Chairman's Statement

On behalf of the board (the "Board") of directors (the "Directors") of Fortune Sun (China) Holdings Limited (the "Company"), I am pleased to present the annual report of the Company and its subsidiaries (collectively, the "Group") for the year ended 31 December 2021 (the "Year").

In 2021, the property market went through a turbulent year, with the market declining and the performance according to various core indicators being hindered. As the property development industry entered into winter, relevant industries both upstream and downstream suffered from a huge impact, bringing more challenges for the entire industry. Throughout the Year, the investment contraction in the industry has reduced both supply and transaction volume. On the other hand, new commercial residential properties market benefited from the booming market in the first half of the Year and showed a slight increase in transaction volume and average prices when compared to the year ended 31 December 2020.

During the Year, the commercial residential properties market continued its momentum from 2020, with the sales area and sales amount maintaining rapid growth in double digits. To control the market from overheating, policies aiming at stricter control were implemented, including a concentration in land supply, reference price for second-hand house (the "Policies") and credit tightening. In mid-2021, property developers including Evergrande underwent a crisis due to multiple reasons, resulting in a drop in the properties industry confidence, significant decline in market expectation, reduction in transaction volume and prices, causing the market to decline. The Policies began to ease in the third and fourth quarters, and the credit policy was adjusted to boost confidence, aiming to stabilize market development and gradually prepare it for further policies to maintain stability.

Generally, in terms of policies, the domestic macro-economic control adheres to the core of "houses are for living, not for speculating" and strives to achieve the goals of stabilizing land prices, housing prices and expectations. The control is implemented depending on the conditions of respective cities, and the overall control follows a tightening and loosening trend during the Year: in the first and second quarters, measures were implemented to reduce leverage, strictly curb speculative investment, and refine control measures in different cities; in the third quarter, as industry risks began to emerge, ensuring housing delivery became the focus, and the supervision on the pre-sale funds was further strengthened; in the fourth quarter, the liquidity within the industry suffered contraction, with the sales and investment dropping significantly, policy control was considered to have overcorrected, resulting in the release of positive signals.

In respect of the commercial residential properties market, although the scale of the domestic commercial residential properties market maintained growth during the Year, the growth rate significantly declined compared to the year ended 31 December 2020. Many second-and third-tier cities experienced a distinct market phenomenon the Year, with over 60% of the total sales being completed in the first half of the year, and over 70% of the top 100 property developers failing to achieve their annual goals.

Generally, the market continued to decline in the second half of 2021 and has not yet seen a recovery trend. As for the growth rate for the domestic property sales, despite the slight rebound during the year ended 31 December 2020, the growth rate has dropped to a new low since 2015, with the growth rate being 13.7%, 11.9%, 6.8%, 8.7% and 4.8% in the past five years for the years ended 31 December 2017 to 2021, respectively. As for inventories, the inventory area of domestic commercial housing was 510,230,000 square meters as at late December 2021, representing a year-on-year increase of 11,370,000 square meters, making it at a historical high.

Chairman's Statement

Due to the market downturn in the second half of 2021, property developers and agents increased marketing, promoted various marketing campaigns and increased the proportion of marketing expenses to attract customers and enhance sales. On the marketing side, large property developers basically maintained high-frequency marketing of “organizing events every month.” With the differentiation in property prices, property developers offer a more targeted discount and price reduction measure, and the number of properties offered with a special price is increasing. Our Group also suffered from the impact of the downturn of the market, and which resulted in the increase of the promotion expenses in the second half of 2021, thereby reducing the Group's gross profit.

On the enterprise side, with the change in the development logic of housing companies in recent years, the landscape of the real estate industry is getting clearer in 2022. The real estate industry has entered a stage of “low growth, low profits, low expectations and low fault tolerance”, under which the high-turnover model will be unsustainable. As real estate enterprises will usher in the debt repayment peak in the first half of 2022, the industry is also very likely to usher in a concentrated and accelerated clearing period, and some real estate enterprises with high leverage, high turnover and high debt will face elimination based on their own debt structure. Clearing and integration in the industry will be accelerated, and more shares will be concentrated to stable enterprises.

The year of 2022 has begun, and various expectations are developing in a positive direction. In the future, the real estate industry will still be an indispensable and important part of China's economy. The rapid development cycle of the real estate industry in the past 20 years has ceased, and the pattern of high debt and high turnover has also begun to turn its direction. There is still room for the development of real estate industry, and a lot of room for exploration in business models such as urban renewal, asset operation, lease security and elderly care real estate. After saying goodbye to high growth expectations, the industry will enter a new stage of development.

In terms of overseas business development, the outbreak of the COVID-19 pandemic (the “Pandemic”) has created great uncertainties for the real estate market in the Cambodia, as with the other Southeast Asia countries. We are still in the course of evaluating the future business plan in Cambodia and look for opportunities.

Given the unprecedented uncertainties and challenges in the property market following the outbreak of the Pandemic and the need of the Group to maintain healthy liquidity level to capture appropriate investment opportunities in 2022, the Board did not recommend the payment of final dividend for the year ended 31 December 2021.

In 2022, the Group will continue to keep abreast of the economic and market developments on domestic levels, and adjust the market positioning of the Group accordingly to better exert our advantages in experience, while taking full advantage of existing resources in the industry in light of the real estate and relevant fiscal policies of the PRC government. The Group will also strive to expand the property consultancy and sales agency as well as asset management businesses in the first and second-tier cities with its prudent and optimistic strategies, so as to increase the number of projects, identify appropriate investment opportunities and broaden sales sources. On the other hand, the Group will strive to cut operating expenses by strengthening budget management and cost control, as well as to strictly control its cash flow, so as to ensure a healthy financial situation for sustainable and stable long term development.

Chairman's Statement

Last but not least, I would like to extend my appreciation to all the members of the Board, the management and the staff for their ongoing efforts over the past year. I also wish to express my sincere gratitude to our shareholders, customers and business partners for their consistent trust in the Group and support to the Group. We will continue to dedicate our efforts towards the long-term development of the Group and strive for satisfactory returns for the shareholders.

Management Discussion and Analysis

BUSINESS REVIEW

During the year ended 31 December 2021 (the “Year”), the property market went through a turbulent year, with the market declining and the performance being hindered due to the PRC Government implementing stricter control and the lack of confidence from the market as a result of the large developers facing financial difficulty. As the property development industry entered into winter, both upstream and downstream in the relevant industries suffered from a huge impact, bringing more challenges for the entire industry. Throughout the Year, the investment contraction in the properties industry has reduced both supply and transaction volume. However, the new commercial residential properties market benefited from the booming market in the first half of the 2021 and showed a slight increase in transaction volume and average prices when compared to the year ended 31 December 2020.

In respect of land, the year ended 31 December 2021 was the “first-year” of the two-concentration land supply policy (the “Two-Concentration Policy”). The first batch of transactions in cities implementing the Two-Concentration Policy showed positive results, and the land price reached a new high, thus the regulatory authorities enhanced control over the market. In the second and third batches of transactions, many property developers underwent a liquidity crisis, and land plots were transferred to central enterprises, state-owned enterprises and local urban investment enterprises, mostly traded with a lower premium. Among 22 cities implementing the Two-Concentration Policy, there were 44 transfers of centralized land in the second and third batches of transactions. Only 11% of the state-owned enterprises and central enterprises acquired less than 50% of the land in the three batches of transactions, and the state-owned enterprises and central enterprises in Xiamen even acquired all land plots in the three batches of transactions, indicating the trend of state enterprises advance and private sectors retreat. The transaction data showed a trend of rising prices and falling volumes, with the transaction floor areas declining by 15.5% year-on-year and the transaction amount increasing by 2.8%, as compared with the year ended 31 December 2020 further increasing the cost for property developers to acquire lands.

In respect of the commercial residential properties market, although the scale of the domestic commercial residential market maintained growth in 2021, the growth rate has significantly declined compared to the year ended 31 December 2020. Many second and third-tier cities experienced a distinct market phenomenon during the Year, with over 60% of the total sales being completed in the first half of the year, and over 70% of the top 100 property developers failing to achieve their annual goals.

Management Discussion and Analysis

In terms of property developers, as they gradually released the operating data for 2021, the Company can see that the growth rate of several property developers has slowed down, and that some have turned profits into losses. State-owned enterprises and central enterprises with notable advantages have a distinct performance compared with private enterprises. After nearly three years of development, the number of property developers owned by the State-owned enterprises and central enterprises with annual sales exceeding RMB100 billion is increasing, and the proportion has increased by 15% within three years. Now, there are no property developers owned by the State-owned enterprises with a sales volume of less than RMB10 billion. As for private enterprises, the proportion of top private enterprises with a sales volume over RMB300 billion reduced, and the number of property developers with a sales volume of less than RMB10 billion increased. Given the current environment, private enterprises mostly reduce the investment amount and focus on accelerating sales; while the state-owned enterprises and central enterprises benefit from gradual loosening of policies and support from the central government, coupled with a current strategy focusing on safeguarding in the financial side, the advantage has gradually shifted to the state-owned enterprises and central enterprises, allowing them to expand against the trend during the window of market downturn and continue to seize market share.

In terms of financing, property developers were affected by policies and the crises of certain property developers in the second half of 2021. The credit ratings and ratings of domestic property developers were downgraded by the top three international credit rating agencies repeatedly, and all financing channels have been tightened. During the Year, the property industry completed non-bank financing of RMB1,933.49 billion, which decreased by 19.4% compared with the year ended 31 December 2020. As the financing channels were limited, sales proceeds and the disposal of inventory assets have become important sources for property developers to obtain cash flows.

In terms of marketing, due to the market downturn in the second half of 2021, property developers and agents increased investments in marketing, promoting various marketing campaigns and increasing the proportion of marketing expenses to attract customers and enhance sales. On the marketing side, large property developers basically maintained high-frequency marketing of “organizing events every month.” The Group suffered from the impact of the downturn of the market, and which resulted in the increasing of the marketing expenses in the second half of 2021, leading to a reduction of the Group’s gross profit.

In terms of overseas business development, the COVID-19 pandemic outbreak (the “Pandemic”) in Cambodia has had serious impact on the local economy, coupled with the fact that many foreigners and local residents have not returned to Cambodia for work to stay away from the Pandemic, and export orders have dropped significantly, which had a severe impact on the local real estate market in Cambodia during the Year.

