CHAIRMAN'S STATEMENT

Dear Shareholders,

On behalf of the board (the "Board") of directors (the "Directors") of Kiddieland International Limited ("Kiddieland" or the "Company"), I hereby present the fifth consolidated financial statements of the Company and its subsidiaries (collectively, the "Group") for the year ended 30 April 2022 following the initial public offering in September 2017.

During the year ended 30 April 2022, ocean freight costs on certain routes have risen by as much as 500%. As such, the business performance of the export business sector worldwide was seriously affected. Orders from customers around the world were seriously affected by the elevated ocean freight rates and prolonged container shortage especially in the first half of the financial year. The Group's revenue for the year ended 30 April 2022 amounted to approximately HK$244.2 million, representing a decrease of 19.1% over last year.

In the past few years, the company's profitability is mainly affected by the increase in raw materials price, the appreciation of RMB and the labour shortage. In addition, with the difficulties in managing the daily operation of the PRC factory efficiently by the Hong Kong management due to the closure of HK/PRC border, subcontracting the toys manufacturing to the reliable suppliers in the coming future will be one of the best solutions to survive in the current unstable market. With less capital investment in fixed assets and less overheads including the direct labour cost, the Management believes the arrangement will bring a positive result in the near future.

On 29 January 2022, the Company entered into an agreement for a joint venture formation in the PRC. The newly invested entity is principally engaging in the development and production of laboratory equipment for primary and secondary schools and evaluation system for scoring students based on their experimental operation test performance, sale of self-produced products to schools and sales agents, and provision of product installation and commissioning services. Its business operation and the target market are purely in the PRC, which is less sensitive to the macro-economy.

There are still uncertainties abound for the year ahead due to continued Sino-USA trade disputes, military conflict between Russia and Ukraine, geopolitical tensions and resurgent of COVID outbreaks. Despite the different challenges we encounter from various fronts, we still believe our success stems from our dedication to delivering high-quality products at competitive prices.

On behalf of the Board, I would like to take this opportunity to express my sincere thanks and gratitude to all fellow Directors, management and our staff for their dedication and contribution to our Group's development. I would also like to thank all our shareholders, business partners, customers, suppliers and bankers for their trust and continuous support in the previous year.

Yours Faithfully

Lo Hung
Chairman

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

BUSINESS REVIEW

As mentioned in the “Outlook/future prospects and strategies” section in the 2021 annual report and 2021 interim report, freight rates have escalated multiple during the year, the adverse effect is especially large to our company as our main products, ride-on toys are relatively bulky in nature or relatively low sales values in term of its physical size. From our target customers’ perspective, the actual unit cost after considering the freight cost incurred had increased a lot. Therefore, the high freight rates issue largely hurt the demands from our customers around the world. At the same time, the availability of containers was extremely scarce and hard to get, especially during the first half of the financial year. Even the customers have room to absorb the high freight rates, with the difficulties in obtaining containers, customers have no choice but to reduce their demands or many orders were deferred during the peak season of the financial year.

Following by a 22.9% decrease in the revenue for the first half of financial year 2022, it is expected that the trend of the sales performance for the second half of the year will not have a dramatically change. The revenue generated from our toy business for the second half of financial year 2022 has decreased by 14.1% to approximately HK$67.8 million as compared to approximately HK$78.9 million for the corresponding period last year.

At the end of January 2022, our Group invested and started a new business which is related to manufacturing and selling of laboratory equipment for primary and secondary school in the PRC. Since the business is at the starting stage and with only three months effect, the revenue generated from this segment was approximately HK$4.5 million.

The Group’s revenue for the whole year was approximately HK$244.2 million, which has decreased by 19.1% as compared to last year (2021: HK$301.9 million).

For the production cost perspective, the substantial rises in price of raw materials, ranging from plastics to paper, metal and electronic parts erode our gross profit as generally 40% of our cost of sales is from cost of raw materials. In addition, the strong RMB against US$ also erodes part of our profitability, as our expenses including labour cost and other overhead costs, incurred in the PRC are all in RMB. Thus, our overall production costs increased during the financial year too.

The suppressed sales due to several factors mentioned coupled with a reduced gross profit margin, the Group performed an impairment assessment and identified several property, plant and equipment fell below the carrying amounts. The Group recognised an impairment loss on property, plant and equipment for approximately HK$32.5 million for the year (2021: Nil).

The Group recorded a net loss attributable to owners to the Company of approximately HK$65.5 million for the year ended 30 April 2022 (2021: net profit of HK$6.6 million). The net loss recorded by the Group this year was attributed to (i) the decrease in revenue; (ii) the increase in raw material prices; (iii) the appreciation of RMB against US$; and (iv) the impairment losses on property, plant and equipment and other receivable.

FINANCIAL REVIEW

Revenue

As mentioned in Business Review, revenue generated from North America decreased by 24.6% to approximately HK$145.4 million (2021: HK$192.8 million). Both average selling price and orders had decreased. The decrease was mainly attributed to revenue from a top developed country in the region and the switching of product mix to products with relatively low unit price. In addition, as the shipping crisis, namely, the high freight rates, the backlogs at U.S. ports, rail yards and trucking companies expected to derail the holiday toy sales during the first half of the year, thus, it mostly hurt the sales performance to North America.

On the other hand, revenue generated from Europe decreased by 10.1% to approximately HK$78.8 million (2021: HK$87.7 million). The sales orders from European markets had decreased. The revenue decrease was mainly attributed to the sluggish economy in several developing countries in Eastern Europe.

As a result of the above, the Group's overall revenue decreased by 19.1% to approximately HK$244.2 million (2021: HK$301.9 million).

Gross profit

The Group's gross profit decreased by 80.5% to approximately HK$10.4 million for the year (2021: HK$53.2 million). Although there was a 6.0% decrease in cost of sales during the year, the decreasing amplitude in revenue outweighs the range of the decrease in cost of sales.

The decrease was attributed to (i) the decrease in revenue discussed above; (ii) the increase in depreciation expenses during the year; (iii) the currency appreciation in RMB against US$; (iv) the raw material price inflation affected by the aggressive monetary and fiscal policies from Western countries; and (v) the absence of social insurance exemption from the government of People's Republic of China as compared to last year. Therefore, the Group's gross profit margin for the year decreased to 4.3% as compared to 17.6% of last year.

Impairment losses on property, plant and equipment

As impairment indicators existed, namely the decrease in revenue with a decrease in gross profit margin during the year, the Group performed an impairment assessment and identified the recoverable amounts of property, plant and equipment fell below the carrying amounts. Accordingly, the Group recognised impairment losses on property, plant and equipment for approximately HK$32.5 million for the year (2021: Nil).

Selling and distribution expenses

Selling and distribution expenses decreased by 55.6% to approximately HK$8.3 million for the year (2021: HK$18.7 million). The decrease was in line with the decrease in revenue. In addition, with such an unreasonable and extremely high freight cost mentioned above, the Group decided to stop the domestic business with one of the largest retailer in the U.S. and switching back the shipment to FOB term, i.e., title of goods is transferred to customers once the goods are on board, during the year. Thus, our Group does not have to bear the ocean freight costs for the sales. Therefore, the logistics and warehousing expenses dramatically decreased by 94.7% during the year.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

Administrative expenses

Administrative expenses, increased by 17.7% to approximately HK$35.2 million for the year (2021: HK$29.9 million). The increase was mainly attributed to (i) the increase in staff costs; and (ii) the absence of the government subsidies received relating to the Employment Support Scheme (“ESS”) implemented by the Government of the HKSAR.

Impairment losses on financial assets

The Group recorded net impairment losses on financial assets of approximately HK$11.2 million (2021: HK$0.1 million). It was mainly due to the significant increase in credit risk of the non-controlling shareholder of the newly setup subsidiary in the PRC. The 24.6% remaining share capital contribution with approximately HK$11.7 million payable by the non-controlling shareholder is highly probable in default.

Finance costs

Net finance costs decreased by 36.4% to approximately HK$0.7 million for the year (2021: HK$1.1 million). The decrease was attributed to the decrease in average bank borrowings level after receiving the cash proceeds from the disposal of the PRC subsidiary on March 2021.

Income tax (credits)/expenses

The Group recorded income tax credits (net of tax expenses) of approximately HK$6.5 million for the year whilst the Group recorded income tax expenses of HK$0.3 million for last year. The income tax credits for the year were mainly attributable to the operating loss recorded in the year. On the other hand, the income tax expenses for last year were attributable to the operating profit recorded in last year.

Net (loss)/profit

The Group recorded a net loss of approximately HK$65.5 million for the year (2021: net profit of HK$6.6 million). The net loss recorded this year was mainly attributed to (i) the 19.1% decrease in sales mentioned above; (ii) the increase in raw material price; (iii) the currency appreciation of RMB; (iv) the impairment losses on property, plant and equipment and other receivable; and (v) the increase in administrative staff costs. It was partially offset by the decrease in logistics and warehousing expenses and finance cost mentioned above.

Inventories

Inventories as at 30 April 2022 were approximately HK$93.4 million, decreased from approximately HK$95.5 million as at 30 April 2021. Inventory turnover days for the year were 147.5 days (2021: 143.1 days). The decrease in stock level was primarily attributed to the lower level of the raw materials purchased in the last 3 months of the financial year as compared to the same period of last year.

