Article 14

Shares which the Company issues to Domestic Investors for subscription in RMB are called “Domestic Shares”; shares which the Company issues to Foreign Investors for subscription in foreign currencies are called “Foreign Shares”. Foreign Shares which are listed overseas are called “Overseas Listed Foreign Shares”. The shareholders of “Domestic Shares” and the shareholders of “Overseas Listed Foreign Shares” shall be shareholders of ordinary shares, possessing the same rights and obligations.^{A3, 9}

“Foreign currencies” means the legal currencies of countries or districts outside the PRC which are recognised by the foreign exchange authority of the State and which can be used to make the share price to the Company.

Foreign Shares issued by the Company and which are listed in Hong Kong shall be referred to as “H Shares”. “H Shares” means the shares which have been admitted by the relevant departments of the State for listing on the Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (the “Stock Exchange”), the par value of which is denominated in RMB and which are subscribed for and traded in Hong Kong dollars.^{MP 14}

Article 15

As examined and approved by the authorised department of the State Council, the Company issued 51,000,000 ordinary shares, which represent 100% of the ordinary shares issued by the Company to its founders when it was first established. Of these, 40,800,000 shares (80% of the aggregate number of shares) are owned by the Research Center of Ministry of Industry and Information Technology Computer and Microelectronics Development (formerly known as Research Centre of Computer and Microelectronics Industry Development under the Ministry of Information Industry), 9,690,000 shares (19% of the aggregate number) are owned by Beijing CCID Riyue Investment Company Limited, 102,000 shares (0.2% of the aggregate number) are owned by Deng Zhicheng, 102,000 shares (0.2% of the aggregate number) are owned by Xu Mutu, 102,000 shares (0.2% of the aggregate number) are owned by Yang Tianxing, 102,000 shares (0.2% of the aggregate number) are owned by Luo Wen and 102,000 shares (0.2% of the aggregate number) are owned by Lu Shan respectively.^{A3, 9}^{MP 15}

The Company increased its capital for the first time after the founding of the Company with the issuance of 190,000,000 ordinary shares of overseas listed foreign shares, and after exercising the Over-allotment Option, no more than 28,500,000 of Overseas Listed Foreign Shares were issued. The Domestic Shares held by the Company’s state-owned shareholders of the Research Center of Ministry of Industry and Information Technology Computer and Microelectronics Development (formerly known as Research Centre of Computer and Microelectronics Industry Development under the Ministry of Information Industry) and Beijing CCID Riyue Investment Company Limited were converted into Overseas Listed Foreign Shares, which were not more than 19,000,000 shares, and the number of shares after exercising the Over-allotment Option did not exceed 2,850,000 shares.^{MP 16}

The Share structure of the Company upon aforesaid increase of capital with the issuance^{A3, 9} of shares is 700,000,000 ordinary shares, among which 491,000,000 shares are Domestic Shares (70.143% of the aggregate number of ordinary shares issued by the Company), 392,610,000 shares are owned by Research Center of Ministry of Industry and Information Technology Computer and Microelectronics Development (formerly known as Research Centre of Computer and Microelectronics Industry Development under the Ministry of Information Industry), 93,290,000 shares are owned by Beijing CCID Riyue Investment Company Limited, 1,020,000 shares are owned by Deng Zhicheng, 1,020,000 shares are owned by Xu Mutu, 1,020,000 shares are owned by Yang Tianxing, 1,020,000 shares are owned by Luo Wen and 1,020,000 shares are owned by Lu Shan (all of the aforementioned names are the founders) respectively, and 209,000,000 shares are held by the shareholders of Overseas Listed Foreign Shares, which represent 29.857% of the entire ordinary shares issued by the Company.

Pursuant to the Confirmation Letter for Share Transfer Registration issued by the China Securities Depository and Clearing Corporation Limited, the founders and shareholders of the Company, Luo Wen, Lu Shan, Xu Mutu, Yang Tianxing, Deng Zhicheng, transferred their respective 1,020,000 Domestic Shares of the Company to Beijing CCID Riyue Investment Company Limited on 10 July 2015 respectively. Upon the completion of the above transfers, the Share structure of the Company is 700,000,000 ordinary shares, among which 491,000,000 shares are Domestic Shares (70.143% of the aggregate number of ordinary shares issued by the Company), 392,610,000 shares are owned by the Research Center of Ministry of Industry and Information Technology Computer and Microelectronics Development (formerly known as Research Centre of Computer and Microelectronics Industry Development under the Ministry of Information Industry), 98,390,000 shares are owned by Beijing CCID Riyue Investment Company Limited (all of the aforementioned names are the founders) respectively, and 209,000,000 shares are held by the shareholders of Overseas Listed Foreign Shares, which represent 29.857% of the entire ordinary shares issued by the Company. Luo Wen, Lu Shan, Xu Mutu, Yang Tianxing, Deng Zhicheng ceased to hold any shares of the Company.

Article 17

The Company's Board of Directors may take all necessary action for the respective^{MP 17} issuance of the Overseas Listed Foreign Shares and Domestic Shares after the proposals for issuance of the same have been approved by the securities authority of the State Council.

The Company may implement its proposal to issue Overseas Listed Foreign Shares and Domestic Shares pursuant to the preceding paragraph within fifteen months from the date of approval by the China Securities Supervisory and Control Commission ("CSSCC").

Article 18

Where the total number of shares stated in the proposal for the issuance of shares ^{MP 18} includes Overseas Listed Foreign Shares and Domestic Shares, such shares should be fully subscribed for at their respective offerings. If the shares cannot be fully subscribed for all at once due to special circumstances, the shares may, subject to the approval of the CSSCC, be issued on separate occasions.

Article 19

Upon the completion of the Overseas Listed Foreign Shares issued, if the Over-allotment ^{MP 19} Option is not exercised, the Company's registered capital is RMB70,000,000; if the Over-allotment Option is fully exercised, the company's registered capital increases to RMB72,850,000. The Company shall register its registered capital with the state industry and commerce department.

Article 20

The Company may, based on its operation and development needs, authorise the increase ^{MP 20} of its capital pursuant to the Articles of Association.

The Company may increase its capital in the following ways:

- (1) by offering new shares for subscription by unspecified investors;
- (2) by placing new shares to its existing shareholders;
- (3) by allotting bonus shares to its existing shareholders;
- (4) by any other means which is permitted by laws and administrative regulations.

After the Company's increase of share capital by means of the issuance of new shares has been approved in accordance with the provisions of the Articles of Association, the issuance thereof should be made in accordance with the procedures set out in the relevant laws and administrative regulations of the State.

Article 21

MP 21

Unless otherwise stipulated in the relevant laws or administrative regulations, shares in ^{A3, 1(2)} the Company shall be freely transferable and are not subject to any lien.

CHAPTER 4 REDUCTION OF CAPITAL AND REPURCHASE OF SHARES

Article 22

According to the provisions of the Articles of Association, the Company may reduce its ^{MP 22} registered capital.

Article 23

The Company must prepare a balance sheet and an inventory of assets when it reduces ^{MP 23} its registered capital.

The Company shall notify its creditors within ten (10) days of the date of the Company's resolution for reduction of capital and shall publish an announcement at least three (3) times in the newspapers within thirty (30) days of the date of such resolution. A creditor has the right within thirty (30) days of receipt of the notice from the Company or, in the case of a creditor who does not receive such notice, within ninety (90) days of the date of the first announcement, to require the Company to repay its debts or to provide a corresponding guarantee for such debt.

The Company's registered capital may not, after the reduction in capital, be less than the minimum amount prescribed by law.

Article 24

The Company may, in accordance with the procedures set out in the Articles of ^{MP 24} Association and with the approval of the relevant governing authority of the State, repurchase its outstanding shares under the following circumstances:

- (1) cancellation of shares for the purposes of reducing its capital;
- (2) merging with another company that holds shares in the Company; and
- (3) other circumstances permitted by laws and administrative regulations.

Article 25

The Company may repurchase shares in one of the following ways, with the approval of ^{MP 25} the relevant governing authority of the State:

- (1) by making an offer for the repurchase of shares to all its shareholders on a pro rata ^{A3, 8(2)} basis;
- (2) by repurchasing shares through public dealing on a stock exchange; or
- (3) by repurchasing shares outside of the stock exchange by means of an off-market agreement.

Article 26

The Company must obtain the prior approval of the shareholders in a general meeting in the manner stipulated in the Articles of Association before it can repurchase shares outside the stock exchange by means of an off-market agreement. The Company may, by obtaining the prior approval of the shareholders in a general meeting (in the same manner), rescind or vary any contract which has been so entered into or waive any right thereof.^{MP 26}

A contract for the repurchase of shares referred to in the preceding paragraph includes (but not limited to) an agreement to become liable to repurchase shares or an agreement to have the right to repurchase shares.

The Company shall not assign any contract for the repurchase of its shares or any right contained in such agreement.

Article 27

Upon repurchase of shares according to laws, the Company shall cancel those shares and apply to register the change of the registered capital with original companies' registration authorities within the period required by laws and administrative regulations.^{MP 27}

The aggregate par value of the cancelled shares shall be deducted from the Company's registered share capital.

Article 28

Unless the Company is in the course of liquidation, it must comply with the following provisions in relation to repurchase of its outstanding shares:^{A3, 8}

- (1) where the Company repurchases shares at par value, payment shall be made out of book surplus distributable profits of the Company or out of proceeds of a new issue of shares made for that purpose;^{MP 28}
- (2) where the Company repurchases shares of the Company at a premium to its par value, payment up to the par value may be made out of the book surplus of distributable profits of the Company or out of the proceeds of a new issue of shares made for that purpose. Payment of the portion in excess of the par value shall be effected as follows:
 - (i) if the shares being repurchased were issued at par value, payment shall be made out of the book surplus of distributable profits of the Company; or

- (ii) if the shares being repurchased were issued at a premium to its par value, payment shall be made out of the book surplus of distributable profits of the Company or out of the proceeds of a new issue of shares made for that purpose, provided that the amount paid out of the proceeds of the new issue shall not exceed the aggregate amount of premiums received by the Company on the issue of the shares repurchased nor shall it exceed the book value of the Company's capital common reserve fund account (including the premiums on the new issue) at the time of the repurchase;
- (3) the Company shall make the following payments out of the Company's distributable profits:
 - (i) payment for the acquisition of the right to repurchase its own shares;
 - (ii) payment for variation of any contract for the repurchase of its shares;
 - (iii) payment for the release of its obligations under any contract for the repurchase of; and
- (4) after the Company's registered capital has been reduced by the aggregate par value of the cancelled shares in accordance with the relevant provisions, the amount deducted from the distributable profits of the Company for payment of the par value of shares which have been repurchased shall be transferred to the Company's capital common reserve fund account.

CHAPTER 5 FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE FOR ACQUISITION OF SHARES OF THE COMPANY

Article 29

The Company and its subsidiaries shall not, at any time, provide any form of financial assistance to a person who is acquiring or is proposing to acquire shares in the Company. This includes any person who directly or indirectly incurs any obligations as a result of the acquisition of shares in the Company. ^{MP 29}

The Company and its subsidiaries shall not, at any time, provide any form of financial assistance to the Obligor for the purposes of reducing or discharging the obligations assumed by such person.

