MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

BUSINESS REVIEW

Total Operating Income

The unaudited total operating income for the six months ended 30 June 2021 was approximately RMB16.45 million, representing approximately 447% of the unaudited total operating income for the corresponding period in 2020.

Following the procurement activities for artificial dielectric lens antenna products carried out by the mobile communication network operators, the operating income from the operating segment of sales of antenna products and provision of related services was increased from approximately RMB0.88 million for the corresponding period in 2020 to approximately RMB10.83 million for the six months ended 30 June 2021, which accounted for approximately 68% of main business income of the Group in the first half of 2021. In response to the procurement activities, the sales team and facilities, together with production capacity, of the Group were gradually expanded and rearranged during the period.

The operating segment of sales of underwater surveillance and related products still maintained technology research and development and after-sales technical support, and provided customised products and services to existing customers such as research institutes and universities. In addition to maintaining the operation of technology research and development and improvement, the operating segment of sales of aircraft products also monitored market development of unmanned aerial vehicles for large loading and transportation, and maintained communication with the industry to ensure that subsequent new products can meet market needs. The available resources were allocated to the operating segment of sales of antenna products and provision of related services to meet the gradually increasing production scale. No operating income was recorded for both operating segments in the first half of 2021.

In respect of the operating segment of sales of agricultural products which is mainly engaged in live chicken, chicken meat and related non-staple foods, approximately RMB5.04 million was generated during the period. Except for actively responding to the national policy on poverty alleviation and fulfilling social responsibilities of the Group, the well-established market channels are conducive to the cooperation of the Group with other market stakeholders and increase the operating income from the agricultural and sideline products.

Gross profit

During the six months ended 30 June 2021, an unaudited gross profit of approximately RMB6.45 million was recorded which represented gross profit margin of approximately 39.20%, compared to the unaudited gross loss rate for the corresponding period in 2020. The improvement in gross profit margin was mainly attributable to significant increase in the operating income from the operating segment of sales of antenna products and provision of related services in the first half of 2021.

Segment performance

Segment performance was evaluated after considering gross profit, selling expenses, depreciation and amortisation expenses under administrative expenses, research and development expenses, credit and assets impairment loss of each operating segment.

Selling expenses were increased from approximately RMB0.17 million for the corresponding period in 2020 to approximately RMB1.99 million for the six months ended 30 June 2021 due to increase in payroll after the expansion of sales team, expenses for procurement activities and delivery charges for the sales of antenna products.

Research and development expenses were increased from approximately RMB5.36 million for the corresponding period in 2020 to approximately RMB6.46 million for the six months ended 30 June 2021 which were solely used for further improvement and development of antenna products.

No impairment loss was recognised for receivables and assets for the six months ended 30 June 2021 as the aging analysis of all receivables was good and all assets were under safe management.

Although the operating segment of sales of antenna products and provision of related services had significant increase in operating income and production scale during the period, the production scale was still below the normal operating level because of enlarged production capacity together with further improvement and development of antenna products. Therefore, the production scale did not generate sufficient income to cover all operating costs and relevant expenses, and a segment loss of approximately of RMB2.01 million was recorded.

In order to complete the sales of agricultural products before each long holidays during the period, the gross profit was affected due to the low market prices at that time and a segment loss of approximately RMB0.28 million was recorded even though the operating income from the segment of sales of agricultural products increased significantly.

Since no operating income was generated from the operating segments of sales of underwater surveillance and related products, and sales of aircraft products, segment losses of approximately RMB0.22 million and RMB0.35 million were recorded respectively.

Other expenses, expenditure, gain and income

Administrative expenses were decreased from approximately RMB9.53 million for the corresponding period in 2020 to approximately RMB7.05 million for the six months ended 30 June 2021 due to decrease in relevant expenses in respect of rented office as a result of deployment of resources within the Group.

Financial expenses were decreased from approximately RMB0.17 million for the corresponding period in 2020 to approximately RMB0.05 million for the six months ended 30 June 2021 of which approximately RMB0.08 million was attributable to the increase in the interest expenses of lease liabilities and approximately RMB0.06 million was attributable to exchange gain generated from termination of short-term borrowings denominated in Hong Kong dollars.

