The Vendor is owned as to 90% by Mr. Yip Sum Yin and as to 10% by Mr. Chung, who is a Director and a substantial Shareholder holding 92,352,000 Shares as at the Latest Practicable Date. Save as disclosed above, the Vendor and its ultimate beneficial owners (except for Mr. Chung) are Independent Third Parties.

Assets acquired

The Convertible Bonds with the principal amount of HK$153,585,000 were issued by the Issuer on 30 March 2017, bearing an interest rate of 2% per annum. Set out below are the principal terms of the Convertible Bonds:

Principal amount: HK$153,585,000

Interest: 2% per annum (on the basis of a 365-day year, or a 366-day in a leap year) on the outstanding principal amount of the Convertible Bonds which shall be payable on the maturity date of the Convertible Bonds.

Maturity Date: The date falling on the third (3rd) anniversary of the date of issue of the Convertible Bonds.

Conversion Price: HK$0.06 per Conversion Share, subject to adjustments as set out and in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Convertible Bonds.

Conversion Rights: Holder of the Convertible Bonds will have the right, during the period commencing on the date of issue of the Convertible Bonds up to and ending on the third (3rd) Business Day prior to the maturity date of the Convertible Bonds, to convert the Convertible Bonds in whole or in part of the outstanding principal amount of the Convertible Bonds into Conversion Shares, provided that the exercise of the conversion rights will not result in:

(a) any mandatory offer obligation under Rule 26.1 of the Takeovers Code being triggered by the holder of the Convertible Bonds and/or parties acting in concert (as defined in the Takeovers Code) with such holder; or

LETTER FROM THE BOARD

- (b) the Issuer being in breach of any provision of the Listing Rules, including the requirement to maintain any prescribed minimum percentage of the issued share capital of the Issuer held by the public.

As at the Latest Practicable Date, the Vendor has not exercised any conversion rights attaching to the Convertible Bonds.

Conversion Shares: 2,559,750,000 Conversion Shares (based on the initial conversion price of HK$0.06), representing:

- (i) approximately 36.12% of the existing issued share capital of the Issuer (based on latest information published on the Stock Exchange's website); and
- (ii) approximately 26.54% of the enlarged issued share capital of the Issuer upon full conversion of the Convertible Bonds (based on latest information published on the Stock Exchange's website).

Adjustment events: The conversion price shall from time to time be subject to adjustment in accordance with the followings if, whilst any of the Convertible Bonds remains outstanding, any of the following events or circumstances in relation to the shares of the Issuer shall occur: (i) consolidation and subdivision; (ii) capitalisation of profits or reserves; (iii) capital distribution; (iv) issue of shares by way of rights or grant to the shareholders any options or warrants to subscribe for shares at a price which is less than 90% of the market price; (v) issue of any securities which are convertible into or exchangeable for or carry rights of conversion for shares at a price which is less than 90% of the market price; (vi) modification of rights of conversion or exchange; (vii) issue of new shares at a price which is less than 90% of the market price; and (viii) purchase of new shares or securities by the Issuer or making of relevant offer and invitation by the Issuer.

Redemption: The Issuer shall redeem the Convertible Bonds by repaying the holder(s) of the Convertible Bonds all outstanding principal amount and accrued interests of the Convertible Bonds on the maturity date of the Convertible Bonds.

Transferability: The Convertible Bonds are transferable except that no Convertible Bond shall be transferred to any person who:

- (a) is not independent of the Issuer Group or the connected persons of the Issuer (unless otherwise permitted with prior written consent of the Issuer); or

LETTER FROM THE BOARD

- (b) is a party acting in concert (as defined in the Takeovers Code) with any person or shareholder of the Issuer to the effect that any transfer of the Convertible Bonds to such transferee(s) and/or the exercise by such transferee(s) of any conversion right attaching to the Convertible Bonds subject to such transfer will trigger the mandatory offer obligation under Rule 26.1 of the Takeovers Code.

During the period of twelve months commencing from the date of issuance of the Convertible Bonds, the holder of the Convertible Bonds shall not dispose of or transfer or enter into any agreement to dispose of or otherwise create any options, rights, interest or encumbrances in respect of any of the Conversion Shares issued pursuant to the exercise of any conversion right to dispose of or otherwise any of the Conversion Shares issued pursuant to the exercise of any conversion rights by that holder of the Convertible Bonds. After the abovementioned 12-month period, the Conversion Shares shall be transferable provided that the transfers of the Conversion Shares are in compliance with all rules and requirements under the Listing Rules and laws and regulations applicable to the Issuer and/or registered holder(s) of the Conversion Shares.

- Ranking of Conversion Shares: The Conversion Shares allotted and issued upon conversion of the Convertible Bonds will rank pari passu in all respects with the new shares of the Issuer already in issue on the conversion date.
- Listing: No application will be made by the Issuer for the listing of the Convertible Bonds on the Stock Exchange. The Listing Committee of the Stock Exchange granted the approval for the listing of, and permission to deal in, the Conversion Shares on 16 March 2017.

Consideration

The total consideration for the acquisition of the Convertible Bonds is HK$400,000,000. Based on the 2,559,750,000 Conversion Shares upon full conversion of the Convertible Bonds, the acquisition cost per Conversion Share is approximately HK$0.156. The consideration was determined after arm's length negotiations between the Vendor and the Company with reference to: (i) the prevailing market price of the shares of the Issuer of approximately HK$0.2128 per share (being the average closing price per share of the Issuer for the five consecutive trading days immediately before the date of the Sale and Purchase Agreement), which represents a premium of approximately 36.41% over the acquisition cost per Conversion Share; and (ii) the Independent Valuation of HK$432,756,000 performed by the Independent Valuer which represents a premium of approximately 8.19% over the consideration.

LETTER FROM THE BOARD

With reference to (i) the 2,559,750,000 Conversion Shares upon full conversion of the Convertible Bonds at the initial conversion price of HK$0.06; (ii) the closing price of HK$0.232 per share of the Issuer as quoted on the Stock Exchange as at the date of the Sale and Purchase Agreement (whereas the average closing price per share of the Issuer for the five consecutive trading days immediately preceding the date of the Sale and Purchase Agreement is HK$0.2128), the conversion value of the Convertible Bonds is HK$593,862,000. Accordingly, the consideration of HK$400,000,000 represents a discount of approximately 32.64% to the conversion value of the Convertible Bonds and a discount of approximately 7.57% to the Independent Valuation of HK$432,756,000.

The Independent Valuer is a valuation firm, which focuses on business, financial instruments, property and intangible assets valuation. It has extensive experience in the valuation of financial instruments such as convertible bonds, share options, etc. The Independent Valuer had been commissioned by over 30 listed companies and asset management companies in Hong Kong in the recent two years to conduct valuations on convertible bonds. In view of the extensive experience of the Independent Valuer, the Directors consider that the Independent Valuer being an established valuation firm is appropriate and competent to conduct valuation on the Convertible Bonds.

