REPORT
2022

CHARACTERISTICS OF GEM OF THE STOCK EXCHANGE OF HONG KONG LIMITED (THE “STOCK EXCHANGE”)

GEM has been positioned as a market designed to accommodate small and mid-sized companies to which a higher investment risk may be attached than other companies listed on the Stock Exchange. Prospective investors should be aware of the potential risks of investing in such companies and should make the decision to invest only after due and careful consideration.

Given that the companies listed on GEM are generally small and mid-sized companies, there is a risk that securities traded on GEM may be more susceptible to high market volatility than securities traded on the Main Board of the Stock Exchange and no assurance is given that there will be a liquid market in the securities traded on GEM.

Hong Kong Exchanges and Clearing Limited and the Stock Exchange take no responsibility for the contents of this report, make no representation as to its accuracy or completeness and expressly disclaim any liability whatsoever for any loss howsoever arising from or in reliance upon the whole or any part of the contents of this report.

The Group served over 500 customers in both domestic and overseas markets for the Period. The overseas sales reached over 40 countries in Asia, North America, South America, Europe, Oceania and Africa.

FINANCIAL REVIEW

Revenue

The Group’s revenue for the Period was approximately RMB94.7 million, representing a decrease of approximately 5.3% over the Corresponding Period. The decrease in the Group’s revenue was driven by a slight decrease in revenue from the overseas markets. The demand from customers in the People’s Republic of China (the “PRC”) remained stable and the Group consistently derived a significant portion of revenue from the PRC market during the Period. The revenue from the overseas markets recorded a decrease of approximately 14.4% over the Corresponding Period, which was mainly derived from the decline in demand of Pakistan and India markets. The decrease in revenue was mainly derived from the sales of decorative paper during the Period.

Cost of sales

The cost of sales recorded increase despite there was decrease in revenue. The cost of sales increased by approximately RMB0.7 million or approximately 0.8%, from approximately RMB78.7 million for the Corresponding Period to approximately RMB79.4 million for the Period, which was primarily due to (i) the increase in the unit prices of production materials; and (ii) the increase in the depreciation and amortisation expenses upon completion of the new factory in year 2021.

Gross profit and gross profit margin

The Group’s gross profit significantly decreased by approximately RMB5.9 million, or approximately 27.9%, from approximately RMB21.2 million for the Corresponding Period to approximately RMB15.3 million for the Period, primarily due to the increase in cost of sales as explained above. The Group’s gross profit margin for the Period decreased to approximately 16.2% (the Corresponding Period: 21.2%).

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

Selling expenses

The Group's selling expenses increased by approximately RMB0.4 million or 6.3% from approximately RMB6.6 million for the Corresponding Period to approximately RMB7.0 million for the Period. The increase was primarily attributable to the increase in salaries and welfare for our sales staff during the Period.

Administrative expenses

The administrative expenses for the Period increased by approximately RMB1.3 million or 12.5% from approximately RMB10.2 million for the Corresponding Period to approximately RMB11.5 million for the Period. The increase was mainly attributable to the increase in the depreciation and amortisation expenses upon the completion of the new factory in year 2021.

Other income and other gains – net

The Group's other income and other gains – net increased by approximately RMB0.1 million or 5.2% from approximately RMB0.9 million for the Corresponding Period to approximately RMB1.0 million for the Period, which was attributable to the increase in government grants income offset by the foreign exchange loss derived during the Period.

Finance expenses – net

The Group's finance expenses – net increased by approximately RMB0.5 million or 31.5% from approximately RMB1.7 million for the Corresponding Period to approximately RMB2.2 million for the Period. This was primarily due to (i) the increase in interest expenses due to the increase in the amount of bank borrowings; and (ii) the decrease in the amount of capitalisation of borrowings costs.

Income tax credit/(expenses)

The Group recorded income tax credit of approximately RMB0.6 million for the Period as compared to an income tax expense of approximately RMB0.6 million for the Corresponding Period, which was due to recognition of deferred tax assets for unused tax losses arising in the Period.

(Loss)/Profit attributable to owners of the Company

As a result of the foregoing, the Group recorded a loss attributable to owners of the Company of approximately RMB3.8 million for the Period as compared to a profit of approximately RMB3.1 million for the Corresponding Period.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

FOREIGN EXCHANGE EXPOSURE

The Group mainly operates in the PRC, but a significant portion of its sales is made to foreign countries, thus the Group is exposed to foreign currency risks arising from various currency exposures, mainly with respect to US dollars, Euro and Hong Kong dollars. The Group regularly and closely monitors the level of foreign exchange risk exposures and will make necessary hedging arrangements to minimise its foreign currency exposure arising from the fluctuation in foreign exchange in the future.

During the Period, the Group did not engage in any derivatives activities and did not commit to any financial instruments to hedge its exposure to foreign currency risk.

As at 31 March 2022, the Group had 413 employees (31 December 2021: 417 employees), including the executive Directors. Remuneration is determined with reference to market norms and the performance, qualification and experience of individual employees.

On top of basic salaries, bonuses may be paid by reference to the Group's performance as well as individual's performance. The Group also operates a defined contributions to Mandatory Provident Fund scheme for its employees in Hong Kong and provides its PRC employees with welfare schemes as required by the applicable laws and regulations of the PRC.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

CONTINGENT LIABILITIES

The Group had no material contingent liabilities as at 31 March 2022 (31 December 2021: Nil).

PROSPECTS

The global business environment is consistently challenging in the short run as a result of the recurrent nature of the novel coronavirus pandemic and the emergence of new virus variants. Unsynchronised global pandemic prevention and control, uneven economic recovery, the expected inflation in long-term global economy environment as well as geopolitical uncertainties have all increased challenge to the Group. The Group recorded a slight decrease in revenue of 5.3% and a loss attributable to owners of the Company during the Period. The loss was mainly derived by (i) the increase in production costs due to the increase in the unit prices of our major production materials, (ii) the increase in depreciation and amortization expenses derived upon the completion of the new factory building, and (iii) the increase in finance cost due to the increase in the amount of bank borrowings. The Group will closely monitor the product pricing and costs in order to maximise its profit margins and maintain profitability.

Going forward, the Group will continue grasping the advantages of the existing decorative paper industry and keep focusing on sustainable strategic customers in the PRC and the growth of potential overseas markets. Taking advantage of the well-recognised reputation in the market and the continuous effort made by the Group's management and staff at all levels, the Directors are optimistic on the potential of snapping up more market shares in the decorative printing materials industry. The Group will continue to explore new markets and capture emerging business opportunities.

The board of directors (the “Board”) is pleased to announce the unaudited condensed consolidated results of the Group for the Period together with the comparative figures for the Corresponding Period as follows:
