Article 38

No changes to the register of shareholders by reason of a transfer of shares may be made within 20 days prior to the convening of a general meeting or 5 days prior to the record date in regards of a distribution of dividends as determined by the Company. The foregoing provisions shall be applicable to holders of GEM H Shares.

Article 39

When the Company convenes a general meeting, distributes dividends, is wound up or carries out other activities which require the determination of shareholdings, the Board or the convener of the general meeting shall fix a record date for the purpose of determining the shareholdings. A person who is registered in the register as shareholders of the Company after the closing of trading on the record date shall be a shareholder of the Company.

Article 40

Any person who objects to the entry made in the register of shareholders and requests for his/its name to be registered in, or deleted from, may apply to the competent court for amendment of the register.

Article 41

Any person who is a registered shareholder or who requests for his/its name to be entered into the register of shareholders may, if his/its share certificate (the “original certificate”) in respect of shares in the Company is lost, apply to the Company for a replacement new share certificate in respect of such shares (the “Relevant Shares”).

If a holder of Domestic Shares loses his/its share certificate and applies for a replacement certificate, the procedure shall be carried out in accordance with Article 164 of the Company Law.

If a holder of Overseas-Listed Foreign-Invested Shares loses his/its share certificate and applies for a replacement certificate, it may be carried out in accordance with the laws, the rules of the stock exchange and other relevant regulations of the place where the original register of holders of Overseas-Listed Foreign-Invested Shares is maintained.

If a holder of GEM H Shares loses his/its share certificate and applies for a replacement certificate, the issue of such replacement certificate shall comply with the following requirements:

- (i) The applicant shall submit an application to the Company in a standard form prescribed by the Company accompanied with a notarial certificate or a statutory declaration, therein stating the grounds upon which the application is made and the circumstances and evidence of the loss of the original certificate and a declaration that no other person is entitled to request to be registered as a shareholder in respect of the Relevant Shares.
- (ii) Before the Company decides to issue a replacement new certificate, no statement made by any person other than the applicant requesting to be registered as a shareholder in respect of the Relevant Shares has been received.
- (iii) The Company shall, if it decides to issue a replacement new certificate to the applicant, make an announcement of such intention at least once every 30 days for a period of 90 days in such newspapers as may be prescribed by the Board.
- (iv) The Company shall, prior to the publication of the announcement regarding the issuance of a replacement certificate, have submitted to the stock exchange on which its shares are listed a copy of the announcement to be published. The announcement may be published upon receipt of reply from such stock exchange confirming the publication of such announcement at the stock exchange, and shall be exhibited at the stock exchange for a period of 90 days.

Where an application to issue a replacement certificate has been made by a person who is not the registered holder of the relevant shares, without the consent of the registered holder of the Relevant Shares, the Company shall deliver a copy of the announcement to be published by post to such registered shareholder.

- (v) If, by the expiration of the 90-day period referred to in (iii) and (iv) above, the Company has not received any disagreement to such replacement from any person, the Company may issue a replacement certificate to the applicant accordingly.
- (vi) Where the Company issues a replacement certificate under this Article, it shall forthwith cancel the original certificate and record the cancellation and replacement in the register of the shareholders accordingly.
- (vii) All expenses relating to the cancellation of an original certificate and the issue of a replacement certificate by the Company shall be borne by the applicant. The Company is entitled to refuse to take any action until reasonable guarantee for the payment of such expenses is provided by the applicant.

Article 42

After the issuance of a replacement certificate by the Company in accordance with the Articles of Association, if there are bona fide purchasers of the aforementioned new certificates or shareholders (being bona fide purchasers) subsequently registered as the title owner of such shares, their names shall not be deleted from the register.

Article 43

The Company shall not be obliged to provide damages to any person in respect of any loss incurred from the cancellation of the original certificate or the issuance of the replacement certificate, unless such person can prove any fraudulent actions on the Company's part.

- (ii) elect and change directors, and fix the remuneration of such directors;
- (iii) elect and change supervisors appointed amongst shareholders, and fix the remuneration of such supervisors;
- (iv) consider and approve the report of the directors;
- (v) consider and approve the report of the supervisors;
- (vi) consider and approve the annual financial budget and final accounts of the Company;
- (vii) resolve on the increase or reduction of the Company's registered capital;
- (viii) resolve on matters such as merger, spin-off, dissolution or liquidation of the Company;
- (ix) resolve on the issuance of bonds of the Company;
- (x) resolve on the employment, removal or non-renewal of appointment of accounting firm;
- (xi) amend the Articles of Association;
- (xii) consider proposals submitted by shareholders representing 5% or more of the shares with voting rights;
- (xiii) general meetings may authorise or delegate the Board such matters it shall authorise or delegate;
- (xiv) other matters which shall be resolved at general meetings pursuant to the provisions of the laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association.

Article 51

Unless with the prior approval of the general meetings, the Company shall not enter into any contract with any person other than the directors, supervisors, general manager, chief financial controller or other officers whereby all or a significant part of the operation of the Company is delegated to such person.

Article 52

A general meeting shall either be an annual general meeting or an extraordinary general meeting. General meetings shall be convened by the Board. Annual general meetings are held once every financial year and within six months after the last financial year end.

Under any of the following circumstances, the Board shall convene an extraordinary general meeting within two months after the occurrence of any one of the following circumstances:

- (i) the number of Directors is less than the number required by the Company Law or less than two thirds of the number required by the Articles of Association;
- (ii) the unaccounted losses of the Company amount to one third of its aggregate capital;
- (iii) shareholders individually or jointly holding 10% or more of the Company's issued shares carrying voting rights requests in writing the convening of an extraordinary general meeting;
- (iv) the Board considers necessary or upon the request of the Supervisory Committee;
- (v) other circumstances stipulated by laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules of the Company and the Articles of Association.

For the avoidance of doubt:

Shareholders individually or collectively holding 10% or more of the Company's shares shall be entitled to propose to the Board the convening of a general meeting, provided that such proposal shall be made in writing. The Board shall, in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association, furnish a written reply stating its agreement or disagreement to the convening of the general meeting within ten days upon receipt of such proposal.

In the event that the Board agrees to convene a general meeting, the notice of the general meeting shall be issued within 5 days after the passing of the relevant resolution of the Board. Any change to the original proposal made in the notice is subject to approval of the shareholders concerned.

In the event that the Board does not agree to convene a general meeting or does not furnish any reply within 10 days upon receipt of the said proposal, shareholders individually or collectively holding 10% or more of the Company's shares shall be entitled to propose to the Supervisory Committee to convene a general meeting, provided that such proposal shall be made in writing.

In the event that the Supervisory Committee agrees to convene a general meeting, the notice of the general meeting shall be issued within 5 days after the said proposal. Any changes to the original request made in the notice shall require approval of the shareholders concerned.

