Rules for Equity Management of Bank of Jinzhou Co., Ltd.
(2022 Version)

Chapter I General Provisions

Article 1 To strengthen equity management in the Bank of Jinzhou Co., Ltd. (the “Bank”), regulate the acts of shareholders of the Bank, protect the lawful interests of the Bank, depositors and other customers, and safeguard the lawful interests of shareholders of the Bank, these Rules have been established in accordance with the laws and regulations, including the Company Law of the People’s Republic of China, the Banking Supervision Law of the People’s Republic of China, the Law of the People’s Republic of China on Commercial Banks, the Corporate Governance Guidelines for Banking and Insurance Institutions, the Interim Measures for the Equity Management of Commercial Banks, the Measures for the Supervision of the Behavior of Major Shareholders of Banking and Insurance Institutions (Trial) and the requirements of the Articles of Association of Bank of Jinzhou Co., Ltd. (the “Articles of Association”).

Article 2 These Rules are applicable to the ordinary shares (the “shares”) of the Bank, and the relevant laws and regulations are applicable to the equity management of preference shares.

Article 3 The Bank follows the principles of classification management, good quality, clarity of relationship, definite rights and obligations, openness and transparency in equity management.

Chapter II Rights and Obligations of Shareholders

Article 4 If any investor and its connected persons or parties acting in concert who intend to hold, solely or jointly, for the first time or in aggregate upon share purchase, above 5% of the total capital or total number of shares of the Bank, it shall inform the Bank in advance and upon the consideration and approval by the Board of Directors of the Bank, report to the China Banking and Insurance Regulatory Commission (the “CBIRC”) or its delegated authority for approval.

Article 5 If any investor and its connected persons or parties acting in concert who hold, solely or jointly, above 1% but less than 5% of the total capital or total number of shares of the Bank, the Bank shall report to the CBIRC or its delegated authority within 10 business days after the corresponding equity interest has been acquired. If an investor acquires equity in domestic shares, the secretary of the Board of Directors of the Bank shall organize relevant departments to conduct preliminary examination and submit to the chairman of the Bank for approval before the equity change procedures for relevant investors and shareholders. The Bank shall report to the CBIRC or its delegated authority within ten working days after the completion of the change procedures. If the investor acquires equity in H-shares, he/she shall promptly inform the Bank and fulfill the obligation of equity disclosure in accordance with the regulations. The Bank shall report to the CBIRC or its delegated authority within ten working days upon the acquisition of the corresponding equity by the investors.

If the investor and its related parties or parties acting in concert individually or collectively hold less than 1% of the total amount of shares of the Bank, the change in equity of its domestic shares shall be handled in accordance with the procedures specified in the preceding article, and no report is required, and the change in equity of its H-shares shall be implemented in accordance with the rules of the Stock Exchange.

Article 6 The shareholders of the Bank shall use their own funds to acquire shares of the Bank, and ensure that the sources of funds are legal. Unless otherwise provided by laws and regulations, they shall not use entrusted funds, debt funds or other non-self-owned funds to acquire shares of the Bank. The Bank or its branches or subsidiaries shall not provide any financial assistance in the form of gifts, advances, guarantees, compensation or loans for the purchase or proposed purchase of the Shares of the Bank. The shareholders of the Bank shall not entrust the others or be entrusted by the others to hold shares of the Bank.

Article 7 The shareholders of the Bank shall have good social reputation, integrity record, tax records and financial status, and shall continuously meet the requirements of laws, regulations, regulatory requirements and the conditions stipulated in the Articles of Association. The shareholders of the Bank and their controlling shareholders, actual controllers, related parties, acting parties and ultimate beneficiaries shall have clear and transparent relationships.

Article 8 Shareholders of the Bank are entitled to enjoy rights and assume obligations according to the class of shares held by them and strictly in accordance with laws, regulations, regulatory requirements and provisions of the Bank's Articles of Association. The Bank's directors, supervisors, senior management officers and their connected persons who hold shares of the Bank shall also comply with the requirements of laws and regulations for managing equity interest held by directors, supervisors and senior management. When the Bank's shareholders transfer their equity interests in the Bank, they shall inform the transferee that they are required to comply with the laws, regulations, regulatory requirements and the conditions under the Articles of Association and to assume the relevant shareholder responsibilities.

Article 9 Shareholders of the Bank shall comply with laws and regulations and the relevant requirements of CBIRC for connected transactions, they shall not conduct improper connected transactions with the Bank, or derive improper gains by using their influence over the operational management of the Bank.

Article 10 If serious risk events or serious violations of laws and regulations have occurred in the Bank, and measures such as risk disposal or receivership are adopted by the CBIRC or its delegated authority, then the shareholders should actively cooperate with the CBIRC or its delegated authority to conduct such risk disposal or other tasks.

Article 11 Shareholders have the right to safeguard their legal interests through civil litigation or other legal means in accordance with the laws and regulations, and may reflect the relevant matters to the regulator.

