PROFIT WARNING

This announcement is made by Yanchang Petroleum International Limited (the “Company”, together with its subsidiaries, the “Group”) pursuant to Rule 13.09 of the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited and the Inside Information Provisions under Part XIVA of the Securities and Futures Ordinance (Chapter 571 of the Laws of Hong Kong).

The board of directors (the “Board”) of the Company would like to inform the shareholders of the Company and potential investors that based on the unaudited management accounts of the Group currently available, the Group is expected a loss of around HK$435 million for the year ended 31 December 2019, compared to a profit of around HK$6 million for the previous year.

The loss of the Group is mainly attributable to (i) the loss of around HK$59 million for the oil and gas production business in Canada due to the weak oil prices as a result of the U.S. – China trade dispute and the slowing global economy; (ii) the significant impairment provision amounted to around HK$334 million made for the oil and gas assets of the Group due to the slowing global demand caused by the outbreak and spread of the coronavirus and the depressed crude oil prices which would be expected to persist in 2020; and (iii) the convertible bonds interest of around HK$32 million.

As the Company is still in the process of finalising the annual results for year ended 31 December 2019, the information contained in this announcement is only based on the preliminary assessment of the Group’s unaudited management accounts which have not been audited or reviewed by the Company’s independent auditors, and may therefore be subject to necessary adjustments. Formal announcement of the Group’s audited annual results for the year ended 31 December 2019 shall be published on or about 26 March 2020.

Shareholders of the Company and potential investors should exercise caution when dealing in the securities of the Company.