During the Year, the Group recorded revenue of approximately RMB40.2 million (2020: RMB26.8 million), representing a substantial increase by approximately 50.0% as compared to the revenue recorded for the preceding year. Such substantial increase was mainly due to the increase in revenue generated from comprehensive property consultancy and sales agency business of the Group by approximately RMB16.5 million, representing an increase by approximately 72.5%, during the Year as compared with the preceding year for reasons further explained in the paragraph headed “Comprehensive property consultancy and sales agency business” below. Revenue from the pure property planning and consultancy business segment of the Group decreased during the Year by approximately RMB3.1 million as compared with the preceding year for reasons further explained in the paragraph headed “Pure property planning and consultancy business” below.

Management Discussion and Analysis

The Group recorded gross profit of approximately RMB9.9 million for the Year as compared with the gross profit of approximately RMB10.7 million in the preceding year. The gross profit margin decreased to 24.6% for the Year as compared to the gross profit margin of 40.0% in the preceding year as the marketing and promotion expenses of the Group increased significantly during the Year as a result of the Group's effort to boost the sales level. The overall operating and administrative expenses also increased by approximately 7.4% as compared to the preceding year mainly due to increase in the number of business trips during the Year to seek for business opportunities. Provision of allowance for trade receivable of approximately RMB1.5 million (2020: reversal of allowance for trade receivable of approximately RMB0.3 million) was made for the Year due to the slow down of recovery from our property developer clients and more provision is needed to be made. Thus, the loss for the Year attributable to owners of the Company was amounted to approximately RMB2.9 million, compared from the profit of approximately RMB58,000 recorded for the preceding year.

Regarding the Group's operations during the Year geographically, most of the Group's recorded revenue was generated from projects in Jiangsu Province, followed by Hubei Province and Zhejiang Province, which represented approximately 64.8%, 26.8% and 6.8% of the Group's total revenue, respectively. On a comparative basis, for the year ended 31 December 2020, the Group's recorded revenue was mainly generated from projects in Jiangsu Province, followed by Hubei Province and Shanghai. Regarding business and products segments, during the Year, the revenue generated from the comprehensive property consultancy and sales agency service business remained a major source of income for the Group and accounted for approximately 97.6% of the total revenue (2020: approximately 85.0%), while the revenue generated from the pure property planning and consultancy business accounted for approximately 2.4% of the total revenue (2020: approximately 15.0%).

COMPREHENSIVE PROPERTY CONSULTANCY AND SALES AGENCY BUSINESS

During the Year, the provision of comprehensive property consultancy and sales agency services for the primary property market in the People's Republic of China (the "PRC") was the core business of the Group. In 2021, most of the revenue of the Group was generated from 11 comprehensive property consultancy and sales agency service projects (2020: 17 projects) with approximately 108,826 square meters (2020: approximately 147,155 square meters) of total saleable gross floor areas of the underlying projects. The reported revenue from these comprehensive property consultancy and sales agency service projects for the Year was approximately RMB39,290,000, representing approximately 97.6% of the total revenue of the Group (2020: approximately RMB22,774,000, representing approximately 85.0% of the total revenue).

The substantial increase in revenue generated by the Group from the comprehensive property consultancy and sales agency business by approximately 41.8% during the Year as compared with the preceding year was mainly due the commercial residential properties market continuing its momentum from 2020, with the sales area and sales amount maintaining rapid growth in double digits.

As at 31 December 2021, the Group had 10 comprehensive property consultancy and sales agency service projects on hand with total unsold gross floor areas of approximately 936,000 square meters (2020: approximately 691,000 square meters). Among these 10 projects, sales of the underlying properties of 1 project on hand have not yet commenced as at 31 December 2021.

Management Discussion and Analysis

The outbreak of the Pandemic has created great uncertainties for the real estate market in the Cambodia, as with the other Southeast Asia countries. The Group's performance in Cambodia during the Year has been significantly affected by the Pandemic, where the revenue recorded from the provision comprehensive property consultancy and sales agency services in Cambodia for the Year was approximately RMB44,000 (2020: RMB334,000). This was mainly due to demand for residential property in Cambodia has reduced substantially during the Year, as many of the foreigners and local residents have not returned to Cambodia for work to stay away from the Pandemic outbreak, and the decrease in export orders have caused reduction in foreign investment and the closing down of foreign companies in Cambodia. The Group is evaluating its business plan in Cambodia from time to time as the impact of the Pandemic evolves in Cambodia.

PURE PROPERTY PLANNING AND CONSULTANCY BUSINESS

During the Year, the Group has provided services for a total of 3 pure property planning and consultancy service projects (2020: 12 projects). The revenue generated from this business segment for the Year decreased by approximately 76.3% to approximately RMB953,000, representing 2.4% of the total revenue for the year of 2021 (2020: approximately RMB4,031,000, representing 15.0% of the total revenue)..

The decrease in revenue from the Group's pure property planning and consultancy business was mainly due to the decrease in demand for market consultancy services from the property developers in the PRC after the Pandemic situation has become more stable in mainland China.

PROSPECTS AND OUTLOOKS

Looking forward to 2022, the Pandemic is still resurging, and the estimated GDP growth rate of the PRC is 5.5% due to pressures from various aspects concurrently. Given the current weak market confidence and greater funding pressures, recovery will take time, and the industry investment will remain cautious. It is expected that the central government will continue to release signals to maintain stability and maintain a loose policy, adopting proper control on reducing leverage within the industry, gradually narrowing down the reduction of core indicators, and alleviating the pressures faced by the property industry to achieve a soft landing. Besides, restrictions on property speculation will continue, and the policies will focus on maintaining stability, with certain favorable credit and housing policies being introduced. Favorable measures on the policy and financial side will also gradually launch.

In terms of land market, it is expected that the trend of lack of investment growth points in 2021 will continue, and some cities may moderately relax regulatory policies depending on their own conditions. The differentiation between cities continues to increase, with third and fourth-tier cities facing continuous downward pressure. With the implementation of the central government's policy of simultaneous housing purchase and renting, the supply of land for lease may increase. Due to the sluggish transaction and development volume of commercial land, the share in land usage will be partially offset by the construction of government affordable housing and low-rent housing.

In terms of construction volume, the land area with newly started construction may show a negative growth trend in 2022 due to the negative growth of land transaction area in 2021. In addition, after the bumper year of delivery in 2021, it is expected that the completed construction area in 2022 may also decline, superimposing the negative growth expectation of the land area and newly started construction and the construction volume of real estate will remain low in 2022.

Management Discussion and Analysis

In terms of new commercial residential market, the sales growth rate of new commercial residential units across the PRC has dropped to a new low in 2021. Subject to the demand overdraft brought about by the high growth in previous years, it is expected that the Group may enter the era of negative growth in 2022, with a slight decline in transaction volume as well as a plateau trend and small fluctuations in the average price. Although some non-core cities have been favored by the loosening of control and consumer credit, the problems of weak market confidence and insufficient incremental demand will not be solved in the short term, and the wait-and-see sentiment is still strong. Assets in core cities are highly sought after due to the current asset shortage environment. In the future, the differentiation of cities will continue to intensify. First-tier cities and some second-tier cities with basically good conditions are expected to maintain their growth momentum, while other second-tier cities and a large number of third-and fourth-tier cities may face destocking pressure. Without the impact of major policy adjustments and emergencies, the overall performance of China's housing market will tend to be stable in 2022. From the monthly data, it is predicted that the recovery of market will gradually accelerate in the first, second and third quarters of 2022, with new changes in the fourth quarter.

On the enterprise side, with the change in the development logic of housing companies in recent years, the landscape of the real estate industry is getting clearer in 2022. The real estate industry has entered a stage of "low growth, low profits, low expectations and low fault tolerance", under which the high-turnover model will be unsustainable. As real estate enterprises will usher in the debt repayment peak in the first half of 2022, the industry is also very likely to usher in a concentrated and accelerated clearing period, and some real estate enterprises with high leverage, high turnover and high debt will face elimination based on their own debt structure. Clearing and integration in the industry will be accelerated, and more shares will be concentrated to stable enterprises.

The year of 2022 has begun, and various expectations are developing in a positive direction. In the future, the real estate industry will still be an indispensable and important part of China's economy. The rapid development cycle of the real estate industry in the past 20 years has ceased, and the pattern of high debt and high turnover has also begun to turn its direction. There is still room for the development of real estate industry, and a lot of room for exploration in business models such as urban renewal, asset operation, lease security and elderly care real estate. After saying goodbye to high growth expectations, the industry will enter a new stage of development.

As for the Group's future development in Cambodia, the outbreak of the Pandemic has created great uncertainties for the real estate market in the Cambodia, as with the other Southeast Asia countries. The Group's performance in Cambodia during the Year has been significantly affected by the Pandemic. The Group is therefore still in the course of evaluating its business plan in Cambodia. However, the Group will continue to grasp opportunities to expand its growth in the Southeast Asia market as and if market opportunities arise and will continue to look for opportunities through pitching and bidding for projects.

The management of the Group will endeavour to incentivise their employees to proactively identify new projects and new customers for new business opportunities, and strive to cut operating expenses by means of strengthening budget management and cost control, so as to pursue a long-term development for the Group and satisfactory return to the shareholders of the Company.

The Group is committed to integrating environmental, social and governance factors into its operations in order to create sustainable value for stakeholders and take up the responsibilities as a corporate citizen. The Group has established an Environmental, Social and Governance Working Group (the “Working Group”). The Working Group is composed of core members from different departments of the Group and is responsible for communicating with the external consultants and collecting information related to environmental, social and governance. The Working Group reports to the management on the implementation of environmental, social and governance initiatives and the performance of the business units regularly.

Stakeholder Engagement

We believe that stakeholder engagement can help the Group understand the needs and expectations of key stakeholders, thus facilitating the formulation and improvement of existing management systems and future sustainable development directions by the Group, and promoting the sustainable development of the Group in the long run. We, as always, engage the stakeholders directly and indirectly affected by our business, including the Board of Directors, employees, customers, suppliers and investors, across various channels, such as seminars, staff training, direct communication with customers, shareholder activities and a face-to-face meeting with investors. The Group will continue to encourage stakeholder participation through different forms of communication.

This report has adopted the result of the materiality assessment (the “assessment”) in the Reporting Year and the corresponding methodology is described below.

In order to further identify the materiality of specific ESG issues to the Group, we engaged an independent adviser to assist the Group to determine the relevant ESG issue affecting business operations, which included 28 sustainability issues such as labour practices, environmental protection, supply chain management, product and service offering and community investment. By launching an online survey, we invited internal and external stakeholders to score each sustainability issue according to the materiality to business operations and the stakeholders themselves respectively and provide feedback on each of the topics. The survey results obtained were used for materiality analysis and assessment, and a materiality matrix graph was prepared based on the scores given by the stakeholders as follows. The issues shown in the upper right corner of the materiality matrix graph represent the matters that are of most concern to our stakeholders.

