accounting firm which has complied with the Securities Law and securities regulations and rules of the places where the Company's shares are listed for carrying out the audit for the accounting statements, net asset verification and other relevant consultancy services. The term of appointment is one year and can be re-appointed.

The appointment and removal of accounting firm by the Company shall be subject to the approval of the shareholders' meeting. The board of directors may not appoint accounting firm before the approval of the shareholders' meeting.

The Company guarantees that it shall provide the appointed accounting firm with true and complete accounting vouchers, accounting books, financial and accounting reports and other accounting information, and that it engages without any refusal, withholding, and misrepresentation.

The audit fees of an accounting firm, or the method for determining such fees, shall be determined at the shareholders' meeting.

APPENDIX V SUMMARY OF THE ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION

If the Company removes or no longer re-appoints the accounting firm, it shall notify such accounting firm 30 days in advance. When shareholders vote for the removal of such accounting firm, such accounting firm shall be entitled to state its opinions at the shareholders' meeting.

If any accounting firm offers to resign, it shall explain to the shareholders' meeting whether the Company has engaged in any misconduct.

MERGER, SPIN-OFF, CAPITAL INCREASE AND REDUCTION, DISSOLUTION AND LIQUIDATION

Merger, Spin-off, Capital Increase and Reduction

Corporate merger may take the form of merger by absorption or by establishment. Merger by absorption refers to a company absorbing another company, in which the company being absorbed shall be dissolved. Merger by establishment refers to the establishment of a new company by merging two or more companies, whereby the merging parties shall be dissolved.

In case of a merger between the Company and a company in which it holds over 90% of the shares, the merged company is not required to pass a resolution at the shareholders' meeting but shall notify other shareholders, who shall have the right to request the Company to acquire their equity or shares at a reasonable price. Where the consideration for a merger does not exceed 10% of the Company's net assets, it may be approved without a resolution of the shareholders' meeting, except as otherwise provided in the Articles of Association. If the Company proceeds with a merger without a resolution of the shareholders' meeting in accordance with the preceding paragraph, it shall be approved by a resolution of the board of directors.

In the event of any merger involving the Company, the Company shall enter into a merger agreement with other parties involved and prepare a balance sheet and a list of assets. The Company shall notify its creditors within 10 days after the adoption of the relevant resolution and publish announcements in newspapers or on the National Enterprise Credit Information Publicity System within 30 days. The creditors may request the Company to discharge its obligations or offer appropriate security within 30 days after receiving such notice, or if they fail to receive such notice, within 45 days after the publication of such announcement.

In the event of any merger involving the Company, the surviving company or the newly established company shall assume all claims and debts of the parties involved in such merger.

In the event of any spin-off of the Company, its assets shall be divided accordingly. In the event of any spin-off of the Company, the Company shall prepare a balance sheet and a list of assets, notify its creditors within 10 days from the date of the resolution of spin-off and publish announcements in newspapers or on the National Enterprise Credit Information Publicity System within 30 days.

APPENDIX V SUMMARY OF THE ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION

Unless otherwise agreed by the Company and its creditors in writing prior to such spin-off with respect to the discharge of obligations, the company spun off from the Company shall be jointly and severally liable for the obligations of the Company prior to such spin-off.

The Company shall prepare a balance sheet and a list of assets its registered capital. The Company shall notify its creditors within 10 days after the adoption of the relevant resolution on the reduction of the registered capital at the shareholders' meeting and publish announcements in newspapers or on the National Enterprise Credit Information Publicity System within 30 days. The creditors may request the Company to discharge its obligations or offer appropriate security within 30 days after receiving such notice, or if they fail to receive such notice, within 45 days after the publication of such announcement.

Where the Company reduces its registered capital, it shall reduce the capital contributions or shares held by shareholders proportionately according to their shareholding, except as otherwise provided by law, securities regulations and rules of the places where the Company's shares are listed or the Articles of Association.

When the Company issues new shares to increase its registered capital, shareholders shall not have pre-emptive rights, except as otherwise provided in the Articles of Association or if a resolution is passed at the general meeting granting shareholders such pre-emptive rights.

Where the merger or spin-off of the Company results in a change in its registered particulars, such change shall be registered with the company registry according to law. Where the Company is dissolved, it shall cancel its registration according to law. Where a new company is established, its establishment shall be registered according to law. Any increase or reduction of the registered capital of the Company shall be registered with the company registry according to law.

