中國環保科技控股有限公司
(Incorporated in the Cayman Islands with limited liability)

TERMS OF REFERENCE OF THE REMUNERATION COMMITTEE

(Revised and adopted by the Board on 8 December 2022)

Definitions

1. For the purposes of these terms of reference (the Terms):

Board means the board of directors of the Company.

Company means China Environmental Technology Holdings Limited.

Company Secretary means the company secretary of the Company.

Director(s) means the director(s) of the Company.

Group means the Company and its subsidiaries and associated companies at the relevant time or, where the context so requires, in respect of the period before the Company became the holding company of its present subsidiaries and associated companies, the present subsidiaries and associated companies of the Company or the businesses operated by its present subsidiaries and associated companies or (as the case may be) its predecessor.

Listing Rules means the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (as amended from time to time).

Remuneration Committee means the remuneration committee established by the resolution of the Board in accordance with clause 3 of these Terms.

Senior Management refers to the same persons referred to in the Company's annual report and required to be disclosed under paragraph 12 of Appendix 16 to The Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited.

Shareholder(s) means the shareholder(s) of the Company.

Stock Exchange means The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited.

2. The word “remuneration”, as used in these Terms, includes without limitation any salaries, bonuses, allowances, benefits (in cash or in kind), pension arrangements, reimbursements, compensation payments (including any compensation payable for loss or termination of office or appointment), incentive payments and share options.

Constitution

3. The Board had resolved to establish the Remuneration Committee on 20 July 2005 to establish the remuneration policy and determine the remuneration package for the Board and senior management.

4. The Remuneration Committee will review its terms of reference, performance and constitution occasionally and recommend any changes it considers necessary to the Board for approval in order to fully comply with the requirements of the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited and other legal requirements.

Membership

5. The members of the Remuneration Committee shall be appointed by the Board from time to time from among the Directors and shall consist of not less than three members, a majority of whom shall be independent non-executive Directors. A quorum shall be two members. The chairman of the Remuneration Committee shall be an independent non-executive Director appointed by the Board.

6. Each member of the Remuneration Committee shall disclose to the Remuneration Committee:

(a) any personal financial interest (other than as a Shareholder of the Company) in any matter to be decided by the Remuneration Committee; or

(b) any potential conflict of interest arising from a cross-directorship.

Any such member shall abstain from voting on resolutions of the Remuneration Committee in relation to which such interest exists and from participating in the discussions concerning such resolutions, and shall (if so required by the Board) resign from the Remuneration Committee.

Frequency and conduct of meetings

7. Meetings shall be held at least once a year. The chairman of the Remuneration Committee shall convene a meeting upon request by any member of the Remuneration Committee.

8. An agenda and accompanying board papers should be sent in full to all members of the Remuneration Committee in a timely manner and at least 3 days before the intended date of a meeting of the Remuneration Committee (or such other period as agreed or waived by its members).

9. Senior Management is obliged to supply the Remuneration Committee with adequate information in a timely manner, in order to enable it to make informed decisions. The information supplied must be complete and reliable. Where a Director requires more information than is volunteered by Senior Management, the relevant Director should make additional necessary enquiries. The Board and each Director shall have separate and independent access to the Senior Management.

Annual General Meetings

10. The chairman of the Remuneration Committee shall attend the Company's annual general meetings and be prepared to respond to any Shareholder's questions on the Remuneration Committee's activities.

Authority

11. The Remuneration Committee is authorised by the Board to discharge its duties within these Terms. It is authorised to seek any remuneration information it requires from the Directors and/or Senior Management who are directed to co-operate with the Remuneration Committee.

12. The Remuneration Committee is authorised by the Board to obtain external independent professional advice and to secure the attendance of outsiders with relevant experience and expertise if it considers this necessary. The Remuneration Committee shall be provided with sufficient resources to perform its duties. The Remuneration Committee should be exclusively responsible for establishing the selection criteria, selecting, appointing and setting the Terms for any external remuneration consultant who advises the Remuneration Committee.