Trade receivables

Trade receivables as at 30 April 2022 were approximately HK$18.3 million, decreased from approximately HK$24.9 million as at 30 April 2021. Trade receivables turnover days for the year were 32.3 days (2021: 25.3 days). The decrease in trade receivables level was attributed to the decrease in sales level in the last 3 months of the financial year as compared to the same period of last year.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

Trade and bills payables

Trade and bills payables as at 30 April 2022 were approximately HK$14.3 million, decreased from approximately HK$20.9 million as at 30 April 2021. Trade and bills payables turnover days for the year were 27.4 days (2021: 27.0 days). The decrease in trade and bills payables level was attributed to the decrease in purchasing activity and production capacity in the last 3 months of the financial year as compared to the same period of last year.

Liquidity and financial resources

During the year ended 30 April 2022, the Group mainly financed its working capital by internal resources and bank borrowings. As at 30 April 2022, cash and cash equivalents amounted to approximately HK$8.6 million (2021: HK$17.6 million). The decrease was mainly due to the 10% remaining balance of cash proceeds from the disposal of PRC subsidiary received on March 2021. The current ratio of the Group, as calculated by the total current assets over the total current liabilities, was 1.6 as at 30 April 2022 (2021: 2.5).

As at 30 April 2022, the Group's net current assets were approximately HK$51.3 million (2021: HK$86.2 million). Total bank borrowings were approximately HK$44.6 million (2021: HK$11.4 million). The Group's financial gearing, based on the total bank borrowings compared to the total equity, was 47.5% (2021: 7.4%). All bank borrowings were subject to floating interest rates. As at 30 April 2022, the Group had undrawn banking facilities of approximately HK$197.4 million (2021: HK$230.7 million). The Group and the Directors will maintain the availability of bank facilities and negotiate with banks to increase the borrowings limit for working capital needs, if necessary.

FOREIGN CURRENCY EXPOSURE

The Group's sales and purchases are mainly denominated in Hong Kong and US Dollar. And for production factory located in the PRC, expenses incurred there are denominated in Renminbi.

Since Hong Kong Dollar remains pegged to US Dollar, the Group does not foresee a substantial exposure in this area, and will closely monitor the trend of Renminbi to see if any action is required.

As at 30 April 2022, the Group had not entered into any financial instrument for the hedging of foreign currency.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

OUTLOOK/FUTURE PROSPECTS AND STRATEGIES

Our world is currently undergoing a very unstable phase at this time. Coupled with the adverse effects of COVID which isn't going away any time soon, we now face additional challenging uncertainties caused by the Ukrainian war. These factors have eventually led us into an unprecedented inflationary era we now live in. While most material prices are rising sharply and labor supply continues to be limited in China, production costs have escalated steeply while our customers do not have the luxury to absorb any price increase.

To make matters worse in this past year freight rates have increased multiple times. As our ride-on products are bulky in nature the shipping cost represents a disproportionately large cost component compared to other toys, the impact of a spike in transportation cost has carved out a significant portion of our client base. Many loyal customers of ours have now reluctantly turned away from buying ride-on toys due to the elevated shipping charges.

Furthermore, the US Federal Reserve is imposing forceful monetary policies to control inflation by raising interest rates. It creates a domino effect in appreciating its US$ against all other currencies. As our Company supplies globally to many countries outside of USA, their respective weakened currencies imply a diminishing purchasing power. As a result, these markets now have lower demand of our goods because they are now more expensive due to the strong US$. All these challenges are likely to continue into next year and the extrinsic impact unfortunately cannot be mitigated by any of the Company's own decision making.

As the factory lease agreement with our landlord is going to expire at the end of the year, our Management has looked into different options to extend our production. Renewing our lease is one option, but after thorough evaluation with significant volatility and uncertainties lying ahead the Management leans more towards subcontracting the production to reliable suppliers. Time was taken to interview and engage in serious discussions with many candidates and the Management has now shortlisted a small number of partners with years of toys manufacturing experience, whom the Management is confident can take on the role competently.

The Directors trust that with the rising production costs, uncertainties in future orders and the possibility of the HK/China border remains closed for extended time, the best alternative is to entrust someone with substantial management experience locally. With subcontracting the Company will bear much less overhead in the future, which is particularly advantageous during these difficult times.

Meanwhile, with the looming threat of an emerging poor global economy, as some even predicts that a recession is on the horizon, the Management realizes some product reengineering is inevitable to lower the cost in order to revitalize business. Our team has worked hard to redevelop a range of products to achieve better profitability while sustaining the core play values and functionalities. It is the Management's strong belief that such a move will lead to positive results in the long-run.

In view of such global challenges, the Management believes we are at the best time to explore new business opportunities for business diversification. The Company has therefore invested in educational facilities under Guangdong Kiddieland, a new subsidiary of the Company where we focus on the manufacturing and distribution of institutional laboratory equipment, furniture, and software programs for educational institutions in the PRC. We believe there is great potential in this sector given the PRC government's strong support to the industry in the coming years, and the general emphasis and resources people are willing to support in education for the new generation. The Company has acquired an experienced management team to run the business in an efficient manner.

The Company believes instilling new energies and promising business prospects while keeping the toy business in parallel is the best solution to grow our overall business and sales in the new challenging times we face today.

to take up Options granted to the Participant to subscribe for Shares pursuant to the terms of the Share Option Scheme (the "Scheme") to subscribe for Shares at a price determined in accordance with the Scheme.

In determining the basis of eligibility of each Participant, our Board would take into account such factors as our Board may at its discretion consider appropriate.

The Share Option Scheme shall be valid and effective for a period of 10 years commencing on the Adoption Date, after which period no further Options will be granted but in all other respects the provisions of the Share Option Scheme shall remain in full force and effect to the extent necessary to give effect to the exercise of any Options granted prior thereto or otherwise as may be required in accordance with the provision of the Share Option Scheme, and Options which are granted during the life of the Share Option Scheme may continue to be exercisable in accordance with their terms of issue.

An offer of the grant of an Option ("Offer") shall be made to a Participant by letter (the date of which shall be deemed to be the date on which the grant of an Option (subject to acceptance by the Grantee) is made) in such form as our Board may from time to time determine (the "Offer Letter") specifying the number of Shares under the Option, the subscription price, the vesting schedule (if any), the conditions to vesting (if any), and the period to be determined by our Board at its absolute discretion and notified by our Board to each Grantee as being the period during which an Option may be exercised and in any event, such period shall not be longer than 10 years from the date upon which any particular Option is granted in accordance with the Share Option Scheme (the "Option Period") and requiring the Participant to undertake to hold the Option on the terms on which it is to be granted and to be bound by the provisions of the Share Option Scheme. An Offer must be made on a Business Day and shall remain open for acceptance by the Participant to whom an Offer is made for a period from the date of the Offer ("Offer Date") to such date as our Board may determine and specify in the Offer Letter (both days inclusive) (the "Acceptance Period"), provided that no such Offer shall be open for acceptance after the 10th anniversary from the Adoption Date or after the Share Option Scheme has been terminated in accordance with the provisions thereof, whichever is earlier.

An Offer shall be deemed to have been accepted by the Grantee and the Option to which the Offer relates shall be deemed to have been granted and to have taken effect when the duplicate of the Offer Letter comprising acceptance of the Offer duly signed by the Grantee together with a remittance in favour of the Company of HK$1.00 by way of consideration for the granting thereof is received by the Company within the Acceptance Period. Such remittance shall in no circumstances be refundable or be considered as part of the subscription price.

REPORT OF THE DIRECTORS

Subject to any adjustments, the subscription price in respect of each Share issued pursuant to the exercise of Options granted hereunder shall be a price solely determined by the Board and notified to a Participant and shall be at least the highest of:

- (a) the closing price of a Share as stated in the Hong Kong Stock Exchange's daily quotations sheet on the Offer Date, which must be a business day;
- (b) a price being the average of the closing prices of the Shares as stated in the Hong Kong Stock Exchange's daily quotations sheets for the 5 business days immediately preceding the offer date (provided that the new issue price shall be used as the closing price for any business day falling within the period before listing of the Shares where our Company has been listed for less than 5 business days as at the Offer Date); and
- (c) the nominal value of a Share.

Unless otherwise determined by our Board and specified in the Offer Letter at the time of the Offer, there is neither any performance targets that need to be achieved by the Grantee before an Option can be exercised nor any minimum period for which an Option must be held before the Option can be exercised. An Option may be exercised in whole or in part in the manner as set out in the Offer Letter by the Grantee (or his personal representative(s)) giving notice in writing to our Company stating that the Option is thereby exercised and the number of Shares in respect of which it is exercised.

Subject to the terms and conditions upon which such Option was granted, an Option may be exercised by the Grantee at any time during the Option Period.

The total number of Shares which may be issued upon exercise of all Options to be granted under the Share Option Scheme and any other share option scheme of the Company and/or any of its subsidiaries shall not in aggregate exceed 10% of the total number of Shares in issue immediately following completion of the Initial Public Offering (such 10% being 100,000,000 Shares). Options lapsed in accordance with the terms of the Share Option Scheme will not be counted for the purpose of calculating such 10% limit.

The total number of Shares issued and to be issued upon exercise of the Options granted to each Participant (including both exercised and outstanding Options) in any 12-month period shall not exceed 1% of the total number of Shares in issue.

