Article 42: All the parts of the registers of shareholders shall not overlap with each other. The transfer of shares registered in a certain part of the registers shall not be registered in other parts during the period of registration and existence.

The alteration or amendment of any part of the registers of shareholders shall be carried out according to the law of the place where it is kept.

Article 43: All the foreign capital shares listed in Hong Kong that have been fully paid up can be transferred freely according to the Articles; however, unless the following conditions are met, the board of directors can refuse to acknowledge any transfer documents without stating any reasons:

- (1) 2.5 Hong Kong dollars are paid to the Company, or fees agreed by The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited are paid (the fees shall not exceed the maximum rate stated in the listing rules of The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited from time to time) so as to register the share transfer document and other documents that are related to share ownership or may affect the share ownership;
- (2) The transfer document only involves foreign capital shares listed in Hong Kong;
- (3) Payable stamp duty has been paid for the transfer document;

- (4) The stock certificates concerned and the evidences reasonably required by the board of directors to prove the transferor's right to transfer the shares shall be provided;
- (5) The related shares do not have any lien of the Company.

If the Company refuses to register the transfer of shares, it shall give a written notice of registration rejection to the transferor and the transferee within two months after the date of officially filing the transfer application.

If the transferor or the transferee is a clearing house or its agent legally recognized in Hong Kong (hereinafter referred to as "recognized clearing house"), such transfer document can be signed in the form of printing.

Article 44: After transfer of shares, the name of the transferee shall be registered in the register of shareholders as a shareholder. If the shares are transferred to several jointly-signed transferees, the number of transferees shall not exceed four.

Article 45: The issuance and later transfer of all foreign capital shares listed in Hong Kong shall be registered in the part of registers of shareholders kept in Hong Kong according to the Articles.

Article 46: Within 30 days before the general meeting of shareholders or within 5 days before the base date for dividend distribution, no registration of change on register of shareholders for transfer of shares is allowed.

Article 47: When the Company convenes a general meeting of shareholders, distributes dividend, liquidates or has other actions that need to confirm the right of stock equity, the board of directors shall select a certain day as a record day of stock equity determination, by the end of which the shareholders on record are the shareholders of the Company.

Article 48: Anyone who disagrees with the register of shareholders and requires recording his name in the register of shareholders or requires deleting his name from the register of shareholders can apply to the court with jurisdiction to amend the register of shareholders.

Article 49: Any shareholder records on the register of shareholders or anyone requires to record his name on the register of shareholders can apply to the Company to reissue new stock certificates for their corresponding shares (namely "related shares") if their stock certificates (namely "original stock certificates") are lost.

For a holder of domestic shares who has lost his share certificates and applies for reissue, certificate to be issued shall comply with the provisions of Section 144 of the Company Law.

If a Hong Kong-listed foreign capital shareholder loses his stock certificates and applies for reissuing:

- (1) The applicant shall file an application in the standard format specified by the Company and attach the notarial deed or the statutory declaration document. The content of the notarial deed or statutory declaration document shall include the reason of application, situation and evidence for loss of stock certificates, and the declaration that no anybody else can request to register as holder of related shares.
- (2) Before the Company decides to reissue new stock certificates, no declaration that requests registering as holder of such shares is received from anyone else other than the applicant.
- (3) The Company shall publish an announcement on proposed issuance of new stock certificates on a press specified by the board of directors when it decides to reissue new stock certificates for the applicant; the period of announcement is 90 days, and it shall be repeated at least once per 30 days.

- (4) Before the Company published the announcement on proposed issuance of new stock certificates, it shall submit a copy of the announcement to be published to the stock exchange where it is listed. After receiving reply from the stock exchange and confirming that the announcement has been shown in the stock exchange, it can publish the announcement. The period for the announcement to be shown in the stock exchange is 90 days.
If the application on stock certificate reissuing is not approved by relevant shareholders on record, the Company shall mail the hard copy of announcement to be published to the shareholders.
- (5) If the Company has not received any dissidence on stock certificate reissuing from anyone upon expiry of the 90-day period for the announcement stated in clauses (3) and (4) of the Article, new stock certificates can be issued according to the application of the applicants.
- (6) When the Company reissues new stock certificates according to this Article, it shall cancel the original stock certificates immediately and record such cancellation and re-issuance on the register of shareholders.
- (7) All the expenses for cancellation of original stock certificates and issuance of new stock certificates shall be borne by the applicant. Before the applicant provides reasonable guarantee, the Company has the right to refuse taking any action.

Article 50: After the Company issues the new stock certificates according to the Articles of Association, the bona fide purchaser acquiring the above new stock certificates or the shareholder (a bona fide purchaser) registered as owner of such shares shall not be deleted from the register of shareholders.

Article 51: The Company has no obligation to compensate for those who suffer loss from cancellation of original stock certificates or issuance of new stock certificates unless they can prove that the Company has fraudulent conduct.

Chapter 7: Rights and Obligations of Shareholders

Article 52: Shareholders of the Company are those who lawfully hold shares of the Company and have their names registered on the register of shareholders.

Shareholders have rights and obligations according to the class and quantity of the shares held by them; those shareholders holding the same kind of shares shall have the same rights and shall undertake the same obligations.

Article 53: The holders of ordinary shares of the Company shall enjoy the following rights:

- (7) For shareholders who object to the merger or division of the Company as approved in the general meeting, may request the Company to repurchase their shares; and
- (8) Other rights conferred by laws, administrative regulations and the Articles.

Article 54: Should resolutions of shareholders' general meetings and board of directors meetings violate the laws and administrative regulations, shareholders have the right to request the People's Court to nullify those resolutions.

Should the procedures to call for shareholders' general meetings and board of directors meetings and the voting mechanism violate the law, administrative regulations and Articles of Association or contents of resolutions violates the Articles of Association, shareholders have the right to request the People's Court to revoke the resolutions within 60 days upon the passing of such resolutions.

The controlling shareholder(s) and actual controller(s) should not restrict or obstruct minority shareholders to exercise their voting rights in accordance with laws and should not infringe the legal rights of the Company and minority shareholders.

Article 55: Should directors and senior management personnel violate laws, administrative regulations or the Articles of Association while performing duties of the Company and result in losses of the Company, shareholders controlling over 1% shares of the Company individually or jointly for consecutive 180 days have the right to request the supervisory committee in written format to take legal actions via the People's Court. Should the supervisory committee violates laws, administrative regulations or the Articles of Association while performing duties of the Company and result in losses of the Company, shareholders can request the board of directors in written format to take legal actions via the People's Court.

If the supervisory committee or the board of directors refuse to take the legal actions upon receiving the written request as enlisted in the previous paragraph of this Article or fail to file lawsuits within 30 days upon receiving the request, or under emergency circumstances if fail to take legal actions immediately may result in material irrecoverable loss of the Company, shareholders above-mentioned have the right to take legal actions at their names via the People's Court directly for the benefit of the Company.

Should any third party infringe upon the legal rights of the Company and result in losses of the Company, shareholders provided in first paragraph in this Article can take legal actions via the People's Court in accordance with the previous two paragraphs of this Article.

