- (b) The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing under the hand of the appointor or of his/her attorney duly authorised in writing or, if the appointor is a corporation, either under its seal or under the hand of any officer, attorney or other person duly authorised to sign the same.

Forms of proxy sent electronically or by any other data transmission will not be accepted.
- (d) Completion and delivery of the form of proxy will not preclude a Shareholder from attending and voting in person at the meeting if the Shareholder so desires and in such event, the instrument appointing a proxy shall be deemed to be revoked.
- (e) Where there are joint registered holders of any Shares, any one of such holders may vote at the meeting, either personally or by proxy, in respect of such Share(s) as if he/she was solely entitled thereto, but if more than one of such holders be present at the meeting personally or by proxy, that one of such holders so present whose name stands first on the register of members of the Company in respect of such Shares shall alone be entitled to vote in respect thereof.