Where any further grant of Options to a Participant would result in the Shares issued and to be issued upon exercise of all options granted and to be granted to such Participant under the Share Option Scheme and any other share option schemes of our Company (including exercised, cancelled and outstanding Options) in the 12-month period up to and including the date of such further grant representing in aggregate over 1% of the total number of Shares in issue, such further grant must be separately approved by the shareholders in general meeting with such Participant and his close associates (or his associates if such Participant is a connected person) abstaining from voting.

REPORT OF THE DIRECTORS

The number of Shares subject to the Options to be granted to such Participant and the terms (including the subscription price) of the Options to be granted to such Participant shall be fixed before shareholders' approval and the date of Board meeting for proposing such further grant should be taken as the date of grant for the purpose of calculating the subscription price. In such a case, our Company shall send a circular to our shareholders containing, amongst other terms, the identity of such Participant, the number and the terms of the Options to be granted (and Options previously granted to such Participant) and such other information and the disclaimer as required under the Listing Rules.

MATERIALITY ASSESSMENT

The Group emphasises the participation of its stakeholders, including shareholders of the Company, staff, customers, suppliers, etc. All of them have a substantial impact on the success of its business or activities.

The Group believes that stakeholder engagement has a significant level of influence in developing sustainable development strategies and fulfilling social responsibilities which is the basis for the Group’s strategy formulation and decision-making. A list of sustainability issues, which were potentially material to the Group, was decomposed in the context of its business and daily operation. A materiality assessment matrix was developed from the result of stakeholder engagement exercises conducted with internal stakeholders through an online survey. The materiality assessment and prioritisation took two dimensions into account. It included the importance of issues to stakeholders and the business. The issues that fall within the top right-hand corner have relatively higher significance to both stakeholders and the Group’s business.

ENVIRONMENTAL ASPECTS

The Group is passionate about protecting our planet and conserving its natural resources for future generations. The Group recognises the impact its business can have on the environment and is working hard to reduce its footprint. The Group also embraces sustainability challenges as opportunities to innovate and continuously improve our product design and the way the Group operates, and the Group is inspired by the possibilities. We have established policies to manage air and Greenhouse Gas (“GHG”) emissions, waste disposal and effluent discharge. For example, the Group has established the Environmental Management Handbook, which specified the vision of the Group on mitigation of environmental impact caused by its business operations as well as definition of duties responsible by each internal party regarding environmental management.

The Group strictly abides by the related laws and regulations, including the Environmental Protection Law of the PRC (《中華人民共和國環境保護法》), the Environmental Impact Assessment Law of the PRC (《中華人民共和國環境影響評價法》), the Rules on the Administration concerning Environmental Protection of Construction Projects (《建設項目環境保護管理條例》), the Regulations on Administration concerning the Environmental Protection Acceptance Check on Construction Projects (《建設項目竣工環境保護驗收管理辦法》), Rule on Classification for Environmental Impact Assessment of Construction Projects (《建設項目環境影響評價文件分級審批規定》), and Environmental Protection Tax Law of the PRC (《中華人民共和國環境保護稅法》). The Group’s production plant substantially complied with all applicable local and international environmental regulations.

The Group has established an environmental management system with the “Environmental Management Working Group” to oversee all the environmental-related matters. The Group strives to follow its environmental objectives:

- Compliance with national environmental laws and regulations;

Comply with all the national laws, regulations and other applicable requirements related to production activities, products and services.
- Pollution prevention;

Raise the employees’ awareness towards environmental protection and strengthen the environmental knowledge and skills of employees; strengthen the management of hazardous wastes; and establish and environmental management system with pollution prevention as the core.
- Promotion of clean production; and
- Creation of a harmonious environment for sustainable development.

ENVIRONMENTAL, SOCIAL AND GOVERNANCE REPORT

Emissions

Air Emissions

In the daily operations, the major air pollutant emission sources are activities in the spray paint booths, the burners used in the production plant and staff canteen. The exhaust gas contains paint ashes and volatile organic chemicals (VOCs) (e.g. Benzene, Toluene and Xylene, etc.), which are generated from the process of spray painting and pad printing. Besides, oil vapour is generated during cooking. Also, the burners and mobile vehicles emit inorganic air pollutants (sulphur oxides, nitrogen oxides and particulate matters) during combustion.

The Group has implemented measures to ensure the emissions complying with the Level II requirement of the Integrated Emission Standard of Air Pollutant (GB16297–1996). To reduce the emissions from various activities, the Group has implemented emission control measures as follows:

Activities/Sources of Emissions	Emission Control Measures
Spraying	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The spray for painting is flushed in a designated wash station, which equipped with ventilation units with filter and activated carbon to remove the VOCs.
Dry milling process	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> A dustless dry mill is used to reduce the dust.
Cutting process	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Regularly perform maintenance to equipment to ensure the operation is running properly, reduce the running heat of machine caused by bad maintenance. The blade of the cutting machine is inspected regularly to ensure its sharpness.
Mobile vehicles	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Quarterly maintenance is performed to check if the engine oil is needed to replace, and the oil tank is required for cleaning. Engine oil is replaced according to the distance travelled and the mileage record is maintained.

ENVIRONMENTAL, SOCIAL AND GOVERNANCE REPORT

The air emissions¹ are as follows:

Air Emissions	2022 (tonnes)	2021 (tonnes)
Sulphur Oxides (SO _x)	0.0406	0.0934
Nitrogen Oxides (NO _x)	0.1086	0.2496
Particulate Matters (PM)	0.000004	0.00001
Benzene	0.0001	0.0001
Toluene	0.0004	0.0004
Xylene	0.0001	0.0002
Total VOCs	0.0128	0.0125
Total	0.1626	0.3562

For the year ended 30 April 2022, the total air emissions were 0.1626 tonnes, representing a decrease of approximately 54% over last year (2021: 0.3562 tonnes). The decrease in the total air pollutant emissions was attributed to the decrease in consumption of natural gas and petrol during the Reporting Period. Looking ahead, the Group will continue monitoring the air pollutant emissions and implementing mitigation measures.

Greenhouse Gas (GHG) Emissions

The Group is aware of potential physical and financial consequences of climate change on the business. These could include higher energy costs and more frequent extreme weather events that disrupt product supply chains. To minimise the contribution to greenhouse gas (GHG) emissions, the Group strives to reduce energy use across the business, and the related energy-saving measures are illustrated in the section headed "Use of Resources". To reduce fugitive emissions from refrigerants in air conditioners, measures are implemented as follows:

- Regular maintenance of air-conditioner, for instance, cleaning filter and compressor, check if any leakage of refrigerant;
- Prefer purchasing air-conditioners with non-fluorinated refrigerant; and
- Replace air conditioners with high energy consumption, new air-conditioners are preferred to have the China Energy Label Level 1.

ENVIRONMENTAL, SOCIAL AND GOVERNANCE REPORT

For the year ended 30 April 2022, the total GHG emissions were 8,887.00 tonnes CO₂ equivalent, and its intensity was 0.0045 tonnes CO₂ equivalent per unit of products, which is relatively the same comparing with last year. The Group will continuously review and enhance on our GHG reduction measures. Scope 2 emissions were the primary source of total GHG emissions, accounting for approximately 93% of the total GHG emissions. The total GHG emissions had a considerable decrease of approximately 17% as compared to last year (2021: 10,726.97 tonnes CO₂ equivalent) which mainly attributable to the decrease in electricity consumption during the Reporting Period. The GHG emissions by scope are as follows:

GHG Emissions ²	2022 (tonnes CO ₂ equivalent)	2021 (tonnes CO ₂ equivalent)
Scope 1 ³	632.95	863.75
Scope 2 ⁴	8,254.05	9,863.22
Total	8,887.00	10,726.97
Intensity (per unit of products)	0.0045 ⁵	0.0044

Wastes

Reducing wastes allows the Group to save money while shrinking its environmental impact. The Group's comprehensive waste policy requires managers at its operated facilities to document waste management practices and procedures and communicate them to all employees. Facilities must evaluate all hazardous and non-hazardous waste streams and maintain an up-to-date recycling plan that identifies materials to be recycled or reused, methods of collection, and recycling vendors. Recycle bins are set up in the production plant for collection of recyclable non-hazardous and hazardous wastes. The hazardous wastes are then treated through incineration; whilst remaining domestic wastes will be disposed to landfill.

All bins must be protected against leakage to prevent pollution to the environment. Employees are not allowed to dump, stack or discard wastes without authorisation. Qualified wastes treatment company is engaged in transportation, treatment, storage, disposal or recycling of hazardous and regulated wastes. Also, more environmental-friendly materials are used in the injection moulding to reduce the uses of chloroprene rubber and polybutadiene rubber.

² The estimation methods and emission factors are based on "How to prepare an ESG Report? Appendix 2: Reporting Guidance on Environmental KPIs" issued by the Stock Exchange, "General Guideline of the Greenhouse Gas Emissions Accounting and Reporting for Industrial Enterprises (trial)" (《工業其他行業溫室氣體排放核算方法與報告指南(試行)》), "Emission Factors of China's Regional Power Grid Baseline for Emission Reduction Projects" (《減排項目中國區域電網基準線排放因子》).

³ Scope 1: Direct emission from the business operations that are owned or controlled by the Group. It includes combustion of natural gas, unleaded petrol and fugitive emission from refrigerant.