Upon Completion, the consideration of HK$40,000,000 will be satisfied in cash and the balance of HK$360,000,000 will be satisfied by way of issue of the Consideration Convertible Bonds. The proportion of the cash consideration was determined after arm's length negotiations between the Vendor and the Company with reference to the current and projected cash flow positions of the Group.

The Consideration Conversion Shares (upon conversion of the Consideration Convertible Bonds) will be allotted and issued pursuant to the Specific Mandate proposed to be obtained at the EGM.

Principal Terms of the Consideration Convertible Bonds

Principal amount:	HK$360,000,000
Interest:	The Consideration Convertible Bonds shall not bear any interest.
Maturity Date:	The date falling on the third (3rd) anniversary of the date of issue of the Consideration Convertible Bonds.
Conversion Price:	HK$1.25 per Consideration Conversion Share, subject to adjustments as set out and in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Consideration Convertible Bonds. The initial conversion price of HK$1.25 represents: <ul style="list-style-type: none">(i) a discount of approximately 19.35% to the closing price of HK$1.55 per Share as quoted on the Stock Exchange on the date of the Sale and Purchase Agreement;(ii) a discount of approximately 17% to the average closing price of HK$1.506 per Share as quoted on the Stock Exchange for the five consecutive trading days immediately prior to the date of the Sale and Purchase Agreement; and(iii) a discount of approximately 1.57% to the closing price of HK$1.27 per Share as quoted on the Stock Exchange on the Latest Practicable Date.(iv) a premium of approximately 20.19 % over the unaudited consolidated net asset value per Share as at 30 June 2017

LETTER FROM THE BOARD

The conversion price was determined after arm's length negotiations between the Vendor and the Company with reference to the then market price of the Shares and the net asset value per Share set out above.

Conversion Rights:

Holder of the Consideration Convertible Bonds will have the right, during the period commencing on the date of issue of the Consideration Convertible Bonds up to and ending on the third (3rd) Business Day prior to the maturity date of the Consideration Convertible Bonds, to convert the Consideration Convertible Bonds in whole or in part of the outstanding principal amount of the Consideration Convertible Bonds into Consideration Conversion Shares, provided that the exercise of the conversion rights will not result in:

- (a) any mandatory offer obligation under Rule 26.1 of the Takeovers Code being triggered by the holder of the Consideration Convertible Bonds and/or parties acting in concert (as defined in the Takeovers Code) with such holder; or
- (b) the Company being in breach of any provision of the Listing Rules, including the requirement to maintain any prescribed minimum percentage of the issued share capital of the Company held by the public.

Conversion Shares:

288,000,000 Consideration Conversion Shares (based on the initial conversion price of HK$1.25), representing:

- (i) approximately 36.24% of the existing issued share capital of the Company; and
- (ii) approximately 26.60% of the enlarged issued share capital of the Company upon full conversion of the Consideration Convertible Bonds.

Adjustment events:

The conversion price shall from time to time be subject to adjustment in accordance with the followings if, whilst any of the Consideration Convertible Bonds remains outstanding, any of the following events or circumstances in relation to the Shares shall occur: (i) consolidation and subdivision; (ii) capitalisation of profits or reserves; (iii) capital distribution; and (iv) purchase of new shares or securities by the Company or making of relevant offer and invitation by the Company.

LETTER FROM THE BOARD

For item (iv), if and whenever the Company shall be permitted by law and, by the Listing Rules and in accordance with the provisions of its articles of association to purchase and shall make an offer or invitation to the Shareholders to tender for sale to the Company any Shares or if the Company shall purchase any Shares or securities convertible into Shares or any rights to acquire Shares (excluding any such purchase made on the Stock Exchange, or any recognised stock exchange, being a stock exchange recognised for this purpose by the SFC or equivalent authority and the Stock Exchange) and the Directors consider that it may be appropriate to make an adjustment to the conversion price, at that time the Directors shall appoint an independent reputable merchant bank or other reputable financial institution in Hong Kong selected by the Directors (the “approved merchant bank”) or the auditors of the Company to consider whether, for any reason whatever as a result of such purchases, an adjustment should be made to the conversion price fairly and appropriately to reflect the relative interests of the persons affected by such purchases by the Company and, if such approved merchant bank or the auditors of the Company shall consider in its opinion that it is appropriate to make an adjustment to the conversion price, an adjustment to the conversion price shall be made in such manner as such approved merchant bank or the auditors of the Company shall certify to be, in its opinion, appropriate.

The above arrangement aims to ensure that the relative interest of the persons (i.e. the holders of the Consideration Convertible Bonds) which may be affected as a result of such corporate activity will be fairly and appropriately treated and the conversion will be made at a fair value. In order to strike a balance between the interest of the holders of the Consideration Convertible Bonds and the interest of the Company and the Shareholders and to ensure justification of a possible adjustment, an approved merchant bank or the auditors of the Company is required to be appointed by the Directors to determine whether there is an actual need for the adjustment and/or the manner in which the adjustment should be made to ensure that the imposition of an adjustment or the absence of the adjustment are fairly and appropriately dealt with. In light of the above, neither the Company nor the holders of the Consideration Convertible Bonds shall be unfairly treated, the Directors are of the view that the arrangement under such provisions is in the interests of the Company and the Shareholders as a whole.

LETTER FROM THE BOARD

- Tender for cancellation by holder(s) of the Consideration Convertible Bonds: The holder(s) of the Consideration Convertible Bonds shall have the right, at any time commencing from 30 March 2019 and ending on the fifth (5th) Business Day prior to the maturity date tender for cancellation to the Company all or part of the outstanding principal amount of the Consideration Convertible Bonds for the sole purpose of settling the consideration, in whole or in part, payable to the Company, for the acquisition of the Put Option Convertible Bonds upon each exercise of the Put Option by the Company.
- According to the above provisions, if the Vendor being the holder of the Consideration Convertible Bonds, upon the exercise of the Put Option by the Company, is required to purchase the Put Option Convertible Bonds from the Company, the Vendor may tender all or part of the Consideration Convertible Bonds to the Company for cancellation in order to set off part of or the whole amount of the consideration for acquisition of the Put Option Convertible Bonds to be paid by the Vendor to the Company under the arrangement of the Put Option.
- Redemption: The Company shall redeem the Consideration Convertible Bonds by repaying the holder(s) of the Consideration Convertible Bonds all outstanding principal amount of the Consideration Convertible Bonds on the maturity date of the Consideration Convertible Bonds.
- Transferability: The Consideration Convertible Bonds are transferable except that no Consideration Convertible Bond shall be transferred to any person who:
- (a) is not independent of the Group or the connected persons of the Company (unless otherwise permitted with prior written consent of the Company); or
 - (b) is a party acting in concert (as defined in the Takeovers Code) with any person or Shareholder to the effect that any transfer of the Consideration Convertible Bonds to such transferee(s) and/or the exercise by such transferee(s) of any conversion right attaching to the Consideration Convertible Bonds subject to such transfer will trigger the mandatory offer obligation under Rule 26.1 of the Takeovers Code.
- Ranking of Consideration Conversion Shares: The Consideration Conversion Shares allotted and issued upon conversion of the Consideration Convertible Bonds will rank pari passu in all respects with the new Shares already in issue on the conversion date.

