VOLUNTARY ANNOUNCEMENT
FUTURE DATA GROUP PROPOSED TO ENTER INTO A STRATEGIC COOPERATION AGREEMENT ON AIGC TECHNOLOGY APPLICATION AND IP-CO-DEVELOPMENT

This announcement is made by Future Data Group Limited (the "Company" or "Future Data Group", together with its subsidiaries, collectively the "Group") on a voluntary basis to keep the shareholders of the Company (the "Shareholders") and potential investors abreast of the latest business development of the Group.

AGREEMENT FOR STRATEGIC COOPERATION

The board (the "Board") of directors (the "Directors") of the Company is pleased to announce that the Company proposed to enter into a strategic cooperation framework agreement (the "Agreement") with 靈河文化傳媒(上海)有限公司 ("Linghe Culture") on 26 January 2026. Linghe Culture is a company established under the laws of the People's Republic of China.

Pursuant to the proposed Agreement, both parties intend to leverage their respective technological and creative strengths to jointly explore commercial opportunities in artificial intelligence generated content ("AIGC") technology application and intellectual property ("IP") co-development, including but not limited to film, television, animation and other digital content businesses.

SCOPE OF THE COOPERATION

AIGC Technology Application

The parties intend to cooperate on the research, development and application of AIGC technologies in film, television, animation and extended media production processes, covering project development, concept design, visual pre-production, special effects and post-editing, with a view to enhance production efficiency and innovation.

IP Development and Joint Operation

The parties will jointly identify, develop and operate high-quality IPs, combining Linghe Culture's rich content resources and production expertise with the Group's technological advantage in AI, cloud computing and big data, to promote the digital transformation and commercialization of creative IP assets.

Future Collaboration

Both parties will further explore cooperation in emerging content formats such as interactive films, virtual production and AIGC-based creative tools, expanding market potential and new revenue models.

The specific terms of each cooperative project will be agreed by both parties in writing, detailing scope, deliverables, investment contributions, cost-sharing, benefit distribution and IP ownership arrangements.

INFORMATION ON LINGHE CULTURE

Linghe Culture was established in 2016 in Shanghai, PRC. It is a leading film and television content production enterprise founded and controlled by the renowned producer Mr. Bai Yicong. Linghe Culture has been jointly invested by major media and entertainment groups, including Hainan Alibaba Pictures Entertainment Industry Investment Fund (LLP), Shanghai Yunfeng Xincheng Investment Center (L.P.), Beijing iQIYI Science & Technology Co., Ltd., etc.

Linghe Culture specializes in the full industry chain of TV and film services, from IP development, script production, filming, promotion to distribution, and has produced numerous acclaimed works.

REASONS FOR AND BENEFITS OF ENTERING INTO THE AGREEMENT

The proposed strategic cooperation will enable the Group to combine its technological capacity in artificial intelligence, big data and cloud computing with Linghe Culture's creative capabilities and industry resources. This partnership is expected to enhance the Group's participation in the fast-growing AIGC and digital content creation industries, foster cross-sector synergy between technology and entertainment, broaden revenue sources through AIGC-based content services and IP commercialisation, and strengthen long-term competitiveness while creating potential value-added returns for the Shareholders.

In view of the above, the Board considers that entering into the Agreement is in the interests of the Company and its Shareholders as a whole.
