MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

Summary

The Group achieved high growth for the six months ended 30 June 2018, riding on the healthy domestic automotive market development. In spite of lower seasonal first half year compared to full year, total revenue for the Group increased by 49% year-on-year, contributed strongly by the revenue growth of New Energy at 110% for the same period. Other revenue segments in Safety, Body control and Powertrain grew at above 20-30% year-on-year while Industrial segments grew above 120% although at a lower base. The Group's gross profit margin grew slightly for the same period to 21.1% and achieved a net profit margin of 7.9%, 0.7 percentage points higher than the same period last year and a growth of profit for the Period at 63% year-on-year. Excluding one-time IPO expenses, net profit margin was 8.7%, 1.5 percentage points above last year and a growth of profit for the Period at 79% year-on-year. The Group continued to invest in R&D at 5.4% of revenue for the Period.

Business Review

In the first half of 2018, the automotive market in the People's Republic of China (the "PRC") continued to deliver healthy growth supported by a stable economic environment. According to the data published by China Association of Automobile Manufacturers, sales volume of passenger vehicles in the PRC was 11.775 million during the Period, representing a growth of 4.64% year-on-year and 43.4% of this number were China-branded vehicles. The market also recorded an encouraging 70% year-on-year sales volume growth in new energy passenger vehicles during the Period, far higher than the overall sales volume growth of the automotive market.

As a fast-growing automotive electronics solution provider in the PRC, our business performance continued to benefit from the overall industry expansion, in particular the strong growth in the sales of new energy vehicles. Nevertheless, the Group still worked hard to make new progress, enabling it to deliver an outstanding business performance. For the six months ended 30 June 2018, the Group's revenue rose by 49% to RMB875.8 million, continuing to maintain satisfactory growth that outperformed the market. Its gross profit margin increased slightly to 21.1%. Backed by the high revenue growth and a stable cost structure, the Group's profit attributable to owners of the Company grew substantially by 63% to RMB69.0 million.

All of the Group's electronics solution products, including new energy, body control, safety, powertrain and industrial solutions, recorded growth in revenue during the Period under review. In particular, revenue from new energy solutions achieved a high substantial year-on-year growth of 110% to RMB227.2 million and became the Group's key business growth driver as fueled by the rapid growth of advanced solutions including battery management systems (BMS), vehicle control units (VCU) and motor control units (MCU). During the Period, the Group's key customers continued to comprise automotive makers and brands that manufacture motors vehicles ("OEMs") in the PRC, including the top ten renowned Chinese new energy passenger vehicles brands, such as BYD and BAIC BJEV.

In the first half of 2018, the Group provided 161 solutions to customers, representing an increase of 10 solutions compared to the corresponding period last year. The Group's comprehensive solutions portfolio also enables it to stand out in the market.

Research and development ("R&D") is a key component of the Group's business model. The Group devoted major efforts to investing in R&D during the Period under review, raising R&D costs by 33% year-on-year to RMB47.1 million and increasing R&D investment by RMB11.8 million when compared to the corresponding period last year. As at 30 June 2018, the Group had 294 full time R&D-related professionals, making up 63% of its total number of employees. The Group also secured 3 patents and 8 software copyrights during the Period.

In addition to the new energy vehicle segment, the Group has also put more focus of R&D investment on automated driving solutions (ADAS). During the Period under review, the Group increased the headcount of the R&D team dedicated to the automated driving sector from 43 to 75. Based on its original solid technology foundation, the Group is currently developing a number of automated driving-related product technology solutions, including the high-performance automated driving central processing unit, 77GHz millimeter-wave radar, monocamera-based driver monitoring system and sensor integrated solutions meeting the ASIL-B level integrated sensor fusion solutions.

In addition, the Group has made smooth progress in the automated driving controller development project in cooperation with TTTech Computertechnik AG for the Chinese OEMs customer. The group is also actively expanding the provision of technical services and ADAS solution to other OEMs in the PRC.

Outlook

The PRC's automotive market is expected to maintain its growth. According to an industry report prepared by Frost & Sullivan, an independent industry consultant, the production volume of automobiles in the PRC is expected to increase from 29 million in 2017 to 39.7 million in 2022, a CAGR of 6.5%. Production volume of new energy vehicles in the country will experience an even faster CAGR of 34.9%. The automotive electronic component market in the PRC is expected to increase from RMB577.5 billion in 2017 to RMB996.8 billion in 2022, representing a CAGR of 11.5%. The expected CAGR of the automotive electronic components market for new energy vehicles from 2017 to 2022 will reach as high as 42.0%, indicating that the Group is on the right development path.

Drawing on the long term cooperative relationships with customers, a comprehensive product portfolio and strong R&D capabilities and product pipeline, the Group is confident of capturing the business opportunities in the PRC's automotive market and realizing further business growth. The Group has been investing in the new energy vehicle solutions-related technologies with first product solution developed since 2009. The resulting first-mover advantage is believed to help the Group grasp the market's rapid expansion and support the rate of its business growth to exceed that of the overall market.

