Management Discussion and Analysis

Revenue

The Group's revenue in 2021 amounted to approximately RMB9,175.6 million, representing an increase of 85.4% from approximately RMB4,949.4 million in 2020, primarily because the Group has been committed to the development strategy of product matrix, which accurately matched the needs of its users. Cost of Sales

The Group's cost of sales increased by 56.5% to approximately RMB5,870.5 million in 2021 from approximately RMB3,752.3 million in 2020, mainly attributable to the increase in the revenue. The Group's cost of sales as a percentage of revenue decreased to 64.0% in 2021 from 75.8% for the corresponding period in 2020, primarily due to the stabilising in revenue sharing policies of the new products launched by the Group, resulting in a decrease in the ratio of the revenue sharing cost in 2021.

Gross Profit and Gross Profit Margin

As a result of the foregoing, the Group's gross profit increased by 176.1% from approximately RMB1,197.1 million in 2020 to approximately RMB3,305.1 million in 2021, and the Group's gross profit margin increased from 24.2% in 2020 to 36.0% in 2021.

Selling and Marketing Expenses

The Group's selling and marketing expenses increased by 211.9% from approximately RMB709.9 million in 2020 to approximately RMB2,214.4 million in 2021, primarily due to the Group's launch of a majority of its new products. Administrative Expenses

The Group's administrative expenses increased by 36.1% from approximately RMB177.2 million in 2020 to approximately RMB241.2 million in 2021, primarily as a result of the increase in labour cost. Administrative expenses as a percentage of the Group's revenue decreased from 3.6% in 2020 to 2.6% in 2021.

Research and Development Expenses

The Group's research and development expenses increased by 24.4% from approximately RMB334.4 million in 2020 to approximately RMB416.0 million in 2021. The increase was primarily because of the increased investment in research and development of product matrix by the Group. As a percentage of the Group's revenue, the Group's research and development expenses decreased from 6.8% in 2020 to 4.5% in 2021.

Impairment losses on financial assets

Impairment losses on financial assets of the Group decreased from RMB44.4 million in 2020 to RMB8.4 million in 2021, mainly due to a decrease in the credit impairment losses on other receivables and long-term receivables.

Other (losses)/gains — net

The Group's other (losses)/gains — net turned around from a net gain of approximately RMB40.9 million in 2020 to a net loss of approximately RMB44.9 million in 2021, primarily as a result of the decrease in fair value gains on financial assets at fair value through profit or loss.

Other Income

The Group's other income decreased by 7.2% from approximately RMB82.7 million in 2020 to approximately RMB76.8 million in 2021, primarily due to a decrease in non-deferred government subsidies.

The Group's finance income — net increased by 56.2% from approximately RMB10.7 million in 2020 to approximately RMB16.7 million in 2021. The finance income of RMB26.6 million was primarily resulted from previously subscribed term-deposits that have been matured during the year and an increase in the cash balance at banks, and the finance cost was RMB9.9 million.

Share of (Loss)/Profit of Associates and Joint Ventures Accounted for Using the Equity Method

The Group's share of loss of associates and joint ventures accounted for using the equity method was approximately RMB0.4 million in 2021 and the share of profit was approximately RMB147.9 million in 2020. The loss mainly came from the investment loss of the joint ventures of the Group.

Income Tax Expense

The Group's income tax expenses increased by 296.2% from approximately RMB10.2 million in 2020 to approximately RMB40.3 million in 2021, primarily due to the increase in the Group's profit before income tax in 2021.

Management Discussion and Analysis

Non-IFRS Measure

To supplement the Group's consolidated annual financial statements which are presented in accordance with the International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRS"), the Group also uses adjusted net profit ("Adjusted Net Profit") as an additional financial measure. The Group's Adjusted Net Profit eliminates the effect of non-cash share-based compensation expenses. The table below sets forth the reconciliation of Adjusted Net Profit for the years indicated:

	For the year ended 31 December
	2021	2020
	RMB'000	RMB'000
Profit for the year	433,009	203,204
Add: non-cash share-based compensation expenses ⁽¹⁾	33,531	17,520
Adjusted Net Profit⁽²⁾	466,540	220,724

⁽¹⁾ Refers to share-based compensation benefits provided to certain employees via the employee share scheme.

⁽²⁾ To supplement our consolidated financial statements which are presented in accordance with IFRS, we also use Adjusted Net Profit as an additional financial measure. We present this financial measure because it is used by our management to evaluate our operating performance. We also believe that this non-IFRS measure provides useful information to investors and others in understanding and evaluating our results of operations in the same manner as our management and in comparing financial results across accounting periods and to those of our peer companies. Adjusted Net Profit is calculated using profit for the year, and add back non-cash share-based compensation expenses. The term of Adjusted Net Profit is not defined under IFRS. The use of Adjusted Net Profit has material limitations as an analytical tool, as it does not include all items that impact our net profit for the year.

Management Discussion and Analysis

Subscriptions of wealth management products were made for treasury management purposes to maximise the return on the unutilised funds of the Company after taking into account, among others, the level of risk, return on investment, liquidity and the term to maturity. Generally, the Company had in the past selected a diversified investment portfolio, which mainly included short-term financial products issued by reputable commercial banks and financial institutions that had relatively low associated risk. The Company had also ensured that it would remain sufficient working capital for the Group's business needs, operating activities and capital expenditures even after making the investments in such financial products. These financial products were considered to have relatively low risk and are also in line with the internal risk management, cash management and investment policies of the Group. In addition, the majority of these financial products were with flexible redemption terms or a relatively short term of maturity. In accordance with the relevant accounting standards, these financial products were accounted for as financial assets at fair value through profit or loss.

In view of the benefit of earning a more attractive return than current saving or fixed deposit rate under the low interest rate trend, as well as a relatively short term of maturity of the wealth management products, the directors of the Company (the "Directors") are of the view that these financial products pose little risk to the Group and the terms and conditions of each of the subscriptions are fair and reasonable and are in the interests of the Company and its shareholders as a whole. The Company believes that the above investment strategies and directions would continue to generate stable income to the Group.

Capital expenditures

In 2021, the Group's capital expenditures amounted to approximately RMB227.7 million (2020: approximately RMB8.0 million), which were mainly used for the acquisition of property, equipment, leasehold improvements, investment properties and intangible assets. The Group funded its capital expenditures by using the cash flow generated from its operations.

Contingent liabilities and guarantees

As at 31 December 2021, the Group did not have any significant unrecorded contingent liabilities, guarantees or any litigation against the Group except for that disclosed in the cash and cash equivalents and restricted cash section.

Pledge of Assets

As at 31 December 2021, the Group did not pledge any assets.

Foreign exchange risk management

Foreign exchange risk arises when future commercial transactions or recognized assets and liabilities are denominated in a currency that is not the Group entities' functional currency. The functional currency of the Company is USD and the functional currency of subsidiaries operated in the PRC is Renminbi. The Group manages its foreign exchange risk by performing regular reviews of the Group's net foreign exchange exposures and tries to minimise these exposures through natural hedges, wherever possible, and may enter into forward foreign exchange contracts, when necessary.

Employees and remuneration policies

As at 31 December 2021, the Group had a total of 2,297 full time employees, mainly located in mainland China. In particular, 371 employees are responsible for the Group's business operations, 68 for sales and marketing, 435 for content monitoring, 225 for customer service, 893 for technology, research and development, and 305 for general and administrative functions.

Remuneration of the Group's employees includes basic salaries, allowances, bonus, share-based payment and other employee benefits, and is determined with reference to their experience, qualification and general market conditions. The emolument policy for the employees of the Group is set up by the Board on the basis of their merit, qualification and competence. The Group believes that we maintain a good working relationship with our employees, and we did not experience any material labour disputes during the year ended 31 December 2021.

Contractual Arrangements

Please refer to the section headed "Contractual Arrangements" in the prospectus of the Company dated 28 June 2018 (the "Prospectus"). For the year ended 31 December 2021, the Board has reviewed the overall performance of the contractual arrangements and confirmed that the Group has complied with the contractual arrangements in all material respects.

On 15 March 2019, the National People's Congress approved the Foreign Investment Law, which has come into effect on 1 January 2020 and replaced the trio of existing laws regulating foreign investment in the PRC, namely, the Sino-foreign Equity Joint Venture Enterprise Law, the Sino-foreign Cooperative Joint Venture Enterprise Law and the Wholly Foreign-invested Enterprise Law, together with their implementation rules and ancillary regulations. The Foreign Investment Law has unified the corporate legal requirements for both foreign and domestic investments and by way of having a negative list (the "Negative List").

The Negative List, which has been issued by the State Council and updated on 1 January 2022, refers to special administrative measures for access to foreign investment in specific fields in the PRC. A foreign investor shall not invest in any field prohibited from foreign investment under the Negative List. A foreign investor shall meet the investment conditions stipulated under the Negative List for any restricted fields under the Negative List.

A foreign investor who invests in a foreign-invested value-added telecommunications enterprise operating value-added telecommunications businesses in the PRC must demonstrate a good track record and experience in operating value-added telecommunications businesses (the "Qualification Requirement"). Moreover, foreign investors that meet these requirements must obtain approvals from the Ministry of Industry and Information Technology of the People's Republic of China and the Ministry of Commerce of the People's Republic of China, or their authorised local counterparts, which retain considerable discretion in granting approvals, for the commencement of that investor's value-added telecommunications businesses in the PRC.

Further details of the contractual arrangements, please refer to the section headed "Continuing Connected Transactions" in this annual report.

The Reason for using Contractual Arrangements

The Group primarily engages in the operations of mobile live streaming platforms and is considered to be engaged in the provision of value-added telecommunications services, internet cultural services, online audio and video program services and talent agency services (the “Principal Business”).

