FAR EASTERN POLYCHEM INDUSTRIES LIMITED

(遠東化聚工業股份有限公司)*

(Incorporated in Bermuda with limited liability)

Further deferral of Completion of the Acquisition of Assets from Dupont Suzhou Polyester Company Limited

The Board announces that FEPI and DSPC have agreed to further extend the long stop date for completion of the Agreement and the Investment Agreement, by which time all conditions precedent are to be fulfilled (or waived), to 30 September 2003.

Reference is made to the announcement of Far Eastern Polychem Industries Limited (“FEPI”) dated 18 April 2002, the circular of FEPI dated 8 May 2002 and the announcement dated 30 December 2002 in respect of the acquisition of certain assets, raw materials and work-in-progress from Dupont Suzhou Polyester Company Limited for a consideration of not more than US$37.62 million. Capitalised terms used herein have the same meanings as those defined in the Announcements and the Circular.

Pursuant to the Agreement and the Investment Agreement, completion was expected to take place on or before 31 December 2002, after all the conditions precedent set out in the Agreement and the Investment Agreement had been fulfilled (or waived). As stated in our Announcement dated 30 December 2002, due to administrative delay and certain approvals outstanding from the PRC government authorities, the long stop date was extended to 31 March 2003.

Subsequent to 30 December 2002, the PRC government authorities required DuPont to acquire all the equity interest, amounting to 18.9%, held by the Chinese joint-venture partner of DSPC, Suzhou Chemical Fibre Plant, which serves as a pre-requisite for them to approve the sale of DSPC’s Assets to FEPI. Currently, DuPont is negotiating with Suzhou Chemical Fibre Plant, with terms yet to be fixed. One of the conditions set out in the Agreement and the Investment Agreement was to obtain approvals from the PRC government authorities, and cannot be waived. As the Directors consider that the reasons for the Acquisition of Assets from DSPC as set out in the announcement of FEPI dated 18 April 2002 and the Circular of FEPI dated 8 May 2002 are still valid and the Acquisition is still beneficial to the Group's future development as of the date of this announcement, the Board announces that FEPI and DSPC have agreed to further extend the long stop date for completion of the Agreement and the Investment Agreement, by which time all conditions precedent are to be fulfilled (or waived), to 30 September 2003, or such other date as the parties may otherwise agree. FEPI did not pay any of the consideration for the Acquisition as of today. The consideration will be paid upon completion of the Agreement and the Investment Agreement.

Save for the above, the terms and conditions of the Agreement and Investment Agreement remain unchanged, and had been fulfilled as of the date of this announcement. No terms and conditions of the Agreement and Investment Agreement were waived. A further announcement will be made should completion of the Agreement and Investment Agreement not take place by 30 September 2003 or otherwise a further announcement will be made after completion of the Agreement and the Investment Agreement.