⁴ Scope 2: "Indirect Energy" emissions resulting from internal consumption by the Group (purchased or acquired) of electricity, heating, cooling and steam. It includes indirect emissions from electricity purchased.

⁵ The Group's total production volume was 1,969,015 units during the Reporting Period.

ENVIRONMENTAL, SOCIAL AND GOVERNANCE REPORT

For the year ended 30 April 2022, the total amount of hazardous wastes was approximately 2.18 tonnes, representing a substantial decrease of approximately 21% over last year (2021: 2.75 tonnes), yet the Group continues to pay close attention to the amount of hazardous wastes produced, ensuring that it will not exceed relevant regulatory limits. For the year ended 30 April 2022, the total amount of non-hazardous wastes was 45.80 tonnes, representing a decrease of approximately 1% over last year (2021: 46.20 tonnes).

The hazardous wastes and non-hazardous wastes produced are as follows:

Hazardous Wastes	2022 (tonnes)	2021 (tonnes)
Organic Solvent	0.31	0.31
Paint Residue	0.38	0.40
Sludge	0.28	0.40

⁶ The Group's total production volume was 1,969,015 units during the Reporting Period.

ENVIRONMENTAL, SOCIAL AND GOVERNANCE REPORT

Wastewater

Wastewater is generated from the process of rinsing metal surface and the water curtain system. All the wastewater is collected and discharged after appropriate treatment. We have installed new pipes, built wells and water volume measuring devices, in doing so, sewage water is flowed to centralised water purification system for treatment before discharging. We obtained the licensing for the discharge of sewage into the drainage network within the territory of the PRC (城鎮污水排入排水管網許可證) in accordance with the requirement of the local regulations. For the year ended 30 April 2022, 254 tonnes (2021: 542 tonnes) of wastewater was treated and discharged. The indicators of the wastewater are as follows:

Wastewater Indicators	2022 (tonnes)	2021 (tonnes)
Chemical Oxygen Demand (COD)	0.0048	0.0075
Ammonia Nitrogen	0.0013	0.0036
Suspended Solid	0.0073	0.0078

In order to prevent water pollution to the surrounding environment by the wastewater, daily inspection of rainwater discharge ports is carried out. The ports are cleaned up timely to prevent sewage from entering the rainwater pipelines and vice versa.

Use of Resources

The Group is committed to conserving resources for the purposes of environmental and operating efficiency. To pursue the Group's environmental commitment, it implements multiple measures in enhancing energy efficiency.

The Group has established an energy management system to monitor and manage the use of resources. The Group aims to reduce its operating costs as well as our carbon footprints. To reduce energy consumption, the Group adopts plans and measures as follows:

- Maintenance of the machinery is carried out regularly to ensure proper functioning and their efficiencies. One of three transformers is shut down in the slack season;
- Raising the employees' awareness of energy saving;
- Improvement of the production process and management; and
- Reinforcement of the energy management.

ENVIRONMENTAL, SOCIAL AND GOVERNANCE REPORT

The Group formulates energy-saving plan annually and installed energy monitoring system. For the year ended 30 April 2022, the total energy consumption was 11,038.96 MWh, and its intensity was approximately 0.006 MWh per unit of products. The total energy consumption and its intensity decreased by around 21% and 3% respectively as compared to last year which mainly attributable to the decrease in natural gas and electricity consumption. Energy consumption by energy type is as follows:

Energy Consumption Types	2022 (MWh)	2021 (MWh)
Direct Consumption
Petrol	1.89	5.41
Natural Gas	773.39	1,778.33
Indirect Consumption
Electricity	10,263.68	12,264.64
Total	11,038.96	14,048.38
Intensity (per unit of products)	0.0056 ⁷	0.0058

While operations at the Group's facilities and offices are not water-intensive, water conservation is a focus area and part of its environmental management practices. The Group uses water primarily in restrooms and kitchens, with a small amount for irrigation and processes. Its water reduction efforts are modest since they can only generate minor improvements. Water is supplied by the third party, and there is no significant issue in sourcing water for the business operation. The Group requires managers at its operated facilities to manage water use and develop water conservation plans to reduce consumption, where appropriate. For the year ended 30 April 2022, 1,320 tonnes of water were reused before discharged, and the total water consumption was 156,979 m³, and its intensity was 0.08 m³ per unit of products. The total water consumption decreased by approximately 11% and its intensity increased by approximately 14% respectively as compared to last year.

Water Consumption	2022 (m ³)	2021 (m ³)
Total	156,979	177,179
Intensity (per unit of products)	0.08 ⁷	0.07

⁷ The Group's total production volume was 1,969,015 units during the Reporting Period.

ENVIRONMENTAL, SOCIAL AND GOVERNANCE REPORT

Apart from energy and water consumptions, the packaging material is one of the resources with significant consumption. For the year ended 30 April 2022, the total packaging material consumption was 1,508.91 tonnes, and its intensity was approximately 0.00077 tonnes per unit of products. The total packaging material consumption and its intensity decreased by approximately 19% and 4% respectively as compared to last year. The consumption of packaging materials is as follows:

Packaging Materials	2022 (tonnes)	2021 (tonnes)
Carton Box	660.52	911.99
Coloured Box	848.39	957.94
Total	1,508.91	1,869.93
Intensity (per unit of products)	0.00077⁸	0.00080

The Environment and Natural Resources

The significant environmental and natural resources impacts of the Group's operations include exhaust and wastewater discharge, water resources and energy consumption. The Group pays much attention to the impacts of its operation on the environment and natural resources. The Group has established relevant management rules, including the "Environmental Protection Management Regulations" to enhance management and reduce the impacts on the environment and natural resources. The Group has established related procedures as below to mitigate the risks of pollution to the soil and underground water.

- The storage, transport and transfer of chemicals are strictly controlled. Relevant documentations and labelling of different chemicals are maintained properly;
- A discharge system including sewage and exhaust shaft is maintained regularly;
- An online monitoring system is installed to keep track on the wastewater indicators, ensuring the sewage discharged meet the relevant standards; and
- Emergency response and environmental regulations related trainings are provided to different levels of employees timely to ensure minimal environmental impact when incidents occurred and keep up with the legislation changes in compliance of regulations.

To minimise the environmental impact, the Group's expenditure on waste management, pollution prevention and online monitoring system cost approximately HK$884,000 during the Reporting Period. Other initiatives implemented to mitigate the environmental impacts from the emissions and resource consumption are mentioned in the sections headed "Emissions" and "Use of Resources" in this ESG report.

⁸ The Group's total production volume was 1,969,015 units during the Reporting Period.

ENVIRONMENTAL, SOCIAL AND GOVERNANCE REPORT

Climate change has become a highly concerned topic in the global market as it associates to the long-term sustainability of an organization.

In order to prepare the Group for unforeseeable climate-related disasters, such as hurricane, and extreme weather, a business contingency plan has been established to outline the identified major climate related risks faced by the Group, the manufacturing plant will be affected in identified climate related disaster, emergency preparedness for disaster event, recommended immediate responses and recovery plans for our factory. The implementation of the plan can reduce the disruptions to our operations and supply chain under climate-related events.

The Group recognizes the potential impact of the building premises and ensures our insurance covers fire incidents, third party injuries within our building premises, staff injury during the course of business, and transit loss or damage of shipment of finished goods from manufacturers. The mitigation measures will be viewed timely to prevent major loss.

Another anticipated climate related risk lies on the potential change in governmental policies and regulations due to the increasing global concern on the climate change issues. Our operational teams will regularly review and monitor our business practices and processes to ensure the compliance of the Group. External consultancy service will be pursued when necessary.

Climate Change Policy

Our vision is to deliver high quality, safe and innovative toys to consumers around the world, in a way that respects the environment. We strive to reduce our environmental footprint, through continuous improvement of operational efficiency and adoption of environmentally friendly practices. Climate change also plays a material role impacting financial risks. The table below outlines how the Group responds to the four core elements of the TCFD (Task Force on Climate-related Financial Disclosures) recommendations.

ENVIRONMENTAL, SOCIAL AND GOVERNANCE REPORT

Key Audit Matter	How our audit addressed the Key Audit Matter
Impairment of property, plant and equipment Refer to notes 4(d), 5 and 16 to the consolidated financial statements For the year ended 30 April 2022, the Group's profitability significantly deteriorated and recorded a loss before tax of HK$44,097,000 excluding the impairment loss of HK$32,546,000 for property, plant and equipment. Since the gross profit margin of the toy business deteriorated significantly, management of the Group considered it was an impairment indicator. The Group identified and impaired property, plant and equipment for an aggregated net book value of HK$32,546,000 relating to idle machineries and non-profitable moulds during the year. Management of the Company also prepared a cash flow forecast for the next 5 years, and engaged an independent valuer to assist and perform an impairment assessment for the remaining property, plant and equipment, allocated to the toy business, and compared the carrying amounts of these assets to the estimated recoverable amounts of the toy business, to determine whether impairment would be required. We focused on this area because the judgements and assumptions adopted in the impairment assessments are subject to high degree of uncertainty.	Our procedures in relation to management impairment assessment of non-financial assets includes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Assessing the appropriateness of key assumptions, including the growth rate, gross profit margin and the discount rate used in the estimation of the recoverable amount based on our knowledge of the underlying business and industry with the involvement of our valuation expert; Testing management's estimates and assumptions used in the discounted cash flow projection by comparing to the historical financial data, internal data and available market data; Assessing the independence, objectivity and competence of the independent valuer; Testing the confirmed sales orders that support the estimated utilisation of the moulds that were not impaired and wrote off, on a sampling basis; Testing input data to supporting evidence, such as subsequent sales and unfulfilled orders and available market data, on a sample basis; Comparing the result, growth rate and gross margin to the historical performance; and Performing sensitivity analysis to evaluate the potential impacts on the recoverable amounts. Based on the above procedures we have performed, we found the assumptions adopted in relation to the impairment assessment to be supportable by available evidence.