Article 56: Should directors and senior management personnel violate the laws, administrative regulations or the Articles of Association and infringe upon the interest of the shareholders, shareholders can file litigation to the People's Court.

Article 57: Holders of ordinary shares of the Company undertake the following obligations;

- (1) To abide by the Articles, laws and administrative regulations;
- (2) To pay subscription moneys according to the number of shares subscribed and the method of subscription;
- (3) No disinvestment of its shares, save and except in circumstances as provided by laws and administrative regulations;
- (4) Not to abuse the shareholders' rights to damage the interest of the Company or other shareholders; not to abuse the independent status of the Company's legal person and the limited liability of the shareholders so as to damage the interest of the Company's creditors;

If shareholders of Company, by abusing the shareholders' right cause losses to the Company or other shareholders, such shareholders shall be liable for damages in accordance with the laws.

If the shareholders of the Company by abusing the independent status of the Company's legal person and the limited liability of the shareholders, evades debts and seriously prejudice the interest of the Company's creditors, such shareholders are jointly and severally liable for the debt of the Company; and

- (5) Other obligations imposed by laws, administrative regulations and the Articles.

A shareholder shall not be liable to make further contribution to the subsequent increase in share capital other than the terms as agreed by the subscriber of the relevant shares on subscription.

Any shareholder who owns 5% or more of the voting rights of the Company must report to the Company in writing with respect to any pledge of the shares in the Company held by him on the same day of the creation of the pledge.

Article 58: In addition to the obligations imposed by laws and administrative regulations or required by the listing rules of the stock exchange on which the Company's shares are listed, a controlling shareholder shall not exercise his voting rights in respect of the following matters in a manner prejudicial to the interests of the shareholders generally or of some of the shareholders of the Company:

- (1) To relieve a director or supervisor of his duty honestly in the best interest of the Company;
- (2) To approve the expropriation by a director or supervisor (for his own benefit or for the benefit of another person) of the Company's assets in any guise, including (but not limited to) opportunities which are beneficial to the Company; and
- (3) To approve the expropriation by a director or supervisor (for his own benefit or for the benefit of another person) of the individual rights of other shareholders, including (but not limited to) rights to distributions and voting rights, save and except where it was done pursuant to a restructuring of the Company submitted to and approved by the shareholders' general meeting in accordance with the Articles.

The controlling shareholder of the Company should not use its connected relationship to damage the Company's interest. The controlling shareholder should be liable for compensation if the controlling shareholder violates this rule and causes damage to the Company. The controlling shareholder should have fidelity duty to the other shareholders and the Company. The controlling shareholder should strictly follow the law to enforce its rights as a shareholder, and should not damage the Company's and the other shareholders' lawful rights in profit distribution, restructure of assets, external investments, use of capital, and loan and guarantee. The controlling shareholder should not use its controlling position to infringe the interest of the Company and the other shareholders.

Article 59: The controlling shareholder mentioned in the above Article refers to those with any of the following qualifications:

- (1) When he acts alone or in concert with others, the majority of directors can be elected;
- (2) When he acts alone or in concert with others, over 30% (30% included) of the Company's voting rights can be exercised or controlled;
- (3) When he acts alone or in concert with others, over 30% (30% included) of the Company's issued shares are held;
- (4) When he acts alone or in concert with others, the Company is controlled virtually in other ways.

"Act in concert" mentioned in this Article means that two or over two persons come into an agreement (by word or in writing) to get the voting right of the Company through any one of them so as to strengthen the control on the Company.

Chapter 8: General Meetings of Shareholders

Article 60: General meeting of shareholders is the organ of authority of the Company, which exercise its functions and powers according to laws.

Article 61: The shareholders' general meeting shall exercise the following functions and powers:

Article 62: The Company shall obtain shareholders' approval for the following external guarantee provided by the Company:

- (1) Any guarantee for any amount greater than the aggregate amount of external guarantee, which is equal to or exceed 50% of the latest audited total assets, provided by the Company and its controlling subsidiaries;
- (2) Any guarantee for any amount greater than the aggregate amount of external guarantee, which is equal to or exceed 30% of the latest audited total assets provided by the Company;
- (3) Provision of guarantee for any security which has a gearing ratio for more than 70%;
- (4) Provision of guarantee for any single transaction for an amount greater than 10% of the latest audited total assets; and
- (5) Provision of guarantee for shareholder, beneficial shareholder or its connected parties.

Article 63: Without prior approval from the general meeting of shareholders, the Company shall not enter into a contract with anyone other than directors, supervisors, president and other high management personnel to put the management of all or important business of the Company to such people.

Article 64: Shareholders' general meetings can be annual general meetings or extraordinary general meetings. Shareholders' general meetings shall be convened by the board of directors. Annual general meetings shall be held once every year, and shall take place within six months of the end of the previous fiscal year.

The board of directors shall convene an extraordinary general meeting within two months of the occurrence of any one of the following events:

- (1) Where the number of directors falls short of the number stipulated in the Company Law or is below two-thirds of the number required by the Articles;
- (2) Where the accrued losses of the Company amount to one-third of its total paid-up share capital;
- (3) Upon the written request of shareholders individually or jointly holding 10% or more of the issued shares of the Company carrying voting rights;
- (4) Where the board of directors considers it necessary or where the independent directors and the supervisory committee proposes to convene such a meeting; and
- (5) Circumstances as prescribed by laws, administrative regulations, department rules and regulations and the Articles.

Article 65: The general meetings are convened at the domicile address of the Company or a place specified in the notice of a general meeting.

The Company will set up venue to hold the meeting on-site. Meanwhile, in order to ensure the shareholders' meeting is legitimate and valid, the Company will, by different channels and means, provide electronic voting platform and other modern information technology methods in priority for the convenience of shareholders attending the shareholders' meeting.

Shareholders will be regarded as attendees of the general meetings when they participate via the above-mentioned methods.

Article 66: Lawyers should be appointed to attend the general meetings of shareholders, and provide legal opinions and announce on the following questions:

- (1) Whether the convening or procedure of the general meeting is in compliance with laws, administrative regulations, and Articles of Association;
- (2) Whether the participants and the convener are legally qualified;
- (3) Whether the format and results of vote at the general meeting are legally effective;
- (4) Provide legal opinions on any other questions raised by the Company.

Article 67: When the Company convenes a general meeting of shareholders, it shall send out a written notice 45 days before the meeting is held to inform all shareholders recorded in the shareholders' register of the matters to be discussed and the date and place of the meeting. The shareholders who intend to attend the general meeting shall send a meeting attendance reply slip in writing to the Company 20 days before the meeting is held.

If a general meeting adopts voting by internet or other means, the voting time and methods for voting by internet or other means should be clearly stated in the notice of a general meeting. The starting time of voting by internet and other means shall not be earlier than 3:00 pm of a day before the meeting and shall not be later than 9:30 am of the meeting day. The closing time of voting by internet and other means shall not be earlier than 3:00 pm of the meeting day.