This Article shall not apply to the circumstances specified in Article 31 of this Chapter.

Article 30

For the purpose of this Chapter, “financial assistance” includes (but not limited to) the following: ^{MP 30}

- (1) gift;
- (2) guarantee (including the assumption of liability by the guarantor or the provision of assets by the guarantor to secure the performance of obligations by the Obligor), compensation (other than compensation in respect of the Company’s own default) or release or waiver of any rights;
- (3) provision of loan or the making of any other agreement under which the obligations of the Company are to be fulfilled before the obligations of another party, or the change in parties to, or the assignment of rights under, such loan or contract; or
- (4) any other form of financial assistance given by the Company when the Company is insolvent or has no net assets or when its net assets would thereby be reduced to a material extent.

For the purposes of this Chapter, “assumption of obligations” includes the assumption of obligations by means of contract or by means of arrangement (irrespective of whether such contract or arrangement is enforceable or not and irrespective of whether such obligation is to be borne solely by the Obligor or jointly with other persons) or by any other means which results in a change in his financial position.

Article 31

The following acts shall not be deemed to be acts prohibited by Article 29 of this Chapter: ^{MP 31}

- (1) the provision of financial assistance by the Company where the financial assistance is given in good faith in the interests of the Company, and the principal purpose of which is not for the acquisition of shares in the Company, or the giving of the financial assistance is an incidental part of a master plan of the Company;
- (2) the lawful distribution of the Company’s assets as dividend;
- (3) the distribution of dividends in the form of shares;
- (4) a reduction of registered capital, a repurchase of shares of the Company or a reorganisation of the shareholding structure of the Company effected in accordance with the Articles of Association;

- (5) the provision of loans by the Company within its scope of business and in the ordinary course of its business, where the provision of loans falls within part of the scope of business of the Company (provided that the net assets of the Company are not thereby reduced or that, to the extent that the assets are thereby reduced, the financial assistance is provided out of distributable profits); and
- (6) contributions made by the Company to the employee share ownership scheme (provided that the net assets of the Company are not thereby reduced or that, to the extent that the assets are thereby reduced, the financial assistance is provided out of distributable profits).

CHAPTER 6 SHARE CERTIFICATES AND REGISTER OF SHAREHOLDERS

Article 32

Share certificates of the Company shall be in registered form.

MP 32

Share certificates of the Company shall bear items including other matters as required by the Company Law, Special Regulations and the stock exchange on which the shares of the Company are listed.

- (4) the share certificate numbers of the shares held by each shareholder;
- (5) the date on which each person was registered as a shareholder; and
- (6) the date on which any shareholder ceased to be a shareholder.

Unless there is evidence to the contrary, the register of shareholders shall be sufficient evidence of the shareholders' shares in the Company.

Article 35

The Company may, in accordance with the mutual understanding and agreements made between the securities regulatory authorities of the State Council and overseas securities regulatory organisations, maintain the register of shareholders of Overseas Listed Foreign Shares overseas and appoint overseas agents to manage such register of shareholders. Such original register of shareholders of Overseas Listed Foreign Shares listed in Hong Kong shall be kept in Hong Kong. ^{A13D, 1(b)}

A duplicate register of shareholders for the holders of Overseas Listed Foreign Shares shall be maintained at the Company's residence. The appointed overseas agents shall ensure consistency between the original and the duplicate register of shareholders at all times. ^{MP 35}
^{"Zheng Jian Hai Han" 2}

If there is any inconsistency between the original and the duplicate register of shareholders for the holders of Overseas Listed Foreign Shares, the original register of shareholders shall prevail.

Article 36

The Company shall have a complete register of shareholders. ^{MP 36}

It shall comprise the following parts:

- (1) the register of shareholders which is maintained at the Company's residence (other than those share registers which are described in sub-paragraphs (2) and (3) of this Article);
- (2) the registers of holders of Overseas Listed Foreign Shares maintained at the place of the securities exchanges on which the shares are listed, it is required that where any such shares are listed on Hong Kong Stock Exchange, the register in relation to such listed shares shall be maintained in Hong Kong; ^{A13D, 1(b)}
- (3) the register of shareholders which is maintained in such other place as the Board of Directors may consider necessary for the purposes of the listing of the Company's shares.

Article 37

Different parts of the register of shareholders shall not overlap. No transfer of any shares registered in any part of the register shall, during the continuance of that registration, be registered in any other part of the register. ^{MP 37}

Amendments or rectification of the register of shareholders shall be made in accordance with the laws of the place where the register of shareholders is maintained.

Article 38

All Overseas Listed Foreign Shares having been fully paid for and listed in Hong Kong^{A3, 1(4)} can be transferred freely based on the articles of association and the instrument of transfer provided by the Hong Kong Stock Exchange or the standard transfer forms^{A3, 1(1)}. If Transferors or transferees are the recognised clearing houses (or their nominee) (hereinafter collectively referred to as the “Recognised Clearing House”) referred to the law of a jurisdiction where the Company’s shares are listed or quoted on a stock exchange thereof, the Recognised Clearing House may sign the instrument of transfer or standard transfer form on machine printed forms. However, the following conditions have to be fulfilled, failing which the Board of Directors has the right to reject any transfer document without giving any reason:

- (1) payment of HK$2.5 (for every instrument of transfer), or such larger amount as may be approved by the Hong Kong Stock Exchange, to the Company for the registration of any instrument of transfers or other documents relating to or affecting the ownership of the shares in question or the change of ownership of those shares;
- (2) the instrument of transfer relates only to Overseas Listed Foreign Shares listed in Hong Kong;
- (3) payment in full of any stamp duty due on the instrument of transfer;
- (4) provision of the relevant share certificates and any other evidence reasonably required by the Board of Directors to prove the transferor’s right to make the transfer;
- (5) if the shares are to be transferred to joint holders, the number of joint holders shall^{A3, 1(3)} not exceed four (4); and
- (6) the relevant shares of the Company are free from all liens.

Article 39

Where the PRC laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules, regulatory documents and securities regulatory agencies where the Company’s shares are listed contain provisions which stipulate on the period of closure of the register of shareholders prior to a shareholders’ general meeting or on the reference date set by the Company for the purpose of distribution of dividends, such provisions shall prevail.

Article 40

When the Company needs to convene a shareholders’ meeting for the purposes of^{MP 39} determination, dividend distribution, liquidation or any other purposes which need to determine shareholdings, the Board of Directors shall determine a record date for the determination of shareholdings. The shareholders of the Company shall be such persons who appear in the register of shareholders at the close of such record date.

Article 41

Any person who disputes the register of shareholders and asks for inclusion of his name ^{MP 40} in or removal of his name from the register of shareholders may apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for rectification of the register.

Article 42

A person who is a registered shareholder or who claims to be entitled to have his name ^{MP 41} (title) entered in the register of shareholders in respect of shares in the Company may, if his share certificate (the “original certificate”) relating to the shares is lost, he may apply to the Company for a replacement share certificate in respect of such shares (the “Relevant Shares”).

Application by a holder of A Shares, who has lost his share certificate, for a replacement share certificate shall be dealt with in accordance with Article 150 of the Company Law.

Application by a holder of Overseas Listed Foreign Shares, who has lost his share certificate, for a replacement share certificate may be dealt with in accordance with the law of the place where the original register of shareholders of holders of Overseas Listed Foreign Shares is maintained, the rules of the stock exchange or other relevant regulations.

The issue of a replacement share certificate to a holder of H Shares, who has lost his ^{A3, 2(2)} share certificate, shall comply with the following requirements:

- (1) The applicant shall submit an application to the Company in the prescribed form accompanied by a notarial certificate or a statutory declaration, of which the contents shall include the grounds upon which the application is made and the circumstances and evidence of the loss, and the declaration showing that no other person is entitled to have his name entered in the register of shareholders in respect of the Relevant Shares.
- (2) The Company has not received any declaration made by any person other than the applicant declaring that his name shall be entered in the register of shareholders in respect of such shares before it decides to issue a replacement share certificate to the applicant.
- (3) The Company shall, if it intends to issue a replacement share certificate, publish a ^{A3, 7(1)} notice of its intention to do so at least once every thirty (30) days within a period of ninety (90) consecutive days in such newspapers as may be prescribed by the Board of Directors.
- (4) The Company shall, prior to publication of its intention to issue a replacement share certificate, deliver to the stock exchange on which its shares are listed, a copy of the notice to be published and may publish the notice upon receipt of confirmation from such stock exchange that the notice has been exhibited in the premises of the stock exchange. Such notice shall be exhibited in the premises of the stock exchange for a period of ninety (90) days.

In the case of an application which is made without the consent of the registered holder of the Relevant Shares, the Company shall deliver by mail to such registered shareholder a copy of the notice to be published.

- (5) If, by the expiration of the 90-day period referred to in paragraphs (3) and (4) of this Article, the Company has not received any objection from any person in respect of the issuance of the replacement share certificate, it may issue a replacement share certificate to the applicant pursuant to his application.
- (6) Where the Company issues a replacement share certificate pursuant to this Article, it shall forthwith cancel the original share certificate and record the cancellation of the original share certificate and issuance of a replacement share certificate in the register of shareholders accordingly.
- (7) All expenses relating to the cancellation of an original share certificate and the issuance of a replacement share certificate shall be borne by the applicant and the Company is entitled to refuse to take any action until reasonable guarantee is provided by the applicant therefor.

Article 43

Where the Company issues a replacement share certificate pursuant to the Articles of Association, as for a bona fide purchaser obtaining new share certificates referred to above or a shareholder registered as a owner of the shares (in case of a bona fide purchaser), his name (title) shall not be removed from the register of shareholders.^{MP 42}

Article 44

The Company shall not be liable for any damages sustained by any person from his cancellation of the original share certificate or the issuance of the replacement share certificate unless the Chairman is capable to prove that the Company has acted in a deceitful manner.^{MP 43}

CHAPTER 7 SHAREHOLDERS' RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS

Article 45

MP 44

A shareholder of the Company is a person who lawfully holds shares in the Company and whose name (title) is entered in the register of shareholders.

A shareholder shall enjoy rights and assume obligations according to the class and number of shares held by him; shareholders who hold shares of the same class shall enjoy the same rights and assume the same obligations.

For the joint shareholders, if one of the joint shareholders has passed away, the surviving shareholders shall be deemed by the Company to have the ownership of the related shares, but the Board of Directors is entitled to ask for the provision of the suitable death certificate for the purpose of revision of the shareholders' register. For joint shareholders, only the shareholder named first in the shareholders' register has the right to receive the share certificates of the related shares, receive the notice of the Company, attend the shareholders' general meeting and exercise his voting right; while, any notice delivered to the said shareholder shall be deemed as if the notice has been delivered to all of the joint shareholder of the related shares.