By considering the dependence and influence to the Group of the stakeholders and the availability of the resources for the Group, the management has identified key stakeholders and conducted survey with them. They have expressed their opinions and recommendation on the sustainability issues related to the Group's operation via a survey.

Environmental, Social and Governance Report

Based on the results shown in the materiality matrix graph, we determined 10 ESG issues that the stakeholders are most concerned about and are of the highest materiality to business operations — 25. Business ethics, 26. Anticorruption training, 22. Intellectual property, 21. Customer satisfaction, 15. Staff development and training, 11. Employment practices, 23. Safety of projects, 19. Compliance with regulations on marketing, product and service labelling, 14. Occupational health and safety, 20. Customers' privacy and confidentiality. The issues we identified and regarded as important can help us determine future strategic directions, put into practice corresponding policies and management and focus our resources on such issues to respond to stakeholders' concerns, needs and expectations.

Consolidating the results of internal assessment and the survey, the Group has compiled the materiality matrix (refer to the diagram below).

Employee activities in 2021

We hold a range of staff gatherings each year, where employees of Fortune Sun China are able to gather to know and interact with each other through various games and activities, and where we take the chance to inspire employees and thank them for their contribution to our business in the past year. However, considering that COVID-19 was running rampant in the world during the Reporting Year, the Group has limited the organisation of employee activities to mitigate the risks of spreading of the virus. One of the activities held during the Reporting Year was the Annual Dinner.

Occupational Health and Safety

Since the daily operation of the Group is predominantly office-based, the occupational hazards and accidents involved are relatively limited as compared to other industries. Nevertheless, we do not neglect the health and safety of employees. Instead, we are devoted to creating a comfortable and safe working environment for them. As guided by our “Health and Safety Policy”, we identify and manage potential health and safety hazards and risks at relevant workplaces, comply with regulations on occupational health and safety in the places of operation (e.g., Law of the People’s Republic of China on the Prevention and Control of Occupational Diseases (《中華人民共和國職業病防治法》) and Occupational Safety and Health Ordinance (《職業安全及健康條例》) of Hong Kong), and provide sufficient resources and take appropriate control measures to sustain safe workplaces.

Our administrative department checks the daily cleanliness and order of our offices periodically to ensure the tidiness of the office area, the proper storage of office materials and the accessibility of office corridors and fire escapes, so as to protect employees from accidents and injuries. Office equipment such as printers, photocopiers and fax machines are placed in separate printing rooms, so as to ensure good air quality in the office area. In addition, we also require employees to keep the office area clean and safe. For example, smoking and spitting are banned at workplaces.

To raise the safety awareness of employees, we participate in fire drills organised by property management companies regularly and conduct fire safety training at our sales offices for employees to brush up on the proper use of fire extinguishers and the everyday fire safety precautions, improving employees’ awareness of fire safety and their response to fire hazards. Any employees who encounter a safety hazard during work shall halt the work on hand immediately and notify administrative personnel promptly.

Fortune Sun China understands that the employees' performance and individual achievement constitute one of the key enablers for our success. With a commitment to promoting the career development of employees, we hold tailored training for employees in different departments through our training system, to improve their knowledge, skills and values. This will boost employees' comprehensive strength and job satisfaction and help them achieve self-fulfilment, thus better supporting our overall strategic objectives. All new employees are required to attend induction training during the probation period to familiarise themselves with our culture, business goals, values and constitutional rules so that they can adapt to our working environment and fit in the existing working teams more swiftly. The contents of the training cover our organisational structure, corporate culture and other general introductions, basic job-related processes and knowledge of the post, labour standards and anti-corruption measures, etc. In addition, based on the training requirements of each department and the job level of each employee, we provide all sorts of internal training, including executive training and professional training related to specific real estate project (e.g., basic real estate know-how, updates of latest real estate policies, skills in market case research and reporting, sales methods and operations, knacks of customer source expansion, customer services and manners, etc.), to improve the management skills, know-how and expertise of employees. To encourage our employees to undertake life-long learning, we offer opportunities for external training and tuition fee subsidies to eligible employees. After each training session, employees will be tested and assessed to ensure that they have fully mastered the training content, and such assessment may also be used to improve training in the future. In order to further motivate staff to participate in the training, the Group has established a point-based training management system, whereby employees can earn points after completion of the training according to the course content and assessment results. The purpose is to make them fully aware of their achievement, performance and areas for improvement, motivate them to pursue continuous improvement as well as nurturing their fulfilment of personal goals and professional career development. The appraisal results will be linked to employees' promotion assessment. If there is a job vacancy in the Group, we will take internal staff promotion as a priority consideration, as an endeavour to maintain a reasonable career ladder and retain talents.

We will constantly review the current management regime on compensation and benefits to employees, staff as well as maintaining a harmonious labour relationship and our competitiveness in the industry.

Operating Practices

Management of Suppliers

The major suppliers of the Group are vendors of office supplies and providers of other real estate services, including sellers of office equipment, contractors for decoration and construction engineering and advertisement designers. Keeping a good long-term partnership with suppliers and managing the supply chain properly and effectively can help us to maintain high-quality services, as well as minimising the social and environmental risks arising from the supply chain, which paves ways to sustainable development. During the Reporting Period, we had a total of 20 major suppliers, all the suppliers are located in the PRC.

We have stipulated the procedure and criteria for supplier selection and evaluation in our Administrative Rules and Regulations (行政管理規章), whereby we select suitable suppliers of quality products and services and regularly monitor their compliance with our standards. During supplier selection, apart from investigating into the basic business background and business qualifications of potential suppliers, we also take into account a number of other factors, including price, geographical location, quality standards, know-how and services, etc. The Group continuously evaluate the environmental and social performance of suppliers. If necessary, we would ask suppliers to provide samples for evaluation. A supplier will be recognised as a qualified supplier of the Group only when it meets the above criteria according to the review of the administrative department. We have also introduced a complete procurement bidding process to ensure fair and equitable bidding and maintain a fair competition environment for suppliers by comparing three or more quotations. To further guarantee the quality of the products and services from suppliers, we will evaluate the performance of incumbent suppliers upon their delivery of the products and services. We rate a supplier cooperating with us according to four criteria, namely, quality of its products or services, timeliness of delivery, the attitude of service and professionalism. The underperforming supplier shall be suspended from bidding, and its status as a qualified supplier would be resumed only if it passes the re-evaluation.

In addition, we urge all of our suppliers to observe our Code of Ethics and Code of Conduct for Suppliers (供應商道德規範和商業行為準則). The code covers five major areas, namely, working conditions, environmental responsibility, quality standards for delivery, anti-corruption and anti-bribery as well as intellectual property rights and duty of confidentiality. It requires suppliers to abide by relevant laws and regulations and expects them to recognise and fulfil their ethical responsibilities so as to attain mutual trust and respect between the Group and the suppliers.

COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT

Following the principle of “dedication, friendship, mutual assistance and progress”, Fortune Sun China encourages employees to practise and integrate these principles in their daily life and work, by participating in volunteer services and community activities, so as to better serve our customers with greater efforts and care for neighbours and the society to generate a positive influence on the society. During the Reporting Year, we organised a themed event “Fortune Sun Public Welfare Action (富陽公益行)” in the residential area of Weifang Street Community (濰坊街道社區) in Shanghai to assist the residents therein to clean the trash on streets and the old flyers on mailboxes and iron gates and tidy up the bicycles parked in a disorderly manner on the roads or walkways to prevent traffic blocking in the community. This activity was intended to advocate the spirit of caring for the community and encourage our employees to engage in the community more proactively.

Environmental, Social and Governance Report

ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION

The principal activities of Fortune Sun China are the provision of one-stop property consultancy and sales agency services. Since we are less involved in business operations and activities with direct relations to the environment, the impact of our business operations on the environment and natural resources is less material. Nevertheless, the Group has come up with relevant environmental policies as guidance for us to operate in compliance with applicable environmental laws and regulations in the places of operations. Besides, we persistently pursue business operations featuring efficient use of resources, minimisation of energy use and waste generation through diverse initiatives under our existing business scope.

In providing property consultancy services, the Group will also consider the potential environmental risk and impact of the property development project, including its compliance with local environmental laws and regulations, (including but not limited to the Environmental Protection Law of the People's Republic of China (《中華人民共和國環境保護法》), Energy Conservation Law of the People's Republic of China (《中華人民共和國節約能源法》), etc.), its environmental protection measures, etc., thus enabling customers to have a thorough understanding of the environmental protection elements and impact of the project.

To this end, we have set clear emission reduction targets, we aim to reduce all our emissions (including air pollutants, greenhouse gas, hazardous and non-hazardous wastes, and sewage), energy consumption (including electricity and heat), consumption of resources (including water and paper) by 3%, compared to corresponding emissions and consumptions of the Year, before 2026.

During the Reporting Year, the Group confirmed that there were no violations against any environmental laws and regulations.

Emissions

Policy of the Group, Laws and Regulations Related to Emissions

Since the operations of the Group's property consultancy and sales agency business are predominantly office-based, they do not involve any substantial emissions of exhaust gas, wastewater or hazardous or non-hazardous waste during operations. The environmental footprint of the Group's daily operations is mainly comprised of the greenhouse gas ("GHG") emissions generated from the use of purchased electricity, vehicle fuel consumption as well as business trips. During the Reporting Year, the total GHG emission of the Group was 33.56 tonnes of carbon dioxide equivalent (tCO₂e), representing an intensity of 0.33 tCO₂e per employee. We have implemented various energy conservation and emission reduction measures, the details of which are set out below in this section.

Environmental, Social and Governance Report

Types of Air Emissions and Emission data

During the Reporting Year, petrol combustion of vehicle fleet in Mainland China was the main source of the Group's air emissions. The amount of air emissions was lower than that of 2020 due to the decrease in usage rate of vehicles.

As at 31 December 2021, the air emissions data were as follows:

Air Emissions ⁴	Unit	2021
Nitrogen oxide (NO _x)	kilograms	0.95
Sulphur dioxide (SO _x)	kilograms	0.20
Particle matter (PM)	kilograms	0.09

As at 31 December 2021, the GHG emission data³ were as follows:

GHG Emission	Unit	2021	2020	2019
Scope 1 ⁶	tonnes CO ₂ -equivalent	5.91	8.64	6.77
Scope 2 ⁷	tonnes CO ₂ -equivalent	26.27	26.68	32.14
Scope 3	tonnes CO ₂ -equivalent	1.38	1.21	131.62
Total GHG Emission	tonnes CO ₂ -equivalent	33.56	36.53	170.63
GHG Emission Intensity	tonnes CO ₂ -equivalent/ employee ⁸	0.33	0.28	1.42

During the Reporting Year, there was a decrease in the total GHG Emission than that of 2020. The main source of our GHG emissions remained to be purchased electricity, the electricity consumption has a reducing trend throughout the last three reporting years, which demonstrated the effectiveness of our energy use efficiency initiatives. In the future, the Group will continue on close monitoring of its GHG emission and making any improvement and refinement on respective measures when necessary.

