This announcement is made by Wise Source International Limited (the “Bonds Issuer”) and the CEFC Shanghai International Group Limited (the “Guarantor”) pursuant to Rule 37.47A of the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (the “Listing Rules”).

NON-PAYMENT OF INTEREST ON THE 2017 FIRST MEDIUM-TERM NOTES

The Bonds Issuer, an indirect subsidiary of the Guarantor issued an aggregate principal amount of U.S.$250,000,000 5.95 per cent guaranteed bonds due 2018 guaranteed by the Guarantor.

The Guarantor issued an aggregate principal amount of RMB2,500,000,000 7.88 per cent 2017 first medium-term notes due 2020 (17沪华信MTN001 , Note code: 101788002) (the “Notes”).

The Notes bear interest from and including 21 June 2017 at the rate of 7.88 per cent per annum, payable annually in arrears. The Guarantor failed to make a scheduled interest payment of RMB 197,000,000.00 which was due on 21 June 2018(the “Interests Payment Date”) (the “Payment Default”). The Guarantor has issued a public announcement on 21 June 2018 in relation to the Payment Default. Shanghai Clearing House has also published an announcement on 21 June 2018 in relation to the Payment Default of the Guarantor.

The Payment Default has triggered an event of default under the Notes (“Event of Default”). The Payment Default and Event of Default have also triggered cross-defaults under the Bonds to which the Guarantor is a party (“Cross Defaults”) which may in turn have material adverse impact on the financial position of the Bonds Issuer.

The Bonds Issuer is currently assessing the impact of the above Event of Default and Cross Defaults. If there is any further information, an announcement will be issued in a timely manner.

REASONS FOR THE NON-PAYMENT OF INTEREST ON THE 2017 FIRST MEDIUM-TERM NOTES

Due to the tightening in credit conditions in the PRC and adverse media coverage, there has been a material adverse effect on the Guarantor’s business operations.

While the Guarantor anticipates it will continue its business operations as usual, the Bonds Issuer and the Guarantor are working with all relevant stakeholders to remedy the Event of Default and the Cross Defaults as soon as possible. The Guarantor proposes to repay the accrued interest of the Notes in six months subsequent to the Interests Payment Date.