Article 46

The shareholders of ordinary shares of the Company shall enjoy the following rights: ^{A3, 9}

- (1) the right to receive dividends and other distributions in proportion to their ^{MP 45} shareholdings;
- (2) the right to attend or appoint a proxy to attend shareholders' general meetings and to exercise voting rights;
- (3) the right to supervise the Company's business operations, the right to present proposals or raise queries;
- (4) the right to transfer shares in accordance with laws, administrative regulations and provisions of the Articles of Association;
- (5) the right to obtain relevant information in accordance with the Articles of Association, including:
 - i. the right to obtain a copy of the Articles of Association, subject to payment of costs;
 - ii. the right to inspect and copy, subject to payment of a reasonable fee:
 - (i) all parts of the register of shareholders;
 - (ii) personal particulars of each of the Company's Directors, Supervisors, General Manager and other senior management personnel, including:
 - (a) present and former name and alias;
 - (b) principal address (place of residence);
 - (c) nationality;
 - (d) primary and all other part-time occupations and duties; and
 - (e) identification documents and the numbers thereof;

- (iii) statement of the Company's share capital;
 - (iv) reports showing the aggregate par value, quantity, highest and lowest price paid in respect of each class of shares repurchased by the Company since the last accounting year as well as the aggregate amount paid by the Company for this purpose; and
 - (v) minutes of shareholders' general meeting;
- (6) in the event of the termination or liquidation of the Company, the right to participate in the distribution of remaining assets of the Company in accordance with the number of shares held; and
- (7) other rights conferred by laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association.

Article 47

The shareholders of ordinary shares of the Company shall assume the following^{MP 46} obligations:

- (1) to comply with the Articles of Association;
- (2) to pay subscription money according to the number of shares subscribed and the method of subscription; and
- (3) other obligations imposed by laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association.

Shareholders are not liable to make any further contribution to the share capital other than according to the terms which were agreed by the subscriber of the relevant shares at the time of subscription.

Article 48

In addition to the obligations imposed by laws and administrative regulations or required^{MP 47} by the listing rules of the stock exchange on which the Company's shares are listed, a controlling shareholder (as defined in Article 49) shall not exercise his voting rights in respect of the following matters in a manner prejudicial to the interests of all or part of the shareholders of the Company:

- (1) act honestly in the best interests of the Company in removing a Director or Supervisor;
- (2) to approve the expropriation by a Director or Supervisor (for his own benefit or for the benefit of another person) of the Company's assets in any way, including (but not limited to) opportunities which are beneficial to the Company;

- (3) to approve the expropriation by a Director or Supervisor (for his own benefit or for the benefit of another person) of the individual interest of other shareholders, including (but not limited to) rights to distributions and voting rights (excluding a restructuring which has been submitted for approval by the shareholders in a general meeting in accordance with the Articles of Association).

Article 49

For the purpose of the Article 48, a “controlling shareholder” means a person who ^{MP 48} satisfies any one of the following conditions:

- (1) a person who, acting alone or in concert with others, has the power to elect more than half of the Board of Directors;
- (2) a person who, acting alone or in concert with others, has the power to exercise thirty (30) per cent or more or has power to control the exercise of thirty (30) per cent or more of the voting rights in the Company;
- (3) a person who, acting alone or in concert with others, holds thirty (30) per cent or more of the issued and outstanding shares of the Company;
- (4) a person who, acting alone or in concert with others, has de facto control of the Company in any other way.

CHAPTER 8 GENERAL MEETINGS

Article 50

The shareholders’ general meeting is the organ of authority of the Company and shall ^{MP 49} exercise its functions and powers in accordance with laws.

Article 51

The shareholders’ general meeting shall exercise the following functions and powers: ^{MP 50}

- (1) to decide on the Company’s business policies and investment plans;
- (2) to elect and replace Directors and to decide on matters relating to emolument of Directors;
- (3) to elect and replace the supervisors who are to be appointed from among the shareholders’ representatives and decide on matters concerning the emolument of supervisors;
- (4) to consider and approve reports of the Board of Directors;
- (5) to consider and approve reports of the Board of Supervisors;

- (6) to consider and approve the Company's annual financial budget and final accounts;
- (7) to consider and approve the Company's profit distribution proposals and proposals for making up losses;
- (8) to resolve on the increase or reduction of the Company's registered capital;
- (9) to resolve on matters such as merger, division, dissolution and liquidation of the Company;
- (10) to resolve on the issuance of debentures by the Company;
- (11) to resolve on the appointment, removal or non-renewal of the services of an accounting firm for the Company;
- (12) to amend the Articles of Association;
- (13) to consider proposals submitted by shareholders representing more than five per cent. (including 5%) of voting shares of the Company;
- (14) other matters which are required by laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association to be resolved by the shareholders' general meeting.

The shareholders' general meeting may delegate or entrust its matters to be handled by the Board of Directors.

Article 52

The Company shall not enter into any contract with any person other than a Director,^{MP 51} Supervisor, General Manager or other senior management personnel of the Company whereby the management and administration of the whole or any substantial part of any business of the Company is to be handed over to such a person without the prior approval of shareholders in a general meeting.

Article 53

Shareholders' general meetings can be annual general meetings or extraordinary general^{MP 52} meetings. Shareholders' general meetings shall be convened by the Board of Directors. The annual shareholders' general meeting shall be convened once a year, and shall take place within six (6) months of the end of the previous accounting year.

The Board of Directors shall convene an extraordinary general meeting within two (2) months after the occurrence of any one of the following circumstances:

- (1) where the number of Directors is less than the number stipulated in the Company Law or is no more than two-thirds of the number required by the Articles of Association;

- (2) where the accrued losses of the Company amount to one-third of its total share capital;
- (3) where shareholders holding ten (10) per cent. or more of the Company's issued shares carrying the right to vote make a request in writing to convene an extraordinary general meeting;
- (4) where the Board of Directors considers it necessary or the Board of Supervisors proposes to call for such a meeting.

Article 54

When the Company convenes an annual general meeting, a notice to notify all registered shareholders must be given twenty (20) business days before the meeting; when the Company convenes an extraordinary general meeting, a notice to notify all registered shareholders must be given fifteen (15) days or ten (10) business days (whichever is longer) before the meeting. Such notice shall contain the matters to be considered at the meeting as well as the date and venue of the meeting. The date of the general meeting and the date of the communication are excluded for the purpose of calculation of the above notice period.

Subject to compliance with laws and regulations of the places of incorporation and listing of the Company and the Listing Rules, the aforesaid notice of general meetings may be sent or supplied in the corporate communication manner provided under Article 58 in lieu of delivery in person or sending by mail or by means of electronic announcement at official website to the shareholder as recorded in the register of shareholders. For shareholders who intend to attend the shareholders' meetings should give a written notice to the Company within the time specified in the notice of the meeting.

Article 55

In an annual general meeting of the Company, shareholders holding more than five per cent. (including 5%) of total voting shares of the Company are entitled to propose new resolutions in written form. The Company shall include those matters which are within the scope of duties of the general meeting into the agenda of such meeting.

Article 56

A general meeting shall not decide on matters which are not specified in the notice.

Article 57

Notice of general meetings shall comply with the following requirements:

MP 56

- (1) present corporate communication: presented in person or sending by mail or by means of electronic announcement at official website or Company website;

- (2) be in specific place, date and time of the meeting;
- (3) state the motions to be discussed at the meeting;
- (4) provide such information and description as are necessary for the shareholders to exercise an informed judgment on the proposals before them. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, where a proposal is made to amalgamate the Company with another, to repurchase the shares of the Company, to reorganise its share capital, or to restructure the Company in any other manner, the terms of the proposed transaction must be provided in detail together with copies of the proposed agreement, if any, and the cause and effect of such a proposal must be properly explained;
- (5) contain a disclosure of the nature and extent, if any, of material interests of any Director, Supervisor, General Manager or other senior management personnel in the transaction proposed and the effect of the proposed transaction on him in his capacity as shareholder in so far as it is different from the effect on the other shareholders of the same class;
- (6) contain the full text of any special resolution proposed for the meeting;
- (7) contain a specific statement that a shareholder entitled to attend and vote is entitled to appoint one or more proxies to attend and vote instead of him and that a proxy need not be a shareholder; and
- (8) state the time within which and the address to which the relevant instruments appointing the proxies for the meeting are to be delivered.

Article 58

Notice of general meetings shall be served on each shareholder (whether or not such shareholder is entitled to vote thereat) by corporate communication: presented in person or sending by mail or by means of electronic announcement at official website or Company website to the address of the shareholder as recorded in the register of shareholders. ^{MP 57}

For holders of Domestic Shares, notice of meetings may also be issued by means of aforesaid corporate communication. Subject to compliance with laws and regulations of the places of incorporation and listing of the Company and the Listing Rules, the aforesaid notice of general meetings may be sent or supplied in the manner provided under the Articles of Association in lieu of aforesaid corporate communication: presented in person or sending by mail or by means of electronic announcement at official website or Company website to the address of the shareholder as recorded in the register of shareholders.

Once a notice of general meeting is issued, the general meeting shall not be postponed or cancelled without any justified grounds and the proposals listed in the notice of general meeting shall not be cancelled. In case of postponement or cancellation, the Company shall make an announcement and state the reasons at a time at least two working days prior to the pre-determined date of convention of the meeting.

“Corporate Communication” shall mean any document issued or to be issued by the Company for the information or action of any holders of the Company’s securities, including but not limited to:

- (1) Directors’ report and its annual accounts together with a copy of the auditor’s report thereon and, where applicable, its summary financial report;
- (2) Interim report and, where applicable, its summary half-year report;
- (3) Quarterly report;
- (4) Notice of meeting;
- (5) Listing document;
- (6) Circular; and
- (7) Proxy form.

When served by mail, the Corporate Communication shall be put into an envelope on which the address is clearly written with prepaid postage. The Corporate Communication shall be deemed as sent when the same is deposited into a mail box, and shall be deemed as served 48 hours after it has been sent. Corporate Communication served in person shall be deemed as served on the date when the addressee signs (or stamps) the reply slip and such date shall be deemed to be the date of service.

The date when Corporate Communication is served by electronic means shall be deemed to be the date of service.

If the Corporate Communication is sent or supplied by means of the Company’s own website, it shall be deemed to be served on: (1) the date on which a notification, stating that the relevant Corporate Communication has been available on the Company’s own website, is sent to holders of the Company’s securities pursuant to the requirements of the laws and regulations of the places of incorporation and listing of the Company and the Listing Rules; or (2) if later, the date on which the Corporate Communication first appears on the Company’s own website.

Corporate Communication referred to in the preceding paragraph, should be given forty-five (45) days before the meeting to securities regulatory authorities of the State Council or one or more national newspapers and periodicals; or any requirements of any corporate communications should be made available, whichever may be delivered in person or sending by mail or by means of electronic announcement at official website or Company website to the shareholder as recorded in the register of shareholders. Upon publish of notice, all the Domestic Shares of the shareholders are deemed to receive notice of the shareholders’ meeting.

Article 59

Upon accidental omission due to a person entitled for the notices of meetings or those who have not received any notice of meetings presented in person or sending by mail or by means of electronic announcement at official website or Company website, meetings and resolutions thereof do not void under such circumstance.

Article 60

Any shareholder entitled to attend and vote at a shareholders' general meeting of the Company shall be entitled to appoint one or more persons (who need not be a shareholder or shareholders) as his proxies to attend and vote instead of him. A proxy so appointed shall enjoy the following rights pursuant to authorisation by that shareholder:^{MP 59}

- (1) the shareholders' right to speak at the general meeting;
- (2) the right to demand or join in demanding a poll; and
- (3) the right to vote by hand or on a poll, but a proxy of a shareholder who has appointed more than one proxy may only vote on a poll.