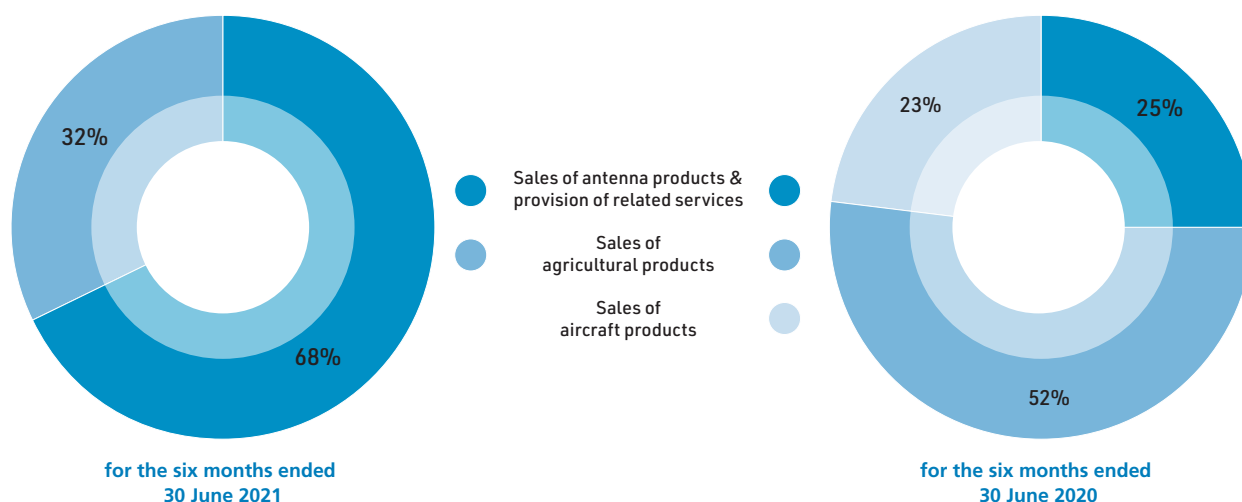

Approximately RMB0.48 million was received as government subsidy for the six months ended 30 June 2021.

No gain from change in fair value in respect of financial assets measured at fair value through profit or loss was recognised during the period as the investment was sold after considering its financial performance and working capital requirement for the operating segment of sales of antenna products and provision of related services. Accordingly, approximately RMB0.27 million was recognised as an investment gain during the period.

Net loss

Although unaudited total operating income was increased by 347% during the period, total operating costs were increased by approximately RMB6.66 million that total segment loss of approximately RMB2.86 million was still recorded. During the six months ended 30 June 2021, the Group recorded an unaudited net loss of approximately RMB8.41 million, compared to an unaudited net loss of approximately RMB12.25 million for the corresponding period in 2020.

Composite of the Group's main business income by reportable and operating segments for the six months ended 30 June 2021, together with the comparative figures for the corresponding period in 2020 are as follows:

PROSPECTS

In the first half of 2021, the Group's mobile communication business income achieved a relatively large increase over the same period last year, and the communication business made certain progress. With the steady progress of market development, the Group strengthened communication and business negotiations with customers on lens antenna technologies, and at the same time further accelerated the market development of the new artificial dielectric lens antennas for rapid development of the Group's mobile communication business.

The Group conducted a series of network field tests for the application of new artificial dielectric lens antennas in different scenarios in many provinces across the country with good test reports. Accordingly, the Group won several bidding projects of China Mobile based on the superior performance of the new antennas. With gradual advancement of the market, the Group accelerated the market promotion to China Unicom and China Telecom and won the bid for the centralised procurement project of Hunan Telecom and successfully became one of suppliers for Lumber lens antennas of Henan Unicom. At the same time, the Group is actively participating in the projects for market expansion in related provinces in northwest, southwest and east China in order to obtain more procurement orders. In general, the market development in the first half of the year achieved further results.

In order to consolidate the current results and further strengthen the progress of market development, the Group will always pay attention to the industry trends, continue to maintain business communication with and follow up project bidding progress of major mobile communication operators, and strive for more project procurement orders. At the same time, for the expansion of market scope, the Group will continue to communicate with other provinces that did not conduct lens antenna technology exchanges and perform network field tests. By introducing the superior performance of the Group's new antenna products to customers, the Group could enhance customers' recognition of the lens antenna products, understand the market needs of operators, establish close business relationship with customers, and seek further cooperation opportunities. In addition, the Group will continue to strengthen business exchanges and cooperation with non-operator customers such as mobile communication equipment suppliers and system integration suppliers, accelerate the promotion and market development of communication business, and continuously optimise the performance of new lens antennas according to market requirement to enhance customer satisfaction. Broadening the Group's customer base and expanding the product sales could comprehensively improve the business performance of the Group's communication products.

In the future, the Group will continue to develop a series of new dielectric lens antennas in different frequency bands that can be widely used in multiple industries. At the same time, the Group will also actively explore and expand the market and application of related communication equipment products which are based on lens materials in many industries and in different scenarios, and strive to establish the Group's core competitiveness in the field of mobile communications.

Regarding the funds required for the development of diversified operations, the Group will also adopt financing channels such as additional issuance, bank borrowings, and revitalising the Group's existing assets in a timely manner according to the needs of business development to ensure the Group's business development.
