If the Board of Directors of the Company fails to act in accordance with the first paragraph, the responsible directors shall be jointly and severally liable in accordance with the law.

Chapter 4 Reduction of Capital & Share Buyback

Article 28 The Company may reduce its registered capital. The reduction of registered capital shall follow the procedures set forth in the Company Law, other relevant regulations and provisions of this Articles of Association.

Article 22 of
Mandatory Provisions,
and Article 22 of
Guidelines on Articles
of Association

Article 29 When the Company is to reduce its registered capital, it must prepare a balance sheet and a list of its property.

Article 23 of
Mandatory Provisions,
and Article 176 of
Guidelines on Articles
of Association

The Company shall notify its creditors within 10 days from the date of adoption of the resolution to reduce its registered capital, and shall publish a public announcement of the resolution within 30 days in the newspapers designated by the relevant regulator of the place where the Company's shares are listed. Creditors shall, within 30 days of receiving written notice, or within 45 days of the date of the public announcement for those who have not received written notice, be entitled to request the Company to repay its debts in full or to provide a corresponding guarantee for repayment.

The reduced registered capital of the Company may not be less than the statutory minimum.

Article 30 The Company may, in the following circumstances, buy back its own issued and outstanding shares following the procedures provided under the laws and this Article of Association, and after approval by the relevant state approval authority:

Article 24 of
Mandatory Provisions,
and Article 23 of
Guidelines on Articles
of Association

1. Cancellation of shares in order to reduce the registered capital of the Company;
2. Merger with other companies holding the share of the Company;
3. Grant of shares as an award to the staff of the Company;
4. Circumstance where any shareholder holds different opinion with regard to the resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders on merger or division of the Company and requests the Company to purchase his or her shares;
5. Other circumstances specified by laws and administrative regulations.

Saving for the foregoing circumstances, the Company shall not engage in the selling and buying of the Company's shares.

Article 31 Following approval by the relevant state approval authority to buy back its own share, the Company may elect to do so by any of the following methods:

Article 25 of
Mandatory Provisions,
Article 24 of
Guidelines on Article of Association and
Article 8(2) of
Appendix 3

1. issue a buyback offer on a pro rata basis to all the shareholders;
2. buyback through open transactions in a stock exchange;
3. buyback by agreement outside a stock exchange;
4. Other manners permitted by the laws, administrative regulations and the approving authority authorized by the State Council.

Article 32 If the Company is to buy back shares by agreement outside a stock exchange, prior approval shall be obtained from the General Meeting of Shareholders in accordance with the provisions provided in this Articles of Association. Upon prior approval granted by the General Meeting of Shareholders in the same manner, the Company may rescind or modify contracts concluded in the manner set forth above, or waive any of its rights under such contracts.

Article 26 of
Mandatory Provisions,
and Articles 8(1)
and 8(2) of
Appendix 3

In the preceding paragraph, contracts for the buyback of shares shall include (but not be limited to) agreements whereby buyback obligations are undertaken and buyback rights are acquired.

The Company shall not transfer contracts for the buyback of its own shares or any of its rights thereunder.

With respect to redeemable shares which the Company is entitled to buy back, if the buyback is to be made in a manner other than through the market or by tender, the buyback price must be restricted to a certain maximum price; if the buyback is to be made by tender, the tender shall be equally lodged to all the shareholders.

Article 33 The acquisition by the Company of its own shares for a reason specified in item (1) to (3) of Article 30 of this Articles of Association shall require a resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders. After the Company's acquisition of its own share as per Article 30, if the acquisition arises out of the circumstance specified in item (1) of Article 30, the Company shall cancel such shares within ten days from the date of the acquisition, and if the acquisition arises out of the circumstances specified in item (2) or item (4) of Article 30, the Company shall transfer or cancel such shares within six months.

Article 27 of
Mandatory Provisions,
and Article 25 of
Guidelines on Articles
of Association

The number of its share acquired by the Company pursuant to item (3) of Article 30 shall not exceed 5% of the total issued shares of the Company; the funds used for such acquisition shall be paid from the Company's post-tax profit; and the shares so acquired shall be transferred to the staff within one year.

If the Company cancels shares, it shall carry out the registration of the change in its registered capital with its original registrar. The total par value of the share canceled shall be deducted from the registered capital of the Company.