Where that shareholder is a Recognised Clearing House, it may authorise such person or persons as it thinks fit to act as its representative (or representatives) at any shareholders' general meeting or any meeting of any class of shareholders provided that, if more than one person is so authorised, the authorisation must specify the number and class of shares in respect of which each such person is so authorised. The person so authorised will be entitled to exercise the same power on behalf of the Recognised Clearing House as that clearing house could exercise as if it were an individual shareholder of the Company.^{Opinions from HK Clearing House}

Article 61

The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing under the hand of the appointor or his attorney duly authorised in writing or, if the appointor is a legal person, it shall be under seal or under the hand of a Director or attorney duly authorised. The letter of authorisation shall contain the number of the shares to be represented by the attorney. If several persons are authorised as the attorney of the shareholder, the letter of authorisation shall specify the number of the shares to be represented by each attorney.^{MP 60}

Article 62

The instrument appointing a proxy shall be deposited at the residence of the Company or at some other place specified for that purpose in the notice of meeting no later than twenty-four (24) hours prior to the meeting at which the proxy is authorised to vote or twenty-four (24) hours before the time specified for the voting. Where such an instrument is signed by a person under power of attorney on behalf of the appointor, that power of attorney or other authorisation documents shall be notarially certified. The notarially certified power of attorney and other authorisation documents shall, together with the instrument appointing the proxy, be deposited at the Company's residence or at some other place specified for that purpose in the notice of meeting.^{MP 61}

If the appointor is a legal person (exclude Recognised Clearing House (such requirements on the authorised representative of such Recognised Clearing House to attend the Company's general meeting are referred to Article 60), its legal representative or a person appointed by its Board of Directors or other decision-making body shall be entitled to attend a shareholders' general meeting of the Company on behalf of the appointor as its proxy, and attendance or actions by the appointee at such meeting shall for the purpose of the Articles be deemed the attendance or (as the case may be) actions of the appointor.

Article 63

Any form issued to a shareholder by the Directors for use by him for appointing a proxy to attend and vote at a shareholders' general meeting of the Company shall be such as to enable the shareholder, according to his intention, to instruct the proxy to vote in favor of or against each resolution dealing with business to be transacted at the meeting. Such a form should contain a statement that in default of instructions the proxy may vote as he thinks fit.^{MP 62}

Article 64

A vote given in accordance with the terms of an instrument of proxy shall be valid notwithstanding the previous death or loss of capacity of the principal or revocation of the proxy or of the authority under which the proxy was executed, or the transfer of the share in respect of which the proxy is given, provided that no notice in writing of such death, loss of capacity, revocation or transfer shall have been received by the Company before the commencement of the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the proxy is used.^{MP 63}

Article 65

Resolutions of a shareholders' general meeting can be divided to ordinary resolutions or special resolutions.^{MP 64}

An ordinary resolution of a shareholders' general meeting shall be passed by an affirmative vote of more than half of the Company's total voting shares being held by the shareholders who are present at the meeting (including proxies).

A special resolution of a shareholders' general meeting shall be passed by an affirmative vote of more than two-thirds of the Company's total voting shares being held by the shareholders who are present at the meeting (including proxies).

Article 66

Shareholders (including proxies) who vote at the shareholders' general meeting shall exercise their voting rights in relation to the amount of voting shares they represent. Each share carries the right to one vote. ^{MP 65}

Where the Listing Rules requires any shareholder to abandon his voting on specific resolution, or restricts any shareholder to vote for or against specific resolution, any vote of the shareholder or his proxy against the relevant requirement or restriction shall not be included.

Article 67

At any shareholders' general meeting, a resolution shall be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is demanded: ^{MP 66}

- (1) by the Chairman of the meeting;
- (2) by at least two shareholders present in person or by proxy entitled to vote thereat;
- (3) by one or more shareholders (including proxies) present in person or by proxy and representing 10% or more of all shares carrying the right to vote at the meeting singly or in aggregate, before or after a vote is carried out by a show of hands.

Unless a poll is demanded, a declaration by the Chairman that a resolution has been passed on a show of hands and the record of such in the minutes of the meeting shall be conclusive evidence of the fact that such resolution has been passed. There is no need to provide evidence of the number or proportion of votes in favour of or against such resolution.

The demand for a poll may be withdrawn by the person who demands the same.

Article 68

A poll demanded on the election of the Chairman of the meeting, or on a question of adjournment of the meeting, shall be taken forthwith. A poll demanded on any other question shall be taken at such time as the Chairman of the meeting directs before the end of this meeting, and any business other than that upon which a poll has been demanded may be proceeded with, pending the taking of the poll. The result of the poll shall be deemed to be a resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded. ^{MP 67}

Article 69

On a poll taken at a meeting, a shareholder (including a proxy) entitled to two or more ^{MP 68} votes need not cast all his votes in the same way.

Article 70

In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the ^{MP 69} Chairman of the meeting at which the show of hands takes place or at which the poll is demanded shall have a casting vote.

Article 71

The following matters shall be resolved by an ordinary resolution at a shareholders' ^{MP 70} general meeting:

- (1) work reports of the Board of Directors and the Supervisory Committee;
- (2) profit distribution plans and loss recovery plans formulated by the Board of Directors;
- (3) appointment and removal of members of the Board of Directors and Supervisors, their emolument and manner of payment;
- (4) annual preliminary and final budgets, balance sheets and profit and loss accounts and other financial statements of the Company; and
- (5) matters other than those which are required by laws and administrative regulations or by the Articles of Association to be adopted by special resolution.

Article 72

The following matters shall be resolved by means of special resolution of the ^{MP 71} shareholders' general meeting;

- (1) increase or reduction of the Company's share capital and the issuance of shares of any class, warrants and other similar securities;
- (2) issuance of debentures by the Company;
- (3) division, merger, dissolution and liquidation of the Company;
- (4) amendment of the Articles of Association; and
- (5) other matters which, according to an ordinary resolution of the shareholders' general meeting, may have a significant impact on the Company and require adoption by means of a special resolution.

Article 73

Shareholders seeking to convene an extraordinary general meeting or a class meeting shall ^{MP 72} proceed in accordance with the following procedure:

- (1) two or more shareholders holding ten per cents (10%) or more of the shares carrying the right to vote at the meeting sought to be held may, by signing one or more counterpart requisitions stating the object of the meeting, require the Board of Directors to convene an extraordinary general meeting or a class meeting. The Board of Directors shall as soon as possible proceed to do so. The shareholdings referred to shall be calculated as at the date of the delivery of the requisitions;
- (2) if the Board of Directors fails to issue a notice of such a meeting within thirty (30) days from the date of the receipt of the requisition, the requisitionists may themselves convene such a meeting in a manner as nearly as possible as where meetings are to be convened by the Board, provided that any meeting so convened shall not be convened after the expiration of four months from the date of receipt of the requisition by the Board.

Any reasonable expenses incurred by the requisitionists by reason of the failure of the Directors duly to convene a meeting shall be borne by the Company and shall be set off against any sums owed to the Directors in default by the Company.

Article 74

A shareholders' general meeting shall be convened by the Chairman of the Board of ^{MP 73} Directors who shall preside as chairman of the meeting. If the Chairman is unable to attend the meeting for any reason, the Deputy Chairman of the Board of Directors shall convene and take the chair of the meeting. If both the Chairman and Deputy Chairman of the Board of Directors are unable to attend the meeting, then a Director of the Company shall be recommended by the Chairman to convene and take the chair of the meeting. If a chairman has not been designated, shareholders attending the meeting may elect a person to act as chairman. If for any reason the shareholders cannot elect a chairman, the shareholder with the greatest number of voting shares present at the meeting whether in person or by proxy shall act as chairman.

Article 75

The Chairman of a shareholders' general meeting shall be responsible for deciding ^{MP 74} whether or not a resolution has been carried. His decision shall be final and shall be announced at the meeting and recorded in the minutes.

Article 76

Where the Chairman of a shareholders' general meeting has doubt about the results of the resolution tabled for voting, he may count the number of votes cast. If no counting is made by the Chairman of the meeting, any shareholder who queries the results as announced by the Chairman shall have the right to immediately demand a counting of the votes. The Chairman shall forthwith conduct a counting of the votes as demanded. ^{MP 75}

Article 77

Where a counting of the votes has been conducted at a shareholders' general meeting, the results shall be recorded in the minutes. ^{MP 76}

These minutes and the signed attendance record of those shareholders attending the meeting and the powers of attorney of those attending by proxy shall be kept at the Company's residence.

Article 78

Copies of the minutes shall be available to inspection during office hours of the Company to any shareholders without charge. If a shareholder demands from the Company a copy of such minutes hereof, the Company shall send a copy to him or her within seven (7) days upon receiving such demand and the shareholder shall be responsible for reasonable charges as may be imposed. ^{MP 77}

CHAPTER 9 SPECIAL PROCEDURES FOR VOTING BY CLASS SHAREHOLDERS

Article 79

Holders of various classes of shares are referred to classified shareholders. ^{MP 78}

Classified shareholders shall have rights and assume obligations in accordance with laws, regulations and the Articles of Association.

Article 80

Any proposal by the Company to vary or abrogate the rights conferred on any classified shareholders must be approved by a special resolution of the shareholders' general meeting and by the classified shareholders affected at a separate meeting convened in accordance with Articles 82 to 86. ^{MP 79}

Article 81

The rights of classified shareholders are deemed to be varied or abrogated in the following circumstances:^{MP 80}

- (1) the increase or decrease of the number of shares of such class, or the increase or decrease of the number of shares of a class having voting or equity rights or privileges equal or superior to the shares of such class;
- (2) the exchange of all or part of the shares of such class into shares of another class, or the exchange of all or part of the shares of another class into the shares of such class or conferring such rights of exchange;
- (3) the removal or reduction of rights to accrued dividends or cumulative dividends attached to shares of such class;
- (4) the reduction or removal of a dividend preference or a liquidation preference attached to shares of such class;
- (5) the increase, removal or reduction of conversion privileges, options, voting rights, transfer or pre-emptive rights or rights to acquire securities of the Company attached to shares of such class;
- (6) the removal or reduction of rights to receive amounts payable by the Company in particular currencies attached to shares of such class;
- (7) the creation of a new class of shares having voting or equity rights or other privileges equal or superior to the shares of such class;
- (8) the imposition of restrictions or additional restrictions on the transfer of ownership of the shares of such class;
- (9) the issue of rights to subscribe for, or convert into, shares of such class or another class;
- (10) the increase in rights or privileges of shares of another class;
- (11) the restructuring of the Company which will result in shareholders of different classes bearing a disproportionate burden of such proposed restructuring; and
- (12) the variation or abrogation of the provisions of this chapter.

Article 82

Shareholders of the affected class, whether or not otherwise having the right to vote at ^{MP 81} general meetings, shall nevertheless have the right to vote at classified shareholders' meeting in respect of matters concerning Articles 81 (2) to (8) and (11) to (12), but Interested Shareholders shall not be entitled to vote at classified shareholders' meeting.

