APPENDIX V

SUMMARY OF THE ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION OF THE COMPANY

---

The following sets out a summary of the key provisions of the Company’s Articles of Association (hereinafter referred to as the “Articles of Association” or the “AoA”) for investors’ general reference. As it is only a summary, it may not contain all the information that is important to potential investors.

SHARES

Issuance of Shares

The shares of the Company shall be in the form of registered share certificates.

Any person who is a registered shareholder or who requests his or her name be entered in the register of shareholders may, if his or her share certificate (the “Original Certificate”) relating to the shares is lost, apply to the Company for a replacement share certificate in respect of such shares (the “Relevant Shares”).

Application by a holder of overseas listed shares, who has lost his/her/its share certificate, for a replacement share certificate may be dealt with in accordance with the law of the place where the original register of shareholders of overseas listed shares is maintained, the rules of the stock exchange or other relevant regulations.

Shares of the Company shall be issued in an open, fair and equitable manner. Each share of the same class shall be entitled to the same rights.

For shares issued at the same time and within the same class, the conditions and price per share must be the same; for the shares subscribed by any entity or any individual, the price per share paid must be the same.

The shares issued by the Company shall be denominated in RMB, with the nominal value of RMB1.00 per share.

After the fulfillment of the mandatory procedures stipulated in the Trial Measures and other laws, regulations and regulatory documents, the Company may issue shares to domestic investors and overseas investors.

For the purpose of the preceding paragraph, the term “overseas investors” shall refer to investors from foreign countries and Hong Kong, Macao or Taiwan that subscribe for shares issued by the Company. The term “domestic investors” shall refer to investors inside the PRC, excluding the above-mentioned regions that subscribe for shares issued by the Company.

The shares issued by the Company to domestic investors for subscription in RMB shall be referred to as domestic shares. The shares issued by the Company to overseas investors for subscription in foreign currencies shall be referred to as foreign shares. The foreign shares listed overseas shall be referred to as overseas-listed foreign shares. Shareholders of domestic shares, shareholders of unlisted foreign shares and shareholders of overseas-listed foreign shares shall enjoy equal rights in the distribution of dividends or distribution in any other forms.

For the purpose of the preceding paragraph, the term “foreign currencies” shall refer to any legal currency of any country or region that can be converted freely, excluding RMB.

After the fulfillment of the mandatory procedures stipulated in the Trial Measures and other applicable laws, regulations and regulatory documents, shareholders of domestic shares of the Company may transfer all or part of unlisted shares (as defined below in this paragraph) held by them to overseas investors, and list such shares on overseas stock exchanges for trading, or convert all or part of unlisted shares into overseas-listed foreign shares, and list them on overseas stock exchanges for trading. Where the above-mentioned unlisted shares are converted into overseas listed shares, and listed for trading on overseas stock exchanges, general meetings are not required to be convened for voting. The listing and trading of the above-mentioned shares on any overseas stock exchanges shall comply with the regulatory procedures, regulations and requirements of the overseas stock markets.

Increase and Reduction of Shares

In accordance with the laws and regulations, the Company may increase the capital by the following ways upon approval by resolutions of the general meeting according to the operation and development needs of the Company:

- (I) public offering of shares;
- (II) non-public offering of shares;
- (III) offering of bonus shares to existing shareholders;
- (IV) capitalization of reserve fund into share capital;
- (V) other forms specified in laws, administrative regulations and regulatory documents or approved by the securities regulatory authority of the place where the shares of the Company are listed and the Hong Kong Stock Exchange.

The Company may reduce its registered capital. The reduction in the registered capital shall be made in accordance with the Company Law and other relevant provisions and the procedures set out in Articles of Association.

The general meeting may authorize the Board to decide to issue shares not exceeding 50% of the issued shares within three years. However, the funding with non-monetary assets as consideration shall be resolved by the general meeting. If the Board decides to issue shares in accordance with the authorization, resulting in changes to the registered capital or the number of issued shares of the Company, amendments to the relevant provisions of the Articles of Association do not need to be approved by the general meeting again. A resolution of the Board shall be passed by more than two-thirds of all directors if the Board decides to issue new shares pursuant to the authorization by the general meeting.

Repurchase of Shares

The Company may acquire its shares in compliance with laws, regulations as well as the Hong Kong Listing Rules and the requirements of the Articles of Association, in one of the following circumstances:

- (I) to reduce the registered capital of the Company;
- (II) to merge with other companies holding the shares of the Company;
- (III) to use the shares as an employee stock ownership plan or equity incentive plan;
- (IV) to purchase its shares from shareholders who have voted against the resolutions on the merger or division of the Company at the general meeting upon their request;
- (V) to convert the shares into convertible corporate bonds issued by the Company;
- (VI) necessary for the Company to maintain its value and protect the interests of the shareholders; and
- (VII) other circumstances stipulated by laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules, regulatory documents, the Hong Kong Listing Rules and other relevant requirements.

APPENDIX V*SUMMARY OF THE ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION OF THE COMPANY

The Company may repurchase its shares through open centralized trading or other ways recognized by laws, administrative regulations and regulatory documents, and securities regulatory authorities of the place where the shares of the Company are listed.

If the Company repurchases its shares under any of the circumstances stipulated in (III), (V) and (VI) of Article 26 of the Article of Association, it shall do so by way of open centralized trading.

Where the Company repurchases its shares under the circumstances stipulated in (I) and (II) in Article 26 of the Articles of Association, an approval shall be obtained from the general meeting; where the Company repurchases its shares under the circumstances stipulated in (III), (V) and (VI) of Article 26 of the Articles of Association, a resolution of the Board meeting shall be passed by more than two-thirds of the directors attending the meeting in accordance with the provisions of the Articles of Association or the authorization of the general meeting.

Upon the repurchase of shares in accordance with the law, the Company shall, within the period prescribed by laws, administrative regulations and the Hong Kong Listing Rules, cancel such shares and apply to the original company registration authority for registration of the change in registered capital.