Dissolution and Liquidation

The Company shall be dissolved for the following reasons:

- (I) Expiry of term of business stipulated in the Articles of Association or occurrence of any other trigger for dissolution stipulated in the Articles of Association;
- (II) The shareholders' meeting adopts a resolution to dissolve;
- (III) The Company needs to be dissolved for the purpose of merger or division;
- (IV) The business license is revoked, or the Company is ordered to close or be eliminated according to applicable law;

APPENDIX V SUMMARY OF THE ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION

- (V) Where the Company encounters significant difficulties in business and management, continuous survival may be significantly detrimental to the interests of the shareholders, and the difficulties may not be overcome through other means, shareholders who hold more than 10% of voting rights of the Company's shareholders may request the people's court to dissolve the Company.

If dissolution causes stipulated in the preceding paragraph occur, the Company shall publicize the dissolution causes through the National Enterprise Credit Information Publicity System within ten days.

Under the circumstance set out in items (I) and (II) above and assets have not yet been distributed to shareholders, the Company may continue its operation by amending the Articles of Association or resolution of the shareholders' meeting. Any amendment to the Articles of Association or resolution of the shareholders' meeting pursuant to the foregoing provision shall be subject to approval of two thirds or more of the votes held by the shareholders present at the shareholders' meeting.

Where the Company is dissolved under the circumstances set out in items (I), (II), (IV) and (V) above, it shall be liquidated. The directors shall be the liquidation obligors of the Company and the liquidation committee shall be established within 15 days from the date of the event leading to liquidation. The personnel of the liquidation committee shall consist of directors, except where otherwise provided in the Articles of Association or otherwise selected by the resolution at the shareholders' meeting. If a liquidation obligor fails to promptly perform his/her liquidation obligations, causing losses to the Company or creditors, such obligor shall be liable for compensation.

Within 10 days of the establishment of the liquidation committee, the creditors shall be notified and an announcement shall be published in newspapers or on the National Enterprise Credit Information Publicity System within 60 days. The creditors shall declare their claims to the liquidation committee within 30 days of the date on which the notice is received or 45 days of the date of announcement if the notice is not received.

Creditors who declare claims shall state relevant issues related to the claims and provide proofs. The liquidation committee shall carry out registration of the claims.

During the period for declaration of claims, the liquidation committee shall not make any repayment to the creditors.

After the liquidation committee has examined and taken possession of the assets of the Company and prepared a balance sheet and a list of assets, it shall formulate a liquidation proposal and submit it to the shareholders' meeting or the people's court for confirmation.

The remaining assets of the Company after paying the costs of liquidation, the employees' salaries, social insurance contributions and legal compensation, taxes and debts of the Company shall be distributed to the shareholders in proportion to their respective shareholding.

APPENDIX V SUMMARY OF THE ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION

During the period of liquidation, the Company shall not engage in any business activity except for those relating to the liquidation. Before liquidation as specified in the preceding paragraphs, the assets of the Company shall not be distributed to shareholders.

In the event the liquidation committee finds that, after taking stock of the Company's property and preparing the balance sheet and list of property, that the assets are insufficient to pay the debts, it shall apply to the people's court for bankruptcy liquidation according to the law.

AMENDMENTS TO THE ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION

Under any of the following circumstances, the Company shall amend the Articles of Association:

- (I) Following the revision of the Company Law or relevant laws and administrative regulations or securities regulations and rules of the places where the Company's shares are listed, the matters stipulated in the Articles of Association contradict the provisions of the revised laws and administrative regulations or securities regulations and rules of the places where the Company's shares are listed;
- (II) There is any change to the Company's particulars which result in inconsistency with the matters set out in the Articles of Association;
- (III) A shareholders' meeting has decided on making amendments to the Articles of Association.

If the amendment to the Articles of Association adopted by resolution of the shareholders' meeting is subject to the approval of the competent authority, it shall be reported to the competent authority for approval; if it involves matters of company registration, the registration of the changes shall be made in accordance with the law.

The board of directors shall amend the Articles of Association in accordance with the resolutions of the shareholders' meeting and the comments of the competent authorities on any amendment hereto.

Any amendment to the Articles of Association shall be subject to announcement if so required by the laws and regulations.