Beijing Meelive and its subsidiaries, hold the relevant licenses required for carrying out the above services and operating the aforementioned businesses. Pursuant to applicable PRC laws and regulations, foreign investors are prohibited from holding equity interest in an entity engaging in internet cultural activities and online audio and video program streaming services and are restricted to conduct value-added telecommunications services and talent agency services (the “Foreign Restricted Businesses”). For details of the relevant restriction, please refer to the section headed “Contractual Arrangement” in this annual report.

Accordingly, the Group cannot hold equity interest in Beijing Meelive and its subsidiaries, which conduct the Principal Business and the platform support services which operate through, and are closely related to and interdependent on the operation of, the Group’s mobile live streaming platforms, online social network platform and hold the assets and certain licenses, approvals and permits required for the operation of the Principal Business.

In addition, the Group has established (i) the Dating OPCO principally engaging in the operation of live streaming platforms with the focus on online dating segment, streamers could assist users to interact in real-time for building up relationships and marriages (the “Online Dating Business”) and (ii) the E-commerce OPCO principally engaging in the operation of live streaming platforms with the focus on e-commerce segment, streamers could introduce and recommend products to users for commercial purposes (the “E-commerce Business”). Both Online Dating Business and the E-commerce Business are also considered as the Foreign Restricted Businesses under the relevant PRC laws.

As a result of the applicable PRC laws and regulations (please refer to the section headed “Contractual Arrangement” in this annual report) prohibition and/or restrictions of (i) foreign ownership in the telecommunications industry and of internet cultural industries in the PRC and (ii) foreign investors conducting value-added telecommunications services, the Group has established two New VIE Structures for the purpose of operating the Online Dating and E-commerce Businesses through the Dating OPCO and the E-commerce OPCO, respectively (i.e. the Dating VIE Structure⁽¹⁾ and the E-commerce VIE Structure⁽²⁾) by entering into (i) the Dating VIE Agreements⁽³⁾ with the Registered Shareholders and the Dating OPCO⁽⁴⁾, and (ii) the E-commerce VIE Agreements⁽⁵⁾ with the Registered Shareholders and the E-commerce OPCO⁽⁶⁾. Please refer to the Company’s announcement dated 25 September 2020 for further details.

Notes:

- (1) the VIE Structure constituted by the Dating VIE Agreements.
- (2) the VIE Structure constituted by the E-commerce VIE Agreements.
- (3) the Dating Exclusive Consulting and Service Agreement, the Dating Exclusive Call Option Agreements, the Dating Equity Pledge Agreements and the Dating Powers of Attorney.
- (4) Hunan Canchenyingchao Internet and Technology Co., Ltd.* (湖南燦宸映朝網絡科技有限公司), a limited liability company established under the laws of the PRC.
- (5) the E-commerce Exclusive Consulting and Service Agreement, the E-commerce Exclusive Call Option Agreement, the E-commerce Equity Pledge Agreement and the E-commerce Powers of Attorney.
- (6) Hunan Lingxiaolansheng Internet and Technology Co., Ltd.* (湖南凌霄攬勝網絡科技有限公司), a limited liability company established under the laws of the PRC.

The Group considers that the adoption of separate VIE structures would provide flexibility to the Group to introduce third party investors in the future for the expansion of respective business of the Group.

Based on the above reasons, the Group believes that the adoption of separate VIE structures would be instrumental to fostering and growing the Online Dating and E-commerce Businesses while continuing to maintain a steady growth in the Entertainment Business.

Details of the contractual arrangements of the Group with Beijing Meelive, Dating OPCO, and E-commerce OPCO (the “Contractual Arrangements”) are shown as follows:

Inke Contractual Arrangements

On 14 February 2018, the Company, through its wholly-owned subsidiary, Inke PRC, entered into a series of contractual arrangements with each of Beijing Meelive and its Registered Shareholders to assert management control over the operations of its Principal Business conducted through Beijing Meelive and its subsidiaries, and to enjoy all economic benefits of Beijing Meelive and its subsidiaries. The structure agreements underlying such contractual arrangements with Beijing Meelive and its Registered Shareholders include: (i) Exclusive Consulting and Service Agreement, (ii) Exclusive Call Option Agreement and (iii) Equity Pledge Agreement (the “Inke Contractual Arrangements”). Moreover, each of the Registered Shareholders of Beijing Meelive had also executed an irrevocable Power of Attorney appointing Inke PRC as his/her/its proxy to exercise on his/her/its behalf of shareholder rights in Beijing Meelive.

Prior to the concert party arrangement being terminated on 13 November 2020 (the “Termination of Concert Party Arrangement”), (i) each of Mr. FENG Yousheng, Ms. LIAO Jieming and Mr. HOU Guangling (the “Founders”) was a controlling shareholder of our Company and Beijing Meelive, and each of Mr. FENG Yousheng and Mr. HOU Guangling is an executive Director and is therefore a connected person of our Company under Rule 14A.07(1) of the Listing Rules; and (ii) Beijing Meelive was owned directly as to approximately 30.32% collectively by the Founders, who have always been in consensus and in agreement when exercising their shareholders’ rights when passing shareholders’ resolutions of Beijing Meelive. Each of Beijing Meelive and its subsidiaries was therefore an associate of each of the Founders and a connected person of our Company under Rule 14A.07(4) of the Listing Rules. Accordingly, the transactions contemplated under the Inke Contractual Arrangements constitute continuing connected transactions of our Company under the Listing Rules upon the Listing.

Upon the Termination of Concert Party Arrangement, Beijing Meelive is no longer an associate of any of the Group’s connected persons (in particular, Mr. FENG and Mr. HOU as the Group’s connected persons, individually owns less than 30% interest in Beijing Meelive). Therefore the Inke Contractual Arrangements between the Group and Beijing Meelive ceased to be continuing connected transactions of the Group. For details of the Termination of Concert Party Arrangement, please see the section under “Termination of Acting in Concert Arrangement and Undertaking” in the Group’s 2020 annual report and the announcement of the Company dated 13 November 2020.

Since Mr. FENG is a substantial Shareholder, an executive Director and a chief executive officer of the Company, he is a connected person of the Company under Chapter 14A of the Listing Rules. In addition, as Mr. FENG is the Registered Shareholder owning 99% equity interest in the Dating OPCO, the Dating OPCO is an associate of Mr. FENG and therefore is also a connected person of the Company. Auditor’s Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor’s report that includes our opinion. We report our opinion solely to you, as a body, and for no other purpose. We do not assume responsibility towards or accept liability to any other person for the contents of this report. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Group to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

2.2 Principles of consolidation and equity accounting

(a) Subsidiaries

Subsidiaries are all entities (including controlled entities) over which the Group has control. The Group controls an entity when the Group is exposed to, or has rights to, variable returns from its involvement with the entity and has the ability to affect those returns through its power to direct the activities of the entity. Subsidiaries are fully consolidated from the date on which control is transferred to the Group. They are deconsolidated from the date that control ceases.

The acquisition method of accounting is used to account for business combinations by the Group (refer to Note 2.3).

Inter-company transactions, balances and unrealised gains on transactions between Group companies are eliminated. Unrealised loss are also eliminated unless the transaction provides evidence of an impairment of the transferred asset. Accounting policies of subsidiaries have been changed where necessary to ensure consistency with the policies adopted by the Group.

Non-controlling interests in the results and equity of subsidiaries are shown separately in the consolidated statement of comprehensive income, statement of changes in equity and balance sheet respectively.

Subsidiaries arising from Contractual Arrangements

i) Inke Contractual Arrangements

On 31 March 2015, Beijing Meelive Network Technology Co, Ltd. (“Beijing Meelive” or 北京蜜萊塢網路科技有限公司) was established to carry out the Group’s business in the PRC. Several domestic operating companies have been established or acquired by Beijing Meelive as its subsidiaries since 2015 and these operating companies together with Beijing Meelive are collectively defined as the “PRC Operational Entities”.

On 14 February 2018, the wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company, Beijing Cheese Network Technology Company Limited (“Inke PRC” or 北京映客芝士網路科技有限公司), has entered into a series of contractual agreements with Beijing Meelive and its equity holders, which enable Inke PRC and the Group to:

- irrevocably exercise equity holders’ voting rights of Beijing Meelive;
- exercise effective financial and operational control over of Beijing Meelive;
- receive substantially all of the economic interest returns generated by Beijing Meelive by way of technical and consulting services provided by Inke PRC;
- obtain an irrevocable and exclusive right to purchase all or part of the equity interests in Beijing Meelive from the respective equity holders at a minimum purchase price permitted under the PRC laws and regulations; and
- obtain a pledge over the entire equity interests of Beijing Meelive from its respective equity holders as collateral security for all of Beijing Meelive’s payments due to Inke PRC and to secure performance of Beijing Meelive’s obligation under the Contractual Agreements.

ii) Dating Contractual Arrangements

On 3 June 2020, Hunan Canchenyingchao Internet and Technology Co., Ltd (“Dating OPCO” or 湖南燦宸映朝網絡科技有限公司) was established in the PRC. On 25 September 2020, the wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company, Hunan Yingchuangxinggao Internet and Technology Co., Ltd. (“Dating WOFE” or 湖南映創新高網絡科技有限公司), has entered into a series of contractual agreements similar to the Inke Contractual Agreements described in Note 2.2(a)(i) with Dating OPCO and its equity holders to obtain economic benefits.

iii) E-commerce Contractual Arrangements

On 3 June 2020, Hunan Lingxiaolansheng Internet and Technology Co., Ltd. (“E-commerce OPCO” or 湖南凌霄攬勝網絡科技有限公司) was established in the PRC. On 25 September 2020, the wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company, Hunan Lingxiao Internet and Technology Co., Ltd. (“E-commerce WOFE” or 湖南凌霄網絡科技有限公司), has entered into a series of contractual agreements similar to the Inke Contractual Agreements described in Note 2.2(a)(i) with E-commerce OPCO and its equity holders to obtain economic benefits.