Upon the purchase of its H Shares by the Company pursuant to the provisions in (I) of Article 26 herein, such H Shares may, at the option of the Company, be cancelled or held as treasury shares in accordance with the Hong Kong Listing Rules. In the event that the directors do not specify that the relevant Shares are to be held as treasury shares, such H Shares shall be cancelled. The Company shall hold treasury shares in a clearly identifiable separate account within the Central Clearing and Settlement System. The Company shall not exercise any right in respect of the treasury shares, and no dividend may be declared or paid in respect of a treasury share. Treasury shares may be disposed of by the Company on such terms and conditions as determined by the directors subject to these Articles of Association and the Hong Kong Listing Rules.

Where the laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules, regulatory documents and Hong Kong Listing Rules stipulate other provisions on the relevant matters involved in the foregoing share repurchase, those provisions shall prevail.

If a state-owned shareholder of the Company changes its shareholding percentage due to the transfer of shares held by the shareholder, which is required to be legally assessed or audited pursuant to the relevant state-owned asset management provisions, the Company shall cooperate provided that it does not contravene the relevant laws, regulations and supervisory rules of the place where the shares are listed. If a separate special audit is inappropriate for the share transfer involved, the Company shall provide an annual audit report for the latest period published according to the requirements of relevant laws, regulations and supervisory rules of the place where the shares are listed. If the transfer of shares held by state-owned shareholders is required to be effected in accordance with the relevant state-owned asset management regulations in an open property rights exchange established by law, the Company shall cooperate with such transfer.

Transfer of Shares

The shares of the Company may be transferred to other shareholders or persons other than shareholders. Unless otherwise specified by laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules, regulatory documents, the securities regulatory authorities of the place where the shares of the Company are listed and the Hong Kong Stock Exchange, the fully paid shares of the Company are not subject to any restrictions in transfer, and may be freely transferred without any lien attached. The transfer of overseas-listed foreign shares listed in Hong Kong shall be registered in the share registrar in Hong Kong entrusted by the Company.

APPENDIX V

---

All fully paid overseas-listed foreign shares listed in Hong Kong may be transferred freely according to the Articles of Association. However, unless the following conditions are met, the Board may refuse to recognize any documents for the transfer without stating any reasons:

- (I) transfer documents and other documents relating to or affecting the ownership of any shares shall be registered, and a fee shall be paid to the Company for such registration at the rate of fee prescribed in the Hong Kong Listing Rules, which shall not exceed the maximum fee prescribed from time to time in the Hong Kong Listing Rules;
- (II) transfer documents are only in relation to H Shares listed in Hong Kong;
- (III) the stamp duty payable under the laws of Hong Kong in respect of the transfer document has been paid;
- (IV) relevant share certificate(s) and any other evidence which the Board may reasonably request to show that the transferor has the right to transfer the shares have been provided;
- (V) if the shares are to be transferred to joint holders, the number of joint holders shall not exceed four;
- (VI) the relevant shares do not have any lien attached; and
- (VII) no transfer of shares shall be made to any minors or any person of unsound mind or under other legal disability.

If the Company refuses to register the transfer of shares, the Company shall, within two months from the date of the formal application for transfer, give one copy of the notice of refusal to register the transfer to the transferor and transferee. All transfer documents shall be kept at the legal address of the Company or such address as may be designated by the Board from time to time.

All H Shares shall be transferred by a transfer document in writing in any usual or common form or any other form which the Board accepts (including the prescribed form or transfer form as required by the Hong Kong Stock Exchange from time to time). The written transfer documents may only be executed by hand or (if the transferor or the transferee is a company) affixed with the company’s seal. If the transferor or transferee is a recognized clearing house as defined by the laws of Hong Kong in effect from time to time or the agent thereof, the written transfer documents may be executed by hand or by machine imprinted signatures.

All transfer documents shall be kept at the legal address of the Company, the address of the share transfer agency, or any other place specified by the Board from time to time.

All transfer documents and other documents relating to or affecting the ownership of overseas listed shares shall be registered. If any fee shall be payable for such registration, the fee shall not exceed the maximum fee prescribed from time to time by the Hong Kong Stock Exchange.

If two or more persons are registered as the joint holders of any shares, they shall be deemed as joint holders of the relevant shares, subject to the following provisions:

- (I) if the number of joint holders of shares is restricted by the authority, the Company shall register no more than four persons as the joint holders of any shares;
- (II) all joint holders of any shares shall jointly and severally assume the liability to pay for all amounts payable for the relevant shares;
- (III) if one of the joint holders is deceased, only the other surviving joint holders shall be deemed as the persons who have the ownership of the relevant shares. However, the Board shall have the right to require such evidence of death as it may think fit in regard to any change in the register of shareholders;

APPENDIX V

---

- (IV) in respect of any of the joint holders of any shares, any one of the joint holders may attend the general meeting or exercise the voting power of the relevant shares (whether in person or by proxy). If more than one joint holder attend the general meetings in person or by proxy, only the joint holder ranking first in the register of shareholders shall have the right to receive notices from the Company for such voting of such share, attend the general meetings and exercise all voting power of the relevant share in the general meetings. The service of the notice to the aforesaid persons shall be deemed as the service of the notice to all joint holders of the relevant shares; and
- (V) any receipts issued by any joint holders in respect of any dividends, bonuses or capital returns distributed by the Company to such joint holders shall be deemed to be the effective receipts issued by such joint holders to the Company.

The Company, in accordance with the understanding and agreements between the securities regulatory authority of the State Council and overseas securities regulatory authorities, maintains the register of shareholders of overseas-listed foreign shares outside China, and entrust an overseas agent to manage such register. The original copy of the register of shareholders of overseas-listed foreign shares listed on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange shall be maintained in Hong Kong.

The Company shall maintain a duplicate of the register of shareholders of overseas-listed foreign shares at the domicile of the Company. The appointed overseas agent shall ensure the consistency between the original copy and the duplicate of the register of shareholders of overseas listed foreign shares from time to time.

If there is any inconsistency between the original copy and the duplicate of the register of shareholders of overseas-listed foreign shares, the original copy shall prevail.

