CHAPTER 3 SHARES AND REGISTERED CAPITAL

Article 15 The Company shall provide for ordinary shares at all times. It may, according to its requirements, create other classes of shares upon approval of the examination and approval departments authorized by the State Council.

Article 16 The shares issued by the Company shall have a par value of RMB1 per share.

Article 17 The Company may issue shares to domestic and foreign investors upon the approval of the China Securities Regulatory Commission.

“Foreign investors” mentioned in the above paragraph refer to investors from foreign countries and the regions including Hong Kong, Macau and Taiwan who subscribe for the shares issued by the Company, and “domestic investors” refer to investors within the People’s Republic of China, excluding those from the aforementioned regions, who subscribe for the shares issued by the Company.

Article 18 Shares issued by the Company to domestic investors for subscription in Renminbi shall be referred to as domestic shares. Shares issued by the Company to foreign investors for subscription in foreign currency shall be referred to as foreign shares. Foreign shares which are listed outside the PRC shall be referred to as overseas listed foreign shares. Upon approval of the China Securities Regulatory Commission and the overseas securities regulatory authorities, the domestic shares that can be listed and traded on the overseas stock exchange and the overseas listed foreign shares are collectively referred to as overseas listed shares.

Upon approval of the China Securities Regulatory Commission, holders of the domestic shares may transfer all or part of the domestic shares held by them to overseas investors, and have the shares listed and traded on overseas stock exchanges upon approval of overseas stock exchanges; and all or part of domestic shares may be converted into overseas listed shares that can be listed and traded on overseas stock exchanges. The listing and trading of transferred or converted shares on overseas stock exchanges shall comply with the regulatory procedures, regulations and requirements of such overseas securities market. No shareholders' general meeting or shareholders' class meeting is required with respect to the listing and trading of transferred or converted shares on overseas stock exchange. The overseas listed shares converted from the domestic shares are the same class of shares as the original overseas listed foreign shares.

Article 19 Upon approval of the examination and approval department, the Company issued 110,000,000 shares to the Promoter upon its incorporation, representing 100% of the total number of issued ordinary shares of the Company during its incorporation.

Article 20 72,800,000 ordinary shares were issued by the Company after its establishment, all of which are foreign shares listed on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (the "Hong Kong Stock Exchange"), representing 39.82% of the then total share capital of the Company.

The current structure of share capital of the Company is 1,280,784,000 shares, of which 652,080,000 shares are domestic shares while 628,704,000 shares are overseas listed foreign shares. The controlling shareholder of the Company, Beijing Tong Ren Tang Co., Ltd. (北京同仁堂股份有限公司), holds 600,000,000 domestic shares, representing 46.85% of the total share capital of the Company.

Article 21 Upon approval of China Securities Regulatory Commission of the Company's proposal for the issuance of overseas listed foreign shares and domestic shares upon its incorporation, the Board of the Company may make implementation arrangements in relation to separate issuance.

The Company's proposal for separate issuance of overseas listed foreign shares and domestic shares pursuant to the aforesaid paragraph may be implemented separately within 15 months from the date of approval by China Securities Regulatory Commission.

Article 22 Where the Company issues overseas listed shares and domestic shares respectively within the total number of shares as stated in the issuance proposal, the respective shares shall be subscribed for in full at one time. If they cannot be subscribed for in full at one time under special circumstances, these shares may be issued in several issues subject to the approval of China Securities Regulatory Commission.

Article 23 The registered capital of the Company is RMB1,280,784,000.

Article 24 The Company may, based on its requirements for operation and development and in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Articles of Association, approve an increase of capital.

The Company may increase its capital in the following manners:

- (1) by offering new shares for subscription to unspecified investors;
- (2) by placing new shares to its existing shareholders;
- (3) by allotting new shares to its existing shareholders;
- (4) by any other means which is permitted by laws, administrative regulations.

The Company's increase of capital by issuing new shares shall, after being approved in accordance with the provisions of the Articles of Association, be conducted in accordance with the procedures stipulated by relevant laws and administrative regulations of the State.

Article 25 (1) Under the circumstances in compliance with the Articles of Association, a shareholder shall transfer his shares, whether in whole or in part, in a common way or any other way that is considered acceptable to the Board of the Directors and shall be effective only upon the signature by hand. The adoption of the standard form of transfer specified by the Hong Kong Stock Exchange is not in incompliance with the Articles of Association.

(2) No shares shall transfer to minors or persons who are mentally deficient or legally disqualified.

(3) The Board may refuse to recognize any instrument of transfer, except:

- (a) such transfer fee determined by the Hong Kong Stock Exchange or such lower amount as the Board of the Company may require in other time has been paid and such fees shall not be more than the maximum amount as set out in the Listing Rules of the Main Board (the "Listing Rules") by the Hong Kong Stock Exchange from time to time;
- (b) the instrument of transfer involves only the overseas listed foreign shares;
- (c) the instrument of transfer has been chopped with the appropriate stamp.

CHAPTER 4 REDUCTION OF CAPITAL AND REPURCHASE OF SHARES

Article 26 Pursuant to the provisions of the Articles of Association, the Company may reduce its registered capital.

Article 27 The Company is required to prepare a balance sheet and an inventory of assets when it reduces its registered capital. The Company shall notify its creditors within ten (10) days from the date of the Company's resolution on reduction of registered capital and shall publish the announcement in the newspaper within thirty (30) days. A creditor has the right, within thirty (30) days of receiving the notice from the Company or, in case the creditor has not received the notice, within forty-five (45) days from the date of the announcement, to require the Company to repay its debt or provide a corresponding guarantee for such debt.

The registered capital of the Company following the reduction of capital shall not fall below the minimum statutory requirement.

Article 28 The Company may, in accordance with the procedures set out in the Articles of Association and with the approval of the relevant governing authority of the State, repurchase its outstanding shares under the following circumstances:

- (1) cancellation of shares for the purposes of reducing its capital;
- (2) merging with another company that holds shares of the Company;
- (3) utilizing shares for employee share scheme or share incentive;
- (4) acquiring shares held by shareholders who vote against any resolution proposed at any general meeting on the merger or division of the Company upon their request;
- (5) using the shares for converting the convertible bonds issued by the Company to stock;
- (6) necessary acts by the Company to safeguard the corporate value and the interests of its shareholders;
- (7) other circumstances as permitted by laws and administrative regulations.

Article 29 The Company may, with the approval of the relevant governing authority of the State for repurchasing its shares, conduct the repurchase in one of the following manners:

- (1) to make an offer of repurchase to all of its shareholders at the same proportion;
- (2) to repurchase shares through public trading on a stock exchange;
- (3) to repurchase through an off-market agreement.

Article 30 Where the Company repurchases its shares through an off-market agreement, it shall seek prior approval at general meeting in accordance with the Articles of Association. The Company may release or amend a contract so entered into by the Company or waive its rights thereunder with prior approval at general meeting obtained in the same manner.

The contract to repurchase shares as referred to in the above paragraph includes, but not limited to, an agreement to become obliged to repurchase or to acquire the right to repurchase shares.

The Company shall not assign a contract for repurchasing its shares or any of its right thereunder.

Article 31 Shares repurchased in accordance with the laws by the Company shall be cancelled within the period prescribed by laws and administrative regulations, and the Company shall apply to the original company registration authority for registration of the change of its registered capital.

The amount of the Company's registered capital shall be reduced by the aggregate par value of these cancelled shares.

Article 32 Unless the Company is in the course of liquidation, it must comply with the following provisions in respect of repurchase of its outstanding shares:

- (1) where the Company repurchases its shares at par value, payment shall be made out of book balance of the distributable profits of the Company or out of proceeds of a fresh issue of shares made for that purpose;
- (2) where the Company repurchases its shares at a premium to their par value, payment up to the par value shall be made out of the book balance of distributable profits of the Company or out of the proceeds of a fresh issue of shares made for that purpose. Payment of the portion in excess of the par value shall be effected as follows:
 - (i) if the shares being repurchased were issued at par value, payment shall be made out of the book balance of the distributable profits of the Company;
 - (ii) if the shares being repurchased were issued at a premium to their par value, payment shall be made out of the book balance of the distributable profits of the Company or out of the proceeds of a fresh issue of shares made for that purpose, provided that the amount paid out of the proceeds of the fresh issue shall not exceed the aggregate of premiums received by the Company on the issue of the shares repurchased nor the current amount of the Company's capital reserve account (including the premiums on the fresh issue);
- (3) payment by the Company in consideration of the following shall be made out of the Company's distributable profits:
 - (i) acquisition of rights to repurchase shares of the Company;
 - (ii) variation of any contract for repurchasing shares of the Company;
 - (iii) release of its obligation under any contract for repurchasing its shares;
- (4) after the Company's registered capital has been reduced by the total par value of the cancelled shares in accordance with the relevant provisions, the amount deducted from the distributable profits of the Company for payment of the par value portion of the shares repurchased shall be transferred to the Company's capital reserve account.

CHAPTER 5 FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE FOR ACQUISITION OF THE COMPANY'S SHARES

Article 33 The Company or its subsidiaries shall not, by any means at any time, provide any kind of financial assistance to a person who is acquiring or is proposing to acquire shares of the Company. The said acquirer of shares of the Company includes a person who directly or indirectly assumes any obligations due to the acquisition of shares of the Company.

The Company or its subsidiaries shall not, by any means, at any time, provide financial assistance to the said acquirer for the purpose of reducing or discharging the obligations assumed by that person.

This provision does not apply to the circumstances stated in Article 35.

Article 34 The financial assistance referred to in this Chapter includes, (without limitation), the following means:

- (1) gift;
- (2) guarantee (including the assumption of liability by the guarantor or the provision of assets by the guarantor to secure the performance of obligations by the obligor), or compensation (other than compensation in respect of the Company's own default) or release or waiver of any rights;
- (3) provision of loan or any other agreement under which the obligations of the Company are to be fulfilled before the obligations of another party, or a change in the parties to, or the transfer of rights arising under, such loan or agreement;
- (4) any other form of financial assistance given by the Company when the Company is insolvent or has no net assets or when its net assets would thereby be reduced to a material extent.

The expression "assuming an obligation" referred to in this Chapter includes the assumption of obligations by the changing of the obligor's financial position by way of entering into of a contract or making of an arrangement (whether such contract or arrangement is enforceable or not, or is made on its own account or with any other persons), or by any other means.