OTHER INFORMATION

The directors of the Company are responsible for the other information. The other information comprises all of the information included in the annual report other than the consolidated financial statements and our auditor's report thereon.

Our opinion on the consolidated financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

In connection with our audit of the consolidated financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the consolidated financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF DIRECTORS AND AUDIT COMMITTEE FOR THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The directors of the Company are responsible for the preparation of the consolidated financial statements that give a true and fair view in accordance with HKFRSs issued by the HKICPA and the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance, and for such internal control as the directors determine is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, the directors are responsible for assessing the Group's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the directors either intend to liquidate the Group or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

The audit committee are responsible for overseeing the Group's financial reporting process.

AUDITOR'S RESPONSIBILITIES FOR THE AUDIT OF THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. We report our opinion solely to you, as a body, and for no other purpose. We do not assume responsibility towards or accept liability to any other person for the contents of this report. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with HKSAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with HKSAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Group's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the directors.

- Conclude on the appropriateness of the directors' use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Group's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Group to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the group audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with audit committee regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide audit committee with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, actions taken to eliminate threats or safeguards applied.

From the matters communicated with audit committee, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

The engagement partner on the audit resulting in this independent auditor's report is Cheung Kin Bong.

2.2 Principles of consolidation and equity accounting

Subsidiaries

Subsidiaries are all entities (including structured entities) over which the Group has control. The Group controls an entity when the Group is exposed to, or has rights to, variable returns from its involvement with the entity and has the ability to affect those returns through its power to direct the activities of the entity. Subsidiaries are fully consolidated from the date on which control is transferred to the Group. They are deconsolidated from the date that control ceases.

The acquisition method of accounting is used to account for business combinations by the Group (refer to note 2.3).

Intercompany transactions, balances and unrealised gains on transactions between group companies are eliminated. Unrealised losses are also eliminated unless the transaction provides evidence of an impairment of the transferred asset. Accounting policies of subsidiaries have been changed where necessary to ensure consistency with the policies adopted by the Group.

Non-controlling interests in the results and equity of subsidiaries are shown separately in the consolidated statement of comprehensive income, consolidated statement of changes in equity and consolidated statement of financial position respectively.

2.3 Business combinations

The acquisition method of accounting is used to account for all business combinations, regardless of whether equity instruments or other assets are acquired. The consideration transferred for the acquisition of a subsidiary comprises the:

- fair values of the assets transferred;
- liabilities incurred to the former owners of the acquired business;
- equity interests issued by the Group;
- fair value of any asset or liability resulting from a contingent consideration arrangement; and
- fair value of any pre-existing equity interest in the subsidiary.

Identifiable assets acquired and liabilities and contingent liabilities assumed in a business combination are, with limited exceptions, measured initially at their fair values at the acquisition date. The Group recognises any non-controlling interest in the acquired entity on an acquisition-by-acquisition basis either at fair value or at the non-controlling interest's proportionate share of the acquired entity's net identifiable assets.

Acquisition-related costs are expensed as incurred.

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The excess of the

- consideration transferred;
- amount of any non-controlling interest in the acquired entity; and
- acquisition-date fair value of any previous equity interest in the acquired entity.

over the fair value of the net identifiable assets acquired is recorded as goodwill. If those amounts are less than the fair value of the net identifiable assets of the business acquired, the difference is recognised directly in statement of comprehensive income as a bargain purchase.

Contingent consideration is classified either as equity or a financial liability. Amounts classified as a financial liability are subsequently remeasured to fair value with changes in fair value recognised in statement of comprehensive income.

If the business combination is achieved in stages, the acquisition date carrying value of the acquirer's previously held equity interest in the acquiree is remeasured to fair value at the acquisition date. Any gains or losses arising from such remeasurement are recognised in statement of comprehensive income.

2.4 Separate financial statements

Investment in subsidiaries are accounted for at cost less impairment. Cost includes direct attributable costs of investment. The results of subsidiaries are accounted for by the Company on the basis of dividend received and receivable.

Impairment testing of the investment in subsidiaries is required upon receiving a dividend from these investments if the dividend exceeds the total comprehensive income of the subsidiary in the period the dividend is declared or if the carrying amount of the investment in the separate financial statements exceeds the carrying amount in the consolidated financial statements of the investee's net assets including goodwill.

2.5 Segment reporting

Operating segments are reported in a manner consistent with the internal reporting provided to the chief operating decision-maker. The chief operating decision-maker, who is responsible for allocating resources and assessing performance of the operating segments, has been identified as the executive Directors that makes strategic decisions.

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

2.6 Foreign currency translation

(i) Functional and presentation currency

Items included in the financial statements of each of the Group's entities are measured using the currency of the primary economic environment in which the entity operates (the "functional currency"). The functional currency of the Company is United States dollars ("US$"). The consolidated financial statements are presented in Hong Kong Dollar because the Directors considered that the headquarter of the Group is located in Hong Kong.

(ii) Transactions and balances

Foreign currency transactions are translated into the functional currency using the exchange rates at the dates of the transactions. Foreign exchange gains and losses resulting from the settlement of such transactions and from the translation of monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies at year end exchange rates are generally recognised in the consolidated statements of comprehensive income within "Other gains, net".

Foreign exchange gains and losses that relate to borrowings are presented in the statement of comprehensive income, within finance costs. All other foreign exchange gains and losses are presented in the statement of comprehensive income on a net basis within "Other gains, net".

(iii) Group companies

The results and financial position of all Group's entities (none of which has the currency of a hyperinflationary economy) that have a functional currency different from the presentation currency are translated into the presentation currency as follows:

- assets and liabilities for each statement of financial positions presented are translated at the closing rate at the end of reporting period,
- income and expenses for each statement of comprehensive income are translated at average exchange rates (unless this is not a reasonable approximation of the cumulative effect of the rates prevailing on the transaction dates, in which case income and expenses are translated at the dates of the transactions), and
- all resulting exchange differences are recognised in other comprehensive income.

On consolidation, exchange differences arising from the translation of any net investment in foreign entities, and of borrowings and other financial instruments designated as hedges of such investments, are recognised in other comprehensive income. When a foreign operation is sold or any borrowings forming part of the net investment are repaid, the associated exchange differences are reclassified to statement of comprehensive income, as part of the gain or loss on disposal.

2.7 Property, plant and equipment

Property, plant and equipment are stated at historical cost less accumulated depreciation and impairment. Historical cost includes expenditure that is directly attributable to the acquisition of the items.

Subsequent costs are included in the asset's carrying amount or recognised as a separate asset, as appropriate, only when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with the asset will flow to the Group and the cost of the item can be measured reliably. The carrying amount of the replaced part is derecognised. All other repairs and maintenance are charged to the consolidated statements of comprehensive income during the year in which they are incurred.

Depreciation of property, plant and equipment is calculated using the straight-line method to allocate their cost to their residual values over their estimated useful lives, as follows:

Factories and buildings	2% or over the remaining period of the lease
Leasehold improvements	10% or over the remaining period of the lease
Plant and machinery	10%
Furniture and fixtures	20%
Office equipment	33%
Motor vehicles	33%
Moulds and tools	20%

The assets' residual values and useful lives are reviewed, and adjusted if appropriate, at each reporting date.

An asset's carrying amount is written down immediately to its recoverable amount if the asset's carrying amount is greater than its estimated recoverable amount (note 2.10).

Gains and losses on disposals are determined by comparing the proceeds with the carrying amount and are recognised within 'Other gains, net' in the consolidated statements of comprehensive income.

2.8 Prepaid operating leases

Prepaid operating leases are stated at cost less accumulated amortisation. Cost represents consideration paid for the use of land on which various factories and buildings are situated for a period of 50 years. Amortisation of prepaid operating lease is calculated on a straight-line basis over the period of leases.

2.9 Intangible assets

Separately acquired licenses are stated at the cost of minimum guaranteed license payments. The licenses have finite useful lives and are carried at cost less accumulated amortisation and impairment. Amortisation is calculated using the straight-line method to allocate the cost of licenses over the license terms of 6 months to 3 years.

2.10 Impairment of non-financial assets

Assets are reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount may not be recoverable. An impairment loss is recognised for the amount by which the asset's carrying amount exceeds its recoverable amount. The recoverable amount is the higher of an asset's fair value less costs to sell and value in use. For the purposes of assessing impairment, assets are grouped at the lowest levels for which there are separately identifiable cash flows (cash-generating units). Non-financial assets that suffered an impairment are reviewed for possible reversal of the impairment at the end of each reporting period.

2.11 Financial assets

(a) Classification

The Group classifies its financial assets at amortised cost. The classification depends on the entity's business model for managing the financial assets and the contractual terms of the cash flows.

