Notice of FAST RETAILING CO., LTD. (the “Company”)
Regarding the Company’s Position on Reducing Investment Units

The Company believes that it is the responsibility of listed companies to expand their investor base and increase the liquidity of their shares.

In light of that goal, as well as other factors, such as our Company’s share price, trading volume, number of shareholders, and shareholder composition etc., we believe that we have a wide range of shareholders both inside Japan and overseas, and that our shares are actively traded in the market.

However, our investment unit level remains high. Any decision to lower the investment unit would be based on a comprehensive consideration of future market trends, related requests from the securities market, and the price and liquidity of our shares.

Our shareholders are important to the promotion of business growth with the Company. We seek to reward our shareholders by increasing our corporate value over the long term.