Article 35 The following activities shall not be deemed to be activities as prohibited in Article 33:

- (1) the provision of financial assistance by the Company where the financial assistance is given in good faith in the interest of the Company, and the principal purpose of providing the financial assistance is not for the acquisition of shares of the Company, or the providing financial assistance is an incidental part of a master plan of the Company;
- (2) the lawful distribution of the Company's assets by way of dividend;
- (3) the allotment of bonus shares as dividends;
- (4) a reduction of registered capital, a repurchase of shares or a reorganization of the shareholding structure of the Company effected in accordance with the Articles of Association;
- (5) the lending of money by the Company in the ordinary and usual course of business and within its business scope (provided that the net assets of the Company are not thereby reduced or that, to the extent that the assets are thereby reduced, the financial assistance is provided out of the distributable profits of the Company);
- (6) the provision of money by the Company for contributions to staff and workers' share schemes (provided that the net assets of the Company are not thereby reduced or that, to the extent that the net assets are thereby reduced, the financial assistance is provided out of the distributable profits of the Company).

CHAPTER 6 SHARE CERTIFICATES AND REGISTER OF MEMBERS

Article 36 Share certificates of the Company shall be in registered form.

In addition to those provided in the Company Law, a share certificate of the Company shall also contain other items required to be specified by the stock exchange(s) on which the shares of the Company are listed.

Article 37 The share certificates shall be signed by the Chairman. The share certificates shall also be signed by other senior management if the stock exchange on which the shares of the Company are listed requires so. The signatures of the Chairman or other relevant senior management of the Company on the share certificates may also be in printed form.

Article 38 The Company shall maintain a register of members which shall contain the following particulars:

- (1) the name, address (domicile), occupation or nature of each shareholder;
- (2) the class and number of shares held by each shareholder;
- (3) the amount paid-up or payable in respect of shares held by each shareholder;
- (4) the serial numbers of the shares held by each shareholder;
- (5) the date on which a person registers as a shareholder;
- (6) the date on which a person ceases to be a shareholder.

The register of members shall be sufficient evidence of the holding of the Company's shares by a shareholder, unless there is evidence to the contrary.

Article 39 The Company may, in accordance with the mutual understanding and agreements made between China Securities Regulatory Commission and overseas securities regulatory authorities, maintain its register of members of overseas-listed shares outside the PRC and appoint overseas agent(s) to manage such register. The Company shall maintain a copy of the register of members of overseas listed shares at the Company's domicile; the appointed overseas agent(s) shall ensure the consistency between the original and the copy of the register of members of overseas-listed shares at all times.

If there is any inconsistency between the original and the copy of the register of members of overseas-listed shares, the original version shall prevail.

Article 40 The Company shall maintain a complete register of members.

The register of members shall include the following:

- (1) the register of members maintained at the Company's domicile (other than those described in items (2) and (3) of this Article);
- (2) in respect of the register of members of overseas-listed shares, the original register of members of shares listed in the Hong Kong Stock Exchange shall be maintained in Hong Kong;

(3) the register of members maintained at such other place as the Board may consider necessary for the purpose of listing of the Company's shares.

Article 41 Different parts of the register of members shall not overlap one another. No transfer of the shares registered in any part of the register shall, during the existence of that registration, be registered in any other part of the register of members.

Amendment or rectification of each part of the register of members shall be made in accordance with the laws of the place where that part of the register of members is maintained.

Article 42 Where laws, regulations and competent securities regulatory authorities where the shares of the Company are listed stipulate the period of closure of the register of shareholders before the date of a shareholders' general meeting or before the record date for the Company's distribution of dividends, such provisions shall prevail. In addition, subject to such regulations as may from time to time be in force under the laws of Hong Kong, the Hong Kong branch register of members may be closed for such period as the Board may determine.

Article 43 When the Company intends to convene a general meeting, distribute dividends, liquidate and engage in other activities that involve determination of shareholdings, the Board shall decide on a date for the determination of rights attaching to shares in the Company. Shareholders whose names appear in the register of members at the end of such date are shareholders of the Company.

Article 44 Any person who objects to the register of members and requests to have his name entered in or removed from the register of members may apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for rectification of the register.

Article 45 Any shareholder who is registered in, or any person who requests to have his name entered in, the register of members may (if his share certificates (the "original certificates") are lost) apply to the Company for a replacement share certificate in respect of such shares (the "relevant shares").

If a holder of domestic shares loses his share certificates and applies for their replacement, it shall be dealt with in accordance with the provisions of Article 143 of the Company Law.

If a holder of overseas-listed shares loses his share certificates and applies for their replacements, it may be dealt with in accordance with the relevant laws, the rules of the stock exchange or other relevant regulations of the place where the original register of members of overseas-listed shares is maintained.

The issue of replacement share certificates to holders of shares listed in Hong Kong shall comply with the following requirements:

(1) The applicant shall submit an application to the Company in prescribed form accompanied by a notarial act or statutory declaration, containing the grounds upon which the application is made and the circumstances and evidence of the loss of the share certificates as well as declaring that no other person shall be entitled to request to be registered as the shareholder in respect of the relevant shares.

(2) No statement has been received by the Company from a person other than the applicant for having his name registered as a holder of the relevant shares before the Company came to a decision to issue the replacement share certificate.

(3) The Company shall, if it decides to issue a replacement share certificate to the applicant, make an announcement of its intention to issue the replacement share certificate in such newspapers designated by the Board. The announcement shall be made at least once every thirty (30) days in a period of ninety (90) days.

(4) The Company shall have, prior to the publication of its announcement of intention to issue a replacement certificate, delivered to the stock exchange on which its shares are listed a copy of the announcement to be published. The Company may publish the announcement upon receiving a confirmation from such stock exchange that the announcement has been exhibited at the premises of the stock exchange. The announcement shall be exhibited at the premises of the stock exchange for a period of ninety (90) days.

In case an application to issue a replacement share certificate has been made without the consent of the registered holder of the relevant shares, the Company shall send by post to such registered shareholder a copy of the announcement to be published.

(5) If, upon expiration of the 90-day period referred to in items (3) and (4) of this Article, the Company has not received from any person any objection to such application, the Company may issue a replacement share certificate to the applicant according to his application.

(6) Where the Company issues a replacement share certificate under this Article, it shall forthwith cancel the original certificate and enter the cancellation and issue in the register of members accordingly.

(7) All expenses relating to the cancellation of an original share certificate and the issue of a replacement share certificate by the Company shall be borne by the applicant. The Company may refuse to take any action until a reasonable guarantee is provided by the applicant for such expenses.

Article 46 Where the Company issues a replacement share certificate pursuant to the Articles of Association, the name of a bona fide purchaser who obtains the aforementioned new share certificate or a shareholder who thereafter registers as the owner of such shares (in the case that he is a bona fide purchaser) shall not be removed from the register of members.

Article 47 The Company shall not be liable for any damages sustained by any person by reason of the cancellation of the original certificate or the issuance of the replacement certificate, unless the claimant proves that the Company had acted fraudulently.

CHAPTER 7 SHAREHOLDERS' RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS

Article 48 A shareholder of the Company is a person who lawfully holds shares of the Company and whose name is entered in the register of members.

A shareholder shall enjoy the relevant rights and assume the relevant obligations in accordance with the class and number of shares he/she holds. Shareholders holding the same class of shares shall be entitled to the same rights and assume the same obligations.

Article 49 The ordinary shareholders of the Company shall be entitled to the following rights:

(1) the right to dividends and other distributions in proportion to the number of shares held;

(2) the right to attend or appoint a proxy to attend general meetings and to exercise the voting right;

(3) the right to supervise and manage the business activities of the Company and to put forward proposals and raise inquiries;

(4) the right to transfer shares in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations and provisions of the Articles of Association;

(5) the right to obtain relevant information in accordance with the provisions of the Articles of Association, including:

1. to obtain a copy of the Articles of Association, subject to payment of the cost of such copy;

2. to inspect and copy, subject to payment of a reasonable charge:

(i) all parts of the register of members;

(ii) personal particulars of each of the Company's Directors, supervisors, general managers and other senior management, including:

(a) present name and alias and any former name and alias;

(b) principal address (domicile);

(c) nationality;

(d) primary and all other part-time occupations;

(e) identification document and its number;

(iii) report on the state of the Company's share capital;

(iv) reports showing the aggregate par value, quantity, maximum and minimum price paid in respect of each class of shares repurchased by the Company since the end of the last accounting year and the aggregate amount incurred by the Company for this purpose;

(v) minutes of general meetings.

(6) in the event of the termination or liquidation of the Company, to participate in the distribution of remaining assets of the Company in accordance with the number of shares held;

(7) other rights conferred by laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association.

Article 50 The ordinary shareholders of the Company shall assume the following obligations:

(1) To comply with the Articles of Association;

(2) To pay subscription monies according to the number of shares subscribed and the method of subscription;

(3) Other obligations imposed by laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association.

Shareholders are not obliged to make any further contribution to the share capital other than as agreed by the subscribers of the relevant shares on subscription.

Article 51 In addition to obligations imposed by laws, administrative regulations or required by the listing rules of the stock exchange(s) on which shares of the Company are listed, a controlling shareholder shall not make any decision on the following matters to jeopardize the interests of all or some of the shareholders of the Company as a result of exercising his voting rights:

(1) to waive the obligation of a Director or supervisor to act in good faith to the best interests of the Company;

(2) to approve the deprivation by a Director or supervisor (for his own or others' benefits), by any means, of the Company's assets, including (but not limited to) any opportunity beneficial to the Company;

(3) to approve the deprivation by a Director or supervisor (for his own or others' benefits) of the personal rights or interests of other shareholders, including (but not limited to) rights to receive distributions and voting rights save for corporate restructuring of the Company submitted to the general meeting for approval in accordance herewith.

Article 52 The term "controlling shareholder" mentioned in the preceding article refers to a person who satisfies any one of the following conditions:

(1) a person who, acting alone or in concert with others, has the power to elect more than half of the Board of Directors;

(2) a person who, acting alone or in concert with others, has the power to exercise or to control the exercise of 30% or more of the voting rights in the Company;

(3) a person who, acting alone or in concert with others, holds 30% or more of the issued and outstanding shares of the Company;

(4) a person who, acting alone or in concert with others, has de facto control of the Company in any other way.

CHAPTER 8 SHAREHOLDERS' GENERAL MEETINGS

Article 53 The shareholders' general meeting is the authority of the Company and shall exercise its duties and powers in accordance with laws.