In this Article, an "Interested Shareholder" has the following meaning:

- (1) in the case of a repurchase by a general offer made to all shareholders in equal proportions or through open transactions on a stock exchange under Article 25, a Controlling Shareholder within the meaning of Article 49 is an Interested Shareholder;
- (2) in the case of a repurchase of shares by contract made outside the stock exchange under Article 25, a holder of the shares to which the contract relates is an Interested Shareholder; or
- (3) in the case of a restructuring of the Company, a shareholder within a class who bears less than a proportionate burden imposed on that class under the proposed restructuring or who has an interest in the proposed restructuring different from the interest of shareholders of that class is an Interested Shareholder.

Article 83

Resolution of any class shareholders' meeting shall be passed by votes of not less than ^{MP 82} two-thirds of the voting rights of shareholders of that class represented at that meeting who, according to Article 82, are entitled to vote at class shareholders' meeting.

Article 84

When the Company convenes a class general meeting, it shall issue a notice with ^{Reply} reference to the requirements of Article 54 of the Articles of Association regarding the notice period for holding a general meeting.

Subject to compliance with laws and regulations of the places of incorporation and listing of the Company and the Listing Rules, the aforesaid notice of general meetings may be sent or supplied by corporate communication provided under Article 58 in lieu of delivery in person or sending by mail or by means of electronic announcement at official website to the shareholders as recorded in the register of shareholders.

For shareholders who intend to attend the shareholders' meetings should give a written notice to the Company within the time specified in the notice of the meeting.

Article 85

Notices of class shareholders' meeting need only be served on shareholders entitled to vote thereat. ^{MP 84}

Meetings of any class of shareholders shall be conducted as nearly as possible as shareholders' general meetings. Provisions in the Articles of Association which relate to any meeting of shareholders shall apply to any meeting of a class of shareholders.

Article 86

In addition to holders of other classes of shares, holders of Domestic Shares and Overseas Listed Foreign Shares are deemed to be shareholders of different classes. ^{A13D, 1(f)}

The special procedure for approval by class shareholders shall not apply: ^{MP 85}

- (1) where the Company issues, either separately or concurrently, Domestic Shares and Overseas Listed Foreign Shares in numbers not exceeding twenty per cent. of the number of Domestic Shares and Overseas Listed Foreign Shares then in issue respectively in any twelve month period as approved by a special resolution of a shareholders' general meeting; and ^{"Zheng Jian Hai Han" 3}
- (2) where the Company's plan for issuing Domestic Shares and Overseas Listed Foreign Shares upon its establishment is implemented within fifteen months from the date of approval by the CSSCC.

CHAPTER 10 BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Article 87

The Company shall establish a Board of Directors comprising 5 directors, of which over half shall be external directors (herein meaning those directors who do not hold office in the Company) and at least three of the directors shall be independent (non-executive) Directors (herein meaning those directors who are independent to the shareholders, do not hold office in the Company and comply with the requirements of the Listing Rules regarding being independent non-executive Directors), of which at least one Independent Director shall have the appropriate professional qualifications required by the Listing Rules or the appropriate accounting or related financial management expertise. ^{MP 86 Opinions 6}

One of the Directors of the Board shall be the Chairman.

Article 88

Directors shall serve a term of three years. The directors may, after the expiry of their term of office, hold a consecutive term upon re-election. The Chairman and Deputy Chairman of the Board of Directors is elected and removed by a majority of all the Directors. The Chairman and Deputy Chairman of the Board of Directors shall be appointed for a term of three years, and may serve consecutive terms if re-elected. ^{MP 87}

Directors are elected by the shareholders in general meeting. A notice in writing of the intention to propose a candidate for election as a Director and a notice in writing by that candidate of his willingness to be elected shall have been given to the Company at least seven days before the date of the shareholder's meeting. The period is counted at the date when a notice of meeting on such election but is not ended in or early seven days prior to the meeting date.

Subject to the relevant laws and administrative regulations, the shareholders' general meeting may remove any Director by special resolution prior to the expiration of such Directors' term, but without prejudice to any claim for damages which such Director may have under any contract.

External directors shall have sufficient time and requisite expertise to perform their duties. The Company shall provide the necessary information to enable the external directors to perform their duties. Independent (non-executive) Directors may report directly to the securities regulatory authorities of the State Council and other relevant departments.

Directors are not required to hold shares in the Company.

Article 89

The Board of Directors shall be accountable to the shareholders' general meeting and shall exercise the following functions and powers:

- (1) to be responsible for convening shareholders' general meetings and to report on its work to the shareholders' general meeting;
- (2) to implement resolutions of the shareholders' general meeting;
- (3) to decide on the Company's business plans and investment proposals;
- (4) to formulate the Company's annual financial budget and final accounts;
- (5) to formulate the Company's profit distribution proposals and proposals for making up losses;
- (6) to formulate proposals for the increase or reduction of the registered capital of the Company and proposals for the issuance of debentures of the Company;
- (7) to draft proposals for the merger, division or dissolution of the Company;
- (8) to decide on the establishment of the Company's internal management organisation;
- (9) to appoint or remove the Company's General Manager, and to appoint or remove the Deputy General Manager (or Deputy General Managers) and other senior management personnel (including the financial officers) based on the recommendations of the General Manager, and to decide on their emolument;
- (10) to formulate the Company's basic management system;

- (11) to formulate proposals for any amendment of the Articles of Association;
- (12) to make decisions on affairs and administrative affairs, and sign significant agreements other than those subject to resolution by the shareholders' general meeting as required by the relevant laws and regulations and the Articles of Association;
- (13) other functions and powers as authorised in a general meeting and as stipulated in the Articles of Association.

Except in relation to items (6), (7), and (11) which require the affirmative vote of more than two-thirds of the Directors, resolutions on any other items may be approved by the affirmative vote of more than half of the Directors. ^{Opinions 6}

These resolutions adopted by the Board with regard to the connected transactions of the Company shall not be valid unless they are backed by the signature of the Independent Directors.

Article 90

The Board of Directors shall not, without the prior approval of shareholders in a general meeting, dispose or agree to dispose of any fixed assets of the Company where the sum of estimated value of fixed assets to be disposed of and the value of such fixed assets disposed of within four (4) months immediately preceding the proposed disposition exceeds thirty per cent. (33%) of the value of fixed assets shown in the latest balance sheet considered by a general meeting. ^{MP 89}

For the purposes of this Article, "disposition" includes an act involving the transfer of interests in assets, but excludes the provision of guarantee by fixed assets.

The validity of a disposition on fixed assets made by the Company shall not be affected by any breach of the first paragraph of this Article.

When the Board of Directors makes a decision on market development, merger and acquisition, investment in new areas, etc., for projects involving investment or acquisition or merger amounting to more than 10% of total assets of the Company, an independent consulting agency shall be engaged to provide professional opinions, which shall be regarded as an important basis for the Board of Directors to make decision. ^{Opinions 4}

Article 91

The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall exercise the following functions and powers: ^{MP 90}

- (1) to preside over general meetings and convene and preside over Board meetings;
- (2) to review on the implementation of resolutions passed by the Board of Directors;
- (3) to sign the securities certificates issued by the Company;

(4) to exercise other functions and powers granted by the Board of Directors.

When the Chairman is not available to exercise his functions and powers, he can design a Deputy Chairman to exercise such functions and powers on his behalf.

Article 92

The Board of Directors shall hold at least four regular meetings each year. The Board^{MP 91} meetings shall be convened by the Chairman. Upon anything urgent, an extraordinary Board meeting can be held under the proposal by one third or more of the Directors or the General Manager.

Article 93

A notice concerning the convening of board meetings or extraordinary board meetings^{MP 92} can be given in person, by means of fax, express courier, by registered airmail, email, and electronic announcement through the official website or Company website.

Article 94

All Directors should be notified of a Board meeting 14 days before the meeting, and for extraordinary Board meetings, they should be notified 5 days before the meeting.

Article 95

All the Executive Directors and external directors shall be notified the important matters^{Opinions 3} that must be resolved by the Board of Directors within the period stipulated in Article 94, and be provided sufficient information at the same time. Such important matters shall be implemented in strict compliance with the required procedures. The Directors may request for supplementary information. Upon more than one-fourth of the Directors or more than two external directors consider that the information provided is not sufficient or the demonstration is not clear, they may jointly propose to postpone the consideration of certain matters of the agenda of the Board meeting, and the Board of Directors shall accept such proposal.

Notice of a meeting shall be deemed to be served to any Directors who attend the meeting without protesting against any lack of notice before or at its commencement.

Any regular or extraordinary meeting of the Board of Directors may be held by telephone conferencing or similar communication equipment. As long as all Directors participating in the meeting can hear and communicate clearly with each other, all such Directors shall be deemed to be present in person at the meeting.

Article 96

Board meeting shall be held only upon more than half of the members of Board of^{MP 93} Directors (including proxies) are present. Each Director has one vote.

Unless otherwise required by the Articles of Association, the Board may pass resolutions only upon a majority vote; in the case of an equality of votes, the Chairman of the Board shall have an additional vote.

Article 97

Directors shall attend the Board meetings in person. Where a Director isn't available to attend a meeting for any reason, he may appoint another Director in written power of attorney to attend the Board meeting on his behalf. The power of attorney shall set out the authorisation scope.^{MP 94}

The Director so appointed as a proxy of another Director to attend the meeting shall exercise the rights of a Director within the scope of power of attorney. Where a Director doesn't attend or appoint a proxy to attend a Board meeting on his behalf, he shall be deemed to waive his voting right at the meeting.

Article 98

In the case of matters requiring approval by an extraordinary board meeting, if the resolution in question is sent to all Directors by the Board and is affirmatively signed and accepted by the number of Directors necessary to make such a decision as stipulated in Article 89, then such matters can be deemed as a resolution and do not need to be adopted by the Board of Directors.

Article 99

The Board of Directors shall keep minutes of its decisions concerning the matters under its consideration at the meeting of the Board and such meetings as are not convened. Directors attending the meeting and the person recording the minutes shall sign their names on the minutes of that meeting.^{MP 95}

Directors shall be liable for resolutions of the Board. If a resolution is against the laws, administrative rules or the Articles of Association, and thus causing the Company suffers any loss, the Directors who participate in voting shall assume the liability to compensate to the Company; but those Directors who are proved to have cast a dissenting vote which is recorded in the minutes shall be exempted from liability.

Article 117

The validity of an act carried out by a Director, General Manager or other senior management personnel of the Company on its behalf shall, as against a bona fide third party, not be affected by any irregularity in his office, election or any defect in his qualification.^{MP 113}

Article 118

In addition to the obligations imposed by laws, administrative regulations or the listing rules of the stock exchange on which shares of the Company are listed, each of the Company's Directors, Supervisors, General Manager or other senior management personnel owes a duty to each shareholder, in the exercise of the duties and powers of the Company entrusted to him:^{MP 114}

- (1) not to procure the Company to do anything ultra vires to the scope of business as stipulated in its business licence;
- (2) to act honestly and in the best interests of the Company;
- (3) not to expropriate the Company's property in any way, including (but not limited to) usurpation of opportunities which may benefit the Company; and
- (4) not to deprive of the individual interest of shareholders, including (but not limited to) rights to distribution and voting rights, save and except pursuant to a restructuring of the Company which has been submitted to the shareholders in general meeting for approval in accordance with the Articles of Association.