The Company shall not accept its shares as the subject matter of a pledge.

The shares that have been issued prior to the public offering of the Company shall not be transferred within one year from the date when the shares in the Company get listed and traded in the stock exchange concerned.

The directors and senior management of the Company shall declare to the Company the shares of the Company they hold and the changes thereof. The shares transferred each year during the term of office as determined at the appointment shall not exceed 25% of the total shares of the Company he or she holds. The shares of the Company held by the said person shall not be transferred within one year from the date of listing and trading of the shares of the Company. Any of the above said persons shall not transfer the shares of the Company held by him or her within half a year after his or her departure.

Where the shares are pledged within the time limit for transfer prescribed by laws or administrative regulations, the pledgee may not exercise the pledge right within the time limit for transfer.

If the securities supervision authority of the place where the shares of the Company are listed stipulates other restrictions on the transfer of overseas-listed foreign shares, the Company shall comply with such stipulations.

If a shareholder, director, or senior management who holds more than 5% of the shares of the Company either sells the Company's shares held by him or her within six months after the purchase or repurchases the Company's shares within six months after the sale, the proceeds therefrom shall be attributable to the Company, and the Board of the Company shall recover the proceeds thereof. However, except for the case where a securities company holds more than 5% of the shares due to its purchase of the remaining shares upon underwriting, and in other cases where there are regulations from the relevant regulatory authorities.

---

The shares held by directors, senior management and natural person shareholders referred to in the preceding paragraph include the shares or other securities of equity nature held by their spouse, parents and children and held through accounts of any other persons.

If the Board fails to comply with the requirements under the first paragraph in this Article, the shareholders shall have the rights to request the Board to do so within 30 days. If the Board fails to do so within the aforesaid period, the shareholders shall have the right to institute a legal proceeding directly with the People’s Court in their own names for the benefit of the Company.

If the Board of the Company fails to comply with the requirements under the first paragraph in this Article, the directors liable shall assume joint liabilities pursuant to the laws.

If the restriction on transfer in this Article involves H share, the Company shall comply with the relevant regulations of the securities regulatory authorities of the place where the shares of the Company are listed.

SHAREHOLDERS AND GENERAL MEETINGS

Shareholders

The Company shall set up a register of shareholders based on the certificates provided by the securities registration agency. The register of shareholders shall be sufficient evidence proving the holding of the shares of the Company by a shareholder. A shareholder shall enjoy rights and assume obligations as per the class of the shares held by them. Shareholders holding the same class of shares shall enjoy the same rights and assume the same obligations.

When the Company convenes general meetings, distributes dividends, commences liquidation or engages in other conducts that require the identification of shareholders, the Board or the convener of the general meeting shall determine the date of registration of shares. Shareholders registered in the register of shareholders after the closing on the date of registration of shares shall be the shareholders enjoying the relevant rights.

The Shareholders of ordinary shares of the Company shall be entitled to the following rights:

- (I) to receive dividends and other forms of distributions in proportion to the shares they hold;
- (II) to lawfully request, convene, preside over and attend the general meetings either in person or by proxy and exercise their corresponding rights to speak and voting rights, unless individual shareholders are required to waive their voting rights on specific matters under the provisions of the Hong Kong Listing Rules;
- (III) to supervise, raise suggestions on or make inquiries about the operations of the Company;
- (IV) to transfer, donate or pledge their shares in accordance with laws, administrative regulations, the relevant regulations of the securities regulatory authority in the place where the shares of the Company are listed and the Articles of Association;
- (V) to obtain relevant information in accordance with the Articles of Association, including:
  1. receiving a copy of the Articles of Association after payment of cost;
  2. being entitled to inspect free of charge and copy after payment of reasonable fee:

  - (a) present and former name and alias; (b) principal address (domicile); (c) nationality; (d) primary and all other part-time occupations and duties; (e) identification documents and the number thereof.
- (3) report of the status of the issued share capital of the Company;
- (4) report of the total nominal value, quantity, the highest and lowest price of share of each class repurchased by the Company from the last fiscal year, and the total amount paid by the Company for this purpose;
- (5) special resolutions of the general meetings of the Company;
- (6) the latest audited financial statements of the Company, and the reports of the Board, auditors and the audit committee of the Board;
- (7) a copy of the latest annual report filed with the State Administration for Industry & Commerce of China or other competent authorities;
- (8) counterfoils of corporate bonds, resolutions of meetings of the Board, resolutions of meetings of the audit committee of the Board; and
- (9) minutes of the general meetings.

The Company shall, in accordance with the requirements of the Hong Kong Listing Rules, publish the documents specified in item (3) to (7) of the aforementioned item 2 and other applicable documents on the websites of the Hong Kong Stock Exchange and the Company. The Company shall keep items (1) to (9) of the aforementioned item 2 at the designated address in Hong Kong for free inspection by the public and shareholders (the minutes of the general meetings are only available for shareholders to inspect and copy after paying a reasonable fee).

The Hong Kong branch register of shareholders must be available for inspection by shareholders. However, the Company may be allowed to suspend the registration of shareholders on terms equivalent to section 632 of the Companies Ordinance (Chapter 622 of the Laws of Hong Kong). In other words, the Company may, by notice, close its register of shareholders or that part of the register relating to shareholders holding any class of shares for one or more than one periods, provided that, the accumulative period of closure shall not exceed 30 days within any one year.

Subject to compliance with applicable laws, administrative regulations and securities regulatory rules in the place where the shares of the Company are listed, the Company may reject the requests if the content to be inspected and copied involves the business secrets and inside information of the Company or the personal privacy of relevant personnel.

- (VI) to participate in the distribution of the residual assets of the Company in proportion to their shareholdings in the event of the termination or liquidation of the Company;
- (VII) to request the Company to purchase their shares for the shareholders who object to the resolution on merger or division made by the general meetings;
- (VIII) other rights stipulated by laws, administrative regulations, regulatory documents, the Hong Kong Listing Rules and the Articles of Association.