The Company's issued ordinary shares (the "Shares") have been listed on the Main Board of the Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (the "Stock Exchange") since 12 July 2018 (the "Listing"). The Listing has not only provided capital for business development, but also facilitated expansion into capital markets and enhanced the Group's reputation, thereby laying a solid foundation for its future business development.

Looking ahead, the Group will continue to improve its new energy vehicle solutions to enhance market penetration and strengthen its R&D capability, including developing its core technology platform and maintaining its competitive edge in addressing market trends proactively. In addition, the Group will make a greater investment in developing automated driving solutions and actively exploring acquisition and strategic partnership opportunities. Its objective is to become the preferred automotive electronics solution provider of OEMs and their suppliers in the PRC and occupy dominant market share. Such efforts will also help the Group maintain sustainable growth and bring satisfactory returns to the shareholders of the Company (the "Shareholders").

FINANCIAL REVIEW

Revenue

For the six months ended 30 June 2018, total revenue increased by around 49% or RMB287.8 million from approximately RMB588.0 million in the same period last year to approximately RMB875.8 million. The increase was mainly driven by increased sales of the Group's solutions, in particular for applications in the new energy category.

The following table sets out the Group's revenue breakdown by product category during the indicated period:

	Six months ended 30 June
(RMB thousands)	2018	2017	Increase
New Energy	227,186	107,969	110%
Safety	191,826	146,809	31%
Body Control	188,615	155,318	21%
Powertrain	111,114	86,130	29%
Industrial	101,419	44,488	128%
Rendering of services & Others	55,676	47,317	18%
Total	875,836	588,031	49%

Gross Profit

Gross profit for the six months ended 30 June 2018 increased by approximately 52% (higher than the proportion of sales growth) year-on-year to approximately RMB185.0 million, which was mainly due to the increase in income resulting from solutions sales growth, in particular for the applications in the new energy category. The Group's overall gross profit margin for the six months ended 30 June 2018 increased slightly to 21.1%.

Other Income and Gains

The Group's other income and gains mainly included government grants, bank interest income, exchange gains and others. For the six months ended 30 June 2018, other income and gains decreased by 44% to approximately RMB4.3 million. Among which, government grants increased by approximately RMB2.4 million when compared to the same period last year which offset part of the impact of the absence of net exchange gains during the Period.

Sales and Distribution Expenses

Sales and distribution expenses mainly consist of salaries and benefits for staff, transportation and insurance costs, maintenance and repair expenses, travelling expenses, office utility expenses, marketing and advertising expenses, and depreciation costs. During the Period under review, the Group's sales and distribution expenses amounted to approximately RMB18.7 million, representing an increase of 14% as compared to the corresponding period in 2017. The higher expenses was mainly due to the increase in 12 headcount of sales staff leading to approximately RMB1.5 million increase in salaries when compared to the same period last year. The growth in expenses was also due to the approximately RMB0.8 million increase in relevant logistics costs resulting from the growth in business volume.

Administrative Expenses

Administrative expenses mainly consist of (a) research and development expenses and (b) other administration expenses including salaries and benefits for the management, administrative and financial personnel, administrative costs, customization and development expenses, depreciation expenses relating to property, plant and equipment used for administrative purposes, amortization expenses for the management information systems, other taxes and levies, and Listing expenses.

During the Period under review, administrative expenses amounted to approximately RMB77.6 million, representing an increase of 39% as compared to the corresponding period in 2017. Among which, (a) research and development expenses increased by 33% to approximately RMB47.1 million, which was mainly attributable to the increase in the headcount of the research and development team from 211 in the same period last year to 294; and (b) Other administrative expenses increased by 50%, which was mainly due to the Listing expenses of approximately RMB7.0 million generated in the same period of 2018, increase in staff headcount added approximately RMB1.0 million to salary expenses and rentals of newly-added facilities increased by approximately RMB1.2 million.

Other Expenses

Other expenses mainly consist of net exchange losses, loss on disposal of fixed assets and bank fees. This expenses are at about the same level compared to the same period in 2017. During the Period under review, other expenses was made up of net exchange losses and in 2017 was due to loss on disposal of fixed assets.

Finance Costs

During the Period under review, finance costs amounted to approximately RMB11.6 million, representing an increase of 71% as compared to the corresponding period in 2017, which was mainly due to the relatively significant increase of interest on loans and interest on discounted notes incurred to support a bigger business.

Income Tax Expense

During the Period under review, income tax expense amounted to approximately RMB9.6 million, representing an increase of 64% as compared to the corresponding period in 2017, which was mainly due to an increase of profit.