⁴ The emissions amount was estimated with reference to "Technical Guidelines for Air Pollutants Emission Inventory of Road Vehicles (Trial)"《道路機動車大氣污染物排放清單編製技術指南(試行)》.

⁵ The calculation of the corresponding air emission assessment figures and the emission factors used for the calculation are based on the "How to Prepare ESG Report" and its Annex "Appendix 2: Reporting guidance on Environmental KPIs" issued by the Stock Exchange of Hong Kong, "Methodology for Accounting and Reporting of Greenhouse Gas Emissions from Enterprises in Other Industries (Trial)"《工業其他行業企業溫室氣體排放核算方法與報告指南(試行)》 jointly issued by National Development and Reform Commission and National Center for Climate Change Strategy and International Cooperation, "Emission Reduction Project China Regional Grid Baseline Emission Factor《減排項目中國區域電網基準線排放因子》" and "IPCC Fifth Assessment Report on Climate Change《IPCC氣候變遷第五次評估報告》" issued by the Ministry of Ecology and Environment of the People's Republic of China.

⁶ Emissions in Scope 1 include the emission from the use of corporate vehicles owned by the Group.

⁷ Emissions in Scope 2 include the emission from the purchased electricity from power companies.

⁸ As at 31 December 2021 and 31 December 2020, the total numbers of full-time employees are 101 and 130 respectively.

Environmental, Social and Governance Report

In terms of air travelling, it is important for us to explore new business opportunities and maintain the relationship with our existing clients. We will continue to keep track of employees' business travelling and the corresponding GHG emission. The Group will continue to encourage the employees to make use of phone or video conferencing to reduce the emissions from air travel.

USE OF RESOURCES

Resources Policies

In order to use resources effectively, the Group has established various measures focusing on the use of water, resources and office paper during operation, with a view to reducing the carbon footprint left by the Group's operation while minimising unnecessary operating cost. We have formulated the Green Office Management Procedure (辦公室綠色環保制度) with an aim to create a comfortable working environment while putting into practice the philosophy of energy conservation and environmental protection in every little aspect of office work, thus raising the awareness of the staff on environmental protection.

Electricity Saving

- Not using air conditioners under appropriate temperature. When air conditioners are turned on, the indoor temperature shall be set no lower than 26°C in summer and no higher than 20°C in winter;
- Using LED and other energy-saving lighting devices;
- Utilising the natural light where applicable and turning off the lighting system for areas left unused;
- Switching the lighting in the hall and corridors to night mode when off duty; and
- Reminding employees to turn off their personal computer and display screen when off duty.

Water-saving

- Using water-saving devices;
- Appropriate control of water flow; and
- Timely repairs when there is water dripping, seepage and leakage.

Environmental, Social and Governance Report

Reducing the Use of Paper

- Disseminating announcements and notices through the intranet instead of distributing paper ones;
- Reminding the employees to print and copy corporate documents only when necessary. Documents shall be printed and copied on both sides of the paper;
- Recycling paper with contents printed on one side for reuse and printing; and
- Using recycled paper as much as possible for printing and copying.

According to the Management Procedure for the Use of Vehicles, employees intending to use corporate vehicles for work need to submit an application in advance, and the administrative department will arrange vehicles and plan the routes based on the number of passengers and distance to avoid unnecessary transportation as much as practicable. In addition, we try not to use corporate vehicles for picking up employees for business trips. Where vehicles are needed for such purpose, employees are required to gather at one place before departure, so as to reduce the fuel consumed by vehicles. We carry out vehicle maintenance regularly to ensure the safety and normal fuel consumption of our vehicles, thus reducing GHG emissions and energy consumption.

The Group's operations do not involve the consumption of packaging materials. During the Reporting Year, the Group consumed a total of 33,169 Megawatt hours (MWh) of electricity, 2,705 litres (L) of gasoline and 112 kilograms (kg) of paper.

Wastes Management

The Group did not generate any significant hazardous waste, so relevant data will be neglected. The general waste generated by the Group was mainly papers and domestic waste. All non-hazardous wastes are collected and incinerated by qualified waste disposal contractors in accordance with the Law of the People's Republic of China on the Prevention and Control of Environmental Pollution by Solid Waste (《固體廢物污染環境防治法》). They are handled by the property management provider, so information regarding the waste is not available.

As at 31 December 2021, the waste data of the Group were as follows:

Types of Waste	Unit	2021	2020
Hazardous Waste	tonnes	0	0
Hazardous Waste Intensity	tonnes CO ₂ -equivalent/employee ⁹	Not applicable	Not applicable
Non-Hazardous Waste	tonnes CO ₂ -equivalent	Not applicable	Not applicable
Non-Hazardous Waste Intensity	tonnes CO ₂ -equivalent/employee ⁹	Not applicable	Not applicable

⁹ As at 31 December 2021 and 31 December 2020, the total numbers of full-time employees are 101 and 130 respectively.

Environmental, Social and Governance Report

Water Consumption

Water resources were provided by local water supply company, the Group did not have difficulties in water sourcing. The Group's business does not require significant use of water. Water consumption in the business units is mainly for domestic use. The water charges incurred by the operating units of the Group were included in office rents which is controlled by the property management, so no record is available for the actual water consumption.

Resource Consumption and intensity

The Group's energy consumption is mainly from the electricity consumption (indirect energy consumption) and usage of vehicle fuels (direct energy consumption).

As at 31 December 2021, the resource consumption data of the Group were as follows:

		Unit	2021	2020
Energy Consumption	Direct Energy Consumption	'000 kWh	26.216	38.033
	Vehicle fuel (gasoline)	L	2,705	3,924
	Indirect Energy Consumption	'000 kWh	33.169	33.170
	Electricity		33.169	33.170
	Total Energy Consumption	'000 kWh	59.384	71.203
	Energy Consumption Intensity	'000 kWh/employees ¹⁰	0.588	0.548
	Paper	kg	112.26	149.69

Compared with the data disclosed in 2020, the consumption of gasoline and paper was substantially reduced by 31% and 25% respectively. The decrease in consumption of gasoline was mainly due to an decrease in the activities of site visit for pure consultancy property services; the decrease of paper consumption was caused by the adoption of electronic means to disseminate information. On the other hand, the electricity consumption remained stable which proved the effectiveness of our electricity saving initiatives. Moving forward, the Group will closely monitor the consumption of resources and continue to implement and improve the corresponding resource-saving practices.

¹⁰ As at 31 December 2021 and 31 December 2020, the total numbers of full-time employees are 101 and 130 respectively.

Environmental, Social and Governance Report

Packaging Material

The Group is a service provider in the real estate industry. No additional packaging material is required for the goods from the suppliers in our operation, thus there was no significant consumption of packaging material.

The Environment and Natural Resources

The Group's operations did not have any direct impact on the environment and natural resources. However, indirect GHG emission would aggravate global warming. The Group strives to reduce indirect GHG emissions and its impact on the environment and natural resources through various measures mentioned in the sections "Emission" and "Use of resources".

Climate Change

Climate change is one of the biggest global challenges faced by the society nowadays, and we must act now for our climate and our communities. In recent years, extreme weather, such as strong winds and heavy rainfall, as well as tides and floods, have become the focus of news. Logistics and supply chains are particularly vulnerable. Heavy rainfall, rising tides, and floods can cause serious damage to assets such as resorts, buildings, warehouses, and goods in storage, resulting in financial losses. Although such incidents are beyond everyone's control, the Group believes that all stakeholders should work together to address climate change, which will also be regarded as one of the most significant risks to the world in the next five years.

The COVID-19 pandemic has presented many new challenges this year, but it has not changed our commitment to climate action. The pace of change has expedited around the world, underscoring the importance for us to accelerate its transition to a low-carbon economy.

The Group has further enhanced its disclosure in this year to provide transparent and credible climate-related information to stakeholders, including investors and capital providers. The Group business units have also strengthened analyses on the risk and opportunities from climate change specific to their markets.

In response to the Paris Agreement, the Hong Kong Government issued the "Hong Kong's Climate Action Plan", and formulated various plans and actions, setting out the vision of "Zero-carbon Emissions, Liveable City, Sustainable Development". The government has determined to set medium-term goal as halving Hong Kong's total carbon emissions from 2005 levels before 2035. The Group understand that climate change may have significant impacts on our operations.

Reduction Targets

The Group essentially plans to respond to local government initiatives and follow local governments' emission reduction requirements. We aim to reduce emissions by around 3% by 2026 and ensure the Group's greenhouse gas emissions will comply with the local requirements on or before 2030. Our target is to achieve carbon neutrality by 2050 in Hong Kong region and by 2060 in PRC. We are committed to continuously improving our energy efficiency, applying professional knowledge to improve on-site efficiency and maintain efficient management support, in order to safeguard the Group's reputation.

Environmental, Social and Governance Report

Risks and Opportunities

Over the years, we have been grasping different opportunities to expand our business, accelerate the transformation and make the Group smarter, more environmentally friendly, and safer for employees and users (such as automation, and utilizing digital platforms for online conference to reduce carbon footprint in transportation during the pandemic). These measures has made our facilities becoming more sustainable and fulfil our commitment to resource management and environmental protection.

The Group has identified a series of climate-related risks and opportunities relevant to our assets and services which are significant to us. These transition and physical risks are discussed in the sections below.

Environmental, Social and Governance Report

Physical climate risks have the potential to damage the integrity of the Group's assets or interrupt our service delivery and customers directly. The Group has already set up a number of measures in place to enhance the reliance of its operations. These climate and weather events can cause physical damage to our assets or reduce operational efficiency, increase our repair and maintenance costs, and service disruptions for customers or even cause temporary stoppage of our operations. The Company's operations could also be affected directly and indirectly by these events, for instance damage to assets along the supply chain and water supply, in particular the procurement of materials and food, may affect the Group's ability and reliability to deliver quality services.

Transition Risks have the potential to increase the operational cost and legal risk due to change of policy, technology development, digitalization, relevant risk affected to supply and demand, and reputation due to public perceptions. The Group has already identified the relevant risks and continue to monitor the market and policy updates. The Group has also planned to invest according to the market needs and take this as an opportunity for long term development.

Low-carbon Future

The Group are prepared to address the threats climate change poses both to our business and to the communities that we serve. We are determined to deliver on our purpose to provide safe, reliable, and affordable services for customers, and we are fully aware that our environmental responsibility has never been greater. The Group is ready to face this challenge and we will continually raise our ambitions, wherever possible, strengthening our targets at least every five years. Every one of us need to play our part and together we can speed up the pace of low carbon transition and create a low-carbon world for our future.

