BUSINESS RESULTS

During the year under review, the profit for the Group was mainly derived from rental income from shops and commercial arcades. Due to the absence of profits from sale of residential properties and the disruption in revenue due to the outbreak of the COVID-19, the Group's consolidated profit after taxation for the year ended 31 December 2020 decreased by 81% to approximately HK$27 million as compared with the same period of 2019. The final dividend, together with the interim dividend of HK10 cents per share has already paid, will make a total distribution of HK25 cents for the full year.

BUSINESS REVIEW

During the year under review, the Group's profit was mainly derived from the rental income from shops and commercial arcades. The business operations of the Group, in particular, the Harbour Cruise - Bauhinia, were hit by the travel restrictions and social distancing measures under the outbreak of COVID-19 pandemic. Coupled with the depreciation on valuation of investment properties, the overall performance of the Group was adversely affected.

Property Development and Investment Operations

During 2020, the gross rental income arising from the commercial arcades of the Group amounted to approximately HK$103 million. The commercial arcade of Metro6 was fully let at year end. The occupancy rate of the commercial arcades of Shining Heights and The Spectacle were 93% and 79% respectively. The occupancy rate of commercial arcades of Metro Harbour View and Green Code were 96% and 91% respectively.

BUSINESS REVIEW (Continued)The Royale (8 Castle Peak Road - Castle Peak Bay, Tuen Mun)

A total of approximately 1,450 residential units under the three phases had been sold, amounting to approximately HK$6,900 million with an average selling price of saleable floor area in excess of HK$15,200 per square foot.

Ferry, Shipyard and Related Operations

During the year under review, the Ferry, Shipyard and Related Operations recorded a loss of HK$18 million, mainly due to the significant decline of revenue in Harbour Cruise - Bauhinia.

Securities Investment

During the year, a profit of HK$4 million in Securities Investment was recorded.

PROSPECTS

Severely affected by the COVID-19 pandemic, the gross domestic product ("GDP") of Hong Kong decreased by 3% in real terms in the fourth quarter of 2020. For 2020 as a whole, the GDP decreased by 6.1% in real terms as compared with 2019. The downturn in retail, tourism and catering industries has led to an increase in unemployment, with the local unemployment rate rising to 7% in January 2021. In February 2021, the Financial Secretary announced in his Budget speech a wide range of measures totalling in excess of HK$120 billion to alleviate the economic adversities and to implement counter-cyclical measures.

With the implementation of relief measures by the government and the increase in vaccination of the general public, it is likely that the economic activities will slowly resume to normal. The orderly relaxation of social distancing measures, the steady resumption of global tourism as well as the extension of operating hours of malls and restaurants will contribute to a gradual recovery.

It is expected that the local property market will remain stable with only minor fluctuations. The Group will continue to presell the remaining approximately 330 residential units of the Tuen Mun project. It is believed that the units will continue to be welcomed by the market with promising sales result.

It is expected that the rental income from the shops and commercial arcades will remain as the major source of income of the Group in 2021. The Group will adopt a flexible rental policy in order to attract new tenants and to retain the existing ones.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Dr. Lee Shau Kee retired from the non-executive directorship of the Company on 29 May 2020 due to advanced age. On behalf of the shareholders and the Board, I would like to take this opportunity to express our deep appreciation to Dr. Lee for his contributions during his tenure of office as director of the Company. I would also like to thank all our staff for their dedication and hard work during the year.

Dr. Lam Ko Yin, Colin

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

The following comments should be read in conjunction with the Audited Consolidated Financial Statements of the Company and the related notes to the financial statements.

IMPACT OF COVID-19 PANDEMIC

The outbreak of COVID-19 since January 2020 had significant impact on the business operations of the Group and in particular, Harbour Cruise - Bauhinia. We expect that the revenue of the Harbour Cruise - Bauhinia operation will be enhanced upon the cessation of the pandemic.

REVIEW OF RESULTS

The Group's revenue for the year amounted to approximately HK$208 million, representing a decrease of 30% when compared to the previous year. This was mainly attributed to the decrease in the revenue of Harbour Cruise - Bauhinia operation.

LIQUIDITY, FINANCIAL RESOURCES AND CAPITAL STRUCTURE

As of 31 December 2020, shareholders' funds of the Group showed a decrease of around 2.6% as compared to the previous year and amounted to approximately HK$5,972 million. The decrease was mainly due to the net effect of the profit realised from property leasing, the loss on revaluation of the Group's investment properties and the payment of dividends.

There was no change to the capital structure of the Group during the year. Funding for the Group's activities during the year under review was mainly generated from the property leasing and other operations.

Current assets of the Group were recorded at approximately HK$2,261 million and the current liabilities were approximately HK$171 million as of 31 December 2020. Current ratio of the Group had been decreased to 13.2 as at 31 December 2020, mainly attributed to the decrease in cash and bank balances.

CHARGE OF ASSETS

As at 31 December 2020, shares in the Joint Venture Company were charged to secure the loan facility made available by banks to the Joint Venture Company. Details of the loan facility, the relevant guarantees granted and the securities provided are set out in note 26 on page 147 and note 27(b)(ix) on page 153 to the financial statements of this Annual Report.

GEARING RATIO AND FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT

As there was no borrowing as at 31 December 2020, no gearing ratio, which is calculated on the basis of bank borrowing as a ratio of the Group's shareholders' fund, was shown.

The Group's financing and treasury activities were managed centrally at the corporate level. Financing facilities extended to the Group were denominated in Hong Kong dollar.

EMPLOYEES

As at 31 December 2020, the number of employees of the Group stood at about 200 (2019: about 210). Total employees' costs for the year amounted to approximately HK$84 million. The remuneration packages to employees were commensurate to the market trend and levels of pay in similar industries. A discretionary year-end bonus was paid to employees based on individual performance. Other benefits to employees included medical insurance, retirement scheme, training programmes and educational subsidies.

Discussion on Environmental Policies and Performance

The Hong Kong Ferry Group is devoted to integrating principles of sustainable development into its operations to contribute to a better future. We constantly search for opportunities to enhance our resource efficiency and to responsibly manage our environmental footprint. Since 2011, our two most fuel-intensive subsidiaries have undergone carbon audits as part of the Energy and Carbon Management Programme. At our Principal Office, we commission environmental consultants to monitor our energy usage and explore energy-saving solutions. Our property development and investment businesses incorporate sustainability features from the beginning of our projects in the design and construction phases, and conduct energy-simulation modelling studies to identify the most optimal energy-saving approaches.

In response to the growing severity of climate change impacts, the Group has stepped up our efforts to reduce greenhouse gas (“GHG”) emissions across our operations through technological upgrades and energy optimisation. We have installed solar-powered wall-mounted lights at our carpark and a solar photovoltaic system on the rooftop of our Principal Office to better harness renewable energy in support of Hong Kong’s transition to a low-carbon city.

The Group has made great strides in maintaining air quality within the harbour and the shared community around it. After the completion of our self-initiated and voluntary vessel engine and generator replacement programme, we set out even more stringent internal standards by further reducing sulphur content in the diesel we use to 0.001% for our dangerous goods vehicular ferries starting from January 2020. To augment our water conservation efforts, we installed automated water faucets and water-saving aerators in the restrooms within our Principal Office and Harbour Cruise - Bauhinia operations.

Discussion on Environmental Policies and Performance (Continued)

We work hard to ensure waste materials and other useful resources are reused, recovered and recycled whenever possible, before the consideration of landfill disposal. This year, we introduced a “Wasted Filter Pressing Treatment Plant” which makes use of powerful pressing equipment to reduce the volume of waste products requiring disposal. Waste oil generated from the process will be collected for further processing.

Account of Key Relationships with Employees, Customers and Suppliers

The Group seeks to maintain positive long-term relationships with our key stakeholder groups by upholding the highest standards of business ethics and taking their interests into full account. We regularly engage and communicate with our employees, customers and suppliers and respond in a timely manner to address their needs and concerns.

Employees

The Group is steadfast in providing a supportive, inclusive, caring and safe work environment which fosters two-way communication, supports professional development and protects the well-being of our staff. Our employees are remunerated with competitive salaries and benefits commensurate with work experience and job duties. We continue to provide apprenticeship and engineer training programmes to new joiners in order to strengthen our talent pipeline and succession planning at our shipyard workshop and ferry operations. To support staff learning and development, the Group encourages our employees to pursue different interests and offers internal and external opportunities to realise their full potential.

Specific to the public health crisis, we have implemented a range of measures to reduce the risk on our premises and provided staff with essential anti-epidemic supplies alongside our continual efforts to minimise potential occupational health and safety hazards. At shipyard and property development operations, committees were established to oversee occupational health and safety measures and initiatives. Regular inspections are carried out by our Safety Officer to ensure safe operational practices and identify areas for rectification as appropriate.

Customers

The Group is committed to providing efficient, professional and quality services to satisfy customers' needs. To gather their thoughts and suggestions in a systematic and proactive manner, we conduct regular customer satisfaction surveys and review detailed client feedback from the Service Evaluation Record. Analysing customer engagement data helps the Group to improve performance and develop business strategies which align with customer expectations. Our Ferry, Shipyard and Harbour Cruise - Bauhinia operations adopt the internationally recognised ISO 9001:2015 Quality Management Systems to ensure accountability for our quality standards. We operate with a high level of business ethics and product responsibility, and strictly comply with all relevant intellectual property rights and customer data privacy regulations.

Suppliers

To encourage corporate responsibility along our supply chain, the Group puts forth its sustainability principles to its suppliers. Our Code of Conduct provides guidance for fair and open procurement and tendering procedures, and ensures impartial and unbiased selection of competent suppliers and contractors. Through our Supplier Evaluation Report and Supplier Performance Review, we assess the suitability and performance of our suppliers and contractors regularly. These appraisals allow us to maintain our consistent service quality. At our property development operations, we work closely with our contractors to ensure safety compliance, promote industry safety best practices and spread occupational safety messages to all workers on our project sites. All suppliers and contractors must comply with all local environmental, employment and safety related regulations. ### CHAIRMAN AND GROUP GENERAL MANAGER

The roles of the Chairman and the Group General Manager of the Company are taken by two separate individuals who are not related to each other. The separation of the roles of the Chairman and the Group General Manager enables a clear division of responsibilities between the Chairman of the Board and the Group General Manager and also provides checks and balances effect.

The role of the Chairman of the Board is taken by Dr. Lam Ko Yin, Colin while the role of the Group General Manager (whose status is equivalent to chief executive officer for the purpose of the Code but not otherwise) is taken by Ir. Dr. Ho Chi Shing, David. The key function of the Chairman is the management of the Board whereas the key function of the Group General Manager is the day-to-day management of the Company's business.

The Board has received an annual confirmation of independence from each of Mr. Ho Hau Chong, Norman, Ms. Wong Yu Pok, Marina and Mr. Wu King Cheong, Independent Non-executive Directors of the Company, pursuant to Rule 3.13 of the Listing Rules.

The Board acknowledges its responsibility for overseeing the risk management and internal control systems of the Group and reviewing the effectiveness at least annually through Audit Committee. The systems and internal controls can only provide reasonable and not absolute assurance against material misstatement or loss, as they are designed to manage, rather than eliminate the risk of failure to achieve business objectives.

The Internal Audit Department of the Company, which reports directly to the Audit Committee and is independent of the Company's daily operations, is responsible for conducting regular audits on the areas of financial, operational, and compliance controls and risk management functions.

Risk Management and Internal Controls (Continued)

The Group has established an organisational structure with defined levels of responsibility and reporting procedures. The Audit Committee supports the Board in design, implementation and monitoring of the risk management and internal control systems. The operating units of the Group are responsible for the identification, assessment and mitigation of risks at business unit level and across functional areas. The Internal Risk Management Team, composed of nominated department heads and executives, facilitates the implementation of the risk management framework. The Internal Audit Department assists the Audit Committee in the review of the effectiveness of the Group's risk management and internal control systems on an ongoing basis. The Directors, through the Audit Committee, are kept regularly apprised of significant risks that may impact on the Group's performance.

The process of risk management involves:

- understanding of organisational objectives;
- identifying the risk associated with achieving organisational objectives and assessing the likelihood and potential impact of particular risks;
- developing programmes to address the identified risks; and
- ongoing monitoring and evaluating the risks, internal control and the arrangements in place to address them.

The risk management of the Group combines a top-down strategic view with a complementary bottom-up operational process.

The Board, by the top-down approach, has a particular focus on determining the nature and extent of significant risks it is willing to take in achieving the strategic objectives of the Group. The Audit Committee supports the Board to review all significant risks in order to ensure that the activities of the business remain within agreed risk appetite tolerances.

The operating units of the Group are responsible for identifying their own risks and designing, implementing and monitoring the relevant risk management and internal control systems. The setting of business objectives and annual budgeting is one of their key control activities, which shall be refined to take into consideration risk factors. The operating units of the Group consult the Group General Manager on setting the business objectives which are pursuant to the Board's strategic objectives and are consistent with its risk appetite. The process involves the maintenance of risk assessment reports setting out particulars of material risks together with the control strategies as reported by the operating units of the Group. This bottom-up approach is embedded in the operations of the Group and complements the top-down strategic view by identifying the principal risks and ensuring the significant risks to be considered by the Board in determining the risk appetite.