The Group does not have any equity interest in Beijing Meelive, Dating OPCO and E-commerce OPCO. As a result of the Contractual Agreements, the Group has rights to the variable returns from its involvement in Beijing Meelive, Dating OPCO and E-commerce OPCO and has the ability to affect those returns through its power over the Beijing Meelive, Dating OPCO and E-commerce OPCO, and is considered to control Beijing Meelive, Dating OPCO and E-commerce OPCO. Consequently, the Company regards Beijing Meelive, Dating OPCO and E-commerce OPCO as the indirect subsidiary of the Company under IFRS. The Group has included the financial position and results of the Beijing Meelive, Dating OPCO and E-commerce OPCO in the consolidated financial statements during the years ended 31 December 2021 and 2020.

Nevertheless, the Contractual Arrangements may not be as effective as direct legal ownership in providing the Group with direct control over Beijing Meelive, Dating OPCO and E-commerce OPCO and uncertainties presented by the PRC legal system could impede the Group’s beneficiary rights of the results, assets and liabilities of Beijing Meelive, Dating OPCO and E-commerce OPCO. The directors of the Company, based on the advice of its legal counsel, consider that the Contractual Arrangements are in compliance with the relevant PRC laws and regulations and are legally binding and enforceable.

(b) Associates

Associates are all entities over which the Group has significant influence but not control or joint control. This is generally the case where the Group holds between 20% and 50% of the voting rights. Investments in associates are accounted for using the equity method of accounting (see (d) below), after initially being recognised at cost.

(c) Joint arrangements

Under IFRS 11 Joint Arrangements, investments in joint arrangements are classified as either joint operations or joint ventures. The classification depends on the contractual rights and obligations of each investor, rather than the legal structure of the joint arrangement. The Group has joint ventures as of 31 December 2021 and 2020.

Interests in joint ventures are accounted for using the equity method (see (d) below), after initially being recognised at cost in the consolidated balance sheet.

(d) Equity accounting

Under the equity method of accounting, the investments are initially recognised at cost and adjusted thereafter to recognise the Group's share of the post-acquisition profit or loss of the investee in profit or loss, and the Group's share of movements in other comprehensive income of the investee in other comprehensive income. Dividends received or receivable from associates and joint ventures are recognised as a reduction in the carrying amount of the investment.

When the Group's share of losses in an equity-accounted investment equals or exceeds its interest in the entity, including any other unsecured long-term receivables, the Group does not recognise further loss, unless it has incurred obligations or made payments on behalf of the other entity.

Unrealised gains on transactions between the Group and its associates and joint ventures are eliminated to the extent of the Group's interest in these entities. Unrealised loss are also eliminated unless the transaction provides evidence of an impairment of the asset transferred. Accounting policies of equity accounted investees have been changed where necessary to ensure consistency with the policies adopted by the Group.

The carrying amount of equity-accounted investments is tested for impairment in accordance with the policy described in Note 2.9.

2.2 Principles of consolidation and equity accounting (continued)

(e) Changes in ownership interests

The Group treats transactions with non-controlling interests that do not result in a loss of control as transactions with equity owners of the Group. A change in ownership interest results in an adjustment between the carrying amounts of the controlling and non-controlling interests to reflect their relative interests in the subsidiary. Any difference between the amount of the adjustment to non-controlling interests and any consideration paid or received is recognised in a separate reserve within equity attributable to owners of the Group.

When the Group ceases to consolidate or equity account for an investment because of a loss of control, joint control or significant influence, any retained interest in the entity is remeasured to its fair value with the change in carrying amount recognised in profit or loss. This fair value becomes the initial carrying amount for the purposes of subsequently accounting for the retained interest as an associate, joint venture or financial asset. In addition, any amounts previously recognised in other comprehensive income in respect of that entity are accounted for as if the Group had directly disposed of the related assets or liabilities. This may mean that amounts previously recognised in other comprehensive income are reclassified to profit or loss or transferred to another category of equity as specified/permitted by applicable IFRSs.

If the ownership interest in a joint venture or an associate is reduced but joint control or significant influence is retained, only a proportionate share of the amounts previously recognised in other comprehensive income are reclassified to profit or loss where appropriate.

2.3 Business combinations

The acquisition method of accounting is used to account for all business combinations excluding those involving the entities under common control, regardless of whether equity instruments or other assets are acquired. The consideration transferred for the acquisition of a subsidiary comprises the:

- fair values of the assets transferred
- liabilities incurred to the former owners of the acquired business
- equity interests issued by the Group
- fair value of any asset or liability resulting from a contingent consideration arrangement
- fair value of any pre-existing equity interest in the subsidiary.

Identifiable assets acquired and liabilities and contingent liabilities assumed in a business combination are, with limited exceptions, measured initially at their fair values at the acquisition date. The Group recognises any non-controlling interest in the acquired entity on an acquisition-by-acquisition basis either at fair value or at the non-controlling interest's proportionate share of the acquired entity's net identifiable assets.

Acquisition-related costs are expensed as incurred.

The excess of the

- consideration transferred
- amount of any non-controlling interest in the acquired entity, and
- acquisition-date fair value of any previous equity interest in the acquired entity

over the fair value of the net identifiable assets acquired is recorded as goodwill. If those amounts are less than the fair value of the net identifiable assets of the business acquired, the difference is recognised directly in profit or loss as a bargain purchase.

Where settlement of any part of cash consideration is deferred, the amounts payable in the future are discounted to their present value as at the date of exchange. The discount rate used is the entity's incremental borrowing rate, being the rate at which a similar borrowing could be obtained from an independent financier under comparable terms and conditions. Contingent consideration is classified either as equity or a financial liability. Amounts classified as a financial liability are subsequently remeasured to fair value with changes in fair value recognised in profit or loss.

If the business combination is achieved in stages, the acquisition date carrying value of the acquirer's previously held equity interest in the acquiree is remeasured to fair value at the acquisition date. Any gains or loss arising from such remeasurement are recognised in profit or loss.

2.4 Separate financial statements

Investments in subsidiaries are accounted for at cost less impairment. Cost includes direct attributable costs of investment. The results of subsidiaries are accounted for by the Company on the basis of dividends received and receivable.

Impairment testing of the investments in subsidiaries is required upon receiving a dividend from these investments if the dividend exceeds the total comprehensive income of the subsidiary in the period the dividend is declared or if the carrying amount of the investment in the separate financial statements exceeds the carrying amount in the consolidated financial statements of the investee's net assets including goodwill.

2.5 Foreign currency translation

(a) Functional and presentation currency

Items included in the financial statements of each of the Group's entities are measured using the currency of the primary economic environment in which the entity operates (the "functional currency"). The functional currency of the Company is USD. The Company's primary subsidiaries were incorporated in the PRC and these subsidiaries considered RMB as their functional currencies. As the major operations of the Group are within the PRC, the Group determined to present its consolidated financial statements in RMB.

(b) Transactions and balances

Foreign currency transactions are translated into the functional currency using the exchange rates at the dates of the transactions. Foreign exchange gains and losses resulting from the settlement of such transactions and from the translation of monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies at year end exchange rates are generally recognised in profit or loss.

Foreign exchange gains and losses that relate to borrowings are presented in the consolidated statement of comprehensive income, within finance income-net. All other foreign exchange gains and losses are presented in the consolidated statement of comprehensive income on a net basis within other (losses)/gains-net.

Non-monetary items that are measured at fair value in a foreign currency are translated using the exchange rates at the date when the fair value was determined. Translation differences on assets and liabilities carried at fair value are reported as part of the fair value gains or losses. For example, translation differences on non-monetary assets and liabilities such as equities held at fair value through profit or loss are recognised in profit or loss as part of the fair value gains or losses and translation differences on non-monetary assets such as equities classified as fair value through other comprehensive income are recognised in other comprehensive income.

(c) Group companies

The results and financial position of foreign operation (none of which has the currency of a hyperinflationary economy) that have a functional currency different from the presentation currency are translated into the presentation currency as follows:

- assets and liabilities for each balance sheet presented are translated at the closing rate at the date of that balance sheet
- income and expenses for each statement of profit or loss and statement of comprehensive income are translated at average exchange rates (unless this is not a reasonable approximation of the cumulative effect of the rates prevailing on the transaction dates, in which case income and expenses are translated at the dates of the transactions), and
- all resulting exchange differences are recognised in other comprehensive income.

On consolidation, exchange differences arising from the translation of any net investment in foreign entities, and of borrowings and other financial instruments designated as hedges of such investments, are recognised in other comprehensive income. When a foreign operation is sold or any borrowings forming part of the net investment are repaid, the associated exchange differences are reclassified to profit or loss, as part of the gain or loss on sale.

Goodwill and fair value adjustments arising on the acquisition of a foreign entity are treated as assets and liabilities of the foreign entity and translated at the closing rate.

2. Summary of significant accounting policies (continued)

2.6 Property, plant and equipment

Property, plant and equipment is stated at historical cost less accumulated depreciation. Historical cost includes expenditure that is directly attributable to the acquisition of the items.

Subsequent costs are included in the asset's carrying amount or recognised as a separate asset, as appropriate, only when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with the item will flow to the Group and the cost of the item can be measured reliably. The carrying amount of any component accounted for as a separate asset is derecognised when replaced. All other repairs and maintenance are charged to the consolidated statement of comprehensive income during the financial period in which they are incurred.

