“Incur obligations” referred to in this chapter include the incurring of obligations by the changes in the obligor’s financial position due to entering into contracts or arrangements (whether enforceable or not, and whether such obligations are to be born on its own account or with any other persons), or by any other means.

Article 30 of the
Mandatory
Provisions

Article 40 The following activities are not deemed to be prohibited activities as prescribed in Article 38 of the Articles of Association:

- (1) the Company's provision of relevant financial assistance is in good faith, in the interest of the Company, and not mainly for the purpose of acquiring the shares of the Company, or the provision of such financial assistance is an incidental part of an overall plan of the Company;
- (2) the lawful distribution of the Company's assets as dividends;
- (3) distribution of dividends in the form of shares;
- (4) inter alia, a reduction of registered capital, repurchase of shares or reorganization of the equity structure, effected in accordance with the Articles of Association;
- (5) the Company's provision of loans for its normal operations within its scope of business (provided that the net assets of the Company are not thereby reduced or that, to the extent that they are thereby reduced, the financial assistance is provided out of the Company's distributable profits); and
- (6) the Company's provision of funds for the staff and workers' share ownership schemes (provided that the net assets of the Company are not thereby reduced or that, to the extent that they are thereby reduced, the financial assistance is provided out of the Company's distributable profits).

Article 31 of the
Mandatory
Provisions

Chapter 6 Share Certificates and Register of Shareholders

Article 41 The share certificates of the Company shall be in registered form.

In addition to the matters required by the Company Law, the share certificates of the Company shall state other matters as required by the stock exchange on which the shares of the Company are listed.

During the period when H shares are listed on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange, the Company must ensure all the title documents of its securities listed on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange (including H share certificates) contain the following statements at all times:

- (1) The share purchasers agree with the Company and each of the shareholders, and the Company agrees with each of the shareholders to observe and comply with the requirements of the Company Law and other relevant laws, administrative regulations, the Special Regulations and the Articles of Association;
- (2) The share purchasers agree with the Company, each of the shareholders, directors, supervisors and senior management officers of the Company, and the Company acting on its own behalf and for the benefit of each director, supervisor and senior management officer shall agree with each shareholder, that all the disputes or claims arising from the Articles of Association or from the rights or obligations stipulated in the Company Law or other relevant laws or administrative regulations in relation to the affairs of the Company shall be referred to arbitration in accordance with the Articles of Association. Any reference to arbitration shall be deemed to authorize the arbitration tribunal to conduct hearing in open session and to publish its award, which shall be final and conclusive;
- (3) The share purchasers agree with the Company and each of the shareholders that the shares of the Company may be freely transferred by the holder thereof;
- (4) The share purchasers authorize the Company to enter into contracts on their behalf with each of the directors and senior management officers. Pursuant to such contracts, the directors and senior management officers undertake to observe and fulfill their responsibilities to the shareholders under the Articles of Association.

Article 32 of the
Mandatory
Provisions

Rule 19A.52 of
the Main Board
Listing Rules

The Company shall instruct and procure its share registrar not to register the subscription, purchase or transfer of shares in the name of any individual shareholder unless and until such shareholders deliver to the share registrar a duly signed form in respect of such shares which shall include the aforesaid statements.

Article 42 The shares of the Company may be transferred, donated, inherited and pledged in accordance with the requirements of relevant laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association. The transfer documents and other documents in respect of share ownership must be registered at the share registrar entrusted by the Company.

Article 43 The share certificates shall be signed by the chairman of the Board. Where the stock exchange on which the shares of the Company are listed requires the share certificates to be signed by other senior management officers of the Company, the share certificates shall also be signed by such officers. The share certificates shall be effective after being affixed or affixed by way of printing with the seal of the Company. The share certificates shall only be affixed or printed with the company seal under the authorization of the Board. The signatures of the chairman of the Board or other relevant senior management officers on the share certificates may also be in printed form.

Should the Company's shares be issued and traded in scripless form, separate stipulations by the securities regulatory authority and the stock exchange at the place where such shares are listed shall apply.