The Internal Audit Department collects the risk assessment reports from the operating units of the Group and then compiles a risk register for review at the meeting of Internal Risk Management Team which is held at least 4 times a year (2 meetings are held before the holding of the Board Meeting to review the interim and annual results of the Group). The Internal Risk Management Team coordinates risk management activities and assesses the effectiveness of the related system of internal control in managing the significant risks, having regard, in particular, to any significant failings or weakness in internal control that have been reported.

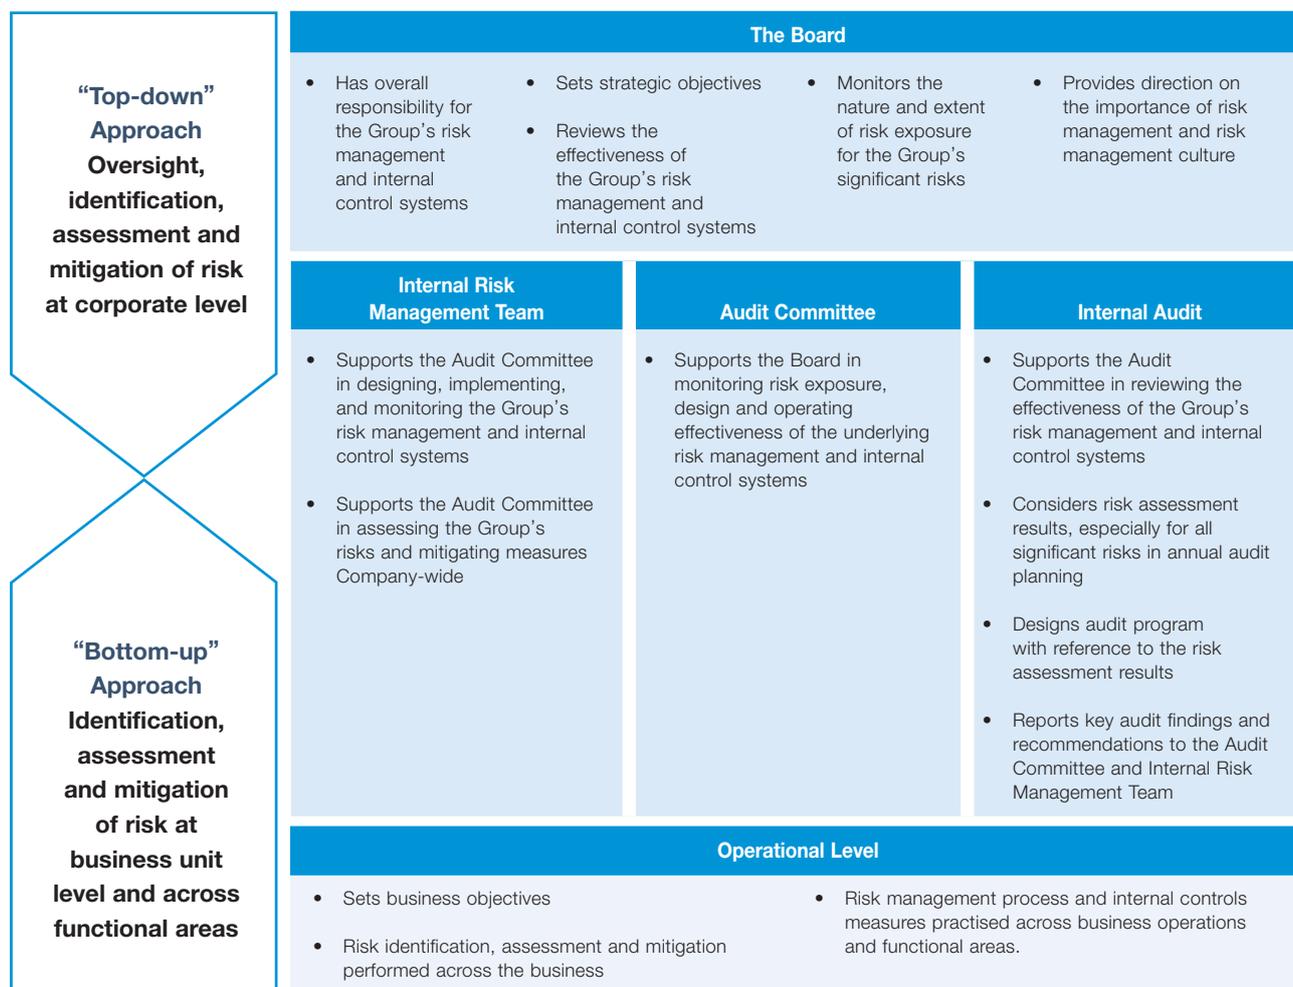

The Internal Audit Department adopted a risk-based approach which included all significant risks in each year's annual audit plan and performed audits to evaluate the proper functioning of the risk management and internal control systems for the financial year ended 31 December 2020. It is intended to carry out this evaluation process on an ongoing basis. Key audit findings and recommendations have been shared with the Internal Risk Management Team. The Audit Committee, after reviewing and considering the risk management findings submitted by the Internal Audit Department, reported to the Board of the Company and confirmed to the Board that the risk management and internal control systems are effective and adequate.

Risk Management and Internal Controls (Continued)

The diagram below summarizes the complementary top-down and bottom-up aspects of the integrated approach of the Group to risk management.

Certain significant risks such as business risk, financial risk, regulatory and compliance risk and operational risk have been identified during the year through the process of risk identification and assessment. Relevant control strategies and mitigation on significant risks have been reported to the Audit Committee. The Audit Committee and the Board were not aware of any areas of concern that would have a material impact on the financial position or results of operations of the Group and considered the risk management and internal control systems to be generally effective and adequate.

The Audit Committee has established and overseen a whistleblowing policy and set comprehensive procedures whereby employees can report any actual or suspected occurrence of improper conduct involving the Company, and for matters to be investigated and dealt with efficiently in an appropriate and transparent manner. The Audit Committee has designated the Internal Audit Manager to receive on his behalf any such reports, to oversee the conduct of subsequent investigations, and to provide information, including recommendations arising from any investigations to them for consideration by the Audit Committee.

We pride ourselves on the commitment and dedication we have to the communities we serve by always “Putting people first” across our diverse businesses from ferry and shipyard operations to property development and property investment.

I am grateful to all our employees, who strive to consistently meet, or exceed the ever-increasing expectations for high service quality. Over the years, our pursuit of operational excellence has earned our reputation as a trusted transport service provider in Hong Kong. As we continue to work tirelessly to uphold this faith bestowed upon us, we channel our principle of “Loving Hong Kong and the Harbour” to guide the implementation of our sustainability strategy to ensure we give back to the community by creating shared value for our stakeholders and integrate sustainability into our business practices with care, innovation and continual improvement in mind.

Although this year has been challenging for all of us, in particular due to the ongoing pandemic, the Group will continue to endure and adapt to becoming more resilient for the future. With the help of all our employees and stakeholders, we shall ride out these turbulent times together into clearer skies. Despite these challenges we are well positioned to continue working towards our sustainability objectives as we deliver value to our stakeholders and the community.

b. Stakeholder Engagement

Following best practice for the preparation of this ESG Report, an independent consultant was commissioned to develop and implement a comprehensive stakeholder engagement exercise to better understand stakeholders’ views of the Group’s ESG-related issues, initiatives, performance, management approach, megatrends, and future strategies. External and internal stakeholders of the Group were invited to respond to our online survey, including clients/customers, suppliers, charity/non-governmental organisations (“NGOs”) and employees. The results of the engagement exercise helped to reveal stakeholder sentiments and expectations on the Group’s ESG performance which is invaluable for the continued development of our sustainability journey.

To ascertain which aspects are most relevant to the Group, a three-step materiality assessment was conducted to determine the aspects material for disclosure in this ESG Report.

The chart below shows the 32 HKEx KPIs mapped according to their importance to the Group and our stakeholders. The 28 HKEx KPIs which were determined to be of “high” and “medium” materiality are included in this ESG Report.

3. OUR COVID-19 RESPONSE

COVID-19 has had a significant impact on nearly every aspect of our daily lives. As a caring company, we are working hard to do everything we can to support our customers, employees, communities and other stakeholders during this unprecedented time.

Shortly after COVID-19 emerged in Hong Kong in late January 2020, our management team has set up weekly strategic meetings and swiftly assigned responsibilities to different departments to ensure the health and safety of our employees, customers and subcontractors. To provide employees with clear directions, we have established response plans and guidance referencing standards such as the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region Government's (the "Hong Kong Government") Preparedness and Response Plan for Novel Infectious Disease of Public Health Significance. Specific measures tailored to different business units are implemented from time to time. Some of our preventive measures include:

- Enhance our cleaning protocol
- Implement flexible work practices
- Provide surgical masks and hand sanitisers to all staff on a regular basis
- Arrange health awareness seminars for staff
- Encourage our staff to avoid commuting during rush hour
- Conduct daily body temperature monitoring for staff
- Attend virtual meetings instead of face-to-face meetings as far as practicable
- Minimise business travel
- Install air purifiers in our offices
- Apply nano antiviral coating in our offices, cruise fleets and common areas of Green Code Plaza and Metro Harbour Plaza
- Measure body temperature of tenants and visitors at all offices, Green Code Plaza and Metro Harbour Plaza

5. SUSTAINABILITY GOVERNANCE

Our ESG working group, comprising representatives from across our business units, drives the Group's approach to the management of our ESG-related risks and opportunities by bringing together the top-down strategic view with bottom-up processes to holistically identify and review sustainability risks across all our business units. Moreover, specific sustainability risks, such as long-term staff recruitment and regulatory compliance are reviewed regularly, and evaluated and monitored in accordance with our internal risk management process and control systems, which are reported to the Board. Please refer to the "Risk Management and Internal Controls" sub-section in the "Corporate Governance Report" on pages 34 to 37 of our Annual Report 2020 for more details. The Board are also kept abreast of the performance of our sustainability-related programmes through regularly conducted internal meetings in which ESG topics relevant to the Group are reviewed and evaluated to ensure our current business practices are well aligned with our sustainability objectives.

6. OUR COMMITMENT TO ENVIRONMENTAL STEWARDSHIP

Our Environmental Policies outline our principles and approach to the sustainable management of our environmental footprint. To optimise our sustainability performance over time, we strive to apply innovative solutions to our operations, raise environmental awareness amongst employees and actively support green campaigns launched by the Hong Kong Government and NGOs.

During the reporting year, we complied with all applicable legal and regulatory requirements regarding environmental protection and there were no non-compliance cases relating to air and greenhouse gas ("GHG") emissions, discharges into water and land, and the generation of hazardous and non-hazardous wastes.

a. Energy and Climate Change Mitigation

We look to accelerate Hong Kong's transition to a low carbon economy for a climate-resilient future. With this in mind, we actively seek energy-saving opportunities and adopt hardware upgrades to contribute to the carbon reduction target<sup>1</sup> set by the Hong Kong Government in its Climate Action Plan 2030+. Since 2011, we have been working with external consultants through our Energy and Carbon Management Programme to conduct annual energy audits at our two most energy-intensive subsidiaries, namely, The Hong Kong Shipyard Limited and The Hongkong and Yaumati Ferry Company Limited. Relevant findings help us better monitor energy use patterns and identify continuous energy improvements. Our energy audit results showed that we have reduced electricity consumption by around 18% at our Principal Office and Shipyard in 2020.

As energy consumption in our buildings and office premises represents a significant proportion of our carbon footprint, we have stepped up our efforts to improve building performance and energy efficiency. These include the introduction of LED lights and wall-mounted solar lights at our Principal Office and the Shipyard.

Case Study - Installation of Solar Photovoltaic System

In December 2020, we installed a solar photovoltaic system at the rooftop of our Principal Office, with an estimated annual power yield of 50,537 kWh. Once the system is successfully connected to CLP's grid, the power company will purchase the electricity generated under the Feed-in Tariff Scheme. It serves to provide the Group with an additional source of revenue. Meanwhile, these rooftop solar panels can reduce heat gain of the building and hence electricity needed for air conditioning. A wider adoption of renewable energy is conducive to transforming Hong Kong to a low-carbon city and mitigating the climate-related impacts.