Article 53

A general meeting shall be chaired by the chairman. In the event that the chairman is unable to or fails to perform his duties, the vice-chairman (if there are two or more vice-chairmen, the one jointly elected by more than half of the directors shall chair the general meeting) shall chair the general meeting. In the event that the vice-chairman is also unable to or fails to perform his duties, a director jointly elected by more than half of the Board shall chair the general meeting.

If the Board is unable or fails to perform its duty to convene a general meeting, the Supervisory Committee shall convene and preside over it in a timely manner; if the Supervisory Committee fails to convene and preside over the general meeting, shareholders who individually or collectively holding more than 10% of the Company's shares for more than 90 consecutive days may convene and preside the general meeting on their own.

A written notice of an annual general meeting shall be given by way of announcement of the Company to each shareholder 21 days prior to the date of the general meeting and a notice in writing shall be given by way of announcement 14 days in advance for other general meetings. The notice shall include the date of the meeting, informing all registered shareholders of the matters proposed to be considered at the meeting and the date and place of the meeting.

Article 54

The Board, the Supervisory Committee and shareholders severally or jointly holding 1% or above shares of the Company shall be entitled to submit proposals to the Company at the general meeting.

Shareholder(s) individually or jointly holding 1% or above of shares of the Company shall have the right to submit a temporary proposal to the convener in writing 10 days prior to the holding of the general meeting; the convener shall, within 2 days after its receipt of such a proposal, issue a supplementary notice of the general meeting, and announce the contents of the temporary proposal. If the listing rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed provide otherwise, such rules shall also be complied with.

Article 55

The Company shall calculate, according to the written replies received 20 days before the date of the meeting, the number of shares carrying voting rights represented by the shareholders attending the meeting. The Company may convene a general meeting if the number of shares carrying voting rights represented by shareholders intending to attend aggregates to more than half of the total number of shares carrying such rights. If not, the Company shall make an announcement within five days, once again notifying the shareholders of the matters proposed to be considered and the date and place of the meeting. Once an announcement has been so made, the Company may convene the general meeting.

An general meeting may not vote and decide on any matters not specified in the notice under Articles 50 and 52 hereof.

Article 56

A notice of general meeting shall include the following information:

- (i) the time, place and duration of the meeting;
- (ii) the matters and motions raised for consideration at the meeting;
- (iii) a clear statement to state that: all shareholders are entitled to attend the general meeting and entrust a proxy in writing to attend the meeting and vote, and that such proxy need not be a shareholder of the Company;
- (iv) the date of registration of equity entitlements for shareholders entitle to attend the general meeting;
- (v) the name and phone number of the permanent contact person for the meeting.

Article 57

Notices of general meetings shall be served on the shareholders (whether entitled to vote at the meeting or not) by electronic communications to their addresses shown in the register of shareholders. For the holders of Domestic Shares, notices of general meetings may also be given by way of public announcement.

The public announcement referred to in the preceding paragraph shall be published in one or more national newspapers prescribed by the competent securities authority of the State Council within the interval between 45 to 50 days prior to the date of the meeting. Upon the publication of the announcement, all holders of Domestic Shares shall be deemed to have received notice of the relevant general meeting. Chinese and English versions of such announcement shall also be published in accordance with the provisions of Article 179.

Article 58

When notice of a general meeting is dispatched, the general meeting shall not be postponed or cancelled without proper reasons and the motions stated in the notice shall not be cancelled. In the event that the general meeting was postponed or cancelled, the convener shall make an announcement at least two business days prior to the original date of the general meeting and expatiate on the reasons.

Article 59

The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to, or non-receipt of notice of a meeting by, any person entitled to receive notice shall not invalidate the meeting or proceedings at that meeting.

Article 60

Any shareholder entitled to attend and vote at a general meeting shall be entitled to appoint one or more proxies (need not be a shareholder) to attend and vote on his behalf. A proxy so appointed shall be entitled to exercise the following rights in accordance with the authorisation from such shareholder:

- (i) the shareholder's right to speak at the general meeting;
- (ii) the right to demand, whether on his own or jointly with others, a poll;
- (iii) the right to vote on a show of hands or on a poll, but if more than one proxy has been appointed, such proxies may only vote on a poll.

Article 61

The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing written by the appointer or his attorney duly authorised in writing, or if the appointer is a corporate, either under seal or written by a director or attorney duly authorised.

Article 62

The instrument appointing a voting proxy shall be deposited at the Company's domicile or at such other place as is specified in the notice convening the meeting not less than 24 hours prior to the time for holding the meeting at which the proxy proposes to vote or not less than 24 hours prior to the time specified for voting. If such instrument is executed by another person under a power of attorney given by the appointer, such power of attorney or other authorisation documents shall be notarially certified. Notarially certified copies of the power of attorney or such other authorisation documents, together with the instrument appointing the voting proxy, be deposited at the Company's domicile or at such other place as is specified in the notice convening the meeting.

If the appointer is a body corporate, its legal representative or any person authorised by resolutions of its board of directors or other governing body shall attend the general meeting as the appointer's representative.

Article 63

Any form sent to a shareholder by the Board for proxy appointment shall be in such form to enable the shareholder, at his own wish, to instruct his proxy to vote in favour of or against the resolutions proposed and in respect of each individual matters to be voted on at the meeting. Such form shall contain a statement that in the absence of instructions from the appointer, the proxy may vote as he thinks fit.

The Company is entitled to request proxies attending general meetings on behalf of shareholders to produce identification document and its power of attorney.

Where a corporate shareholder appoints its legal representative to attend a meeting, the Company is entitled to request such legal representative to produce identification document and (other than recognised clearing house (or its nominees)) a notarially certified copy of such resolution or authorisation by the Board or other empowering body of such corporate shareholder under which the legal representative was appointed.

Shareholders of the Company may authorise any person as it considers fit as its proxy to attend meetings of the Company or class meetings of the Company. If more than one proxy has been appointed, the authorisation shall specify the number and class of shares in respect of which each representative is so authorised. Each person so authorised shall be entitled to exercise the same powers on behalf of the shareholder.

Where a shareholder is a recognised clearing house (or its nominee(s)), it may authorise one or more such persons as it thinks fit to act as its representatives at any general meeting of the Company or at any class meeting provided that, if more than one proxy have been appointed, the authorisation shall specify the number and class of shares in respect of which each such representative is so authorised. Each person so authorised shall be entitled to exercise the same rights on behalf of the recognised clearing house (or its nominee(s)) as if such person is an individual shareholder of the Company.

Article 64

A vote cast in accordance with the terms of an instrument of proxy shall be valid notwithstanding the previous death or loss of capacity of the appointer or the revocation of the proxy or of the authority under which the proxy was executed, or the transfer of the relevant shares, provided that no notice in writing of such death, loss of capacity, revocation or transfer as aforesaid shall have been received by the Company before the commencement of the meeting at which the proxy is used.

Article 65

Resolutions of general meetings are divided into ordinary resolutions and special resolutions.

An ordinary resolution of the general meeting shall be passed by more than half of the votes represented by shareholders (including proxies) present at the meeting.