Chapter III Special Provisions for Substantial Shareholders

Article 12 Substantial shareholders of the Bank refer to shareholders who hold or control above 5% shares or voting rights of the Bank, or who hold less than 5% of total capital or total number of shares but have material influence on the operational management of the Bank.

“Material influence” in the preceding provision includes but is not limited to designating directors, supervisors or senior management officers to station in the Bank, influencing the Bank’s financial and operational management decisions through agreements or other forms of influence, and other scenarios confirmed by the CBIRC or its delegated authority.

Substantial shareholders of the Bank shall hold the shares of the Bank in accordance with relevant laws, regulations and regulatory documents.

Article 13 When a substantial shareholder acquires shares, he should provide an undertaking in writing to promise compliance with laws and regulations, regulatory requirements and Articles of Association, and gives an explanation on the purpose of buying into the Bank. A substantial shareholder of the Bank shall describe his/her shareholding structure level by level until the de facto controller or ultimate beneficiaries, and his/her connected relationship or acting in concert relationship with other shareholders, and the Bank shall be promptly informed of any changes in the aforementioned shareholding structure and connected relationship or acting in concert relationship. Substantial shareholders of the Bank shall not transfer their equity interests in the Bank within five years from the date of acquisition of equity interests in the Bank.

Article 14 Unless otherwise required under laws and regulations, the same investor and its connected persons or parties acting in concert shall not invest in more than two (2) commercial banks in the capacity of a substantial shareholder, or shall not invest in more than one (1) commercial bank as a controlling shareholder.

Article 15 Any substantial shareholder of the Bank and his/her controlling shareholder or de facto controller must not involve in any of the following events:

- (1) named as joint subject of punishment by the relevant authority for breach of trust;

- (2) serious default of escaping from bank liabilities;
- (3) provision of false materials or misrepresentation;
- (4) responsible for serious liabilities in the operation failure of a commercial bank or committed serious violations in laws and regulations;
- (5) refuse or obstruct the implementation of regulatory measures by the CBIRC or its delegated authority in accordance with the laws;
- (6) subject to investigation or punishment by the financial regulatory authority or relevant government department that resulted in extremely bad impact;
- (7) other events which may have adverse effects on the operational management of the Bank.

Article 16 Substantial shareholders of the Bank shall exercise their rights as capital contributors and perform the obligations of capital contributors strictly in accordance with laws and regulations, regulatory requirements and Articles of Association of the Bank, they shall not abuse the use of shareholders' rights to interfere with, or use their influence to affect, the decision-making and management rights of the Board of Directors and the senior management under the Articles of Association, they shall not by-pass the Board of Directors and the senior management to directly interfere with, or use their influence to interfere with, the operational management of the Bank, to convey benefits, or otherwise to harm the lawful interest of depositors, the Bank and other shareholders.

Article 17 Unless otherwise provided by laws and regulations or otherwise required by regulation, each substantial shareholder of the Bank shall make an undertaking in writing according to regulatory requirements to inject additional capital to the Bank for capital restoration when necessary, and shall report to the CBIRC or its delegated authority through the Bank on annual basis about his/her capital restoration ability.

Article 18 Substantial shareholders of the Bank shall establish an effective risk segregation mechanism to prevent risks from spreading and transferring among the shareholders, the Bank and other connected entities.

Article 19 Substantial shareholders of the Bank shall exercise effective management on cross-employment between their members of the Board of Directors, members of the Board of Supervisors and senior management officers and those of the Bank and other connected entities to avoid conflict of interests.

Article 20 The substantial shareholders of the Bank shall timely, accurately and completely report the following information to the Bank:

- (1) their own operating conditions, financial information and shareholding structure;

- (2) the source of funds for capital investment in the Bank;
- (3) the controlling shareholders, de facto controllers, connected persons, parties acting in concert, ultimate beneficiaries and their changes and movements;
- (4) litigation security measures or enforcement action taken on equity interest of the Bank held by them;
- (5) pledge or discharge of equity interest of the Bank held by them;
- (6) name change;
- (7) merger and spin-off;
- (8) regulatory measures adopted, such as order to cease operation for reorganization, appointment of trustee, receiver or cancellation, or commencement of dissolution, bankruptcy or liquidation proceedings;
- (9) other changes which may affect the qualification of shareholders or circumstances causing changes to equity interest of the Bank held by them.

Article 21 Substantial shareholders of the Bank shall faithfully make and fulfill commitments in accordance with relevant laws and regulations and regulatory requirements, and the commitments made by substantial shareholders shall be accurate, standardized and enforceable. The commitments made by the major shareholders of the corporate entities shall be subject to the necessary internal approval procedures such as the internal approval procedures of the board meeting or the general meeting in accordance with the laws and regulations, regulatory requirements and the Articles of Association. The substantial shareholders of the Bank shall actively cooperate with the CBIRC or its delegated authority and the Bank in conducting the assessment of the shareholder's commitment.