LETTER FROM THE BOARD

Listing: No application will be made by the Company for the listing of the Consideration Convertible Bonds on the Stock Exchange. An application will be made by the Company to the Listing Committee of the Stock Exchange for the listing of, and permission to deal in, the Consideration Conversion Shares that may be issued upon the conversion of the Consideration Convertible Bonds.

Conditions

Completion of the Sale and Purchase Agreement is conditional upon the satisfaction of the following conditions:

- (i) the passing by the requisite majority of Shareholders or Independent Shareholders (as appropriate) at the EGM of all resolutions required under the Listing Rules (if any) to approve the transactions contemplated under the Sale and Purchase Agreement, including without limitation the issue of the Consideration Convertible Bonds and the grant of the Specific Mandate;
- (ii) the Listing Committee of the Stock Exchange granting or agreeing to grant the listing of, and permission to deal in, the Consideration Conversion Shares, which has not been revoked as at Completion;
- (iii) all the required approvals, authorisations, consents having been obtained from and all the required registrations and filing having been completed with (if applicable) the governmental authorities or regulatory bodies or any relevant third party in connection with the transactions contemplated under the Sale and Purchase Agreement;
- (iv) the Company having obtained confirmation from the Vendor and the Warrantors confirming that, as at Completion, they are not aware of any matter or thing which is in breach or inconsistent with any of the warranties made by each of the Vendor and the Warrantors; and
- (v) all warranties made by each of the Vendor and the Warrantors in the Sale and Purchase Agreement remaining true and accurate from the date of the Sale and Purchase Agreement up to and including Completion.

If the conditions set out above are not fulfilled, or in respect of the conditions (iii), (iv) and (v), are not waived in writing by the Company on 18 January 2018 (or such later date as the parties to the Sale and Purchase Agreement may agree in writing), the Sale and Purchase Agreement shall terminate and none of the parties shall have any claim against the other for costs, damages, compensation or otherwise (save in respect of any prior breach of the Sale and Purchase Agreement).

Completion

Subject to the fulfillment of the above conditions (unless otherwise waived), Completion shall take place on the Completion Date.

LETTER FROM THE BOARD

Undertaking

Pursuant to the subscription agreement entered into between the Vendor and the Issuer dated 21 September 2016 as amended and supplemented by a supplemental agreement dated 22 November 2016, the Vendor shall not exercise the conversion rights attached to the Convertible Bonds for a period of 24 months from the date of issue of the Convertible Bonds (i.e. for the period from 30 March 2017 up to 29 March 2019 (both days inclusive)). Accordingly, in consideration of the Vendor granting the Put Option to the Company, the Company has agreed in the Sale and Purchase Agreement that it will provide an undertaking (the “Conversion Undertaking”) to the Issuer at Completion that the Company shall not exercise the conversion rights attached to the Convertible Bonds from the Completion Date up to and including 29 March 2019.

Put Option

The Directors sought to obtain certain degree of downside protection through selling back part or all of the Convertible Bonds to the Vendor at the original acquisition cost in the circumstances that the price of the shares of the Issuer exhibits a consistent downward trend. After arm’s length negotiations between the Vendor and the Company, the Vendor agreed to buy back 50% of the Convertible Bonds in the principal amount of HK$153,585,000 (i.e. HK$76,792,500) through the grant of the Put Option to the Company.

Pursuant to the Sale and Purchase Agreement, the Vendor grants to the Company the Put Option to require the Vendor to purchase from the Company the Put Option Convertible Bonds, to the extent of HK$76,792,500 (50% of the principal amount of the Convertible Bonds), at the Put Option Price, which approximates the cost of acquisition of the Put Option Convertible Bonds by the Company under the Sale and Purchase Agreement, at any time during the Put Option Period on the condition that the closing price per share of the Issuer as quoted on the Stock Exchange falls below two times the conversion price per Conversion Share (subject to adjustments) for a period of more than ten consecutive trading days (For example, assuming there is no adjustment to the conversion price and if the closing price per share of the Issuer falls below HK$0.12 (which is two times of the conversion price per Conversion Share of HK$0.06) for a period of more than ten consecutive trading days, the Company may exercise the Put Option; if the conversion price per Conversion Share is adjusted to HK$0.05, the Company shall not exercise the Put Option unless the the closing price per share of the Issuer falls below HK$0.10 (which is two times of the conversion price per Conversion Share of HK$0.05) for a period of more than ten consecutive trading days).

The above condition for the exercise of the Put Option is determined after arm’s length negotiations between the Vendor and the Company. The Directors consider that, with the threshold imposed under such condition being two times the conversion price per Conversion Share (i.e. 100% over the conversion price of the Convertible Bonds), the Company would have a time buffer to monitor the price movement of the shares of the Issuer before deciding whether to exercise the Put Option to sell back any part of the Convertible Bonds to the Vendor, and the arrangement of the Put Option would become more balanced between the risk to be taken by the Vendor and the protection to be given to the Company.

LETTER FROM THE BOARD

The Company shall have absolute discretion in determining whether to exercise the Put Option during the Put Option Period.

The Vendor shall have absolute discretion in determining whether to settle the consideration for the acquisition of the Put Option Convertible Bonds in cash or by way of tendering for cancellation to the Company the Consideration Convertible Bonds in equivalent amount subject to the terms and conditions of the Consideration Convertible Bonds.

The Put Option shall lapse upon the earliest of the following events: (i) the expiry of the term of the Convertible Bonds; or (ii) the Convertible Bonds being fully converted into Conversion Shares.

Notes:

1. Power Global Group Limited is a company 100% owned by Mr. Chung Chi Shing, Eric, an executive Director.
2. Mr. Wong Chung Kin, Quentin is an independent non-executive Director.

Given the Vendor will own approximately 26.60% of the enlarged issued share capital of the Company after Completion and full conversion of the Consideration Convertible Bonds, there will be no change in control of the Company as a result of the Acquisition which involves the issue of the Consideration Convertible Bonds.

The Vendor will become the single largest shareholder of the Company upon full conversion of the Consideration Convertible Bonds.

LETTER FROM THE BOARD

FINANCIAL EFFECTS OF THE ACQUISITION

Upon Completion, the Group will hold the Convertible Bonds, representing approximately 26.54%¹ of the enlarged issued share capital of the Issuer upon full conversion of the Convertible Bonds.