Article 34 Unless the Company has already entered the liquidation stage, it must comply with the following provisions in buying back its issued and outstanding shares:

1. If the Company buy backs shares at their par value, the amount thereof shall be deducted from the book balance of the Company's distributable profit and/or from the proceeds of a new share issuance made to buy back the old shares;
2. If the Company buys back shares at a price higher than their par value, the portion corresponding to their par value shall be deducted from the book balance of the Company's distributable profit and/or the proceeds of a new share issuance made to buy back the old shares; and the portion in excess of the par value shall be handled according to the following methods:
  - (1) If the shares being bought back were issued at their par value, the amount thereof shall be deducted from the book balance of the Company's distributable profit;
  - (2) If the shares being bought back were issued at a price higher than their par value,, the amount shall be deducted from the book balance of the Company's distributable profit and the proceeds of a new share issuance made to buy back the old shares; nevertheless, the amount deducted from the proceeds of the new share issuance shall not exceed the total premium obtained at the time of issuance of the old share nor shall it exceed the amount in the Company's premium account(or capital reserve account) (including the premiums from the new shares offering) at the time of the buyback.
3. The amounts paid by the Company for the following purposes shall be paid out of the Company's distributable profits:
  - (1) Acquisition of the right to buy back its own shares;
  - (2) Modification of any contract for the buyback of its own share; and
  - (3) Release from any of its obligations under a buyback .contract.
4. After the par value of the cancelled shares has been deducted from the registered capital of the Company in accordance with relevant regulations, that portion of the amount deducted from the distributable profit and used to buy back shares at the par value shall be included in the premium account (or capital reserve account) of the Company.

Chapter 5 Financial Assistance for the Purchase of the Company's Shares

Article 35 The Company or its subsidiaries shall not at any time provide any financial assistance in any form to purchasers or prospective purchasers of the shares in the Company. Purchasers of the shares in the Company as referred to above shall include persons that directly or indirectly undertake obligations as a result of purchasing shares in the Company.

Article 29 of
Mandatory Provisions
Article 20 of
Guidelines on Articles
of Association

The Company or its subsidiaries shall not at any time provide any financial assistance in any form to the aforesaid obligors in order to reduce or release their obligations.

This provision shall not apply to the circumstances set forth in Article 37 of this Chapter.

Article 36 In this chapter, the term “financial assistance” shall include (but not be limited to) financial assistance in the forms set forth below:

Chapter 9 Special Voting Procedures for Class Shareholders

Article 109 Shareholders holding different classes of shares shall be class shareholders.

Article 78 of
Mandatory Provisions

Class shareholders shall enjoy rights and undertake obligations in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations and this Articles of Association.

In addition to the holders of other classes of shares, holders of domestic shares and holders of overseas listed foreign shares shall be deemed to be different classes shareholders.

Upon the approval of the China Securities Regulatory Commission, a holder of domestic shares of the Company may transfer his or her shares to overseas investors who may list and trade such shares overseas. The listing and trading of the transferred shares on an overseas bourse shall additionally comply with the regulatory procedures, provisions and requirements of the overseas stock market. The listing and trading of the transferred shares on an overseas stock exchange require no holding of class shareholders' meeting and voting.

If the share capital of the Company includes non-voting shares, the name of such shares shall be attached with "No Voting Right".

Article 110 If the Company intends to vary or abrogate the rights of class shareholders, it may do so only after such variation or abrogation has been adopted by way of a special resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders and by a separate class shareholders' meeting convened by the affected class shareholders in accordance with Article 112 to 116.

Article 111 Rights of shareholder of a certain class shall be deemed to be varied or abrogated under the following circumstances:

1. the increase or decrease of the number of shares of such class, or increase or decrease of the number of shares of a class having voting rights, distribution rights or other privileges equal or superior to those of the shares of such class;
2. the conversion of all or part of the shares of such class into shares of another class, or the conversion of all or part of the shares of another class into shares of such class or the grant of the right to such change;
3. the removal or reduction of rights to accrued dividends or cumulative dividends attached to shares of such class;
4. the reduction or removal of a dividend preference, or a property distribution preference during liquidation of the Company, attached to shares of such class;
5. the addition, removal or reduction of share conversion rights, options, voting rights, transfer rights, preemptive rights to rights issues or rights to acquire securities of the Company attached to shares of such class;
6. the removal or reduction of rights to receive amounts payable by the Company in particular currencies attached to shares of such class;
7. the creation of a new class of voting shares, distribution rights or other privileges equal or superior to those of the shares of that class;