Depreciation is calculated using the straight-line method to allocate their cost or revalued amounts, net of their residual values, over their estimated useful lives or, in the case of leasehold improvements, the shorter lease term as follows:

– Computer equipment	3 years
– Office equipment and furniture fixtures	3 years
– Motor vehicles	4 years
– Leasehold improvements	3–5 years

The assets' residual values and useful lives are reviewed, and adjusted if appropriate, at the end of each reporting period.

An asset's carrying amount is written down immediately to its recoverable amount if the asset's carrying amount is greater than its estimated recoverable amount.

Gains and losses on disposals are determined by comparing the proceeds with the carrying amount and are recognised within 'other gains-net' in the consolidated statement of comprehensive income.

2.7 Investment properties

Investment properties are properties held to earn rentals and/or for capital appreciation. Investment property is initially measured at cost, including related transaction costs and where applicable borrowing costs. Subsequently, they are carried at fair value. Changes in fair values are presented in profit or loss as part of other income.

2. Summary of significant accounting policies (continued)

2.8 Intangible assets

(a) Goodwill

Goodwill is measured as described in Note 2.3. Goodwill on acquisitions of subsidiaries is included in intangible assets. Goodwill is not amortised but it is tested for impairment annually, or more frequently if events or changes in circumstances indicate that it might be impaired, and is carried at cost less accumulated impairment losses. Gains and loss on the disposal of an entity include the carrying amount of goodwill relating to the entity sold.

Goodwill is allocated to cash-generating units for the purpose of impairment testing. The allocation is made to those cash-generating units or groups of cash-generating units that are expected to benefit from the business combination in which the goodwill arose. The units or groups of units are identified at the lowest level at which goodwill is monitored for internal management purposes, being the operating segments.

(b) Trademarks, user base, license and copyrights, technology and software

Separately acquired licenses and copyrights, technology and software are shown at historical cost. Trademarks, user base, license and copyrights acquired in a business combination are recognised at fair value at the acquisition date. They have a finite useful life and are subsequently carried at cost less accumulated amortisation and impairment loss.

(c) Other intangible assets

Other intangible assets mainly include domain names and non-compete. They are initially recognised and measured at cost or fair value of intangible assets acquired through business combination.

(d) Amortisation methods and periods

The Group amortises intangible assets with a limited useful life using the straight-line method over the following periods:

Trademarks	10 years
User base	5 years
Licenses and copyrights	1–10 years
Technology and software	1–10 years

2.9 Impairment of non-financial assets

Goodwill and intangible assets that have an indefinite useful life are not subject to amortisation and are tested annually for impairment, or more frequently if events or changes in circumstances indicate that they might be impaired. Other assets are tested for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount may not be recoverable. An impairment loss is recognised for the amount by which the asset's carrying amount exceeds its recoverable amount. The recoverable amount is the higher of an asset's fair value less costs of disposal and value in use. For the purposes of assessing impairment, assets are grouped at the lowest levels for which there are separately identifiable cash inflows which are largely independent of the cash inflows from other assets or groups of assets (cash-generating units). Non-financial assets other than goodwill that suffered an impairment are reviewed for possible reversal of the impairment at the end of each reporting period.

2. Summary of significant accounting policies (continued)

2.10 Investments and other financial assets

(a) Classification

The Group classifies its financial assets in the following measurement categories:

- those to be measured subsequently at fair value either through other comprehensive income (“FVOCI”) or through profit or loss (“FVPL”), and
- those to be measured at amortised cost.

The classification depends on the entity’s business model for managing the financial assets and the contractual terms of the cash flows.

For assets measured at fair value, gains and losses will either be recorded in profit or loss or other comprehensive income (“OCI”). For investments in equity instruments that are not held for trading, this will depend on whether the Group has made an irrevocable election at the time of initial recognition to account for the equity investment at “FVOCI”.

The Group reclassifies debt investments when and only when its business model for managing those assets changes.

(b) Recognition and derecognition

Regular way purchases and sales of financial assets are recognised on trade-date, the date on which the Group commits to purchase or sell the asset. Financial assets are derecognised when the rights to receive cash flows from the financial assets have expired or have been transferred and the Group has transferred substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership.

(c) Measurement

At initial recognition, the Group measures a financial asset at its fair value plus, in the case of a financial asset not at fair value through profit or loss, transaction costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition of the financial asset. Transaction costs of financial assets carried at FVPL are expensed in profit or loss.

Financial assets with embedded derivatives are considered in their entirety when determining whether their cash flows are solely payment of principal and interest.

Subsequent measurement of debt instruments depends on the Group’s business model for managing the asset and the cash flow characteristics of the asset. There are three measurement categories into which the Group classifies its debt instruments:

- Amortised cost: Assets that are held for collection of contractual cash flows where those cash flows represent solely payments of principal and interest are measured at amortised cost. Interest income from these financial assets is included in finance income using the effective interest rate method. Any gain or loss arising on derecognition is recognised directly in profit or loss and presented in other gains/(losses) together with foreign exchange gains and losses. Impairment losses are presented as separate line item in the statement of profit or loss.

(c) Measurement (continued)

- FVOCI: Assets that are held for collection of contractual cash flows and for selling the financial assets, where the assets' cash flows represent solely payments of principal and interest, are measured at FVOCI. Movements in the carrying amount are taken through OCI, except for the recognition of impairment gains or losses, interest income and foreign exchange gains and losses which are recognised in profit or loss. When the financial asset is derecognised, the cumulative gain or loss previously recognised in OCI is reclassified from equity to profit or loss and recognised in other gains/(losses). Interest income from these financial assets is included in finance income using the effective interest rate method. Foreign exchange gains and losses are presented in other gains/(losses) and impairment expenses are presented as separate line item in the statement of profit or loss.
- FVPL: Assets that do not meet the criteria for amortised cost or FVOCI are measured at FVPL. A gain or loss on a debt investment that is subsequently measured at FVPL is recognised in profit or loss and presented net within other gains/(losses) in the period in which it arises.

The Group subsequently measures all equity investments at fair value. Where the Group's management has elected to present fair value gains and losses on equity investments in OCI, there is no subsequent reclassification of fair value gains and losses to profit or loss following the derecognition of the investment. Dividends from such investments continue to be recognised in profit or loss as other income when the Group's right to receive payments is established.

Changes in the fair value of financial assets at FVPL are recognised in other gains/(losses) in the statement of profit or loss as applicable. Impairment losses (and reversal of impairment losses) on equity investments measured at FVOCI are not reported separately from other changes in fair value.

(d) Impairment

The Group assesses on a forward-looking basis the expected credit losses associated with its debt instruments carried at amortised cost and FVOCI. The impairment methodology applied depends on whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk.

For trade receivables, the Group applies the simplified approach permitted by IFRS 9, which requires expected lifetime loss to be recognised from initial recognition of the receivables, see Note 24 for further details.

2.11 Offsetting financial instruments

Financial assets and liabilities are offset and the net amount reported in the balance sheet when there is a legally enforceable right to offset the recognised amounts and there is an intention to settle on a net basis or realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously. The legally enforceable right must not be contingent on future events and must be enforceable in the normal course of business and in the event of default, insolvency or bankruptcy of the Company or the counterparty.

2. Summary of significant accounting policies (continued)

2.12 Inventories

Finished goods are stated at the lower of cost and net realisable value. Costs of purchased inventory are determined after deducting rebates and discounts. Net realisable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business less the estimated costs of completion and the estimated costs necessary to make the sale.

2.13 Trade receivables

Trade receivables are amounts due from online payment platforms and virtual currency agent performed in the ordinary course of business. If collection of trade receivables is expected in one year or less (or in the normal operating cycle of the business if longer), they are classified as current assets. If not, they are presented as non-current assets.

Trade receivables are recognised initially at the amount of consideration that is unconditional unless they contain significant financing components, when they are recognised at fair value. The Group holds the trade receivables with the objective of collecting the contractual cash flows and therefore measures them subsequently at amortised cost using the effective interest method. See Note 24 for further information about the Group's accounting for trade receivables and Note 3.1 for a prescription of the Group's impairment policies.

2.14 Cash and cash equivalents

For the purpose of presentation in the statement of cash flows, cash and cash equivalents includes cash on hand, deposits held at call with financial institutions, other short-term, highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less that are readily convertible to known amounts of cash and which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value.

2.15 Share capital and shares held for employee share scheme

Ordinary shares are classified as equity.

Incremental costs directly attributable to the issue of new shares or options are shown in equity as a deduction, net of tax, from the proceeds.

Where any Group company purchases the Company's equity instruments, for example as the result of a share buy-back or a share-based payment plan, the consideration paid, including any directly attributable incremental costs (net of income taxes) is deducted from equity attributable to the owners of the Company as treasury shares until the shares are cancelled or reissued. Where such ordinary shares are subsequently reissued, any consideration received, net of any directly attributable incremental transaction costs and the related income tax effects, is included in equity attributable to the owners of the Company.

Shares held by the Company are disclosed as treasury shares and deducted from contributed equity.

2.16 Trade and other payables

These amounts represent liabilities for goods and services provided to the Group prior to the end of financial year which are unpaid. Trade and other payables are presented as current liabilities unless payment is not due within 12 months after the reporting period. They are recognised initially at their fair value and subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method.

2.17 Current and deferred income tax

The income tax expense or credit for the period is the tax payable on the current period's taxable income based on the applicable income tax rate for each jurisdiction adjusted by changes in deferred tax assets and liabilities attributable to temporary differences and to unused tax loss.