Article 54 The shareholders' general meeting may exercise the following duties and powers:

- (1) to decide on the operation policies and investment plans of the Company;
- (2) to elect and replace Directors and decide on matters relating to the remuneration of Directors;
- (3) to elect and replace the supervisors who are representatives of shareholders and decide on matters relating to the remuneration of such supervisors;
- (4) to consider and approve reports of the Board;
- (5) to consider and approve reports of the Supervisory Committee;
- (6) to consider and approve the annual budgets and final account proposals of the Company;
- (7) to consider and approve the profit distribution plans and loss recovery plans;
- (8) to make resolutions on increase or reduction in the registered capital of the Company;
- (9) to make resolutions on matters such as merger, division, dissolution, liquidation or change of the form of the Company;
- (10) to make resolutions on the issuance of bonds of the Company;
- (11) to make resolutions on the appointment, dismissal or non-reappointment of external auditors and its remuneration by the Company;
- (12) to amend the Articles of Association;
- (13) to consider the motions submitted by shareholders individually or in aggregate holding 3% or more of the voting shares of the Company;
- (14) other matters to be resolved by the shareholders' general meetings as required by laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association.

Article 55 Unless a prior approval is obtained at a shareholders' general meeting, the Company shall not enter into any contract with any person other than the Directors, supervisors, general manager and other senior management for handing over the management of the whole or any substantial part of the Company's business to that person.

Article 56 General meetings shall include annual general meetings and extraordinary general meetings. A general meeting shall be convened by the Board. The annual general meetings shall be held once every financial year within six months after the end of the previous fiscal year.

The Board shall hold an extraordinary general meeting within two months upon the occurrence of any of the following circumstances:

- (1) the number of Directors is below the required number as prescribed by the Company Law or less than two-thirds of the required number hereunder;

(2) the uncovered losses are in excess of one third of the total share capital of the Company;

(3) shareholders holding 10% or more of the Company's issued shares with voting rights request in writing to hold an extraordinary general meeting;

(4) the Board considers it necessary or the Supervisory Committee proposes convening such a meeting;

Article 57 To convene an annual general meeting, the Company shall notify the shareholders of the time, venue and matters to be considered twenty-one (21) days prior to the meeting; and the Company shall notify the shareholders fifteen (15) days prior to an extraordinary general meeting. When calculating the period for issuing the notice, the date of the meeting shall be excluded. Where laws, regulations and competent securities regulatory authorities where the shares of the Company are listed otherwise stipulate, such provisions shall prevail.

Article 58 When the Company convenes a general meeting, shareholder(s) holding, individually or in aggregate, 3% or more of the total voting shares of the Company shall have the right to propose and submit in writing to the Board interim proposals ten (10) days prior to convening the general meeting. The Board shall notify other shareholders within two (2) days of receipt of such proposals and submit such proposal for consideration and approval at the general meeting. The contents of an interim proposal shall fall within the terms of reference of the general meetings and shall contain definite subject and specific matters to be decided.

Article 59 Matters which are not included in the notices set out in Articles 57 and 58 of this Articles of Association shall not be resolved at the shareholders' general meeting.

Article 60 A notice of the general meeting shall meet the following requirements:

(1) it shall be given in writing;

(2) it shall specify the venue, date and time of the meeting;

(3) it shall state the matters to be considered at the meeting;

(4) it shall provide shareholders with required information and explanations to enable the shareholders to make sensible decisions on the matters considered. This policy shall include (but not limited to) the provision of specific conditions and contracts (if any) for a contemplated transaction at the time when the Company proposes a merger, buyback of shares, reorganization of share capital or other restructuring, as well as reasonable explanation for the causes and consequences thereof;

(5) in the event that any of the Directors, supervisors, general manager or other senior management has material interests in the matters to be considered, the nature and extent of such interests at stake shall be disclosed. In the event that the impact of the matters to be considered on the Directors, supervisors, president and other senior management as shareholders is different from that on the other shareholders of the same class, the difference shall be explained;

(6) it shall contain the full text of any special resolution to be proposed at the meeting;

(7) it shall explain in clear text that a shareholder entitled to attend and vote at such meeting has the right to appoint one or more proxies to attend and vote at such meeting on his behalf. A proxy need not be a shareholder;

(8) it shall specify the time and place for lodging proxy forms for the relevant meeting.

Article 61 The notice of general meeting, information or explanatory statement shall be served to the shareholders and delivered by any of the following means:

(1) by personal delivery or by mail to the registered address of each of such holders of overseas listed shares;

(2) posting on the Company's website or the website designated by the stock exchange where shares of the Company are listed according to applicable laws, administrative regulations and the relevant listing rules; or

(3) any other means acceptable to the stock exchange where shares of the Company are listed.

For domestic shareholders, the notice of general meeting may also be issued by means of announcement.

Article 62 The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to, or the non-receipt of notice of a meeting by, any person entitled to receive such notice shall not invalidate the meeting and the resolutions passed at the meeting.

Article 63 A shareholder may appoint a proxy who need not be a shareholder of the Company. In the case of a corporation, a proxy may be appointed to attend and vote any general meeting of the Company, and such corporation shall be deemed to be present in person at any such meeting if a proxy so authorized is present thereat. A corporation may execute a form of proxy under the hand of a duly authorized officer. The proxy so appointed by the shareholder may, pursuant to the instructions of the shareholder, exercise the following rights:

(1) the right which the shareholder has to speak at the general meeting;

(2) the right to demand a poll alone or jointly with others;

(3) the right to exercise voting rights on a show of hands or on a poll, except when a shareholder is required by the Listing Rules to abstain from voting on a particular resolution.

Article 64 A proxy must be appointed in writing and the appointing instrument must be signed by the shareholder or his attorney duly authorized in writing and, if the shareholder is a corporate, be affixed with the common seal or signed by its director or attorney duly authorized in writing.

Article 65 Proxy forms shall be lodged at the domicile of the Company or other places specified in the notice of meeting 24 hours before the relevant meeting for voting according to the proxy form, or 24 hours before the designated time of voting. If the proxy form is signed by a person under a power of attorney on behalf of the appointer, the power of attorney or other authorization documents authorized to be signed shall be notarized.

A notarially certified copy of that power of attorney or other authorization documents, together with the proxy form, shall be deposited at the domicile of the Company or other places specified in the notice of meeting.

Where the appointer is a legal person, its legal representative or other persons authorized by the resolutions of the Board or other decision-making organ to act as its representatives may attend the general meeting of the Company as a representative of the appointer.

Article 66 A shareholder of the Company may authorise such person as he/she may deem as fit to act as his/her proxy at any meeting of the Company or at any meeting of any class of shareholders of the Company. If more than one person is so authorised, the proxy form shall specify the class and number of shares in respect of which the authorisation is granted. The above authorised person is entitled to exercise power on behalf of the shareholder.

If the shareholder is a recognised clearing house as defined in the Securities and Futures Ordinance (Chapter 571 of the Laws of Hong Kong), such shareholder may authorise one or more person as it may think fit to act as its proxy at any general meeting or any meeting of any class of shareholders and meeting of creditors, provided that if more than one person is so authorised, the proxy form shall specify the number and class of shares in respect of which the authorisation is granted to each such person. The persons so authorised may exercise the rights of the recognised clearing house on behalf of the recognized clearing house (or its “agent”) as if such persons were individual shareholders of the Company.

Article 67 Should the authorizing person pass away, become incapacitated, withdraw the authorization of proxies, withdraw the authorization to sign the authorization letter or the relevant shares have been transferred before voting, as long as the Company has not received written notification on the abovementioned events prior to the meeting, votes cast by their proxies according to the authorization letter remain effective.

Article 68 The resolutions of the general meeting shall be classified as ordinary resolutions and special resolutions.

Ordinary resolutions put forward in the general meeting shall be passed by one-half of the shareholders (including their proxies) with voting rights attending the meeting.

Special resolutions put forward in the general meeting shall be adopted by not less than two-thirds of the shareholders (including their proxies) with voting rights attending the meeting.

Article 69 A shareholder (including proxy) when voting at a shareholders' general meeting may exercise voting rights in accordance with the number of shares carrying the right to vote and each share shall have one vote.

Article 70 At any general meeting, a resolution shall be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is demanded by the following persons before or after deciding on a show of hands:

- (1) the chairman of the meeting;
- (2) at least two shareholders entitled to vote in person or proxies with voting rights;
- (3) one or more shareholders (including proxies) separately or jointly representing more than 10% (including 10%) of all shares carrying voting rights at the meeting.

Unless a poll is so demanded, a declaration by the chairman of the meeting that a resolution has on a show of hands been carried, and an entry to that effect in the minutes of the meeting shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour or against such resolution at the meeting.

The demand for a poll may be withdrawn by the person who makes such demand.

Article 71 A poll demanded on such matters as the election of chairman or the termination of the meeting shall be taken forthwith. A poll demanded on any other matters shall be taken at such time as the chairman may decide, and the meeting may proceed to discuss other matters, while the results of the poll shall still be deemed to be a resolution of that meeting.

Article 72 On a poll taken at a meeting, a shareholder (including proxy) entitled to two or more votes need not cast all his votes for or against in the same way.

If any shareholder is, under the Listing Rules, required to abstain from voting on any particular resolution or restricted to voting only for (or only against) any particular resolution, any votes cast by or on behalf of such shareholder in contravention of such requirement or restriction shall not be counted.

Article 73 In the case of an equality of votes, whether it is by show of hands or a poll, the chairman of the meeting shall be entitled to an additional vote.

Article 74 The following matters shall be approved by ordinary resolutions of a shareholders' general meeting:

- (1) work reports of the board of Directors and the Supervisory Committee;
- (2) plans formulated by the board of Directors for profit distribution and making up losses;
- (3) removal of the members of the Board and the members of the Supervisory Committee, and determination of their emoluments and method of payment;

(4) annual financial budgets, audited accounts, balance sheets and profit and loss accounts and other financial statements of the Company;

(5) other matters unless otherwise required to be adopted as special resolutions in accordance with the applicable laws and administrative regulations or the Articles of Association.

Article 75 The following resolutions shall be adopted as special resolutions at a General Meeting:

(1) increase or decrease of registered capital and issuance of shares of any class, warrants and other similar securities of the Company;

(2) issuance of debentures of the Company;

(3) division, merger, dissolution, liquidation and change of the form of the Company;

(4) amendments to the Articles of Association;

(5) any other matters considered by the shareholders' general meeting, by way of an ordinary resolution, which have a substantial impact on the Company and require approval by a special resolution.

Article 76 The extraordinary general meeting or class meetings shall be convened by the shareholders in accordance with the following procedures:

(1) Shareholder(s) who in aggregate hold more than 10% (including 10%) of the shares with voting power at such meeting may sign one or more written request in the same format and content to the Board of Directors for the convening of the extraordinary general meeting or class meetings and clarify the agenda of such meeting. Upon the receipt of such request, the Board of Directors shall convene the extraordinary general meeting or class meetings as soon as possible. The number of shares held as mentioned above shall be based on the date of the submission of the request of the shareholders.

