CHANGE IN TERMS OF THE AGREEMENT AND
EXTENSION OF LONG STOP DATE
FOR THE VERY SUBSTANTIAL DISPOSAL

The Board further announces that on 30 September 2009, the Company, the Purchaser and Adventure entered into the Deed of Assignment and Novation, pursuant to which Adventure was assigned with all the rights and interests and assumed all the obligations and liabilities of the Purchaser under the Sale and Purchase Agreement.

The Company also announces that on 30 September 2009, the Company and Adventure have agreed in writing to extend the Long Stop Date for the fulfillment of the Conditions to 30 November 2009.

Reference is made to the announcement (the “Announcement”) of the Company in relation to the very substantial disposal dated 14 August 2009. Definitions and terms used in this announcement shall bear the same meanings as defined in the Announcement unless the context otherwise requires.

DEED OF ASSIGNMENT AND NOVATION

On 30 September 2009, the Company, the Purchaser and Adventure Corporate Services Limited (“Adventure”) entered into a deed of assignment and novation (the “Deed of Assignment and Novation”), pursuant to which Adventure was assigned with all the rights and interests and assumed all the obligations and liabilities of the Purchaser under the Sale and Purchase Agreement. The Deed of Assignment and Novation was entered at the request of the Purchaser.

Adventure is a company incorporated in Hong Kong with limited liability and is principally engaged in asset recovery services, which involve dealing with distressed assets, and consultancy services. Adventure is an Independent Third Party and is owned as to 50% by the Purchaser and 50% by an Independent Third Party.

As (i) pursuant to the Sale and Purchase Agreement, the Purchaser had a right to nominate the party to hold the Sale Shares and the Sale Loan at Completion; and (ii) the Deed of Assignment and Novation only served to assign all the rights and interests and novate all the obligations and liabilities under the Sale and Purchase Agreement from the Purchaser to Adventure prior to Completion, the Directors consider that the Deed of Assignment and Novation does not represent a major change in the terms as compared to the Sale and Purchase Agreement.

EXTENSION OF LONG STOP DATE

As provided in the Sale and Purchase Agreement, the Completion is conditional upon the satisfaction of certain conditions precedent (the “Conditions”) as set out in the Sale and Purchase Agreement. If the Condition has not been satisfied on or before 30 September 2009 (the “Long Stop Date”), or such later date as the Company and the Purchaser may agree, the Sale and Purchase Agreement shall cease and determine, and thereafter neither party shall have any obligations and liabilities towards each other thereunder save for any antecedent breaches of the terms thereof.

Pursuant to the Deed of Assignment and Novation, Adventure was assigned with all the rights and interests and assumed all the obligations and liabilities of the Purchaser under the Sale and Purchase Agreement.

On 30 September 2009, the Company and Adventure have agreed in writing to extend the Long Stop Date to 30 November 2009 in accordance with the Sale and Purchase Agreement. The Board considers that the extension of the Long Stop Date to 30 November 2009 would be in the interest of the Company and the Shareholders as a whole. Save and except for the aforesaid extension of the Long Stop Date, all other terms of the Sale and Purchase Agreement shall remain unchanged.

Completion is conditional upon the fulfilment of the Conditions. Accordingly, the Sale and Purchase Agreement may or may not be completed. Shareholders and potential investors are therefore reminded to exercise caution when dealing in the securities of the Company.