Current income tax

The current income tax charge is calculated on the basis of the tax laws enacted or substantively enacted at the end of the reporting period in the countries where the company and its subsidiaries and associates operate and generate taxable income. Management periodically evaluates positions taken in tax returns with respect to situations in which applicable tax regulation is subject to interpretation and considers whether it is probable that a taxation authority will accept an uncertain tax treatment. The Group measures its tax balances either based on the most likely amount or the expected value, depending on which method provides a better prediction of the resolution of the uncertainty.

Deferred income tax

Deferred income tax is provided in full, using the liability method, on temporary differences arising between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts in the consolidated financial statements. However, deferred tax liabilities are not recognised if they arise from the initial recognition of goodwill. Deferred income tax is also not accounted for if it arises from initial recognition of an asset or liability in a transaction other than a business combination that at the time of the transaction affects neither accounting nor taxable profit or loss. Deferred income tax is determined using tax rates (and laws) that have been enacted or substantially enacted by the end of the reporting period and are expected to apply when the related deferred income tax asset is realised or the deferred income tax liability is settled.

The deferred tax liability in relation to investment property that is measured at fair value is determined assuming the property will be recovered entirely through sale.

Deferred tax assets are recognised only if it is probable that future taxable amounts will be available to utilize those temporary differences and loss.

Deferred tax liabilities and assets are not recognised for temporary differences between the carrying amount and tax bases of investments in foreign operations where the Company is able to control the timing of the reversal of the temporary differences and it is probable that the differences will not reverse in the foreseeable future.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset when there is a legally enforceable right to offset current tax assets and liabilities and when the deferred tax balances relate to the same taxation authority. Current tax assets and tax liabilities are offset where the entity has a legally enforceable right to offset and intends either to settle on a net basis, or to realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously.

Current and deferred tax is recognised in profit or loss, except to the extent that it relates to items recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity. In this case, the tax is also recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity, respectively.

(a) Investment allowances and similar tax incentives

Companies within the Group may be entitled to claim special tax deductions for investments in qualifying assets or in relation to qualifying expenditure. The Group accounts for such allowances as tax credits, which means that the allowance reduces income tax payable and current tax expense. A deferred tax asset is recognised for unclaimed tax credits that are carried forward as deferred tax assets.

2.18 Employee benefits

(a) Short-term obligations

Liabilities for wages and salaries, including non-monetary benefits and accumulating sick leave that are expected to be settled wholly within 12 months after the end of the period in which the employees render the related service are recognised in respect of employees' services up to the end of the reporting period and are measured at the amounts expected to be paid when the liabilities are settled. The liabilities are presented as current employee benefit obligations, which is included in other payables and accruals in the consolidated balance sheet.

(b) Pension obligations

The Group has only defined contribution plan in which the Group pays fixed contributions to publicly administered pension insurance plans on a mandatory basis. The Group has no further payment obligations once the contributions have been paid. The contributions are recognised as employee benefit expense when they are due. Prepaid contributions are recognised as an asset to the extent that a cash refund or a reduction in the future payments is available.

(c) Employee leave entitlements

Employee entitlements to annual leave are recognised when they accrue to employees. A provision is made for the estimated liability for annual leave as a result of services rendered by employees up to the end of the reporting period. Employee entitlements to sick and maternity leave are not recognised until the time of leave.

2. Summary of significant accounting policies (continued)

2.19 Share-based compensation benefits

Share-based compensation benefits are provided to employees in the form of share option (“option”) and restricted share unit (“RSU”) of the Company. The fair value of the services received in exchange for the grant of the option and RSU is recognised as an expense. The total amount to be expensed is determined by reference to the fair value of the options granted and the shares as at the date of grant. The total amount expensed is recognised over the vesting period, which is the period over which all of the specified vesting conditions are to be satisfied, and credited to equity.

At the end of each reporting period, the Group revises its estimates of the number of options and RSUs that are expected to ultimately vest. It recognised the impact of the revision of original estimates, if any, in the consolidated statement of comprehensive income with a corresponding adjustment to equity.

The grant by the Company of options over its equity instruments to the employees of subsidiary undertakings in the Group is treated as a capital contribution. The fair value of employee services received, measured by reference to the grant date fair value, is recognised over the vesting period as an increase to investment in subsidiary undertakings, with a corresponding credit to equity in the parent entity accounts.

2.20 Provisions

Provisions for legal claims, service warranties and make good obligations are recognised when the Group has a present legal or constructive obligation as a result of past events, it is probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation and the amount can be reliably estimated. Provisions are not recognised for future operating loss.

Where there is a number of similar obligations, the likelihood that an outflow will be required in settlement is determined by considering the class of obligations as a whole. A provision is recognised even if the likelihood of an outflow with respect to any one item included in the same class of obligations may be small.

Provisions are measured at the present value of management’s best estimate of the expenditure required to settle the present obligation at the end of the reporting period. The discount rate used to determine the present value is a pre-tax rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the liability. The increase in the provision due to the passage of time is recognised as interest expense.

2.21 Revenue recognition and contract liabilities

The Group mainly generates revenue from providing value added service to its customers through operating the mobile live streaming, membership service and online advertising. Revenue from value added service is generated from the Group's mobile live streaming platforms, such as Inke (映客), Yinpao (音泡), etc. Membership revenue is generated from the Group's mobile live social networking platforms, such as Jimu (積目), etc. Online advertising revenue is primarily generated from sales of advertisements on Group's platforms. Revenue is measured at the transaction price which is the amount of consideration to which the Group entitled in exchange for transferring promised services or goods to the customer. The Group allocates the transaction price to each performance obligation based on the relative stand-alone selling prices. Revenue for each performance obligation is then recognised when the Group satisfies the performance obligation by transferring the promised goods or services to the customer.

(a) Value added service

The Group provides value added service through operating the mobile live streaming platforms and providing an internet infrastructure to enable the streamers and users to interact through the platforms. The Group operates a virtual currency system for each live streaming platform, under which the users can use the virtual currency to purchase consumable virtual items to present to the streamers to show support or enhance communication and virtual services to increase the invisibility of their profile and messages. The virtual currency can also be used on consumption basis to interact with streamers, including live chatting and other communication methods. The platforms are open to all users and streamers for free. The Group generates revenue from the sale of virtual currencies which can be used to purchase virtual items and services, or directly consumed for interacting with streamers on the platform. In order to attract user traffic to the platform, the Group shares revenues with the streamers in accordance with the streamer agreements with the Group. The Group concluded that it is the primary obligor to fulfill all obligations related to the sales of virtual items and virtual services on the platform and has latitude in establishing price. Accordingly, the Group records revenue on a gross basis and the portion shared with individual streamers and the streamer agents that managed streamers are accounted for as cost of revenues.

Upon the sales of virtual currency, the Group typically has an implied obligation to provide the services which enable the virtual currency to be usable on the Group's platforms. Virtual currency sold but not yet consumed by the purchaser is recorded as "contract liabilities". The weighted average unit price of virtual currencies is calculated on a monthly basis as the contract liabilities at the beginning of the month plus proceeds received during the month divided by the corresponding quantity of virtual currencies. For those virtual items or services that will be extinguished shortly after consumption, the user will not continue to be benefited from the virtual items or services and the Group does not have further obligations to the user after the consumption. Therefore, revenue is recognised immediately when the virtual currencies, the consumable virtual items or services are consumed based on the weighted average unit price of virtual currencies and the quantities of virtual currencies redeemed for virtual items. The Group also provides other value-added services that enable special privileges and abilities to the purchasers over an extended period of time. Revenue is recognised ratably over the beneficial period.

2.21 Revenue recognition and contract liabilities (continued)

(b) Membership revenue

The Group generates revenue through paid premium services on its social networking platform where users pay a membership fee for a fixed time period, range from one month to twelve months. Membership service represents a stand ready obligation to provide the paid premium service and the customer simultaneously receives and consumes the benefits as the Group provide such services throughout the membership period. The receipt of membership fees is initially recorded as contract liabilities and revenue is recognised ratably over the membership period as services are rendered.

(c) Advertising revenue

The Group primarily generates advertising revenues from sales of various forms of advertisements and provision of promotion campaigns on the Group's platforms by way of displaying advertisement or promoting integrated activities in shows and programs on the Group's platforms. Advertisements on the Group's platforms are charged on various basis, such basis generally includes but is not limited to duration, display and click.

(i) Click-based advertising services

The Group has determined that each click represents one performance obligation. In this model, revenue is recognised when the user clicks on the customer-sponsored links.

(ii) Display-based advertising services

The revenue is recognised ratably over the period that the advertising is displayed where collectability is reasonably assured. Generally, the terms of these display-based advertisements are short term.

2.22 Earnings per share

(a) Basic earnings per share

Basic earnings per share is calculated by dividing:

- the profit attributable to owners of the Company, excluding any costs of servicing equity other than ordinary shares
- by the weighted average number of ordinary shares outstanding during the financial year, adjusted for bonus elements in ordinary shares issued during the year and excluding treasury shares.

(b) Diluted earnings per share

Diluted earnings per share adjusts the figures used in the determination of basic earnings per share to take into account:

- the after income tax effect of interest and other financing costs associated with dilutive potential ordinary shares, and
- the weighted average number of additional ordinary shares that would have been outstanding assuming the conversion of all dilutive potential ordinary shares.

2. Summary of significant accounting policies (continued)

2.23 Leases

Leases are recognised as a right-of-use asset and a corresponding liability at the date at which the leased asset is available for use by the Group.

Contracts may contain both lease and non-lease components. The Group allocates the consideration in the contract to the lease and non-lease components based on their relative stand-alone prices. However, for leases of real estate for which the Group is a lessee, it has elected not to separate lease and non-lease components and instead accounts for these as a single lease component.