Pursuant to code provision A.2.1 of the CG Code, the responsibilities between the chairman and chief executive should be separate and should not be performed by the same individual. For the year under review, the Company did not have a separate chairman and chief executive, with Mr. Chiang Chen Feng performing these two roles. The Board believes that vesting both the roles of chairman and chief executive in the same person has the benefit of ensuring consistent leadership within the Group, and enables more effective and efficient overall strategic planning for the Group. The Board considers that the balance of power and authority for the present arrangement will not be impaired and such structure will enable the Company to make and implement decisions promptly and efficiently.

Looking forward, we will continue to conduct reviews on our corporate governance practices from time to time to ensure compliance with the CG Code.

BASIS FOR OPINION

We conducted our audit in accordance with Hong Kong Standards on Auditing ("HKSA") issued by the HKICPA. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the "Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements" section of our report. We are independent of the Group in accordance with the HKICPA's "Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants" (the "Code"), and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the Code. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

KEY AUDIT MATTERS

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgement, were of most significance in our audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the consolidated financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

Key Audit Matter	How our audit addressed the Key Audit Matter
Impairment assessments of trade receivables and trade deposits Refer to notes 22 and 23 to the consolidated financial statements The carrying amounts of trade receivables and trade deposits, amounted to RMB17,867,000 and RMB300,000, in total represented approximately 41% of the Group's total assets as at 31 December 2021 and were therefore significant to the consolidated financial statements. Provision is made for lifetime expected credit losses on trade receivables and trade deposits. Management applied judgement in assessing the expected credit losses. Trade receivables and trade deposits have been grouped based on shared credit risk characteristics and the days past due. The expected credit loss rates are determined based on historical credit losses experienced from the past 3 years and are adjusted to reflect current and forward-looking information such as macroeconomic factors affecting the ability of the customers to settle the receivables. Trade receivables and trade deposits relating to customers with known financial difficulties or significant doubt on collection of receivables are assessed individually for provision for loss allowance. The impairment assessment of trade receivables and trade deposits require the application of judgements by management in determining their recoverability having regard to the current creditworthiness and past collection history of the Group's customers.	Our procedures in relation to management's impairment assessment included: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Obtaining an understanding of and assessing the design and implementation of management's key internal controls relating to estimation of expected credit losses; • Assessing, on a sample basis, whether items in the trade debtors' ageing report were classified within the appropriate ageing bracket by comparing individual items in the report with underlying documentation; • Discussing with management about the recoverability of amounts that were past due at the reporting date; • Obtaining an understanding of the key parameters, inputs and assumptions of the expected credit loss model adopted by management, including historical default data and estimated loss rates; • Assessing the reasonableness of management's loss allowance estimates by examining the information used by management, including historical settlement pattern, default data, past due status and likely outcome of litigation against customers for overdue amounts, any post-year-end payments received up to the date of completing our audit procedures, current market conditions and forward-looking information; and • Re-performing the calculation of the loss allowance based on the Group's credit loss allowance policies. We found that the management's impairment assessment were supportable by credible evidence.

Independent Auditor's Report

Key Audit Matter	How our audit addressed the Key Audit Matter
Impairment assessment of investment properties Refer to note 20 to the consolidated financial statements The carrying amounts of investment properties, amounted to RMB12,664,000, represented approximately 29% of the Group's total assets as at 31 December 2021 and impairment assessment of investment properties involved the use of significant judgements and estimates. Accordingly, we have identified impairment assessment of investment properties as a key audit matter. The management has determined the recoverable amounts of investment properties based on the fair value from independent valuation. The valuation is dependent on key assumptions that require significant management judgement including a comparison of market price. The management has concluded that the recoverable amounts were higher than their carrying amounts and no impairment provision was provided.	Our procedures in relation to management's impairment assessment included: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Obtaining an understanding and testing of the management's key internal controls over the impairment assessment of investment properties;• Evaluating the valuers' competence, capabilities and objectivity;• Assessing the methodologies used and the appropriateness of the key assumptions adopted;• Assessing the reasonableness of market price estimated by the external valuer based on the recent transaction prices; and• Discussing the valuations with the valuer and challenging key estimates adopted in the valuation, including those relating to market selling prices, by comparing them with available market data and taking into consideration comparability and other local market factors. We found that the management's impairment assessment were supportable by credible evidence.

OTHER INFORMATION

The directors of the Company ("Directors") are responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the Company's annual report, but does not include the consolidated financial statements and our auditor's report thereon.

Our opinion on the consolidated financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the consolidated financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the consolidated financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

DIRECTORS' RESPONSIBILITIES FOR THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The Directors are responsible for the preparation of the consolidated financial statements that give a true and fair view in accordance with HKFRSs issued by the HKICPA and the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance, and for such internal control as the Directors determine is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, the Directors are responsible for assessing the Group's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the Directors either intend to liquidate the Group or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

The Directors are also responsible for overseeing the Group's financial reporting process. The Audit Committee assists the Directors in discharging their responsibility in this regard.

AUDITOR'S RESPONSIBILITIES FOR THE AUDIT OF THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. This report is made solely to you, as a body, in accordance with the terms of our engagement, and for no other purpose. We do not assume responsibility towards or accept liability to any other person for the contents of this report.

Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with HKSA's will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with HKSA's, we exercise professional judgement and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Group's internal control.
- evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the directors.
- conclude on the appropriateness of the Directors' use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Group's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.

- evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Group to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the group audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with the Audit Committee regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide the Audit Committee with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with the Directors, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

4. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The consolidated financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention unless mentioned otherwise in the accounting policies below.

The preparation of consolidated financial statements in conformity with HKFRSs requires the use of certain critical accounting estimates. It also requires management to exercise its judgement in the process of applying the Group's accounting policies. The areas where assumptions and estimates are significant to the consolidated financial statements are disclosed in note 5.

The significant accounting policies applied in the preparation of these consolidated financial statements are set out below.

(a) Consolidation

The consolidated financial statements include the financial statements of the Company and its subsidiaries made up to 31 December. Subsidiaries are entities over which the Group has control. The Group controls an entity when it is exposed, or has rights, to variable returns from its involvement with the entity and has the ability to affect those returns through its power over the entity. The Group has power over an entity when the Group has existing rights that give it the ability to direct the relevant activities, i.e. activities that significantly affect the entity's returns.

When assessing control, the Group considers its potential voting rights as well as potential voting rights held by other parties. A potential voting right is considered only if the holder has the practical ability to exercise that right.

Subsidiaries are consolidated from the date on which control is transferred to the Group. They are deconsolidated from the date the control ceases.

The gain or loss on the disposal of a subsidiary that results in a loss of control represents the difference between (i) the fair value of the consideration of the sale plus the fair value of any investment retained in that subsidiary and (ii) the Company's share of the net assets of that subsidiary plus any remaining goodwill and any accumulated foreign currency translation reserve relating to that subsidiary.

Intra-group transactions, balances, cash flows and unrealised profits are eliminated. Unrealised losses are also eliminated unless the transaction provides evidence of an impairment of the asset transferred. Accounting policies of subsidiaries have been changed where necessary to ensure consistency with the policies adopted by the Group.

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

(a) Consolidation (Continued)

Non-controlling interests represent the equity interest in a subsidiary not attributable directly or indirectly, to the Company. Non-controlling interests are presented in the consolidated statement of financial position and consolidated statements of changes in equity. Non-controlling interests are presented in the consolidated statement of profit or loss and the consolidated statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income as an allocation of profit or loss and total comprehensive income for the year between the non-controlling interests and owners for the Company.

In the Company's statement of financial position, the investment in subsidiaries are stated at cost less impairment loss.

(b) Foreign currency translation

(i) Functional and presentation currency

Items included in the financial statements of each of the Group's entities are measured using the currency of the primary economic environment in which the entity operates (the "functional currency"). The consolidated financial statements are presented in Renminbi ("RMB"), which is the Company's presentation currency and the functional currency of the principal operating subsidiaries of the Group. The functional currency of the Company is Hong Kong dollars ("HKD"). The Directors consider that choosing RMB as the presentation currency best suits the needs of the shareholders and investors.

(ii) Transactions and balances in each entity's financial statements

Transactions in foreign currencies are translated into the functional currency on initial recognition using the exchange rates prevailing on the transaction dates. Monetary assets and liabilities in foreign currencies are translated at the exchange rates at the end of each reporting period. Gains and losses resulting from this translation policy are recognised in profit or loss.

Non-monetary items that are measured at fair value in foreign currencies are translated using the exchange rates at the dates when the fair values are determined.

When a gain or loss on a non-monetary item is recognised in other comprehensive income, any exchange component of that gain or loss is recognised in other comprehensive income. When a gain or loss on a non-monetary item is recognised in profit or loss, any exchange component of that gain or loss is recognised in profit or loss.

(b) Foreign currency translation (Continued)

(iii) Translation on consolidation

The results and financial position of all the group entities that have a functional currency different from the Company's presentation currency are translated into the Company's presentation currency as follows:

- Assets and liabilities for each statement of financial position presented are translated at the closing rate at the date of that statement of financial position;
- Income and expenses are translated at average exchange rates for the period (unless this average is not a reasonable approximation of the cumulative effect of the rates prevailing on the transaction dates, in which case income and expenses are translated at the exchange rates on the transaction dates); and
- All resulting exchange differences are recognised in other comprehensive income and accumulated in the foreign currency translation reserve.

On consolidation, exchange differences arising from the translation of monetary items that form part of the net investment in foreign entities are recognised in other comprehensive income and accumulated in the foreign currency translation reserve. When a foreign operation is sold, such exchange differences are reclassified to profit or loss as part of the gain or loss on disposal.

(c) Property, plant and equipment

Property, plant and equipment, held for supply of services, or for administrative purposes, are stated in the consolidated statement of financial position at cost, less subsequent accumulated depreciation and subsequent accumulated impairment losses, if any.

Subsequent costs are included in the asset's carrying amount or recognised as a separate asset, as appropriate, only when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with the item will flow to the Group and the cost of the item can be measured reliably. All other repairs and maintenance are recognised in profit or loss during the period in which they are incurred.

Depreciation of property, plant and equipment is calculated at rates sufficient to write off their cost less their residual values over their estimated useful lives on a straight-line basis. The principal useful lives are as follows:

Furniture and fixtures	3 to 5 years
Computers	3 to 5 years
Computer software	10 years
Leasehold improvements	Over their expected useful lives, or over the unexpired period of the lease, if shorter
Motor vehicles	5 years

The residual values, useful lives and depreciation method are reviewed and adjusted, if appropriate, at the end of each reporting period.