A special resolution of the general meeting shall be passed by more than two-thirds of the votes represented by the shareholders (including proxies) present at the general meeting.

Article 66

When voting at a general meeting, every shareholder (including proxies) shall exercise the voting right in respect of the number of shares with voting rights represented by it. Each share shall carry one vote.

Article 67

At any general meeting, a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is, before or after any vote by show of hands, demanded:

- (i) by the chairman of the meeting;
- (ii) by at least two shareholders present in person or by proxy and having the right to vote;
- (iii) by one or more shareholders (or their proxies) representing in aggregate ten percent of more of all shares carrying the right to vote at the meeting.

Unless a poll is so demanded, a declaration by the chairman that a resolution has on a show of hands been passed or declined, and an entry to that effect is made in the book containing the minutes of the meeting, shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the vote recorded in favour or against such resolution.

A demand for a poll may be withdrawn by the person who demands it.

Article 68

A poll demanded on the election of the chairman of the meeting or on a question of adjournment of the meeting shall be taken forthwith. A poll demanded on any other matters shall be taken at such time as the chairman of the meeting decides, and the meeting may proceed to consider and vote on other matters. The result of the poll shall be deemed to be a resolution passed at the meeting at which the poll was demanded.

Article 69

On a poll taken at a meeting, a shareholder (including a proxy) entitled to two or more votes need not cast all of his votes in the same way.

Article 70

In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the chairman of the meeting shall be entitled to one additional vote.

Article 71

The following matters shall require the approval of an ordinary resolution at a general meeting:

- (i) the work reports of the Board and the Supervisory Committee;
- (ii) the plans formulated by the Board for the distribution of profits and for making good any losses;
- (iii) the appointment and dismissal of the members of the Board and members of the Supervisory Committee, their remuneration and modes of payment; and
- (iv) any other matters other than those required by the laws and administrative regulations or the Articles of Association to be resolved by special resolution.

Article 72

The following matters shall require the approval of a special resolution at a general meeting:

- (i) the increase or reduction of share capital of the Company and the issue of shares of any class or warrants and other similar securities;
- (ii) the issue of debentures of the Company;
- (iii) the spin-off, merger, dissolution and liquidation of the Company;
- (iv) amendments to the Articles of Association;
- (v) any other matters considered by the general meeting, resolved by way of an ordinary resolution, to be of a nature which may have a material impact on the Company and should be adopted by a special resolution; and
- (vi) any other matters required by the laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association.

Article 73

Shareholders requisitioning an extraordinary general meeting or class meeting shall abide by the following procedures:

- (i) Two or more shareholders holding in aggregate 10% or more of the shares carrying the right to vote at the meeting sought to be held shall sign a written requisition in one or more counterparts in the same form and content, requiring the Board to convene an extraordinary general meeting or a class meeting thereof and stating the matters to be considered at the meeting. The Board shall, as soon as possible after receipt of the requisition, convene an extraordinary general meeting or a class meeting thereof. The aforementioned number of shares held by the shareholders shall be calculated based on the date of submission of the written requisition.

- (ii) If the Board fails to issue a notice to convene such meeting within 10 days from the date of receipt of the requisition, the requisitioning shareholders may themselves convene such meeting within 4 months of the receipt of the requisition by the board of Directors. In so convening a meeting, the requisitioning shareholders shall adopt a procedure as similar possible as that of general meetings convened by the board of Directors.

All reasonable expenses incurred by the requisitioning shareholders as a result of the failure of the Board to convene a meeting and so convening such meeting themselves as mentioned above shall be borne by the Company and deducted from any sums due to such defaulting directors by the Company.

Article 74

The chairman of the Board or, if he is unable to attend such meeting, then the deputy chairman shall convene and take the chair at a general meeting, or, if neither such chairman or deputy chairman is present at the meeting, the chairman may appoint a director to convene and take the chair of such meeting on his behalf; if no one is appointed to take the chair of a meeting, the shareholders present may elect one of their number to be chairman of the meeting. If, for whatever reasons, the shareholders are unable to elect a chairman of the meeting, the shareholder (including his proxy) present at the meeting holding the most shares carrying the right to vote shall take the chair.

Article 75

Voting at the general meeting shall record the names of the voters.

Article 76

When a shareholder is considered to have a material interest in a transaction, the shareholder shall be required to abstain from voting on the resolution(s) to approve the transaction.

Article 77

If the chairman of the meeting has any doubts in regards to the voting results of a resolution, the votes cast may be counted. If the chairman of the meeting has not counted the votes cast, shareholders present at the meeting or their proxies who object to the results declared by the chairman of the meeting are entitled to request for the counting of votes immediately after the announcement of the results, and the chairman of the meeting shall forthwith count such votes cast.

Article 78

If a count of votes is conducted at a general meeting, the voting results shall be recorded in the meeting minutes. Minutes of the general meeting shall be recorded by the board secretary, the minutes shall contain the following items:

- (i) The date, place and agenda of the meeting, and the name of the convenor;
- (ii) the name of the chairperson of the meeting, and the names of directors, supervisors, managers and other senior executives of the Company present or in attendance at the meeting;
- (iii) the number of shareholders and proxies attending the meeting, the total number of their voting shares and their respective shareholding proportionate to the total number of shares of the Company;
- (iv) the proceeding of examination of each resolution, summary of the points discussed and results of voting;
- (v) questions and proposals put forward by shareholders and the answers or explanation thereof;
- (vi) names of lawyers and vote-counters and scrutineers;
- (vii) such other matters as shall be recorded in the minutes of meetings pursuant to the Articles of Association.

Article 79

The convener shall ensure that the content of the minutes of meetings are authentic, accurate and complete. Directors, supervisors, the board secretary, the convener or his/her representative and the chairperson of meeting present at the general meeting shall sign on the minutes of the meeting. Minutes of meetings shall be kept together with the attendance list for shareholders and authorization letters given for proxies, and valid information concerning exercise of voting rights.

Article 80

The meeting minutes together with the book of signatories of shareholders present and the power of attorney of the proxies shall be kept at the domicile of the Company.

Article 81

Shareholders may inspect copies of meeting minutes free of charge during the business hours of the Company. If any shareholder requests a copy of the meeting minutes from the Company, the Company shall send out such copies within 7 business days after receipt of a reasonable fee.

Chapter 9 Board of Directors

Article 82

The Company shall establish a Board, which shall comprise executive directors and independent non-executive directors. External directors (meaning those who do not hold any positions within the Company and carrying the same meaning below) shall make up for more than half of members of the Board, of which one-third shall be independent non-executive directors (meaning directors who are independent from the Company's shareholders and do not hold any positions within the Company).

Independent non-executive directors shall be directors who do not perform duties other than those related to their capacity as a director in the Company. They shall perform their duties independently and not be affected by the Company's substantial shareholders or other entities or individuals that are interested in the Company in accordance with the requirements of relevant laws and regulations and this Article, to protect the interests of the Company as a whole, especially protecting the legal interests of minority shareholders.