Lease terms are negotiated on an individual basis and contain a wide range of different terms and conditions. The lease agreements do not impose any covenants other than the security interests in the leased assets that are held by the lessor. Leased assets may not be used as security for borrowing purposes.

Assets and liabilities arising from a lease are initially measured on a present value basis. Lease liabilities include the net present value of the following lease payments:

- fixed payments (including in-substance fixed payments), less any lease incentives receivable
- variable lease payment that are based on an index or a rate, initially measured using the index or rate as at the commencement date
- amounts expected to be payable by the Group under residual value guarantees
- the exercise price of a purchase option if the Group is reasonably certain to exercise that option, and
- payments of penalties for terminating the lease, if the lease term reflects the Group exercising that option.

Lease payments to be made under reasonably certain extension options are also included in the measurement of the liability.

The lease payments are discounted using the interest rate implicit in the lease. If that rate cannot be readily determined, which is generally the case for leases in the Group, the lessee's incremental borrowing rate is used, being the rate that the individual lessee would have to pay to borrow the funds necessary to obtain an asset of similar value to the right-of-use asset in a similar economic environment with similar terms, security and conditions.

To determine the incremental borrowing rate, the Group:

- where possible, uses recent third-party financing received by the individual lessee as a starting point, adjusted to reflect changes in financing conditions since third party financing was received
- uses a build-up approach that starts with a risk-free interest rate adjusted for credit risk for leases, which does not have recent third-party financing, and
- makes adjustments specific to the lease, e.g. term, country, currency and security

If a readily observable amortising loan rate is available to the individual lessee (through recent financing or market data) which has a similar payment profile to the lease, then the Group entities use that rate as a starting point to determine the incremental borrowing rate.

The Group is exposed to potential future increases in variable lease payments based on an index or rate, which are not included in the lease liability until they take effect. When adjustments to lease payments based on an index or rate take effect, the lease liability is reassessed and adjusted against the right-of-use asset.

Lease payments are allocated between principal and finance cost. The finance cost is charged to profit or loss over the lease period so as to produce a constant periodic rate of interest on the remaining balance of the liability for each period.

Right-of-use assets are measured at cost comprising the following:

- the amount of the initial measurement of lease liability
- any lease payments made at or before the commencement date less any lease incentives received
- any initial direct costs, and
- restoration costs.

Right-of-use assets are generally depreciated over the shorter of the asset's useful life and the lease term on a straight-line basis. If the Group is reasonably certain to exercise a purchase option, the right-of-use asset is depreciated over the underlying asset's useful life. While the Group revalues its land and buildings that are presented within property, plant and equipment, it has chosen not to do so for the right-of-use buildings held by the Group.

Payments associated with short-term leases and all leases of low-value assets are recognised on a straight-line basis as an expense in profit or loss. Short-term leases are leases with a lease term of 12 months or less. Low-value assets mainly comprise a small warehouse used for storing computer.

The Group has adopted Amendment to IFRS 16 — Covid-19-Related Rent Concessions retrospectively from 1 January 2020. The amendment provides an optional practical expedient allowing lessees to elect not to assess whether a rent concession related to COVID-19 is a lease modification. Lessees adopting this election may account for qualifying rent concessions in the same way as they would if they were not lease modifications. The practical expedient only applies to rent concessions occurring as a direct consequence of the COVID-19 pandemic and only if all of the following conditions are met: a. the change in lease payments results in revised consideration for the lease that is substantially the same as, or less than, the consideration for the lease immediately preceding the change; b. any reduction in lease payments affects only payments due on or before 30 June 2021; and c. there is no substantive change to other terms and conditions of the lease.

The Group has early adopted Amendment to IFRS 16 — Covid-19-Related Rent Concessions beyond 30 June 2021, which extended the practical expedient to lease payments that were due on or before 30 June 2022.

The Group has applied the practical expedient to all qualifying COVID-19-related rent concessions.

2. Summary of significant accounting policies (continued)

2.24 Government grants

Grants from the government are recognised at their fair value where there is a reasonable assurance that the grant will be received and the Group will comply with all attached conditions.

Government grants relating to costs are deferred and recognised in the profit or loss over the period necessary to match them with the costs that they are intended to compensate.

Note 10 provides further information on how the Group accounts for government grants.

2.25 Interest income

Interest income from financial assets at FVPL is included in the net fair value gains/(losses) on these assets, see Note 9 below.

Interest income is presented as finance income where it is earned from financial assets that are held for cash management purposes, see Note 11 below.

Interest income is calculated by applying the effective interest rate to the gross carrying amount of a financial asset except for financial assets that subsequently become credit-impaired. For credit-impaired financial assets the effective interest rate is applied to the net carrying amount of the financial asset (after deduction of the loss allowance).

2.26 Research and development expenses

Research expenditure is recognised as an expense as incurred.

Costs incurred on development projects (relating to the design and testing of new or improved softwares) are capitalized as intangible assets when recognition criteria are fulfilled and tests for impairment are performed annually. Other development expenditures that do not meet those criteria are recognised as expenses as incurred.

Development costs previously recognised as expenses are not recognised as assets in subsequent periods. Capitalized development costs are amortised from the point at which the assets are ready for use on a straight-line basis over their estimated useful lives.

2.27 Dividends distribution

Provision is made for the amount of any dividend declared, being appropriately authorized and no longer at the discretion of the entity, on or before the end of the reporting period but not distributed at the end of the reporting period.

3. Financial risk management

3.1 Financial risk factors

The Group's activities expose it to a variety of financial risks: market risk (including foreign exchange risk and fair value interest rate risk and cash flow interest rate risk), credit risk and liquidity risk. The Group's overall risk management program focuses on the unpredictability of financial markets and seeks to minimize potential adverse effects on the Group's financial performance. Risk management is carried out by the senior management of the Group and approved by the executive directors.

(a) Market risk

(i) Foreign exchange risk

Foreign exchange risk arises when future commercial transactions and recognised assets and liabilities are denominated in a currency that is not the Group entities' functional currency. The functional currency of the Company is USD and the subsidiaries operated in the PRC are RMB. The Group manages its foreign exchange risk by performing regular reviews of the Group's net foreign exchange exposures and tries to minimize these exposures through natural hedges, wherever possible, and may enter into forward foreign exchange contracts, when necessary.

The Group operates mainly in the PRC with most of the transactions settled in RMB. Management considers that the business is not exposed to any significant foreign exchange risk as there are no significant financial assets or liabilities of the Group denominated in the currencies other than the respective functional currencies of the Group's entities.

(ii) Cash flow and fair value interest rate risk

The Group's income and operating cash flows are substantially independent of changes in market interest rates and the Group has no significant interest-bearing assets except for those investment in structured deposits and wealth management products which are classified as financial assets at fair value through profit or loss, term deposits, cash and cash equivalents and restricted cash, details of which have been disclosed in Notes 21, 22 and 25, respectively.

The Group's interest rate risk primarily arose from short-term bank deposits and cash and cash equivalents. Those carried at floating rates expose the Group to cash flow interest rate risk whereas those carried at fixed rates expose the Group to fair value interest rate risk.

The Group regularly monitors its interest rate risk to ensure there is no undue exposure to significant interest rate movements.

(iii) Price risk

Exposure

The Group's exposure to equity securities price risk arises from investments held by the Group and classified in the balance sheet at fair value through profit or loss (FVPL) (Note 21).

To manage its price risk arising from investments in equity securities, the Group diversifies its portfolio. Diversification of the portfolio is done in accordance with the limits set by the Group.

3. Financial risk management (continued)

(b) Credit risk

Credit risk arises from cash and cash equivalents, contractual cash flows of debt instruments carried at amortised cost, at FVOCI, at FVPL, and term deposits with banks and financial institutions, as well as credit exposures to outstanding receivables.

The Group is exposed to credit risk primarily in relation to its cash and cash equivalent and restricted cash placed with banks, term deposits with banks and financial institutions, investment in structured deposits and wealth management products which are classified as financial assets at FVPL, as well as trade receivables, deposits and other receivables. The carrying amount of each class of the above financial assets represents the Group's maximum exposure to credit risk in relation to the corresponding class of financial assets.

(i) Risk management

To manage risk arising from cash and cash equivalents, short-term bank deposits, restricted cash, investment in structured deposits and wealth management products, the Group only transacts with state-owned or reputable financial institutions in the PRC and reputable international financial institutions outside of mainland China. There has been no recent history of default in relation to these financial institutions.

To manage risk arising from trade receivables, the Group has policies in place to ensure that credit terms are made to counterparties with an appropriate credit history and the management performs ongoing credit evaluations of its counterparties. The credit quality of these customers is assessed, which takes into account their financial position, past experience and other factors. In view of the sound collection history of receivables due from them, management believes that the credit risk inherent in the Group's outstanding trade receivable balances due from them is not significant.

The Group, generated revenue mainly through operating live streaming platforms, has a highly diversified customer base, without any single customer contributing material revenue. The Group's trade receivables at the end of each reporting period were mainly due from certain online payment operators, and virtual currency agent in China. If the relationship with the online payment operators and virtual currency agent is terminated or scaled-back; or if the online payment operators and virtual currency agent alter the co-operative arrangements; or if they experience financial difficulties in paying the Group, the Group's corresponding trade receivables might be adversely affected in terms of recoverability. To manage this risk, the Group maintains frequent communications with the online payment operators and virtual currency agent to ensure effective credit control. In view of the history of cooperation with the online payment operators and virtual currency agent and the sound collection history of receivables due from them, the directors of the Company believe that the credit risk inherent in the Group's outstanding trade receivables due from the online payment operators and virtual currency agent is low.