Article 68: Shareholders, solely or jointly, holding more than 3% of the total shares carrying voting rights of the Company may, on or before 20 days prior to the holding of a general meeting of shareholders submit to the board of directors in writing the proposed resolutions. The board of directors shall, either issue a notice informing other shareholders within 2 days from the date of receipt of such proposal or at least 14 days before the date of the general meeting, issue a circular and announcement to notify all the shareholders of the proposed resolutions, and to table the proposed resolutions at the shareholders' general meeting for consideration.

Except for the aforesaid circumstances in previous paragraph, after the announcement of notice of general meeting by the convener, no amendment will be made on the agenda listed in the notice nor insert of new agenda.

In the general meeting, the shareholders cannot vote on any resolution which is not listed in the announced notice or not complied with previous paragraph.

Article 69: The proposal for general meeting of shareholders shall meet the following conditions:

- (1) Its contents does not conflict with provisions of laws, regulations and Articles and is within the Company's business scope and the scope of official duty of the general meeting of shareholders;
- (2) It shall have clear topic and specific matters for discussion; and
- (3) It shall be submitted or delivered to the board of directors in writing.

The board of directors of the Company shall review the proposal for general meeting according to the aforesaid provisions with the best interest of the Company and shareholders as the standard of conduct.

If the board of directors decides not to bring the proposal for general meeting into the meeting agenda, it shall explain in that general meeting, and the contents of proposal and the explanation of the board of directors shall be announced together with the resolution(s) of general meeting after the meeting.

Article 70: The Company shall figure out the number of voting shares of the shareholders who will attend the meeting according to the written replies received 20 days before the general meeting of shareholders is held. If the number of voting shares of the attending shareholders reach over half of the total voting shares of the Company, the Company can hold the general meeting of shareholders; if not, the Company shall inform the shareholders of the discussion items, meeting date and place again in the form of announcement within 5 days. After the announcement, the Company can hold the general meeting of shareholders.

An extraordinary general meeting shall not decide any matters not clearly stated in the notice.

Article 71: The notice of shareholders' meeting shall meet the following requirements:

- (1) It shall be made in writing;
- (2) It shall specify the place, date and time of the meeting;
- (3) It shall state the matters to be discussed in the meeting;
- (4) It shall provide shareholders with information and explanation necessary for the shareholders to make a proper decision on the matters to be discussed; this principle includes (but not limited to) that specific conditions and contract (if any) of the proposed transaction shall be provided and its cause and effect shall be explained carefully when the Company proposes merger, share repurchase, capital stock restructuring or other restructuring;
- (5) If any director, supervisor, president or other senior management personnel has material interest with the matters to be discussed, the nature and degree of the interest shall be disclosed; if the influence of the matters to be discussed on such director, supervisor, president or other senior management personnel as shareholders of the Company is different from that on other shareholders of the same class, the difference shall be explained clearly;
- (6) It shall carry full text of any special resolution to be proposed and passed in the meeting;
- (7) It shall indicate with clear text that the shareholders with attending and voting right can authorize one or more than one shareholder representatives to attend and vote while such shareholder representatives are not necessarily shareholders;
- (8) It shall include the record date of stock equity registration of the shareholders who have the right to attend the general meeting;
- (9) It shall clearly state when and where the voting authorization letter is delivered.

Article 72: Notice of general meeting of which matters concerning the election of directors or supervisors will be discussed at the meeting should disclose detailed information about the directors or supervisors to be elected and should at least include the following information:

- (1) Personal information including educational background, working experience, part-time jobs, and etc.;
- (2) Any relationship with the Company, controlling shareholder and actual controlling person of the Company (if any);
- (3) Disclose the holding of the amount of shareholding of the Company;
- (4) Any past record of being penalized by China Securities Regulatory Commission or other related departments and a stock exchange (if any).

Article 73: General meeting will not be postponed or cancelled without a proper reason after dispatching the notice of general meeting. Propositions listed in the notice of general meeting should not be cancelled. Should the meeting be postponed or cancelled, convener of the meeting should publish an announcement at least 2 working days before the meeting and disclose the reasons.

Article 74: The notice of general meeting shall be sent to the shareholders (with or without voting right in the general meeting) in compliance to Article 195. If the notice of general meeting shall be sent to the shareholders via specially assigned person or by prepaid mail, the address of receiver shall depend on the address recorded on the register of shareholders. For domestic shareholders, the notice of general meeting can also be sent in the way of announcement.

The announcement mentioned above shall be published on one or more presses specified by China Securities Regulatory Commission in a period between 45 days to 50 days before the meeting is held. Once it is announced, the notice of shareholders' meeting shall be deemed as received by all domestic shareholders.

Article 75: If the notice of meeting is not sent to someone who has right to get the notice for an accidental omission or such person does not receive any notice of meeting, the meeting and the resolutions made in the meeting will not be invalid therefore.

Article 76: Any shareholders with attending and voting right can authorize one or several persons (not necessarily shareholders) as their shareholder representatives to attend and vote in the meeting. Such shareholder representatives can exercise the following rights according to the authorization:

- 1) This shareholder's right to speak in the general meeting;
- 2) The right of voting by poll.

Article 77: A shareholder shall authorize a shareholder representative in writing, signed by the authorizer or by the authorized representative, if the authorizer is a legal person, the written document shall be affixed with corporate seal or signed by its director or other authorized persons or officially authorized representatives.

Article 78: The voting authorization letter shall be placed at the Company's address or other places specified in the notice of meeting at least 24 hours before the related meeting is held or 24 hours before the specified voting time. If the authorization letter is signed by other attorneys authorized by the authorizer, the letter of attorney for signing or other authorization documents shall be notarized. The notarized letter of attorney or other authorization documents shall be placed together with the voting authorization letter at the Company's address or other placed specified in the notice of meeting.

If the authorizer is a legal person, its legal representative or the one authorized by its board of directors or by a resolution of other decision making body shall attend the shareholders' meeting. For the purpose of the Articles, the attendance and any action of the authorized person shall be deemed as attendance or action (as appropriate) of the authorizer himself.

If this shareholder is a recognized clearing house, it can authorize one or more persons as appropriate to act as its representative in any general meeting of shareholders or any shareholders' meetings; however, if more than one person is authorized, the authorization letter shall state clearly the quantity and class of the shares involved for each person. Such authorized persons (or "attorneys") are entitled to exercise the rights of the recognized clearing house on behalf of the recognized clearing house, as if such persons are the individual shareholders of the Company.

Article 79: The format of authorization letter of the shareholder representative issued by the board of directors shall allow the shareholders to instruct the shareholder representative to vote "For" or "Against" and to instruct on voting items of every resolution. The authorization letter shall clearly state that if the shareholder does not make any instruction, the shareholder representative can vote at his own discretion.

Article 80: If the authorizer has passed away, lost capacity of conduct, withdrawn the authorizations, withdrawn the authorization for signing or the related shares have been transferred before voting, so long as no written notice is received by the Company before the relevant meeting begins, the voting made by the shareholder representative based on the authorization letter is still valid.