To act as an independent non-executive director, an individual shall fulfill the following basic requirements:

- (1) independent of shareholders of the Company;
- (2) not in office within the Company;
- (3) at least one of the independent non-executive directors must have appropriate professional qualifications or accounting or related financial management expertise; and
- (4) other laws and regulations, regulatory documents and other conditions stipulated in this Article.

Persons that fail to meet the independence guidelines prescribed in the GEM Listing Rule shall not act as an independent non-executive director of the Company, unless the Company demonstrates, prior to the proposed appointment, that the person is independent.

The Company shall provide necessary information for external directors to perform their duties.

The Company must establish an audit committee comprising non-executive directors only. The audit committee must comprise a minimum of 3 members, at least one of whom is an independent non-executive director with appropriate professional qualifications or accounting or related financial management expertise.

The Company must establish a remuneration committee chaired by an independent non-executive director and comprising a majority of independent non-executive directors.

The Company must establish a nomination committee chaired by the chairman of the Board or an independent non-executive director and comprising a majority of independent non-executive directors.

Article 83

Directors shall be elected at the general meeting and shall hold office for a term of three years. Directors shall be eligible for re-election upon expiry of their term.

A written notice in relation to the intention to nominate candidates for directors and the candidates' indication of their willingness to be nominated shall be given to the Company at least 7 days before the general meeting.

Election and removal of the chairman and vice-chairman shall be subject to approval of more than half of all the members of the Board. The chairman and vice-chairman shall hold office for a term of three years and shall be eligible for re-election.

Any director may be removed by an ordinary resolution (without prejudice to any claim the director may have under any contract) before expiry of his tenure, provided that the proceedings of the general meeting are in compliance with the relevant laws and administrative regulations.

Directors are not required to hold any shares of the Company.

In the event of a vacancy in the Board, the Board shall appoint a director to fill such casual vacancy. Director so appointed to fill the casual vacancy shall hold office until the next annual general meeting and shall be eligible for re-election.

Article 84

The Board shall be accountable to the general meeting and shall discharge the following functions:

- (1) convening the general meeting and reporting to the general meeting;
- (2) implementing the resolutions of the general meeting;
- (3) developing the business plans and investment plans of the Company;
- (4) formulating the annual budget and final accounts of the Company;
- (5) formulating the Company's proposal for distribution of profits and making good losses;
- (6) formulating the Company's proposal for registered capital increase or reduction and the issuance of the Company's debentures or other securities and listing;
- (7) devising proposals for merger, division and dissolution of the Company;
- (8) determining the Company's internal management structure;
- (9) appointing or removing the Company's general manager and, based on the nominations of the general manager, appointing or removing the Company's chief financial officer and other senior management, and determining their remuneration;
- (10) establishing the basic management system of the Company;
- (11) formulating proposals for amendments to the Articles of Association;
- (12) discharging other functions by the general meeting;
- (13) manage the issues relating to information disclosure;
- (14) propose the appointment or replacement of the accounting firm responsible for the auditing of the Company at the general meeting; and
- (15) to exercise such other authorities as conferred by the laws and regulations general meetings and under the Articles of Association.

All the resolutions relating to the above matters proposed by the Board may be passed by a simple majority of votes cast by directors, provided that items (6), (7) and (11) must be passed by a majority of not less than two-third of votes cast by all the directors. The connected transactions of the Company shall only take effect upon written consent signed by the independent non-executive directors.

The functions of the Board as referred to in this Article may, upon unanimous consent by all directors, be delegated to one or more directors, provided that, any matters involving the Company's substantial interests shall be decided by the Board collectively. The said delegation by the Board shall be clear and specific.

Article 85

The Board shall not, without the prior approval of shareholders at a general meeting, dispose of or agree to dispose of any fixed assets of the Company where the aggregate of the estimated consideration of the assets proposed to be disposed and the consideration received for fixed assets disposed in the four months immediately preceding the proposed disposal, exceeds 33% of the value of the Company's fixed assets as stated in the latest balance sheet approved by the shareholders at the general meeting.

A "disposal of fixed assets" in this Articles 85 includes an act involving the transfer of an interest in certain assets but does not include putting the fixed assets in pledge.

Breach of the first paragraph of this article shall not affect the validity of any transaction entered into by the Company in disposing of fixed assets.

Upon making decisions relating to market exploration, merge and takeover, investment into new areas with amount of the transaction exceeding 10% of the total asset of the Company, the Company shall engage external consultation firms for professional advices as an important basis for the decision making of the Board.

Article 86

The chairman shall discharge the following functions:

- (1) presiding the general meeting and convening and presiding meetings of the Board;
- (2) tracking the status of implementation of the resolutions of the Board;
- (3) executing the securities issued by the Company;
- (4) discharging other functions required by the Board.

If the chairman is not able to discharge his functions, he shall designate a vice-chairman to discharge the functions on his behalf.

Article 87

Board meetings shall be convened by the chairman and held at least four times a year. Notice of a Board meeting shall be given to all directors at least 10 days prior to the meeting. In case of contingency, extraordinary board meetings shall be held at the requisition of shareholders individually or jointly holding more than 10% of the shares of the Company, at least one-third of the directors, the chairman, the Supervisory Committee or the general manager of the Company. Holding of extraordinary board meetings shall not be bound by the above notice period.

Article 88

Notice of meetings and extraordinary board meetings shall be delivered in electronic means.

Article 89

Director who has attended the meeting will be deemed to have been given a notice of board meeting if he had not raised any issues of such notice before the date or the commencement of the board meeting.

Article 90

Meetings or extraordinary board meetings can be held by means of a conference telephone or similar communication equipment as long as all the directors present at the meeting can perceive speech of the other directors clearly and communicate with each other, such participation should constitute presence at the meeting.

Article 91

The quorum necessary for the transaction of the business of any Board meetings shall be half of the directors (including such directors who are delegated to attend in accordance with Article 94 of the Articles of Association).

Each director shall have one vote. Unless otherwise required by the Articles of Association, resolutions proposed by the Board shall be approved by more than half of all the directors.

Article 92

Apart from exercising the relevant laws and regulations and the powers conferred by these Articles of Association, independent non-executive directors may also exercise the following special powers:

- (1) to approve substantial connected transactions (connected transactions proposed to be entered into between the Company and a connected person with an amount exceeding RMB3,000,000 or 5% of the Company's latest audited net asset value) before submitting to the Board for discussion; and to appoint intermediaries to issue an independent financial report before making a judgement to form the basis of their judgement;

- (2) to propose to the Board for the appointment or dismissal of an accountants' firm;
- (3) to propose the Board for convening an extraordinary general meeting;
- (4) to propose to convene board meetings;
- (5) to appoint an external auditing firm or consultancy firm independently;
- (6) to solicit proxies from shareholders publicly before convening a general meeting.