Article 119

Each of the Company's Directors, Supervisors, General Manager and other senior management personnel owes a duty, in the exercise of his powers and in the discharge of his duties, to exercise the care, diligence and skill that a reasonably prudent person would exercise in comparable circumstances.^{MP 115}

Article 120

Each of the Company's Directors, Supervisors, General Manager and other senior management personnel shall exercise his powers or perform his duties in accordance with the fiduciary principle, and shall not put himself in a position where his duty and his interest may conflict. This principle includes (but not limited to) performance of the following obligations:^{MP 116}

- (1) to act bona fide in the best interests of the Company;
- (2) to act within the scope of his powers and not to exceed such powers;

- (3) to exercise the discretion vested in him personally and not to allow himself to act under the control of another and, unless and to the extent permitted by laws, administrative regulations or with the informed consent of shareholders given in a general meeting, not to transfer the exercise of his discretion;
- (4) to treat shareholders of the same class equally and to treat shareholders of different classes fairly;
- (5) unless otherwise provided for in the Articles of Association or except with the informed consent of the shareholders given in a general meeting, not to enter into any contract, transaction or arrangement with the Company;
- (6) not to use the Company's property for his own benefit, without the informed consent of the shareholders given in a general meeting;
- (7) not to abuse his position to accept bribes or other illegal income or expropriate the Company's property in any way, including (but not limited to) opportunities which benefit the Company;
- (8) not to accept commissions in connection with the Company's transactions, without the informed consent of the shareholders given in a general meeting;
- (9) to comply with the Articles of Association, to perform his official duties faithfully, to protect the Company's interests and not to exploit his position and power in the Company to advance his own interests;
- (10) not to compete with the Company in any way, save with the informed consent of the shareholders given in a general meeting;
- (11) not to misappropriate the Company's funds or to lend such funds to any other person, not to use the Company's assets to set up deposit accounts in his own name or in the any other name or to use such assets to guarantee the debts of a shareholder of the Company or any other personal liabilities;
- (12) not to divulge any confidential information which he has obtained during his term of office, without the informed consent of the shareholders in a general meeting; nor shall he use such information otherwise than for the Company's benefit, unless disclosure of such information to the court or other governmental authorities is made in the following circumstances:
 1. disclosure is required by law;
 2. the public interest so demands; or
 3. the interests of the relevant director, Supervisor, General Manager or other senior management personnel so demand.

Article 121

Each director, Supervisor, General Manager and other senior management personnel of the Company shall not direct the following persons or institutions (herein refers to “associates”) to act in a manner which a Director, Supervisor, General Manager and other senior management personnel is prohibited from so acting:^{MP 117}

- (1) the spouse or minor children of the director, Supervisor, General Manager and other senior management personnel of the Company;
- (2) the trustee of the director, Supervisor, General Manager and other senior management personnel or of any person described in sub-paragraph (1) of this Article;
- (3) partners of Directors, Supervisors, General Manager and other senior management personnel or of any person described in sub-paragraphs (1) and (2) of this Article;
- (4) a company in which a Director, Supervisor, General Manager and other senior management personnel, whether alone or jointly with persons referred to in sub-paragraphs (1), (2) and (3) of this Article or other Directors, Supervisors, General Manager and other senior management personnel, has de facto controlling interest; or
- (5) the Directors, Supervisors, General Manager and other senior management personnel of a company which is being controlled in the manner set out in sub-paragraph (4) of this Article.

Article 122

The duty of a Director, Supervisor, General Manager and other senior management personnel to act in good faith does not necessarily terminate on the expiration of their term of office. His duty of confidentiality in respect of trade secrets of the Company survives the termination of his tenure. Other duties may continue for such period as the principle of fairness may require depending on the length of time which has lapsed between the termination and the act concerned and on the circumstances and the terms under which the relationship between the relevant director, Supervisor, General Manager and the senior management personnel on one hand and the Company on the other hand was terminated.^{MP 118}

Article 123

A Director, Supervisor, General Manager and other senior management personnel of the Company may be relieved of liability for specific breaches of his duty with the informed consent of the shareholders given at a general meeting, save under the circumstances of Article 48 of this Articles of Association.^{MP 119}

Article 124

Where a Director, Supervisor, General Manager and other senior management personnel^{MP 120} of the Company is in any way, directly or indirectly, materially interested in a contract, transaction or arrangement or proposed contract, transaction or arrangement with the Company, (other than his contract of service with the Company), he shall declare the nature and extent of his interests to the Board of Directors at the earliest opportunity, whether or not the contract, transaction or arrangement or proposal therefor is otherwise subject to the approval of the Board of Directors.

Unless the interested director, Supervisor, General Manager and other senior management personnel discloses his interests in accordance with the preceding sub-paragraph of this Article and the contract, transaction or arrangement is approved by the Board of Directors at a meeting in which the director, Supervisor, or senior management personnel is not counted as part of the quorum and refrains from voting, or from entering into a contract, transaction or arrangement in which that senior management personnel is materially interested is voidable at the instance of the Company except as against a bona fide party thereto who does not have notice of the breach of duty by the interested senior management personnel.

A Director, Supervisor, General Manager and other senior management personnel of the Company is deemed to be interested in a contract, transaction or arrangement in which his associate is interested.

Except for the circumstance as follows, a Director may not vote on the meetings of Directors in regard to any contract or arrangement or any other proposes which he or his associate has material interest, and in determining whether there is a quorum for a meeting, he shall not be taken into account.

Such exception refers:

- (1) (i) where Director or his associate lends to the Company or any subsidiary thereof, or he or she is required by the Company and any subsidiary thereof to cause or assume obligation for their interests, the Director or his associate shall be provided any ledge or indemnification guarantee; or
- (ii) where Company or any subsidiary thereof provides the third party any mortgage or indemnification guarantee for its liability or obligation, and as far as such liability or obligation, Director or his associate has taken all or part thereof (either personally or collectively) through one mortgage or indemnification guarantee or provision of a mortgage.
- (2) where any offer or proposal given by other person or company for subscribing or purchasing the shares, bonds or other securities of the Company or other company (which was initiated by the Company or in which the Company has interests), the Director or his associate has or will have interests for participating in underwriting or sub-underwriting of the offer;

- (3) any proposal concerning any other company in which the Director or his associates is/are interested only, whether directly or indirectly, as an officer or executive or a shareholder or in which the Director and any of his associates are not in aggregate beneficially interested in 5 per cent. or more of the issued shares or of the voting rights of any class of shares of such company (or of any third company through which his interest or that of any of his associates is derived); or
- (4) any proposal or arrangement relating to the interests of the employees of the Company or the subsidiary thereof, including:
 - (i) Adopt, amend or exercise any employee's shares scheme, any share award scheme or share option scheme in favor of the Director and the associate thereof; or
 - (ii) Adopt, amend or exercise a pension fund or retirement, death, or disability benefits scheme which relates both to Directors, his associates and employees of the Company, and such scheme does not provide in respect of any Director, or his associates, as such any privilege or advantage not accorded generally to the class of persons to which such scheme or fund relates; and
- (5) any contact or arrangement which a Director or his associate has interests, and in which the Director or his associate has interests in the same way to other holders of the shares, bonds and other securities of the Company only due to their equity therein.

As far as this Article, the definition of "associate" is same to that under Listing Rules.

Article 125

Where a Director, Supervisor, General Manager and other senior management personnel^{MP 121} of the Company gives to the Board of Directors a notice in writing stating that, by reason of the facts specified in the notice, he is interested in contracts, transactions or arrangements which may subsequently be made by the Company, that notice shall be deemed for the purposes of the preceding Article to be a sufficient disclosure of his interests, so far as the content stated in such notice is concerned, provided that such notice shall have been given before the date on which the question of entering into the relevant contract, transaction or arrangement is first taken into consideration by the Company.

Article 126

The Company shall not pay taxes for or on behalf of a Director, Supervisor, General^{MP 122} Manager and other senior management personnel in any manner.

Article 127

The Company shall not directly or indirectly make a loan to or provide any guarantee in connection with the making of a loan to a Director, Supervisor, General Manager and other senior management personnel of the Company or its holding company or any of their respective associates.^{MP 123}

The foregoing prohibition shall not apply to the following circumstances:

- (1) provision of a loan or guarantee for a loan by the Company to its subsidiary;
- (2) the provision by the Company of a loan or a guarantee in connection with the making of a loan or any other funds available to its Directors, Supervisors, General Manager and other senior management personnel to meet expenditure incurred or to be incurred by him for the purposes of the Company or for the purpose of enabling him to perform his duties properly, in accordance with the terms of a service contract approved by the shareholders in a general meeting; and
- (3) if the ordinary course of business of the Company includes the lending of money or the giving of guarantees, the Company may make a loan to or provide a guarantee in connection with the making of a loan to a Director, Supervisor, General Manager and other senior management personnel or his associates in the ordinary course of its business on normal commercial terms.

Article 128

Any person who receives funds from a loan which has been made by the Company acting in breach of the preceding Article shall, irrespective of the terms of the loan, forthwith repay such funds.^{MP 124}

Article 129

A guarantee for the repayment of a loan which has been provided by the Company acting in breach of Article 127 (1) shall not be enforceable against the Company, save in respect of the following circumstances:^{MP 125}

- (1) the guarantee was provided in connection with a loan which was made to an associate of a Director, Supervisor, General Manager and other senior management personnel of the Company or the Company's holding company and the lender of such funds did not know of the relevant circumstances at the time of the making of the loan; or
- (2) the collateral which has been provided by the Company has already been lawfully disposed of by the lender to a bona fide purchaser.

Article 130

For the purposes of the foregoing provisions of this Chapter, a “guarantee” includes an undertaking or property provided by the obligor to secure his performance of obligations.^{MP 126}

Article 131

In addition to any rights and remedies provided by laws and administrative regulations, where a Director, Supervisor, General Manager and other senior management personnel of the Company breaches the duties which he owes to the Company, the Company has a right:^{MP 127}

- (1) to demand such a Director, Supervisor, General Manager or other senior management personnel to compensate it for losses sustained by the Company as a result of such breach;
- (2) to rescind any contract or transaction which has been entered into between the Company and such a Director, Supervisor, General Manager and other senior management personnel or between the Company and a third party (where such third party knows or should have known that such a Director, Supervisor, General Manager and other senior management personnel representing the Company has breached his duties owed to the Company);
- (3) to demand such a Director, Supervisor, General Manager and other senior management personnel to surrender the gains made as result of the breach of his obligations;
- (4) to recover any monies which should have been received by the Company and which were received by such a Director, Supervisor, General Manager and other senior management personnel instead, including (but not limited to) commissions; and
- (5) to demand repayment of interest earned or which may have been earned by a Director, Supervisor, General Manager and other senior management personnel on money that should have been paid to the Company.

Article 132

The Company shall make written contract with a Director or Supervisor in relation to emoluments. The emoluments shall be approved in advance by general meeting. The aforesaid emoluments include:^{MP 128}

- (1) emoluments in respect of his service as director, Supervisor, or senior management personnel of the Company;
- (2) emoluments in respect of his acting as a Director, supervisor or a senior management personnel of any subsidiary of the Company;
- (3) emoluments in respect of the provision of other services in connection with the management of the affairs of the Company and any of its subsidiaries;

- (4) payment by means of compensation for loss of office, or as consideration for or in connection with his retirement from office.