(2) If the Board of Directors has failed to issue the notice of meeting within 30 days of the submission of such written request, the shareholders submitting such request may convene such meeting on their own within four months after the receipt by the Board of Directors of such request, and the rules of procedures of such meeting shall be substantially the same as those of the of shareholders' general meetings convened by the Board of Directors.

The cost incurred by the shareholders as a result of the failure of the Board of Directors to convene such meeting as requested above shall be borne by the Company and deducted from the amount payable to Directors who neglect their duties.

Article 77 The General Meeting shall be convened and presided by the chairman of the Board; where the chairman of the Board is unable to attend the meeting, it shall be convened and presided by the vice chairman (if any) of the Board; where both chairman and vice chairman (if any) of the Board are unable to attend the meeting, the Board may appoint a director to convene and preside the meeting; where chairman of the meeting is not appointed, the shareholders attend the meeting may elect one person to preside as chairman of the meeting; where the shareholders fail to elect chairman of the meeting for any reason, the shareholder (including the proxy) attending the meeting holding the largest number of shares carrying voting rights shall preside as chairman of the meeting.

Article 78 The chairman of the meeting shall determine whether or not a resolution of the shareholders' general meeting shall be adopted. His decision shall be final and conclusive and shall be announced at the meeting and recorded in the minutes.

Article 79 In the event that the chairman of the meeting has any doubt as to the result of a resolution put forward to the vote, he may have the votes counted. In the event that the chairman of the meeting fails to have the votes counted, any shareholder present in person or by proxy objects to the result announced by the chairman of the meeting may demand that the votes be counted immediately after the declaration of the voting result, the chairman of the meeting shall have the votes counted immediately.

Article 80 In the event that the votes are counted at the shareholders' general meeting, the counting results shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting.

The minutes of the meeting together with the attendance book for shareholders' signing and the proxy forms for proxies attending the meeting shall be kept at the domicile of the Company.

Article 81 Copies of the minutes of the meeting shall be available to any shareholder without charge for inspection during business hours of the Company. If a shareholder demands from the Company a copy of such minutes, the Company shall send a copy to him within 7 days after receipt of reasonable charges.

CHAPTER 9 SPECIAL PROCEDURES FOR VOTING BY A CLASS OF SHAREHOLDERS

Article 82 Shareholders holding different classes of shares shall be class shareholders.

Class shareholders shall be entitled to the rights and assume obligations pursuant to the provisions of the law, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association.

Article 83 Any variation or abrogation of the rights of any class of shareholders proposed by the Company may only come into effect upon the adoption of a special resolution at a general meeting and approval by the affected shareholders of that class at a shareholders' meeting held in accordance with Articles 85 to 89 of the Articles of Association respectively.

Where any change in domestic and overseas laws, administrative regulations and overseas listing rules and any decision made by the domestic or overseas securities regulatory authority gives rise to variation or abrogation of the rights of class shareholders, approval by a shareholders' general meeting or class meeting is not required.

The transfer by the Company's domestic shareholders of all or part of the domestic shares held thereby to foreign investors for listing and trading on overseas stock exchange(s) or the conversion of all or part of the domestic shares into overseas listed foreign shares for listing and trading on overseas stock exchange(s) shall not be deemed as the Company's intention to vary or abrogate the rights of any class shareholders.

Article 84 The following circumstances shall be deemed to be a variation or abrogation of the rights of shareholders of a certain class:

(1) to increase or decrease the number of shares of a particular class, or increase or decrease the number of shares of another class having rights on voting, distribution or other privileges equal or superior to those of the shares of such class;

(2) to effect an exchange of all or part of shares of such class into shares of other classes, or to effect an exchange or grant a right of exchange of all or part of the shares of other classes into shares of such class;

(3) to remove or reduce rights to accrued dividends or cumulative dividends attached to shares of such class;

(4) to reduce or remove the rights to a dividend preference or a liquidation preference to distribution of property attached to shares of such class;

(5) to add, remove or reduce the rights to conversion, options, voting, transfer, pre-emptive rights to placement and acquire securities of the Company attached to shares of such class;

(6) to remove or reduce rights to receive payment payable by the Company in particular currencies attached to shares of such class;

(7) to create a new class of shares having rights on voting, distribution or other privileges equal or superior to those of the shares of such class;

(8) to restrict the transfer or ownership of the shares of such class or increase such restrictions;

(9) to issue subscription rights or share conversion rights for shares of such class or other classes;

(10) to increase the rights and privileges of shares of other classes;

(11) to restructure the Company where the proposed restructuring scheme will result in different classes of shareholders bearing a disproportionate burden of obligations of such restructuring;

(12) to vary or abrogate the terms provided in this chapter.

Article 85 Shareholders of the affected share class, whether or not having the right to vote at the general meeting, shall nevertheless have the right to vote at class meetings on matters referred to in clause (2) to (8) and (11) to (12) of Article 84 of the Articles of Association, but interested shareholders shall not be entitled to vote at class meetings.

The interested shareholders mentioned in the preceding paragraph shall have the following meanings:

(1) in the case of a repurchase of its own shares by the Company by making offers to all shareholders on a same pro rata basis or through public dealing on a stock exchange in accordance with Article 29 of the Articles of Association, “interested shareholder” shall refer to the controlling shareholders as defined in Article 52 of the Articles of Association;

(2) in the case of a repurchase of its own shares by the Company through an off-market agreement in accordance with the provisions of Article 29 of the Articles of Association, “interested shareholders” shall refer to the shareholders to which the proposed agreement relates;

(3) in the case of a restructuring of the Company, “interested shareholder” shall refer to a shareholder within a class who bears liabilities less than the proportion burden imposed on other shareholders of that class or who has interests different from those held by shareholders of the same class.

Article 86 A resolution of the class meeting shall be passed in accordance with Article 85 of the Articles of Association by shareholders present in the meeting representing not less than two-thirds of voting rights.

Article 87 Written notice of a class meeting convened by the Company shall be dispatched according to the requirements of the Article 57 of this Articles of Association to all shareholders of such class whose names appear on the register of members, specifying the matters to be considered and the date and place of the meeting.

Article 88 Notices of the class meeting only need to be served on shareholders entitled to vote thereat.

The procedures for holding the class meeting shall be similar to those for holding the general meeting as far as possible, and the provisions in the Articles of Association relating to the procedures for a general meeting shall apply to the class meeting.

Article 89 Save for shareholders of shares of other classes, the holders of non-overseas listed domestic shares and holders of overseas-listed shares are deemed to be different classes of shareholders.

The special procedures for voting by class shareholders shall not apply in the following circumstances: (1) where the Company issues, upon approval by a special resolution at a general meeting, non-overseas listed shares and overseas-listed foreign shares once every twelve (12) months, either separately or concurrently, and the respective numbers of non-overseas listed shares and overseas-listed shares proposed to be issued do not exceed 20% of the respective numbers of the issued domestic shares and overseas-listed foreign shares; (2) where the Company’s plan to issue non-overseas listed shares and overseas listed shares at the time of incorporation is carried out within fifteen (15) months from the date of approval by China Securities Regulatory Commission; (3) where, as approved by the China Securities Regulatory Commission, the holders of domestic shares of the Company transfer their domestic shares that are not listed on domestic or overseas stock exchange to foreign investors and such shares are listed and traded on overseas stock exchange.

CHAPTER 10 PARTY COMMITTEE

Article 90 The Company shall establish the Communist Party Committee of Tong Ren Tang Technologies Co. Ltd. (the “Party Committee”) and Committee for Discipline Inspection of the Communist Party of Tong Ren Tang Technologies Co. Ltd. (the “Discipline Committee”).

Article 91 The Party Committee of the Company generally consists of seven to nine members, including one secretary and two deputy secretaries (one of them is in charge of the Party development in the Company). Generally the Chairman shall also act as the Party Committee Secretary of the Company, and insist on “two-way entry, cross-service” leadership mechanism. Eligible Party committee members may take seats in the Board of Directors, the Board of Supervisors and the management through legal procedures. Eligible members of the Board of Directors, the Board of Supervisors and the management who are Party members may take seats in the Party Committee of the Company in accordance with the relevant regulations and procedures. The Company’s discipline committee is generally composed of three members, including a secretary.

The Party Committee of the Company implements a system integrating group leadership and division of labor, and the members of the leadership team of the Party organizations including the Board of Directors, the Supervisory Committee and the management must carry out the decision made by the Party organizations.

Article 92 The Party Committee of the Company shall exert its leadership to take the right direction, consider the overall situation and ensure effective implementation, and conduct discussion and decision-making on major corporate matters as required by regulations. Its primary responsibilities are as follows:

(1) to enhance the political building of the Party in the Company, adhere to and implement the fundamental system, basic system and important system of socialism with Chinese characteristics, as well as educate and guide all Party members to closely align with the Party Central Committee with Comrade Xi Jinping at its core in terms of the political stance, direction, principles and path;

(2) to thoroughly study and implement Xi Jinping’s Thought on Socialism with Chinese Characteristics for a New Era, learn and propagate the Party’s theory, thoroughly implement the Party’s route, principles and policies, as well as supervise and guarantee the implementation of major strategy deployments of the Party Central Committee and the resolutions of the Party organization at higher levels in the Company;

(3) to investigate and discuss the significant operation and management matters of the Company and support the general meetings, the Board of Directors, the Supervisory Committee and the management to exercise their rights and perform their duties in accordance with the laws;

(4) to strengthen the leadership and gatekeeping role in the process of selection and appointment of personnel of the Company, and the building of the leading team, cadre and talents team of the Company;

(5) to undertake the main responsibility of improving Party conduct and upholding integrity, lead and support the internal discipline inspection organization to fulfill its supervisory and disciplining responsibilities as well as exercise stringent administrative discipline and political rules, promote Party self-governance in every aspect and with rigor into the primary level;

(6) to strengthen the building of primary-level Party organizations and of its contingent of Party members, give full play to the role of Party branches as strongholds and to the role of Party members as pioneers and fine examples, and unite and lead employees company-wide to devote themselves into the reform and development of the Company;

(7) to lead the Company's ideological and political work, the spirit and civilization progress, the United Front work and lead the Labor Union, Communist Youth League, Women's Organization and other mass organizations of the Company.

CHAPTER 11 BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Article 93 The Company sets a Board, which shall comprise seven (7) to eleven (11) Directors, including one Chairman and may including vice chairman (chairmen).