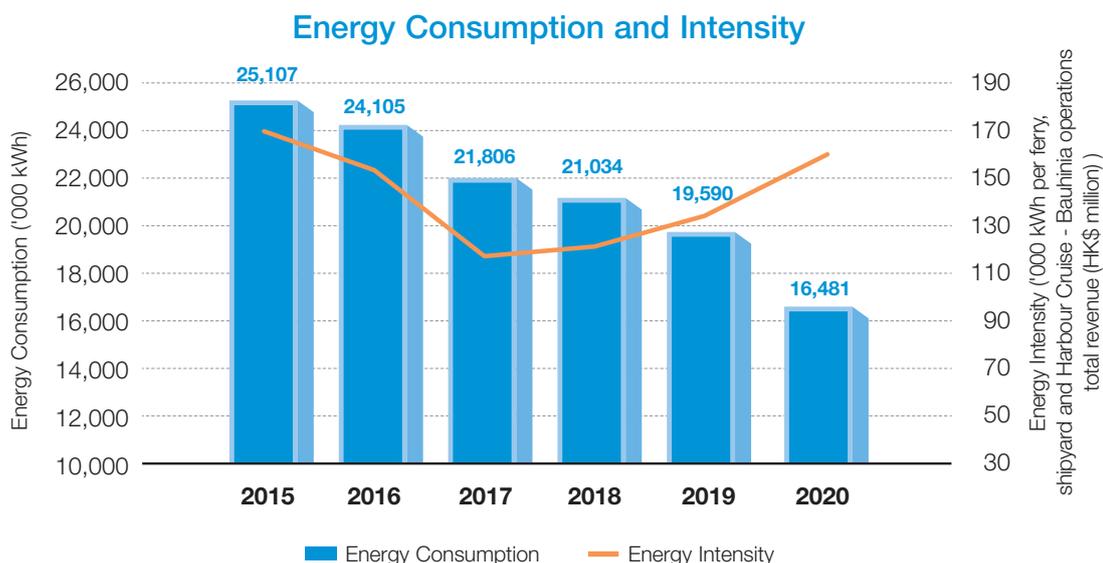

Our property development and investment operations continue to explore opportunities to enhance energy efficiency beyond the technical guidance of the Performance-based Building Energy Code published by the Electrical and Mechanical Services Department ("EMSD"). Aside from adopting green building standards and integrating sustainability considerations into the design and construction phases of our projects, we leverage digital solutions to conduct energy-simulation modelling studies which enable us to identify the most optimal energy-saving approaches. Our managed properties also proactively take part in different environmental campaigns in an attempt to contribute to collective efforts in combating climate challenges. For instance, Metro Harbour Plaza pledged to support the Hong Kong Government's Energy Saving Charter by encouraging community-wide participation in conserving energy.

GHG Emission and Intensity

Our continual efforts alongside the implementation of environmental initiatives resulted in a decrease of the Group's overall energy consumption and GHG emissions by 15.9% and 14.4%, respectively, from 2019 levels. Looking ahead, we will continue to identify energy-saving opportunities to further improve our sustainability performance.

b. Air Quality Improvement

We remain loyal to our core value of "Loving Hong Kong and the Harbour" and work to maintain the air quality of the city and the shared community around it. For more than 10 years, we have been supporting the Hong Kong Government to enhance local air quality with our fuel-efficient technologies. Dating back to 2007, The Hongkong and Yaumati Ferry Company Limited voluntarily participated in an ultra-low sulphur diesel<sup>2</sup> trial, 7 years before the mandatory cap on sulphur content of 0.05% in diesel. To reduce our key air pollutant emissions including nitrogen oxides ("NOx"), sulphur oxides ("SOx") and particulate matter ("PM"), a replacement programme was launched to replace a total of 13 generators and 10 engines on-board with environmentally-friendly alternatives. In our journey to continuously enhance our vessels' environmental performance, we have once again gone beyond the statutory requirements by further reducing sulphur content in diesel to 0.001% for our dangerous goods vehicular ferries starting from January 2020.

c. Water Conservation

We consider water as a scarce and valuable resource. To efficiently manage our water use, we continue to provide our Shipyard workers with training on waterjet applications to ensure a water-efficient cleaning procedure. Two rainwater harvesting tanks, which have a total capacity of 75 cubic metres, are in place to collect rainwater for vehicle washing and floor cleaning. Additionally, we have introduced various devices to further reduce water consumption, including automatic water faucets and water-saving aerators in the restrooms at our Principal Office and Harbour Cruise - Bauhinia.

d. Waste and Resources Management

Proper waste management is an integral part of our environmental stewardship. Over the years, we have focused our efforts on waste reduction and recycling throughout our operations. At the Shipyard, we engage contractors to classify and separate scrap metals into steel, aluminium and bronze alloys which will be further processed and reused. To properly handle waste oil produced from the use of cranes, forklifts and emergency generators, we appoint licensed collectors to collect and convert it into high-quality green lubricants. In addition, the introduction of the “SmartWasher”, our new washing facility for shipyard machinery, enables a more environmentally-friendly cleaning process by reducing the use of detergents and avoiding the discharge of hazardous wastewater.

Case Study - Wasted Filter Pressing Treatment Plant

To alleviate the burden on our landfills, our Shipyard has introduced a “Wasted Filter Pressing Treatment Plant” which makes use of powerful pressing equipment to reduce the volume of waste products requiring disposal. Waste oil generated from the process will also be collected for further processing.

At Harbour Cruise - Bauhinia, we have put in place a range of waste reduction measures. Apart from the provision of a green menu for customers, an onshore sewage system is located at the ferry pier, which avoided the direct discharge of 949 tonnes of wastewater into the harbour during the reporting year. For our property development and investment operations, acknowledgments were given to Metro Harbour Plaza in recognition of its sound waste recycling practices and fulfilment of the requirements for the Programme on Source Separation of Commercial and Industrial Waste organised by the Environmental Protection Department (“EPD”).

e. Environmental Awareness

Raising environmental awareness is conducive to fostering positive behavioural changes. As such, we actively participate in a series of sustainability-related initiatives to enrich environmental consciousness amongst our colleagues and the general public. For example, we supported “No Air Con Night 2020” organised by Green Sense to emphasise the importance of energy conservation and responsible management of individuals’ carbon footprint. To supplement our internal efforts, we continue to engage the public through our Harbour Cruise - Bauhinia by enhancing their knowledge of harbour protection.

7. OUR GREATEST ASSET - HUMAN CAPITAL

Employees are the engine which drives the success of our business. We are greatly dependent on our talented workforce to drive our long-term growth and development. The Group recognises the importance of providing a safe, collaborative, inclusive and positive work environment and are fully committed to providing a supportive working environment in which our employees may thrive.

a. Working Conditions

The Group takes great care to ensure our workplace is free from any prejudice or discrimination, supporting employment practices which are aligned with fairness and equal opportunity regardless of nationality, race, religion, gender, age or family status. Employee remuneration and compensation packages are strictly prescribed with considerations only based on an individual's working experience, merit, and responsibilities within the Group. Attractive employee welfare benefits are offered, including shopping discount offers, maternity and paternity leave as well as medical health insurance coverage which also extends to their families. Communication channels, such as our annual appraisals, are established to promote discussions between employees and managers about past performance, future opportunities, and new ideas for the Group. To support our staff in maintaining a healthy work-life balance, we provide ample rest periods and reasonable working hours to all staff, offering a five-day work week for office staff. While most of our staff events were suspended considering the health concern posed by the pandemic, we continue to celebrate festive seasons with our employees. In December 2020, a Christmas Lucky Draw was arranged where every colleague was rewarded with a gift as a token of appreciation for their hard work over the year.

Christmas Lucky Draw

During the reporting year, there were no reported cases of non-compliance with the labour regulations of Hong Kong.

b. Staff Training and Development

The continued development and personal growth of our workforce are vital to the long-term continuity and resilience of our Group. We encourage all staff to supplement their professional knowledge and competency through our tailored training programmes which emphasise the importance of soft skills such as communication and cooperation in addition to traditional skills such as technical knowledge and customer service. Annually, a special training budget is reserved to sponsor staff to take advantage of award-bearing courses and other external training programmes, both for personal development or job enrichment. The Group also helps to arrange relevant external training for employees including workshops, seminars, and certification courses. Internally, we identify qualified staff members to provide ad-hoc training to newer members of the Group, for instance, safety officers are asked to deliver safety briefings/trainings to shipyard workers, while ferry operations superintendents and officers assist in raising fire safety awareness of crew and pier staff.

To alleviate the challenges of an ageing workforce within the industry, the Group continues to train the younger generation by providing apprenticeship and engineer training programmes to ensure our talent pipeline remains well maintained into the future. We also offer training opportunities for the general public through our participation in various internship programmes. In 2020, the Group provided development opportunities to several post-secondary school students, and an over-50 trainee via the Employee Retraining Board post-50 internship programme. During the reporting year, our Group's employees received a total of approximately 4,219 training hours.

Percentage of Training Hours by Categories

Case Study - Promoting Online Communication and E-learning

The challenges presented by COVID-19 have been evident and severe. As we adjust to a “new normal”, we are constantly exploring new ways of working. To minimise social contacts and unnecessary gathering, we leverage digital platforms to promote online communication and e-learning. A number of training courses, covering topics such as healthcare, occupational safety, anti-corruption and industry collaboration, were conducted during the reporting year.

Online training via digital platforms

c. Occupational Health and Safety

We are uncompromising in the health and safety of our employees, contractors and visitors. Through our Safety Policy, we work diligently to maintain a safe working environment and have implemented proactive measures to minimise potential occupational hazards on our premises. Moreover, our Substance Use Policy strictly prohibits alcohol and drug consumption at the workplace and applies to all our employees, contractors and suppliers who perform duties at the Shipyard. To ensure alignment and understanding of our policies, reminders are regularly dispatched to all employees. Failure to comply with these policies is taken seriously, with violations possibly resulting in disciplinary action up to and including termination of employment.

As an additional precaution, our Safety Committee provides oversight on the safety management and risk control at the Shipyard. Operational implementation of our safety management systems and execution of safety inspections are conducted by our Safety Officer and Supervisor to ensure all employees are working safely and are supplied with appropriate safety gear and personal protection equipment. Weekly safety inspection reports are prepared with the findings helping to identify any potential improvement areas or safety hazards for immediate rectification and future best practice.

Fire safety is among our top focus areas across our operations, we conduct regular fire drills for all divisions throughout the year, including an annual fire drill at the Shipyard and at the Principal Office, monthly drills on board all vessels and piers, and quarterly joint drills with Harbour Cruise - Bauhinia colleagues.

To ensure safety conditions at our property development sites meet our stringent expectations, we work closely with our contractors to promote best practices and to promote a safety first culture to all workers on our construction sites. Furthermore, our Construction Site Safety Committee is in place to govern the safety standards stipulated in our Safety Policy and to conduct safety inspections on a regular basis.

Great emphasis is placed on the health of our staff members as the Group makes every effort to support their well-being. We provide medical insurance benefits, including outpatient and hospitalization coverage for our staff and their families, free flu vaccines and regular body check subsidies. Additional voluntary insurance plans such as self-subscribed medical top-up insurance and dental care plans are also provided. We arrange free biennial health check-ups specifically for frontline workers, operational ferry staff, cruise kitchen and Shipyard employees.

During the reporting year, there were no reported cases of non-compliance with applicable occupational health and safety laws and regulations in Hong Kong that have a significant impact on the Group.

Case Study - Health Talks To Enhance Staff Well-being

The Group pays special attention to help colleagues manage stress and emotions in challenging times. In 2020, we invited medical officers, psychologists and physical therapists to deliver three health talks, sharing useful health tips and ways to enhance mental resilience. Our efforts were positively received with active participation of over 40 staff members.

Sharing practical tips on healthy work practices

d. Anti-corruption

Our Code of Conduct, and the guidelines and policies stipulated within, clearly state the compulsory expectations for professional, appropriate, and ethical behaviour for all employees. The Group has a clear zero-tolerance approach for any fraudulent or unethical conduct, including bribery, money laundering, extortion and fraud. We strictly prohibit the acceptance of money or any other gifts from outside entities, such as customers, suppliers, contractors, authorities or other business partners.

Memoranda are issued to all staff on a regular basis to maintain awareness of anti-corruption measures and to ensure understanding of the Code of Conduct. For a more in-depth refresher of ethical behaviour and to learn the most up-to-date information on anti-corruption topics, the Group arranges biennial seminars with speakers from the Independent Commission Against Corruption (“ICAC”) for relevant staff members, especially for business units that may be exposed to higher corruption risks, such as purchasing and procurement, tendering, sales and marketing. Relevant training materials are also circulated to our Board members. This year, due to the ongoing pandemic, we organised an online seminar with the ICAC to maintain social distancing.

The Group’s whistle-blowing policy facilitates our continued due-diligence against unethical and corrupt behaviour and includes provisions for confidential channels to receive reports from concerned employees at all levels. Any employee may report a grievance or concern about suspected misconduct, malpractice, or irregular behaviour regarding all matters within the Group without fear of reprisal. The Group General Manager or Internal Audit Manager will evaluate every report received to decide if a full investigation is necessary. If an investigation is warranted, the Internal Audit Manager will be appointed to look into the matter. To ensure its effectiveness, the whistle-blowing policy is regularly reviewed by the Internal Audit Manager. For more information, please refer to the “Risk Management and Internal Controls” subsection in the “Corporate Governance Report” on pages 34 to 37 of our Annual Report 2020.

During the reporting year, there were no confirmed cases of non-compliance with the anti-corruption regulations of Hong Kong.

8. OUR CONTRIBUTION TO THE COMMUNITY

Over our long 97-year history, the Group has been steadfast in delivering shared value to our stakeholders and to the communities in Hong Kong.

a. The Group and the Hong Kong Community

Under the guidance of our Board and senior management, we act to pursue long-term value creation for the Hong Kong community. Three principles deeply rooted in our corporate culture: love Hong Kong, love Victoria Harbour, and care for the people.

