Holy Baby has been purchasing infant products, toys and other products agreed by the parties from Lerado China, Taiwan Company and Lerado Overseas since 1 April 2004. For the year ended 31 December 2004, sales of infant products, toys and other products agreed by the parties of Lerado China, Taiwan Company and Lerado Overseas amounted to approximately HK$4.33 million respectively. The Company, not having previously issued a public announcement concerning the Continuing Connected Transactions for 2004, has inadvertently failed to comply with the requirements under Chapter 14A of the Listing Rules. The Company was not aware of the fact that the Continuing Connected Transactions for 2004 should have been subject to the reporting and announcement requirements under Rules 14A.45 to 14A.47 of the Listing Rules. The Stock Exchange reserves the right to take disciplinary action against the Company and the Directors in this respect.

The Company had convened a meeting of the Board on 7 April 2005 to brief the Directors the requirements under the Listing Rules in connection with connected transactions. During the meeting, each of the Directors was given a copy of materials setting out the definition of connected transaction and the requirements in connection therewith in the Listing Rules. The Board believes that the steps taken by the Board would be sufficient to ensure that the Directors would closely monitor all the circumstances of similar transactions and that such breaches of the Listing Rules will not occur in the future.

3. REASON

The Directors consider that the Continuing Connected Transactions are of the type that are entered into in the ordinary and usual course of business of each of Lerado China, Taiwan Company and Lerado Overseas and on a regular basis. The terms of the Master Agreement were reached between the parties by arm's length negotiation, on normal commercial terms and are no less favourable to the Company than those available to independent third parties. The price will be determined according to (i) direct comparable prices offered by the Group to other third-party customers; or (ii) by agreement between the parties based on reasonable principle (e.g. having considered the costs of and the expected profits generated from the goods), if no direct comparable market price can be taken as a reference (e.g. in the event that the products concerned are new inventions or have adopted some modifications which are not available in the market and have not been offered by the Group to third-party customers). Therefore, the Board (including the independent non-executive Directors) considers that the Continuing Connected Transactions contemplated under the Master Agreement will be entered into in the ordinary course of business of the Group and on normal commercial terms or on terms that are fair and reasonable so far as the shareholders of the Company are concerned.