Profit for the Period

As a result of the above factors, the Group's profit for the Period increased by approximately 63% from approximately RMB42.4 million for the six months ended 30 June 2017 to approximately RMB69.0 million for the six month ended 30 June 2018. Without considering one-off IPO expenses, the Group's profit for the Period increased by 79% compared to same period last year.

LIQUIDITY AND FINANCIAL RESOURCES

During the Period under review, the Group continued to maintain a satisfactory and healthy liquidity position. As at 30 June 2018, the Group had cash and cash equivalents of approximately RMB164.2 million (30 June 2017: approximately RMB48.4 million).

CONTINGENT LIABILITIES

As at 30 June 2018, the Group did not have any significant contingent liabilities.

FOREIGN EXCHANGE EXPOSURE

The Group primarily operates in the PRC with a mixed currency revenue source. It is therefore exposed to foreign currency risk arising from fluctuations in exchange rates between the RMB and other currencies in which it conducts its business. The Group is subject to foreign currency risk attributable to its bank balances, trade and other receivables and payables as well as bank loans that are denominated in currencies other than the RMB. The Group seeks to limit its exposure to foreign currency risk by minimizing its net foreign currency position. The Group also minimizes loss caused by foreign exchange fluctuations through cost transfer by adjusting prices offered to customers and considers supplementing with foreign exchange forward contracts when necessary.

During the Period under review, the Group had not entered into any foreign exchange forward contracts or used any derivative contracts to hedge related risk. The Group will closely monitor the change in foreign exchange rates to manage currency risks and consider necessary actions as required.

EMPLOYEES AND REMUNERATION POLICIES

As at 30 June 2018, the Group had 467 employees (30 June 2017: 352 employees). The Group's labor costs (including salaries, bonuses, social security, provident fund and share award scheme) were approximate RMB54.6 million, equivalent to 6% of the Group's revenue in the Period under review.

The Group provides attractive salary packages, including competitive basic salary plus annual performance bonus, as well as arranging on-going special training to employees to facilitate their promotion within the organization and enhance their loyalty to the Company. The Group's employees are subject to regular work performance appraisal to evaluate their promotion prospects and salary. The latter is decided with reference to market practice and the performance, qualifications and experience of the individual employee as well as the Group.

As at 30 June 2018, the Group had not issued or allotted any awarded shares. This will be considered in the near future to enhance company attractiveness in compensation as well as motivation for employee performance and retention.

PURCHASE, SALE OR REDEMPTION OF THE COMPANY'S LISTED SECURITIES

As the Company was not yet listed on the Stock Exchange for the six months ended 30 June 2018, neither the Company nor any of its subsidiaries has purchased, sold or redeemed any listed securities of the Company during the six months ended 30 June 2018.

7. INCOME TAX

The Group is subject to income tax on an entity basis on profits arising in or derived from the jurisdictions in which the subsidiaries of the Group are domiciled and operate.

The Company was incorporated in the Cayman Islands as an exempted company with limited liability under the Companies Law of the Cayman Islands and accordingly is not subject to income tax.

Pursuant to the relevant tax law of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region, Hong Kong profits tax has been provided at the rate of 16.5% on the estimated assessable profits arising in Hong Kong for the Period.

The provision for current income tax in Mainland China is based on a statutory tax rate of 25% of the assessable profits of the PRC subsidiaries of the Group as determined in accordance with the PRC Corporate Income Tax Law.

Shanghai Intron Electronics Company Limited ("Shanghai Intron") and Shanghai G-Pulse Electronics Technology Company Limited, two subsidiaries of the Group are qualified as High and New Technology Enterprises and were subject to a preferential income tax rate of 15% for the Period.

The major components of income tax expense of the Group are analysed as follows:

	Unaudited
	Six months ended 30 June

8. DIVIDENDS

The Directors did not recommend the payment of a dividend by the Company for the six months ended 30 June 2018.

On 3 June 2017 and 18 January 2018, Intron Technology (China) Limited, a subsidiary of the Group, declared and approved a dividend of US$3,860,000 (equivalent to RMB26,238,000) and US$6,200,000 (equivalent to RMB39,929,000) to the then shareholders respectively.

On 25 January 2018, Shanghai Intron declared and approved a dividend of RMB100,000,000 to the then shareholders.

9. EARNINGS PER SHARE

(a) Basic earnings per share

The calculation of the basic earnings per share is based on the profit attributable to owners of the Company for the six months ended 30 June 2018 of RMB69,049,000 (2017: RMB42,400,000) and the weighted average of 750,000,000 ordinary shares (2017: 750,000,000 ordinary shares) on the assumption that the Reorganization set out in "Reorganization" to the Prospectus (the "Reorganization") and the Capitalization Issue as detailed in note 14, have been completed on 1 January 2017.

(b) Diluted earnings per share

There were no potential dilutive shares in existence during the six months ended 30 June 2018 and 2017 and, therefore, diluted earnings per share are the same as the basic earnings per share.