Since our founding in 1923, the Group's core value "caring for our community" has empowered us to contribute to sustainable development in Hong Kong. For more than 60 years, our cross-harbour vehicular ferry services supported Hong Kong's economic development by providing transportation services to commuters between Hong Kong Island and the Kowloon peninsula until its suspension in 1998. Nowadays, we continue to hold our signature "Classic Vehicular Ferry Ride" to embrace the historical significance of this commute. Over a thousand participants joined, some of whom drove their private cars onto our ferries. For many participants, this was their first experience of this unique journey previously shared in the stories of their elders. Through this event, we hope to preserve collective memories and experiences of the Hong Kong community, and allow the new generations to experience the ferry history in Hong Kong.

Our Corporate Social Responsibility ("CSR") Principles: Love Hong Kong, Love Victoria Harbour, and Care for the People

a. The Group and the Hong Kong Community (Continued)

Over the years, we aim to maintain our high environmental and safety standards in ferry operations by equipment upgrades. For instance, in the 1980s and 1990s we installed radar detectors and Automatic Identification Systems on our vessels to raise our safety standards beyond the Hong Kong Government requirements at the time. The Group also aims to implement environmentally-friendly measures beyond regulatory standards. For example, our policy of switching off ferry engines when stationed at the pier for a prolonged period was implemented in 1980s and 1990s long before the practice became mandatory. Furthermore, we have leveraged our unique resources such as the Harbour Cruise - Bauhinia to deliver community programmes.

b. Caring for the Community

We focus our CSR initiatives in four areas: serving underprivileged families, children and the elderly as well as providing a platform for learning and exchanging knowledge.

Industry Knowledge and Experience Sharing

Fostering a culture that promotes knowledge sharing with professionals, academia, NGOs, students and the like will bring positive effects to the industry thus further contributing to the social and economic development of Hong Kong. To demonstrate our commitment to knowledge sharing with communities, we regularly offer internship programmes and organise shipyard visits for students from tertiary institutions, Hong Kong Sea School and secondary schools. This year, we also arranged a ferry tour for primary school students to share our maritime knowledge. These learning opportunities help students to gain operational insights and industry experience and better prepare themselves for the job market in the future.

Technology*

Corporate Volunteer Team

We are dedicated to serving the environment and underprivileged groups as caring for our community is an indispensable part of our core values. In 2020, our Corporate Volunteer Team supported and participated in more than 10 volunteer services and contributed more than 200 volunteer hours to benefit around 600 people in our community.

9. OUR RESPONSIBILITY IN VALUE CHAIN MANAGEMENT

The Group remains steadfast in its commitment to the delivery of quality products and services which meet customer expectations at all times. Building on our extensive supply chain networks, we proactively engage our business partners to promote sustainable practices beyond our operations.

a. Supply Chain Management

Our Code of Conduct outlines our requirements on ethical standards, human and labour rights, and environmental practices. During the supplier engagement and tender process, our evaluation criteria include product and service quality, safety performance, operational needs and price to ensure business partners share our dedication to environmentally and socially responsible practices. Full compliance with this Code of Conduct is expected from our suppliers.

As part of our management approach, a stringent monitoring system has been in place to ensure our requirements are met. Together with onsite contractors, our property development operations conduct safety audits on an annual basis. Furthermore, suppliers are reviewed regularly where relevant findings are recorded in our Supplier Evaluation Report and Supplier Performance Review. Areas of concern are identified and addressed through corrective actions subsequently developed by the Group in conjunction with respective suppliers for future improvement. Suppliers who fail to meet the expected standards are subject to a comprehensive inspection.

Deeply rooted in Hong Kong, we prioritise local suppliers to support domestic economies whenever possible. In addition to the mitigation of environmental impacts associated with our procurement activities, sourcing locally also helps to manage ESG-related risks resulting from disrupted supply chains. During the reporting year, we achieved an overall local procurement rate of 82%.

9. OUR RESPONSIBILITY IN VALUE CHAIN MANAGEMENT (Continued)

b. Responsible Products and Services

The delivery of excellent and responsible products and services is key to our continued business success. A comprehensive set of policies has been developed to provide our employees with relevant guiding principles in relation to quality assurance, intellectual property rights and customer privacy. During the reporting year, there were no reported cases of non-compliance with relevant laws and regulations.

We place great importance on the confidentiality of all personal data and information collected from our customers. As such, we set out clear data privacy guidelines in our Employee Internet and Email Use Policy, covering the use and management of data and information in accordance with the relevant regulatory requirements. All employees are required to adhere to these internal guidelines to handle customer data in a safe and secure manner. To address potential regulatory risks which may significantly affect our business, Harbour Cruise - Bauhinia has changed the data collection statement on its website from passive consent to active consent according to the General Data Protection Regulation's ("GDPR") user consent requirements<sup>3</sup>.

Additionally, we are mindful of the potential concerns regarding intellectual property rights and music copyright laws at our Harbour Cruise - Bauhinia operation. Aside from using licensed computer software, we have subscribed WiseNews<sup>4</sup> and paid all necessary music royalties under a Copyright Music Performance Licence Contract. Harbour Cruise - Bauhinia is also registered as a trademark with the Trade Marks Registry, Intellectual Property Department of the Hong Kong Government.

Independent auditor's report to the members of Hong Kong Ferry (Holdings) Company Limited
(incorporated in Hong Kong with limited liability)

OPINION

We have audited the consolidated financial statements of Hong Kong Ferry (Holdings) Company Limited ("the Company") and its subsidiaries ("the Group") set out on pages 75 to 155, which comprise the consolidated statement of financial position as at 31 December 2020, the consolidated statement of profit or loss, the consolidated statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income, the consolidated statement of changes in equity and the consolidated cash flow statement for the year then ended and notes to the consolidated financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies.

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements give a true and fair view of the consolidated financial position of the Group as at 31 December 2020 and of its consolidated financial performance and its consolidated cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards ("HKFRSs") issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants ("HKICPA") and have been properly prepared in compliance with the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance.

BASIS FOR OPINION

We conducted our audit in accordance with Hong Kong Standards on Auditing ("HKSAs") issued by the HKICPA. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the consolidated financial statements section of our report. We are independent of the Group in accordance with the HKICPA's Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants ("the Code") and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the Code. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

KEY AUDIT MATTERS

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgement, were of most significance in our audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the consolidated financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

Valuation of investment properties

Refer to note 1 (accounting policy) and note 11 to the consolidated financial statements

The Key Audit Matter

How the matter was addressed in our audit

The Group's investment properties which comprise retail properties, car parking spaces and godowns are located in Hong Kong. These investment properties were stated at their fair values of HK$2,173 million as at 31 December 2020 which accounted for 55% of the Group's non-current assets as at that date.

The fair values of the Group's investment properties as at 31 December 2020 were assessed by the board of directors based on independent valuations prepared by a firm of qualified external property valuers.

The valuation of the Group's investment properties is complex and involves a significant degree of management judgement and estimation in respect of the determination of capitalisation rates and prevailing market rents, particularly given the dissimilar nature of the investment properties held by the Group.

We identified valuation of investment properties as a key audit matter because these properties represent the majority of the Group's non-current assets and because the valuations are inherently subjective and involve a significant degree of judgement and estimation by management which increases the risk of error or potential management bias.

Our audit procedures in relation to valuation of investment properties included the following:

- obtaining and inspecting the valuation reports prepared by the external property valuers engaged by the Group and on which the directors' assessment of the fair values of investment properties was based;
- assessing the external property valuers' qualifications, experience and expertise in the properties being valued and considering their objectivity and independence;
- with the assistance of our internal property valuation specialists, discussing with the external property valuers their valuation methodology, without the presence of management, and challenging the key estimates and assumptions adopted in the valuations by comparing capitalisation rates, prevailing market rents and comparable market transactions with the market available data and government produced market statistics;
- comparing tenancy information, including committed rents and occupancy rates, provided by the Group to the external property valuers with underlying contracts and related documentation, on a sample basis.

Assessing the net realisable value of properties under development for sale ("PUD") owned by the Group and a joint venture

Refer to note 1 (accounting policy) and note 17 to the consolidated financial statements

The Key Audit Matter

How the matter was addressed in our audit

The PUD projects of the Group are located in Hong Kong and held either directly or through its joint venture, which are stated at lower of cost and net realisable value.

The determination of the net realisable value of the PUD projects are performed by management. It involves significant judgement and estimation in preparing and updating project feasibility studies and estimations of the costs to complete the property development projects as well as in assessing the expected future selling prices for the properties and the expected future selling costs.

Changes in government policies in relation to the stamp duty regime, restrictions on residential property mortgage loans and the impact of the global economy on local interest rates could lead to volatility in property prices in Hong Kong.

We identified the assessment of net realisable value of the PUD projects owned by the Group and its joint venture as a key audit matter because of the inherent risks involved in estimating the costs to complete each property development project and in estimating the future selling prices for each property development project.

Our audit procedures to assess the net realisable value of the PUD projects included the following:

- obtaining management's assessment of the net realisable value of each PUD project and discussing with management the development progress of each project;
- conducting site visits to the PUD projects to observe the development progress and comparing the observed development progress with management's records;
- discussing with management their valuation methodology and challenging the key estimates and assumptions adopted, including expected future selling prices and costs to completion, by comparison with recently transacted prices for similar properties or the prices of comparable properties located in the nearby vicinity of the PUD projects and by comparison with market statistics for estimated construction costs, signed construction contracts and/or unit construction costs of recently completed projects developed by the Group;
- performing sensitivity analyses by making adjustments to the key estimates and assumptions adopted by management in the determination of net realisable value to assess the risk of possible management bias in the net realisable value assessment exercise.

INFORMATION OTHER THAN THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS AND AUDITOR'S REPORT THEREON

The directors are responsible for the other information. The other information comprises all the information included in the annual report, other than the consolidated financial statements and our auditor's report thereon.

Our opinion on the consolidated financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the consolidated financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the consolidated financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE DIRECTORS FOR THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The directors are responsible for the preparation of the consolidated financial statements that give a true and fair view in accordance with HKFRSs issued by the HKICPA and the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance and for such internal control as the directors determine is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, the directors are responsible for assessing the Group's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the directors either intend to liquidate the Group or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

The directors are assisted by the Audit Committee in discharging their responsibilities for overseeing the Group's financial reporting process.

AUDITOR'S RESPONSIBILITIES FOR THE AUDIT OF THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. This report is made solely to you, as a body, in accordance with section 405 of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance, and for no other purpose. We do not assume responsibility towards or accept liability to any other person for the contents of this report.

Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with HKSA's will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with HKSA's, we exercise professional judgement and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Group's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the directors.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of the directors' use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Group's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Group to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the group audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with the Audit Committee regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide the Audit Committee with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence and communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence and, where applicable, actions taken to eliminate threats or safeguards applied.

From the matters communicated with the Audit Committee, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

The engagement partner on the audit resulting in this independent auditor's report is Yau Ngai Lun, Alan.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1 SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

(a) Statement of compliance

These financial statements have been prepared in accordance with all applicable Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards (“HKFRSs”), which collective term includes all applicable individual Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards, Hong Kong Accounting Standards (“HKASs”) and Interpretations issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants (“HKICPA”), accounting principles generally accepted in Hong Kong and the requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance. These financial statements also comply with the applicable disclosure provisions of the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (“Listing Rules”). Significant accounting policies adopted by the Group are disclosed below.

The HKICPA has issued certain amendments to HKFRSs that are first effective or available for early adoption for the current accounting period of the Group. Note 1(c) provides information on any changes in accounting policies resulting from initial application of these developments to the extent that they are relevant to the Group for the current accounting period reflected in these financial statements.

(b) Basis of preparation of the financial statements

The consolidated financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2020 comprise the Company and its subsidiaries (together referred to as the “Group”) and the Group’s interest in associates and joint ventures.

The measurement basis used in the preparation of the financial statements is the historical cost basis except that the following assets and liabilities are stated at their fair value as explained in the accounting policies set out below:

- investment properties (see note 1(g)); and
- investments in debt and equity securities (see note 1(f)).

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with HKFRSs requires management to make judgements, estimates and assumptions that affect the application of policies and reported amounts of assets, liabilities, income and expenses. The estimates and associated assumptions are based on historical experience and various other factors that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances, the results of which form the basis of making the judgements about carrying values of assets and liabilities that are not readily apparent from other sources. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

The estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognised in the period in which the estimate is revised if the revision affects only that period, or in the period of the revision and future periods if the revision affects both current and future periods.

Judgements made by management in the application of HKFRSs that have significant effect on the financial statements and major sources of estimation uncertainty are discussed in note 2.

(c) Changes in accounting policies

The Group has applied the following amendments to HKFRSs issued by the HKICPA to these financial statements for the current accounting period:

- Amendments to HKFRS 3, Definition of a Business
- Amendment to HKFRS 16, COVID-19-Related Rent Concessions

Other than the amendment to HKFRS 16, the Group has not applied any new standard or interpretation that is not yet effective for the current accounting period. Impacts of the adoption of the amended HKFRSs are discussed below:

Amendments to HKFRS 3, *Definition of a Business

The amendments clarify the definition of a business and provide further guidance on how to determine whether a transaction represents a business combination. In addition, the amendments introduce an optional “concentration test” that permits a simplified assessment of whether an acquired set of activities and assets is an asset rather than business acquisition, when substantially all of the fair value of the gross assets acquired is concentrated in a single identifiable asset or group of similar identifiable assets.

