OUTLOOK

On top of the existing e-learning business, the Group has also tapped into the database and data storage service business through the acquisition of Tianjin Mars Technology. As the Group has just successfully acquired Tianjin Mars Technology on 25 March 2021, it was temporarily unable to reflect the revenue for the three months ended 31 March 2021 in the revenue of the Group, but the revenue of Tianjin Mars Technology shall be incorporated into the revenue of the Group from 1 April 2021.

As mentioned above, the issue of the continuation of the Joint Construction Agreement or the liquidation of the Distance Education College between Hunan IIN Medical, a subsidiary of the Group, and Beijing University of Chinese Medicine is still under discussion in the negotiation, but the result of negotiation should be nearly completed, and we will announce the result once we finalize the negotiation.

Moreover, the Group has also been negotiating a new Chinese medicine e-learning co-operation project with universities from other provinces of PRC, which including the qualification to be certified as traditional Chinese medicine practitioners in Singapore. As the related discussions are still under negotiation, the Group will also make relevant announcement upon the implementation of the details.

OUTLOOK (Continued)