Since the Company will not hold more than 50% of the issued share capital of the Issuer upon full conversion of the Convertible Bonds, the Issuer will not become a subsidiary of the Company and its financial results will not be consolidated into the Company's financial statements. The Acquisition will be recognised as an interest in an associate or an investment in the Company's financial statements. If the Company holds 20% or more of the voting power of the Issuer, it would be assumed that the Company has significant influence on the Issuer and the Acquisition will be recognised as the Company's interest in an associate in the financial statements. If the Company holds less than 20% of the voting power of the Issuer, the Acquisition will be recognised as the Company's investment in the financial statements.

- (i) the actual interest income from the Convertible Bonds over the conversion period, in which the Convertible Bonds shall bear interest at 2% per annum on the outstanding principal amount of the Convertible Bonds from the Completion Date to (but excluding) the maturity date of the Convertible Bonds;

REASONS FOR AND BENEFITS OF THE ACQUISITION OF THE CONVERTIBLE BONDS

One of the Group's principal businesses is proprietary trading including the trading of equity securities, and the Group has been constantly seeking investment opportunities. Taking an optimistic view of the prospect of the financial services industry in both Hong Kong and the PRC, the Company has been investing in the Issuer by acquiring the shares of the Issuer through on-market transactions since early 2016. As at the Latest Practicable Date, the Company was interested in 131,492,000 shares of the Issuer. With the introduction of China Cinda Asset Management Co., Limited as a strategic investor by the Issuer in the end of 2016, and the appointment of Mr. Xie Zhichun who has strong background, expertise and renowned status in the financial services industry in the PRC, as an executive director and chairman of the Issuer in January 2017, the Directors are of the view that, the Issuer Group is on its way to rapid business expansion and will have the opportunities to tap into the PRC financial services market to capture vast business opportunities in the near future. As the Directors envisage a promising prospect of the Issuer Group ahead and given that the consideration for the Acquisition represents a discount of approximately 32.64% and 15.07% to the conversion value of the Convertible Bonds as at the date of the Sale and Purchase Agreement and the Latest Practicable Date respectively and a discount of approximately 7.57% to the Independent Valuation of HK$432,756,000 as discussed above, the Directors consider that the Acquisition represents a suitable investment opportunity for the Company. It is the intention of the Group to hold the Convertible Bonds for trading purposes with a view to achieve capital gains through disposal of the Convertible Bonds or the Conversion Shares after expiry of the Conversion Undertaking, as the Directors consider appropriate.

LETTER FROM THE BOARD

According to the terms of the Sale and Purchase Agreement, 10% of the consideration will be satisfied in cash while the balance of the consideration will be satisfied by way of issue of the Consideration Convertible Bonds. The Directors consider such payment arrangement to be advantageous for the Group having considered the following reasons:

- (i) the cash outlay for this transaction is relatively small which can be satisfied by the internal fund of the Group;
- (ii) as compared to cash and/or the issue of promissory notes, the issue of the Consideration Convertible Bonds will not adversely affect the cash position and development of the Group in the short term; and
- (iii) as compared to the issue of consideration shares, the issue of the Consideration Convertible Bonds will not result in an immediate dilution impact on the existing Shareholders.

The grant of the Put Option by the Vendor to the Company, subject to the terms and conditions under the Sale and Purchase Agreement, has provided a downside protection to the Company to effectively limit or reduce risks or losses of the Company in the case of a decline in the value of the Convertible Bonds.

In view of the above, the Directors (including the independent non-executive Directors) consider that the terms of the Sale and Purchase Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereunder are on normal commercial terms and are fair and reasonable, and in the interests of the Company and the Shareholders as a whole.

The Sale and Purchase Agreement was approved by the Board. Mr. Chung had abstained from voting on the relevant resolutions of the Board approving the transaction.

LISTING RULES IMPLICATIONS

As the applicable percentage ratios (as defined under Rule 14.07 of the Listing Rules) in respect of the transactions contemplated under the Sale and Purchase Agreement are greater than 25% but less than 100%, the transaction constitutes a major transaction for the Company under Chapter 14 of the Listing Rules, and is therefore subject to the reporting, announcement, circular and shareholders' approval requirements thereunder. An EGM will be convened by the Company to consider and, if thought fit, approve the Sale and Purchase Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereunder.

In the event that the Company exercises any conversion rights attached to the Convertible Bonds, it will have to comply with the applicable notifiable transaction requirements under Chapter 14 of the Listing Rules for the acquisition of an interest in the Issuer.

Since Mr. Chung, a substantial Shareholder and a Director, has material interest in the Sale and Purchase Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereunder, Mr. Chung and his associates would be required to abstain from voting on the resolutions approving the Sale and Purchase Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereunder including the issue of the Consideration Convertible Bonds and the grant of the Specific Mandate at the EGM.

LETTER FROM THE BOARD

As completion of the Sale and Purchase Agreement is subject to the fulfillment (or waiver, as the case may be) of a number of conditions (which are detailed in this circular), the transactions contemplated under the Sale and Purchase Agreement may or may not be completed. Shareholders and potential investors should exercise caution when dealing in the shares of the Company.

EGM

The Company will convene an EGM for the Independent Shareholders to consider and, if thought fit, approve by way of poll, the Sale and Purchase Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereunder. A notice convening the EGM to be held at 29th Floor, The Centrium, 60 Wyndham Street, Central, Hong Kong on Wednesday, 27 December 2017 at 11:30 a.m. is set out on pages EGM-1 to EGM-2 of this circular.

Whether or not you are able to attend and/or vote at the EGM in person, you are requested to complete and return the accompanying form of proxy in accordance with the instructions printed thereon to the Company's share registrar and transfer office, Tricor Abacus Limited at Level 22, Hopewell Centre, 183 Queen's Road East, Hong Kong, as soon as possible and in any event not less than 48 hours before the time appointed for holding the EGM or any adjournment thereof. Completion and return of the form of proxy will not preclude you from subsequently attending and voting in person at the EGM or any adjournment thereof (as the case may be) should you so wish.

RECOMMENDATION

The Directors are of the view that the terms of the Sale and Purchase Agreement are fair and reasonable and the transactions contemplated thereunder are in the interests of the Company and the Shareholders as a whole and, recommend the Independent Shareholders to vote in favour of the relevant resolutions to be proposed at the EGM to approve the Sale and Purchase Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereunder.

Hong Kong, as a crucial part of the Chinese economy, is going to celebrate the 20th anniversary of the return of its sovereignty. China's "going global" strategy and the Belt and Road initiative exposes the financial markets in both mainland and Hong Kong to both opportunities and challenges. The Issuer will be highly alert of the changing economic situation, determinant while flexible in working towards our strategic goals, and proactive in grasping market opportunities and improving core competitiveness and profitability. The increase in ratio was mainly due to issuance of corporate bonds and convertible bonds during 2017. During 2017 and 2016, the Issuer has issued 2 years to 7.5 years and 1 year to 7 years corporate bonds with aggregate face value of HK$47,000,000 and HK$19,000,000 to 16 and 10 independent third parties respectively, net of direct expenses of approximately HK$6,769,000 and HK$3,772,000 respectively, their maturity dates are from January 2018 to April 2024 and carry interest at fixed rate of 6% to 7% per annum with interest payable on the date falling on each anniversary of the issue date and maturity date of the corporate bonds (both dates exclusive). Staff benefits include contributions to retirement benefit scheme, medical allowance and other fringe benefits. In addition, the Issuer maintains the share option scheme for the purpose of providing incentives and rewards to eligible participants based on their contributions.

