

caring for our customers

We always strive to put our customers first. Our team has been built and trained to ensure customers receive a high quality service, a diversified product range and returns. The relationship, which is regarded as a key factor in customer service, was deepened in October when we opened the second customer care centre.