Subject to the provisions of laws and without prejudice to any claim made under any contract, the shareholders are entitled to remove a Director (including managing Director or other executive Directors) by an ordinary resolution at a general meeting before expiration of his/her term of office.

Article 94 Directors shall be elected at general meetings. The term of office of the Directors shall be three (3) years. Upon maturity of the current term of office, a Director shall be eligible to offer himself/herself for re-election and reappointment. Any person appointed by the Board to fill a casual vacancy on or as an addition to the Board shall hold office only until the first annual general meeting after his appointment, and shall then be eligible for re-election and re-appointment.

The Chairman and Vice Chairman (if any) of the Board shall be elected and removed by more than one-half of all Directors. The term of office of the Chairman and Vice Chairman (if any) shall be three (3) years, renewable upon re-election.

A Director is not required to hold any shares of the Company.

At the re-election of the Board of Directors, external directors shall account for more than half (1/2) of the numbers of the Board of Directors, and there shall be at least three independent Directors, at least one of whom shall have the professional qualification prescribed under the Listing Rules, or have the requisite expertise in accounting or related financial management. Opinions of the independent Directors shall be clearly stated in the resolutions of the Board.

Article 95 The Board shall perform the duties of developing strategies, making decisions and preventing risks, and report to the shareholders' general meeting and exercises the following powers:

- (1) to convene general meetings and report its work to the general meeting;
- (2) to implement the resolutions of general meetings;
- (3) to decide on the Company's business plans and investment plans;
- (4) to formulate the Company's plans on annual financial budgets and final accounts;
- (5) to formulate the Company's profit distribution plans and plans on making up losses;
- (6) to formulate the proposals for increase or decrease of the registered capital of the Company and issue of bonds of the Company;
- (7) to formulate plans for merger, division and dissolution of the Company;
- (8) to determine the establishment of the Company's internal management structure;
- (9) to appoint or remove the general manager of the Company and to appoint or remove the deputy general manager and financial officer and general legal counsel and secretary of the Board and chief quality officer and company secretary of the Company and to decide on their remunerations;
- (10) to formulate the basic management system of the Company;
- (11) to formulate proposals for amendment to the Articles of Association;
- (12) to determine the establishment of specific committees and to appoint and remove the relevant persons in charge;
- (13) to exercise other duties and powers provided by laws and regulations or these Articles of Association, as well as those conferred by the shareholders' general meeting.

Except for the Board resolutions in respect of the matters specified in subparagraphs (6), (7) and (11) of this Article which shall be passed by not less than two-thirds of the Directors, the Board resolutions in respect of all other matters may be passed by the affirmative vote of a simple majority of the Directors. Any matter which belongs to major decision-makings, important personnel appointments and dismissals, or major project arrangements and large-sum capital operations is subject to the study and discussion by the Party organization before the Board and management make any decision.

Article 96 In cases where the expected value of fixed assets proposed for disposal by the Board, when aggregated with value of fixed assets disposed within four (4) months before the proposed disposal, exceeds 33% of the fixed assets value set out in the latest balance sheet considered by the general meetings, the Board shall not dispose or consent to dispose such fixed assets without prior approval by the general meeting.

The term “fixed assets disposal” referred to in this Article represents (among other things) transferring certain interests in assets, but not including provision of guarantees by way of fixed assets.

The validity of transactions regarding fixed assets disposal by the Company shall not be affected due to a breach of the first paragraph of this Article.

Article 97 The Chairman of the Board is entitled to the following duties and powers:

- (1) to preside over general meetings and to convene and preside over Board meetings;
- (2) to check on the implementation of resolutions of the Board;
- (3) to sign the securities certificates issued by the Company;
- (4) to exercise other powers conferred by the Board.

If the Chairman is unable to perform his/her duties and powers, the Vice Chairman, if any, shall perform the duties and powers on his/her behalf, or, if there be no such vice chairman, the Chairman of the Board may designate a Director to exercise the duties and powers on his/her behalf, or the Board may elect a Director to exercise the duties and powers of the Chairman of the Board.

Article 98 Meetings of the Board shall be held at least four times every year and shall be convened by the Chairman of the Board. All of the Directors and supervisors shall be notified about the meeting fourteen (14) days beforehand. In case of emergency, an extraordinary Board meeting may be held if it is so requested by more than one-third of the Directors, the Chairman of the Board, shareholders aggregately holding more than one-tenth of voting shares, the Supervisory Committee or the general manager of the Company. Extraordinary Board meeting must be convened when the Party Committee of the Company considers it as necessary. All Directors shall be notified about the extraordinary Board meeting within a reasonable time before the meeting. In case of emergency which requires an extraordinary Board meeting to be held as soon as possible, notice of such meeting can be given by phone or any other verbal method, provided that the convener makes an explanation thereof at the meeting.

Article 99 The Board meeting may be held with more than half of the Directors present.

Each Director shall have a ballot for voting. Unless otherwise provided in the Articles of Association, resolutions of the Board shall be passed by more than half of all Directors.

In the case of equal division of votes, the Chairman of the Board of Directors is entitled to a casting vote.

The meeting of the Board or any of its committees may be held by way of facsimile, telephone, telephone conference or other electronic means of communication, provided that all participants of such meetings shall be able to communicate with each other via voice in a timely manner. All Directors participating in meetings by means stated herein shall be deemed to be present in person at the meeting.

Article 100 Directors shall attend Board meetings in person. Where a Director is unable to attend a meeting for any reason, he/she may by a written power of attorney appoint another Director to attend the meeting on his/her behalf. The power of attorney shall specify the extent of authorization.

A Director appointed as the representative of another Director to attend the meeting shall exercise the rights of a Director within the scope of authority conferred by the appointing Director. Where a Director is unable to attend a Board meeting and has not appointed a proxy to attend the meeting on his behalf, he/she shall be deemed to have waived his right to vote at the meeting.

Article 101 The Board shall keep minutes of resolutions passed at Board meetings. The minutes shall be signed by the Directors present at the meeting and the person who recorded the minutes. The Directors shall be liable for the resolutions of the Board. The implementation of resolutions of the Board shall be organized by the general manager (or a person designated by the Board). The management regularly reports to the Board on the execution and implementation of previous resolutions of the Board. The Directors have the right to make enquiries on the implementation of previous resolutions of the Board.

In the process of implementing the resolutions of the Board, the Board supervises and inspects the implementation of the relevant resolutions to ensure that the resolutions of the Board are properly and effectively implemented.

If a resolution of the Board violates the laws, administrative regulations or the Articles of Association and the Company suffers serious losses as a result thereof, the Directors who participated in the passing of such resolution are liable to compensate the Company. However, if it can be proven that a Director expressly objected to the resolution when the resolution was voted on, and that such objection was recorded in the minutes of the meeting, such Director may be released from such liability.

CHAPTER 12 SECRETARY TO THE BOARD OF THE COMPANY

Article 102 The Company shall have a Secretary to the Board, who is a senior management member of the Company.

Article 103 Secretary to the Board of the Company shall be a natural person with the requisite professional knowledge and experience, and shall be appointed by the Board. His/her primary responsibilities are:

(1) to ensure that the Company has complete organisational documents and records;

(2) to ensure that the Company prepares and delivers the reports and documents required by competent authorities in accordance with the laws;

(3) to ensure that the Company's registers of members are properly maintained, and that persons entitled to access to the relevant records and documents are furnished with such records and documents without delay.

Article 104 Director or other senior management members may concurrently hold the post of the secretary to the Board. The accountant(s) of the certified public accountants' firm appointed by the Company shall not concurrently hold the post of the secretary to the Board.

Where the office of the secretary to the Board is held concurrently by a Director, and an act is required to be done by a Director and the secretary to the Board separately, the person who holds the office of Director and secretary to the Board may not perform the act in dual capacity.

CHAPTER 13 GENERAL MANAGER AND OTHER SENIOR MANAGEMENT OF THE COMPANY

Article 105 The Company shall have one general manager, as well as deputy general manager, financial officer, general legal counsel, secretary of the Board, company secretary and other senior management, who shall be appointed and dismissed by the Board. The general manager and other senior management shall perform the duties of operation planning, implementation monitoring and management strengthening.

Article 106 The senior management of the Company shall be appointed for a term of three years, renewable upon re-appointment.

Article 107 The general manager of the Company shall be accountable to the Board and exercise the following powers:

(1) to lead the Company's production, operation and management, organize resources to carry out the Board's resolutions and report to the Board;

(2) to organize the implementation of the Company's annual business plan and investment plan;

(3) to draft plans for the establishment of the Company's internal management structure;

(4) to draft the Company's basic management system;

(5) to formulate the specific rules and regulations of Company;

(6) to propose the appointment or dismissal of the Company's deputy general manager(s) and chief financial officer and general legal counsel and chief quality officer;

(7) to appoint or dismiss management personnel other than those required to be appointed or dismissed by the Board;

(8) to exercise other powers conferred by the Articles of Association and the Board.

Article 108 The general manager of the Company shall attend Board meetings.

Article 109 The senior management of the Company shall act honestly and diligently and comply with the laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association. A senior management member shall be personally liable for any loss suffered by the Company as a result of a violation by him of any laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules or the Articles of Association in the course of performing his/her duties.

CHAPTER 14 SUPERVISORY COMMITTEE

Article 110 The Company shall have a supervisory committee.

Article 111 (1) The Supervisory Committee shall be composed of three to five Supervisors. One of the members of the Supervisory Committee shall act as the chairman of the Committee. The term of office of a Supervisor shall be three years, renewable upon re-election and re-appointment.

Upon re-election of the Supervisory Committee, the number of external supervisors shall account for more than one half of the total number of supervisors

(2) The appointment and dismissal of the chairman of the Supervisory Committee shall be passed by not less than two-thirds (inclusive) of its members.

Article 112 The Supervisory Committee shall comprise at least two representatives of shareholders and one representative of the Company’s staff and workers. The representatives of shareholders shall be elected and dismissed by the general meeting. The Representatives of the Company’s staff and workers shall be democratically elected and dismissed by the Company’s staff.

Article 113 The Directors, general manager and other senior management of the Company shall not assume the position of supervisors

Article 114 Meetings of the Supervisory Committee shall be held at least once every six months and convened by the Chairman of the Supervisory Committee.

Article 115 The Supervisory Committee shall be accountable to the general meeting and exercise the following powers in accordance with the laws:

- (1) to examine the Company’s financial affairs;
- (2) to supervise Directors, general manager and other senior management members on the violation of laws, administrative regulations or the Articles of Association in performing their duties to the Company;
- (3) to demand rectification from a Director, general manager and any other senior management members when the acts of such persons are harmful to the Company’s interest;
- (4) to examine the financial information such as the financial report, business report and plans for distribution of profits to be submitted by the Board to the general meetings and, should any queries arise, to engage, in the name of the Company, certified public accountants and practicing auditors to conduct a re-examination;

- (5) to propose the convening of an extraordinary general meeting;
- (6) to deal with or take legal actions against Directors on behalf of the Company;
- (7) to exercise other powers specified in the Articles of Association;
- (8) the supervisors shall attend Board meetings.

