Based on a preliminary assessment of the Group's unaudited consolidated management accounts for the year ended 31 March 2016 and the information currently available to the Board, to the best of the Directors' knowledge, a loss was caused by the significant decrease in turnover mainly attributable to (i) the year-on-year decline in revenue brought about by weak consumers' sentiment and sluggish retail consumption in Hong Kong; and (ii) the reduction in the turnover by tourists from Mainland China. Besides, the deterioration of operating environment of the Group's business in Mainland China had resulted in significant decrease in turnover and operating margin of the Group.