Article 81: When a shareholder representative attends a general meeting of shareholders on behalf of a shareholder, his own identity proof (exclude recognized clearing) shall be shown; if a legal person shareholder appoints its legal representative to attend the meeting, the legal representative shall show his identity proof and the duplicate copy of the notarized resolution proofing that the legal representative is appointed by the board of directors or other organs of authority of the legal person shareholder.

Article 82: Any connected shareholders and their representatives should not vote in a connected transaction resolution at the general meeting and their voting would not be counted as valid voting. The voting results of non-connected shareholders at the general meeting should be fully disclosed in the general meeting results announcement.

Article 83: The resolution of general meeting of shareholders can be divided into ordinary resolution and special resolution.

The ordinary resolution made by the general meeting of shareholders shall be passed by over half of voting rights held by the shareholders attending the meeting (including shareholder representatives).

The special resolution made by the general meeting of shareholders shall be passed by over two-thirds of voting right held by the shareholders attending the meeting (including shareholder representatives).

Article 84: Shareholders (including proxies) who vote at the shareholders' general meeting shall exercise their voting rights in relation to the amount of voting shares they represent. Each share carries one vote.

Any shareholder is abstained to vote or is restricted to vote only "For" or only "Against" on any resolution, the vote will not be counted if this shareholder or its proxy violates this restriction.

When material issues affecting the interests of minority shareholders are considered at the shareholders' general meeting, the votes of minority shareholders shall be counted separately. The separate votes counting results shall be disclosed publicly in a timely manner.

The Company's shares held by the Company shall not carry voting rights, and those shares shall not be included in calculating the total number of votes carrying voting rights at a general meeting.

The soliciting of voting rights can be carried out by board of directors, independent directors, and the shareholders who comply with relevant regulations.

Information including the specific voting preference shall be fully provided to the shareholders for whom voting rights are being solicited. Consideration or defacto consideration for soliciting shareholders' voting rights is prohibited. The Company shall not impose any minimum shareholding limitation for soliciting voting rights.

Article 85: The general meeting of shareholders adopts the mode of voting by poll.

Article 86: If voting by poll is requested to elect the chairman or suspend the meeting, voting by poll shall be carried out immediately; for other matters requiring voting by poll, the voting time shall be decided by the chairman and the meeting can be continued to discuss other matters. The results of voting is still regarded as a resolution passed in the meeting.

Article 87: During voting by poll, the shareholders (including shareholder representatives) with two votes or over two votes do not need to cast all the votes to “For” or “Against”.

Article 88: When the “Against” votes are equal to the “For” votes, the meeting chairman has right to cast one more vote.

Article 89: The following items shall be passed by the general meeting of shareholders with ordinary resolution:

- (1) The report of the board of directors and the report of supervisory committee;
- (2) The profit distribution plan and the deficit coverage plan made by the board of directors;
- (3) Dismissal of members of the board of directors and the supervisory committee, and payment method of remuneration;
- (4) The Company’s annual report, annual budget report, annual final report, balance sheet, income statement and other financial statements;
- (5) Other items except for those that shall be passed with special resolution as required by laws, administrative regulations or the Articles of Association.

Article 90: The following matters shall be resolved by way of special resolution of a shareholders’ general meeting:

- (1) The increase or reduction of the Company’s registered share capital and the issue of shares of any class, warrants or other similar securities;
- (2) The repurchase of the Company’s shares;
- (3) The issue of bond by the Company;
- (4) The division, merger, dissolution and liquidation or change in the nature of the Company;
- (5) The Company, in one year’s time, purchases or disposes substantial assets, or provides guarantee in an amount which exceeds 30% of the latest total audited assets of the Company;
- (6) Any amendment of the Articles;
- (7) Other matters which, according to an ordinary resolution of the shareholders’ general meeting, the requirements of laws, administrative regulations and the Company’s Articles may have a significant impact on the Company and require adoption by the way of a special resolution;
- (8) Share option incentive scheme; and
- (9) Other matters governed by the listing rules of a stock exchange where the Company’s shares listed.

Article 91: In accordance with the following procedures, independent directors, supervisory committee, or shareholders, solely or jointly, holding more than 10% of the total shares carrying voting rights of the Company may request to convene an extraordinary general meeting or class general meeting:

- (1) In order to request convening a general meeting or class general meeting in different class, a copy or copies of the same demand letter with signatures should state the resolutions of the general meeting or class general meeting and be sent to the board of directors. The board of directors should express their acceptance or refusal of the request within 10 days in writing form with reasons on the convention of the general meeting.

- (2) If the board of directors agrees to convene an extraordinary general meeting, a notice of general meeting will be made within 5 days after the decision of the board of directors. If there is any change to the original proposed resolutions, consent from the original proposers should be obtained.
- (3) If the board of directors rejects the proposal from independent directors to convene an extraordinary general meeting, the reasons should be announced.
- (4) If the board of directors rejects the proposal from supervisory committee to convene an extraordinary general meeting or fails to express board of directors' view within 10 days after receiving the request, it will be regarded that the board of directors does not or cannot discharge its duties to convene a general meeting. Supervisory committee can convene and preside a general meeting with similar procedures as a general meeting convening by board of directors.
- (5) If the board of directors does not agree to convene an extraordinary general meeting or does not reply within 10 days upon receiving the request, shareholders have the right to request the supervisory committee to convene an extraordinary general meeting in writing form. If the supervisory committee agrees to convene the general meeting, a notice of general meeting will be issued within 5 days after the receipt of the request. If there is any change to the original proposed resolutions, consent from the extraordinary original proposers should be obtained. If the supervisory committee does not issue a notice of general meeting within the time limit, supervisory committee will be regarded as not going to convene and preside the general meeting and shareholders individually or jointly possessing over 10% voting shares in the proposed meeting for consecutive 90 days (before publication of announcement regarding resolutions of the general meeting, amount of shares held by shareholders convening for the meeting cannot be less than 10%) have the right to convene and preside the meeting on their own with similar procedures as a general meeting convening by board of directors.

Supervisory committee or shareholders, if decided to convene a general meeting on their own, should inform the board of directors in writing form and file record to the appointed organizations of China Securities Regulatory Commission and stock exchange(s).

Before publication of announcement regarding resolutions of the general meeting, amount of shares held by shareholders convening for the meeting cannot be less than 10%.

Shareholders convening the meeting should submit explanatory materials to appointed organizations of China Securities Regulatory Commission where the Company domiciles and the stock exchange(s) before publication of the announcement on notification and resolutions of the general meeting.

Board of directors and its secretary should cooperate with the supervisory committee or shareholders convening a general meeting on their own. The board of directors should provide the shareholders register as of the share capital registration day.

The Company will bear all the reasonable costs for the general meeting convening by shareholders incurring from the board of directors not holding a meeting in response to the aforementioned requests and the Company will deduct it from the outstanding payment of the responsible directors.

Article 92: General meetings shall be convened and presided by the chairman of the Company. If the chairman is unable to attend the meeting for any reasons, a vice chairman (if the Company has two or more than two vice chairmen, more than half of the directors may nominate one of them to preside the meeting) may convene the meeting and to act as chairman of the meeting. If the vice chairman is unable to attend the meeting for any reasons, more than half of the directors may nominate a director to preside the meeting.