Article 116 A meeting of the Supervisory Committee shall be held only when over half of the Supervisors are present. Resolution at a Supervisory Committee meeting shall be approved by two-thirds (inclusive) of the supervisors by poll.

Article 117 All reasonable expenses incurred in respect of the employment of professionals such as lawyers, certified public accountants or practicing auditors as are required by the Supervisory Committee in discharging its duties shall be borne by the Company.

Article 118 A supervisor shall carry out his/her duties honestly and faithfully in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association.

CHAPTER 15 QUALIFICATIONS AND OBLIGATIONS OF DIRECTORS, SUPERVISORS, GENERAL MANAGER AND OTHER SENIOR MANAGEMENT OF THE COMPANY

Article 119 A person shall be disqualified for being a director, a supervisor, a general manager or other senior management members of the Company in any of the following circumstances:

- (1) the individual has no capacity to undertake civil liabilities or restricted capacity to undertake civil liabilities;

- (6) the person has been involved in a criminal offence which is subject to investigation by the judicial authority, and the case remains unsettled;

(7) the person is not eligible for acting in the leadership of a Company or an enterprise according to the laws or administrative regulations;

(8) the person is not a natural person;

(9) a period of five years has not yet elapsed since the person was adjudged by the relevant regulatory authorities to be guilty of contravention of provisions of securities regulations involving fraud or dishonesty.

Article 120 The validity of an act of a director, general manager and other senior management members on behalf of the Company is not, vis-a`-vis a bona fide third party, affected by any irregularity in his office, election or any defect in his qualification.

Article 121 In addition to the obligations imposed by the laws, administrative regulations or required by the listing rules of the stock exchange on which Shares of the Company are listed, each director, supervisor, general manager and other senior management members of the Company shall, in the exercise of the functions and powers of the Company entrusted to him/her, be obliged to bear the following duties towards each shareholder:

(1) not to cause the Company to exceed the scope of business stipulated in its business license;

(2) to act honestly in the best interest of the Company;

(3) not to expropriate in any guise the Company's property, including but not limited to usurpation of opportunities advantageous to the Company;

(4) not to expropriate the individual rights of shareholders, including but not limited to rights to distribution and voting rights, save pursuant to a restructuring of the Company submitted to shareholders for approval in accordance with the Articles of Association.

Article 122 Each director, supervisor, general manager and other senior management members of the Company shall, in the exercise of his/her powers and discharge of his/her obligations, be obliged to exercise the care, diligence and capability that a prudent person would reasonably exercise in comparable circumstances.

Article 123 Each director, supervisor, general manager and any other senior management members of the Company shall exercise his powers or perform his/her duties in accordance with the principle of fiduciary; and shall not put himself/herself in a position where there may be conflicts between his/her duties and his/her interests. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the following obligations (including but not limited to) shall be discharged:

(1) to act honestly in the best interests of the Company;

(2) to exercise powers within the scope of his/her powers and not to exceed those authorizations;

(3) to exercise the discretion vested in him personally and not to allow himself to act under the control of another and, unless and to the extent permitted by the laws, administrative regulations or with the consent of informed shareholders at a general meeting, not to delegate the exercise of his discretion;

(4) to treat shareholders of the same class equally and to treat shareholders of different classes fairly;

(5) except otherwise stipulated by the Articles of Association or otherwise consented by informed shareholders at a general meeting, not to enter into any contract, transaction or arrangement with the Company;

(6) without the consent of informed shareholders at a general meeting, not to use the Company's property by any means for his own benefits;

(7) not to exploit his position to accept bribes or other illegal income or appropriate the Company's property by any means, including but not limited to opportunities advantageous to the Company;

(8) without the consent of informed shareholders at a general meeting, not to accept commissions in connection with any of the Company's transactions;

(9) to abide by the Articles of Association, perform his official duties faithfully and protect the Company's interests, and not to exploit his position and power in the Company to advance his own private benefits;

(10) not to compete with the Company in any way unless with the consent of informed shareholders at a general meeting;

(11) not to misappropriate the Company's funds or lend such funds to others, not to open accounts in his own name or other names for the deposit of the Company's assets and not to provide a guarantee for debts of a shareholder of the Company or other individual(s) with the Company's assets;

(12) unless otherwise permitted by informed shareholders at a general meeting, to keep information acquired by him in confidentiality in the course of and during his tenure and not to use the information other than in furtherance of the interests of the Company, save and except that disclosure of such information to the court or other governmental competent authorities is permitted if:

1. disclosure is made under compulsion of the laws;
2. the interests of the public require disclosure;
3. the interests of the relevant director, supervisor manager and other senior management members require disclosure.

Article 124 Each director, supervisor, general manager and any other senior management members of the Company shall not cause the following persons or institutions ("associates") to do what he is prohibited from doing:

(1) the spouse or minor children of that director, supervisor, general manager and other senior management members;

(2) a person acting in the capacity of a trustee of that director, supervisor, general manager and other senior management members or any person referred to in sub-clause (1) of this Article;

(3) a person acting in the capacity of partner of that director, supervisor, general manager and other senior management members or any person referred to in sub-clauses (1) and (2) of this Article;

(4) a company in which that director, supervisor, general manager and other senior management members, alone or jointly with one or more personnel referred to in sub-clauses (1), (2) and (3) of this Article and other directors, supervisors, general manager and other senior management members having a de facto controlling interest;

(5) directors, supervisors, general manager and other senior management members of the controlled entities referred to in sub-clause (4) of this Article.

Article 125 The fiduciary duties of each director, supervisor, general manager and other senior management members of the Company shall not be necessarily ceased with the termination of his tenure. The duty of confidentiality in relation to trade secrets of the Company shall survive upon termination of his tenure. Other duties may continue for such period as fairness may require depending on the time lapses between the termination and the act concerned and the circumstances and conditions under which the relationships between him and the Company are terminated.

Article 126 Except as provided in Article 51 hereof, each director, supervisor, general manager and other senior management of the Company may be relieved of liability for specific breaches of his duties by the consent of informed shareholders at a general meeting.

Article 127 Where a director, supervisor, general manager and any other senior management members of the Company is in any way, directly or indirectly, materially interested in a contract, transaction or arrangement or proposed contract, transaction or arrangement with the Company (other than an employment contract of each director, supervisor, general manager and any other senior management members with the Company), he shall declare the nature and extent of his interests to the Board at the earliest opportunity, whether or not the relevant issues shall be otherwise subject to approval of the Board under normal circumstance.

Unless an interested director, supervisor, general manager and other senior management members disclose his interests in accordance with this Article and the contracts, transactions or arrangements are approved by the Board at a meeting at which such interested director, supervisor, general manager or other senior management members shall not be counted in the quorum and shall have abstained from voting. A contract, transaction or arrangement in which that particular director, supervisor, general manager and other senior management members is materially interested is avoidable at the instance of the Company, except as against a bona fide party thereto acting without being aware of the breach of duty by the interested director, supervisor, general manager or other senior management members.

Each director, supervisor, general manager and other senior management members of the Company shall be deemed to be interested in a contract, transaction or arrangement in which any associate of the director, supervisor, general manager and other senior management members are interested.

Article 128 Where a director, supervisor, general manager and other senior management members of the Company gives to the Board before the Company's first consideration of formulation of any contract, transaction or arrangement, a general notice in writing stating that, by reason of the facts specified in the notice, he is interested in such contracts, transactions or arrangements of any description which may subsequently be made by the Company, the content stated in such notice shall be deemed for the purposes of the preceding Article of this Chapter to be a sufficient disclosure of the interests of the director, supervisor, general manager and other senior management members.

Article 129 The Company shall not in any manner pay taxes for or on behalf of its director, supervisor, general manager and any other senior management members.

Article 130 The Company shall neither directly or indirectly make a loan to or provide any guarantee to its director, supervisor, general manager and other senior management members of the Company or of its parent company, nor make a loan to or provide any loan guarantee in connection thereto to any of their respective associates.

The provisions of the preceding paragraph shall not be applicable to the following circumstances:

(1) the provision by the Company of a loan or a loan guarantee to a company which is a subsidiary of the Company;

(2) the provision by the Company of a loan or a loan guarantee or any other funds to a director, supervisor, general manager and other senior management members of the Company to meet expenditures incurred or to be incurred by him for the purposes of the Company or for the purpose of enabling him to properly perform his duties, in accordance with the terms of a employment contract approved by shareholders at a general meeting;

(3) the Company may make a loan to or provide a loan guarantee to any of the relevant directors, supervisors, general manager and other senior management members and their respective associates in the ordinary course of its business on normal commercial terms, provided that the ordinary course of business of the Company should include the lending of money or the giving of guarantees.

Article 131 A loan made by the Company in breach of the preceding Article shall be forthwith repayable by the recipient of the loan regardless of the terms of the loan.

Article 132 A guarantee for repayment of loan provided by the Company in breach of sub-clause 1 of Article 130 shall not be enforceable against the Company, unless:

(1) the guarantee was provided in connection with a loan to an associate of any of the directors, supervisors, general managers and other senior management members of the Company or of the Company's parent company and the lender were not aware of the relevant circumstances at the time the loan was advanced;

or

(2) the collateral provided by the Company has been lawfully disposed of by the lender to a bona fide purchaser.

Article 133 For the purpose of the foregoing paragraph of this Chapter, a guarantee shall include an undertaking or property provided to secure the performance of obligations by the obligor.

Article 134 In addition to any rights and remedies provided by the laws and administrative regulations, where a director, supervisor, general manager and other senior management members of the Company is in breach of his duties to the Company, the Company shall have a right to:

(1) claim damages from the director, supervisor, general manager and other senior management members in compensation for losses sustained by the Company as a result of such breach;

(2) rescind any contract or transaction entered into by the Company with the director, supervisor, general manager and other senior management members or with a third party (where such third party knows or should know that there is such a breach of obligations by such a director, supervisor, general manager and other senior management members);

(3) demand an account of the profits made by the director, supervisor, general manager and other senior management members in breach of his obligations;

(4) recover any monies received by the director, supervisor, general manager and other senior management members which should otherwise have been received by the Company, including but not limited to commissions; and

(5) request such director, supervisor, general manager and other senior management members to return the interests accrued or may be accrued on the monies which otherwise should have been paid to the Company.