APPENDIX V

---

The state-owned shareholders of the Company shall perform the relevant information reporting obligations in accordance with the requirements of the state-owned asset regulators, and the Company shall support and cooperate with them provided that they do not contravene the relevant information disclosure requirements under the relevant laws, regulations and regulatory rules of the place where the shares are listed as well as do not damage the lawful rights and interests of the Company and the other shareholders.

Shareholders of the Company shall assume the following obligations:

- (I) to abide by the laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association;
- (II) to pay subscription monies according to the number of shares subscribed and the method of subscription;
- (III) not to withdraw the shares after the approval and registration of the Company unless required by laws and regulations;
- (IV) not to abuse shareholders’ rights to damage the interests of the Company or other shareholders; not to abuse the status of the Company as an independent legal person and the limited liability of shareholders to damage the interests of any creditors of the Company;
- (V) other obligations as stipulated by the laws, administrative regulations, the Hong Kong Listing Rules and the Articles of Association.

When any shareholder of the Company abuses the shareholders’ rights and incurs losses to the Company or other shareholders, such shareholder shall be liable for compensation in accordance with the law. Where shareholders of the Company abuse the status of the Company as an independent legal person and the limited liability of shareholders for the purposes of evading debts, thereby materially damaging the interests of the creditors of the Company, such shareholders shall be jointly and severally liable for the debts of the Company.

Where any shareholder holding more than 5% of the voting shares of the Company pledges the shares held by him/her, the shareholder shall submit a written report to the Company on the day on which the pledge occurs.

The controlling shareholders and actual controllers of the Company shall not use their connected relations to damage the interests of the Company. Any losses caused to the Company as a result of such violation shall be compensated.

The controlling shareholders and actual controllers of the Company shall have fiduciary duties towards the Company and the public shareholders of the Company. The controlling shareholders shall exercise their rights as capital contributors in strict compliance with the law. The controlling shareholders, actual controllers and their connected parties shall not damage the lawful rights and interests of the Company by means of profit distribution, asset restructuring, external investment, fund appropriation, loan guarantee, etc., nor make use of their controlling position to damage the interests of the Company and its public shareholders.

- (VII) any other circumstances stipulated by laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules, the Hong Kong Listing Rules or the Articles of Association.

The Company shall convene a general meeting at its domicile or other places as indicated in the notice of the general meeting.

The general meeting shall arrange a meeting venue and be convened through on-site meetings. The Company may use electronic communications (including but not limited to online voting, videos or others) and other means to facilitate shareholders attending the general meeting, as appropriate. Shareholders participating in general meetings in the aforesaid manner shall be deemed to have attended the meeting. Each shareholder has the rights to speak and vote at general meetings save for individual shareholders who are required by the Hong Kong Listing Rules to abstain from voting on particular matters.

The time and venue of on-site meetings shall be selected for the convenient participation of shareholders. After the issuance of the notice of the general meeting, the venue for an on-site meeting shall not be changed without any proper reasons. In case of any necessary change of the venue, the convener shall notify shareholders and state the reasons at least two working days prior to the date of the on-site meeting.

Convening of General Meetings

Independent non-executive directors shall have the right to propose to the Board to convene extraordinary general meetings. When an independent non-executive director proposes to convene an extraordinary general meeting, the Board shall issue written feedback on consent or non-consent to the convening of the extraordinary general meeting within 10 days from the receipt of the proposal according to the laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association. If the Board gives consent to convene an extraordinary general meeting, it shall, within five days from the passing of the board resolution, issue a notice on convening the general meetings. If the Board does not give consent to convene an extraordinary general meeting, the Board shall state the reason and issue an announcement.

On the basis of one share for one vote, shareholders holding more than 10% of the shares (excluding treasury shares) of the Company individually or jointly shall have the right to request the Board to convene an extraordinary general meeting, have such right to include resolutions in the agenda and submit such request in writing to the Board. The Board shall issue written feedback on consent or non-consent to the convening of the extraordinary general meeting within 10 days from the receipt of the request according to the laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association.

If the Board gives consent to convene an extraordinary general meeting it shall, within five days from the passing of the board resolution, issue a notice on convening the general meetings. Any changes to the original request in the notice shall obtain the consent of proposing shareholders.

If the Board does not give consent to convene an extraordinary general meeting or does not issue feedback within ten days from the receipt of the request, shareholders holding more than 10% of the shares (excluding treasury shares) of the Company individually or jointly may convene and chair the general meeting on their own.

Prior to the announcement of resolutions passed by the general meeting, the shareholding percentage of the convening shareholders shall be no less than 10% (excluding treasury shares).

For the general meetings convened by shareholders, the Board and the secretary of the Board shall cooperate. The Board shall provide the register of shareholders as at the date of record. The register of shareholders obtained by the convener shall not be used for any purpose other than convening a general meeting.

The necessary expenses for a general meeting convened by shareholders shall be borne by the Company.

Proposals and Notices of General Meetings

The contents of the proposal shall fall within the scope of the functions and powers of the general meetings and shall have specified subjects and specific resolutions, in further compliance with the laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association. The proposals of the general meetings shall be in writing.

When the Company convenes the general meeting, the Board and shareholders individually or jointly holding more than 1% of the shares of the Company shall have the right to make proposals.

Shareholders individually or jointly holding more than 1% of the shares of the Company may make provisional proposals and submit them to the convener in writing 10 days before a general meeting and within the period stipulated by the Hong Kong Listing Rules. The convener shall, in accordance with the Company Law and the Hong Kong Listing Rules, within two days upon receipt of the proposal, issue a supplementary notice of the general meeting announcing the contents of such

APPENDIX V

provisional proposals, which exclude those violating the requirements of the laws, administrative regulations or the Articles of Association, or falling out of the scope of the authority of the general meeting.

Except for the situations described above, the convener shall not modify the proposals already specified in the notice of the general meeting or add new proposals subsequent to the issue of the notice of the general meeting.

The general meeting shall not vote on or resolve any proposals not incorporated in the notice or not in compliance with Article 61 of the Articles of Association.

