CLARIFICATION ANNOUNCEMENT
IN RELATION TO CERTAIN PRESS ARTICLES

Reference is made to the announcement of Nayuki Holdings Limited (the “Company”, together with its subsidiaries, the “Group”) dated August 4, 2021 (the “Announcement”) in relation to the Press Articles. Capitalized terms used herein shall have the same meanings as those defined in the Announcement unless otherwise specified.

The Board hereby announces that, the content of the Announcement is amended as follows:

“This announcement is made by Nayuki Holdings Limited (the “Company”, together with its subsidiaries, the “Group”) on a voluntary basis.

The board (the “Board”) of directors (the “Directors”) of the Company has noted that certain press articles (the “Press Articles”) were published on August 2, 2021 and August 3, 2021 concerning, among others, the food safety of the products in two Nayuki teahouses in Beijing and certain enforcement actions regarding food safety inspection conducted by the relevant government authorities in Nayuki teahouses in the Guangdong Province.

The Board wishes to emphasize that the Group is committed to food safety and product quality requirements in its day-to-day business operation. Immediately after becoming aware of the publication of the Press Articles and the enforcement actions regarding food safety inspection conducted by the relevant government authorities, the Company has established a special task force to investigate the matters raised in the Press Articles. The said two Nayuki teahouses in Beijing involved have suspended operations immediately to enable the Group to conduct full investigation. To further ensure food safety and to avoid recurrence of the incidents, the Company will, among others, (i) increase the frequency of engaging external service provider to sanitize the said two Nayuki teahouses in Beijing; and (ii) further enhance the Group's automated in-store operation including in-store inventory management system to accurately tracks and intelligently analyzes inventory levels and the valid periods of major ingredients to ensure that the in-store staff would strictly adhere to and implement the Group's quality control policies and procedures for food safety and product quality.

The Board wishes to inform the shareholders of the Company and potential investors that as at the date of this announcement, the Company has not been subject to any administrative fine from the relevant government authorities in the PRC arising from the matters referred in the Press Articles. While a fully standardized process for food preparation that ensures food safety and product quality requirements is in place throughout the Group's teahouse network, the Group has cooperated with the relevant government authorities to conduct inspections on the said two Nayuki teahouses in Beijing and has rectified the operations of the said two Nayuki teahouses in Beijing in accordance with the guidance of the relevant government authorities to ensure their compliance with the applicable food safety requirements.

In view of the above and to the best of the Directors' knowledge after making reasonable enquiries, the Directors are of the view that the matters referred in the Press Articles would not have any material adverse effect on the operations and financial conditions of the Group.

Shareholders of the Company and potential investors are advised to exercise caution in dealing with the securities of the Company.”

Save for the amendments as shown above, the other content of the Announcement remains unchanged.

By the order of the Board
