The making of the A Share Offer and the H Share Offer is subject to the Pre-Conditions, namely, the receipt of:

PURPOSE OF THE OFFER

The Offeror believes that the acquisition of the shares of Jilin's minority shareholders is beneficial for the Offeror's shareholders. There are a number of operational, financial and organisational benefits which Offeror expects to accrue from the Offer:

- (i) Streamlined Group Structure: The Offeror has committed to streamline its corporate structure and this is the first step in achieving this important objective. The Offer will further enhance the Offeror group's corporate transparency and improve corporate efficiency and reduce the number of connected transactions.
- (ii) Procurement/Product Distribution Efficiency: The Offeror supplies approximately 70% of Jilin's crude oil requirements and buys approximately the same percentage of refined products from Jilin. Consequently, the acquisition of Jilin by the Offeror will ensure maximum efficiencies in both the sourcing of crude oil and other raw materials for Jilin and the sale of Jilin's refined products as the entire process can be fully integrated and optimised in the context of the Offeror's group-wide procurement and sales process.
- (iii) Management Efficiency: The successful completion of the Offer will simplify the ownership and management structure of the operations at Jilin where currently the ownership of specific assets and the management of these assets is split between different entities under the overall umbrella of Jilin. This is expected to lead to organisational and management improvements.
- (iv) Business Integration: The complete integration of Jilin's business and operations into the Offeror is expected to deliver cost savings and help Jilin better leverage on the Offeror's integrated upstream, midstream and downstream operations. The successful completion of Offer will result in the rationalisation of management and corporate functions and the removal of the processes and costs associated with Jilin's current legal status. The Offeror will also be able to include Jilin in its overall domestic product optimisation plans leading to increased operational efficiencies.

- (v) Capital Allocation: Consolidating the operations of Jilin within the Group enables the Offeror to extract full benefit across Jilin's value chain and enables Offeror to plan group-wide upgrade capital expenditure on a more efficient basis to optimise capital allocation across the Offeror's whole asset base rather than on a plant by plant basis.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO U.S. INVESTORS

With regard to the U.S. investors, the H Share Offer and the A Share Offer are being made for the securities of a foreign company. At this time, the Offeror has not determined the extent to which U.S. federal securities laws will apply to the H Share Offer or the A Share Offer. If the Offeror determines that the H Share Offer or the A Share Offer qualifies as a Tier I offer within the meaning of Rules 14d-1(c) or 13e-4(h)(8) under the Exchange Act, respectively, such offer will be exempt from many of the requirements of U.S. federal securities laws and, among other things, will only be subject to the disclosure requirements of a foreign country, which may be different from those of the U.S.. In addition, if the H Share Offer or the A Share Offer qualifies as a Tier I offer within the meaning of Rules 14d-1(c) or 13e-4(h)(8) under the Exchange Act, respectively, it may be difficult for U.S. investors to enforce their rights and any claim they may have arising under the federal securities laws of the U.S. in respect of such offer, since the Offeror is located in a foreign country, and some or all of its officers and directors may be residents of a foreign country. U.S. investors may not be able to sue a foreign company or its officers or directors in a foreign court for violations of the U.S. securities laws. It may be difficult to compel a foreign company and its affiliates to subject themselves to a U.S. court's judgment.

This Announcement does not constitute an offer to sell, nor a solicitation of an offer to purchase, any securities in the U.S.. If the H Share Offer or the A Share Offer does not qualify as a Tier I offer within the meaning of Rules 14d-1(c) or 13e-4(h)(8) under the Exchange Act, respectively, the Offeror will file a tender offer statement on Schedule TO with the SEC in respect of such offer. In addition, if the Offeror files a Schedule TO, a related solicitation/recommendation statement on Schedule 14D-9 will be filed with the SEC by Jilin. Investors should read any such Schedule TO, Schedule 14D-9 and any other documents relating to the Offer carefully if and when any such documents are filed with the SEC because they will contain important information. If and when filed with the SEC, any such Schedule TO, Schedule 14D-9 and any related documents will be available free of charge at the SEC's web site, at www.sec.gov. In addition, all such documents will be made available to investors in the U.S. free of charge by writing to Zhang Liyan at No. 9 Longtan Street, Longtan District, Jilin City, Jilin Province, the PRC.