No proceedings may be brought by a Director or Supervisor against the Company for anything due to him in respect of the matters mentioned in this Article except pursuant to the preceding contract.

Article 133

The contract concerning the emoluments between the Company and its directors or supervisors should provide that in the event that the Company is acquired, the Company's directors and supervisors shall, subject to the prior approval of shareholders in a general meeting, have the right to receive compensation or other payment in respect of his loss of office or retirement. For the purposes of this Article, the acquisition of the Company includes any of the following:

- (1) an offer made by any person to the general body of shareholders; or
- (2) an offer made by any person with a view to the offer or becoming a "controlling shareholder" within the meaning of Article 49 hereof.

If the relevant director or supervisor does not comply with this Article, any sum so received by him shall belong to those persons who have sold their shares as a result of such offer. The expenses incurred in distributing such sum on a pro rata basis amongst such persons shall be borne by the relevant director or supervisor and shall not be paid out of such sum.

CHAPTER 15 FINANCIAL AND ACCOUNTING SYSTEMS AND PROFIT DISTRIBUTION

Article 134

The Company shall establish its financial and accounting systems in accordance with laws, administrative regulations and PRC enterprise accounting standards formulated by the finance regulatory department of the State Council.

Article 135

At the end of each fiscal year, the Company shall prepare a financial report which shall be examined and verified in a manner prescribed by law.

Article 136

The Board of Directors of the Company shall place before the shareholders at every annual general meeting such financial reports which the relevant laws, administrative regulations and directives promulgated by competent regional and central governmental authorities require the Company to prepare.

Article 137

The Company's financial reports and directors' reports shall be made available for shareholders' inspection at the Company twenty (20) days before the date of shareholders' annual general meeting. Each shareholder shall be entitled to have a copy of the financial reports referred to in this Chapter. ^{MP 133}

The aforesaid report and director report should be given to shareholders 21 days before the date of the shareholders' meetings, by prepaid mail, the electronic announcement through the official website or Company website or any means of corporate communication to the overseas shareholders as recorded in the register of shareholders.

Article 138

The financial statements of the Company shall, in addition to being prepared in accordance with PRC enterprise accounting standards and regulations, be prepared in accordance with either international accounting standards, or that of the place overseas where the Company's shares are listed. If there is any material difference between the financial statements prepared respectively in accordance with the two accounting standards, such difference shall be stated in the financial statements. In distributing its profits after tax of relevant fiscal year, the lower of the two profits after tax prepared by (i) PRC enterprise accounting standards and regulations or (ii) international accounting standards, or that of the place overseas where the Company's shares are listed shall be adopted. ^{MP 134}

Article 139

Any interim results or financial information published or disclosed by the Company must also be prepared and presented in accordance with PRC enterprise accounting standards and regulations, and also in accordance with either international accounting standards or that of the place overseas where the Company's shares are listed. ^{MP 135}

Article 140

The Company shall publish its annual, biannual and quarterly financial reports in each fiscal year. Annual financial report shall be published within 45 days after the expiration of each fiscal year, biannual financial report shall be published within 45 days after the expiration of first half of each fiscal year, and quarterly report shall published within 90 days after the expiration of each quarter. ^{MP 136}

Article 141

The Company shall not keep accounts other than those required by law. ^{MP 137}

Article 142

Profits after tax of the Company shall be applied in the following order of priority:

- (1) to make up for losses;
- (2) allocation to the statutory common reserve fund;
- (3) allocation to the statutory common welfare fund;
- (4) allocate the arbitrary common reserve fund according to the resolution of general meeting; and
- (5) payment of dividends for ordinary shares.

No dividends can be distributed or no other distribution in the form of dividends can be made before making up losses, collect statutory reserve fund and statutory public welfare fund. The dividend doesn't bear any interest, unless the Company doesn't distribute relevant dividend to the shareholders on the due date. Shareholders are entitled to dividends on the payment of any shares paid before the call on shares, but shareholders have no right on dividend declared before the due date for advancement thereof. ^{A3, 3(1)}

If the Company exercises the power to confiscate the uncollected dividends, such power shall be exercised only after the expiry of the applicable period. ^{A3, 3(2)}

For the exercise of power to terminate the delivery of H-share dividend warrants by post, if such dividend warrants haven't been cashed, then such power shall be exercised only after such dividend warrants haven't been cashed twice. However, upon such dividend warrants can't be served initially to the recipient and have been returned, such power can be exercised also. ^{A3, 13(1)}

For the exercise of power to sale shares of untraceable holders of H shares, unless complying with the following provisions, otherwise the Company shall not exercise such power: ^{A3, 13(2)}

- (1) The relevant shares have been distributed at least three times of dividends within twelve years, and no dividend is claimed during that period; and
- (2) After the expiry of twelve years, the Company publishes an advertisement in the newspapers, indicating its intention to sell shares, and it shall notify the Stock Exchange of Hong Kong.

Article 143

Capital common reserve fund includes the following items:

- (1) premium on shares issued at a premium price; and

MP 138

- (2) any other income designated for the capital common reserve fund by the regulations of the finance regulatory department of the State Council.

Article 144

The common reserve fund of the Company shall be applied for the following purposes:

- (1) compensating the losses;
- (2) increase of capital by conversion: The Company may subject to a resolution of a general meeting convert the common reserve fund into share capital by issuing new shares or increasing the par value of each share in proportion to the shareholders' existing shareholding. However, when the statutory common reserve fund is converted to increase share capital, the remaining statutory common fund after such conversion shall be no less than twenty five per cent. of the registered capital; and
- (3) expansion of production and operation.

Article 145

The amount of dividend declared by the Company will be determined based on the Company's operation results, cash flow, financial position, operation and capital requirements as well as other factors. The Company will take the discretion to declare dividends according to the above factors. In addition to resolutions otherwise made by general meeting, under the premise of considering the Company's position and complying with relevant laws and regulations and the relevant provisions of the Articles of Association, the Board of Directors can determine to allocate, distribute and pay interim dividends and special dividends.

Article 146

The Company may distribute dividends in the following forms:

MP 139

- (1) cash; and
- (2) shares.

Article 147

Dividends of ordinary shares shall be denominated and declared in RMB. Dividends of Domestic Shares shall be paid in RMB. Dividends of Foreign Shares shall be denominated and declared in RMB, but shall be paid in the currency of the place where these Foreign Shares are listed (or, if there is more than one such place, of the place where those Foreign Shares maintain a primary listing as determined by the Board of Directors).

Article 148

Unless otherwise stipulated by related laws or administrative regulations, for dividend paid in foreign currencies, the exchange rates applied are the average closing prices of the related foreign currencies announced by the People's Bank of China one week prior to the announcement of dividend and other distributions.

Article 149

The Company shall appoint receiving agents for holders of the Overseas Listed Foreign Shares. Such receiving agents shall receive dividends which have been declared by the Company and all other amounts which the Company should pay to holders of Overseas Listed Foreign Shares on such shareholders' behalf. ^{MP 140}

The receiving agents appointed by the Company shall meet the relevant requirements of the laws of the place at which the stock exchange on which the Company's shares are listed or the relevant regulations of such stock exchange.

The receiving agents appointed for holders of Overseas Listed Foreign Shares listed in Hong Kong shall each be a company registered as a trust company under the Trustee Ordinance of Hong Kong. <sup>A13D, 1(c)

CHAPTER 16 APPOINTMENT OF ACCOUNTING FIRM

Article 150

The Company shall appoint an independent accounting firm which is qualified under the relevant regulations of the State to audit the Company's annual financial report and review other financial reports of the Company. ^{MP 141}

The first accounting firm of the Company may be appointed by the founders' meeting before the first annual shareholders' meeting. The term of appointment of the accounting firm shall terminate at the end of the first shareholders' annual meeting. If the founders' meeting does not exercise its duties and powers according to the aforementioned provisions, then the Board of Directors shall exercise its duties and powers.

Article 151

The accounting firm appointed by the Company shall hold office from the conclusion of the annual general meeting of shareholders at which they were appointed until the conclusion of the next annual general meeting of shareholders. ^{MP 142}

Article 152

The accounting firm appointed by the Company shall be entitled to the followings: ^{MP 143}

- (1) a right to review to the books, records and vouchers of the Company at any time, the right to require the Directors, General Manager and other senior management personnel of the Company to supply relevant information and explanations;
- (2) a right to require the Company to take all reasonable steps to obtain from its subsidiaries such information and explanation as are necessary for the discharge of its duties; and
- (3) a right to attend shareholders' general meetings and to receive all notices of, and other communications relating to, any general meeting which any shareholder is entitled to receive, and to speak at any general meeting in relation to matters concerning its role as the Company's accounting firm.

Article 153

If there is a vacancy in the position of the accounting firm, the Board of Directors may ^{MP 144} appoint an accounting firm to fill such vacancy before the convening of the general meeting. Any other accounting firm which has been appointed by the Company may continue to act during the period during which a vacancy arises.

Article 154

The shareholders in a general meeting may by ordinary resolution remove the accounting ^{MP 145} firm before the expiration of its term of office, irrespective of the provisions in the contract between the Company and the accounting firm. However, the right of the accounting firm in claiming for damages which arise from its removal shall not be affected thereby.

Article 155

The emolument of an accounting firm or the manner in which such firm is to be ^{MP 146} remunerated shall be determined by the shareholders in a general meeting. The emolument of an accounting firm appointed by the Board of Directors which is to fill the vacancy shall be determined by the Board of Directors.

Article 156

The Company's appointment, removal or non-reappointment of an accounting firm shall ^{MP 147} be resolved by the shareholders in a general meeting. Such resolution shall be filed with the securities authority of the State Council.

Article 157

Where a resolution is passed at a general meeting of shareholders to appoint an accounting firm other than an incumbent accounting firm, to fill a casual vacancy in the office of the accounting firm, or to reappoint an accounting firm appointed by the Board of Directors to fill a casual vacancy, or to remove an accounting firm before expiry of its term of office, the following provisions shall apply:

- (1) A copy of the appointment or removal proposal shall be sent before notice of meeting is given to the shareholders to the firm proposed to be appointed or proposing to leave its post or the firm which has left its post in the relevant fiscal year. Reference as leaving herein includes leaving by removal, resignation and retirement.
- (2) If the accounting firm leaving its post makes representations in writing and requests the Company to give the shareholders notice of such representations, the Company shall (unless the representations are received too late) take the following measures:
 - (i) in any notice of the resolution given to shareholders, state the fact of the representations having been made by the accounting firm leaving its post; and
 - (ii) attach a copy of the representations to the notice and deliver it to the shareholders in the manner stipulated in the Articles of Association and its appendices.
- (3) If the Company fails to circulate the accounting firm's representations in the manner set out in sub-paragraph (2) above, such accounting firm may (in addition to its right to be heard) require that the representations be read out at the meeting.
- (4) An accounting firm which is retired from its office shall be entitled to attend the following meetings:
 - (i) the general meeting at which its term of office would otherwise have expired;
 - (ii) the general meeting at which it is proposed to fill the vacancy caused by its removal; and
 - (iii) the general meeting which convened as a result of its voluntary resignation;

The leaving accounting firm has the right to receive all notices of, and other communications relating to, any such meeting, and to speak at any such meeting which it attends on any part of the business of the meeting which concerns it as the former accounting firm of the Company.