An independent non-executive director shall obtain the consent of majority of all the independent non-executive directors when he exercises the above powers.

If the above proposals are not adopted or the above powers failed to be exercised properly, the Company shall disclose accordingly.

Article 93

In addition to the above duties, the independent non-executive directors shall express their opinions to the Board or the general meeting on the following matters:

- (1) nomination, appointment and removal of directors;
- (2) appointment and dismissal of the senior management;
- (3) remuneration of the Company's directors and senior management;
- (4) existing or newly raised loans and other forms of fund transfer to the Company from its shareholders, controlling shareholders or their affiliates with an amount exceeding RMB3,000,000 or 5% of the Company's latest audited net asset value, and whether the Company has taken effective measures to recover the amounts due;
- (5) matters which may prejudice to the interests of the minority shareholders in the opinion of independent non-executive director.

Independent non-executive directors shall choose to provide any of the following opinions with respect to the above matters: agree, reserve opinion and the reasons therefor, dissent and the reasons therefor, or unable to comment and the reasons therefor.

In the case of an equality of votes for and against a resolution, the chairman shall be entitled to a casting vote.

When more than one-fourth of the directors or more than two external directors are of the view that the information provided are not sufficient or the submission is not fully demonstrated, they may jointly propose to adjourn the board meeting or the discussion of certain matters in the board meeting, and the Board shall adopt accordingly.

If a director has any conflict of interest in a matter to be resolved by the Board, such director shall have no voting right and shall not be reckoned in a quorum of board meeting.

Article 94

Directors shall attend the meetings of the Board in person. Where a director is unable to attend a meeting for any reason, he may appoint another director in writing to attend the meeting on his behalf, provided that he shall assume legal obligations independently. The power of attorney shall set out the scope of the authorization.

A director appointed as a representative of another director to attend the meeting shall exercise the rights of a director within the scope of authority conferred by the appointing director. Where a director is unable to attend a meeting of the Board, and has not appointed a representative to attend the meeting on his behalf, he shall be deemed to have waived his right to vote at the meeting.

Article 95

For matters which require approval at an extraordinary meeting of the Board, in lieu of convening a Board meeting, a written resolution maybe adopted by the Board if such resolution is sent to all directors and affirmatively signed by such number of directors as required to make such decision stipulated in Article 91 of this Chapter.

Article 96

The Board shall keep minutes of resolutions passed at Board meetings. The minutes shall be signed by the Directors presented at the meeting and the person who recorded the minutes.

The minutes of the Board meeting shall include the following details:

- (1) the convening date, place and the convener's name of the meeting;
- (2) the names of attending directors and directors appointed as proxies to attend the meeting on the other's behalf;
- (3) agenda of the meeting;

- (4) highlights of directors' speeches; and
- (5) the voting method and result of each proposal (the numbers for, against and abstain votes shall be specifically indicated).

Article 97

A director may resign before expiration of his term of office. The director who resigns shall submit a written notice on his resignation to the Board. The independent non-executive directors shall also explain in details any matters which are relevant to his resignation, or which he considers, should be drawn to the attention of the shareholders and creditors of the Company.

If the number of directors on the Board falls below the minimum number stipulated by the laws as a result of the resignation of a director, such resignation shall not be effective until after the vacancy so arising has been filled up by a succeeding director. The remaining directors of the Board shall as soon as the resignation notice is received, convene an extraordinary general meeting for the purpose of electing a new director to fill up the vacancy so arising. The powers and duties of the resigning director and the remaining directors of the Board shall be subject to reasonable restrictions until a resolution on the election of director is passed at the general meeting. The Company shall appoint a sufficient number of independent non-executive directors to meet the minimum number required under the GEM Listing Rules.

Except for the aforesaid situations, the letter of resignation of a director shall be deemed effective immediately upon receipt by the Board.

Article 98

Where a director is considered to have a material interest in a transaction, he shall be required to abstain from voting on the resolution(s) to approve the transaction.

Chapter 10 Secretary to the Board of the Company

Article 99

The Company shall have a secretary to the Board, who shall be an officer of the Company.

Article 100

The secretary to the Board of the Company shall be a natural person who has the necessary professional knowledge and experience and shall be appointed by the Board. The principal responsibilities of the secretary to the Board shall be:

- (1) ensuring that the Company has all the necessary organisational documents and records;
- (2) ensuring that the Company shall prepare and submit all reports and documents requested by the relevant authorities in pursuance to the law;
- (3) ensuring that the shareholder register is properly maintained and ensuring that persons who have the right to obtain records and documents of the Company receive those records and documents promptly.

Article 101

A director or another officer of the Company may serve as the secretary to the Board of the Company concurrently. An accountant from the accounting firm engaged by the Company shall not be appointed as the secretary to the Board of the Company concurrently.

When an action which should be taken by a director and the secretary to the Board of the Company separately, an action taken by a director who also serves as the secretary to the Board of the Company, shall not be deemed taken.

Chapter 11 Manager of the Company

Article 102

The Company shall have one general manager and one financial controller. The general manager shall be nominated by the chairman, and appointed or dismissed by the Board. The financial controller and other officers shall be nominated by the general manager, and appointed or dismissed by the Board. A member of the Board may concurrently serve as the general manager, financial controller and another officer. The general manager is elected for a term of three years and may serve consecutive terms if re-elected upon the expiry of his term.

Article 103

The general manager of the Company shall be accountable to the Board and discharge the following functions:

- (1) overseeing the production, operations and management tasks of the Company to implement the resolutions of the Board;
- (2) implementing the Company's annual business plan and investment plan;
- (3) devising the set-up of the Company's internal management structure;
- (4) devising the basic management policy of the Company;
- (5) formulating the specific rules of the Company;
- (6) proposing to the Board for the appointment or dismissal of the financial controller and other officers of the Company;
- (7) appointing or dismissing officers other than those appointed or dismissed by the Board;
- (8) discharging other functions required by the Articles of Association and the Board.

Article 104

The general manager of the Company shall be present at the meetings of the Board. However, the general manager has no voting rights at the meetings of the Board unless he is also a director.

Article 105

In discharging their functions, the Company's general manager and financial controller shall perform their fiduciary and diligent duty in compliance with the provision of the laws, administrative regulations and Articles of Association. They shall not amend the resolutions of the general meetings and the Board or exceed the authorisation scope.

Chapter 12 Supervisory Committee

Article 106

The Company shall have a Supervisory Committee.

Article 107

The Supervisory Committee shall be comprised of three members, of which two shall be independent supervisors who are independent of shareholders and do not hold an office within the Company. The Supervisory Committee shall have one chairman. The external supervisors shall report independently to the general meeting the fiduciary and diligent performance of the officer of the Company.

The term of office of a supervisor shall be three years, and renewable upon re-election.

Appointment and dismissal of the chairman of the Supervisory Committee shall be approved by a resolution passed by two-thirds or more of the members of the Supervisory Committee.

The term of office of the chairman of the Supervisory Committee shall be three years, and renewable upon re-election.