The adoption of amendments to HKFRS 3 does not have any material impact on the Group’s financial statements.

Amendment to HKFRS 16, *COVID-19-Related Rent Concessions

The amendment provides a practical expedient that allows a lessee to by-pass the need to evaluate whether certain qualifying rent concessions occurring as a direct consequence of the COVID-19 pandemic (“COVID-19-related rent concessions”) are lease modifications and, instead, account for those rent concessions as if they were not lease modifications.

The Group has elected to early adopt the amendment to HKFRS 16 and applies the practical expedient to all qualifying COVID-19-related rent concessions granted to the Group during the year. Consequently, rent concessions received have been accounted for as negative variable lease payments recognised in profit or loss in the period in which the event or condition that triggers those payments occurred. There is no impact on the opening balance of equity at 1 January 2020.

(d) Subsidiaries

Subsidiaries are entities controlled by the Group. The Group controls an entity when it is exposed, or has rights, to variable returns from its involvement with the entity and has the ability to affect those returns through its power over the entity. When assessing whether the Group has power, only substantive rights (held by the Group and other parties) are considered.

An investment in a subsidiary is consolidated into the consolidated financial statements from the date that control commences until the date that control ceases. Intra-group balances, transactions and cash flows and any unrealised profits arising from intra-group transactions are eliminated in full in preparing the consolidated financial statements. Unrealised losses resulting from intra-group transactions are eliminated in the same way as unrealised gains but only to the extent that there is no evidence of impairment.

When the Group loses control of a subsidiary, it is accounted for as a disposal of the entire interest in that subsidiary, with a resulting gain or loss being recognised in profit or loss.

In the Company's statement of financial position, an investment in a subsidiary is stated at cost less impairment losses (see note 1(j)), unless the investment is classified as held for sale (or included in a disposal group that is classified as held for sale).

(e) Associates and joint arrangements

An associate is an entity in which the Group or Company has significant influence, but not control or joint control, over its management, including participation in the financial and operating policy decisions.

A joint venture is an arrangement whereby the Group or Company and other parties contractually agree to share control of the arrangement, and have rights to the net assets of the arrangement.

An investment in an associate or a joint venture is accounted for in the consolidated financial statements under the equity method, unless it is classified as held for sale (or included in a disposal group that is classified as held for sale). Under the equity method, the investment is initially recorded at cost, adjusted for any excess of the Group's share of the acquisition-date fair values of the investee's identifiable net assets over the cost of the investment (if any). The cost of the investment includes purchase price, other costs directly attributable to the acquisition of the investment, and any direct investment into the associate or joint venture that forms part of the Group's equity investment. Thereafter, the investment is adjusted for the post acquisition change in the Group's share of the investee's net assets and any impairment loss relating to the investment (see note 1(j)). At each reporting date, the Group assesses whether there is any objective evidence that the investment is impaired. Any acquisition-date excess over cost, the Group's share of the post-acquisition, post-tax results of the investees and any impairment losses for the year are recognised in the consolidated statement of profit or loss, whereas the Group's share of the post-acquisition post-tax items of the investees' other comprehensive income is recognised in the consolidated statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income.

When the Group's share of losses exceeds its interest in the associate or the joint venture, the Group's interest is reduced to nil and recognition of further losses is discontinued except to the extent that the Group has incurred legal or constructive obligations or made payments on behalf of the investee. For this purpose, the Group's interest is the carrying amount of the investment under the equity method together with any other interests that in substance form part of the Group's net investment in the associate or the joint venture.

Unrealised profits and losses resulting from transactions between the Group and its associates and joint venture are eliminated to the extent of the Group's interest in the investee, except where unrealised losses provide evidence of an impairment of the asset transferred, in which case they are recognised immediately in profit or loss.

If an investment in an associate becomes an investment in a joint venture or vice versa, the retained interest is not remeasured. Instead, the investment continues to be accounted for under the equity method.

In all other cases, when the Group ceases to have significant influence over an associate or joint control over a joint venture, it is accounted for as a disposal of the entire interest in that investee, with a resulting gain or loss being recognised in profit or loss. Any interest retained in that former investee at the date when significant influence or joint control is lost is recognised at fair value and this amount is regarded as the fair value on initial recognition of a financial asset (see note 1(f)).

In the Company's statement of financial position, investments in associates and joint venture are stated at cost less impairment losses (see note 1(j)), unless classified as held for sale (or included in a disposal group that is classified as held for sale).

A joint operation whereby the Group and other party contractually agree to share control of the arrangement, and have rights to the assets, and obligations for the liabilities, relating to the arrangement. The Group recognises its interest in the joint operation by combining the assets, liabilities, revenues and expenses attributable to its interest with similar items on a line-by-line basis.

(f) Investments in debt and equity securities

The Group's policies for investments in debt and equity securities, other than investments in subsidiaries, associates and joint ventures, are set out below.

Investments in debt and equity securities are recognised/derecognised on the date the Group commits to purchase/sell the investment. The investments are initially stated at fair value plus directly attributable transaction costs, except for those investments measured at fair value through profit or loss ("FVPL") for which transaction costs are recognised directly in profit or loss. For an explanation of how the Group determines fair value of financial instruments, see note 24(e). These investments are subsequently accounted for as follows, depending on their classification.

Investments other than equity investments

Non-equity investments held by the Group are classified into one of the following measurement categories:

- amortised cost, if the investment is held for the collection of contractual cash flows which represent solely payments of principal and interest. Interest income from the investment is calculated using the effective interest method (see note 1(s)(v)).
- fair value through other comprehensive income (“FVOCI”) – recycling, if the contractual cash flows of the investment comprise solely payments of principal and interest and the investment is held within a business model whose objective is achieved by both the collection of contractual cash flows and sale. Changes in fair value are recognised in other comprehensive income, except for the recognition in profit or loss of expected credit losses (“ECLs”), interest income (calculated using the effective interest method) and foreign exchange gains and losses. When the investment is derecognised, the amount accumulated in other comprehensive income is recycled from equity to profit or loss.
- FVPL if the investment does not meet the criteria for being measured at amortised cost or FVOCI (recycling). Changes in the fair value of the investment (including interest) are recognised in profit or loss.

Equity investments

An investment in equity securities is classified as FVPL unless the equity investment is not held for trading purposes and on initial recognition of the investment the Group makes an irrevocable election to designate the investment at FVOCI (non-recycling) such that subsequent changes in fair value are recognised in other comprehensive income. Such elections are made on an instrument-by-instrument basis, but may only be made if the investment meets the definition of equity from the issuer’s perspective. Where such an election is made, the amount accumulated in other comprehensive income remains in the securities revaluation reserve (non-recycling) until the investment is disposed of. At the time of disposal, the amount accumulated in the securities revaluation reserve (non-recycling) is transferred to retained earnings. It is not recycled through profit or loss. Dividends from an investment in equity securities, irrespective of whether classified as at FVPL or FVOCI, are recognised in profit or loss as revenue in accordance with the policy set out in note 1(s)(vi).

(g) Investment properties

Investment properties are land and/or buildings which are owned or held under a leasehold interest (see note 1(i)) to earn rental income and/or for capital appreciation. These include land held for a currently undetermined future use and property that is being constructed or developed for future use as investment property.

Investment properties are stated at fair value, unless they are still in the course of construction or development at the end of the reporting period and their fair value cannot be reliably measured at that time. Any gain or loss arising from a change in fair value or from the retirement or disposal of an investment property is recognised in profit or loss. Rental income from investment properties is accounted for as described in note 1(s)(ii).

(h) Other property, plant and equipment

The following property, plant and equipment are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and impairment losses (see note 1(j)):

- right-of-use assets arising from leases over freehold or leasehold properties where the Group is not the registered owner of the property interest; and
- items of plant and equipment, including right-of-use assets arising from leases of underlying plant and equipment (see note 1(i)).

The cost of self-constructed items of property, plant and equipment includes the cost of materials, direct labour, the initial estimate, where relevant, of the costs of dismantling and removing the items and restoring the site on which they are located, and an appropriate proportion of production overheads.

Gains or losses arising from the retirement or disposal of an item of property, plant and equipment are determined as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the item and are recognised in profit or loss on the date of retirement or disposal.

Depreciation is calculated to write off the cost of items of property, plant and equipment, less their estimated residual value, if any, using the straight-line method over their estimated useful lives as follows:

Buildings	40 years or over the unexpired terms of the leases, if shorter
Leasehold land	Over the unexpired terms of the leases
Ferry vessels and other crafts	8 to 20 years
Machinery, furniture and other plant and equipment
– Dry dock and ship lift	30 to 40 years
– Others	4 to 10 years

Where parts of an item of property, plant and equipment have different useful lives, the cost of the item is allocated on a reasonable basis between the parts and each part is depreciated separately. Both the useful life of an asset and its residual value, if any, are reviewed annually.

(i) Leased assets

At inception of a contract, the Group assesses whether the contract is, or contains, a lease. A contract is, or contains, a lease if the contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset for a period of time in exchange for consideration. Control is conveyed where the customer has both the right to direct the use of the identified asset and to obtain substantially all of the economic benefits from that use.

As a lessee

At the lease commencement date, the Group recognises a right-of-use asset and a lease liability, except for short-term leases that have a lease term of 12 months or less and leases of low-value assets. The lease payments associated with those leases which are not capitalised are recognised as an expense on a systematic basis over the lease term.

Where the lease is capitalised, the lease liability is initially recognised at the present value of the lease payments payable over the lease term, discounted using the interest rate implicit in the lease or, if that rate cannot be readily determined, using a relevant incremental borrowing rate. After initial recognition, the lease liability is measured at amortised cost and interest expense is calculated using the effective interest method. Variable lease payments that do not depend on an index or rate are not included in the measurement of the lease liability and hence are charged to profit or loss in the accounting period in which they are incurred.

The right-of-use asset recognised when a lease is capitalised is initially measured at cost, which comprises the initial amount of the lease liability plus any lease payments made at or before the commencement date, and any initial direct costs incurred. Where applicable, the cost of the right-of-use assets also includes an estimate of costs to dismantle and remove the underlying asset or to restore the underlying asset or the site on which it is located, discounted to their present value, less any lease incentives received. The right-of-use asset is subsequently stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and impairment losses (see notes 1(h) and 1(j)(iii)), except for the right-of-use assets that meet the definition of investment property are carried at fair value in accordance with note 1(g).

The lease liability is remeasured when there is a change in future lease payments arising from a change in an index or rate, or there is a change in the Group's estimate of the amount expected to be payable under a residual value guarantee, or there is a change arising from the reassessment of whether the Group will be reasonably certain to exercise a purchase, extension or termination option. When the lease liability is remeasured in this way, a corresponding adjustment is made to the carrying amount of the right-of-use asset, or is recorded in profit or loss if the carrying amount of the right-of-use asset has been reduced to zero.

The lease liability is also remeasured when there is a change in the scope of a lease or the consideration for a lease that is not originally provided for in the lease contract ("lease modification") that is not accounted for as a separate lease. In this case the lease liability is remeasured based on the revised lease payments and lease term using a revised discount rate at the effective date of the modification. The only exceptions are any rent concessions which arose as a direct consequence of the COVID-19 pandemic and which satisfied the conditions set out in paragraph 46B of HKFRS 16, Leases. In such cases, the Group took advantage of the practical expedient set out in paragraph 46A of HKFRS 16 and recognised the change in consideration as if it were not a lease modification.

The Group presents right-of-use assets that do not meet the definition of investment property in 'Other property, plant and equipment' and presents lease liabilities separately in the statement of financial position.

(j) Credit losses and impairment of assets

(i) Credit losses from financial instruments, contract assets and lease receivables

The Group recognises a loss allowance for ECLs on the following items:

- financial assets measured at amortised cost (including cash and cash equivalents, trade and other receivables and loans to associates and joint ventures);
- contract assets as defined in HKFRS 15 (see note 1(k)(iii));
- debt securities measured at FVOCI (recycling); and
- lease receivables.

Financial assets measured at fair value, including units in trust funds and equity securities designated at FVOCI (non-recycling) are not subject to the ECL assessment.

Measurement of ECLs

ECLs are a probability-weighted estimate of credit losses. Credit losses are measured as the present value of all expected cash shortfalls (i.e. the difference between the cash flows due to the Group in accordance with the contract and the cash flows that the Group expects to receive).

The expected cash shortfalls are discounted using the following discount rates where the effect of discounting is material:

- fixed-rate financial assets, trade and other receivables and contract assets: effective interest rate determined at initial recognition or an approximation thereof;
- variable-rate financial assets: current effective interest rate; and
- lease receivables: discount rate used in the measurement of the lease receivable.

The maximum period considered when estimating ECLs is the maximum contractual period over which the Group is exposed to credit risk.