(ii) Impairment of financial assets

The Group has two types of financial assets that are subject to the expected credit loss model:

- trade receivables
- deposits and other receivables

While term deposits, restricted cash, cash and cash equivalents are also subject to the impairment requirements of IFRS 9, the identified impairment loss was immaterial.

Trade receivables

The Group applies the IFRS 9 simplified approach to measuring expected credit losses which uses a lifetime expected loss allowance for all trade receivables.

The expected loss rates are based on the payment profiles of sales over a period of 12 months before 31 December 2021 or 1 January 2021 respectively and the corresponding historical credit loss experienced within this period. The historical loss rates are adjusted to reflect current and forward-looking information on macroeconomic factors affecting the ability of the customers to settle the receivables.

In view of the history of cooperation with the online payment operators and virtual currency agent and the sound collection history of receivables due from them, management believes that the expected credit loss in the Group's outstanding trade receivables balances due from the online payment operators and virtual currency agent is not material.

	Current RMB'000	More than 30 days past due RMB'000	More than 60 days past due RMB'000	More than 90 days past due RMB'000	Total RMB'000

The loss allowances for trade receivables as of 31 December reconcile to the opening loss allowances as follows:

	Loss allowances for trade receivables
	2021 RMB'000	2020 RMB'000
Opening balance at 1 January	1,888	—
Recovery during the year	(19)	—
Increase in loss allowance recognised in profit or loss during the year	913	2,729
Written off during the year	(24)	(841)
Closing balance at 31 December	2,758	1,888

Trade receivables are written off where there is no reasonable expectation of recovery. The indicator that there is no reasonable expectation of recovery is the failure of a debtor to engage in a repayment plan with the Group.

Impairment losses on trade receivables are presented as net impairment losses within operating profit. Subsequent recoveries of amounts previously written off are credited against the same line item.

Deposits and other receivables

The management of the Group makes periodic collective assessments as well as individual assessment on the recoverability of deposits and other receivables based on historical settlement records and past experiences looking forward. The Group measures credit risk using expected credit loss ("ECL") under IFRS 9.

Deposits and other receivables that are not credit-impaired on initial recognition are classified in 'stage 1' and have their credit risk continuously monitored by the Group. The expected credit loss is measured on a 12-month basis.

If a significant increase in credit risk (specifically, when the debtor is more than 30 day past due on its contractual payments) since initial recognition is identified, the financial instrument is moved to 'stage 2' but is not yet deemed to be credit-impaired. The expected credit loss is measured on lifetime basis.

(b) Credit risk (continued)

If the financial instrument is credit-impaired (specifically, when the debtor is more than 90 days past due on its contractual payments), the financial instrument is then moved to 'stage 3'. The expected credit loss is measured on lifetime basis.

In view of the history of cooperation with the debtors and collection from them, deposits and other receivables of approximately RMB139,090,000 are classified in Stage 1 as at 31 December 2021 (31 December 2020: RMB75,296,000) and the credit risk inherent in these other receivables is not significant. The average loss rate of 1.17% was applied as at the 31 December 2021 (31 December 2020: 1.75%).

For the remaining deposits and other receivables of approximately RMB18,217,000 as at 31 December 2021 (31 December 2020: RMB39,269,000), it was classified in Stage 3 and the loss allowance associated with these deposits and other receivables was approximately RMB18,217,000 as at 31 December 2021 (31 December 2020: RMB39,269,000).

The loss allowance for other financial assets at amortised cost as at 31 December reconciles to the opening loss allowance as follows:

	Related parties RMB'000	Other receivables RMB'000	Total RMB'000
Opening loss allowance as at 1 January 2020	—	—	—
Increase in the allowance recognised in profit or loss during the year	24,963	16,728	41,691

(c) Liquidity risk

The Group aims to maintain sufficient cash and cash equivalents and marketable securities. Due to the dynamic nature of the underlying businesses, the Group maintains flexibility in funding by maintaining adequate cash and cash equivalents.

3.2 Capital management

(a) Risk management

The Group's objectives on managing capital are to safeguard the Group's ability to continue as a going concern and support the sustainable growth of the Group in order to provide returns for shareholders and benefits for other stakeholders and to maintain an optimal capital structure to enhance equity holders' value in the long term.

In order to maintain or adjust the capital structure, the Group may adjust the amount of dividends paid to shareholders, issue new shares or sell assets to reduce debt.

The Group monitors capital on basis of the gearing ratio. This ratio is calculated as net debt divided by total capital. Net debt calculated as total borrowings less cash and cash equivalents. Total capital is calculated as "equity" as shown in the consolidated balance sheet as cash and cash equivalents exceed the borrowing at each reporting date plus net debt. As at 31 December 2021 and 2020, the Group has a net cash position. If the gearing ratio is over 100%, the management of the Group would take appropriate actions to better manage the Company's capital.

3.3 Fair value estimate

(a) Financial assets

(i) Fair value hierarchy

This section explains the judgements and estimates made in determining the fair values of the financial instruments that are recognised and measured at fair value in the financial statements. To provide an indication about the reliability of the inputs used in determining fair value, the Group has classified its financial instruments into the three levels prescribed under the accounting standards. An explanation of each level follows underneath the table.

The Group's policy is to recognise transfers into and transfers out of fair value hierarchy levels as at the end of the reporting period.

Level 1: The fair value of financial instruments traded in active markets (such as publicly traded derivatives, and equity securities) is based on quoted market prices at the end of the reporting period. The quoted market price used for financial assets held by the Group is the current bid price. These instruments are included in level 1.

Level 2: The fair value of financial instruments that are not traded in an active market (for example, over-the-counter derivatives) is determined using valuation techniques which maximize the use of observable market data and rely as little as possible on entity-specific estimates. If all significant inputs required to fair value an instrument are observable, the instrument is included in level 2.

Level 3: If one or more of the significant inputs is not based on observable market data, the instrument is included in level 3. This is the case for unlisted equity securities.

Special valuation techniques used to value financial instruments include:

- for wealth management products and structured deposits — income approach to use a discounted cash flow analysis with an expected rate of return, and
- for equity interests with preferred rights of certain private companies — market approach.

			Discount for lack of marketability ("DLOM")	17.60%~ 18.00%	8.00%~ 18.00%	As of 31 December 2021, a decrease or increase in the DLOM by 5% for each of the investments would result in an increase or decrease in the total fair value by RMB2,713,000 and RMB2,712,000 (31 December 2020: RMB2,352,000 and RMB2,352,000), respectively.
			Risk-free rate	2.37%~ 2.46%	2.72%~ 2.77%	As of 31 December 2021, if risk-free rate for each of the investments were 1% higher or lower, the total fair value would decrease or increase by RMB12,000 and RMB11,000 (31 December 2020: RMB74,000 and RMB74,000), respectively.
Investments in wealth management products	30,136	—	Expected rate of return/discount rate	4.60%	—	The higher the expected rate of return, the higher the fair value. (iv) Valuation process

The Group manages the valuation exercise of level 3 instruments for financial reporting purpose.

The Group manages the valuation exercise of the investments on a case by case basis. At least once every 6 months in line with the Group's half-yearly reporting periods, the Group would use valuation techniques to determine the fair value of the Group's level 3 instruments. External valuation experts will be involved when necessary.

(b) Non-financial assets

(i) Fair value hierarchy

This note explains the judgements and estimates made in determining the fair values of the non-financial assets that are recognised and measured at fair value in the financial statements. To provide an indication about the reliability of the inputs used in determining fair value, the Group has classified its non-financial assets into the three levels prescribed under the accounting standards. An explanation of each level is provided in note 3.3(a)(i).

	Level 1 RMB'000	Level 2 RMB'000	Level 3 RMB'000	Total RMB'000
As of 31 December 2021
— Investment properties	—	—	193,606	193,606

The Group had no investment properties as of 31 December 2020.

(ii) Valuation techniques used to determine level 3 fair values

The Group's investment properties were measured at fair value using direct comparison method.

The best evidence of fair value is current prices in an active market for similar properties. Where such information is not available the management consider information from a variety of sources including:

- current prices in an active market for properties of a different nature or recent prices of similar properties in less active markets, adjusted to reflect those differences.

(iii) Valuation inputs and relationships to fair value

The following table summarises the quantitative information about the significant unobservable inputs used in recurring level 3 fair value measurements (see (ii) above for the valuation techniques adopted):

Description	Fair value at 31 December 2021 RMB'000	Valuation technique	Unobservable inputs	Range of inputs RMB'000
Investment properties

Geographic GZ	44,260	direct comparison	price per square metre	80 ~ 100

4. Critical accounting estimates and judgments

The preparation of financial statements requires the use of accounting estimates which, by definition, will seldom equal the actual results. Management also needs to exercise judgement in applying the Group's accounting policies.

Estimates and judgements are continually evaluated and are based on historical experience and other factors, including expectations of future events that may have a financial impact on the Group and that are believed to be reasonable under circumstances.

The estimates and assumptions that have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next financial year are addressed below.

4.1 Critical accounting estimates

(a) Fair value of financial assets

The fair value of financial assets that are not traded in an active market (for example, (i) investments in private companies; (ii) wealth management products) is determined by using valuation techniques. The Group uses its judgment to select a variety of methods and make assumptions that are mainly based on market conditions existing at the end of each reporting period. Changes in these assumptions and estimates could materially affect the respective fair value of these investments. For details of fair value estimate see Note 3.3.