For general meetings convened by the supervisory committee, the chairman of the supervisory committee shall preside the meeting. If the chairman of the supervisory committee is unable to attend the meeting for any reasons, a vice chairman may convene the meeting and to act as chairman of the meeting. If the vice chairman is unable to attend the meeting for any reasons, more than half of the supervisors may nominate a supervisor to preside the meeting.

For a general meeting convened by the shareholders, the convener shall nominate the chairman of the general meeting.

If a meeting is unable to continue as a result of the chairman's violation of the rules and procedures of the meeting, the meeting may continue upon the election of an individual to be the chairman by over half of the shareholders with voting rights present at the meeting.

Article 93: The meeting presider shall decide whether the resolution of general meeting of shareholders is passed. His decision shall be the final decision and shall be announced at the meeting and recorded into the meeting minutes.

Article 94: If the meeting presider has any doubt on the resolution result voted, he can count the number of votes; if the presider does not count the votes and the attending shareholders or shareholder representatives have dissidence on the result, they have right to require counting of votes immediately after the result is announced and the presider shall count the votes immediately.

Article 95: If the votes are counted at the general meeting of shareholders, the result of counting of votes shall be recorded in the meeting minutes.

The general meeting of shareholders shall have meeting minutes. The meeting minutes shall record the following contents:

- (1) The number of the voting shares in the general meeting of shareholders and the proportion in the total shares of the Company;
- (2) Date and place of the meeting;
- (3) Name of the presider and the agenda;
- (4) Key points of each speaker on every discussion topic;
- (5) Voting result of each resolution;
- (6) Inquiry opinions and suggestions of shareholders and reply or explanation of the board of directors and supervisory committee;
- (7) Other contents that should be recorded in the meeting minutes as believed by the general meeting of shareholders and required by the Articles and Association.

The minutes of the general meeting shall be signed by the directors attending the meeting and the recorder and shall be kept by the secretary to the board of directors as a file of the Company. The meeting minutes of the general meeting shall be kept for 10 years.

The number of meeting participants, the shares held by the attending shareholders, the authorization letter, the voting results of every resolution, the meeting minutes and the validity of the procedures and so on can be notarized.

The meeting minutes together with the register of the attending shareholders and the authorization letters shall be kept at the address of the Company.

Article 96: Shareholders can review to a duplicate copy of the meeting minutes free of charge at the Company during the office hour. If any shareholder asks for a duplicate copy of relevant meeting minutes from the Company, the Company shall send out the hard copy within 7 days after receiving reasonable fees.

Chapter 9: Special Procedures for Voting of Classified Shareholders

Article 97: The shareholders holding different kinds of shares are classified shareholders.

Classified shareholders have rights and obligations according to laws, administrative regulations and Articles of Association.

Article 98: If the Company plans to change or cancel the rights of classified shareholders, it shall be passed by the general meeting of shareholders with special resolution and passed by the shareholders' meeting convened respectively by affected classified shareholders according to Article 99 to Article 103.

Article 99: The following circumstances shall be deemed as alteration or cancellation of the rights of a certain class of shareholders:

- (1) To increase or decrease the number of this classified shares, or increase or decrease the number of the classified shares with equal or more voting right, distribution right and other rights;
- (2) To convert all or part of this classified shares into other classes, or convert all or part of another classified shares into this class or to vest such conversion right;
- (3) To cancel or decrease the right of a class of shares to get generated dividends or accumulative dividend;
- (4) To decrease or cancel the priority of a class of shares to get dividends or to acquire property distribution in liquidation of the Company;
- (5) To increase, cancel or decrease the share conversion right, option right, voting right, transfer right, priority to sell and right to acquire the Company's securities of a class of shares;
- (6) To cancel or decrease the right of a class of shares to receive the Company's payables in a specific currency;
- (7) To set up a new class of shares enjoying equal or more voting right, distribution right or other rights;
- (8) To restrict transfer or ownership of a class of shares or increase such restriction;
- (9) To issue the subscription right or share conversion right of a class of shares or another class of shares;
- (10) To increase rights and privileges of other classes of shares;
- (11) The Company's restructuring plan will cause the fact that shareholders of different class of shares may undertake responsibility unproportionally;
- (12) Modification or cancellation of Articles stated in this chapter.

Article 100: The affected classified shareholders shall have voting right in classified shareholders' meeting no matter whether they have voting right originally in the general meeting of shareholders when clauses (2) to (8) and clauses (11) to (12) of Article 99 are involved, but those interested shareholders do not have voting rights in the classified shareholders' meeting.

The meaning of the above-said interested shareholder is as follows:

- (1) When the Company gives a repurchase offer at the same proportion to all shareholders according to Article 27 or repurchases its own shares by means of open transaction at a stock exchange, an “interested shareholder” refers to the controlling shareholder defined in Article 59;

Article 143: A director, supervisor, president or other senior management personnel of the Company may be relieved from liability for a specific breach of obligations after the shareholders’ general meeting has been informed beforehand, except in circumstances as specified in Article 58 hereof.

Article 144: If a director, supervisor, president or other senior management personnel of the Company has directly or indirectly vested a material interest in a contract, transaction or arrangement concluded or planned by the Company (except his employment contract with the Company), he shall disclose the nature and extent of his interest to the board of directors at the earliest opportunity, whether or not the matter is normally subject to the approval of the board of directors.

The directors shall not vote for the contracts, transactions and arrangements containing significant interest of their own or their associates (referring to the definition on associates stated in listing rules) and they shall not be included into the quorum for meetings.

Unless the interested director, supervisor, president or other senior management personnel of the Company has disclosed such interest to the board of directors as required under the preceding paragraph hereof and the matter has been approved by the board of directors at a meeting in which he was not counted in the quorum and had refrained from voting, the Company shall have the right to void the contract, transaction or arrangement, except the other party is a bona fide party acting without knowledge of the breach of obligation by the director, supervisor, president or other senior management personnel concerned.

A director, supervisor, president or other senior management personnel of the Company shall be deemed to have an interest in any contract, transaction or arrangement in which an associate or a connected person of that director, supervisor, president or other senior management personnel has an interest in it.

Article 145: If a director, supervisor, president or other senior management personnel of the Company gives a written notice to the board of directors before the conclusion of the contract, transaction or arrangement is firstly considered by the Company, stating that due to the contents of the notice, he has an interest in the contract, transaction or arrangement that may subsequently be made by the Company, such director, supervisor, president or other senior management personnel of the Company shall be deemed for the purpose of the preceding Articles of this Chapter to have declared his interest, insofar as attributable to the scope stated in the notice.

Article 146: The Company may not in any manner pay tax on behalf of its directors, supervisors, president or other senior management personnel.

Article 147: The Company may not directly or indirectly provide a loan or loan security for its directors, supervisors, president or other senior management personnel, those of its parent company, or associates of the above-mentioned persons.