Litigation

In April 2014, a writ of summons was issued by a third party in liquidation (the "Plaintiff") against Fortune (HK) Securities Limited ("F(HK)SL"), a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Issuer, in relation to HK$4,000,000 ("Sum") paid to F(HK)SL pursuant to a cheque issued by the Plaintiff in September 2009 which was transferred to a client's account maintained with F(HK)SL. The Plaintiff claimed that the Sum was money belonging to them and demanded for a refund of the Sum. As advised by the external legal adviser to the case, F(HK)SL has withheld the shares in client's account, pursuant to the terms and conditions of the client's agreement entered into between the client and F(HK)SL, F(HK)SL is entitled to set off or withhold any securities and monies held in the account against any liabilities owed by the client. Having considered the legal advice, the board of the Issuer believes that the said legal action does not have any material adverse impact on the Issuer's operation and financial position. There has not been any further action taken by the Plaintiff since June 2014.

For the year ended 31 March 2016Financial Review

For 2016, revenue of the Issuer amounted to approximately HK$49,207,000, representing an increase of approximately 9.15% from approximately HK$45,083,000 in 2015. The drop in net loss attributable to owners of the Issuer was mainly due to (1) there was impairment loss recognised for 2015 in respect of an amount due from a joint venture; (2) increase in reversal of impairment losses recognised in respect of trade receivables; (3) decrease in impairment losses recognised in respect of trade receivables; (4) net gain from disposal of loan receivable; and (5) increase in net gain recorded on listed securities trading, despite there has been a reduction of some segment revenue.

The basic and diluted loss per share of the Issuer for 2016 was approximately HK1.24 cents as compared with the basic and diluted loss per share of approximately HK4.58 cents in 2015.

Material Acquisition and Disposal

On 31 March 2016, Promiseasy Limited (“Promiseasy”), a direct wholly-owned subsidiary of the Issuer, entered into a sale and purchase agreement with Celestial Tycoon Limited (“Celestial Tycoon”), an independent third party, pursuant to which Promiseasy conditionally agreed to sell and Celestial Tycoon conditionally agreed to purchase 35% of the entire issued share capital of Measure Up International Limited (“Measure Up”) and the loan owed by Measure Up to Promiseasy for a consideration of HK$73,000,000.

Prospects

Shanghai-Hong Kong Stock Connect Scheme (the “SHK Connect”) is a key component to an increase of capital going south into the Hong Kong stock market. The SHK Connect has been running smoothly with recognised success since its launch in the year of 2015. Under the SHK Connect, the Hong Kong stock market serves as a good investment outlet for mainland investors to diversify their portfolios, and a gateway for mainland companies to expand their business.

The IPO market in Hong Kong remained active for the year of 2015 and inspired the trust of global investors. The market capitalisation in the year of 2015 was approximately HK$24,683.7 billion, which is approximately 1.55% slightly less than that of year of 2014 of approximately HK$25,071.8 billion. However, the funds raised through IPOs for the year of 2015 were around HK$263.1 billion with an increase of approximately 13.16% as compared with around HK$232.5 billion for the year of 2014. This presents Hong Kong still attract various companies to choose Hong Kong as their going public destination.

To capture this huge potential market pool, the Issuer allocated its resources in order to enhance its corporate finance and financial advisory services in the beginning of 2016. The Issuer expects this segment business will generate a synergy effect with the other businesses especially the business of brokerage and margin financing.

The Issuer strongly believes the corporate finance business will reclaim its ranking as the Issuer’s largest revenue in the near future. Meanwhile, the Issuer continued to sharpen its focus on the money lending business. The Issuer enhanced its financial strengths through financing exercises, and significantly expanded its lending capacity. Although the operating environment of money lending market was challenging due to weaker market sentiment and Hong Kong’s slowing economy, the Issuer anticipates the outlook of money lending shall not further worsen in the long run and non-bank money lenders still enjoy an edge of provision of flexible lending services. The Issuer will continue to strengthen the risk control on its money lending business and optimise the operation scale.

In the year of 2016, the Chinese government will, subject to market conditions, implement the Shenzhen-Hong Kong Stock Connect Scheme (the “SZHK Connect”) in due course. It is expected that the SZHK Connect will attract the inflow of more capital into the Hong Kong stock market and boost the transaction volume further, and will bring support to the Hong Kong stock market in the long term.

Looking ahead, the Issuer will continue to concentrate on developing brokerage and margin financing, proprietary trading, corporate finance and money lending as its core businesses, however, the Issuer will constantly explore and evaluate new business opportunities with cautiousness and prudence in order to generate quality returns for shareholders and strengthen the Issuer's business and financial positions.

Liquidity and Financial Resources and Gearing Ratio

During 2016, the Issuer mainly financed its operations by cash generated from operating activities and issuance of the corporate bonds. As at 31 March 2016, the Issuer's current assets and current liabilities were approximately HK$349,095,000 (as at 31 March 2015: approximately HK$374,252,000) and approximately HK$232,906,000 (as at 31 March 2015: approximately HK$225,603,000) respectively, while the current ratio was about 1.50 times (as at 31 March 2015: 1.66 times). Prospects

Despite the constantly changing stock market in Hong Kong, the impact of the slowdown of economic growth in the mainland China, the Issuer still holds a cautiously optimistic view on Hong Kong's economy as well as the prospects of the Issuer's business development and it is still confident that there is room for potential development.

In 2014, the CSRC and the SFC of Hong Kong have approved, in principle, the development through Shanghai-Hong Kong Stock Connect for establishing mutual stock market access between mainland China and Hong Kong.

The Shanghai-Hong Kong Stock Connect is an important step towards the opening up of the China capital market and will enhance capital market connectivity between mainland China and Hong Kong. Therefore, the Issuer expects that the performance of the stock market in Hong Kong and mainland China to be relatively optimistic and the programme might have a positive impact on the securities business of the Issuer.

The funds raised through IPOs for the year of 2014 were around HK$227,741 million and there was an increase of approximately 35% when compared with approximately HK$168,960 million for the year of 2013. The Issuer expects there will be an increase in our sponsorship business.

For expanding our money lending business, the Issuer has introduced the mortgage and factoring businesses in 2015. The Issuer expects the respective introduction will broaden the revenue base of the business of the Issuer.

Looking ahead, the Issuer will continue to concentrate on developing broking and margin financing, proprietary trading, corporate finance and money lending as its core businesses. The Issuer will stand firm against difficulties and challenges, make strategic adjustments according to the market trend and create more development and growth opportunities for the Issuer in order to enhance shareholder's value.

