The turnover increased by approximately 33% and the gross profit increased by approximately 53% as compared to the corresponding period of last year. The above changes were attributable to the following:

- (1) business exploration in new areas, as a result of which, the traditionally-advantaged information communication and technology sector will look to the happiness industry and regional economic development;
- (2) new advancement in the digital transformation, as a result of which, our services and products achieved a milestone in digital transformation by completing the industrial big-data platform, as well as reporting a fast growth in the online platform business. During the current period, the contractual amount exceeded RMB200 million;
- (3) enhancement in the new advantages of our products and services, as a result of which, our products and services witness a significant boost in their competitiveness. Our comprehensive services evolve from single consultation planning and are driven by industrial innovation and development, resulting in a value-added increment. During the current period, the contracted projects that exceed RMB1 million accounted for approximately 37% of the total contracted projects; and
- (4) improvement in the brand and new image of our consultancy services, as a result of which, the brand and image have significantly improved, achieving positive reputation in the market. Our products and services have also achieved a 96.5% satisfaction rate in the market.

In terms of management and strategy consultancy services, the Group has been committed to keeping abreast of the development trend which focuses on national policies and IT technology, and persistently promoting businesses development related to IT consultancy, investment and merger and acquisition consultancy, corporate management and urban planning by encompassing the strategically emerging industries, while at the same time, continuously expanding customer resources, so as to enable the Group to acquire more sales channels and technical support in the course of developing management and strategy consultancy services. The increase was mainly caused by (1) the Group's business exploration in new areas, as a result of which, the traditionally-advantaged information communication and technology sector will look to the happiness industry and regional economic development; and (2) enhancement in the new advantages of our products and services, as a result of which, our comprehensive services evolve from single consultation planning and are driven by industrial innovation and development, resulting in a value-added increment.

The increase was primarily attributable to the fact that the Group proactively forged ahead with the transformation from single planning to campaign organization, investment attraction, application and registration, and custodianship for its market consultancy services, as a result of which, our services and products achieved a milestone in digital transformation by completing the industrial big-data platform, as well as reporting a fast growth in the online platform business.

The increase was mainly due to the fact that the Group has been exploring new business models and development directions for the information engineering supervision services, during which, a milestone has been achieved but the information engineering supervision services require a longer cycle and more funding for projects in comparison to other business types.
