“Implication

As a result, it is possible that if a CAP Shareholder (excluding Onger Investments) or Convertible Noteholder (excluding Peony Finance) (as the case may be) tenders all his/her/its CAP Shares or Convertible Notes (as the case may be) for acceptance under the Partial Offers, not all of such securities will be taken up. CAP Shareholders (excluding Onger Investments) and Convertible Noteholders (excluding Peony Finance) can, however, be assured that, in the event the Partial Share Offer becomes unconditional in all respects, a minimum of approximately 65.21% of the CAP Shares and approximately 76.69% of the outstanding principal amount of the Convertible Notes (as the case may be) (assuming there are no changes to the issued share capital of CAP after the Announcement Date) tendered for acceptance by a particular CAP Shareholder (excluding Onger Investments) and Convertible Noteholder (excluding Peony Finance) (as the case may be) under the Partial Offers will be taken up.”

“LISTING STATUS

The Offeror intends to maintain the listing status of CAP on the Stock Exchange upon completion of the Partial Offers. As at the Announcement Date, CAP has a public float of approximately 79.83% of the CAP Shares in issue. In the event the Partial Offers become unconditional, upon completion of the Partial Offers, it is expected that the Offeror and parties acting in concert with it will be holding at least 50.01% and not more than 75% in CAP. CAP will continue to have a public float of at least 25% of the CAP Shares in issue immediately following completion of the Partial Offers (assuming there are no changes to the issued share capital of CAP after the Announcement Date) and accordingly the number of CAP Shares in public hands will continue to meet the public float requirement under Rule 8.08 of the Listing Rules.”

“Analysis on the Partial Share Offer Price

The Partial Share Offer Price of HK$0.091 per CAP Share represents an approximately 25.41% discount to the unaudited consolidated net asset value per CAP Share attributable to owners of CAP as at 30 June 2019. It also represents a premium of approximately 28.17% over the highest closing price of CAP Share of HK$0.071 as quoted on the Stock Exchange for the past one year. In view of the positive prospects of CAP as aforementioned, the Offeror considers that the Partial Share Offer Price, which is set at a premium to the market price of CAP demonstrates the Offeror’s confidence in the CAP Group, which would send a positive signal to CAP stakeholders including its staff and customers. In addition, the Partial Share Offer represents a good opportunity for the CAP Shareholders (other than EOG and its relevant wholly-owned subsidiary due to the EOG Irrevocable Undertaking) to realise at least approximately 65.21% (assuming there are no changes to the issued share capital of CAP after the Announcement Date) of their investment at a premium to the recent share price of the CAP Shares.”
