BASIS OF DETERMINATION FOR THE CONSIDERATION

The Directors confirmed that each of the consideration of the subscriptions of the Structured Deposit Products was determined on the basis of normal commercial terms negotiated at arm's length between the Group and China Merchants Bank, having considered the then available surplus cash of the Group for treasury management purpose.

REASONS FOR AND BENEFITS OF THE SUBSCRIPTION

Taking into account that (i) the Structured Deposit Products are fully principal-guaranteed and with minimal risks involved; (ii) compared with the deposit interest rates generally offered by commercial banks in the PRC, the return of the Structured Deposit Products are relatively high; and (iii) the Structured Deposit Products were funded by the Group's idle funds with a relatively short term which will not affect the operational liquidity of the Group, the Group decided to subscribe for the Structured Deposit Products to improve the utilization of its idle funds and generate better returns for the Group.

Accordingly, the Directors (including the independent non-executive Directors) are of the view that the terms of the Structured Deposit Product Agreement XIX and Structured Deposit Product Agreement XX were arrived at after the arm's length negotiation and the transactions contemplated thereunder are on normal commercial terms which are fair and reasonable and in the interests of the Company and Shareholders as a whole.