Dear Sirs,

RE: VALUATION IN RESPECT OF HK$153,585,000 2% CONVERTIBLE BONDS DUE 2020
ISSUED BY CHINA FORTUNE FINANCIAL GROUP LIMITED

In accordance with your instructions, we have undertaken a valuation on behalf of Value Convergence Holdings Limited (the “Investor”) to determine the Fair Value (to be defined as below) of HK$153,585,000 2% convertible bonds due 2020 (“CBs”) issued by China Fortune Financial Group Limited (the “Company”) as at 13 October 2017 (“Valuation Date”) regarding the sale and purchase agreement entered into between the Investor and Pacific Alliance Limited (the “Vendor”) on 18 October 2017 (the “Sale and Purchase Agreement”).

Purpose of Valuation and Standard of Value

The intended use of the valuation is to serve as basis for internal reference and compliance purpose. The ultimate transaction, if happens, and the corresponding acquisition prices would be the results of negotiations between the transacting parties. The responsibility for determining the agreed acquisition price of the Company rests solely on the Investor. The results of our analysis should not be construed to be a fairness opinion, solvency opinion or an investment recommendation. It is inappropriate to use our valuation report for purpose other than its intended use or by third parties. These third parties should conduct their own investigation and independent assessment of the Valuation and underlying assumptions. If the key assumptions are changed, the valuation result will have significant changes.

According to International Valuation Standard, our opinion of the Fair Value (renamed to equitable value subsequently from 2017) is defined as “the estimated price for the transfer of an asset or liability between identified knowledgeable and willing parties that reflects the respective interests of those parties”.

Scope of Work

Our valuation conclusion is based on the assumptions stated herein and information provided by the management of the Investor and/or its representative(s) (the “Management”).

In preparing this report, we have had discussions with the Management in relation to the terms and conditions of the CBs and other relevant information concerning the CBs. As part of our analysis, we have reviewed such financial information and other pertinent data concerning the CBs provided to us by the Management and have considered such information and data as accurate and reasonable.

We have no reason to believe that any material facts have been withheld from us. However, we do not warrant that our investigations have revealed all of the matters which an audit or more extensive examination might disclose.

Detail of CBs

Issue Date:	30 March 2017
Principal Amount:	HK$153,585,000
Interest Rate:	2% per annum (on the basis of a 365-day year, or a 366-day in a leap year) on the outstanding principal amount of the CBs which shall be payable on the maturity date of the CBs
Maturity Date:	The date falling on the third anniversary of the date of issue of the CBs
Conversion Price:	HK$0.06 per conversion share, subject to adjustments as set out and in accordance with the terms and conditions of the CBs

However, pursuant to the subscription agreement entered into between the Vendor and the Company dated 21 September 2016 as amended and supplemented by a supplemental agreement dated 22 November 2016, the Vendor shall not exercise the conversion rights attached to the CBs for a period of 24 months from the date of the issue of the CBs (i.e. for the period from 30 March 2017 up to 29 March 2019 (both days inclusive)). Subject to the foregoing, the Investor shall have absolute discretion in determining whether to exercise the put option during the Put Option Period.

On the exercise of the put option, the Vendor shall be bound to purchase and the Investor shall be bound to sell such amount of CBs as specified in the put option notice to the extent of the principal amount of HK$76,792,500.

Valuation Methodology

The valuation of CBs is mainly based on the closing price of the share of the Company as at the Valuation Date. It is assumed that the closing price of the Company is fair and appropriate as at the Valuation Date. The value of CBs is considered to be divided into three components, namely 1) bond value; 2) conversion option value; and 3) put option of the bondholder.

Bond value of CBs:

The methodology applied in valuing the bond value is similar to the valuation of a 3 years 2% interest-bearing CBs with maturity value at 100% of the principal amount. The cash flow for the bond value is the recovery of the CBs’ redemption value and annual coupons. Thus, the bond value of the CBs is simply the present value of all the cash flows if the CBs conversion is not exercised.

Conversion option of CBs:

For the valuation of conversion feature of the CBs, we have adopted the binomial (Cox, Ross, Rubinstein) option pricing model (“Binomial Model”) to assess the Fair Value of the whole CBs feature as at the Valuation Date. The conversion option value is equal to the difference between the value of whole CBs and the bond value.

Put option of the bondholder:

For the valuation of put option of the bondholder, we have adopted the Binomial Model to assess Fair Value of 50% of the whole CBs (i.e. HK$76,792,500) with the put option of the bondholder and 50% of the whole CBs without any put option feature. The difference between CBs with the put option of the bondholder and CBs without any put option feature represents the Fair Value of put option of the bondholder.

Under Binomial Model, the underlying assets can take on only two possible discrete values in the next time period for each value that it can take on in the preceding time period.

The Binomial Model breaks down the time to expiration into potentially a very large number of time intervals or steps. A tree of stock prices is initially produced working forward from the present to expiration. At each step it is assumed that the stock price will move up or down by an amount calculated using volatility and time to expiration. This produces a binomial distribution, or recombining tree, of underlying stock prices. The tree represents all the possible paths that the stock price could take during the life of the option.

The sizes of the upward and downward movements are defined as functions of the volatility and the length of the “steps” in the Binomial Model:

$$U = \text{size of the up-move factor} = e^{\sigma\sqrt{t}}$$

$$D = \text{size of the down-move factor} = 1/U$$

Where:

σ = annual volatility of the underlying asset’s returns

t = the length of the step in the Binomial Model

The risk-neutral probabilities of upward and downward movements are then calculated as follows:

$$\pi_u = \text{probability of an up-move} = (e^{(r-d)t} - D)/(U - D)$$

$$\pi_d = \text{probability of a down-move} = 1 - \pi_u$$

Where:

e = exponential term

r = continuously compounded annual risk-free rate

d = continuously compounded dividend yield

At the end of the tree, i.e. at expiration of the CBs, all the terminal CBs prices for each of the final possible stock prices are known as they simply equal their intrinsic values.

Next, the underlying stock prices at each step of the tree are calculated working back from expiration to the present. The underlying stock prices at each step are used to derive the stock prices at the next step of the tree using risk neutral valuation based on the probabilities of the stock prices moving up or down, the risk-free rate and the time interval of each step. Any adjustments to stock prices (at an ex-dividend date) or conversion prices (as a result of early exercise of american options) are worked into the calculations at the required point in time. At the top of the tree you are left with one price, i.e. Fair Value of the CBs. The Fair Value of the CBs will be calculated as the probability-weighted expected value of the CBs at maturity discounted at the risk-free rate and/or the Company’s borrowing rate/effective interest rate.