The gain or loss on disposal of property, plant and equipment is the difference between the net sales proceeds and the carrying amount of the relevant asset, and is recognised in profit or loss.

(d) Investment properties

Investment properties are land and/or buildings held to earn rentals and/or for capital appreciation. An investment property is measured initially at its cost including all direct costs attributable to the property.

After initial recognition, the investment property is stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and impairment losses. The depreciation is calculated using the straight-line method to allocate the cost to the residual value over its estimated useful life of 35 to 40 years or the lease term, if shorter.

The gain or loss on disposal of an investment property is the difference between the net sales proceeds and the carrying amount of the property, and is recognised in profit or loss.

4. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

(e) Leases

Definition of a lease

A contract is, or contains, a lease if the contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset for a period of time in exchange for consideration.

For contracts entered into or modified or arising from business combinations on or after the date of initial application, the Group assesses whether a contract is or contains a lease based on the definition under HKFRS 16 at inception, modification date or acquisition date, as appropriate. Such contract will not be reassessed unless the terms and conditions of the contract are subsequently changed.

The Group as a lessee

Allocation of consideration to components of a contract

For a contract that contains a lease component and one or more additional lease or non-lease components, the Group allocates the consideration in the contract to each lease component on the basis of the relative stand-alone price of the lease component and the aggregate stand-alone price of the non-lease components, including contract for acquisition of ownership interests of a property which includes both leasehold land and non-lease building components, unless such allocation cannot be made reliably.

Short-term leases and leases of low-value assets

The Group applies the short-term lease recognition exemption to leases of properties that have a lease term of 12 months or less from the commencement date and do not contain a purchase option. It also applies the recognition exemption for lease of low-value assets. Lease payments on short-term leases and leases of low-value assets are recognised as expense on a straight-line basis or another systematic basis over the lease term.

(e) Leases (Continued)

Right-of-use assets

The cost of right-of-use asset includes:

- the amount of the initial measurement of the lease liability;
- any lease payments made at or before the commencement date, less any lease incentives received;
- any initial direct costs incurred by the Group; and
- an estimate of costs to be incurred by the Group in dismantling and removing the underlying assets, restoring the site on which it is located or restoring the underlying asset to the condition required by the terms and conditions of the lease.

Right-of-use assets are measured at cost, less any accumulated depreciation and impairment losses, and adjusted for any remeasurement of lease liabilities.

Right-of-use assets in which the Group is reasonably certain to obtain ownership of the underlying leased assets at the end of the lease term are depreciated from commencement date to the end of the useful life. Otherwise, right-of-use assets are depreciated on a straight-line basis over the shorter of its estimated useful life and the lease term.

Refundable rental deposits

Refundable rental deposits paid are accounted under HKFRS 9 Financial Instruments (“HKFRS 9”) and initially measured at fair value. Adjustments to fair value at initial recognition are considered as additional lease payments and included in the cost of right-of-use assets.

Lease liabilities

At the commencement date of a lease, the Group recognises and measures the lease liability at the present value of lease payments that are unpaid at that date. In calculating the present value of lease payments, the Group uses the incremental borrowing rate at the lease commencement date if the interest rate implicit in the lease is not readily determinable.

(e) Leases (Continued)

The lease payments include:

- fixed payments (including in-substance fixed payments) less any lease incentives receivable;
- variable lease payments that depend on an index or a rate, initially measured using the index or rate as at the commencement date;
- amounts expected to be payable by the Group under residual value guarantees;
- the exercise price of a purchase option if the Group is reasonably certain to exercise the option; and
- payments of penalties for terminating a lease, if the lease term reflects the Group exercising an option to terminate the lease.

After the commencement date, lease liabilities are adjusted by interest accretion and lease payments.

The Group remeasures lease liabilities (and makes a corresponding adjustment to the related right-of-use assets) whenever:

- the lease term has changed or there is a change in the assessment of exercise of a purchase option, in which case the related lease liability is remeasured by discounting the revised lease payments using a revised discount rate at the date of reassessment.
- the lease payments change due to changes in market rental rates following a market rent review or a change in expected payment under a residual value guarantee, in which cases the related lease liability is remeasured by discounting the revised lease payments using the initial discount rate.

Lease modifications

The Group accounts for a lease modification as a separate lease if:

- the modification increases the scope of the lease by adding the right to use one or more underlying assets; and
- the consideration for the leases increases by an amount commensurate with the stand-alone price for the increase in scope and any appropriate adjustments to that stand-alone price to reflect the circumstances of the particular contract.

For a lease modification that is not accounted for as a separate lease, the Group remeasures the lease liability based on the lease term of the modified lease by discounting the revised lease payments using a revised discount rate at the effective date of the modification.

The Group accounts for the remeasurement of lease liabilities and lease incentives from lessor by making corresponding adjustments to the relevant right-of-use asset. When the modified contract contains a lease component and one or more additional lease or non-lease components, the Group allocates the consideration in the modified contract to each lease component on the basis of the relative stand-alone price of the lease component and the aggregate stand-alone price of the non-lease components.

The Group as a lessor

When the Group acts as a lessor, it classifies at lease inception (or when there is a lease modification) each of its leases as either an operating lease or a finance lease. Leases in which the Group does not transfer substantially all the risks and rewards incidental to ownership of an asset are classified as operating leases. Rental income recognised in accordance with note 4(k)(iv).

Allocation of consideration of a contract

When a contract contains lease and non-lease components, the Group applies HKFRS 15 to allocate the consideration in the contract to each component on a relative stand-alone selling price basis.

Refundable rental deposits

Refundable rental deposits received are accounted for under HKFRS 9 and initially measured at fair value. Adjustments to fair value at initial recognition are considered as additional lease payments from lessees.

(e) Leases (Continued)

Lease modification

Changes in considerations of lease contracts that were not part of the original terms and conditions are accounted for as lease modification, including lease incentives provided through forgiveness or reduction of rentals.

The Group accounts for a modification to an operating lease as a new lease from the effective date of modification, considering any prepaid or accrued lease payments relating to the original lease as part of the lease payments for the new lease.

(f) Golf club membership

Golf club membership with indefinite useful life is stated at cost less any impairment losses. Impairment is reviewed annually or when there is any indication that the golf club membership has suffered an impairment loss.

Gains and losses arising from disposal of golf club membership, measured as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the Golf club membership, is recognised in profit or loss.

(g) Financial Instruments

(i) Financial assets

Financial assets (unless it is a trade receivable without a significant financing component) are initially stated at fair value plus directly attributable transaction costs, except for those investments measured at fair value through profit or loss (FVPL) for which transaction costs are recognised directly in profit or loss. A trade receivable without a significant financing component is initially measured at the transaction price. These financial assets are subsequently accounted for as follows, depending on their classification.

Financial assets held by the group are classified into one of the following measurement categories:

- amortised cost, if the financial asset is held for the collection of contractual cash flows which represent solely payments of principal and interest. Interest income from the investment is calculated using the effective interest method. Interest income, foreign exchange gains or losses and impairment are recognised in profit or loss. Any gain on de-recognition is recognised in profit or loss.

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

(i) Financial assets (continued)

- fair value through other comprehensive income (FVOCI)-recycling, if the contractual cash flows of the asset comprise solely payments of principal and interest and the investment is held within a business model whose objective is achieved by both the collection of contractual cash flows and sale. Changes in fair value are recognised in other comprehensive income, except for the recognition in profit or loss of expected credit losses, interest income (calculated using the effective interest method) and foreign exchange gains and losses. When the investment is derecognised, the amount accumulated in other comprehensive income is recycled from equity to profit or loss.
- fair value through profit or loss (FVPL) if the investment does not meet the criteria for being measured at amortised cost or FVOCI (recycling). Changes in the fair value of the investment (including interest) are recognised in profit or loss.

(ii) Impairment loss on financial assets at amortised cost

The Group recognises loss allowances for expected credit loss (“ECL”) on trade receivables and financial assets measured at amortised cost. The ECL are measured on either of the following bases: (1) 12 months ECL: these are the ECL that result from possible default events within the 12 months after the reporting date; and (2) lifetime ECL: these are ECL that result from all possible default events over the expected life of a financial asset. The maximum period considered when estimating ECL is the maximum contractual period over which the Group is exposed to credit risk.

ECL are a probability-weighted estimate of credit losses. Credit losses are measured as the difference between all contractual cash flows that are due to the Group and the cash flows that the Group expects to receive. The shortfall is then discounted at an approximation to the assets’ original effective interest rate.

The Group has elected to measure loss allowances for trade receivables using HKFRS 9 simplified approach and has calculated ECL based on lifetime ECL. The Group has established a provision matrix that is based on the Group’s historical credit loss experience, adjusted for forward-looking factors specific to the debtors and the economic environment. For trade receivables relating to customers with known financial difficulties or significant doubt on collection of receivables are assessed individually for provision for impairment allowance.

For other financial assets, the ECL are based on the 12-months ECL. However, when there has been a significant increase in credit risk since origination, the allowance will be based on the lifetime ECL.

(g) Financial Instruments (continued)

In assessing whether the credit risk on a financial asset has increased significantly since initial recognition, the Group compares the risk of a default occurring on the financial asset as at the reporting date with the risk of a default occurring on the financial asset as at the date of initial recognition. In making this assessment, the Group considers both quantitative and qualitative information that is reasonable and supportable, including historical experience and forward-looking information that is available without undue cost or effort. Forward-looking information considered includes the future prospects of the industries in which the Group's debtors operate, as well as consideration of various external sources of actual and forecast economic information that relate to the Group's business.

(iii) Financial liabilities at amortised cost

Financial liabilities at amortised cost, including accruals and other payables are initially recognised at fair value, net of directly attributable transaction costs incurred and are subsequently measured at amortised cost, using the effective interest method. The related interest expense is recognised in profit or loss.

Gains or losses are recognised in profit or loss when the liabilities are derecognised as well as through the amortisation process.

(iv) Effective interest method

The effective interest method is a method of calculating the amortised cost of a financial asset or financial liability and of allocating interest income or interest expense over the relevant period. The effective interest rate is the rate that exactly discounts estimated future cash receipts or payments through the expected life of the financial asset or liability, or where appropriate, a shorter period.

(v) Equity instruments

Equity instruments issued by the Company are recorded at the proceeds received, net of direct issue costs.

(vi) Derecognition

The Group derecognises a financial asset when the contractual rights to the future cash flows in relation to the financial asset expire or when the financial asset has been transferred and the transfer meets the criteria for derecognition in accordance with HKFRS 9.

Financial liabilities are derecognised when the obligation specified in the relevant contract is discharged, cancelled or has expired.

