

Corporate Profile

Ocean Grand Holdings Limited, headquartered in Hong Kong, is an investment holding company with earnings principally derived from the manufacture and sale of aluminium extrusion products and chemicals for use in electroplating process. The business philosophy of the Group is to strive to maintain its competitiveness in today's dynamic economic environment by consolidating and diversifying its business with a view to maximising returns to shareholders.