UPDATE ABOUT FALSE NEWS REPORTS (8)

Reference is made to the announcements (the “Announcements”) of China Innovation Investment Limited (the “Company”) about the false news reports dated 24 November 2019, 25 November 2019, 5 December 2019, 12 December 2019, 17 December 2019, 27 December 2019, 30 December 2019 and 17 February 2020. Unless otherwise defined, capitalised terms used in this announcement shall have the same meanings as those defined in the Announcements.

On 27 February 2020, the Company received a notice from executive Director Mr. Xiang Xin (“Mr. Xiang”) and the alternate Director Mrs. Kung Ching (“Mrs. Kung”), in which The Taipei District Court considered that the case was still under investigation, based on the purpose of preserving the investigation process smoothly, while reviewed public interest, proportionality principle and balanced maintenance of the rights and interests of Mr. Xiang and Mrs. Kung. It was held that the departure restrictions imposed by Prosecutor of Taipei District Prosecutors Office were preservation measures only limiting basic human rights slightly. When compared with public interest guaranteed by jurisdiction, though Mr. Xiang and Mrs. Kung suffered relatively mild damages to their basic human rights, it’s neither exceeded the necessary degree nor violated proportionality principle. Hence, the quasi-counterclaim for removing the Depart Restriction on Mr. Xiang and Mrs. Kung was objected again.

Recently Mr. Xiang and Mrs. Kung have commissioned Hong Kong lawyers to send a Letter for Help to Mr. John Lee Ka-chiu, the Secretary for Security Bureau, the Government of Hong Kong. Considering that false news reports were sourced from Australia, there is no criminal evidence, no criminal intentions and no major suspicions in this case, so the Hong Kong Government was requested to provide assistance pursuant to Article 12 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights. And the Taiwan Government was requested to implement the terms of this Covenant against the people of Hong Kong in Taiwan, for the effectively protection of basic human rights of the people of Hong Kong per this Covenant.

Apart from the aforesaid, the Company will make further announcements as to any material developments in this case or in accordance with other requirements of the Listing Rules.