Article 108

The Supervisory Committee shall be comprised of 2 representatives nominated by shareholders and 1 staff representative of the Company. Representatives nominated by shareholders shall be elected and removed at the general meeting, while staff representatives shall be elected and removed by the staff of the Company in a democratic way.

Article 109

The Company's directors, general manager and financial controller shall not serve as a supervisor concurrently.

Article 110

The Supervisory Committee shall convene at least one meeting every six months and the chairman of the supervisory committee shall be responsible for convening the meetings.

Article 111

The Supervisory Committee shall be accountable to the general meeting and shall discharge the following functions in compliance with the laws:

- (1) examining the Company's financial affairs;

- (2) monitoring the Company's directors, general manager, financial controller and other officers in performing their duties; and make proposals for dismissal of Board and senior management who had violated laws, administrative regulations, the articles of association and general meeting of the Company;
- (3) requesting remedy from the Company's directors, general manager, financial controller and other officers when their acts prejudice the interests of the Company;
- (4) verifying financial information, such as financial reports, business reports and profit distribution plans, to be submitted by the Board at the general meetings and, should any queries arise, appointing certified accountants or practicing auditors to assist in re-examining such information on behalf of the Company;
- (5) proposing to convene extraordinary general meetings; convening and presiding over a general meeting when the Board fails to perform its duty to convene the general meeting as required under the applicable laws;
- (6) to review and express its review comments in writing in regular reports prepared by the Board;
- (7) negotiating with or initiating proceedings against a director and senior management on behalf of the Company;
- (8) submit proposals to general meetings;
- (9) discharging other functions required by the Articles of Association.

A supervisor shall be present at the meetings of the Board, and raise questions or provide consultations on matters raised by the Board.

Article 112

Meetings of the Supervisory Committee shall only commence when all the three supervisors are present.

Any resolution of the Supervisory Committee shall be passed by votes of two-thirds or more of the members of the Supervisory Committee.

Article 113

All reasonable fees and expenses incurred for the engagement of professionals such as solicitors, certified public accountants and practicing auditors in relation to the performance of the duties of the Supervisory Committee shall be borne by the Company.

Article 114

Supervisors shall discharge their supervisory duties faithfully in compliance with the provisions of the laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association.

Article 115

In the event that the terms of supervisors fall upon maturity whereas new members of the Supervisory Committee are not re-elected in time, or the resignation of any supervisor during his term of office results in the number of members of the Supervisory Committee falling below the statutory requirement, the existing supervisors shall continue to perform their duties in accordance with the laws, the administrative regulations and the Articles of Association until the re-elected supervisors assume their office.

Chapter 13 Qualification and Obligations of the Company's Directors, Supervisors, General Manager, Financial Controller and Other Officers

Article 116

A person may not serve as the Company's director, supervisor, general manager, financial controller or other officers if he is:

- (1) a person without or with limited capacity for civil conduct;
- (2) a person who has been convicted for corruption, bribery, infringement of property, misappropriation of property or other crimes which destroy the economic and social order, where less than five years have elapsed since the sentence was passed or a person who has been deprived of his/her political rights for committing a crime, where less than five years have elapsed since the sentence was passed; if the person has been declared a suspended sentence, it has not been more than two years since the expiration of the suspended sentence;
- (3) a person who is a former director, factory manager or manager of a company or enterprise which has been placed in liquidation as a result of mismanagement and who was personally liable for the insolvency of such company or enterprise, where less than three years have elapsed since the completion of the insolvent liquidation of the company or enterprise;
- (4) a person who is a former legal representative of a company or enterprise whose business licence was revoked due to violation of law and who was personally liable therefor, where less than three years have elapsed since the date for order of revocation of the business licence;
- (5) a person who has a relatively large amount of debts due and outstanding and listed as a person subject to execution proceedings for breach of trust by the people's court;
- (6) a person who is under criminal investigation or prosecution by judicial authority for violation of criminal law and the case is not yet concluded;

- (8) a person other than a natural person;
- (9) a person who has been convicted by the relevant authority for violation of relevant securities regulations, involving fraudulent or dishonest act, where less than five years have elapsed from the date of such conviction.

Article 117

The validity of an act of the Company's director, general manager, financial controller and other officers on behalf of the Company towards a bona fide third party shall not be affected by any irregularity in his current position, election or qualifications.

Article 118

In addition to the obligations imposed by laws, administrative regulations or the listing rules of the relevant stock exchanges on which the Company's shares are listed, each of the Company's directors, supervisors, general manager, financial controller and other officers owes the following duties to each of the shareholder in the exercise and discharge of his functions and powers given by the Company:

- (1) not to cause the Company to exceed the scope of the business stipulated in its business license;
- (2) to act honestly in the best interests of the Company;
- (3) not to expropriate the Company's property in any way, including but not limited to usurpation of opportunities which are beneficial to the Company;
- (4) not to deprive shareholders of their individual rights, including but not limited to rights of distribution and voting rights, except for a restructuring of the Company proposed at the general meeting for approval in accordance with the Articles of Association.

Article 119

Each of the Company's directors, supervisors, general manager, financial controller and other officers owes the duty to exercise the care, diligence and skill that a reasonably prudent person would exercise in comparable circumstances in the exercise of his powers or discharge of his obligations.

Article 120

Each of the Company's directors, supervisors, general manager, financial controller and other officers owes a duty, in the exercise of his powers, to observe the ethical principle of being a fiduciary not to place himself in a position where his interest and the obligations undertaken may conflict. This principle shall include but not limited to the following obligations:

- (1) to act honestly in the best interests of the Company;
- (2) to exercise the powers vested in him and not to exceed the scope thereof;
- (3) to personally exercise the discretionary power granted to him and not allow himself to act under the direction of others and unless and to the extent permitted by the laws and administrative regulations or informed consent of shareholders in a general meeting, not to delegate the exercise of his discretion;
- (4) to treat the shareholders of the same class equally and treat the shareholders of different classes fairly;
- (5) except in accordance with the Articles of Association or with the informed consent of shareholders at a general meeting, not to enter into any contract, transaction or arrangement with the Company;
- (6) without the informed consent of shareholders at a general meeting, not to use the Company's property for his own benefit;
- (7) not to use his authority for obtaining bribes or other illegal income and not to expropriate the property of the Company including but without limitation, not to usurp opportunities beneficial to the Company;
- (8) without the informed consent of shareholders at a general meeting, not to accept commissions in connection with the Company's transaction;
- (9) to observe the Articles of Association; to perform the duties faithfully; to protect the interests of the Company; not to use his position and authority in the Company to make his own benefit;
- (10) without the informed consent of shareholders at a general meeting, not to compete in anyway with the Company;
- (11) not to embezzle the funds of the Company or make loans to the others out of the funds of the Company; not to deposit the assets of the Company into accounts under his name or any other name; not to use assets of the Company as security for loans to shareholders of the Company or any other person;

- (12) not to disclose confidential information of the Company acquired by him during his term of office without the informed consent of shareholders at a general meeting; not to use such information other than for the benefit of the Company; save and except that disclosure of such information to the court of law or other government authorities is permitted if:
- (i) disclosure is required by the laws;
 - (ii) there is a duty to the public to disclose;
 - (iii) it is in the personal interests of such director, supervisor, general manager, financial controller and other officer to require disclosure.
- (13) A director shall not vote on any board resolution approving any contract or arrangement or any other proposal in which he or any of his close associates (as defined in the GEM Listing Rules) has a material interest nor shall he be counted in the quorum present at the meeting.

