The term "non-resident enterprise" when used in this announcement shall have the same meaning as defined under the Tax Law and its relevant rules and regulations.

If any resident enterprise (as defined in the Enterprise Income Tax Law) listed on the Company's Register of holders of H-shares which is duly incorporated in the PRC or under the laws of a foreign country (or a region) but with a PRC-based de facto management body, does not wish the Company to withhold and pay the said 10% enterprise income tax, it shall submit to Computershare Hong Kong Investor Services Limited at or before 4:30p.m., Wednesday, 10 June 2015 the related documents to confirm its resident enterprise status, including: 1. a legal opinion issued by a Mainland China qualified lawyer (with the seal of the applicable law firm affixed); 2. together with duly certified true copies of the certificate of enterprise code for PRC enterprises (中華人民共和國組織機構代碼證) issued by the relevant PRC governmental authorities or equivalent documents certified by a Hong Kong solicitor or accountant, that establishes its resident enterprise status.

Withholding of Income Tax for Holders of H Shares through the Shanghai-Hong Kong Stock Connect

Pursuant to the Notice on the Taxation Policies Related to the Pilot Programme of the Shanghai-Hong Kong Stock Connect (Cai Shui [2014] No. 81) (《關於滬港股票市場交易互聯互通機制試點有關稅收政策的通知》(財稅[2014]81號)) promulgated on 17 November 2014:

1. For Mainland individual investors who invest in the H Shares of the Company through the Shanghai-Hong Kong Stock Connect programme, the Company will withhold individual income tax at the rate of 20% in the distribution of final dividend. Individual investors may, by producing valid tax payment proofs, apply to the competent tax authority of China Securities Depository and Clearing Company Limited for tax credit relating to the withholding tax already paid abroad. For Mainland securities investment funds that invest in the H Shares of the Company through the Shanghai-Hong Kong Stock Connect programme, the Company will withhold individual income tax in the distribution of final dividend pursuant to the foregoing provisions;
2. For Mainland corporate investors that invest in the H Shares of the Company through the Shanghai-Hong Kong Stock Connect programme, the Company will not withhold the income tax in the distribution of final dividend and the Mainland corporate investors shall file the tax returns on their own.

The final dividend to be distributed to the H Share shareholders through the Shanghai-Hong Kong Stock Connect will be paid in Renminbi. The record date and the date of distribution of cash dividends and other arrangements for the investors of Shanghai-Hong Kong Stock Connect will be the same as those for the H Shareholders of the Company.

Should the H Shareholders of the Company have any doubt in relation to the aforesaid arrangements, they are recommended to consult their tax advisors for relevant tax implications in Mainland China, Hong Kong and other countries (regions) on the possession and disposal of the H Shares of the Company.

Investors should read this announcement carefully. The Company has no obligation and will not be responsible for confirming the identities of any shareholders. The Company will withhold and pay for the enterprise income tax, strictly in accordance with the Tax Law and its relevant rules and regulations, based on the information contained in the Register on the Record Date. The Company will owe no liability whatsoever in respect of and will not entertain any claims arising from any delay in, or inaccurate determination of, the status of the shareholders or any disputes over the mechanism of withholding.

The above-mentioned proposed distribution of final dividend was approved by shareholders at the annual general meeting of the Company on Monday, 11 May 2015.

Any consequential changes to the expected timetable will be published by way of public announcement.

This announcement is made by the Company on a voluntary basis.