Article 135 The Company shall, with prior approval of shareholders at a general meeting, enter into a contract in writing with a director or supervisor wherein his emoluments are stipulated. The aforesaid emoluments shall include:

(1) the emoluments in respect of his labour as a director, supervisor or senior management members of the Company;

(2) the emoluments in respect of his labour as director, supervisor or senior management members of any subsidiary of the Company;

(3) the emoluments in respect of the provision of other labours in connection with the management of the affairs of the Company and any of its subsidiaries;

(4) the payment to such a director or supervisor by way of compensation for his loss of office, or as consideration for or in connection with his retirement from office.

Except under a contract entered into in accordance with the foregoing paragraph, no proceedings may be brought by a director or supervisor against the Company for any benefits due to him in respect of the matters mentioned in this Article.

Article 136 The contract concerning the emoluments between the Company and its directors or supervisors should provide that in the event of a takeover of the Company, the Company's directors and supervisors shall, subject to prior approval of shareholders at a general meeting, have the right to receive compensation or other payment in respect of his loss of office or retirement. A takeover of the Company referred to of the preceding paragraph means any of the following circumstances:

- (1) an offer made by any person to all the shareholders;
- (2) an offer made by any person with a view to have the offerer becoming a controlling shareholder within the same defined meaning as ascribed to it in Article 52 of the Articles of Association.

Where the relevant director or supervisor is in breach of this Article, any sum so received by him shall belong to those persons who have sold their shares as a result of the acceptance of the said offer. The expenses incurred in distributing that sum pro rata amongst those persons shall be borne by the relevant director or supervisor and shall not be deductible from that sum.

CHAPTER 16 EMPLOYEE DEMOCRATIC MANAGEMENT AND LABOR AND PERSONNEL SYSTEM

Article 137 The Company establishes and improves the employee representatives' general meeting. The employee representatives' general meeting is the basic form of democratic management of the Company and the organ through which the employees exercise their democratic management rights.

Article 138 Workers of the Company shall organize labor union, conduct trade union activities and safeguard the legal interests of workers in accordance with the PRC Trade Union Law. The Company shall provide conditions which are prerequisite for the activities of the trade union. The labor union is responsible for the daily work of the employee representative assembly.

Article 139 The Company shall comply with national laws and administrative regulations on labor employment, labor protection, safe production and social security, and implement the national labor protection, social insurance system and related policies, and is obliged to respect and protect the legitimate rights and interests of its employees. The Company shall formulate labor, personnel and wage system in accordance with the national laws, administrative regulations and policies on labor and personnel and the needs of production and operation.

CHAPTER 17 GENERAL LEGAL COUNSEL SYSTEM

Article 140 The Company adopts the general legal counsel system to further exert the function of general legal counsel of the Company in legal review and supervision of operation and management, thereby facilitating the legal operation and compliance management of the Company. The general legal counsel shall be nominated by the general manager, and shall be appointed by the Board.

Article 141 The general legal counsel is a senior management member appointed by the Board and is the specific leader of the Company's rule of law efforts. The general legal counsel shall be responsible for legal affairs of the Company by coordinating and handling legal affairs in decision-making, operation and management of the Company, as well as legal compliance review of major decisions. The general legal counsel reports directly to the general manager or Chairman of the Board and is accountable to the Board.

CHAPTER 18 FINANCIAL AND ACCOUNTING SYSTEMS, PROFIT DISTRIBUTION AND AUDIT AND ACCOUNTABILITY OF NON-COMPLIANCE OF OPERATION AND INVESTMENT

Article 142 The Company shall establish its financial and accounting systems in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations and the PRC accounting standards formulated by the finance regulatory department of the State Council.

Article 143 At the end of each fiscal year, the Company shall prepare a financial report, which shall be reviewed and verified in accordance with laws.

Article 144 The Board shall, at each annual general meeting, submit to shareholders the financial reports prepared by the Company in accordance with the provisions for normative documents which are promulgated by the relevant laws, administrative regulations and local governments and departmental authorities.

Article 145 The Company's financial reports shall be made available for shareholders' inspection at the Company not later than 21 days before the date of each annual general meeting. Each shareholder shall be entitled to an access of a copy of the financial reports referred to in this Chapter.

Article 146 The financial statements of the Company shall, in addition to being prepared in accordance with the PRC accounting standards and regulations, be prepared in accordance with either international accounting standards, or that of the place outside the PRC where the Company's shares are listed. If there is any material difference between the financial statements prepared respectively in accordance with the two accounting standards, such difference shall be stated in the notes to the financial statements. When the Company is to distribute its profits of the relevant fiscal year, the lower of the after-tax profits as shown in the two financial statements shall be adopted.

Article 147 Any results or financial information published or disclosed by the Company must also be prepared and presented in accordance with the PRC accounting standards and regulations, and also in accordance with either the international accounting standards or those of the overseas location where the shares of the Company are listed.

Article 148 The Company shall publish two financial reports in each fiscal year, meaning that the interim reports shall be published within 60 days after the first six months of the fiscal year and the annual reports shall be published within 120 days after the expiration of the fiscal year.

Article 149 The Company shall not keep accounts other than those provided for by the laws.

Article 150 Capital common reserve fund includes the following items:

- (1) premium on shares served at a premium price;
- (2) any other income designated for the capital common reserve fund by the regulations of the competent financial authority of the State Council.

Article 151 The Company may distribute a dividend in the following forms:

- (1) cash;
- (2) shares.

Article 152 The Company shall appoint on behalf of the holders of the overseas listed shares receiving agents to receive on behalf of such shareholder dividends declared and all other monies owing by the Company in respect of such shares.

The receiving agents appointed by the Company shall satisfy the relevant requirements of the laws of the place and relevant regulations of the stock exchange on which the Company's shares are listed and the relevant requirements of this Article of Association.

In addition to the above, the Company shall appoint on behalf of the holders of the overseas-listed shares listed in the Hong Kong Stock Exchange receiving agents. Such agents shall be a Company registered as a trust Company under the Trustee Ordinance of Hong Kong.

Article 153 The Company implement an internal audit system with dedicated audit persons to conduct internal audit and supervision of revenue and expenditures and economic activities of the Company. The internal audit system and duties of audit personnel of the Company shall be approved by Board before such system and duties are to be implemented. The audit department shall be accountable to, and report its work to, the Board.

Article 154 If any personnel of the Company violate the laws and regulations, the rules and regulations for the supervision of state-owned assets and the internal management system of the Company, fail to perform or fail to properly perform their duties, and cause losses of state-owned assets or other serious adverse consequences in the operation and investment, those responsible will be held accountable.

Article 155 Accountability for non-compliance of operation and investment includes but is not limited to the following areas: corporate control, risk management, project contracting, capital management, transfer of property rights (including the equity and assets of the respective company), fixed assets investment, investment mergers and acquisitions, reorganization and restructuring, overseas operation and investment, etc.

Article 156 Investigation and verification of non-compliance of operation and investment, confirmation of responsibility and consequential actions shall be carried out in accordance with the relevant laws and regulations and related rules and systems of the Company.

CHAPTER 19 APPOINTMENT OF ACCOUNTANT FIRM

Article 157 The Company shall appoint an independent accountant firm which is qualified under the relevant regulations of the PRC to audit annual reports of the Company and review the other financial reports of the Company.

The appointment, removal and compensation of accounting firm must be approved by a majority of the Company's shareholders or other body that is independent of the Board. The first accountant firm of the Company may be appointed by the inaugural meeting of the Company before the first annual general meeting. The accountant firm so appointed shall hold office until the close of the first annual general meeting.

Article 158 The accountant firm appointed by the Company shall hold office from the close of the annual general meeting until the conclusion of the next annual general meeting.

Article 159 The accountant firm appointed by the Company shall have the following rights:

(1) a right to inspect the books, records and vouchers of the Company at any time, the right to require directors, managers or other senior management members of the Company to supply relevant information and explanation;

(2) a right to require the Company to take all reasonable steps to obtain from its subsidiaries such information and explanation as are necessary for the purpose of discharging its duties;

(3) a right to attend general meeting and to receive all notices of, and information relating to, any general meeting which any shareholder is entitled to receive, and to speak at any general meeting for matters in relation to its capacity as the Company's accountant firm.

Article 160 (1) If there is a vacancy in the position of the auditor of the Company, the general meeting may appoint an accountant firm to fill such vacancy. Any other accountant firm which has been engaged by the Company may continue to act during the period of existence of such vacancy.

(2) Where it is proposed that any resolution be passed at a general meeting concerning the appointment of an accountant firm which is not an incumbent firm to fill a casual vacancy in the office of the accountant firm, re-appointment of a retiring accountant firm which was appointed by the Board of the Company to fill a casual vacancy, or removal of the accountant firm before the expiration of its term of office, the following provisions shall apply:

1. a copy of the proposal shall be sent before notice of meeting is given to the shareholders to the accountant firm proposed to be appointed or proposing to leave its post, or the accountant firm which has left its post in the relevant fiscal year.(Leaving from office includes leaving by removal, resignation and retirement.);

2. if the accountant firm leaving its post makes representations in writing and requests the Company to notify such representations to the shareholders, the Company shall (unless the written representations are received too late):

(i) state the fact of the representations having been made by the accountant firm leaving in any notice of the resolution given to shareholders, and

(ii) deliver a copy of the representations to each shareholder who is entitled to receive the notice of general meetings.

3. the relevant accountant firm may (in addition to its right to be heard) require that the representations be read out at the meeting if the representations of the relevant accountant firm are not sent in accordance with this sub-clause (2).

4. An accountant firm which is leaving its post shall be entitled to attend the following meetings:

(i) the general meeting at which its term of office would otherwise have expired;

(ii) any general meeting at which it is proposed to fill the vacancy caused by its removal;

(iii) any general meeting convened on its resignation.

An accountant firm which is leaving its post shall be entitled to receive all notices of, and other information relating to, any such meetings, and to speak at any such meetings in relation to matters concerning its role as the former accountant firm of the Company.

(3) An accountant firm may resign its office by depositing at the Company's legal address a resignation notice. Such notice shall include the following information:

(i) a statement to the effect that there are no circumstances connected with its resignation which it considers should be brought to the notice of the shareholders or creditors of the Company; or

(ii) a statement of any such circumstances which should be brought to notice.

Such notices shall become effective on the date of the deposit on the Company's legal address or on such later date as may be stipulated in such notices.