In measuring ECLs, the Group takes into account reasonable and supportable information that is available without undue cost or effort. This includes information about past events, current conditions and forecasts of future economic conditions.

ECLs are measured on either of the following bases:

- 12-month ECLs: these are losses that are expected to result from possible default events within the 12 months after the reporting date; and
- lifetime ECLs: these are losses that are expected to result from all possible default events over the expected lives of the items to which the ECL model applies.

Loss allowances for trade receivables, lease receivables and contract assets are always measured at an amount equal to lifetime ECLs. ECLs on these financial assets are estimated using a provision matrix based on the group's historical credit loss experience, adjusted for factors that are specific to the debtors and an assessment of both the current and forecast general economic conditions at the reporting date.

For all other financial instruments, the Group recognises a loss allowance equal to 12-month ECLs unless there has been a significant increase in credit risk of the financial instrument since initial recognition, in which case the loss allowance is measured at an amount equal to lifetime ECLs.

Significant increases in credit risk

In assessing whether the credit risk of a financial instrument has increased significantly since initial recognition, the Group compares the risk of default occurring on the financial instrument assessed at the reporting date with that assessed at the date of initial recognition. In making this reassessment, the Group considers that a default event occurs when (i) the borrower is unlikely to pay its credit obligations to the Group in full, without recourse by the Group to actions such as realising security (if any is held); or (ii) the financial asset is 90 days past due. The Group considers both quantitative and qualitative information that is reasonable and supportable, including historical experience and forward-looking information that is available without undue cost or effort.

In particular, the following information is taken into account when assessing whether credit risk has increased significantly since initial recognition:

- failure to make payments of principal or interest on their contractually due dates;
- an actual or expected significant deterioration in a financial instrument's external or internal credit rating (if available);
- an actual or expected significant deterioration in the operating results of the debtor; and
- existing or forecast changes in the technological, market, economic or legal environment that have a significant adverse effect on the debtor's ability to meet its obligation to the Group.

Depending on the nature of the financial instruments, the assessment of a significant increase in credit risk is performed on either an individual basis or a collective basis. When the assessment is performed on a collective basis, the financial instruments are grouped based on shared credit risk characteristics, such as past due status and credit risk ratings.

ECLs are remeasured at each reporting date to reflect changes in the financial instrument's credit risk since initial recognition. Any change in the ECL amount is recognised as an impairment gain or loss in profit or loss. The Group recognises an impairment gain or loss for all financial instruments with a corresponding adjustment to their carrying amount through a loss allowance account, except for investments in debt securities that are measured at FVOCI (recycling), for which the loss allowance is recognised in other comprehensive income and accumulated in the securities revaluation reserve (recycling).

Basis of calculation of interest income

Interest income recognised in accordance with note 1(s)(v) is calculated based on the gross carrying amount of the financial asset unless the financial asset is credit-impaired, in which case interest income is calculated based on the amortised cost (i.e. the gross carrying amount less loss allowance) of the financial asset.

At each reporting date, the Group assesses whether a financial asset is credit-impaired. A financial asset is credit-impaired when one or more events that have a detrimental impact on the estimated future cash flows of the financial asset have occurred.

Evidence that a financial asset is credit-impaired includes the following observable events:

- significant financial difficulties of the debtor;
- a breach of contract, such as a default or delinquency in interest or principal payments;
- it becoming probable that the borrower will enter into bankruptcy or other financial reorganisation;
- significant changes in the technological, market, economic or legal environment that have an adverse effect on the debtor; or
- the disappearance of an active market for a security because of financial difficulties of the issuer.

Write-off policy

The gross carrying amount of a financial asset, lease receivable or contract asset is written off (either partially or in full) to the extent that there is no realistic prospect of recovery. This is generally the case when the Group determines that the debtor does not have assets or sources of income that could generate sufficient cash flows to repay the amounts subject to the write-off.

Subsequent recoveries of an asset that was previously written off are recognised as a reversal of impairment in profit or loss in the period in which the recovery occurs.

(ii) Credit losses from financial guarantees issued

Financial guarantees are contracts that require the issuer (i.e. the guarantor) to make specified payments to reimburse the beneficiary of the guarantee (the “holder”) for a loss the holder incurs because a specified debtor fails to make payment when due in accordance with the terms of a debt instrument.

Financial guarantees issued are initially recognised within “trade and other payables” at fair value, which is determined by reference to fees charged in an arm’s length transaction for similar services, when such information is obtainable, or to interest rate differentials, by comparing the actual rates charged by lenders when the guarantee is made available with the estimated rates that lenders would have charged, had the guarantees not been available, where reliable estimates of such information can be made. Where consideration is received or receivable for the issuance of the guarantee, the consideration is recognised in accordance with the Group’s policies applicable to that category of asset. Where no such consideration is received or receivable, an immediate expense is recognised in profit or loss.

Subsequent to initial recognition, the amount initially recognised as deferred income is amortised in profit or loss over the term of the guarantee as income from financial guarantees issued.

The Group monitors the risk that the specified debtor will default on the contract and recognises a provision when ECLs on the financial guarantees are determined to be higher than the amount carried in “trade and other payables” in respect of the guarantees (i.e. the amount initially recognised, less accumulated amortisation).

To determine ECLs, the Group considers changes in the risk of default of the specified debtor since the issuance of the guarantee. A 12-month ECL is measured unless the risk that the specified debtor will default has increased significantly since the guarantee is issued, in which case a lifetime ECL is measured. The same definition of default and the same assessment of significant increase in credit risk as described in note 1(j)(i) apply.

As the Group is required to make payments only in the event of a default by the specified debtor in accordance with the terms of the instrument that is guaranteed, an ECL is estimated based on the expected payments to reimburse the holder for a credit loss that it incurs less any amount that the Group expects to receive from the holder of the guarantee, the specified debtor or any other party. The amount is then discounted using the current risk-free rate adjusted for risks specific to the cash flows.

(iii) Impairment of other non-current assets

Internal and external sources of information are reviewed at the end of each reporting period to identify indications that the following assets may be impaired or an impairment loss previously recognised no longer exists or may have decreased:

- other property, plant and equipment; and
- investments in subsidiaries in the Company's statement of financial position, associates and joint ventures in the consolidated and Company's statement of financial position.

If any such indication exists, the asset's recoverable amount is estimated.

– Calculation of recoverable amount

The recoverable amount of an asset is the greater of its fair value less costs of disposal and value in use. In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset. Where an asset does not generate cash inflows largely independent of those from other assets, the recoverable amount is determined for the smallest group of assets that generates cash inflows independently (i.e. a cash-generating unit).

– Recognition of impairment losses

An impairment loss is recognised in profit or loss if the carrying amount of an asset, or the cash-generating unit to which it belongs, exceeds its recoverable amount. Impairment losses recognised in respect of cash-generating units are allocated to reduce the carrying amount of the other assets in the unit (or group of units) on a pro rata basis, except that the carrying value of an asset will not be reduced below its individual fair value less costs of disposal (if measurable) or value in use (if determinable).

– Reversals of impairment losses

An impairment loss is reversed if there has been a favourable change in the estimates used to determine the recoverable amount.

A reversal of an impairment loss is limited to the asset's carrying amount that would have been determined had no impairment loss been recognised in prior years. Reversals of impairment losses are credited to profit or loss in the year in which the reversals are recognised.

(k) Inventories

(i) Trading stocks

Trading stocks are stated at the lower of cost and net realisable value. Cost includes the cost of materials computed using the weighted average method. Net realisable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business less the estimated costs necessary to make the sale.

When inventories are sold, the carrying amount of those inventories is recognised as an expense in the period in which the related revenue is recognised. The amount of any write-down of inventories to net realisable value and all losses of inventories are recognised as an expense in the period the write-down or loss occurs. The amount of any reversal of any write-down of inventories is recognised as a reduction in the amount of inventories recognised as an expense in the period in which the reversal occurs.

(ii) Spare parts and consumables

Spare parts and consumables are stated at cost, computed using the weighted average method, less provision for obsolescence.

(iii) Contract assets

Contract assets are recognised when the Group recognises revenue (see note 1(s)) before being unconditionally entitled to the consideration under the payment terms set out in the contract. Contract assets are assessed for ECLs in accordance with the policy set out in note 1(j)(i) and are reclassified to receivables when the right to the consideration has become unconditional (see note 1(l)).

(iv) Property development

Inventories in respect of property development activities are carried at the lower of cost and net realisable value. Cost and net realisable values are determined as follows:

- Properties under development for sale

The cost of properties under development for sale comprises specifically identified cost, including the acquisition cost of land, aggregate cost of development, materials and supplies, wages and other direct expenses, and an appropriate proportion of overheads. Net realisable value represents the estimated selling price less estimated costs of completion and costs to be incurred in selling the property.

- Completed properties held for sale

The cost of completed properties held for sale comprises all costs of purchase, costs of conversion and other costs incurred in bringing the inventories to their present location and condition.

In the case of completed properties developed by the Group, cost is determined by apportionment of the total development costs for that development project, attributable to the unsold properties. Net realisable value represents the estimated selling price less costs to be incurred in selling the property.

When inventories are sold, the carrying amount of those inventories is recognised as an expense in the period in which the related revenue is recognised.

The amount of any write-down of inventories to net realisable value and all losses of inventories are recognised as an expense in the period the write-down or loss occurs. The amount of any reversal of any write-down of inventories is recognised as a reduction in the amount of inventories recognised as an expense in the period in which the reversal occurs.

(l) Trade and other receivables

A receivable is recognised when the Group has an unconditional right to receive consideration. A right to receive consideration is unconditional if only the passage of time is required before payment of that consideration is due. If revenue has been recognised before the Group has an unconditional right to receive consideration, the amount is presented as a contract asset (see note 1(k)(iii)).

Receivables are stated at amortised cost using the effective interest method less allowance for credit losses (see note 1(j)).

(m) Trade and other payables

Trade and other payables are initially recognised at fair value. Except for financial guarantee liabilities measured in accordance with note 1(r)(i), trade and other payables are subsequently stated at amortised cost unless the effect of discounting would be immaterial, in which case they are stated at cost.

(n) Contract liabilities

A contract liability is recognised as forward sales deposits received when the customer pays non-refundable consideration before the Group recognises the related revenue (see note 1(s)). A contract liability would also be recognised if the Group has an unconditional right to receive non-refundable consideration before the Group recognises the related revenue. In such cases, a corresponding receivable would also be recognised (see note 1(l)).

When the contract includes a significant financing component, the contract balance includes interest accrued under the effective interest method.

(o) Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents comprise cash at bank and in hand, demand deposits with banks and other financial institutions, and short-term, highly liquid investments that are readily convertible into known amounts of cash and which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value, having been within three months of maturity at acquisition. Bank overdrafts that are repayable on demand and form an integral part of the Group's cash management are also included as a component of cash and cash equivalents for the purpose of the consolidated cash flow statement. Cash and cash equivalents are assessed for ECLs in accordance with the policy set out in note 1(j).

(p) Employee benefits

(i) Short term employee benefits and contributions to defined contribution retirement plans

Salaries, annual bonuses, paid annual leave, contributions to defined contribution retirement plans and the cost of non-monetary benefits are accrued in the year in which the associated services are rendered by employees. Where payment or settlement is deferred and the effect would be material, these amounts are stated at their present values.

(ii) Defined benefit retirement plan obligations

The Group's net obligation in respect of defined benefit retirement plan is calculated by estimating the amount of future benefit that employees have earned in return for their service in the current and prior periods; that benefit is discounted to determine the present value and the fair value of any plan assets is deducted. The calculation is performed by a qualified actuary using the projected unit credit method. When the calculation results in a benefit to the Group, the recognised asset is limited to the present value of economic benefits available in the form of any future refunds from the plan or reductions in future contributions to the plan.

Service cost and net interest expense (income) on the net defined benefit liability (asset) are recognised in profit or loss and allocated as part of "administrative expenses". Current service cost is measured as the increase in the present value of the defined benefit obligation resulting from employee service in the current period. When the benefits of a plan are changed, or when a plan is curtailed, the portion of the changed benefit related to past service by employees, or the gain or loss on curtailment, is recognised as an expense in profit or loss at the earlier of when the plan amendment or curtailment occurs and when related restructuring costs or termination benefits are recognised. Net interest expense (income) for the period is determined by applying the discount rate used to measure the defined benefit obligation at the beginning of the reporting period to the net defined benefit liability (asset). The discount rate is the yield at the end of the reporting period on Government Bonds that have maturity dates approximating the terms of the Group's obligations.

Remeasurements arising from defined benefit retirement plans are recognised in other comprehensive income and reflected immediately in retained earnings. Remeasurements comprise actuarial gains and losses, the return on plan assets (excluding amounts included in net interest on the net defined benefit liability (asset)) and any change in the effect of the asset ceiling (excluding amounts included in net interest on the net defined benefit liability (asset)).

(q) Income tax

Income tax for the year comprises current tax and movements in deferred tax assets and liabilities. Current tax and movements in deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognised in profit or loss except to the extent that they relate to items recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity, in which case the relevant amounts of tax are recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity, respectively.

