

The background of the cover is a collage of financial-related images. On the left, there is a close-up of a silver analog clock. Below it, several silver coins are scattered. The right side features a blue-tinted stock market chart with various numerical values and the word 'ASIA' visible. A large, stylized arrow shape, outlined in blue and white, points from the left towards the right, framing the central text. On the right side of this arrow, there is an inset image of a Hong Kong banknote and a gold coin.