The provisions of the preceding paragraph shall not apply to the following circumstances:

- (1) The provision of a loan or loan security by the Company for a subsidiary of the Company;
- (2) The provision of a loan or loan security or other funds by the Company to a director, a supervisor, president or other senior management personnel of the Company under an employment contract approved by the shareholders' general meeting, so as to enable him to pay the expenses incurred for the sake of the Company or for the performance of his Company duties;
- (3) The provision of a loan or loan security by the Company to a relevant director, supervisor, president or other senior management personnel of the Company or to a connected person thereof on normal commercial terms, if the ordinary business scope of the Company includes the lending of money or the provision of loan security.

Article 148: A loan provided by the Company in violation of the preceding Article shall be immediately repayable by the recipient of the loan, regardless of the terms of the loan.

Article 149: The Company may not be forced to perform a loan security provided by the Company in violation of the first provision of Article 147, except:

- (1) when the loan is provided to a connected person of a director, a supervisor, president or other senior management personnel of the Company or its parent company, the loan provider is not aware of the condition;
- (2) The collateral provided by the Company has been lawfully sold by the loan provider to a bona fide purchaser.

Article 150: For the purposes of the preceding Article in this Chapter, the term “security” shall include an act whereby a guarantor assumes liability or provides property to guarantee or secure the performance of obligations by an obligator.

Article 151: If a director, supervisor, president or other senior management personnel of the Company breaches his obligations to the Company, the Company shall, in addition to any rights and remedies provided by laws and administrative regulations, have a right to:

- (1) Request the relevant director, supervisor, president or other senior management personnel to compensate for the losses suffered by the Company as a consequence of his dereliction of duty;
- (2) Rescind any contract or transaction concluded by the Company with the relevant director, supervisor, president or other senior management personnel and contracts or transactions with a third party (where such third party is aware that the director, supervisor, president or other senior management personnel representing the Company was in breach of his obligations to the Company);
- (3) Request the relevant director, supervisor, president or other senior management personnel to surrender the gains derived from the breach of his obligations;
- (4) Recover any funds received by the relevant director, supervisor, president or other senior management personnel that should have been received by the Company, including (but not limited to) commissions;
- (5) Request the relevant director, supervisor, president or other senior management personnel to return the interest earned or possibly earned on the funds that should have been given to the Company.

Article 152: The Company shall include a written contract with each director and supervisor of the Company concerning his emoluments. Such contract shall be approved by the shareholders’ general meeting before it is entered into. The above-mentioned emoluments shall include:

- (1) Emoluments in respect of his service as a director, supervisor or senior management personnel of the Company;
- (2) Emoluments in respect of his service as a director, supervisor or senior management personnel of a subsidiary of the Company;
- (3) Emoluments otherwise in connection with the management of the Company or any subsidiary thereof;
- (4) Funds as compensation for his loss of office or retirement to the aforementioned directors or supervisors.

A director or supervisor may not sue the Company for his benefits due to him on the basis of the above-mentioned matters, except under a contract as mentioned above.

Article 153: The Company shall specify in the contract concluded with a director or supervisor of the Company concerning his emoluments that in the event of a takeover of the Company, a director or supervisor of the Company shall, subject to prior approval of the shareholders’ general meeting, have the right to receive the compensation or other funds obtainable for loss of office or retirement. For the purposes of the preceding paragraph, the term “a takeover of the Company” shall refer to any of the following circumstances:

- (1) Anyone makes a general offer to all the shareholders;
- (2) Anyone makes a general offer so that the offer or becomes a controlling shareholder as defined in Article 59 hereof.

If the relevant director or supervisor has failed to comply with this Article, any fund received by him shall belong to those persons that have sold their shares as a result of their acceptance of the above-mentioned offer, and the expenses incurred in distribution of such fund on a pro rata basis shall be borne by the relevant directors or supervisors and may not be paid out of such fund.

Directors may vacate office before the expiration of their term of service. In this case, they shall submit a written resignation report to the board of directors.

Board of directors will disclose the details within 2 days.

If the number of directors is below the statutory requirements caused by some directors' resignations, before the re-election of the board of directors, the current directors should perform their directorship according to laws, administrative and departmental regulations, and the Articles of Association.

Save to above-mentioned situations, a director's resignation will be effective when the resignation has been received by the board of directors.

Chapter 15 Financial and Accounting Systems and Distribution of Profit

Article 154: The Company shall formulate its own financial and accounting systems in accordance with laws, administrative regulations and requirements of other State Council's departments.

Article 155: The Company should issue a financial report at the end of each financial year, and such financial report should be examined and audited in accordance with laws.

The Company should submit and announce the Company's annual financial report, within four months after the end of a financial year, to China Securities Regulatory Commission and stock exchange for domestic shares listing. The Company should submit and announce the interim financial report, within two months from the end of the first six months of a financial year, to the relevant authorities authorized by China Securities Regulatory Commission and stock exchange for domestic shares listing. The Company should submit and announce the Company's quarterly financial report, within one month from the end of the first three months and first nine months of a financial year, to the relevant authorities authorized by China Securities Regulatory Commission and stock exchange for domestic share listing.

Article 156: The board of directors of the Company shall table before the shareholders at each shareholders' annual general meeting its financial reports prepared under relevant laws, administrative regulations and normative documents promulgated by the local government and the authorities-in-charge.

Article 157: The Company's financial report shall be made available for inspection by shareholders 20 days prior to an annual general meeting. Each shareholder of the Company shall have the right to obtain a copy of the financial reports referred to in herein. At least 21 days before the annual general meeting and within three months after the financial year end, copies of the said reports shall be sent to overseas shareholders by the manner as stipulated in the Article 195.

Article 158: According to the listing rules and the relevant regulatory requirements of the People's Republic of China and Hong Kong, the financial statements of the Company shall be prepared in accordance with China's accounting standards and the relevant regulations.

Article 159: Quarterly reports, interim results or financial reports published or disclosed by the Company shall be prepared in accordance with China's accounting standards and the relevant regulations.

Article 160: The Company may not establish any account books other than the statutory account books.

Article 161: After-tax profits of the Company shall be applied in the following order:

- (1) To make up for losses;
- (2) Allocations to the statutory common reserve;
- (3) Allocations to a discretionary common reserve if approved by resolution of the shareholders' general meeting;
- (4) In the payment of dividend to holders of ordinary shares, the Company shall not distribute dividends or make other distribution by way of bonus before it has made up for losses and made allocations to the statutory common reserve.

If the general meeting violates the above-mentioned rules to distribute dividends to shareholders before the recovery of losses and the provision of lawful reserve, the shareholders shall refund the distributed profit to the Company.

The repurchased shares owned by the Company shall not entitle to any distribution of profit.

Any amount paid up in advance of calls on any shares shall carry interest but shall not entitle the holder of the share in a dividend subsequently declared.

Where power is taken to cease sending dividend warrants by post, if such warrants have been left unrepresented, it will not be exercised until such warrants have been so left unrepresented on 2 consecutive occasions. However, such power may be exercised after the first occasion on which such a warrant is returned undelivered.