Current tax is the expected tax payable on the taxable income for the year, using tax rates enacted or substantively enacted at the end of the reporting period, and any adjustment to tax payable in respect of previous years.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities arise from deductible and taxable temporary differences respectively, being the differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities for financial reporting purposes and their tax bases. Deferred tax assets also arise from unused tax losses and unused tax credits.

Apart from certain limited exceptions, all deferred tax liabilities, and all deferred tax assets to the extent that it is probable that future taxable profits will be available against which the asset can be utilised, are recognised. Future taxable profits that may support the recognition of deferred tax assets arising from deductible temporary differences include those that will arise from the reversal of existing taxable temporary differences, provided those differences relate to the same taxation authority and the same taxable entity, and are expected to reverse either in the same period as the expected reversal of the deductible temporary difference or in periods into which a tax loss arising from the deferred tax asset can be carried back or forward. The same criteria are adopted when determining whether existing taxable temporary differences support the recognition of deferred tax assets arising from unused tax losses and credits, that is, those differences are taken into account if they relate to the same taxation authority and the same taxable entity, and are expected to reverse in a period, or periods, in which the tax loss or credit can be utilised.

The limited exceptions to recognition of deferred tax assets and liabilities are those temporary differences arising from the initial recognition of assets or liabilities that affect neither accounting nor taxable profit (provided they are not part of a business combination), and temporary differences relating to investments in subsidiaries to the extent that, in the case of taxable differences, the Group controls the timing of the reversal and it is probable that the differences will not reverse in the foreseeable future, or in the case of deductible differences, unless it is probable that they will reverse in the future.

Where investment properties are carried at their fair value in accordance with the accounting policy set out in note 1(g), the amount of deferred tax recognised is measured using the tax rates that would apply on sale of those assets at their carrying value at the reporting date unless the property is depreciable and is held within a business model whose objective is to consume substantially all of the economic benefits embodied in the property over time, rather than through sale. In all other cases, the amount of deferred tax recognised is measured based on the expected manner of realisation or settlement of the carrying amount of the assets and liabilities, using tax rates enacted or substantively enacted at the end of the reporting period. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are not discounted.

The carrying amount of a deferred tax asset is reviewed at the end of each reporting period and is reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profits will be available to allow the related tax benefit to be utilised. Any such reduction is reversed to the extent that it becomes probable that sufficient taxable profits will be available.

Current tax balances and deferred tax balances, and movements therein, are presented separately from each other and are not offset. Current tax assets are offset against current tax liabilities, and deferred tax assets against deferred tax liabilities, if the Company or the Group has the legally enforceable right to set off current tax assets against current tax liabilities and the following additional conditions are met:

- in the case of current tax assets and liabilities, the Company or the Group intends either to settle on a net basis, or to realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously; or
- in the case of deferred tax assets and liabilities, if they relate to income taxes levied by the same taxation authority on either:
  - the same taxable entity; or
  - different taxable entities, which, in each future period in which significant amounts of deferred tax liabilities or assets are expected to be settled or recovered, intend to realise the current tax assets and settle the current tax liabilities on a net basis or realise and settle simultaneously.

(r) Provisions, contingent liabilities and onerous contracts

(i) Other provisions and contingent liabilities

Provisions are recognised when the Group has a legal or constructive obligation arising as a result of a past event, it is probable that an outflow of economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation and a reliable estimate can be made. Where the time value of money is material, provisions are stated at the present value of the expenditure expected to settle the obligation.

Where it is not probable that an outflow of economic benefits will be required, or the amount cannot be estimated reliably, the obligation is disclosed as a contingent liability, unless the probability of outflow of economic benefits is remote. Possible obligations, whose existence will only be confirmed by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more future events are also disclosed as contingent liabilities unless the probability of outflow of economic benefits is remote.

(ii) Onerous contracts

An onerous contract exists when the Group has a contract under which the unavoidable costs of meeting the obligations under the contract exceed the economic benefits expected to be received from the contract. Provisions for onerous contracts are measured at the present value of the lower of the expected cost of terminating the contract and the net cost of continuing with the contract.

(s) Revenue recognition

Income is classified by the Group as revenue when it arises from the sale of properties, the provision of services or the use by others of the Group's assets under leases in the ordinary course of the Group's business.

Revenue is recognised when control over a product or service is transferred to the customer, or the lessee has the right to use the asset, at the amount of promised consideration to which the Group is expected to be entitled, excluding those amounts collected on behalf of third parties. Revenue excludes value added tax or other sales taxes and is after deduction of any trade discounts.

Where the contract contains a financing component which provides a significant financing benefit to the customer for more than 12 months, revenue is measured at the present value of the amount receivable, discounted using the discount rate that would be reflected in a separate financing transaction with the customer, and interest income is accrued separately under the effective interest method. Where the contract contains a financing component which provides a significant financing benefit to the Group, revenue recognised under that contract includes the interest expense accreted on the contract liability under the effective interest method. The Group takes advantage of the practical expedient of HKFRS 15 and does not adjust the consideration for any effects of a significant financing component if the period of financing is 12 months or less.

Further details of the Group's revenue recognition policies are as follows:

(i) Sale of properties

Revenue arising from the sale of properties developed for sale in the ordinary course of business is recognised when legal assignment is completed, which is the point in time when the customer has the ability to direct the use of the property and obtain substantially all of the remaining benefits of the property. Deposits and instalments received on properties sold prior to the date of revenue recognition are included in the statement of financial position under contract liabilities (see note 1(n)).

When residential properties are marketed by the Group while the property is still under construction, the Group may offer a discount compared to the listed sales price, provided the customer agrees to pay the balance of the consideration early. In such cases, if the advance payments are regarded as providing a significant financing benefit to the Group, interest expense arising from the adjustment of time value of money will be accrued by the Group during the period between the payment date and the completion date of legal assignment. This accrual increases the balance of the contract liability during the period of construction, and therefore increases the amount of revenue recognised when control of the completed property is transferred to the customer. The interest is expensed as accrued unless it is eligible to be capitalised under HKAS 23, Borrowing costs.

(ii) Rental income from operating leases

Rental income receivable under operating leases is recognised in profit or loss in equal instalments over the periods covered by the lease term, except where an alternative basis is more representative of the pattern of benefits to be derived from the use of the leased asset. Lease incentives granted are recognised in profit or loss as an integral part of the aggregate net lease payments receivable. Contingent rentals are recognised as income in the accounting period in which they are earned.

(iii) Sale of goods

Revenue is recognised when the customer takes possession of and accepts the products. If the products are a partial fulfilment of a contract covering other goods and/or services, then the amount of revenue recognised is an appropriate proportion of the total transaction price under the contract, allocated between all the goods and services promised under the contract on a relative stand-alone selling price basis.

(iv) Ferry and shipyard operations

Revenue relating to ferry operations is recognised when the relevant ferry services are provided.

Revenue from shipyard operations is recognised progressively over time using the cost-to-cost method, i.e. based on the proportion of the actual costs incurred relative to the estimated total costs.

When the outcome of the contract cannot be reasonably measured, revenue is recognised only to the extent of contract costs incurred that are expected to be recovered.

(v) Interest income

Interest income is recognised as it accrues using the effective interest method. Effective interest method using the rate that exactly discounts estimated future cash receipts through the expected life of the financial asset to the gross carrying amount of the financial asset. For financial assets measured at amortised cost or FVOCI (recycling) that are not credit-impaired, the effective interest rate is applied to the gross carrying amount of the asset. For credit-impaired financial assets, the effective interest rate is applied to the amortised cost (i.e. gross carrying amount net of loss allowance) of the asset (see note 1(j)(i)).

(vi) Dividends

Dividend income from listed investments is recognised when the share price of the investment goes ex-dividend.

(t) Translation of foreign currencies

Foreign currency transactions during the year are translated at the foreign exchange rates ruling at the transaction dates. The transaction date is the date on which the Company initially recognises such non-monetary assets or liabilities. Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated at the foreign exchange rates ruling at the end of the reporting period. Exchange gains and losses are recognised in profit or loss.

Non-monetary assets and liabilities that are measured in terms of historical cost in a foreign currency are translated using the foreign exchange rates ruling at the transaction dates.

(u) Related parties

- (i) A person, or a close member of that person's family, is related to the Group if that person:
  - (A) has control or joint control over the Group;
  - (B) has significant influence over the Group; or
  - (C) is a member of the key management personnel of the Group.
- (ii) An entity is related to the Group if any of the following conditions applies:
  - (A) The entity and the Group are members of the same group (which means that each parent, subsidiary and fellow subsidiary is related to the others).
  - (B) One entity is an associate or joint venture of the other entity (or an associate or joint venture of a member of a group of which the other entity is a member).
  - (C) Both entities are joint ventures of the same third party.
  - (D) One entity is a joint venture of a third entity and the other entity is an associate of the third entity.
  - (E) The entity is a post-employment benefit plan for the benefit of employees of either the Group or an entity related to the Group.
  - (F) The entity is controlled or jointly controlled by a person identified in note (u)(i).
  - (G) A person identified in note (u)(i)(A) has significant influence over the entity or is a member of the key management personnel of the entity (or of a parent of the entity).
  - (H) The entity, or any member of a group of which it is a part, provides key management personnel services to the Group or to the Group's parent.

Close members of the family of a person are those family members who may be expected to influence, or be influenced by, that person in their dealings with the entity.

(v) Segment reporting

Operating segments, and the amounts of each segment item reported in the financial statements, are identified from the financial information provided regularly to the Group's most senior executive management for the purposes of allocating resources to, and assessing the performance of, the Group's various lines of business.

Individually material operating segments are not aggregated for financial reporting purposes unless the segments have similar economic characteristics and are similar in respect of the nature of products and services, the nature of production processes, the type or class of customers, the methods used to distribute the products or provide the services, and the nature of the regulatory environment. Operating segments which are not individually material may be aggregated if they share a majority of these criteria.

2 CRITICAL ACCOUNTING JUDGEMENTS AND ESTIMATES

Notes 16 and 24 contain information about the assumptions and their risk factors relating to defined benefit retirement obligation and financial instruments. Other key sources of estimation uncertainty and critical accounting judgements in applying the Group's accounting policies are as follows:

(a) Valuation of investment properties

In determining the fair value of the investment properties, the Group has considered information from different sources, including a valuation performed by an independent firm of professional valuers after taking into consideration the net rental income allowing for reversionary income potential, and other available market survey reports.

The assumptions adopted in the property valuations are based on the market conditions existing at the end of the reporting period, with reference to the appropriate capitalisation rate and occupancy rate.

(b) Recognition of deferred tax assets

At 31 December 2020, the Group had recognised deferred tax assets in relation to the unused tax losses amounting to approximately HK$4,420,000 (2019: HK$7,590,000). The realisability of the deferred tax assets mainly depends on whether it is probable that future taxable profits or taxable temporary differences will be available against which related tax benefits under the deferred tax assets can be utilised. In cases where the actual future taxable profits or taxable temporary differences generated are less than expected, a reversal of deferred tax assets may arise, which will be recognised in profit or loss for the period in which such a reversal takes place.

3 SEGMENT INFORMATION

The operating segments are identified on the basis of internal reports about components of the Group that are regularly reviewed by the chief operating decision maker in order to allocate resources to the segment and to assess its performance.

In a manner consistent with the way in which information is reported internally to the Group's most senior executive management for the purposes of resource allocation and performance assessment, the Group has presented the following four reportable segments.

- Property development: development and sale of properties.
- Property investment: rental income from leasing of properties.
- Ferry, shipyard and related operations: income from operation of dangerous goods vehicular ferry service and ship repairs and maintenance services and sales of goods on cruise vessels.
- Securities investment: dividend, interest and other income from listed securities investments.

Segment information is presented only in respect of the Group's business segments. No geographical analysis is shown as substantially all of the Group's revenue and profit from operations were derived from activities in Hong Kong.

Segment results

For the purposes of assessing segment performance and allocating resources between segments, the Group's most senior executive management monitors the results attributable to each reportable segment on the following bases:

Revenue and expenses are allocated to the reportable segments with reference to sales generated by those segments and the expenses incurred by those segments or which otherwise arise from the depreciation or amortisation of assets attributable to those segments.

Apart from revenue from shipyard which are recognised over time, the Group's other revenue streams within the scope of HKFRS 15 are recognised at a point in time.

Revenue represents gross income from the sale of properties, sales value of goods delivered to customers, income from services rendered, rental income, interest income and dividend income.

At 31 December 2020, the aggregate amount of revenue expected to be recognised in profit or loss in the future from construction and repairing contracts entered into in relation to the Group's shipyard operations amounted to HK$11,707,000 (2019: HK$11,995,000), which will be recognised overtime until the work is completed, which is expected to occur over the next 12 months.

6 INCOME TAX IN THE CONSOLIDATED STATEMENT OF PROFIT OR LOSS

(a) Taxation in the consolidated statement of profit or loss represents:

	2020 HK$'000	2019 HK$'000
Current tax – Hong Kong Profits Tax
Provision for the year	9,224	13,127
(Over)/under-provision in respect of prior years	(96)	532

Deferred tax
Origination and reversal of temporary differences	3,934	4,672
	13,062	18,331

The provision for Hong Kong Profits Tax for 2020 is calculated at 16.5% (2019: 16.5%) of the estimated assessable profits for the year, except for one subsidiary of the Group which is a qualifying corporation under the two-tiered Profits Tax rate regime.

