REASONS AND BENEFITS OF THE ACQUISITION

The Company has been actively seeking opportunities to expand its catering segment by investing in newly incorporated catering business to facilitate ongoing development strategies. Along with foregoing strategic development, the Company has identified the Target Company as an investment opportunity.

As at the date of this announcement, the principal asset of the Target Company is mainly attributable by the right-of-use asset of approximately HK$1,800,000 arising from the tenancy agreement entered into in respect of the Premises. The Premises represent an ideal location to establish new dining and catering operations to broaden the target clientele.

The Directors believe that the Acquisition can provide the Group with an opportunity to further expand its business in the club, entertainment, and catering business segment.
