PROPOSED AMENDMENT AND EXTENSION OF MATURITY DATE OF CONVERTIBLE BONDS

Reference is made to the announcement of the Company dated 12 August 2019, as the Convertible Bonds have matured, the Board announces that on 22 April 2020, the Company has entered into the Amendment Documents which, amongst others, extended the Investor Maturity Date and the Prosper Rich Maturity Date.

LISTING RULES IMPLICATION

As the Amendments required mutual agreement between the Company with Prosper Rich and the Investor respectively, the Amendments would not take place automatically pursuant to its original terms and conditions. Accordingly, the Stock Exchange would treat the Amendments as a new arrangement for the Company to issue the Proper Rich Convertible Bonds and the Investor Convertible Bonds. The Company will therefore apply to the Stock Exchange for the listing of, and permission to deal in, the New Shares.

The New Shares will be issued pursuant to the General Mandate. The issue of the Convertible Bonds is not subject to the approval of the Shareholders.

As the Amendments are subject to fulfilment of certain conditions precedent and may or may not take effect, Shareholders and potential investors should exercise caution when dealing in the securities of the Company.

For details of the Investor Convertible Bonds, please refer to the Company's announcement dated 31 July 2017.

Save for the above amendments, all other terms and conditions of the Investor Convertible Bonds shall remain unchanged.

REASONS FOR AND BENEFITS OF THE EXTENSION

The Convertible Bonds (including the conversion rights) have matured. The Amendments would allow the Company to arrange for repayment of its debts under the Convertible Bonds on a later date, and can therefore provide the Group with flexibility in relation to the Group's deployment of its financial resources to fund its operation and development as well as the planning of its working capital requirements. Without the Amendments and in light of the current market conditions, the Company would have to apply substantial working capital for the redemption of the outstanding Convertible Bonds upon demand and incur extra time and costs to arrange for re-financing.

Accordingly, the Directors (including the independent non-executive Directors) consider that the Amendments, which was arrived at after arm's length negotiations between the Company, the Investor and Prosper Rich, is fair and reasonable, and is in the interests of the Company and its Shareholders as a whole.

FUND RAISING ACTIVITIES IN THE PAST TWELVE-MONTH PERIOD

Save for the fund raising activity mentioned below, the Company has not carried out other fund raising activities during the 12 months immediately preceding the date of this announcement.

COMPARISON OF CONVERSION PRICE

The initial Conversion Price was determined after arm's length negotiations between the Company and the Investor and Prosper Rich.

The initial Investor Conversion Price and Proper Rich Conversion price of HK$2.990 represents:

- (1) a premium of approximately 1.70% over the Closing Price of HK$2.940 per Share as quoted on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange on the Last Trading Day;
- (2) a premium of approximately 1.91% over the average Closing Price of HK$2.934 per Share for the last five consecutive Trading Days up to and including the Last Trading Day; and

In relation to the Call Option Agreement and the Backup Call Option Agreement (the details of which are contained in the Company's announcement dated 31 July 2017), as the Call Option Agreement has been automatically terminated in accordance to its terms, Prosper Rich has entered into the Backup Call Option Termination Deed with Epoch Keen Limited on 22 April 2020 to terminate the Backup Call Option Agreement. The Company is not a party to the Call Option Agreement, the Backup Call Option Agreement or the Backup Call Option Termination Deed.

GENERAL MANDATE

The Shares to be allotted and issued upon exercising of the subscription rights of the Convertible Bonds will be allotted and issued pursuant to the General Mandate granted to the Directors by a resolution of the Shareholders passed at the AGM, under which the Directors are authorised to issue Shares up to a maximum of 20% of the aggregate nominal amount of the share capital of the Company in issue as at the date of the AGM, which is equivalent to a maximum issue of additional 522,998,883 Shares. As the issue of the Convertible Bonds utilises the General Mandate, no further approval from Shareholders is needed.

The conversion rights attaching to the Convertible Bonds may be exercised (in whole or in part) if after the exercise of conversion rights the public float will be not less than 25% of the issued share capital of the Company as enlarged by the issue of the New Shares. Assuming there is no further issue or repurchase of the Shares and there is no adjustment to the Conversion Price, upon the conversion of the Convertible Bonds, a total of approximately 197,324,414 New Shares will be issued, which represent approximately 7.50% of aggregate nominal amount of the existing share capital of the Company in issue.

Since the grant of the General Mandate and up to the date of this announcement, the General Mandate has been utilised as to 325,000,000 Shares and the Directors are allowed to issue up to a remaining 197,998,883 new Shares under the General Mandate. As at the date of this announcement, no Shares has been issued under the General Mandate.

LISTING RULES IMPLICATION

As the Amendments required mutual agreement between the Company with Prosper Rich and the Investor respectively, the Amendments would not take place automatically pursuant to its original terms and conditions. Accordingly, the Stock Exchange would treat the Amendments as a new arrangement for the Company to issue the Proper Rich Convertible Bonds and the Investor Convertible Bonds. The Company will therefore apply to the Stock Exchange for the listing of, and permission to deal in, the New Shares.

The New Shares will be issued pursuant to the General Mandate. The issue of the Convertible Bonds is not subject to the approval of the Shareholders.

As the Amendments are subject to fulfilment of certain conditions precedent and may or may not take effect, Shareholders and potential investors should exercise caution when dealing in the securities of the Company.