For this subsidiary, the first HK$2 million of assessable profits are taxed at 8.25% and the remaining assessable profits are taxed at 16.5%. The provision for Hong Kong Profits Tax for this subsidiary was calculated at the same basis in 2019.

The provision for Hong Kong Profits Tax for 2020 takes into account a reduction granted by the Hong Kong SAR Government of 100% of the tax payable for the year of assessment 2019/20 subject to a maximum reduction of HK$20,000 for each business (2019: a maximum reduction of HK$20,000 was granted for the year of assessment 2018/19 and was taken into account in calculating the provision for 2019).

In prior years, the Inland Revenue Department (“IRD”) raised additional profits tax assessments on a subsidiary of the Group covering the years of assessment from 2001/02 to 2009/10 as the IRD disallowed the deduction of certain capital expenditure incurred by the subsidiary. Notices of objection were filed with the IRD by the subsidiary. In February 2017, the IRD further raised additional profits tax assessments covering the years of assessment from 2010/11 to 2014/15 in respect of such disallowance. Management has sought advice from the Group’s tax adviser and has filed a notice of objection against such additional tax assessments. No change in the circumstances for the years ended 31 December 2020 and 2019.

(a) Fair value measurement of investment properties

(i) Fair value hierarchy

The following table presents the fair value of the Group's investment properties measured at the end of the reporting period on a recurring basis, categorised into the three-level fair value hierarchy as defined in HKFRS 13, Fair value measurement. The level into which a fair value measurement is classified is determined with reference to the observability and significance of the inputs used in the valuation technique as follows:

- Level 1 valuations: Fair value measured using only Level 1 inputs i.e. unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities at the measurement date
- Level 2 valuations: Fair value measured using Level 2 inputs i.e. observable inputs which fail to meet Level 1, and not using significant unobservable inputs. Unobservable inputs are inputs for which market data are not available
- Level 3 valuations: Fair value measured using significant unobservable inputs

During the year ended 31 December 2020, there were no transfers between Level 1 and Level 2, or transfers into or out of Level 3 (2019: Nil). The Group's policy is to recognise transfers between levels of fair value hierarchy as at the end of the reporting period in which they occur.

Valuation process

All the Group's investment properties were revalued as at 31 December 2020. The valuations were carried out by an independent firm of surveyors, Cushman & Wakefield Limited, who have among their staff Members of the Hong Kong Institute of Surveyors with recent experience in the location and category of property being valued, on a market value basis. The management has discussion with the surveyors on the valuation assumptions and valuation results when the valuation is performed at each interim and annual reporting date.

(ii) Information about Level 3 fair value measurements

The fair values of investment properties were determined using income capitalisation approach which capitalised the net income of the properties and taking into account the reversionary potential of properties after expiry of the current leases except for an investment property which was determined using market comparison approach by reference to recent sales price of comparable properties on a price per square foot basis using market data which is publicly available.

Below is a table which presents the significant unobservable inputs:

Income capitalisation approach

	Range of capitalisation rates		Range of occupancy rates

The fair value measurement of investment properties is positively correlated to the occupancy rate and market unit sales price and negatively correlated to the capitalisation rate.

The movements during the year in the balance of these Level 3 fair value measurements are as follows:

	2020 HK$'000	2019 HK$'000
Investment properties
At 1 January	2,185,970	2,151,470

Valuation (loss)/gain	(20,674)	31,770
At 31 December	2,172,970	2,185,970

Fair value adjustment of investment properties is recognised in the line item "valuation (losses)/gains on investment properties" on the face of the consolidated statement of profit or loss.

All the losses or gains recognised in profit or loss for the year arise from the properties held at the end of the reporting period.

(b) The analysis of the net book value of all the properties, which are held in Hong Kong, is as follows:

	2020 HK$'000	2019 HK$'000
Medium-term leases	2,224,292	2,234,998

- (c) The Group leases out investment properties under operating leases. The leases typically run for an initial period of one month to three years, with an option to renew the lease after that date at which time all terms are renegotiated. Certain of the leases include contingent rentals calculated with reference to the revenue of tenants.

All properties held under operating leases that would otherwise meet the definition of investment properties are classified as investment properties.

The Group's total future minimum lease payments under non-cancellable operating leases are receivable as follows:

16 NET EMPLOYEE RETIREMENT BENEFITS LIABILITIES

(a) Defined benefit retirement plan

The Group makes contributions to a defined benefit retirement plan registered under the Occupational Retirement Schemes Ordinance (Chapter 426 of the Laws of Hong Kong), which covers 9.3% (2019: 10.2%) of the Group's employees. The plan is administered by independent trustees with their assets held separately from those of the Group.

The plan is funded by contributions from the Group in accordance with an independent actuary's recommendation based on annual actuarial valuations. The latest independent actuarial valuation of the plan was at 31 December 2020 and was prepared by qualified staff of Towers Watson Hong Kong Limited, who are members of recognised actuarial bodies, using the projected unit credit method. The actuarial valuation indicates that 88.9% (2019: 97.7%) of the Group's obligations under the defined benefit retirement plan are covered by the plan assets held by the trustees.

The plan exposes the Group to actuarial risks, such as interest rate risk, investment risk and longevity risk. Information about the plan is disclosed below:

- (i) The amounts recognised in the consolidated statement of financial position are as follows:

	2020 HK$'000	2019 HK$'000
Present value of wholly or partly funded obligations	(37,024)	(37,798)
Fair value of plan assets	32,901	36,944
	(4,123)	(854)

The plan assets do not include any share issued by the Company or any property occupied by the Group.

A portion of the above liability is expected to be settled after more than one year. However, it is not practicable to segregate this amount from the amounts payable in the next twelve months, as future contributions will also relate to future services rendered and future changes in actuarial assumptions and market conditions. The Group expects to pay HK$447,000 in contributions to defined benefit retirement plan in 2021.

The current service cost, the net income/interest on defined benefit liabilities and the administrative expenses paid are recognised in the following item in the consolidated statement of profit or loss:

	2020 HK$'000	2019 HK$'000

– 2022	3.0%	3.5%

The below analysis shows how the net defined benefit liability would have (increased)/decreased as a result of 0.25% change in the significant actuarial assumptions:

(a) Ageing analysis

Included in trade and other receivables are trade debtors (net of loss allowance) with the following ageing analysis based on due date at the end of the reporting period:

	2020 HK$'000	2019 HK$'000
Current	155,879	213,129
1 to 3 months overdue	27,199	28,289

More than 12 months overdue	222	–
	195,343	245,436

Trade debtors are due ranging from 7 to 45 days from the date of billing. Debtors with balances that are more than 60 days overdue are generally required to settle all outstanding balances before any further credit is granted. Further details on the Group's credit policy are set out in note 24(a).

(b) Impairment of trade debtors

Impairment losses in respect of trade debtors are recorded using an allowance account unless the Group is satisfied that recovery of the amount is remote, in which case the impairment loss is written off against trade debtors directly (see note 1(j)(i)).

The Group measures loss allowances for trade receivables at an amount equal to lifetime ECLs, which include a specific element based on individual receivables and a collective element calculated using a provision matrix. As the Group's historical credit loss experience does not indicate significantly different loss patterns for different customer segments, the loss allowance based on past due status is not further distinguished between the Group's different customer bases.

The Group has recognised an ECL on trade debtors amounting to HK$2,586,000 (2019: HK$122,000) as at 31 December 2020, calculated on 100% of certain individual trade debtors with specific risk. The identified impairment loss on the remaining trade debtors was immaterial as at 31 December 2020 and 31 December 2019.

At 31 December 2020, the aggregate amount of reserves available for distribution to equity shareholders of the Company, as calculated under the provisions of Part 6 of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance, was HK$90,463,000 (2019: HK$239,136,000). This dividend has not been recognised as a liability at the end of the reporting period.

(e) Capital management

The Group's primary objectives when managing capital are to safeguard the Group's ability to continue as a going concern and ensure that it maintains a healthy capital ratio in order to support its business and provide returns for shareholders.

The Group actively and regularly reviews and manages its capital structure under the policy of prudent financial management. The Group maintains a financially sound capital position and, where appropriate, makes adjustments to it, in light of changes in economic conditions. To maintain or adjust the capital structure, the Group may adjust the dividend payment to shareholders, return capital to shareholders or issue new shares. No changes were made in the objectives, policies or processes during the years ended 31 December 2020 and 2019.

Neither the Company nor any of its subsidiaries are subject to externally imposed capital requirements.

24 FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT AND FAIR VALUES OF FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

Exposure to credit, liquidity, currency and equity price risks arises in the normal course of the Group's business. The Group is also exposed to equity price risk arising from its equity investments in other entities and movements in its own equity share price.

The Group's exposure to these risks and the financial risk management policies and practices used by the Group to manage these risks are described below.

(a) Credit risk

Credit risk refers to the risk that a counterparty will default on its contractual obligation resulting in a financial loss to the Group.

The Group's credit risk is primarily attributable to bank deposits and trade and other receivables. Management has a credit policy in place and the exposures to these credit risks are monitored on an ongoing basis.

Cash is deposited with financial institutions with sound credit ratings and the Group has exposure limit to any single financial institution. Given their high credit ratings, management does not expect any of these financial institutions will fail to meet their obligations.

Regular review and follow-up actions are carried out on overdue amounts of instalments receivable from sale of properties which enable management to assess their recoverability and to minimise the exposure to credit risk. In respect of other trade receivables, individual credit evaluations are performed on all customers requiring credit over a certain amount. These evaluations focus on the customer's past history of making payments when due and current ability to pay, and take into account information specific to the customer as well as pertaining to the economic environment in which the customer operates. Trade receivables are due ranging from 7 to 45 days from the date of billing. Debtors with balances that are more than 60 days overdue are requested to settle all outstanding balances before any further credit is granted. Normally, the Group does not obtain collateral from customers.

The Group's exposure to credit risk is not influenced by the individual characteristics of each customer as the Group does not have a certain concentration of credit risk of the total trade and other receivables.

The maximum exposure to credit risk is represented by the carrying amount of each financial asset in the statement of financial positions. Except for the financial guarantees given by the Group as set out in note 26, the Group does not provide any other guarantees to third parties which would expose the Group to credit risk.

Further quantitative disclosures in respect of the Group's exposure to credit risk arising from trade and other receivables are set out in note 18.

(b) Liquidity risk

The treasury functions of the Group is centralised at the head office. Individual operating entities within the Group are responsible for their own cash management, including the short term investment of cash surpluses to cover expected cash demands, subject to approval by the Company's board when the borrowings exceed certain predetermined levels of authority. The Group's policy is to regularly monitor its liquidity requirements, to ensure that it maintains sufficient reserves of cash from major financial institutions to meet its liquidity requirements in the short and longer term.

(b) Liquidity risk (Continued)

The following table shows the remaining contractual maturities at the end of the reporting period of the Group's non-derivative financial liabilities, which are based on contractual undiscounted cash flows (including interest payments computed using contractual rates at the end of the reporting period) and the earliest date the Group can be required to pay:

(c) Currency risk

The Group has no significant exposure to foreign currency risk given its large asset base and operational cash flow are primarily denominated in Hong Kong dollars.

(d) Equity price risk

The Group is exposed to equity price change arising from other financial assets designated through FVOCI and FVPL held for non-trading purposes (see note 15).

Listed investments held by the Group have been chosen based on their longer term growth potential and are monitored regularly for performance against expectations.

Sensitivity analysis

At 31 December 2020, it is estimated that an increase/decrease of 10% (2019: 10%) in the market prices of equity and debt investments in other financial assets, with all other variables held constant would have increased/decreased the securities revaluation reserve by approximately HK$15,965,000 (2019: HK$24,811,000).

The sensitivity analysis indicates the instantaneous change in the Group's profit after tax (and retained profits) and other components of consolidated equity that would arise assuming that the changes in the stock market index or other relevant risk variables had occurred at the end of the reporting period and had been applied to re-measure those financial instruments held by the Group which expose the Group to equity price risk at the end of the reporting period. It is also assumed that none of the Group's other financial assets would be considered impaired as a result of the decrease in the relevant stock market index or other relevant risk variables, and that all other variables remain constant.

(e) Fair value measurement

(i) Financial assets measured at fair value

Fair value hierarchy

The fair value of the Group's financial instruments measured at the end of the reporting period on a recurring basis, categorized into the three-level fair value hierarchy as defined in HKFRS 13, Fair value measurement.

The fair value measurements of the Group's financial assets as at 31 December 2020 and 31 December 2019 are categorised into Level 1. During the year ended 31 December 2020, there were no transfers between Level 1 and Level 2, or transfers into or out of Level 3 (2019: Nil). The Group's policy is to recognise transfers between levels of fair value hierarchy as at the end of the reporting period in which they occur.

(ii) Fair values of financial assets and liabilities carried at other than fair value

The carrying amounts of the Group's financial instruments carried at cost or amortised cost are not materially different from their fair values as at 31 December 2020 and 2019.