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

4. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

(h) Trade and other receivables

Trade receivables are amounts due from customers for services performed in the ordinary course of business. If collection of trade and other receivables is expected in one year or less (or in the normal operating cycle of the business if longer), they are classified as current assets. If not, they are presented as non-current assets.

Trade and other receivables are recognised initially at fair value and subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method, less allowance for impairment.

(i) Trade deposits

Trade deposits are required to be placed with property developers as security for the continuing performance of the Group under the relevant agency contracts. These deposits will be refunded when the Group is compliant with the prescribed terms in the underlying agency contracts.

The deposits can be forfeited if the Group fails to achieve the prescribed terms in some underlying agency contracts. At the end of each reporting period, an assessment of the performance of each property service assignment will be made. An impairment against the trade deposit will be made, on an individual basis, when the prescribed terms in the agency contracts are unlikely to be attained, within the timeframe specified in the underlying contracts, taking into consideration of current market conditions. This impairment is determined based on the present value of the estimated future cash flows that will be released when the Group is compliant with the prescribed terms in the agency contract and the deposit becomes refundable unconditionally.

(j) Cash and cash equivalents

For the purpose of the statement of cash flows, cash and cash equivalents represent cash at bank and on hand, demand deposits with banks and other financial institutions, and short-term highly liquid investments which are readily convertible into known amounts of cash and subject to an insignificant risk of change in value.

(k) Revenue recognition

Revenue from contracts with customers is recognised when control of goods or services is transferred to the customers at an amount that reflects the consideration to which the Group expects to be entitled in exchange for those goods or services, excluding those amounts collected on behalf of third parties. Revenue excludes value added tax or other sales taxes and is after deduction of any trade discounts.

(k) Revenue recognition (Continued)

Depending on the terms of the contract and the laws that apply to the contract, control of the goods or services may be transferred over time or at a point in time. Control of the goods or services is transferred over time if the Group's performance:

- provides all of the benefits received and consumed simultaneously by the customer;
- creates or enhances an asset that the customer controls as the Group performs; or
- does not create an asset with an alternative use to the Group and the Group has an enforceable right to payment for performance completed to date.

If control of the goods or services transfers over time, revenue is recognised over the period of the contract by reference to the progress towards complete satisfaction of that performance obligation. Otherwise, revenue is recognised at a point in time when the customer obtains control of the goods or service.

(i) Comprehensive property consultancy and sales agency services

Revenue is recognised at a point in time when the service is rendered and the property buyer has executed the sales and purchase agreement and made the required down payment according to the terms and conditions stated in agency agreements. There is generally only one performance obligation for property agency services.

(ii) Pure property planning and consultancy service projects

Revenue is recognised over time, over the period of the agency contracts with reference to the progress towards complete satisfaction of that performance obligation. The relevant stages as stipulated in the contracts include the followings:

- (i) Completion of a property development consultancy report on a project which includes a land search report, analysis of the investment return, feasibility study and/or advice on the project planning and design;
- (ii) Completion of a marketing planning report on a project which includes advice on the market positioning of the relevant properties and/or representing the customer to undertake the project negotiation; and
- (iii) Completion of a promotion planning report on a project which includes sales strategies, suggesting selling prices and plans for sales promotion for the relevant properties.

There is generally only one performance obligation.

(k) Revenue recognition (Continued)

(iii) Interest income

Interest income is recognised as it accrues using the effective interest method.

(iv) Rental income

Rental income under operating leases is recognised in profit or loss in equal instalments over the periods covered by the lease term.

(l) Government grants

Government grants are not recognised until there is reasonable assurance that the Group will comply with the conditions attaching to them and that the grants will be received.

Government grants are recognised in profit or loss on a systematic basis over the periods in which the Group recognised as expenses the related costs for which the grants are intended to compensate.

Government grants related to income that are receivable as compensation for expenses or losses already incurred or for the purpose of giving immediate financial support to the Group with no future related costs are recognised in profit or loss in the period in which they become receivable. Such grants are presented under “other income”.

(m) Employee benefits

(i) Employee leave entitlements

Employee entitlements to annual leave and long service leave are recognised when they accrue to employees. A provision is made for the estimated liability for annual leave and long service leave as a result of services rendered by employees up to the end of the reporting period.

Employee entitlements to sick leave and maternity leave are not recognised until the time of leave.

(ii) Pension obligations

The Group contributes to defined contribution retirement schemes which are available to all employees. Contributions to the schemes by the Group and employees are calculated as a percentage of employees’ basic salaries. The retirement benefit scheme cost charged to profit or loss represents contributions payable by the Group to the funds.

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

(m) Employee benefits (Continued)

(iii) Termination benefits

Termination benefits are recognised at the earlier of the dates when the Group can no longer withdraw the offer of those benefits, and when the Group recognises restructuring costs and involves the payment of termination benefits.

(n) Share-based payments

The Group incurs equity-settled share-based payments expenses for options to subscribe the Company's shares issued to certain directors and employees. Equity-settled share-based payments are measured at the fair value (excluding the effect of non market-based vesting conditions) of the equity instruments at the date of grant. The fair value determined at the grant date of the equity-settled share-based payments is expensed on a straight-line basis over the vesting period, based on the Group's estimate of shares that will eventually vest and adjusted for the effect of non market-based vesting conditions.

(o) Taxation

Income tax represents the sum of the current tax and deferred tax.

The tax currently payable is based on taxable profit for the year. Taxable profit or adjusted loss differs from profit or loss before tax recognised in profit or loss because of items of income or expense that are taxable or deductible in other years and items that are never taxable or deductible. The Group's liability for current tax is calculated using tax rates that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period.

Deferred tax is recognised on differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities in the consolidated financial statements and the corresponding tax bases used in the computation of taxable profit. Deferred tax liabilities are generally recognised for all taxable temporary differences and deferred tax assets are recognised to the extent that it is probable that taxable profits will be available against which deductible temporary differences, unused tax losses or unused tax credits can be utilised. Such assets and liabilities are not recognised if the temporary differences arise from goodwill or from the initial recognition (other than in a business combination) of other assets and liabilities in a transaction that affects neither the taxable profit nor the accounting profit.

Deferred tax liabilities are recognised for taxable temporary differences arising on investments in subsidiaries, except where the Group is able to control the reversal of the temporary differences and it is probable that the temporary differences will not reverse in the foreseeable future.

The carrying amount of deferred tax assets is reviewed at the end of each reporting period and reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profits will be available to allow all or part of the assets to be recovered.

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

(o) Taxation (Continued)

Deferred tax is calculated at the tax rates that are expected to apply in the period when the liability is settled or the asset is realised, based on tax rates that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period. Deferred tax is recognised in profit or loss, except when it relates to items recognised in other comprehensive income or directly to equity, in which case the deferred tax is also recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity.

The measurement of deferred tax assets and liabilities reflects the tax consequences that would follow from the manner in which the Group expects, at the end of the reporting period, to recover or settle the carrying amount of its assets and liabilities.

For the purposes of measuring deferred tax for leasing transactions in which the Group recognises the right-of-use assets and the related lease liabilities, the Group first determines whether the tax deductions are attributable to the right-of-use assets or the lease liabilities.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset when there is a legally enforceable right to set off current tax assets against current tax liabilities and when they relate to income taxes levied by the same taxation authority and the Group intends to settle its current tax assets and liabilities on a net basis.

(p) Impairment of non-financial assets

The carrying amounts of non-financial assets are reviewed at each reporting date for indications of impairment and where an asset is impaired, it is written down as an expense through the consolidated statement of profit or loss to its estimated recoverable amount. The recoverable amount is determined for an individual asset, unless the asset does not generate cash inflows that are largely independent of those from other assets or groups of assets. If this is the case, recoverable amount is determined for the cash-generating unit to which the asset belongs. Recoverable amount is the higher of value in use and the fair value less costs of disposal of the individual asset or the cash-generating unit.

Value in use is the present value of the estimated future cash flows of the asset/cash-generating unit. Present values are computed using pre-tax discount rates that reflect the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset/cash-generating unit whose impairment is being measured.

Impairment losses for cash-generating units are allocated first against the goodwill of the unit and then pro rata amongst the other assets of the cash-generating unit. Subsequent increases in the recoverable amount caused by changes in estimates are credited to profit or loss to the extent that they reverse the impairment.

(q) Provisions and contingent liabilities

Provisions are recognised for liabilities of uncertain timing or amount when the Group has a present legal or constructive obligation arising as a result of a past event, it is probable that an outflow of economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation and a reliable estimate can be made. Where the time value of money is material, provisions are stated at the present value of the expenditures expected to settle the obligation.

Where it is not probable that an outflow of economic benefits will be required, or the amount cannot be estimated reliably, the obligation is disclosed as a contingent liability, unless the probability of outflow is remote. Possible obligations, whose existence will only be confirmed by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more future events are also disclosed as contingent liabilities unless the probability of outflow is remote.

(r) Events after the reporting period

Events after the reporting period that provide additional information about the Group's position at the end of the reporting period are adjusting events and are reflected in the consolidated financial statements. Events after the reporting period that are not adjusting events are disclosed in the notes to the consolidated financial statements when material.

(s) Related parties

- (a) A person or a close member of that person's family, is related to the Group if that person:
 - (i) has control or joint control over the Group;

- (b) An entity is related to the Group if any of the following conditions applies:
 - (i) The entity and the Group are members of the same group (which means that each parent, subsidiary and fellow subsidiary is related to the others).
 - (ii) One entity is an associate or joint venture of the other entity (or an associate or joint venture of a member of a group of which the other entity is a member).
 - (iii) Both entities are joint ventures of the same third party.

- (viii) The entity, or any member of a group of which it is a part, provides key management personnel services to the Group or to the Group's parent.

Close members of the family of a person are those family members who may be expected to influence, or be influenced by, that person in their dealings with the entity and include:

- (i) that person's children and spouse or domestic partner;
- (ii) children of that person's spouse or domestic partner; and
- (iii) dependents of that person or that person's spouse or domestic partner.

5. KEY SOURCES OF ESTIMATION UNCERTAINTY

The key assumptions concerning the future, and other key sources of estimation uncertainty at the end of the reporting period, that have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next financial year, are discussed below:

(a) Useful lives of property, plant and equipment and investment properties

The Group determines the estimated useful lives, residual values and related depreciation charges for the Group's property, plant and equipment and investment properties. These estimates are based on the historical experience of the actual useful lives and residual values of property, plant and equipment and investment properties of similar nature and functions. The Group will revise the depreciation charge when useful lives and residual values are different to those previously estimated, or it will write off or write down technically obsolete or non-strategic assets that have been abandoned.