8. the imposition of restrictions or additional restrictions on the transfer or ownership of shares of such class;
9. the issuance of rights to subscribe for, or convert into, shares of such class or another class;
10. the increase of the rights and privileges of shares of another class;
11. such restructuring of the Company as would cause shareholders of different classes to bear disproportionate liabilities under the restructuring; and
12. the amendment or deletion of the provisions of the provisions of this Chapter.

Article 112 Shareholders of the affect class, whether or not otherwise having the right to vote at the General Meeting of Shareholders, shall have right to vote at class shareholders' meetings in respect of any of the matters referred to in item (2) to (8) and items (11) to (12) of Article 112, except that interested shareholders shall not have the right to vote at class shareholders' meetings.

Article 81 of
Mandatory Provisions

In the preceding paragraph, the term "interested shareholders" shall have the following meanings:

1. if, pursuant to Article 31 of this Article of Association, the Company is to issue, on a pro rata basis, a buyback offer to all shareholders or is to buy back its own shares through open transactions on a stock exchange, the controlling shareholder as defined in Article 59 of this Articles of Association shall be an "interested shareholder";
2. if, pursuant to Article 31 of this Article of Association, the Company is to buy back its own shares by agreements outside a stock exchange, holders of shares to which such agreements relate shall be "interested shareholder";

2. when it is proposed by the Board of Supervisor;
3. when the Chairman of the Board of Director thinks necessary;
4. when it is proposed by more than one-third of the directors;
5. when it is proposed by more than half of the independent directors;
6. when it is proposed by the President of the Company;
7. other circumstances specified in laws and this Articles of Association.

Article 141 The notice on a regular or interim meeting of the Board of Directors shall be issued by such means of phone, fax or email. The notice on a regular meeting of the Board of Directors shall be delivered 14 days before the meeting is held, and the notice on an interim meeting of the Board of Directors shall not be restricted by the time of notice.

Article 92 of
Mandatory Provisions
Article 116 of Guidelines on Articles
of Association

The time and venue of a meeting of the Board of Directors can be specified by the Board of Directors in advance, and recorded in the meeting minute. If the meeting minute is delivered to all directors at least 10 days before the next meeting of the Board of Directors is held, no separate notice on the meeting will be delivered to the directors.

If a director has attended the meeting, and has not put forward the dissidence of non-receipt of such notice before attending the meeting or the meeting starts, the director shall be deemed to have received the notice of the relevant meeting.

The meeting of the Board of Directors can be conducted by means of the telephone conference or other similar communication equipment, so long as the director present at the meeting can clearly hear and communicate with other directors. All the directors in attendance shall be deemed to have attended the meeting in person.

Article 142 The meeting notice of the Board of Directors shall contain the following particulars:

Article 117 of
Guidelines on Articles
of Association

1. the time and venue of the meeting;
2. the method by which the meeting is to be held;
3. the duration of the meeting;
4. the reasons for holding meeting and the agendas thereat;
5. the names of the meeting convener and the chairman, the name of the person who proposed the interim meeting and his or her written proposal;
6. the meeting materials necessary for the vote by the directors, including the background materials related to the agendas of the meeting as well as the information and data that would be of assistance to the directors in understanding the business progress of the Company;
7. a request that the director attend in person or that he or she entrust another director to attend the meeting on his or her behalf;
8. the name of the contact person and his or her contact information;
9. the date of issuance of the notice.

A notice given orally shall at least contain the particulars set forth in items 1 and 2 above and an explanation to the effect that circumstances are urgent and an interim meeting of the Board of Directors needs to be held as soon as possible.

Article 143 Meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held only if more than one half of the directors are present, except the circumstance when the Board of Directors reviews matter relating to related-party transaction as specified in Article 145 of this Articles of Association.

Article 93 of
Mandatory Provisions
Article 118 of
Guidelines on Articles
of Association

Each director shall have one vote. Except the circumstances when the Board of Directors reviews matters relating to related-party transaction as specified in Article 145 of this Article of Association, a resolution made by the Board of Directors shall be adopted by more than half of all of the directors.