Article 22 The substantial shareholders of the Bank shall actively fulfill the due diligence commitments such as capital replenishment, liquidity support, and cooperate with the banking and insurance institution in the disposal of risks in accordance with regulatory requirements. The substantial shareholders shall promptly inform the Bank of the specific circumstances and reasons and shall not prevent other investors from taking reasonable plans to invest in the Bank if any circumstance of non-fulfillment of the due diligence commitment occurs to them.

Chapter IV Special Provisions for Major shareholders

Article 23 A major shareholder of the Bank shall be a shareholder of the Bank who meets one of the following conditions:

- (1) those who hold more than 10% of the shareholding of the Bank;

- (2) those who actually hold the largest number of shares of the Bank with percentage of shareholding not less than 5% (including shareholders holding the same number of shares);
- (3) if more than two directors are nominated;
- (4) the Board of Directors of the Bank considers that it has a controlling influence on operation and management of the Bank;
- (5) other circumstances as determined by the CBIRC or its delegated authority.

The shareholdings of shareholders and their related parties and parties acting in concert are aggregated. If the percentage of shareholding meets the above requirements, the relevant shareholders are considered to be the major shareholders.

Article 24 The major shareholders of the Bank shall fully understand the industry attributes, risk characteristics, prudent operation rules of the banking industry, as well as the rights and obligations of the major shareholders, actively safeguard the steady operation of the Bank and the stability of the financial market, protect the rights and interests of consumers, support the Bank to better serve the real economy and prevent and control financial risks. The major shareholders of the Bank shall strengthen capital constraints, maintain appropriate leverage level and scientifically lay out their investments in banking and insurance institutions to ensure that investment behavior is in line with their own capital scale, continuous capital contribution capacity and operation and management level, and the number of investment in banking and insurance institutions shall meet relevant regulatory requirements.

Article 25 The major shareholders of the Bank shall focus on long-term investment and value investment and shall not use it for speculative cash; they shall maintain the relative stability of the shareholding structure of the Bank and shall not transfer or transfer their shareholding of the Bank in disguised form during the period of restricted transfer of shareholding, except that such transfer is ordered by judicial ruling, administrative allocation or by the CBIRC or its delegated authority. Unless otherwise stipulated by the State Council, no direct or indirect cross-shareholding between the major shareholders of the Bank and the Bank shall be permitted.

Article 26 The major shareholders of the Bank shall perform their duties and responsibilities in accordance with laws, regulations, regulatory provisions and the Articles of Association, participate in corporate governance in a lawful and effective manner, and abuse of shareholder rights is strictly prohibited. The major shareholders should support the Bank to establish an independent, sound and balanced corporate governance structure, and support the Bank to integrate corporate governance with the leadership of the Party.

Article 27 The major shareholders of the Bank shall properly exercise shareholder rights through corporate governance procedures to safeguard the independent operation of the Bank. Improper intervention or restriction of the Bank in the following ways is strictly prohibited, except otherwise stipulated by laws and regulations or approved by the CBIRC:

- (1) to set up pre-approval procedures for resolutions of the general meetings of the Bank and the Board of Directors;
- (2) interfering with the normal procedures for the election and appointment of staff of the Bank, or directly appointing and dismissing staff in excess of the general meeting of the Bank and the Board of Directors;

NOTICE OF AGM

Notes:

1. The register of members of the Bank will be closed from Monday, 20 June 2022 to Friday, 24 June 2022, (both days inclusive), during which period no transfer of the Bank's shares (the "Shares") will be effected. In order to be eligible to attend and vote at the AGM, all transfer documents together with the relevant share certificates and other appropriate documents must be lodged with the H share registrar of the Bank, namely Computershare Hong Kong Investor Services Limited (in respect of H Shares), or to the Bank's registered office in the PRC (in respect of Domestic Shares) no later than 4:30 p.m. on Friday, 17 June 2022.
2. Shareholders of the Bank (the "Shareholders") who are entitled to attend and vote at the AGM may appoint one or more proxies to attend and, in the event of a poll, vote on their behalves. A proxy needs not be a Shareholder.
3. The instrument appointing a proxy must be in writing under the hand of a Shareholder or his/her attorney duly authorised in writing. If the Shareholder is a legal person, that instrument must be executed either under its seal or under the hand of its director or other attorney duly authorised to sign the same.
4. In order to be valid, the form of proxy must be deposited, for the holders of H Shares, to the H share registrar of the Bank, Computershare Hong Kong Investor Services Limited, or for the holders of Domestic Shares, to the Bank's registered office in the PRC, not less than 24 hours before the time for holding the AGM (i.e. by Thursday, 23 June 2022 at 9:30 a.m.). If the form of proxy is signed by a person under a power of attorney or other authority, a notarially certified copy of that power of attorney or other authority shall be deposited at the same time as mentioned in the form of proxy. Completion and return of the proxy form shall not preclude Shareholders from attending and voting in person at the AGM or any adjourned meeting(s) should you so wish.

In order to prevent the spread of Novel Coronavirus (COVID-19) and ensure the health and safety of the Shareholders, it is suggested that Shareholders consider appointing the chairman of the AGM as his/her/its proxy to vote at the AGM instead of attending the AGM in person.