(b) Recognition and derecognition

Regular way purchases and sale of financial assets are recognised on trade-date, the date on which the Group commits to purchase or sell the asset. Financial assets are derecognised when the rights to receive cash flows from the financial assets have expired or have been transferred and the Group has transferred substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership.

(c) Measurement

At initial recognition, the Group measures a financial asset at its fair value and subsequently measurement at amortised cost using the effective interest method, less provision for impairment.

Financial assets at amortised cost are held for collection of contractual cash flows where those cash flows represent solely payments of principal and interest are measured at amortised cost. Interest income from these financial assets is included in other income using the effective interest rate method. Any gain or loss arising on derecognition is recognised directly in comprehensive income and presented in "other gains, net". Impairment losses are presented as separate line item in the statement of comprehensive income.

(d) Impairment

The Group assessed credit risk on a forward looking basis the expected credit losses associated with its debt instruments carried at amortised cost. The impairment methodology applied depends on whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk.

For trade receivables, the Group applies the simplified approach permitted by HKFRS 9, which requires expected lifetime losses to be recognised from initial recognition of the receivables.

For other financial assets at amortised cost, the Company has assessed that the expected credit losses for these receivables are not material under the 12 months expected losses method. Thus, no loss allowance provision was recognised at 30 April 2022.

2.12 Offsetting financial instruments

Financial assets and liabilities are offset and the net amount reported in the consolidated statement of financial position when there is a legally enforceable right to offset the recognised amounts and there is an intention to settle on a net basis or realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously. The legally enforceable right must not be contingent on future events and must be enforceable in the normal course of business and in the event of default, insolvency or bankruptcy of the Company or the counterparty.

2.13 Inventories

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost and net realisable value. Cost is determined using the weighted average method. The cost of finished goods and work in progress comprises raw materials, direct labour, other direct costs and related production overheads (based on normal operating capacity). It excludes borrowing costs. Net realisable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business, less applicable variable selling expenses.

2.14 Trade and other receivables

Trade receivables are amounts due from customers for merchandise sold in the ordinary course of business. If collection of trade and other receivables is expected in one year or less (or in the normal operating cycle of the business if longer), they are classified as current assets. If not, they are presented as non-current assets.

Trade and other receivables are recognised initially at fair value and subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method, less allowance for impairment. See note 2.12 for further information about the Group's accounting for trade receivables and a description of the Group's impairment policies.

2.15 Cash and cash equivalents

For the purpose of presentation in the consolidated statement of cash flows, cash and cash equivalents includes cash on hand, deposits held at call with financial institution, and bank overdrafts. Bank overdrafts are shown within borrowings in current liabilities in the consolidated statement of financial position.

2.16 Share capital

Ordinary shares are classified as equity.

Incremental costs directly attributable to the issue of new shares are shown in equity as a deduction, net of tax, from the proceeds.

2.17 Trade and other payables

Trade payables are obligations to pay for goods or services that have been acquired in the ordinary course of business from suppliers. Trade and other payables are classified as current liabilities if payment is due within one year or less (or in the normal operating cycle of the business if longer), if not, they are presented as non-current liabilities. Trade payables are recognised initially at fair value and subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method.

2.18 Borrowings

Borrowings are initially recognised at fair value, net of transaction costs incurred. Borrowings are subsequently measured at amortised cost. Any difference between the proceeds (net of transaction costs) and the redemption amount is recognised in consolidated statement of comprehensive income over the period of the borrowings using the effective interest method.

Fees paid on the establishment of loan facilities are recognised as transaction costs of the loan to the extent that it is probable that some or all of the facility will be drawn down. In this case, the fee is deferred until the drawdown occurs. To the extent there is no evidence that it is probable that some or all of the facility will be drawn down, the fee is capitalised as a prepayment for liquidity services and amortised over the period of the facility to which it relates.

Borrowings are classified as current liabilities unless the Group has an unconditional right to defer settlement of the liability for at least 12 months after the end of reporting period.

2.19 Borrowing costs

General and specific borrowing costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of a qualifying asset are capitalised during the period of time that is required to complete and prepare the asset for its intended use or sale. Qualifying assets are assets that necessarily take a substantial period of time to get ready for their intended use or sale.

Other borrowing costs are expensed in the period in which they are incurred.

2.20 Current and deferred income tax

The income tax expense for the period is the tax payable on the current period's taxable income based on the applicable income tax rate for each jurisdiction adjusted by changes in deferred tax assets and liabilities attributable to temporary differences and to unused tax losses.

Current income tax

The current income tax charge is calculated on the basis of the tax laws enacted or substantively enacted at the end of the reporting period in the countries where the company's subsidiaries and associates operate and generate taxable income. Management periodically evaluates positions taken in tax returns with respect to situations in which applicable tax regulation is subject to interpretation. It establishes provisions where appropriate on the basis of amounts expected to be paid to the tax authorities.

Deferred income tax

Deferred income tax is provided in full, using the liability method, on temporary differences arising between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts in the consolidated financial statements. However, deferred income tax liabilities are not recognised if they arise from the initial recognition of goodwill. Deferred income tax is also not accounted for if it arises from initial recognition of an asset or liability in a transaction other than a business combination that at the time of the transaction affects neither accounting nor taxable profit or loss. Deferred income tax is determined using tax rates (and laws) that have been enacted or substantially enacted by the end of the reporting period and are expected to apply when the related deferred income tax asset is realised or the deferred income tax liability is settled.

The deferred income tax liability in relation to investment property that is measured at fair value is determined assuming the property will be recovered entirely through sale.

Deferred income tax assets are recognised only if it is probable that future taxable amounts will be available to utilise those temporary differences and losses.

Deferred income tax liabilities and assets are not recognised for temporary differences between the carrying amount and tax bases of investments in foreign operations where the company is able to control the timing of the reversal of the temporary differences and it is probable that the differences will not reverse in the foreseeable future.

Deferred income tax assets and liabilities are offset when there is a legally enforceable right to offset current income tax assets and liabilities and when the deferred tax balances relate to the same taxation authority. Current tax assets and tax liabilities are offset where the entity has a legally enforceable right to offset and intends either to settle on a net basis, or to realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously.

Current and deferred income tax is recognised in statement of comprehensive income, except to the extent that it relates to items recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity. In this case, the tax is also recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity, respectively.

2.21 Employee benefits

Pension obligations

The Group participates in a defined contribution plan. A defined contribution plan is a pension plan under which the Group pays fixed contributions, on a mandatory, contractual or voluntary basis, into a separate entity. The scheme is generally funded through payments to insurance companies or state/trustee-administered funds. The Group has no further payment obligations once the contributions have been paid. It has no legal or constructive obligations to pay further contributions if the fund does not hold sufficient assets to pay all employees the benefits relating to employee services in the current and prior periods.

The contributions are recognised as employment costs when they are due. Prepaid contributions are recognised as an asset to the extent that a cash refund or a reduction in the future payments is available.

Employee leave entitlements

Employee entitlements to annual leave are recognised when they accrue to employees. A provision is made for the estimated liability for annual leave as a result of services rendered by employees up to the end of reporting period.

Employee entitlements to sick leave and maternity leave are not recognised until the time of leave.

2.22 Share-based payment

Share-based compensation benefits are provided to certain selected employees share option plan, under which the entity receives services from employees as consideration for equity instruments (shares or options) of the Group. The fair value of the employee services received in exchange for the grant of the shares and options is recognised as an expense. The total amount to be expensed is determined with reference to the fair value of the shares granted:

- including any market performance conditions (for example, the entity's share price)
- excluding the impact of any service and non-market performance vesting conditions (for example, profitability, sales growth targets and remaining an employee of the entity over a specified time period), and
- including the impact of any non-vesting conditions (for example, the requirement for employees to save or holdings shares for a specific period of time).

The total expense is recognised over the vesting period, which is the period over which all of the specified vesting conditions are to be satisfied. At the end of each reporting period, the entity revises its estimates of the number of options that are expected to vest based on the non-market vesting and service conditions. It recognises the impact of the revision to original estimates, if any, in consolidated statement of comprehensive income, with a corresponding adjustment to equity.

When the options are exercised, the Company issues new shares to employee. The proceeds received net of any directly attributable transaction costs are credited directly to share capital and share premium.

2.23 Provisions

Provisions are recognised when the Group has a present legal or constructive obligation as a result of past events; it is probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation; and the amount can be reliably estimated. Provisions are not recognised for future operating losses.

Where there are a number of similar obligations, the likelihood that an outflow will be required in settlement is determined by considering the class of obligations as a whole. A provision is recognised even if the likelihood of an outflow with respect to any one item included in the same class of obligations may be small.

Provisions are measured at the present value of management's best estimate of the expenditure required to settle the present obligation at the end of the reporting period. The discount rate used to determine the present value is a pre-tax rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the liability. The increase in the provision due to the passage of time is recognised as interest expense.

2.24 Revenue recognition

Revenue from the sale of goods directly to the customers is recognised at the point that the control of the goods have passed to the customers, which is primarily upon the acceptance of the products by the customers. Revenue from sale of goods is recognised, net of value-added tax, allowances for estimated returns, sales incentives, rebates, and discounts. The customers have full discretions over the goods, and there is no unfulfilled obligation that could affect the customers' acceptance of the goods.