When the negative votes and the affirmative votes are equal, the Chairman shall have the right to cast one additional vote.

If a resolution is signed by the directors respectively and the number of the directors casting affirmative votes meets the effective quorum specified in the laws, regulations and this Articles of Association, the resolution shall be considered as valid as if a resolution has been adopted by the Board of Directors at a meeting held according to the law. Such a written resolution can be composed of multiple copies, with each signed by one or more directors. For the purpose of this article, a resolution signed by directors or bearing the names of the directors and delivered to the Company via posting, fax or courier shall be deemed as a document signed by the directors.

Article 144 Meetings of the Board of Directors shall be attended by the directors in person. When a director is unable to attend a meeting for any reason, he or she shall entrust another director in writing to attend the meeting on his or her behalf,, and such power of attorney shall specify:

Article 94 of
Mandatory Provisions
Article 121 of
Guidelines on Articles of Association

1. the names of the principal and the proxy;
2. the principal's brief opinion on each proposal;
3. the scope of authorization granted by the principal and his or her instructions on voting preferences with respect to the proposals;
4. the effective period of the entrustment;
5. whether the proxy has the voting right to vote on extempore proposal that may be added to the agenda of the meeting of the Board of Directors, and if yes, the specific instruction as to what vote to be cast if he or she has such right of vote;
6. the signature or seal of the principal and the date.

The director present at the meeting on behalf of the absent director shall exercise the director's rights to the extent authorized. If a director fails to attend a meeting of the Board of Directors and fails to consign a proxy to attend the meeting on his or her behalf, he or she shall be deemed to have waived his or her right to vote at such meeting.

Article 145 If a director has a related party relationship an enterprise involved in a matter on which a resolution is to be made at a meeting of the Board of Directors (meaning that the director of the Company serves as a director or senior executive in the enterprise, or he or she can either directly or indirectly control a legal person of the enterprise, or serves as a director or senior executive in a legal person which is either directly or indirectly controlled by the enterprise), such director shall not exercise his or her right to vote regarding such resolution, nor may he or she exercise the voting right of another director as such director's proxy thereon. Such a meeting of the Board of Directors may be held when more than one half of the directors without a related party relationship are present, and the resolution made at such a meeting of the Board of Directors shall be adopted by more than half of the directors without a related party relationship.. When a meeting of the Board of Director is attended by less than three directors without a related party relationship, the matter shall be submitted to the General Meeting of Shareholders for review.

Article 146 Once each proposal has been fully discussed, the chairman of the meeting shall propose that the directors present at the meeting vote thereon.

When voting on Board resolution, each director shall have one vote.

The voting options open to the directors are affirmative, negative and abstention. The directors present at the meeting shall select only one among the aforesaid options. Where a director fails to select any of the options or selects two or more of the options, the chairman of the meeting shall require such director to select an option again. Where such director refuses to make a selection, he or she shall be deemed to abstain. Where a director leaves the meeting venue during the course of a meeting without returning to make a selection, he or she shall be considered as abstain.

Article 147 Votes at meetings of the Board of Directors held in person (including meetings held by videoconference) shall be held by registered ballot. Subject to ensuring the full expression by the directors of their opinions at a meeting of the Board of Directors, votes may be held and resolutions may be adopted by means of correspondence, and such resolutions shall be signed by the directors in attendance. An effective period shall be set for votes held by means of correspondence, and where a director fails to express his or her opinion within the specified period, he or she shall be deemed to abstain.

When the Board of Directors is to adopt a resolution on a matter relating to external guarantee pursuant to this Articles of Association within the scope of its authorization, in addition to the consent of more than half of all of the directors of the Company, the consent of at least two-thirds of the directors present at the meeting shall be required.

In the event of a conflict between the content and meaning of different resolutions, the resolution adopted in a later time shall prevail.

Article 148 In respect of any matter which needs to be determined by the Board of Directors at an interim meeting of the Board of Directors, where the Board of Directors has already distributed the content of the proposal to be voted on to all directors in writing (including fax and email) and guarantees all directors can fully express their opinions, votes may be held and resolutions may be adopted by means of correspondence, and it is not necessary to hold a meeting of the Board of Directors. Nevertheless, an effective resolution shall be made only when the number of directors who have given their written consents thereto reaches the number of directors specified in this Articles of Association to make a decision.