APPENDIX IV VALUATION REPORT ON THE CONVERTIBLE BONDS

As the value of the CBs is dependent on assumptions and information in deriving their Fair Value, we have taken into consideration of the following factors:

	13 October 2017
Share price of the Company	HK$0.203
Conversion price of the Company	HK$0.06
Expected volatility of the Company	69%
Hong Kong risk-free rate	0.99%
Borrowing rate/effective interest rate of the Company	9%
Borrowing rate/effective interest rate of the Vendor	18%
Life of the CBs	2.46 years
Expected ordinary dividend yield	Nil
Dilution effect	63%

Determination of effective interest rate of the Company:

We have assessed the credit rating of the Company and used bond yield of comparable companies with similar credit rating to determine the effective interest rate of the Company as at the Valuation Date.

In assessing the credit rating of the Company, we have taken into consideration the following ratios/analysis:

- EBIT interest coverage (x);
- Adjusted EBITDA interest coverage (x);
- FFO/total debt (%);
- Free operating cash flow/total debt (%);
- Total debt/Adjusted EBITDA (x);
- Return on capital (%);
- Total debt/total debt + equity (%);
- Adjusted EBITDA margin; and
- Discretionary cash flow to total debt.

Based on our review of 2017 annual financial statements of the Company and discussion with the Management, the credit rating of the Company is arrived. We have derived the effective interest rate/borrowing rate of the Company according to average of the bond yields of the comparable companies with similar businesses and credit ratings of the Company;

We have been provided with extracts of copies of relevant documents and financial information relating to the Company and the CBs. We have relied upon the aforesaid information in forming our opinion of the Fair Value for the CBs. However, we have not inspected the original documents to ascertain any amendments which may not appear on the copies handed to us. We have no reason to doubt the truth and accuracy of the said information which is material to the valuation. We have also been advised by the Investor that no material facts have been omitted from the information provided. We have also made relevant inquiries and obtained further information as necessary for the purpose of this valuation.

APPENDIX IV VALUATION REPORT ON THE CONVERTIBLE BONDS

While we have exercised our professional knowledge and cautions in adopting assumptions and other relevant key factors in our valuation, those factors and assumptions are still vulnerable to the change of the business, economic environment, competitive uncertainties or any other abrupt alternations of external factors.

Sensitivity Test

To determine how the different values of an independent variable would impact a particular dependent variable under a given set of assumptions, we have carried out sensitivity analyses on the Fair Value of the CBs in respect of changes in the discount rate and share price of the Company used in the valuation model. The results of the sensitivity analyses were as follows:

Absolute change in discount rate	Applied discount rate	Fair Value of the CBs HK$'000
+2%	11%	431,988
+1%	10%	432,363
+0%	9%	432,756
-1%	8%	433,153
-2%	7%	433,567

Change in share price of the Company	Applied share price of the Company per share HK$	Fair Value of the CBs HK$'000
+10%	0.223	462,658
+5%	0.213	450,789
+0%	0.203	432,756
-5%	0.193	416,928
-10%	0.183	402,409

Source of Information

Our valuation considered and relied on some key information as follows:

- The terms and conditions of the CBs provided by the Management;
- Annual reports, announcement, etc of the Company as sourced from the website of the Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited;
- Standard & Poor's research information; and
- Market data as sourced from Bloomberg.

Assumptions

Notwithstanding the incorporation of foreseeable changes in our valuation, a number of assumptions have been made in the preparation of the reported assessed figures. The major assumptions are:

- We assumed that the risk-free rate is equal to the yield of Hong Kong government bonds over the exercise period near the Valuation Date;
- The volatilities measured at the standard deviation of expected share price returns is based on statistical analysis of weekly closing share prices of the Company over past few years preceding the Valuation Date. The calculation is based on the assumption that there is no material difference between the expected volatility over the whole life of the CBs and the historical volatility of the Company;
- According to our review and analysis of the Company's latest annual report, the effective interest rate/borrowing rate of the Company represented 9% as at the Valuation Date, which is according to the bond yields of the companies with similar businesses of the Company. We have assumed that the effective interest rate fairly represented the borrowing capacity of the Company as at the Valuation Date;
- As advised by the Investor, the interest rate of a commercial loan lent to Mr. Yip Sum Yin (Mr. Yip Sum Yin owns 90% equity interest of Best Fortress Limited which is the parent company of the Vendor) by VC Finance Limited, a wholly owned subsidiary of the Investor, is 1.5% per month. Therefore, we consider that the effective interest rate of the Vendor is 18% per annum;
- It is assumed that risk-free rate, effective interest rate, dividend yield and volatility will be kept constant throughout the valuation period;
- Number of trading weeks per year is 52;
- The Company will have full capacity in meeting the liabilities arising from the CBs at the maturity date and credit risk involved will be negligible;
- For calculation of bond value of the CBs, the bondholder will either fully convert the CBs or hold the CBs until the maturity date;
- The discount rate/effective interest rate is assumed to be constant during the conversion period of the CBs; and
- In the event of CBs are not exercised within the conversion period, the bondholder will hold the CBs until the maturity date of the CBs.

Limiting Conditions

We have relied to a considerably extent on the information provided by the Investor. We are not in a position to, nor have been instructed to, comment on the lawfulness of the businesses and the Company's possession of the assets or liabilities. In the course of our valuation, we have assumed that the Company and the CBs have obtained all required registration and are freely transferable in the market without any legal obstacles.

In accordance with our standard practice, we must state that this report and valuation is for internal reference and compliance purposes and the use only of the party to whom it is addressed and no responsibility is accepted to any third party for the whole or any part of its contents.

Neither the whole, nor any part of this report and valuation, nor any reference thereto may be included in any documents, circular or statement without our written approval of the form and context in which it will appear.

Management Confirmation of Facts

A draft of this report and respective calculation has been sent to Management. They have reviewed and orally confirmed to us that facts as stated in this report are accurate in all material respects and that they are not aware of any material matters relevant to our engagement which have been excluded.

Remarks

Unless otherwise stated, all money amounts are stated in Hong Kong Dollars.

This report is issued subject to our Assumptions and Limiting Conditions as attached.

The English text of this report shall prevail over the Chinese text in case of any inconsistency.

Opinion of the Value

In arriving at our opinion of value, we have relied upon a number of assumptions that are subjective and uncertain in nature. Any variation of these assumptions could affect the value of the CBs.

Based on the investigation and analysis stated above and on the method employed, we are of the opinion that the Fair Value of the CBs as at Valuation Date was reasonably stated as HK$432,756,000.

Yours faithfully,

APAC Asset Valuation and Consulting Limited

(II) Notes to the Unaudited Pro Forma Consolidated Statement of Assets and Liabilities

1. The assets and liabilities of the Group are extracted from the unaudited condensed consolidated statement of financial position of the Group as at 30 June 2017 as set out in the published interim report of the Group for the six months ended 30 June 2017.