The goods are always sold with sales incentives and discounts. Revenue from these sales are recognised based on the price specified in the contract, net of the estimated sales incentives and discounts. Accumulated experience is used to estimate and provide for the discount, using the expected value method, and revenue is only recognised to the extent that it is highly probable that a significant reversal will not occur. A refund liability (contra to the trade receivables) is recognised for expected discounts entitled to customers in relation to sales made until the end of each reporting period.

Contract assets and contract liabilities

Upon entering into a contract with a customer, the Group obtains rights to receive consideration from the customer and assumes performance obligations to provide services to the customer. The combination of those rights and performance obligations gives rise to a net asset or a net liability depending on the relationship between the remaining rights and the performance obligations. The contract is an asset and recognised as contract assets if the measure of the remaining rights exceeds the measure of the remaining performance obligations. Conversely, the contract is a liability and recognised as contract liabilities if the measure of the remaining performance obligations exceeds the measure of the remaining rights.

2.25 Other income

(a) Management fee income

Management fee income is recognised over the period when the service rendered.

(b) Interest income

Interest income is recognised on a time-proportion basis using the effective interest method.

(c) Sundry Income

Sundry income is recognised at the point of time that Group's obligation is fulfilled and the right to receive payment is established.

2.26 (Losses)/earnings per share

Basic (losses)/earnings per share

Basic (losses)/earnings per share is calculated by dividing the (loss)/profit attributable to owners of the Company, excluding any costs of servicing equity other than ordinary shares by the weighted average number of ordinary shares outstanding during the financial year, adjusted for bonus elements in ordinary shares issued during the year and excluding treasury shares.

Diluted (losses)/earnings per share

Diluted (losses)/earnings per share adjusts the figures used in the determination of basic (losses)/earnings per share to take into account the after income tax effect of interest and other financing costs associated with dilutive potential ordinary shares, and the weighted average number of additional ordinary shares that would have been outstanding assuming the conversion of all dilutive potential ordinary shares.

2.27 Leases

Assets and liabilities arising from a lease are initially measured on a present value basis. Lease liabilities include the net present value of the following lease payments:

- fixed payments (including in-substance fixed payments), less any lease incentives receivable

Lease payments to be made under reasonably certain extension options are also included in the measurement of the liability.

The lease payments are discounted using the interest rate implicit in the lease. If that rate cannot be readily determined, which is generally the case for leases in the Group, the lessee's incremental borrowing rate is used, being the rate that the individual lessee would have to pay to borrow the funds necessary to obtain an asset of similar value to the right-of-use asset in a similar economic environment with similar terms, security and conditions.

To determine the incremental borrowing rate, the Group:

- where possible, uses recent third-party financing received by the individual lessee as a starting point, adjusted to reflect changes in financing conditions since third party financing was received, and
- makes adjustments specific to the lease, e.g. term, country, currency and security.

Lease payments are allocated between principal and finance cost. The finance cost is charged to the consolidated statement of comprehensive income over the lease period so as to produce a constant periodic rate of interest on the remaining balance of the liability for each period.

Right-of-use assets are measured at cost comprising the following:

- the amount of the initial measurement of lease liability;
- any lease payments made at or before the commencement date less any lease incentives received;
- any initial direct costs; and
- any restoration costs.

Right-of-use assets are generally depreciated over the shorter of the asset's useful life and the lease term on a straight-line basis. If the Group is reasonably certain to exercise a purchase option, the right-of-use asset is depreciated over the underlying asset's useful life.

2.28 Dividend distribution

Dividend distribution to the shareholders is recognised as a liability in the consolidated financial statements in the year in which the dividends are approved by the entities' shareholders or Directors, where appropriate.

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

3 FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT

3.1 Financial risk factors

The Group's activities expose it to a variety of financial risks: market risk (including foreign exchange risk, fair value interest-rate risk and cash flow interest-rate risk), credit risk and liquidity risk. The Group's overall risk management programme focuses on the volatility of financial markets and seeks to minimise potential adverse effects on the Group's financial performance.

(a) Market Risk

(i) Foreign exchange risk

The Group mainly operates in Hong Kong, the PRC and the U.S. with majority of the transactions settled in HK$, Renminbi ("RMB") and US$. Foreign exchange risk arises when future commercial transactions or recognised assets or liabilities are denominated in a currency that is not the respective entities' functional currencies. Since HK$ is pegged with US$, management is of the opinion that the foreign exchange risk arising from US$ is insignificant.

As at 30 April 2022, certain of the Group's trade and other receivables, cash and bank balances and trade and other payables are denominated in RMB other than the functional currency of the operating unit. If HK$ has strengthened/weakened by 5% against RMB, with all other variables held constant, the loss before income tax for the year would have been approximately HK$65,000 lower/higher (2021: profit before income tax will be HK$25,000 higher/lower).

(ii) Cash flow interest-rate risk

The Group has no significant interest-bearing assets except for bank balances, details of which are disclosed in note 21. The Group's exposure to changes in interest rates is mainly attributable to its borrowings, details of which are disclosed in note 25. The bank borrowings that are carried at floating rates expose the Group to cash flow interest-rate risk. The Group has not used any interest rate swaps to hedge its exposure to interest-rate risk.

As at 30 April 2022, if the interest rates on bank borrowings had been 50 basis points higher/lower, with all other variables held constant, the loss before income tax for the year would have been approximately HK$210,000 higher/lower (2021: profit before income tax will be HK$57,000 lower/higher), mainly as a result of lower/higher interest expenses on floating-rate borrowings.

(b) Credit risk

The Group is exposed to credit risk in relation to its cash and bank balances, trade receivables, other receivables and deposits. The Group's maximum exposure to credit risk is the carrying amounts of these financial assets.

The Group's financial assets are subject to the expected credit loss model. While cash at banks are also subject to the impairment requirements of HKFRS 9, the identified impairment loss was immaterial as they are mainly deposited in reputable and creditworthy banks.

Trade receivables

The Group applies the HKFRS 9 simplified approach to measuring expected credit losses which uses a lifetime expected loss allowance for all trade receivables. Trade receivables relating to customers with known financial difficulties or significant doubt on collection of receivables are considered to be subjected to higher risk of default and are tested individually.

To measure the expected credit losses, trade receivables have been grouped based on geographical locations, shared credit risk characteristics and aging profiles. The expected loss rates are based on the payment profiles of sales over a specific period before each year end date and the corresponding historical credit losses experienced within the year. The historical loss rates are adjusted to reflect current and forward-looking information including industry outlook and forecasts. On that basis, the loss allowances for trade receivables as at 30 April 2022 and 2021 were determined based on overdue status as follows:

As at 30 April 2022	Within 30 days	31 to 60 days	61 to 90 days	Over 90 days	Total
Expected loss rate (%)	0.13%	0.67%	1.30%	52.72%
Gross carrying amount — trade receivables (HK$'000)	15,652	894	1,465	624	18,635
Loss allowance (HK$'000)	21	6	19	329	375

As at 30 April 2021	Within 30 days	31 to 60 days	61 to 90 days	Over 90 days	Total
Expected loss rate (%)	0.34%	2.63%	8.74%	99.70%
Gross carrying amount — trade receivables (HK$'000)	24,414	480	147	1,020	26,061
Loss allowance (HK$'000)	83	13	13	1,017	1,126

Trade receivables (Continued)

The loss allowances for trade receivables as at 30 April 2021 and 2022 reconcile to the opening loss allowances as follows:

	2022 HK$'000	2021 HK$'000
At beginning of the year	1,126	6,021
(Reversal of provision)/provision for impairment written off	(479) (272)	55 (4,950)
At end of the year	375	1,126

Impairment losses on trade receivables are separately presented as “provision for impairment losses of financial assets” in the consolidated statements of comprehensive income. Trade receivables are written off when there is no reasonable expectation of recovery. Subsequent recoveries of amounts written off previously are credited against the same line item.

Other receivables

As at 30 April 2022, the Group has considered the probability of default upon initial recognition of assets and whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk on an ongoing basis for the year. To assess whether there is a significant increase in credit risk, the Group considered the actual or expected significant adverse changes in business, financial and economic conditions that are expected to cause a significant change to the third party's ability to meet its obligations. As at 30 April 2022, the Company had an other receivable of approximately HK$11,679,000 (Note 20) that the directors of the Company were aware that there was a significant increase in credit risk. Since the Group did not have any collateral as security, the Group evaluated the exposure at default and the loss given default of the other receivable, and recognised a loss allowance for the full amount. The expected loss for the remaining other receivable was immaterial and no further loss allowance was recognised.

(c) Liquidity risk

Prudent liquidity risk management implies maintaining sufficient cash and cash equivalents and the availability of funding through an adequate amount of committed credit facilities.

The Group's primary cash requirements have been for additions of property, plant and equipment, and payment for purchases of materials, operating expenses and dividends. The Group mainly finances its working capital requirements through internal resources and bank borrowings.

The Group monitors and maintains a level of cash and cash equivalents considered adequate by the Directors to finance the Group's operations and mitigate the effects of fluctuations in cash flows. The Directors monitor the utilisation of bank and other borrowings to ensure adequate unutilised banking facilities and compliance with loan covenants.