(b) Recoverability of non-financial assets

The Group tests annually whether goodwill has suffered any impairment, or tests more frequently if events or changes in circumstances indicate that they might be impaired, in accordance with the accounting policy stated in Note 2.9. For the year ended 31 December 2021 and 2020, the recoverable amounts of cash-generating units ("CGU") were determined based on value in use ("VIU"), which require the use of estimates and valuation techniques. The inputs to these models are taken from observable markets where possible, but where this is not feasible, a degree of judgment is required in establishing fair values.

Other non-financial assets are reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount may not be recoverable. The recoverable amounts have been determined based on VIU calculations or fair value less costs to sell. These calculations require the use of judgments and estimates.

Judgement is required to determine key assumptions adopted in the valuation models for impairment review purpose. Changing the assumptions selected by management in assessing impairment could materially affect the result of the impairment test and as a result affect the Group's financial condition and results of operations. If there is a significant adverse change in the key assumptions applied, it may be necessary to take impairment charge to the consolidated statement of comprehensive income or loss.

According to the management's assessment (Note 18), an impairment on goodwill of RMB15,916,000 was charged to administrative expenses during the year ended 31 December 2021 (the year ended 31 December 2020: RMB14,147,000).

4. Critical accounting estimates and judgments (continued)

4.2 Critical accounting judgement

(a) Revenue recognition

The Group has assessed whether it acts as a principal or an agent in providing value added service as described in Note 2.21, and has concluded that reporting the gross amount equivalent to the cash proceeds that the Group receives from the sale of virtual currency to users, because the Group concluded that it is the primary obligor to fulfil all obligations related to the sales of virtual items and virtual services on the platforms and has latitude in establishing price.

5. Segment information

The Group's business activities are mainly in value added service business, for which discrete financial statements are available, and are regularly reviewed and evaluated by the chief operating decision maker who are the chief executive officers and the vice presidents of the Group. As a result of this evaluation, the chief operating decision maker considered that the Group's operations are operated and managed as a single segment. Accordingly, no segment information is presented.

The Company is domiciled in the Cayman Islands while the Group mainly operates its businesses in the PRC and earns substantially all of the revenues from external customers attributed to the PRC.

As of 31 December 2021 and 2020, substantially all of the non-current assets of the Group were located in mainland China and Hong Kong.

13. Income tax expense

(a) Cayman Islands and BVI Income Tax

The Company is incorporated as an exempted company with limited liability under the Companies Law of the Cayman Islands and is not subject to Cayman Islands income tax. The Group entities established under the International Business Companies Acts of BVI are exempted from BVI income taxes.

(b) Hong Kong Income Tax

When the two-tiered profits tax regime took effect on 1 April 2018, the applicable Hong Kong profits tax rate is 8.25% for assessable profits on the first HK$2 million and 16.5% for any assessable profits in excess of HK$2 million. During the years presented, Hong Kong profits tax was not provided as there were no taxable profits deriving from Hong Kong.

(c) PRC Enterprise Income Tax (“EIT”)

The income tax provision of the Group in respect of its operations in the PRC was subject to statutory tax rate of 25% on the assessable profits for the year ended 31 December 2021 and 2020 except for the following entities with preferential tax rates, based on the existing legislation, interpretations and practices in respect thereof.

Beijing Meelive was qualified as “High and New Technology Enterprises” (“HNTEs”) under the relevant PRC laws and regulations since 2016. Accordingly, Beijing Meelive was entitled to a preferential income tax rate of 15% on their estimated assessable profits for the years ended 31 December 2021 and 2020.

Hunan Inke Entertainment Network Information Co., Ltd. (“Hunan Inke”) was accredited as a “software enterprise” under the relevant PRC laws and regulations in 2017. Accordingly, Hunan Inke is exempted from EIT for two years, followed by a 50% reduction of taxation, i.e. 12.5%, for the next three years, commencing from the first year of profitable operation after offsetting tax losses generating from prior years. The first tax exemption year for Hunan Inke was 2017. Accordingly, Hunan Inke was entitled to a preferential income tax rate of 12.5% on their estimated assessable profits for the years ended 31 December 2021 and 2020.

Hainan Inke was qualified as “Encouraging enterprises” under the relevant PRC laws and regulations since 2020. Accordingly, Hainan Inke was entitled to a preferential income tax rate of 15% on their estimated assessable profits for the year ended 31 December 2021 and 2020.

According to the relevant laws and regulations promulgated by the State Administration of Taxation of the PRC that was effective from 2018 onwards, enterprises engaging in research and development activities are entitled to claim 175% of their research and development expenses so incurred as tax deductible expenses when determining their assessable profits for that year (“Super Deduction”).

(d) PRC Withholding Tax (“WHT”)

According to the New Corporate Income Tax Law (“New EIT Law”), distribution of profits earned by PRC companies since 1 January 2008 to foreign investors is subject to withholding tax of 5% or 10%, depending on if the foreign investor is considered as the beneficial owner of the dividend according to the double tax treaty (agreement) between China and the jurisdiction of incorporation of the foreign investor, upon the distribution of profits to overseas-incorporated immediate holding companies.

During the year ended 31 December of 2021 and 2020, the Group does not have any plan to require its PRC subsidiaries to distribute their retained earnings and intends to retain them to operate and expand its business in the PRC. Accordingly, no deferred income tax liability on WHT was accrued as of the end of each reporting period.

13. Income tax expense (continued)

The tax on the Group’s income before income tax differs from the theoretical amount that would arise using the statutory tax rate applicable to income of the consolidated entities as follows:

	2021	2020
	RMB'000	RMB'000
Profit before income tax	473,322	213,380

14. Earnings per share

(a) Basic earnings per share

Basic earnings per share is calculated by dividing:

- the profit attributable to owners of the Company, excluding any costs of servicing equity other than ordinary shares
- by the weighted average number of ordinary shares outstanding during the financial year, excluding shares held for employee share scheme (Note 28).

	2021	2020
Profit attributable to the shareholders of the Company (RMB'000)	415,381	193,906
Weighted average number of ordinary shares in issue (thousand shares)	1,866,475	1,924,260
Basic earnings per share attributable to the shareholders of the Company (expressed in RMB per share)	0.22	0.10

14. Earnings per share (continued)

(b) Diluted earnings per share

Diluted earnings per share adjusts the figures used in the determination of basic earnings per share to take into account:

- the after income tax effect of interest and other financing costs associated with dilutive potential ordinary shares, and
- the weighted average number of additional ordinary shares that would have been outstanding assuming the conversion of all dilutive potential ordinary shares.

	2021	2020
Profit attributable to the shareholders of the Company (RMB'000)	415,381	193,906
Weighted average number of ordinary shares in issue (thousand shares)	1,866,475	1,924,260
Add: Adjustment for RSUs granted to employees (thousand shares)	10,444	12,958
Weighted average number of ordinary shares for calculation of diluted earnings per share (thousand shares)	1,876,919	1,937,218
Diluted earnings per share (expressed in RMB per share)	0.22	0.10

As disclosed in Note 28, the Company granted 11,451,626 RSU under the RSU Scheme for the year ended 31 December 2021. The grant of RSU are dilutive potential ordinary shares and are included as potential ordinary shares in the determination of diluted earnings per share.

(c) Information concerning the classification of options

The 10,000,000 options granted on 28 May 2021 and the 50,000,000 options granted on 29 June 2021 are not included in the calculation of diluted earnings per share because they are “out-of-the-money”, that is, the exercise price is higher than the average price of the ordinary shares for the year ended 31 December 2021. These options could potentially dilute basic earnings per share in the future.

The excess of carrying amount over recoverable amount was recognised as impairment loss, included in administrative expenses in the statement of consolidated statement of comprehensive income.

(ii) Impairment test for goodwill of Blueberry (previously known as "Jimu")

As at 17 September 2019, the acquisition of Blueberry contributed to the recognition of goodwill amounting to RMB512,758,000. Goodwill is monitored by management at the level of CGU and Blueberry was considered as a standalone CGU.

The Group carries out its annual impairment test on goodwill by comparing the recoverable amount to the carrying amount. The recoverable amount was determined based on VIU. The VIU was determined using discounted cash flows calculation which derived from the five-year financial projections plus a terminal value related to cash flows beyond the projection period (five-year period) extrapolated using an estimated perpetual growth rate. The management believes that it is appropriate to cover such projection period in its cash flow projection, because it captures the development stage of the related business of Blueberry during which the Group expects to continue experiencing a high growth rate. The key assumptions used by management for VIU calculation include:

- i the compound annual growth rate of revenue for a five-year period of 26% (2020:60%) for Blueberry, which was a combined consideration of the continuous growth as Blueberry moved to the developing stage and the online social platform's average growth rate will be relatively stable in subsequent years;
- ii pre-tax discount rate of 30% (2020: 29%) for Blueberry, which was estimated by using the weighted average cost of capital ("WACC") method. The WACC was calculated by referring to public market data including risk free rate, market return, beta of comparable public companies etc. and the specific risk of Blueberry;
- iii the estimated perpetual growth rate used in the VIU calculation for period beyond the projected period was 3.0% (2020:3.0%), after making reference to long term inflation rate of the PRC.

A sensitivity analysis on key assumptions used in the goodwill impairment testing for Blueberry has been performed.

As of 31 December 2021, the recoverable amount of Blueberry calculated based on VIU exceeded carrying value by RMB137,613,000. Had compound annual growth rate of revenue for a five-year period been 5% lower or the pre-tax discount rate been 1% higher, the remaining headroom of Blueberry would be decreased to RMB75,613,000 and RMB106,613,000 respectively.

Management's above impairment assessment is based on valuation by an independent external valuers. A reasonably possible change in key assumptions used in the impairment test of goodwill would not likely cause the carrying amount to exceed its recoverable amount as of 31 December 2021.