(4) Where a notice is deposited as mentioned in sub-clause (3) of this Article, the Company shall, within fourteen days, send a copy of the notice to the relevant competent authorities. If the notice contains a statement under sub-clause (2)(ii) of this Article, a copy of such statement shall be served to each shareholder who is entitled to receive the report regarding financial conditions of the Company.

(5) Where the accountant firm's notice of resignation contains a statement as referred to under sub-clause (2)(ii) of this Article, it may require the Board to convene an extraordinary general meeting for the purpose of receiving an explanation of the circumstances connected with its resignation.

Article 161 Notwithstanding the stipulations in the contract between the Company and the accountant firm, shareholders at a general meeting may, by ordinary resolution, remove an accountant firm before the expiration of its term of office, but without prejudice to the right of the firm to claim, if any, for damages in respect of such removal.

Article 162 The remuneration of an accountant firm or the manner in which such firm is to be remunerated shall be determined by shareholders at a general meeting.

Article 163 The Company's appointment, removal and non-reappointment of an accountant firm shall be resolved upon by shareholders in general meeting. The resolution of the general meeting shall be filed with the China Securities Regulatory Commission.

Article 164 (1) Prior to the removal or the non-renewal of the appointment of the accountant firm, notice of such removal or non-renewal shall be given in advance to the accountant firm and such firm shall be entitled to make representation at the general meeting. Where the accountant firm resigns its post, it shall make clear to the general meeting whether there has been any impropriety on the part of the Company.

(2) "Accountant firm" and "Auditor" shall have the same meanings in this Chapter.

CHAPTER 20 MERGER AND DIVISION OF THE COMPANY

Article 165 In the event of any merger or division of the Company, the Board of the Company shall submit proposals to be approved in accordance with the procedures as stipulated in the Articles of Association, before going through the relevant examination and approval procedures as required by laws. Shareholders who object to the proposal of merger or division are entitled to request the Company or shareholders who agree to the proposal to purchase their shares at a fair price. Resolutions on merger or division shall be recorded as a special document for shareholders' inspection.

The aforesaid document shall also be sent by mail to holders of overseas listed shares.

Article 166 The merger of the Company may take the form of either merger by absorption or merger by the establishment of a new company.

In the event of a merger, the parties to the merger shall enter into a merger agreement and prepare balance sheets and inventories of assets. The company shall notify its creditors within ten days of the date of the Company's resolution on merger and shall publish an announcement on newspapers at least three times within thirty days of the date of the Company's resolution on merger.

After the merger, claims and liabilities of parties to the merger shall be taken over by the continuing company or the newly established company.

Article 167 When there is a division of the Company, its assets shall be divided up accordingly.

In the event of a division of the Company, the dividing parties shall enter into a division agreement and prepare balance sheets and inventories of assets. The Company shall notify its creditors within ten days of the date of the Company's division resolution and shall publish an announcement on newspaper at least three times within thirty days of the date of the Company's division resolution.

Liabilities of the Company prior to the division shall be assumed by the companies which exist after the division in accordance with the agreement entered into.

Article 168 When the merger or division of the Company involves changes in registered particulars, such changes shall be registered with the company registration authority in accordance with the law. When the Company dissolves, the Company shall cancel its registration in accordance with the law. When a new company is established, its establishment shall be registered in accordance with the law.

CHAPTER 21 DISSOLUTION AND LIQUIDATION OF THE COMPANY

Article 169 In one of the following cases, the Company shall be dissolved, and undergo liquidation according to law:

- (1) the expiry of the term of operation;
- (2) the general meeting makes a resolution on dissolution;
- (3) the Company has to be dissolved on account of its merger or separation;
- (4) the Company is declared as bankrupt according to law on account of its being unable to repay due debts;
- (5) the Company has been ordered to close down for violation of the laws or administrative regulations.

Article 170 Where the Company is dissolved on account of the regulation in sub-clause (1) and (2) of the preceding Article, a clearing group shall be set up in 15 days, and its members shall be determined by the general meeting through an ordinary resolution.

Where the Company is dissolved on account of the regulation in sub-clauses (4) of the preceding Article, the people's court shall according to the relevant laws, organise the shareholders, the relevant authorities and the professionals to form a liquidation group for the liquidation work.

Where the Company is dissolved on account of the regulation in sub-clause (5) of the preceding Article, the relevant competent department shall organise the shareholders, the relevant authorities and the professionals to form a liquidation group for carrying out the liquidation work.

Article 171 In the event that the Board makes a decision upon liquidation of the Company (save and except for a liquidation in the event of the Company being declared as bankrupt), it shall, in the notice on the general meeting to be held on this, state that the Board has made a comprehensive investigation of the Company's conditions, and hold that the Company can clear off all liabilities of the Company within 12 months from the commencement of liquidation.

Upon passing of the resolution on liquidation at the general meeting, the functions of the Board of the Company shall be immediately terminated.

The liquidation group shall follow the instructions from the general meeting, make at least one report each year to the general meeting on the income and expenditure of the liquidation group as well as Company's business and progress on the liquidation, and make the final report to the general meeting at the end of the liquidation.

Article 172 The liquidation committee shall notify all creditors within 10 days after its establishment and shall make at least 3 newspaper announcements within 60 days. The liquidation group should register claims.

Article 173 During the period of liquidation, the liquidation group shall perform the following functions and powers:

- (1) clear up the Company's property and formulate the balance sheet and list of property;
- (2) send notifications or declarations to the creditors;
- (3) dispose of and clear up pending business of the Company;
- (4) pay due taxes and taxes accrued during the course of liquidation;
- (5) clear off claims and debts;
- (6) dispose of the Company's remaining property after the repayment of the debts;
- (7) participate in civil proceedings on behalf of the Company.

Article 174 After clearing up Company's property and formulating the balance sheet and list of property, the liquidation group shall formulate the liquidation scheme and submit the same to the general meeting or the relevant competent authorities for confirmation.

The assets of the Company shall be liquidated in the following order of priority:

- (1) liquidation costs payable;
- (2) salaries and social insurance premiums payable to the employees;
- (3) outstanding taxes;
- (4) debts of the Company.

The remaining assets of the Company upon repayment as specified in the preceding paragraph shall be distributed to the shareholders as per the types of their shares and their shareholding percentages.

During the period of liquidation, the Company shall not carry out any new business activities.

Article 175 In the event of Company's liquidation owing to dissolution, where the liquidation group finds out that Company's property are not sufficient for repayment of the debts after clearing up Company's property and formulating the balance sheet and lists of property, it shall immediately apply for declaration of bankruptcy with the people's court.

After the Company is declared as bankrupt through a verdict made by the people's court, the liquidation group shall prepare and hand over the liquidation matters to the people's court.

Article 176 Upon completion of the Company's liquidation, the liquidation group shall prepare a liquidation report as well as an income/expenditure statement and financial books for the period of liquidation, which shall, after verification by certified public accountants in the PRC, be submitted at the general meeting or to the relevant competent authorities for confirmation.

The liquidation group shall submit the aforesaid documents to the Company registration authorities, apply for cancellation of the Company's registration, and announce the Company's dissolution within 30 days after confirmation at the general meeting or by the relevant competent authorities.

CHAPTER 22 PROCEDURES FOR AMENDMENTS TO THE ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION

Article 177 The Company may, pursuant to the requirements of the laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association, amend the Articles of Association.

Article 178 The amendment to the Company's Articles of Association involving the Mandatory Provisions for Overseas-listed Companies' Articles of Associations shall become effective upon receipt of approvals from the approving department authorised by the State Council and the China Securities Regulatory Commission. If there is any change relating to the registered particulars of the Company, application shall be made for registration of the changes to the relevant commercial and industrial administrations in accordance with law.

CHAPTER 23 SETTLEMENT OF DISPUTES

Article 179 (1) Whenever any disputes or claims arise between holders of the overseas-listed invested shares and the Company, holders of the overseas-listed invested shares and the Company's Directors, supervisors, general manager, or other senior management members, or holders of the overseas-listed invested shares and holders of domestic-invested shares, based on the Articles of Association or any rights or obligations conferred or imposed by the Company Law or any other relevant laws and administrative regulations concerning the affairs of the Company, such disputes or claims shall be referred by the relevant parties to arbitration.

Where a dispute or claim of rights abovementioned is referred to arbitration, the entire claim or dispute must be referred to arbitration and any person (being the Company or a shareholder, Director, supervisor, general manager or other senior management members of the Company) who has a cause of action based on the same facts giving rise to the dispute or claim or whose participation is necessary for the resolution of such dispute or claim, shall abide by the arbitration.

Disputes in relation to the identification of shareholders and disputes in relation to the register of shareholders need not be referred to arbitration.

(2) A claimant may elect arbitration at either the China International Economic and Trade Arbitration Commission in accordance with its rules or the Hong Kong International Arbitration Centre in accordance with its Securities Arbitration Rules. Once a claimant refers a dispute or claim to arbitration, the other party must submit to the arbitral body elected by the claimant.

If a claimant elects arbitration at Hong Kong International Arbitration Centre, any party to the dispute or claim may apply for a hearing to take place in Shenzhen in accordance with the Securities Arbitration Rules of the Hong Kong International Arbitration Centre.

(3) If any disputes or claims of rights prescribed in subparagraph (1) above are referred to arbitration, the laws of the People's Republic of China shall apply, save as otherwise provided in laws and administrative regulations.

(4) The award of an arbitration body shall be final and conclusive and binding on all parties.

CHAPTER 24 OTHERS

Article 180 Any requirement in these Articles of Association on the Company to send, mail, dispatch, issue, publish or otherwise make available any Corporate Communication may, to the extent permitted under the laws and regulations and the listing rules in the place where the Company's shares are listed and the Articles of Association, be satisfied by making available the Corporate Communication on the website of the Company or by sending or providing the same through electronic means.

“Corporate Communication” refers to any document issued or to be issued by the Company for the information or action of holders of any of its securities, including but not limited to: (a) the directors’ report, its annual accounts together with a copy of the auditor’s report and, where applicable, its summary financial report; (b) the interim report and, where applicable, its summary interim report; (c) a quarterly report; (d) notice of meeting; (e) a listing document; (f) a circular; and (g) a proxy form within the meaning as ascribed thereto under the listing rules of the stock exchange where its shares are listed.”

Article 181 "TONG REN TANG" and "Beijing Tong Ren Tang" are brand name and trademark of China Beijing Tong Ren Tang (Group) Co., Ltd. The Company's products or services involving the use of the "TONG REN TANG" brand and trademark shall be subject to the relevant regulations and agreements of China Beijing Tong Ren Tang (Group) Co., Ltd. Where a connected transaction is involved, such transaction shall subject to relevant approval procedures as required by the Listing Rules of the Stock Exchange.