The Company should allocate 10% of its net profits of the year to the statutory common reserve. When the total amount of the statutory common reserve reaches 50% of its registered capital, the Company can stop the allocation.

Article 162: Capital common reserve shall include the following income:

- (1) Premium amount in excess of the face value of shares which have been issued;
- (2) Other incomes required to be included in the capital common reserve by the finance regulatory authority of the State Council.

Article 163: The Company's reserve can be used to cover the Company's losses, to increase the production scale, or convert into the Company's capital. However, the capital reserve shall not be used to make up the loss of the Company.

In applying a conversion of capital reserve to capital, the residual capital reserve shall not be less than 25% of the original registered capital of the Company.

Article 164: Within 2 months after the passing of profit distribution resolution at a general meeting, the board of directors should complete the distribution of dividends (or bonus shares) to the shareholders.

Article 165: The Company adopts the following profit distribution policy:

1. Principles of profit distribution

The Company should put the reasonable returns of the investors as an important matter in the distribution of its profit, while taking into account the sustainable development of the Company, and maintaining the continuity and stability of the profit distribution policy which complied with the provisions of relevant laws and regulations. The Company's distribution of profits shall not exceed the scope of the cumulative distributable profits, and shall not damage the Company's sustainable business capacity. The Company is actively promoting the distribution of dividends in cash.

2. Form of profit distribution

The Company may distribute dividends in cash, bonus shares or other means as allowed by laws and regulations. Among the above means of profit distribution, the Company takes distribution of dividends in cash as the preferential mean in profit distribution.

3. Conditions of profit distribution in cash

In accordance with the Company Law and the relevant laws and regulations and the provisions of the Articles of Association, when the distributable profit of current year's net realized profit of the Company after taking into account of losses, full provisions of statutory reserve fund and discretionary reserve is positive, and the audit body has issued a standard unqualified audit report for the Company's annual financial report (interim distribution of cash dividend can be unaudited), the Company shall make a cash distribution plan except in special circumstances (such as material investment plans or material cash expenditures, etc.).

When the Company meets the above conditions to distribute dividends in cash but does not distribute dividends in cash for special reasons, the board should give specific reasons for not distributing the dividends in cash, and the usage of non-distributed retained profits, and after the independent directors have provided their comments, it shall be passed to the shareholders' meeting for consideration and approval.

4. The board of directors of the Company should comprehensively take account of factors including the characteristics of the industry of the Company, the Company's development stage, its own business model, profitability, and any substantial capital expenditure arrangements, etc., to identify the Company's situation into the following circumstances and propose a differentiated cash distribution policy according to the procedures as stated in the Articles of Association:

1. When the Company's development is in maturity stage without a substantial capital expenditure arrangement, during profit distribution process, the proportion of cash dividend in the profit distribution should not be less than 80%;
2. When the Company's development is in maturity stage with substantial capital expenditure arrangements, during profit distribution process, the proportion of cash dividend in the profit distribution should not be less than 40%;
3. When the Company's development is in growth stage with substantial capital expenditure arrangements, during profit distribution process, the proportion of cash dividend in the profit distribution should not be less than 20%;

If the development stage of the Company cannot be easily identified but there are substantial capital expenditure arrangements, it can be processed in accordance with the preceding paragraph.

5. Interval and proportion of profit distribution

Subject to the premise of fulfilling the profit distribution conditions under the regulations of this Articles of Association, the Company should at least carry out profit distribution once a year. The board of directors of the Company can propose to carry out interim dividend in cash according to the operating results and capital requirements of the Company.

On satisfaction of the aforementioned conditions to distribute dividends in cash, the Company's cumulative distribution of cash profits for the last 3 years shall not be less than 60% of the average annual distributable profits realized for the last 3 years.

That is:

(the accumulated cash dividends in last 3 consecutive years \geq 60% x the accumulation of annual distributable profit in the last 3 consecutive years/3).

In principle, the Company's annual distribution of cash dividends shall not be less than 15% of the realized distributable profits for the year (excluding the accumulated undistributed profits of last year).

6. Conditions for bonus issue

The board of the Company may consider adopting bonus issue and conversion of capital reserves to issued capital for distribution. The Company should consider the scale of the existing share capital when issuing bonus shares, and focus on capital expansion and performance growth simultaneously.

7. Formulation procedure of profit distribution policy

According to the provisions of the Articles of Association of the Company, the board of directors may, after fully considering a variety of factors such as the Company's profitability, cash flow, repeat production by the Company, investment needs together with the requests of shareholders (especially minority shareholders), and the opinions of independent directors, supervisors, propose the annual or interim profit distribution proposal for the board's consideration and approval.

The profit distribution proposal shall be approved by a majority vote of all directors of the board at the board meeting. The profit distribution proposal shall be approved by more than half of the voting rights held by shareholders attending the general meeting. If the general meeting considers the proposal of distributing dividends by bonus shares or conversion of capital reserves to issued capital for distribution, the proposal shall be approved by more than two-thirds of the voting rights held by shareholders attending the general meeting.

When formulating the distribution of cash dividend proposal, the board of the Company should actively communicate and exchange views with shareholders, especially minority shareholders through a variety of channels (including but not limited to telephone, fax and e-mail communication), to fully listen to their views and requests, and provide timely responses to minority shareholders' concerns. Independent directors shall deliver independent opinion on the profit distribution proposal.

8. Amendment procedure of profit distribution policy

If there were major changes in the external environment or the Company's own operating conditions, which required the adjustment of the profit distribution policy, the Company should fully consider the protection of the interests of the minority shareholders. The amended profit distribution policy must not violate the relevant laws and regulations and the relevant provisions of regulatory documents. The proposal to amend the profit distribution policy shall be submitted to the board and shareholders' meeting for consideration and approval. The proposal for amendment of the profit distribution policy shall be approved by more than two-thirds of the board of directors at the board meeting, independent directors should provide independent opinions. The proposal for amendment of the profit distribution policy shall be approved by more than two-thirds of the voting rights held by shareholders attending the shareholders' meeting.

The board of directors should fully listen to the opinions of shareholders (especially minority shareholders), independent directors and supervisors of the Company when considering and approving the amendment of profit distribution policy especially the distribution of cash dividends.

9. The Company's shareholders, independent directors and supervisory committee should supervise the execution progress and decision-making procedures of the Company's profit distribution policy executed by the board of directors and management.

10. During the implementation of the profit distribution policy, if there is any shareholder illegally taken up the Company's capital, the Company shall deduct the cash dividends allocated to such shareholder to repay the amount of capital taken.

11. The power to forfeit the uncollected dividends shall be exercised after the relevant validity period expired.

12. The board of directors of the Company shall comply with the applicable laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules and regulations, regulatory documents and the profit distribution policy set out in the Articles of Association when formulating, considering and executing the profit distribution policy.

13. The Company shall disclose in the periodic reports the execution progress of distribution plan and cash dividend distribution policy during the reporting period, and explain whether they have complied with the relevant laws and regulations.