Article 149 The Company shall announce the resolution(s) of the Board of Directors pursuant to applicable laws, and an announcement on the resolution of the Board of Directors shall include the following particulars:

1. the time and method of issuance of the meeting notice;
2. the time, venue of the meeting and the method by which it was held and a statement as to whether the meeting is convened and held in conformity with relevant laws and this Articles of Association;
3. the number and names of directors who consigned a proxy or was absent, the reasons for their absence and the names of the directors who they consigned as their proxies;
4. the number of affirmative, negative and abstention votes on every proposal as well as the causes why the relevant directors objected or abstained from voting on any motion;

Chapter 15 Financial and Accounting Systems and Profit Distribution

Article 195 The Company shall formulate its financial and accounting systems in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations and the PRC accounting standards formulated by the finance authority of the State Council.

Article 196 The Company shall prepare financial reports at the end of each accounting year, and such financial statements shall be audited by an accounting firm in accordance with the law.

The Company shall adopt the Gregorian calendar year as its accounting year, which shall commence on January 1 and end on December 31 of the same Gregorian calendar year.

Article 197 The Board of Directors of the Company shall, at each annual General Meeting of Shareholders, submit to the shareholders such financial reports as relevant laws, administrative regulations and normative documents published by the local governments and the managing authorities require the Company to prepare.

Article 198 The financial reports of the Company shall be kept in the Company and made available for inspection by the shareholders 20 days before an annual General Meeting of Shareholders is held. Each shareholder of the Company shall have the right to obtain a copy of the financial reports mentioned in this chapter.

Article 199 The Company shall deliver the duplicate of the financial report together with the balance sheet (including every document require by applicable laws to be annexed thereto), the profit and loss statement or the income statement, or the financial summary report, to each holder of the overseas listed foreign shares by prepaid mail at the recipient’s address shown in the register of shareholders at least 21 days before an annual General Meeting of Shareholders is held.

Article 200 The financial statements of the Company shall be prepared in accordance with PRC accounting standards and regulations, and shall also be prepared in accordance with the international accounting standards or the accounting standards of the place outside the PRC where the Company's shares are listed. If there is any material discrepancy in the financial statement prepared in accordance with these two sets of accounting standards, such discrepancy shall be specified in the notes to such financial statements. For purposes of the Company's distribution of post-tax profits of a given accounting year, the lesser of the amounts of post-tax profits shown in the aforementioned two kinds of financial statement shall govern.

Article 134 of
Mandatory Provisions

Article 201 Interim results or financial information published or disclosed by the Company shall be prepared according to PRC accounting standards and regulations, and shall also be prepared in accordance with international accounting standards or the accounting standards of the place outside the PRC where the Company's shares are listed.

Article 204 The capital reserve shall include the following funds:

Article 138 of
Mandatory Provisions

1. the premiums obtained from the share issuance at a price above par;
2. other incomes required by the State Council finance authority to be included in the capital reserve.

Article 205 When the Company distributes its post-tax profits for a given year, the Company shall allocate 10% of profits to its statutory capital reserve. The Company shall no longer be required to make allocations to its statutory capital reserve once the aggregate amount of such reserve exceeds 50% of its registered capital.

Article 152 of
Guidelines on Articles
of Association

When the Company's statutory capital reserve is insufficient to make up losses from previous years, the Company shall use its profit from the current year to make up such losses before making the allocation to its statutory capital reserve in accordance with the previous provision.

After making the allocation from its post-tax profit to its statutory capital reserve, the Company may, subject to a resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders, make an allocation from its post-tax profits to the discretionary capital reserve.

After the Company has made up its losses and made allocations to its capital reserves, the remaining post-tax profits shall be distributed in proportion to the shareholdings of its shareholders, unless This Article of Association provide that distributions are to be made otherwise than proportionally.

If the General Meeting of Shareholders violates the preceding provisions by distributing profits to shareholders before the Company has made up its losses and made allocation to the statutory capital reserve, the shareholders must return to the Company the profits that were distributed in violation of the said provisions.

The Company's shares that are held by the Company itself shall not participate in the profit distribution.

Article 206 The Company may take either or both of the following ways to distribute the dividend:

Article 139 of
Mandatory Provisions

1. Cash;
2. Shares.