The carrying amount of property, plant and equipment and investment properties as at 31 December 2021 were approximately RMB839,000 and RMB12,664,000 respectively (2020: RMB1,043,000 and RMB12,681,000 respectively).

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

5. KEY SOURCES OF ESTIMATION UNCERTAINTY (Continued)

(b) Allowance for trade receivables

The Group makes allowance for trade receivables based on assumptions about risk of default and expected loss rates (Note 6(b)). The Group uses judgement in making these assumptions and selecting the inputs to the impairment calculation, based on the Group's past history, existing market conditions as well as forward-looking estimates at the end of a reporting period.

As at 31 December 2021, accumulated allowance for ECL of trade receivables amounted to approximately RMB1,983,000 (2020: RMB460,000).

(c) Income taxes

The Group is subject to income taxes in several jurisdictions. Significant estimates are required in determining the provision for income taxes. There are many transactions and calculations for which the ultimate tax determination is uncertain during the ordinary course of business. Where the final tax outcome of these matters is different from the amounts that were initially recorded, such differences will impact the income tax and deferred tax provisions in the period in which such determination is made.

6. FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT

The Group's activities expose it to a variety of financial risks: foreign currency risk, credit risk, liquidity risk and interest rate risk. The Group's overall risk management programme focuses on the unpredictability of financial markets and seeks to minimise potential adverse effects on the Group's financial performance.

(a) Foreign currency risk

The Group has limited exposure to foreign currency risk as most of its business transactions, assets and liabilities, except for fixed bank deposits and bank and cash balances denominated in the United States Dollars ("USD"), are principally denominated in the functional currency of the Group entities. The Group currently does not have a foreign currency hedging policy in respect of foreign currency transactions, assets and liabilities. The Group monitors its foreign currency exposure closely and will consider hedging significant foreign currency exposure should the need arise.

At 31 December 2021, if the RMB had weakened or strengthened by 5% (2020: 5%) against the USD, with all other variables held constant, the consolidated loss after tax for the year would have been approximately RMB369,000 lower or higher (2020: profit after tax would have been approximately RMB492,000 higher or lower), arising mainly as a result of the foreign exchange difference on fixed bank deposits and bank and cash balances denominated in USD.

6. FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT (Continued)

(b) Credit risk and impairment assessment

The Group's credit risk is primarily attributable to its trade receivables and trade deposits. The average credit period granted to customers for trade receivables is 90 days. The refund of trade deposits is in accordance with the terms of the underlying agency agreement. In order to minimise credit risk, the Directors have delegated a team to be responsible for the determination of credit limits, credit approvals and other monitoring procedures to ensure that follow-up actions are taken to recover overdue debts on a regular basis. In addition, the Directors review the recoverable amount of each individual trade debt and trade deposit regularly to ensure that adequate impairment losses are recognised for irrecoverable debts. In this regard, the Directors consider that the Group's credit risk is significantly reduced.

The Group has significant concentration of credit risk on its trade receivables and trade deposits as the Group's largest customer accounted for approximately 34% (2020: 32%) and five largest customers accounted for approximately 89% (2020: 79%) of the trade receivables and trade deposits at the end of reporting period.

Trade receivables and other financial assets at amortised cost are subject to the expected credit loss model.

Trade receivables

The Group applies the HKFRS 9 simplified approach to measure expected credit losses which uses a lifetime expected loss allowance for all trade receivables. The Group measures expected credit losses on a combination of both individual and collective basis.

Measurement of expected credit loss

Receivables relating to customers with known financial difficulties or significant doubt on collection are assessed individually for the provision for an impairment allowance.

Expected credit losses are estimated by grouping the remaining receivables based on shared credit risk characteristics and collectively assessed for the likelihood of recovery, taking into account the nature of the customer, its geographical location and its ageing category, and applying the expected credit loss rates to the respective gross carrying amounts of the receivables.

The following table provides information about the Group's exposure to credit risk and ECLs for trade receivables as at 31 December 2021:

	Expected loss rate (%)	Gross carrying amount (RMB'000)	Loss allowance (RMB'000)
Provision on individual basis	72.8	2,477	1,804
Provision on collective basis
Current (not past due)	0	8,018	–
Up to 3 months past due	1.8	4,791	84
4 to 9 months past due	2.1	4,137	85
10 to 21 months past due	2.4	427	10
		19,850	1,983

The following table provides information about the Group's exposure to credit risk and ECLs for trade receivables as at 31 December 2020:

	Expected loss rate (%)	Gross carrying amount (RMB'000)	Loss allowance RMB'000)
Provision on individual basis	63.8	549	354
Provision on collective basis
Current (not past due)	0	9,602	–
Up to 3 months past due	1.7	2,083	35
4 to 9 months past due	2.0	2,765	55
10 to 21 months past due	2.4	678	16
		15,677	460

Expected loss rates are based on historical pattern from the past 3 years, time value of money where appropriate and forward-looking information with reference to general macroeconomic conditions that may affect the ability of the debtors to settle the trade receivables. These rates are adjusted to reflect differences between economic conditions during the period over which the historic data has been collected, current conditions and the Group's view of economic conditions over the expected lives of the receivables.

Further quantitative disclosures in respect of the Group's exposure to credit risk arising from trade receivables and trade deposits are set out in notes 22 and 23 respectively to the consolidated financial statements.

Other financial assets

Measurement of expected credit loss

Loss allowance for other financial assets at amortised cost, which mainly comprise of other receivables, are measured on a 12-month ECL basis. As at 31 December 2021, the balance of loss allowance in respect of other financial assets at amortised cost was RMBNil (2020: RMBNil).

The credit risk on bank and cash balances and fixed bank deposits are limited because the counterparties are banks with high credit-ratings assigned by international credit-rating agencies.

(c) Liquidity risk

The Group's policy is to regularly monitor current and expected liquidity requirements to ensure that it maintains sufficient reserves of cash to meet its liquidity requirements in the short and longer term.

The table below analyses the Group's non-derivative financial liabilities into relevant maturity groupings based on the remaining period at the reporting date to the contractual maturity date. The amounts disclosed in the table below are the contractual undiscounted cash flows.

(d) Interest rate risk

The Group is exposed to fair value interest rate risk in relation to lease liabilities. The Group's exposure to cash flow interest rate risk arises from its bank balances and bank deposits. The loan from a related company, bank balances and fixed bank deposits bear interest at variable rates which vary with the prevailing market condition. The management is of opinion that the Group's exposure to interest rate risk is minimal since fluctuation of interest rates of lease liabilities, loan from a related company, bank balances and fixed bank deposits is expected to be insignificant. Accordingly, no interest rate risk sensitivity is presented.

15. RETIREMENT BENEFIT SCHEMES

The Group operates a mandatory provident fund scheme (the “MPF Scheme”) under the Hong Kong Mandatory Provident Fund Schemes Ordinance for all qualifying employees in Hong Kong. The Group’s contributions to the MPF Scheme are calculated at 5% of the salaries and wages subject to a monthly maximum amount of contribution of HK$1,500 per employee and vest fully with the employees when contributed into the MPF Scheme.

The employees of the Group’s subsidiaries established in the PRC are members of a central pension scheme (the “PRC Pension Scheme”) operated by the local municipal government. Each subsidiary is required to contribute certain percentage of the employees’ basic salaries and wages to the central pension scheme to fund the retirement benefits. The local municipal government undertakes to assume the retirement benefits obligations of all existing and future retired employees of this subsidiary. The only obligation of the subsidiaries with respect to the central pension scheme is to meet the required contributions under the scheme.

During the years ended 31 December 2020 and 2021, there were no contributions forfeited by the Group on behalf of its employees who leave the plan prior to vesting fully in such contribution to MPF Scheme and PRC Pension Scheme, nor had there been any utilisation of such forfeited contributions to reduce future contributions. As at 31 December 2020 and 2021, no forfeited contributions were available for utilization by the Group to reduce the existing level of contributions.

16. DIVIDEND

No dividend was paid or proposed for ordinary shareholders of the Company during year ended 31 December 2021, nor has any dividend been proposed since the end of the reporting period (2020: Nil).

17. (LOSS)/EARNINGS PER SHARE

(a) Basic (loss)/earnings per share

The calculation of basic (loss)/earnings per share attributable to owners of the Company is based on the loss for the year attributable to owners of the Company of approximately RMB2,910,000 (2020: profit of RMB58,000) and the number of ordinary shares of 246,183,390 (2020: 246,183,390) shares in issue during the year.

(b) Diluted (loss)/earnings per share

The computation of diluted (loss)/earnings per share does not assume the exercise of the Company’s outstanding share options since their exercise would result in a decrease in loss per share or increase in earnings per share. Therefore, diluted (loss)/earnings per share is the same as the basic (loss)/earnings per share for the years ended 31 December 2021 and 2020.

20. INVESTMENT PROPERTIES (Continued)

(b) Valuation processes of the Group

The Group obtained independent valuation from Asset Appraisal Limited, a member of the Hong Kong Institute of Surveyors, for its investment properties at least annually. For all investment properties, their current use equates to the highest and best use. Asset Appraisal Limited is of the opinion that the fair values of Group's investment properties would be approximately RMB26,170,000 as at 31 December 2021 (2020: approximately RMB26,240,000).

The Group's management is responsible for the fair value measurement of investment properties required for financial reporting purpose. At each financial year-end the management assesses property valuation movement when compared to the prior year valuation report and holds discussion with the independent valuer on the valuation methodology.

(c) Valuation techniques

Fair values of investment properties are generally derived using the direct comparison method. This valuation method is based on the price information of comparable properties. Comparable properties of similar size, character and location are analysed and carefully weighed against all the respective advantages and disadvantages of each property in order to arrive at a fair comparison of market values. There were no changes in the valuation techniques used for both the years ended 31 December 2021 and 2020.

(d) Significant inputs used to determine fair value

As at 31 December 2021, the key assumptions adopted in the valuation in determining fair value were in the following ranges for the Group's portfolio of properties:

Significant observable inputs	Range	Effect on fair value for increase of inputs	Fair value 2021	2020
Price per square metre	RMB4,800 to RMB25,600 (2020: RMB4,639 to RMB23,100)	Increase (2020: increase)	RMB26,170,000	RMB26,240,000

(e) Leasing arrangements

The Group leases out investment properties under operating leases. The leases typically run for an initial period of 1 to 2 years, with an option to renew the lease upon expiry at which time all terms are renegotiated. None of the leases included variable lease payments.

Undiscounted lease payments under non-cancellable operating leases in place at the reporting date will be receivable by the Group in future periods as follows:

	2021 RMB'000	2020 RMB'000
Within 1 year	91	38
After 1 year but within 2 years	13	11
	104	49