The table below analyses the Group's financial liabilities into relevant maturity groupings based on the remaining period at the end of reporting period to the contractual maturity date. The amounts disclosed in the table are the contractual undiscounted cash flows (including interests payments computed using contractual rates, or if floating, based on the current rates at the year-end dates). Where the loan agreement contains a repayable on demand clause which gives the lender the unconditional right to call the loan at any time, the amounts repayable are classified in the earliest time bracket in which the lender could demand repayment and no interest payments were included. Balances due within 12 months equal their carrying balances, as the impact of discounting is not significant.

The table below summarises the maturity analysis of bank borrowings with a repayment on demand clause based on agreed scheduled repayments set out in the loan agreements. The amounts include interest payments computed using contractual rates. As a result, these amounts were greater than the amounts disclosed in the "on demand" time band in the maturity analysis contained in the above table.

As at 30 April 2022	44,647	–	–	44,647
As at 30 April 2021	11,513	–	–	11,513

As at 30 April 2022, the Group had total banking facilities of approximately HK$242,050,000 (out of which HK$197,426,000 was unutilised) granted by banks which are subject to annual review for renewal.

The Directors do not consider that it is probable that the banks will exercise their discretion to demand immediate repayment having considered the values of the assets pledged to the banks. The Directors believe that such bank loans will be repaid in accordance with the scheduled repayment dates set out in the loan agreements.

3.2 Capital risk management

The Group's objectives when managing capital are to safeguard the Group's ability to continue as a going concern in order to provide returns for shareholders and benefits for other stakeholders and to maintain an optimal capital structure to reduce the cost of capital.

In order to maintain or adjust the capital structure, the Group may adjust the amount of dividends paid to shareholders, issue new shares or sell assets to reduce debt.

The Group monitors its capital on the basis of the gearing ratio. This ratio is calculated as net debt divided by total capital. Net debt is calculated as bank borrowings less cash and cash equivalents. Total capital is calculated as "equity" as shown in the consolidated statement of financial position, plus net debt of the Group.

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

3.2 Capital risk management (Continued)

The gearing ratios at each reporting period were as follows:

	2022 HK$'000	2021 HK$'000
Bank borrowings	44,624	11,435
Lease liabilities	11,422	4,376
Less: cash and bank balances	(8,643)	(17,559)
Net debts/(cash)	47,403	(1,748)
Equity	93,894	153,731
Total capital	141,297	151,983
Gearing ratio	33.5%	N/A

The increase in the gearing ratio as at 30 April 2022 is due to the increase of bank borrowings during the year.

3.3 Fair value estimation

The carrying amounts of the Group's current financial assets, including trade receivables, deposits and other receivables excluding prepayments and cash and bank balances, and the Group's current financial liabilities, including trade and bills payables, accruals and other payables, contract liabilities and bank borrowings, approximate their fair values due to their short maturities. The nominal value less estimated credit adjustments for financial assets and liabilities with a maturity of less than one year are assumed to approximate their fair values.

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

4 CRITICAL ACCOUNTING ESTIMATES AND JUDGEMENTS

Estimates and judgements are continually evaluated and are based on historical experience and other factors, including expectations of future events that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances.

The Group make estimates and assumption concerning the future. The resulting accounting estimates will, by definition, seldom equal the actual results. The estimates and assumptions that have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next year are discussed below.

(a) Current and deferred income tax

The Group is subject to income taxes in different jurisdictions. Judgement is required in determining the provision for income taxes in different jurisdictions. There are transactions and calculations during the ordinary course of business for which the ultimate tax determination is uncertain. The Group operates mainly in Hong Kong, the PRC and the U.S. and has transactions with customers and suppliers in different countries. The Group's inter-company transactions and cross-border business arrangements during the ordinary course of business may impose inherent uncertainty over the Group's profit allocation and its respective tax position across different jurisdictions. The tax treatments of these transactions or arrangements may be subject to the interpretation by respective tax authorities in different countries. Where the final tax outcome of these matters is different from the amounts that were initially recorded, such differences will impact the income tax and deferred tax provisions in the year in which such determination is made.

Deferred income tax assets relating to certain temporary differences and tax losses are recognised when management considers it is probable that future taxable profits will be available against which the temporary differences or tax losses can be utilised. When the expectations are different from the original estimates, such differences will impact the recognition of deferred income tax and income tax expense in the year in which such estimates is changed.

(b) Provision for impairment of inventories

The Group assesses annually whether any provision is required to reflect the carrying value of inventories, in accordance with the accounting policy stated in note 2.10. Net realisable values have been determined based on the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business, less applicable variable selling expenses. This estimation require the use of judgement.

(c) Useful lives and residual values of property, plant and equipment

Management estimates useful lives and residual values of its property, plant and equipment with reference to the Group's business model, its assets management policy, the industry practice, expected usage of assets, expected repair and maintenance, the technical or commercial obsolescence arising from changes or improvements in market. Depreciation expense would be significantly affected by the useful lives of the property, plant and equipment as estimated by management. Management will increase the depreciation charge where useful lives are less than previously estimated lives, or it will write-off or write-down technically obsolete or non-strategic assets that have been abandoned or sold.

(d) Impairment of property, plant and equipment

Property, plant and equipment are reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount may not be recoverable. The recoverable amounts have been determined based on value-in-use calculations or fair value less costs of disposal. These calculations require the use of judgements and estimates.

Management judgement is required in the area of asset impairment particularly in assessing: (i) whether an event has occurred that may indicate that the related asset values may not be recoverable; (ii) whether the carrying value of an asset can be supported by the recoverable amount, being the higher of fair value less costs of disposal and net present value of future cash flows which are estimated based upon the continued use of the asset in the business; and (iii) the appropriate key assumptions to be applied in preparing cash flow projections including whether these cash flow projections are discounted using an appropriate rate. Changing the assumptions selected by management in assessing impairment, including the discount rates or the growth rate assumptions in the cash flow projections, could materially affect the net present value used in the impairment test and as a result affect the Group's financial position and results of operations. If there is a significant adverse change in the projected performance and resulting future cash flow projections, it may be necessary to take an impairment charge to the consolidated statements of comprehensive income.

During the year end 30 April 2022, management reviewed the carrying amounts of the property, plant and equipment allocated to the toy business and identified certain idle machineries and non-profitable moulds of a net book value of approximately HK$32,546,000 to be impaired, details of which are disclosed in note 16.

(e) Impairment of financial assets

For trade receivables (excluding non-financial assets), the Group applies the simplified approach to provide for expected credit losses as prescribed by HKFRS 9, which requires the use of the lifetime expected loss allowance for all trade receivables (excluding non-financial assets). The loss allowances for financial assets are based on assumptions about risk of default and expected loss rates. The Group uses judgement in making these assumptions and selecting the inputs to the impairment calculation, based on the Group's past history, existing market conditions as well as forward looking estimates at the end of reporting period. Management reassesses the provision at the end of each reporting period.

5 SEGMENT INFORMATION

The executive Directors of the Company have been identified as the chief operating decision-makers of the Group who review the Group's internal reporting in order to assess performance of the Group on a regular basis and allocate resources.

During the year, the Group invested and started a new business which is related to manufacturing and selling of laboratory equipment for primary and secondary school. Subsequent to the investment, the Group engaged in two operating segments namely, Toy business and Laboratory equipment business. The chief operating decision-makers assess the business performance based on a measure of operating results. Information reported to the chief operating decision-makers for the purposes of resources allocation and performance assessment focuses on the operation results of the Group as a whole as the Group's resources are integrated. Accordingly, the related revenue, assets and liabilities of the operating segments of Toy business and Laboratory equipment business are presented for the year ended 30 April 2022. The segment information for the year ended 30 April 2021 is not presented as there was only one segment in the prior year.

For the year ended 30 April 2022, the Group recognised an impairment loss for property, plant and equipment of approximately HK$32,546,000 in relation to idle machineries and non-profitable moulds allocated to the toy business. Management further carried out an impairment assessment for the net book value of property, plant and equipment assets amounting to approximately HK$9,841,000 related to the toy business, as a separately identifiable cash-generating unit, as impairment indicators exist. The carrying amount of the property, plant and equipment will be written down to its recoverable amount if the asset's carrying amount is greater than its estimated recoverable amount.

The estimates of the recoverable amounts were based on value-in-use calculations using discounted cash flow projections based on the financial forecasts approved by management, with major assumptions such as revenue growth rate, gross profit margin, percentage change of operating expenses and discount rate. Management determined that no further impairment is required.

The Group applies the HKFRS 9 simplified approach to measure expected credit losses which uses a lifetime expected loss allowance for trade receivables. To measure the expected credit losses, trade receivables have been grouped based on geographical locations, shared credit risk characteristics and ageing profiles. Note 3.1(b) provides more details about the calculation of loss allowance.

During the year ended 30 April 2022, the Group recognised a provision of loss allowance for other receivables for approximately HK$11,679,000 (2021: Nil). The directors of the Company became aware that the non-controlling shareholder of a non-wholly owned subsidiary of the Company who had an amount due to the subsidiary for approximately HK$11,679,000 owing to the capital contribution to the subsidiary was imposed the restricting high consumption order by the Courts in the PRC, was involved in multiple disputes over private lending and was recently being ruled against in some lawsuits. The Group regarded there was a significant increase in credit risk since inception and evaluated the lifetime expected credit loss of this receivable. Accordingly, the Group determined to recognise a provision of loss allowance for the full amount. The Group does not hold any collateral as security.

The carrying amounts of trade receivables, other receivables, deposits and prepayments approximate their fair values.