Article 121

Each of the Company's directors, supervisors, general manager, financial controller and other officers shall not cause the following persons or entities (the "Related Parties") to do what a director, supervisor, general manager, financial controller or other officer of the Company is prohibited from doing:

- (1) the spouse or minor child of a director, supervisor, general manager, financial controller or other officer of the Company;
- (2) a person acting in the capacity of a trustee of a director, supervisor, general manager, financial controller or other officer of the Company or any person referred to in the preceding sub-paragraph (1);
- (3) a person acting in the capacity of a partner of a director, supervisor, general manager, financial controller or other officer of the Company or any person referred to in sub-paragraphs (1) and (2) above;
- (4) a company in which a director, supervisor, general manager, financial controller or other officer of the Company severally has or jointly with any person referred to in sub-paragraphs (1), (2) and (3) above or other directors, supervisors, general manager, financial controller and other officer of the Company have a de facto controlling interest;
- (5) the directors, supervisors, general manager, financial controller and other officer of the company controlled by them referred to in the preceding sub-paragraph (4).

Article 122

The fiduciary obligations of a director, supervisor, general manager, financial controller and other officer of the Company do not necessarily cease upon expiry of his term of office. The obligations to keep the trade secrets of the Company confidential shall survive the expiry of his term of office. The continuance of the other obligations shall be determined on a fair basis depending on the length of time between its occurrence and his departure from office and the circumstances and conditions under which his relation with the Company was terminated.

Article 123

A director, supervisor, general manager, financial controller and other officer of the Company may be relieved of liability for breaches of his certain duty by the informed consent of the shareholders at a general meeting.

Article 124

If a director, supervisor, general manager, financial controller or other officer has, directly or indirectly, a material interest in a contract, transaction or arrangement, entered into or proposed to be entered into with the Company (other than a contract of employment entered into between the Company and the director, supervisor, general manager, financial controller or other officer), he shall declare the nature and extent of his interest to the Board as soon as possible, whether or not the above matters are normally subject to the approval of the Board.

Unless the interested director, supervisor, general manager, financial controller or other officer has disclosed his interests to the Board in accordance with the foregoing paragraph of this Article and that matter has been approved by the Board at a meeting in which he has not been counted in the quorum and has refrained from voting, the Company may cancel that contract, transaction or arrangement except that the counterparty is a bona fide party and the breach of duty by that director, supervisor, general manager, financial controller or other officer is not to his knowledge.

If a Related Party with a director, supervisor, general manager, financial controller or other officer is interested in a contract, transaction or arrangement, that director, supervisor, general manager, financial controller or other officer shall also be deemed interested therein.

Article 125

If a director, supervisor, general manager, financial controller or other officer of the Company, before the date on which the question of entering into the relevant contract, transaction or arrangement is first taken into consideration by the Company, gives to the Board a notice in writing stating that, by reason of the facts specified in the notice, he is interested in the contracts, transactions or arrangements which will be subsequently made by the Company, such director, supervisor, general manager, financial controller or other officer shall be deemed to have made a disclosure for the purpose of the preceding article of the Articles of Association to the extent of the matters disclosed in such notice.

Article 126

The Company shall not in any manner pay taxes for or on behalf of a director, supervisor, general manager, financial controller or other officer of the Company.

Article 127

The Company is prohibited from directly or indirectly providing a loan or a guarantee to directors, supervisors, general managers, financial controllers and other officers of the Company and its holding company; and is prohibited from providing a loan or a guarantee to the Related Parties such directors, supervisors, general manager, financial controller and officers.

The following transactions are not subject to the above provision:

- (1) the provision of a loan or a guarantee for a loan by the Company to its subsidiary;
- (2) the provision of a loan or a guarantee for a loan or other funds by the Company under a service contract with any of its directors, supervisors, general manager, financial controller and other officers as approved at a general meeting to cover expenditures incurred or to be incurred by them for the purposes of the Company or for proper performance of their duties to the Company;
- (3) where the ordinary course of business of the Company includes the provision of loans or guarantees for loans, the Company may provide a loan or a guarantee on normal commercial terms to any of its directors, supervisors, general manager, financial controller and other officers or its Related Parties.

Article 128

A loan made by the Company in breach of the provisions in the preceding article shall be forthwith repayable by the recipient regardless of the terms of the loan.

Article 129

A guarantee for a loan provided by the Company in breach of paragraph 1 of Article 127 shall not be enforceable against the Company except that:

- (1) a loan was provided to the Related Parties of the director, supervisor, general manager, financial controller or other officer of the Company or its holding company, and at the time the loan was advanced the lender was not aware of the connection;
- (2) the collateral provided by the Company has been lawfully disposed of by the lender to a bona fide purchaser.

Article 130

The guarantee referred to in the preceding article of this Chapter shall include an undertaking or property provided by the guarantor to secure the performance of obligations by the obligor.

Article 131

Where any of the directors, supervisors, general manager, financial controller and other officers of the Company is in breach of his obligation to the Company, in addition to various rights and remedies provided by the laws and administrative regulations, the Company is entitled to:

- (1) claim damages from such directors, supervisors, general manager, financial controller and other officers for losses sustained by the Company as a result of such breach;
- (2) rescind any contract or transaction entered into by the Company with any director, supervisor, general manager, financial controller and other officers or with a third party (where such breach of obligations to the Company by such director, supervisor, general manager, financial controller and other officers of the Company is or should be known to such third party);
- (3) demand an account of the profits made as a result of the breach by any director, supervisor, general manager, financial controller and other officer;
- (4) recover any monies received by any director, supervisor, general manager, financial controller and other officer for the Company, including but not limited to commissions;
- (5) demand payment of the interest earned or which may have been earned by any director, supervisor, general manager, financial controller and other officer on the monies that should have been paid to the Company.

Article 132

The Company shall, with the prior approval of the general meeting of, enter into a contract in writing with a director or supervisor wherein his emolument is stipulated. The aforesaid emolument includes:

- (1) emolument in respect of his service as director, supervisor or officer of the Company;
- (2) emolument in respect of his service as director, supervisor or officer of any subsidiary of the Company;
- (3) emolument in respect of the provision of other services in connection with the management of the Company and any of its subsidiaries;
- (4) payment by way of compensation to the director or supervisor for loss of office, or as consideration for or in connection with his retirement from office.