Duties

13. The duties of the Remuneration Committee shall include:

(a) making recommendations to the Board on the Company's policy and structure for all Directors and Senior Management remuneration and on the establishment of a formal and transparent procedure for developing remuneration policy;

- (b) making recommendations to the Board on the remuneration package of individual executive Directors and Senior Management and making recommendations to the Board on the remuneration of non-executive Directors;
- (c) considering salaries paid by comparable companies, time commitment and responsibilities and employment conditions elsewhere in the Group;
- (d) reviewing and approving the management's remuneration proposals with reference to the Board's corporate goals and objectives;
- (e) reviewing and approving compensation payable to executive Directors and Senior Management for any loss or termination of office or appointment to ensure that it is consistent with contractual terms and is otherwise fair and not excessive;
- (f) reviewing and approving compensation arrangements relating to dismissal or removal of Directors for misconduct to ensure that they are consistent with relevant contractual terms and are otherwise reasonable and appropriate;
- (g) ensuring that no Director or any of his associates is involved in deciding his own remuneration;
- (h) reviewing the Group's policy on expense reimbursements for the Directors and Senior Management; and
- (i) performing any other duties prescribed by law, regulation and rules, as amended from time to time, which set forth obligations for the Company to comply with.
- (j) to review and/or approve matters relating to share schemes under Chapter 17 of the Listing Rules.
- (k) to consider other topics as defined or directed by the Board or otherwise required by the Listing Rules from time to time.

14. In carrying out its duties under these Terms, the Remuneration Committee should:

- (a) consult the chairman of the Board and/or the chief executive about their remuneration proposals for other executive Directors and have access to independent professional advice if necessary;
- (b) provide the packages needed to attract, retain and motivate executive Directors of the quality required, but avoid paying more than is necessary for this purpose;

- (c) judge where to position the Group relative to other companies. They should be aware what comparable companies are paying and should take account of relative performance;
- (d) be sensitive to the wider scene, including pay and employment conditions within the Group and elsewhere, especially when determining annual salary increases;
- (e) ensure that the performance-related elements of remuneration form a significant proportion of the total remuneration package of executive Directors are designed to align their interests with those of Shareholders and to give the Directors incentives to perform at the highest levels; and
- (f) ensure that share options offered by the Company to its Directors or Senior Management (if any) are in accordance with Chapter 17 of the Listing Rules, as applicable.

15. Without prejudice to the generality of the Terms to the Remuneration Committee set out above, the Remuneration Committee shall:

- (a) operate the Company's share option scheme (if any) or other incentives schemes (if any) as they apply to, and recommend to the general meeting of shareholders grants of options to be made to Directors and/or Senior Management. It shall recommend to the Board the total aggregate amount of any grants to employees (with the specific grants to individuals to be at the discretion of the Board) and make amendments to the terms of such schemes (subject to the provisions of the schemes relating to amendment);
- (b) liaise with the trustee of any employee share option scheme which is created by the Company for the benefit of employees, Senior Management or Directors;
- (c) review the terms of executive Directors' service contracts from time to time; and
- (d) advise the Board in relation to the preparation of the Board's remuneration report (if any) to shareholders.

Reporting procedures

16. Minutes of the Remuneration Committee's meetings shall be kept by a duly appointed secretary of the meeting, and such minutes shall be available for inspection at any reasonable time on reasonable notice by any Director.

Minutes of meetings of the Remuneration Committee shall record in sufficient detail the matters considered by the Remuneration Committee and decisions reached, including any concerns raised by Directors, members or dissenting views expressed. Draft and final versions of minutes should be sent to all members of the Remuneration Committee for their comment and records respectively within a reasonable time after such meetings.

17. Without prejudice to the generality of the duties of the Remuneration Committee set out in these Terms, the Remuneration Committee shall report back to the Board and keep the Board fully informed of its decisions and recommendations, unless there are legal or regulatory restrictions on its ability to do so.

Terms available

18. The Remuneration Committee shall make available these Terms, explaining its role and the authority delegated to it by the Board by including on the Company's website and on the Stock Exchange's website.