The convener of the general meeting shall notify the shareholders by announcement twenty-one days prior to the annual general meeting, and shall notify the shareholders by announcement fifteen days prior to the extraordinary general meeting. The notice shall be accompanied by the form of proxy, which shall provide the options for and against all resolutions to be proposed at the meeting.

In determining the commencement date and the period, the Company shall not include the date convening the meeting.

The notice of a general meeting shall include the following details:

- (I) the time, address and duration of the meeting;
- (II) the matters and proposals submitted to be deliberated at the meeting;
- (III) a prominent written statement that all shareholders are entitled to attend the general meeting and may appoint a proxy in writing to attend and vote at the meeting. The proxy may not be a shareholder of the Company;
- (IV) the date of registration of shareholdings of shareholders who are entitled to attend the general meeting;
- (V) the name and telephone number of the permanent contact person concerning meeting matters;
- (VI) the time and procedure for voting through internet or other means;
- (VII) any other matters stipulated by laws, administrative regulations, regulatory documents, and the Hong Kong Listing Rules.

The specific details of all proposals shall be adequately and fully disclosed in the notice and supplementary notice of the general meeting.

The interval between the date of registration of shareholdings and the date of the meeting shall be no more than seven business days. The date of registration of shareholdings shall not be changed once determined except for changes made in accordance with the Hong Kong Listing Rules.

If the matters involving the election of directors are to be discussed at the general meeting, the notice of the general meeting shall fully disclose the detailed information of the candidates for directors, which shall at least include the following:

- (I) personal particulars including full name, educational background, working experience, part-time jobs;
- (II) whether there is any connected relationship between such candidates and the Company or controlling shareholders and actual controller of the Company;
- (III) disclosure of their shareholdings in the Company;

(IV) whether the candidates have been punished by the relevant regulatory authorities and other relevant authorities or reprimanded by a stock exchange;

(V) other matters regulated by the Hong Kong Listing Rules.

Except for the directors elected through the cumulative voting system, each candidate for director shall be individually proposed.

After the issuance of the notice for a general meeting, the general meeting shall not be postponed or canceled without any proper reasons, and the proposals specified in the notice shall not be withdrawn. In case of delay or cancellation, the convener shall give a notice to shareholders stating the reasons at least two business days before the original meeting date.

Holding of General Meetings

The Board and other conveners shall take all necessary measures to ensure that the general meeting is conducted in an orderly manner, and shall take steps to prevent any activities that interfere the general meetings, cause disturbances and infringe the legal interests of the shareholders, and report such activities to the relevant authorities for investigation and punishment.

All shareholders in the register of shareholders as at the date of record or their proxies shall have corresponding rights to attend and speak at the general meeting and exercise the voting rights according to relevant laws, regulations and the Articles of Association, unless individual shareholders are required to waive their voting rights on specific matters under the provisions of the Hong Kong Listing Rules.

Shareholders may either attend and exercise the voting rights at the general meeting in person, or appoint any persons (regardless of whether such person is a shareholder of the Company) as their proxies to attend the meeting and exercise the voting rights within the scope of authorization. Any shareholder who is entitled to attend and vote at the general meeting shall be entitled to appoint one or more persons (whether such person is a shareholder or not) as his/her proxy(ies) to attend and vote on his/her behalf.

Individual shareholders attending the meeting in person shall present their identity cards or any other valid certificates or documents or stock account cards for identification. Proxies attending the meeting shall present their personal identity cards and the power of attorney from the shareholder.

Legal person shareholders shall assign their legal representatives or the proxies they entrust to attend the meeting. Legal representatives attending the meeting shall present their identity cards and valid documents that can prove his or her qualification as the legal representative. Proxies authorized to attend the meeting shall present their identity cards and the written power of attorney legally issued by the legal representative of the legal person shareholder. The power of attorney shall specify the matters, authority and duration of proxy(ies).

A partnership shareholder shall attend the meeting by its managing partner (including the authorized representative of the managing partner) or its proxy. Managing partners attending the meeting shall present their identity cards and valid documents that can prove his or her qualification as the managing partner. Proxies attending the meeting shall present their identity cards and the written power of attorney legally issued by the managing partner of the partnership shareholder. The power of attorney shall specify the matters, authority and duration of proxy(ies).

If such corporate shareholder or partnership shareholder has appointed a representative to attend any meeting, it shall be deemed as attending in person (except where the shareholder is a recognized clearing house (or its nominee) as defined by the relevant ordinances in force from time to time in Hong Kong).

APPENDIX V

---

If the shareholder is an accredited clearing house (or its proxy) as defined under the Securities and Futures Ordinance of Hong Kong or relevant provisions of the laws of Hong Kong in effect from time to time, the shareholder may appoint one or more persons as its proxy at the general meeting and meeting of creditors. However, if more than one person is appointed, the power of attorney shall specify the number and class of the shares relating to each such proxy. Such person so appointed may represent the accredited clearing house (or its proxy) (no shareholding voucher, notarized authorization and/or further evidence to the duly authorization is required) as if such person is an individual shareholder of the Company and enjoys the same legal rights as those of other shareholders, including the rights to speak and vote.

The power of attorney issued by a shareholder to appoint another person to attend a general meeting shall contain the following information:

- (I) the name of the proxy;
- (II) whether the proxy has the right to vote;
- (III) instructions to vote for, against or abstain from voting on each matter to be considered on the agenda of the general meeting, respectively;
- (IV) the date of issuance and expiration date of the power of attorney;
- (V) the signature (or seal) of the principal. If the principal is a legal person shareholder, the seal of the legal person entity shall be affixed. If the principal is a partnership shareholder, the seal of the partnership shall be affixed.

The power of attorney shall specify whether the proxy could vote at his or her discretion if the shareholder does not provide specific instructions.

If the power of attorney for voting by proxy is signed by another person authorized by the principal, the power of attorney or other authorization documents authorized to be signed must be verified by a notary. The power of attorney or other instrument verified by the notary must be deposited together with the power of attorney at the domicile of the Company or other location designated in the notice convening the meeting not less than 24 hours prior to the convening of the meeting to discuss the relevant matters to be voted on as authorized in the proxy form or 24 hours prior to the time appointed for voting.