2. Pursuant to the Sale and Purchase Agreement entered into on 18 October 2017 with the Vendor, the Company has contractually agreed to purchase and the Vendor has contractually agreed to dispose of the 3-year 2% unsecured redeemable convertible bonds of a principal amount of HK$153,585,000 (the “Convertible Bonds”) issued by China Fortune Financial Group Limited (the “Issuer”) (the “Acquisition”). The Acquisition is settled by cash consideration of HK$40,000,000 and issuance of convertible bonds with a principal amount of HK$360,000,000 of the Company (the “Consideration Convertible Bonds”) to the Vendor.

Convertible Bonds

The Convertible Bonds have a conversion option which grants the holders the right to convert the Convertible Bonds into shares of the Issuer at a conversion price of HK$0.06 per share. Should the principal amount of the Convertible Bonds be converted at HK$0.06 per share into the shares of the Issuer, the Company would hold 26.54% of the enlarged share capital of the Issuer upon full conversion of the Convertible Bonds based on the outstanding shares of the Issuer as of 18 October 2017. Under the Hong Kong Accounting Standard 28 “Investments in Associates and Joint Ventures”, the equity interest of 26.54% is presumed to have a significant influence on the investee. Accordingly, upon full conversion of all Convertible Bonds, the resulting investment in the Issuer would become an investment in associate, assuming there is no change in the outstanding number of shares issued by the Issuer from 30 June 2017 to the date of conversion. However, pursuant to the subscription agreement entered into between the Vendor and the Issuer dated 21 September 2016 as amended and supplemented by a supplemental agreement dated 22 November 2016, the Convertible Bonds could not be converted until 30 March 2019. The Company has agreed in the Sale and Purchase Agreement that it will provide an undertaking to the Issuer on completion that the Company shall not exercise the conversion rights attaching to the Convertible Bonds from the Completion Date (as defined in the circular), up to and including 29 March 2019. Therefore, the management recognised and classified the Convertible Bonds as, on 30 June 2017, financial assets designated at fair value through profit or loss.

According to the valuation report prepared by APAC Asset Valuation and Consulting Limited (“APAC”), an independent professional valuer, the fair value of the Convertible Bonds as at 30 June 2017 is approximately HK$592,462,000. The fair value of the Convertible Bonds is measured by a valuation technique which is subject to estimates and judgment and may be significantly different as at the Completion Date. In particular, the pro forma financial information has not taken into account the convertible bondholder’s restriction to transfer converted shares in a period of twelve months from date of issue of the Convertible Bonds as it is expected that such restriction would expire shortly after the Completion Date, and the impact of which is likely to be insignificant on the actual date of completion. Therefore, for simplicity and for the purpose of preparation of this pro forma financial information, the financial impact of the restriction as at 30 June 2017 was disregarded.

Put Option

In return for the Company's undertaking to the Issuer that the Company shall not exercise the conversion rights attaching to the Convertible Bonds from the Completion Date up to and including 29 March 2019 as mentioned above, the Vendor grants to the Company a put option to require the Vendor to purchase from the Company the Put Option Convertible Bonds (as defined in the circular) to the extent of the principal amount of HK$76,792,500, at 2.604421 times the principal amount of the Put Option Convertible Bonds. According to the valuation report prepared by APAC, the fair value of the Put Option (as defined in the circular) as at 30 June 2017 is approximately HK$29,039,000. The fair value of the Put Option is measured by a valuation technique which is subject to estimates and judgment and may be significantly different as at the Completion Date.

Consideration Convertible Bonds

The Consideration Convertible Bonds includes no contractual obligation for the Company to deliver a variable number of its own equity instruments upon conversion of the Consideration Convertible Bonds and therefore separation of the instrument into its liability and equity components is made upon initial recognition under Hong Kong Accounting Standard 32. Details of the terms of the Consideration Convertible Bonds are set out in pages 8-12 in the circular. According to the valuation report prepared by APAC, the fair value of the Consideration Convertible Bonds as at 30 June 2017 is approximately HK$360,150,000. The Consideration Convertible Bonds consist of debt component of approximately HK$236,615,000 and conversion option of approximately HK$123,535,000 which are classified as liability and equity components respectively. The fair value of the Consideration Convertible Bonds is measured by a valuation technique which is subject to estimates and judgment and may be significantly different as at the Completion Date.

Summary of the valuations prepared by APAC

- (i) Convertible Bonds in the principal amount of HK$153,585,000

The fair value of the Convertible Bonds as at 30 June 2017 was calculated using the binomial (Cox, Ross, Rubinstein) option pricing model ("Binomial Model"), in which the parameters were summarised as follows:

	As at 30 June 2017
Share price of the Issuer	HK$0.225
Effective interest rate of the Issuer	9%
Risk-free rate	0.83%
Expected volatility of the Issuer	77%
Dividend yield of the Issuer	0%

The effective interest rate of the Issuer was determined with reference to the average of the bond yields of the comparable companies with similar businesses and credit rating of the Issuer. Risk-free rate was determined with reference to yield of 2.75 years Hong Kong government bonds as at the valuation date of 30 June 2017. Expected volatility was determined using the historical volatility of the Issuer's share price over the previous 2.75 years.

Based on the above, the fair values of the Convertible Bonds and the Put Option held by the Company are approximately HK$592,462,000 and HK$29,039,000 respectively.

(ii) Consideration Convertible Bonds in the principal amount of HK$360,000,000

The fair value of the Consideration Convertible Bonds as at 30 June 2017 was calculated using the Binomial Model, in which the parameters were summarised as follows:

As at 30 June 2017

Share price of the Company	HK$1.11
Effective interest rate of the Company	15%
Risk-free rate	0.85%
Expected volatility of the Company	68%
Dividend yield of the Company	0%

The effective interest rate of the Company was determined with reference to the average of the bond yields of the comparable companies with similar businesses and credit rating of the Company. Risk-free rate was determined with reference to yield of 3 years Hong Kong government bonds as at the valuation date of 30 June 2017. Expected volatility was determined using the historical volatility of the Company's share price over the previous 3 years.

Based on the above, the fair value of the Consideration Convertible Bonds is approximately HK$360,150,000.

The deferred tax liability relating to the imputed effective interest of the Consideration Convertible Bonds amounted to approximately HK$20,383,000, which is calculated at the Hong Kong Profits Tax rate of 16.5%.

The difference of approximately HK$221,351,000 between the aggregate fair value of the Convertible Bonds and the Put Option and the aggregate of cash consideration of HK$40,000,000 and fair value of the Consideration Convertible Bonds issued by the Company is recognised as a gain in the profit or loss on 30 June 2017.

3. No adjustment has been made to the Unaudited Pro Forma Financial Information for acquisition-related costs (including fees to legal advisers, reporting accountants, printers and other expense) as the Directors determined that such costs are insignificant.
4. No adjustments have been made to reflect any trading results or other transactions of the Company entered into subsequent to 30 June 2017.

The following is the text of the independent reporting accountants' assurance report received from Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu, Certified Public Accountants Hong Kong, the reporting accountants' of the Company in respect of the Group's unaudited pro forma financial information prepared for the purpose of incorporation in this circular.