Article 158

Prior notice should be given to the accounting firm in advance if the Company decides to remove or not to renew appointment of such accounting firm. Such accounting firm shall be entitled to make representations at the general meeting. Where the accounting firm resigns from its position as the Company's auditors, it shall make clear to the shareholders in a general meeting whether there has been any impropriety on the part of the Company. ^{MP 148}

Article 159

An accounting firm may resign its office by depositing a written notice of resignation at the Company's domicile. Such notice shall contain the following statements: ^{A13D, 1(e) (ii)}

- (1) a statement to the effect that there are no circumstances connected with its resignation which it considers should be brought to the notice of the shareholders or creditors of the Company; or ^{"Zheng Jian Hai Han" 10}
- (2) a statement of any such circumstances.

Such resignation notice shall become effective on the date of such deposit or on such later date as may be stipulated in such notice.

Where a notice is deposited under the foregoing provisions of this Article, the Company shall within fourteen (14) days send a copy of the notice to the competent authority. If the notice contained a statement under paragraph (2) of this Article, the Company shall deposit a copy of such statement in the Company for examination by the shareholders. The Company shall also send a copy of such statement by postage pre-paid mail to each of the holders of the overseas listed foreign shares at its registered address contained in the shareholders' register. ^{A13D, 1(e) (iii)}

Where the accounting firm's notice of resignation contains a statement in respect of the above, it may require the Board of Directors to convene a shareholders' extraordinary general meeting for the purpose of receiving an explanation of the circumstances connected with its resignation. ^{A13D, 1(e) (iv)}

CHAPTER 17 MERGER AND DIVISION OF THE COMPANY

Article 160

In the case of merger or division of the Company, the Board of Directors shall propose a proposal, and, upon approval in accordance with the procedures under the Articles of Association, deal with the relevant approval procedures pursuant to laws. A shareholder who objects to the proposal of merger or division shall have the right to demand the Company or the shareholders who consent to the proposal of merger or division to acquire such dissenting shareholders' shareholding at a fair price. The contents of the resolution of merger or division of the Company shall constitute special documents which shall be available for inspection by the shareholders of the Company. ^{MP 149}

To overseas shareholders, the aforesaid document should be sent by prepaid mail, or the electronic announcement through the official website or Company website or any means of corporate communication.

Article 161

The merger of the Company may take the form of either merger by absorption or merger^{MP 150} by the establishment of a new company.

In the event of a merger, the merging parties shall execute a merger agreement and prepare a balance sheet and an inventory of assets. The Company shall notify its creditors within ten days from the date on which the Company's merger resolution is passed, and shall publish an announcement at least three times in a newspaper within thirty days.^{A3, 7(1)}

After the merger, the rights against debtors and the indebtedness of each of the parties to the merger shall be inherited by the company which survives the merger or the newly established company.

Article 162

Where there is a division of the Company, its assets shall be divided up accordingly.^{MP 151}

In the event of division of the Company, the parties to such division shall execute a division agreement and prepare a balance sheet and an inventory of assets. The Company shall notify its creditors within ten days from the date on which the Company's division resolution is passed, and shall publish an announcement at least three times in a newspaper within thirty days.

Debts owing by the Company before the division shall be borne by the companies after the division in accordance with the relevant division agreement.

Article 163

The Company shall, in accordance with law, apply for change in its registration with the company registration authority where a change in any item in its registration arises as a result of any merger or division. Where the Company is dissolved, the Company shall apply for cancellation of its registration in accordance with law. Where a new company is established, the Company shall apply for registration thereof in accordance with law.^{MP 152}

CHAPTER 18 DISSOLUTION AND LIQUIDATION OF THE COMPANY

Article 164

The Company shall be dissolved and liquidated upon the occurrence of any of the following events:^{MP 153}

(1) a resolution regarding the dissolution is passed by shareholders at a general meeting;

- (2) dissolution is necessary due to a merger or division of the Company;
- (3) the Company is legally declared insolvent due to its failure to repay debts as they become due; and
- (4) the Company is ordered to close by law because of its break of laws and administrative regulations.

Article 165

Should the Company be dissolved due to provisions mentioned in clause (1) above, the Company should establish a liquidation committee within fifteen days. Members of the liquidation committee should be selected at General Meeting in the form of ordinary resolution. ^{MP 154}

Should the Company be dissolved due to provisions mentioned in clause (3) above, the People's Court will, subject to related laws, organise shareholders, related organisations and professionals to establish a liquidation committee so as to conduct the liquidation.

Where the Company is dissolved under sub-paragraph (4) of the preceding Article, the relevant authorities shall organise the shareholders, relevant organisations and related professional personnel to establish a liquidation committee to carry out the liquidation.

Article 166

Where the Board of Directors proposes to liquidate the Company for any reason other than the Company's declaration of its own insolvency, the Board shall include a statement in its notice convening a general meeting to consider the proposal to the effect that, after making full inquiry into the affairs of the Company, the Board of Directors is of the opinion that the Company will be capable to pay its debts in full within twelve months from the commencement of the liquidation. ^{MP 155}

Upon the passing of the resolution by the shareholders in a general meeting in relation to the liquidation of the Company, all functions and powers of the Board of Directors shall cease.

The liquidation committee shall act in accordance with the instructions of the general meeting to make a report at least once every year to the general meeting on the committee's income and expenses, the business of the Company and the progress of the liquidation; and to present a final report to the general meeting on completion of the liquidation.

Article 167

The liquidation committee shall, within ten (10) days of its establishment, send notices to creditors and shall, within sixty days of its establishment, publish an announcement at least three times in a newspaper. The liquidation committee shall register the creditor's right. ^{MP 156}

Article 168

Within thirty (30) days following the date of service of the written notification, or within ninety (90) days following the public announcement if the written notification is not personally received, the creditors shall declare creditors' rights to the liquidation committee. A creditor declaring a creditor's right shall state the relevant matter in relation to the debt, and provide evidentiary material. The liquidation committee shall register the creditors' rights.

Article 169

During the liquidation period, the liquidation committee shall exercise the following^{MP 157} functions and powers:

- (1) to categorise the Company's assets and prepare a balance sheet and an inventory of assets respectively;
- (2) to notify the creditors or to publish public announcements;
- (3) to dispose of and liquidate any unfinished businesses of the Company;
- (4) to pay all outstanding taxes;
- (5) to settle claims and debts;
- (6) to deal with the surplus assets remaining after repayment by the Company of its debts;
- (7) to represent the Company in any civil proceedings.

Article 170

After categorising the Company's assets and preparing the balance sheet and an^{MP 158} inventory of assets, the liquidation committee shall formulate a liquidation plan and present it to a general meeting or to the relevant authority for confirmation.

Payment of debts out of the Company's property shall be made in the order of priority prescribed by applicable laws and regulations.

The remaining property of the Company after payment has been made under the previous provision shall be distributed to its shareholders according to the class and proportion of their shareholding.

The Company shall not undertake any new business during the process of liquidation.

Article 171

Upon completion of the categorisation of the Company's assets and preparation a balance sheet and an inventory of assets in connection with the liquidation of the Company, if the liquidation committee discovers that the Company's assets are insufficient to repay the Company's debts in full, the liquidation committee shall immediately apply to the People's Court in accordance with laws for a declaration of insolvency.^{MP 159}

After the Company is declared insolvent by a ruling of the People's Court, the liquidation committee shall transfer all matters arising from the liquidation to the People's Court.

Article 172

Following the completion of the liquidation, the liquidation committee shall prepare a liquidation report, a statement of income and expenses received and made during the liquidation period and a financial report, which shall be verified by a Chinese registered accountant and submitted to the general meeting or relevant authorities for confirmation.^{MP 160}

The liquidation committee shall, within thirty (30) days after the confirmation of general meeting or relevant authorities, submit the documents referred to in the preceding paragraph to the company registration authorities and apply for cancellation of registration of the Company, and publish an announcement relating to the termination of the Company.

CHAPTER 19 PROCEDURES FOR AMENDMENT TO THE ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION OF THE COMPANY

Article 173

The Company may amend its Articles of Association in accordance with the requirements of laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association.^{MP 161}

Article 174

Amendment of the Articles of Association involving the contents of the Mandatory Provisions shall become effective upon receipt of approval from the companies approving authorities authorised by the State Council and the China Securities Regulatory Commission. If there is any change relating to the registered particulars of the Company, application shall be made for change in registration in accordance with laws.^{MP 162}

If there is any specific requirement under the PRC laws or by the State Council, the amendment of the Articles of Association could be made directly according to the applicable requirements and take effect in accordance with the relevant provisions of Article 6 of the Articles of Association.

CHAPTER 20 RESOLUTION OF DISPUTES

Article 175

The Company shall abide by the following principles for dispute resolution:

- (1) Whenever any disputes or claims arise between: holders of the Overseas Listed Foreign Shares and the Company; holders of the Overseas Listed Foreign Shares and the Company's Directors, Supervisors, General Manager or other senior management personnel; or holders of the Overseas Listed Foreign Shares and holders of Domestic Shares, in relation to the affairs of the Company arising as a result of any rights or obligations arising from the Articles of Association, the Company Law, Special Regulations or other relevant laws and administrative regulations, such disputes or claims shall be referred by the relevant parties to arbitration. ^{MP 163} "Zheng Jian Hai Han" 11

Where a dispute or claim of rights referred to in the preceding paragraph is referred to arbitration, the entire claim or dispute must be referred to arbitration, and all persons who have a cause of action based on the same facts giving rise to the dispute or claim or whose participation is necessary for the resolution of such dispute or claim, shall, where such person is the Company or the Company's shareholders, Directors, Supervisors, General Manager or other senior management personnel, comply with the decisions made in the arbitration.

Disputes in respect of the definition of shareholders and disputes in relation to the register of shareholders need not be resolved by arbitration.

- (2) A claimant may elect for arbitration to be carried out at either at the China International Economic and Trade Arbitration Commission in accordance with its Rules or at the Hong Kong International Arbitration Centre in accordance with its Securities Arbitration Rules. Once a claimant refers a dispute or claim to arbitration, the other party must submit to the arbitral body elected by the claimant. If a claimant elects for arbitration to be carried out at the Hong Kong International Arbitration Centre, any party to the dispute or claim may apply for a hearing to take place in Shenzhen in accordance with the Securities Arbitration Rules of the Hong Kong International Arbitration Centre.
- (3) If any disputes or claims of rights are settled by means of arbitration in accordance with sub-paragraph (1) of this Article, the laws of the PRC shall apply, save as otherwise provided in the laws and administrative regulations.
- (4) The judgement of an arbitral body shall be final and conclusive and binding on all parties.

CHAPTER 21 SUPPLEMENTARY PROVISIONS

Article 176

Unless otherwise provided, any notice or report required or permitted to be given or delivered by the Company by public advertisement must be published in at least one newspaper with national circulation approved by the State Council securities regulatory department, and must be published, as far as practicable, on the same day in the Chinese and English languages respectively in a major Chinese and a major English newspaper in Hong Kong.^{A3, 7(1) (3)}

Article 177

The Articles of Association are written in Chinese and English. Both versions are equally valid, but in the case of discrepancy, the Chinese version shall prevail.

Article 178

In the Articles of Association, references to “accounting firm” shall have the same meaning as “auditors”.