A legal person shareholder shall attend the general meetings of the Company by its legal representatives or persons authorized by the resolution of its Board or other decision-making body.

A partnership shareholder shall attend the general meetings of the Company by its managing partner or the appointed representative of the managing partner or the person authorized by the resolution of the partners' meeting or other decision-making body.

The Company shall be responsible for preparing the register of persons attending the meeting.

The register of persons attending the meeting shall include, among others, the name of person attending the meeting (or name of the relevant entity), identity card number (or unified social credit code), domicile (or principal place of business), number of shares with voting rights they hold or represent, and name of the principal (or name of the relevant entity).

The convener shall verify the legitimacy of shareholders' qualifications according to the register of shareholders provided by the securities depository and clearing agency and register the names of shareholders and the number of shares with voting rights they hold. The registration shall end before the chairman of the meeting announces the number of shareholders and proxies attending the meeting and the total number of voting shares they hold.

APPENDIX V

---

When the general meetings are held, all directors and secretary of the Board of the Company shall attend the general meetings, and managers and other senior management shall also attend the meetings on a non-voting basis.

The general meetings shall be convened by the Board and chaired by the chairman of the Board in accordance with the laws. When the chairman of the Board is unable to perform or does not perform his or her duties, a director nominated by more than half of the directors shall chair the meeting. However, the above provision shall not apply to the general meetings convened and chaired by qualified shareholders in accordance with the Articles of Association.

The general meeting convened by shareholders shall be chaired by a representative recommended by the convener.

Where the general meeting is unable to continue due to the chairman of the meeting violating the rules of procedure of the meeting during the meeting, the general meeting may elect a person to chair the meeting upon consent of the attending shareholders with more than half of the voting rights to continue the meeting.

The Company shall formulate the rules of procedure of the general meetings which shall set out the procedures of convening and voting at the general meetings in detail, including notices, registration, consideration for proposals, voting, vote counting, announcement on voting results, formation of the resolutions, meeting minutes and their signing, announcement and other matters, and the principles of authorization of the general meetings granted to the Board. The contents of authorization shall be clear and specific. The rules of procedure of the general meeting shall be prepared by the Board, approved at the general meeting and attached as an appendix to the Articles of Association.

At the annual general meeting, the Board shall report their work done in the past year to the general meeting. Each independent non-executive director shall also deliver his or her work report.

Except for information that cannot be disclosed according to laws and administrative regulations or information involving with trade secrets of the Company, the directors and senior management shall make explanations and statement on the inquiries and suggestions from shareholders at the general meetings.

Prior to voting, the chairman of the meeting shall announce the number of shareholders and proxies present and the total number of voting shares held by them. The number of shareholders and proxies present and the total number of voting shares held by them shall be subject to the meeting registration.

The secretary of the Board shall be responsible for the minutes of the general meetings. The minutes shall set forth the following contents:

- (I) time, place, agenda of the meeting, name of the convener;
- (II) name of the chairman of the meeting, directors, managers and other senior management present or in attendance at the meeting;
- (III) number of shareholders and proxies present at the meeting, the total number of voting shares and the proportion of the total number of voting shares to the total shares of the Company;
- (IV) the consideration process, highlights of the speeches and voting results for each proposal;
- (V) queries or suggestions of shareholders and the corresponding replies or explanations;
- (VI) the name of lawyers (if any), counting officers and scrutinizers;

APPENDIX V

---

- (VII) such other matters which shall be recorded in the minutes specified by laws and regulations, stock exchange of the place where the shares of the Company are listed or the Articles of Association.

Conveners of the general meetings shall ensure that the contents of the minutes are true, accurate and complete. The directors, secretary of the Board, convener or his or her representative and chairman of the meeting shall sign on the minutes. The minutes shall be kept together with the attendance record of shareholders attending the meeting, the power of attorney for proxies attending the meeting and the valid information of voting via online voting (if any) or other methods.

The convener of the general meeting shall ensure that the general meeting is held continuously until the final resolutions are reached. In case the general meeting is adjourned or resolutions failed to be reached due to any special reasons like force majeure, necessary measures shall be taken to resume the general meeting as soon as possible or to directly terminate the general meeting. An announcement shall be made accordingly in time.

Voting and Resolutions of General Meetings

Resolutions of a general meeting shall be divided into ordinary resolutions and special resolutions.

Ordinary resolutions made by the general meeting shall be passed by votes representing more than half of the voting rights held by shareholders attending the general meeting (including proxies thereof).

Special resolutions made by the general meeting shall be passed by votes representing more than two thirds of the voting rights held by shareholders attending the general meeting (including proxies thereof).

The following matters shall be passed through ordinary resolutions at a general meeting:

- (I) work reports of the Board;
- (II) plans for profit distribution and recovery of losses prepared by the Board;
- (III) appointment and dismissal of the members of the Board, and their remuneration and payment methods;
- (IV) annual budget plan and final accounts of the Company;
- (V) annual report of the Company;
- (VI) matters other than those which shall be passed by special resolutions as specified by laws, administrative regulations, the Hong Kong Listing Rules, or the Articles of Association.

The following matters shall be approved by way of special resolutions at a general meeting:

- (VI) has been banned from entering the securities market by the relevant regulatory authorities and the period has not elapsed;
- (VII) is banned under other circumstances specified in the laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules or the Hong Kong Listing Rules. If any director is elected or appointed in violation of the provisions of the preceding paragraph, such election, appointment or employment shall be null and void.

The Company shall dismiss a director from office if the circumstances of this Article arise during his or her term of office.

Directors shall be elected or replaced at the general meeting. The general meeting may, subject to the provisions of relevant laws and administrative regulations, remove any director whose term of office has not expired by ordinary resolutions (the compensation claim made by such director pursuant to any contract shall not be affected).

Directors serve a term of office of three years and are eligible for re-election upon the expiration of the term. In case the term of office of an independent non-executive director exceeds nine years, the term of office shall only be renewed after fulfilling the corresponding consideration procedures under the listing rules of the place where the shares of the Company are listed.

