2. COMPLETION OF COMPULSORY ACQUISITION

As mentioned in the Closing Announcement, the Offeror had on June 7, 2013 despatched the Compulsory Acquisition Notices, each accompanied by a form of request for payment of consideration, to the Trauson Shareholders of the Outstanding Shares who have not accepted the Share Offer by 4:00 p.m. on June 6, 2013 (“Dissenting Shareholders”).

As mentioned in the Closing Announcement, the Dissenting Shareholders were entitled to apply to the Grand Court for an order to the contrary within one month from the date of the Compulsory Acquisition Notice. Based on a search of the Register of Writs and other Originating Process of the Grand Court maintained by the Clerk of the Court of the Grand Court at 11:00 a.m. on July 8, 2013 (Cayman Islands time), no application was made to the Grand Court by any Dissenting Shareholders. As such, the Offeror has become entitled and bound to acquire all the Outstanding Shares on the same terms as the Share Offer.

The compulsory acquisition was completed on July 12, 2013 when all the Outstanding Shares were transferred to and registered in the name of the Offeror. As a result of and with effect from the completion of compulsory acquisition, the Company became a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Offeror.

The amount representing the consideration payable by the Offeror for the acquisition of the Outstanding Shares has been paid by the Offeror to the Trauson Shareholders to the extent that such Trauson Shareholders had completed and returned the form of request for payment of consideration (as mentioned above) by July 5, 2013. Monies due to any of such Trauson Shareholders which are returned to the Offeror will be paid to and held by Trauson in a separate non-interest bearing bank account on trust for the respective Trauson Shareholders.

For the remaining amount of the Consideration payable by the Offeror for the acquisition of the Outstanding Shares, the Offeror had paid such amount to Trauson and under the Cayman Islands Companies Law, Trauson is required to pay the Consideration into a separate bank account and hold it on trust for the Trauson Shareholders. The Consideration will be held in the account until the earlier of: (i) a claim being made and the relevant share certificate(s) and/or transfer receipt(s) and/or any other document(s) of title (and/or satisfactory indemnity or indemnities required in respect thereof) being provided to the satisfaction of Trauson, and (ii) the expiry of six years from the Completion Date.