No proceedings may be brought by a director or supervisor against the Company for any of the above entitled benefit unless the proceedings are brought pursuant to the aforementioned contract.

Article 133

The contract concerning the emoluments between the Company and its directors or supervisors shall provide that in the event of a takeover of the Company, the directors and supervisors of the Company shall, subject to the prior approval at a general meeting, be entitled to compensation or other payment in respect of his loss of office or retirement. A takeover of the Company referred to in this Article means any of the following:

- (1) an offer made by any person to all shareholders; or
- (2) an offer made by any person with a view to becoming a controlling shareholder within the meaning set out under Article 48 of the Articles of Association.

If the relevant director or supervisor does not comply with this Article, any sum so received by him shall belong to those persons who have sold their shares as a result of the acceptance of the said offer. The expenses incurred in distributing that sum pro rata among those persons shall be borne by the relevant director or supervisor and not paid out of that sum.

Chapter 14 Financial and Accounting System and Profit Distribution

Article 134

The Company shall develop its own financial and accounting system in accordance with laws, administrative regulations and the PRC accounting standards formulated by the financial regulatory authorities of the State Council.

Article 135

The Company shall prepare the financial statements at the end of each accounting year. The financial statements shall be examined and verified in a manner prescribed by laws.

Article 136

The Board of the Company shall place before the shareholders at every annual general meeting such financial statements required to be prepared by the Company in pursuance with the relevant laws, administrative regulations and directives promulgated by local governments and other authorities concerned.

Article 137

The Company's financial statements shall be made available for inspection by the shareholders of the Company 20 days before the date of annual general meeting. Each shareholder shall be entitled to a copy of the financial statements referred to in this Chapter.

The Company shall deliver or send to each holder of Overseas-Listed Foreign Invested Shares the abovementioned reports together with the directors' report electronically not less than 21 days prior to the date of the annual general meeting to their addresses as shown in the register of members.

Article 138

The financial statements of the Company shall, in addition to being prepared in accordance with the PRC accounting standards and regulations, be prepared in accordance with either international accounting standards or the accounting standards of the place where the Company's shares are listed overseas. If there are any material differences between the financial statements prepared in accordance with the two accounting standards, such difference shall be stated in the notes to the financial statements. In distributing the Company's after-tax profits in the relevant accounting year, the lower of the amounts shown in the two aforesaid financial statements shall be adopted.

Article 139

Any interim results or financial information published or disclosed by the Company shall be prepared in accordance with the PRC accounting standards and regulations, and also in accordance with either international accounting standards or that of the place where the Company's shares are listed overseas.

Article 151

The accounting firm appointed by the Company shall hold office from the conclusion of the annual general meeting until the conclusion of the next annual general meeting.

Article 152

The accounting firm appointed by the Company shall have the following rights:

- (1) to review the Company's books, records and vouchers at anytime, and to require the Company's directors, general manager, financial controller and other officers to provide relevant information and explanation;
- (2) to require the Company to take all reasonable measures to obtain from any of its subsidiaries any information and explanation which is necessary for the accounting firm to discharge its duties;
- (3) to attend general meetings of shareholders and to receive all notices of, and other communications relating to, any general meetings which a shareholder is entitled to receive, and to speak at any general meeting in relation to matters concerning its role as the Company's accounting firm.

Article 153

Where the position is vacant, the Board may appoint an accounting firm to fill the vacancy before the convening of the general meeting. However, if the Company has any other incumbent accounting firm while the position is still vacant, such accounting firm may continue to act.

Article 154

The general meeting may, by ordinary resolution, remove an accounting firm before the expiration of its term of office, irrespective of the provisions in the contract between the accounting firm and the Company. However, the accounting firm's right to claim for damages which arise from such removal shall not be affected thereby.

Article 155

The remuneration of an accounting firm or the manner in which such firm is to be remunerated shall be determined at the general meeting. The remuneration of an accounting firm appointed by the Board shall be determined by the Board.

Article 156

The Company's appointment, removal or non-reappointment of an accounting firm shall be determined at the general meeting. Such resolution shall be filed with the securities regulatory authority of the State Council.

Where a resolution is proposed to be passed at the general meeting to appoint a non-incumbent accounting firm to fill a casual vacancy, or to reappoint a retiring accounting firm that has been appointed by the Board to fill a casual vacancy, or to remove an accounting firm before the expiration of its term of office, the following provisions shall apply:

- (1) a copy of the appointment or removal proposal shall be sent (before notice of the general meeting is given to the shareholders) to the accounting firm proposed to be appointed or proposing to leave its post or the accounting firm which has left its position in the relevant accounting year (leaving includes leaving by removal, resignation or retirement);
- (2) if the accounting firm leaving its position makes representations in writing and requests the Company to give notice of such representations to the shareholders, the Company shall take the following measures (unless the representations are received too late):
 - (i) in any notice of the proposed resolution given to shareholders, state the fact that representations made by such leaving accounting firm; and
 - (ii) attach a copy of the representations to the notice and deliver it to each shareholder entitled to receive the notice of the general meeting at which resolution to be proposed in the manner stipulated in the Articles of Association;

- (3) if the Company fails to send out the accounting firm's representations in the manner set out in sub-paragraph (2) above, such accounting firm may request the representations to be read out at the general meeting and may lodge further complaints;
- (4) an accounting firm which is leaving its position shall be entitled to attend the following general meetings:
 - (i) the general meeting at which its term of office would otherwise have expired;
 - (ii) the general meeting at which it is proposed to fill the vacancy caused by its removal;
 - (iii) the general meeting which is convened as a result of its resignation;

and the accounting firm leaving its position shall have the right to receive all notices of, and other information relating to, any such meetings, and to speak at any such meetings in relation to matters concerning its role as the former accounting firm of the Company.

Article 157

Prior notice shall be given to the accounting firm if the Company decides to remove or not to reappoint such accounting firm. The accounting firm shall have the right to make representations to the general meeting. Where the accounting firm resigns from its position, it shall state to the general meeting whether there has been any impropriety on the part of the Company.

An accounting firm may resign its office by depositing at the Company's registered address a resignation notice. Such notice shall become effective on the date the notice is deposited at the Company's registered address or such later date as may be stipulated in such notice. Such notice shall contain any of the following statements:

- (1) a statement to the effect that there are no circumstances connected with its resignation which it considers should be brought to the notice of the shareholders or creditors of the Company; or
- (2) a statement of any such circumstances required to be reported.

The Company shall, within 14 days after receipt of the notice referred to in the preceding paragraph, send a copy of the notice to the relevant governing authority. If the notice contains a statement referred to in the preceding sub-paragraph (2), a copy of such statement shall be maintained at the Company for the shareholders' inspection.

Where the accounting firm's notice of resignation contains a statement relating to any circumstances which should be brought to the notice of the shareholders of the Company, the accounting firm may request the Board to convene an extraordinary general meeting to give an explanation of the circumstances connected with its resignation.