APPENDIX V

---

The term of office of a director shall be calculated from the date of duty assumption until the expiration of the term of office of the current session of the board. In the event re-election is not held in time upon the expiry of the term of office of directors that leads to the number of directors of the Board being lower than the quorum, the original directors shall fulfill duties of directors according to laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules and the Articles of Association before the newly appointed or elected directors assumes the office.

A director who resigns shall submit a written notice to the Company, and the resignation shall become effective on the date the Company receives the notice. However, in the circumstances described in the preceding article, the director shall continue to perform his/her duties.

The general meeting may resolve to remove a director, and the removal shall take effect on the date of the resolution. A director who is removed before the expiration of the term of office may request compensation from the Company.

Subject to the provisions of the relevant laws, administrative regulations and regulatory provisions, if the Board appoints any new director to fill any casual vacancy of the Board, the term of office of the newly appointed director shall expire on the first annual general meeting after the appointment. At the same time, such director shall be eligible for re-election.

A director may be concurrently served by a manager or other senior management, but the total number of directors concurrently serving as managers or other senior management shall not exceed 1/2 of the total number of directors of the Company.

Directors shall observe the laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association, and shall bear the following obligations of loyalty:

- (I) Directors shall not take advantage of their powers to receive any bribes or other illegal income, and shall not embezzle any property of the Company;
- (II) Directors shall not misappropriate any funds of the Company;
- (III) Directors shall not deposit any assets or funds of the Company in any accounts opened in their own names or in the name of any other persons;
- (IV) Directors shall not directly or indirectly enter into any contracts or transactions with the Company without reporting to the Board or the general meeting on the matters relating to the entering into of such contracts or transactions and having such matters approved by a resolution of the Board or the general meeting in accordance with the provisions of the Articles of Association;
- (V) Without the consent of the general meeting, directors shall not take advantage of their powers to pursue any business opportunities, except for any of the following circumstances (1) after reporting to the Board or the general meeting and passing the resolution at the Board or the general meeting in accordance with the provisions of the Articles of Association; (2) where the Company cannot take such business opportunity in accordance with the provisions of laws, administrative regulations or the Articles of Association;
- (VI) Directors shall not pocket commissions from the transactions with the Company;
- (VII) Directors shall not disclose any confidential information of the Company without authorization;

APPENDIX V

---

(VIII) Directors shall not utilize its connected relationship to compromise the interest of the Company;

(IX) Directors shall bear other obligations of loyalty specified by laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules, the Hong Kong Listing Rules and the Articles of Association.

The provisions of the preceding paragraph V shall apply to the entering of contracts or transactions with the Company by close family members of the directors and senior management, enterprises directly or indirectly controlled by the directors, senior management or their close family members, and related (associated) persons who have other related (associated) relationships with the directors and senior management.

Any income derived by a director from violating the provisions of this Article shall belong to the Company. The director shall also be liable for the compensation of losses suffered by the Company thereto.

Directors shall comply with the laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association, and shall bear the following duty of due diligence to the Company:

- (I) Directors shall prudently, seriously and diligently exercise rights conferred by the Company to ensure that the business activities of the Company are in compliance with the requirements of national laws, administrative regulations and various economic policies and that the business activities shall not exceed the scope of business specified in the business license;
- (II) Directors shall fairly treat all shareholders of the Company;
- (III) Directors shall learn about the status of business and management of the Company in a timely manner;
- (IV) Directors shall issue a written confirmation of opinions for regular reports of the Company and ensure the authenticity, accuracy and completeness of information disclosed by the Company;
- (V) Directors shall truthfully provide the relevant information and materials to the audit committee of the Board, and shall not hinder the audit committee of the Board or its members from exercising their functions and powers;
- (VI) Directors shall fulfill other duty of due diligence stipulated by laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules, the Hong Kong Listing Rules, and the Articles of Association.

If the controlling shareholder or the actual controller of the Company does not act as a director of the Company but actually executes the affairs of the Company, the provisions above-mentioned shall apply.

Unless otherwise stipulated in this section, the regulations relating to the qualifications and obligations of directors in the Articles of Association shall be applicable to independent non-executive directors of the Company. Independent non-executive directors shall faithfully perform their duties, safeguard the interests of the Company, protect the legal interests of shareholders of public shares, and ensure that the interests of all shareholders can be fully represented.

APPENDIX V

---

If any independent non-executive director fails to meet conditions for the qualifications and independence specified in the Hong Kong Listing Rules or encounters any other circumstances inappropriate for him or her to fulfill his or her duties such that the number of independent non-executive directors of the Company falls below the quorum in the Articles of Association, the Company shall inform the Hong Kong Stock Exchange immediately, and explain the relevant details and reasons in the announcement. The Company shall, within three months of the non-compliance, fill up the number of independent non-executive directors to meet requirements of the Hong Kong Listing Rules.

Any director who fails to attend two consecutive meetings of the Board in person and fails to entrust any other directors to attend on his or her behalf shall be deemed to be unable to perform his or her duties. The Board shall propose to the general meeting to remove such director.

A director may resign before the expiration of his or her term of office. The director shall submit a written resignation report to the Board. The Board shall disclose the relevant information within two days.

Where the number of directors of the Board falls below the minimum number of directors stipulated in the Company Law due to the resignation of any director, the original directors shall perform their duties according to laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules and the Articles of Associations before the newly-elected director assumes the office.

Except for the circumstances specified in the preceding paragraph or a later date specified in the resignation report of the director, the resignation of the director shall become effective when the resignation report is delivered to the Board.

Upon the effectiveness of a director’s resignation or the expiration of his or her term of office, the director shall complete all handover procedures with the Board and his or her duty of loyalty to the Company and its shareholders continues for two years after the end of his or her term of office. His or her obligations to keep the trade secrets of the Company confidential shall remain valid after the expiration of his or her term of office until the relevant secrets become publicly available information.

Unless otherwise specified in the Articles of Association or duly authorized by the Board, no director shall act on behalf of the Company or the Board in his or her personal capacity. When a director acts in his or her personal capacity, and a third party may reasonably believe that such director is acting on behalf of the Company or the Board, the director shall declare his or her stance and capacity in advance.

