MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

Market overview

In the first three months of 2021, the world was still shadowed with pessimism brought by the outbreak of novel coronavirus (“COVID-19”). Nonetheless, the stringent precautionary measures by governments had driven our lives online, giving impetus to the development of technology industry. The geographical lockdowns and the “work-from-home” arrangements for instance, had elevated the demand for virtual desktop infrastructures (“VDI”). To stay the business afloat and act quickly amid of the pandemic, some companies took the chance to enhance or introduce the use of technology in their business, which can further reduce their administration and operational costs while increase productivity. Cloud platform for video and audio-conferencing applications for example, were becoming prominent during the pandemic. COVID-19 not only reshaped our lives, but also the business model and had somehow made technology a competitive differentiator for businesses.

With the mass vaccination began during the early 2021 alongside the supportive government policies stimulus, the economies started to revive. China’s economy grew by 18.3% in the first quarter of 2021. In Hong Kong, the economy and business were resuming normal. The economy as well as the unemployment rate were expected to improve in the first quarter of 2021.

Business review

During the three months ended 31 March 2021, the Group has continued to develop steadily, preparing ourselves to face the challenges ahead while grabbing the golden opportunities for the sustainable growth of the Group. The Group had continued to dedicate its effort in developing innovative and advanced technology especially in fields like artificial intelligence (“AI”) and cloud technologies while cautiously controlled and allocated our resources efficiently and took appropriate corporate actions according to the market conditions.

Meanwhile, sustainable business development lies on a healthy capital structure. During the Period, we completed the capital reorganisation (the “Capital Reorganisation”) which involved (i) share consolidation of which every twenty four issued and unissued existing shares of par value of HK$0.10 each in the share capital of the Company would be consolidated into one consolidated share of par value of HK$2.40 each in the share capital of the Company, (ii) the capital reduction from HK$2.40 to HK$0.01 by cancelling the paid-up capital of the Company to the extent of HK$2.39 on each of the then issued consolidated shares and (iii) the share sub-division, of which each of the authorised but unissued consolidated shares of par value of HK$2.40 each would be sub-divided into two hundred and forty new shares of par value of HK$0.01 each. The board lot size for trading in Shares on the Stock Exchange had also been changed from 24,000 existing shares to 10,000 consolidated shares conditional upon the share consolidation becoming effective. The Company believes that it will help maintain the transaction amount for each board lot at a reasonable level and attract more investors, provide flexibility for equity fund raising of the Company in the future and eliminate a substantial amount of the Company’s accumulated losses, hence, allowing greater flexibility for the Company to pay dividends in the future. The proposed Capital Reorganisation has been approved by the shareholders of the Company (the “Shareholders”) on 15 January 2021. Further stated in the announcement dated 24 February 2021, the petition hearing for confirmation of capital reduction and share sub-division was held on 23 March 2021 (Cayman Islands time) at the Grand Court of the Cayman Islands. The Capital Reorganisation has been effective from 25 March 2021.