Article 166: The dividend from ordinary stock shall be calculated and declared in Renminbi. Dividend for domestic capital stocks shall be paid in Renminbi. Dividend for foreign capital stocks shall be paid with equivalent currency in the location of the Company's shares listed. (if the Company listed in more than one location, the board of directors will determine the appropriate currency for payment).

Article 167: The average closing price published by the People's Bank of China within a week prior to the declaration of dividend and other allocation shall be adopted as the rate of exchange for the dividend warrant in foreign currency.

Article 168: The Company shall appoint recipient agents for holders of foreign capital shares listed outside the People's Republic of China to collect on behalf of the relevant shareholders the dividend distributed and other funds payable in respect of foreign capital shares listed outside the People's Republic of China.

The collection agency working for the shareholder of foreign capital stock listed in Hong Kong shall be a registered trust company conforming to Hong Kong "Trustee Ordinance".

Article 169: The Company has internal audit system and employs designated internal auditors to carry out audits on the Company's economic activities, income and expenditure.

Article 170: The internal audit system and the duties of the internal auditors should be implemented upon obtaining approval from the board of directors. The auditor-in-charge holds responsibility and reports to the board of directors.

Chapter 16 Appointment of an Accounting Firm

Article 171: The Company shall appoint an independent accounting firm that comply with relevant state regulations to audit the annual financial reports and other financial reports of the Company.

The first accounting firm of the Company may be appointed by the inaugural meeting prior to the first annual shareholders' meeting. Such accounting firm shall hold office until the conclusion of the first annual shareholders' meeting.

If the inaugural meeting does not exercise its power under the preceding paragraph, the board of directors shall exercise such power.

Article 172: The term of appointment of an accounting firm shall be from the end of the annual shareholders' meeting of the Company to the end of the next annual shareholders' meeting.

Article 173: An accounting firm appointed by the Company shall have the following rights:

- (1) The right of access at all times to the account books, records or vouchers of the Company and the right to request directors, president and other senior management personnel of the Company to provide the relevant information and explanations;
- (2) The right to request the Company to take all reasonable measures to obtain from its subsidiaries the information and explanations necessary for the accounting firm to perform its duties;
- (3) The right to attend shareholders' meeting, receive a notice or other information concerning any meetings of or concerning which shareholders have a right to receive a notice or other information, and to make representations at any shareholders' meetings on any matter which relates to it as the accounting firm of the Company.

Article 174: If the position of accounting firm becomes vacant, the board of directors may appoint an accounting firm to fill such vacancy before a shareholders' general meeting is held. However, if there are other accounting firms holding the position as an accounting firm of the Company while such vacancy still exists, such accounting firm shall continue to act accordingly.

Article 175: The shareholders' general meeting may, by means of an ordinary resolution, dismiss any accounting firm prior to the expiration of its term of appointment, notwithstanding anything in the contract between the accounting firm and the Company, but without prejudice to such accounting firm's right, if any, to claim damages from the Company in respect of such dismissal.

Article 176: The remuneration or method of remuneration of an accounting firm shall be decided upon by the shareholders' general meeting. The remuneration of an accounting firm appointed by the board of directors shall be determined by the board of directors.

Article 177: The appointment, dismissal or refusal of the renewal of the appointment of an accounting firm shall be decided upon by the shareholders' general meeting and reported to the China Securities Regulatory Commission for the record.

Article 178: Where the Company decides to remove or not to reappoint an accounting firm, it shall give a 30-day notice to such accounting firm. The accounting firm shall have the right to make representations at the shareholders' general meeting for the removal. Where a firm of accountants resigns, it shall inform the shareholders in general meeting as to whether there is any irregularity in the Company.

Article 179: When the meeting of shareholders resolves to appoint a non-incumbent public accounting firm to fill up the vacancy or remain the cooperation with a public accounting firm appointed by the board of directors to fill up the vacancy or dismiss a public accounting firm in current term of service, it shall conform to the following stipulations:

- (1) The proposal concerning appointment or dismissal shall be sent to the public accounting firms to be appointed or to be dismissed or leaving the post (including the public accounting firms who have been dismissed, resigned or has withdrawn) prior to the dispatch of the notice of the meeting of the shareholders.
- (2) In case that the withdrawing public accounting firm has made written statement and requested the Company to inform shareholders the said statement, the Company shall take the following measure unless the statement has been late received: A. Explain in the resolution notification about the statement made by the public accounting firm; B. Send out the copy of such statement as the attachment to notification in a way stipulated by the Articles of Association to all shareholders who have rights to attend the meeting.
- (3) In case that the statement of the public accounting firm is not sent out as per the clause two above, the public accounting firm may request the statement being read out at shareholders' meeting and make up further appeal.
- (4) The public accounting firm who has withdrawn may attend the follow meetings:
 - (A) The shareholders' meeting at the term of service due;
 - (B) The shareholders' meeting intending to fill up the vacancy of the public accounting firm;
 - (C) The shareholders' meeting called up due to the resignation at initiative.

The public accounting firm withdrawn has right to receive all notices or other information related to the meetings indicated in clause (4), and present matters concerned as the former accounting firm.

Article 180: The public accounting firm may resign by means of a written letter of resignation. Such written notice will become valid when it arrives at the Company's address or a later date shown in the notification. The said notification shall include one of the following statements:

- (1) The statement indicating that the resignation has no connection to events that shall be explained to the shareholders and creditors;
- (2) Any statement concerning to the said explanation.

A copy should be sent to the relevant departments in-charge within 14 days when the Company has received the above-mentioned written notice. If the written notice including the above-mentioned statement in the clause two, the copy will be available in the Company for shareholders' inspection. The Company should dispatch the abovementioned copy to overseas shareholders in the manner as stipulated in Article 195.

If the public accounting firm's resignation letter contained the above-mentioned statement in the clause two, the public accounting firm may request the board of directors to convene an extraordinary general meeting for the explanation in relation to its resignation.

Chapter 17 Mergers and Division of the Company

Article 181: The proposal of merger or division of the Company shall be prepared by the board of directors. After such proposal has been adopted in accordance with the procedures specified in the Articles of Association of the Company, relevant examination and approval procedures shall be carried out according to laws. Shareholders that oppose such proposal on the merger or division of the Company shall have the right to request the Company or shareholders that are in favor of such proposal to purchase their shares at a fair price. The contents of resolutions approving the merger or division of the Company shall be compiled in a special document for inspection by shareholders.

The above-mentioned documents shall be sent to overseas shareholders by the manner as stipulated in Article 195.

Article 182: Merger of the Company may take the form of merger by absorption and merger by new establishment.

Where there is a merger of the Company, all parties to the merger shall enter into a merger agreement and prepare a balance sheet and an inventory of assets. The Company shall notify its creditors within 10 days from the date of the resolution approving the merger and shall make a public announcement of the merger in newspapers within 30 days from that date. The creditors shall request the Company to repay the debts or to provide relevant guarantee either within 30 days upon receiving the notice or in case no notice is received, within 45 days upon the date of the announcement.

After the merger, the company which survives or is newly established shall succeed to the claims and debts of all the parties in the merger.

Article 183: Where there is a division of the Company, its assets shall be divided accordingly.