If the Company suffers any losses due to a director’s violation of laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules or the Articles of Association in fulfilling his or her duties, the director shall be liable for compensation.

The matters relating to independent non-executive directors of the Company shall be carried out according to laws, administrative regulations and regulations of the relevant regulatory authorities and stock exchange, and shall be regulated in details in the work policy of independent non-executive directors of the Company.

Board of Directors

The Company shall establish the Board, which shall be responsible for the general meeting.

---

APPENDIX V

---

The Board shall consist of seven directors and one chairman. The chairman of the Board shall be elected by more than half of the votes by the directors. The Board of the Company shall consist of four executive directors and three independent non-executive directors. The limitation of the functions and powers of the Board in the Articles of Association shall not be against a bona fide third party.

Where the Board makes decisions on the above matters that fall within the scope of the participation of the Party organization of the Company in decision-making on major issues, it shall first listen to the opinions and advice of the Party organization of the Company.

APPENDIX V

---

Matters exceeding the scope of authorization by the general meeting shall be submitted to the general meeting for consideration.

All material matters subject to the decision-making of the Board of the Company shall be informed to all directors within the time specified in the Articles of Association, with sufficient information submitted to directors at the same time in compliance with the regulatory procedure. The directors may request for additional information. When more than one-fourth of the directors or more than two independent non-executive directors consider that the information and materials are insufficient or there are other reasons that make it impossible for them to make a judgment on the matters concerned, they may jointly propose to postpone the meeting of the Board or to postpone the deliberation of part of the matters discussed by the Board, and the Board shall adopt such proposal.

The Board of the Company shall explain to the general meeting of the Company regarding the non-standard audit opinion issued by the certified public accountant on the financial reports of the Company.

The Board shall formulate rules of procedure for the Board to ensure the implementation of resolutions of the general meetings, improve work efficiency and guarantee the reasonable decision-making.

The rules of procedure of the Board shall be drafted by the Board and approved by the general meeting, which shall be taken as an appendix to the Articles of Association.

The Board shall organize relevant experts and professionals to assess major investment projects.

The Board shall have one chairman, who shall be elected by the Board by more than half of all directors. The chairman of the Board shall exercise the following functions and powers:

- (I) to chair the general meetings, and to convene and chair the meetings of the Board;
- (II) to sign important documents of the Board;
- (III) to supervise and check the implementation of board resolutions;
- (IV) to exercise other powers granted by the Board;
- (V) to exercise other powers granted by laws, administrative regulations, department rules, listing rules of the place where the shares of the Company are listed or the Articles of Association.

If the chairman is unable or unwilling to perform his or her duties, the vice chairman shall assume the duties; in the event that the vice chairman is incapable of performing or does not perform his or her duties, a directors nominated by more than half of the directors shall perform the duties.

The Board shall convene regular meetings once a year. The meeting shall be convened by the chairman of the Board. The meeting notice shall be delivered to all directors in writing 14 days before the date of the meeting. If necessary, the meeting notice shall also be sent to managers and other senior management of the Company.

Shareholders representing more than 1/10 of voting rights (excluding treasury shares) of the Company, more than one-third of all directors may propose to convene an ad hoc meeting of the Board. The chairman shall convene and chair a board meeting within 10 days from the receipt of such request.

APPENDIX V

---

The notice on convening any ad hoc meeting of the Board shall be delivered in writing 24 hours before the convening of the meeting to all directors, managers, and if necessary, other senior management of the Company.

The notice of the meeting of the Board shall include the following:

- (I) time and place of the meeting;
- (II) duration of the meeting;
- (III) reasons and issues of discussion;
- (IV) date on which the notice is given.

The meeting of the Board may only proceed if more than half of all directors are present at the meeting. Unless otherwise regulated by the Articles of Association, resolutions made by the Board shall be passed by votes of more than half of all directors.

The voting on board resolutions shall adopt one vote per person.

A director with connected relationship with the companies involved with any matters in the resolution of the Board shall neither exercise the voting right for the resolution, nor exercise the voting right on behalf of any other directors, and his/her voting right shall not be counted towards the total voting rights. Such meeting of the Board shall only proceed if more than half of directors with no connected relationship present at the meeting. Except as otherwise provided herein, the resolutions of the meeting of the Board shall be passed by votes of more than half of directors with no connected relationship. In case there is less than three directors with no connected relationship present in the meeting, the matter shall be submitted to the general meeting for review.

The voting at the meetings of the Board shall be conducted by open ballot or by show of hands.

Unless otherwise regulated by applicable laws, administrative regulations and regulatory documents or the Hong Kong Listing Rules, subject to the thorough expression of opinions by all directors, the ad hoc meeting of the Board may be convened and pass resolutions by video conference, telephone conference or handover of written documents for signature, and all directors present at the meeting shall sign on such resolutions. If the Board has distributed the resolutions to all directors, the number of directors signing to consent the resolutions has reached the quorum, and the signed documents of the consent have been sent to the secretary of the Board through the above method, the motion will be deemed as a resolution passed by the Board, with the same legal force as the resolutions passed in the meetings of the Board convened according to the procedures regulated in relevant provisions of the Articles of Association.

The regular meetings of the Board shall not be convened in the form of handover of written documents for signature.

A director shall attend the meeting of the Board in person. Where a director is unable to attend the meeting of the Board for any reasons, he or she may appoint another director to attend on his or her behalf by a written power of attorney. The power of attorney shall specify the name of the proxy, the matters for entrustment, the scope of authorization and validity period, and shall be signed or sealed by the principal. A director who attends the meeting on behalf of another director shall exercise the rights of a director within the scope of the authorization. A director who does not attend a meeting of the Board in person or by proxy shall be deemed to have abstained from voting at such meeting.

The Board shall keep the minutes of the decisions on the matters discussed at the meeting, and all directors present at the meeting shall sign on the minutes. The minutes of the meetings of the Board shall be kept by the secretary of the Board as company files.
