Prospective investors should be aware of the potential risks of investing in such companies and should make the decision to invest only after due and careful consideration.

Given the companies listed on GEM are generally small and mid-sized companies, there is a risk that securities traded on GEM may be more susceptible to high market volatility than securities traded on the Main Board of the Stock Exchange and no assurance is given that there will be a liquid market in the securities traded on GEM.

FINANCIAL REVIEW

Revenue

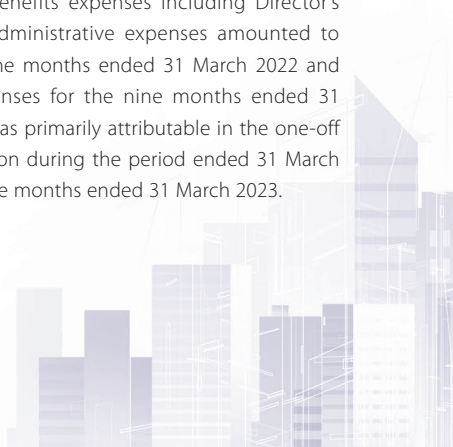

For the nine months ended 31 March 2022 and 2023, the Group generated total revenue of approximately HK$40.5 million and HK$31.7 million, respectively. The decrease in revenue was mainly attributable to the decrease in the number of construction projects undertaken by the Group during the nine months ended 31 March 2023 compared to the corresponding period in 2022.

Gross (loss)/profit and gross (loss)/profit margin

For the nine months ended 31 March 2022 and 2023, the Group recorded gross profit of approximately HK$2.4 million and gross loss of approximately HK$3.9 million, respectively and the gross profit margin and gross loss margin of the Group was approximately 5.9% and 12.2% for the respective periods. Reversal of gross profit and gross profit margin to gross loss and gross loss margin was primarily attributable to the decrease in the number of construction projects and the deteriorate in the overall gross profit margin of the projects undertook by the Group for the nine months ended 31 March 2023 compared to the corresponding period in 2022.

Our administrative expenses mainly consist of employee benefits expenses including Director's emoluments, audit fees and other professional fees. The decrease in the administrative expenses for the nine months ended 31 March 2023 compared to the corresponding period in 2022 was primarily attributable in the one-off recognition of share-based payment expenses of HK$3.1 million during the period ended 31 March 2022 while there was no such one-off expenses during the nine months ended 31 March 2023.

Loss and total comprehensive loss for the nine months ended 31 March 2023 attributable to owners of the Company

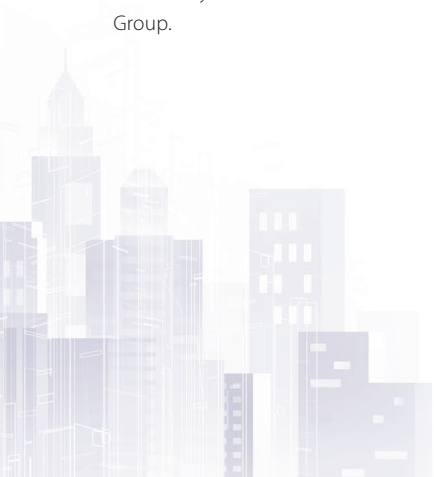

Loss and total comprehensive income attributable to owners of the Company and loss and total comprehensive loss attributable to owners of the Company for the nine months ended 31 March 2022 and 2023 and amounted to approximately HK$8.2 million and HK$8.6 million, respectively. The increase in net loss for the nine months ended 31 March 2023 as compared to the corresponding period in 2022 was mainly attributable to the decrease in the number of construction projects undertaken by the Group during the nine months ended 31 March 2023 compared to the corresponding period in 2022.

PROSPECTS

The Group expects the business environment continues to be challenging and competitive. Given the government of Hong Kong announced the plans to develop the northern part of Hong Kong for housing and technology development in 2022, the Group is optimistic in the long term and believes opportunities always exist in the construction market.

The Board will continue to exercise due care in pursuing business development so as to strike a balance between various business risks and opportunities. With the experienced and professional management team, established relationship with the customers and suppliers as well as the Group's commitment to maintain high safety and working standard, the Board are of the view that the Group is well-positioned to capture further business opportunities by focusing on the foundation and site formation works, superstructure building works projects, and renovation works. The Group will continue to pursue its business objectives and strategies: (i) expanding the market share and compete for more foundation and site formation projects, superstructure building works projects, and renovation works, and (ii) adherence to prudent financial management to ensure sustainable growth and capital sufficiency.

Bearing in mind the associated risks and in order to maximise the returns to the Shareholders, the Board may also consider other investment opportunities to broaden the sources of income of the Group.