Rule 1(1) of Appendix 3 to the Main Board Listing Rules

Article 33 of the Mandatory Provisions

Article 1 of the Supplemental Letter of Opinion

Rule 2(1) of Appendix 3 to the Main Board Listing Rules

Article 44 The Company shall keep a register of shareholders containing the following particulars:

- (1) the name, address (place of domicile), occupation or nature of each shareholder;
- (2) the class and number of shares held by each shareholder;
- (3) the amount paid-up or payable in respect of the shares held by each shareholder;
- (4) the serial numbers of the shares held by each shareholder;
- (5) the date on which each shareholder was registered as a shareholder;
- (6) the date on which any shareholder ceased to be a shareholder.

Unless there is evidence to the contrary, the register of shareholders shall be the sufficient evidence of the shareholders' shareholding in the Company.

Article 45 Subject to compliance with the Articles of Association and other applicable requirements and upon transfer of the Company's shares, the transferees of the shares will become the holders of such shares with their names being entered in the register of shareholders.

All the acts or transfers of overseas-listed foreign shares will be recorded in the register of shareholders of overseas-listed foreign shares, which is kept in the place where such shares are listed pursuant to Article 45 of the Articles of Association.

Where two or more persons are registered as the joint shareholders of any share, they shall be deemed to be the joint owners of such shares, subject to the following terms:

- (1) where authority is granted to limit the number of shareholders in a joint account, the Company does not need to register more than four persons as the joint holders for any shares;
- (2) all the joint holders of any share shall jointly or severally assume the liability to pay all the payables for relevant shares;
- (3) given the decease of one of the joint shareholders, the Company shall deem only the surviving joint shareholder(s) as the owner(s) of relevant shares. Nevertheless, the Board has the right to demand a death certificate of such shareholders where it deems appropriate, regarding the amendments to the register of shareholders; and

- (4) in respect of joint holders of any shares, any of the joint holders is entitled to attend the Company's general meetings or exercise the voting rights in respect of such shares (whether in person or by proxy). If more than one joint holder attends the general meeting in person or by proxy, only the joint holder whose name appears first in the register of shareholders is entitled to vote in respect of such shares.

Article 46 The Company may keep its original register of shareholders of overseas-listed foreign shares outside the PRC and appoint overseas agent institution(s) to manage the register, in accordance with the mutual understandings and agreements between the competent securities regulatory authorities of the State Council and overseas securities regulatory authorities. The original register of shareholders of foreign shares listed in Hong Kong shall be maintained in Hong Kong. The Company shall maintain a copy of the register of shareholders at its place of domicile. The appointed overseas agent(s) shall ensure the consistency between the original and the copy of the register at all times.

If there is any inconsistency between the original and the copy of the overseas-listed foreign register, the original shall prevail.

Article 35 of the
Mandatory
Provisions

Article 2 of the Supplemental Letter of Opinion

Rule 1(b) of Appendix 13D to
the Main Board
Listing Rules

Article 47 The Company shall maintain a complete register of shareholders. Such a register shall include the following parts:

- (1) the register of shareholders which is maintained at the Company's place of domicile (other than the registers of shareholders described in paragraphs (2) and (3) of this Article);
- (2) the register of shareholders in respect of overseas-listed foreign shares of the Company, which is maintained at the place where the overseas stock exchange (on which the shares are listed) is located;
- (3) the register of shareholders which is maintained in such other place as the Board may consider necessary for the purpose of the listing of the Company's shares.

Article 48 There shall be no overlap between different parts of the register of shareholders. No transfer of the shares registered in one part of the register shall, during the existence of share registration, be registered in other parts of the register.

Alteration or rectification of each part of the register of shareholders shall take place in accordance with the laws of the place where that part of the register is maintained.

Article 36 of the
Mandatory
Provisions

Article 37 of the
Mandatory
Provisions

Article 49 All the transfers of overseas-listed foreign shares shall be executed with a written transfer instrument in a common format or any other format acceptable to the Board. The instrument may be signed by handwriting, without seal. If the transferor or transferee of the shares of the Company is a recognized clearing house (“Recognized Clearing House”) or its nominee as defined in the laws of Hong Kong, a written transfer instrument may be signed in a machine-printed form.

The paid-up overseas-listed foreign shares listed in Hong Kong are freely transferable pursuant to this Article. The Board may refuse to recognize any instrument of transfer without explanation, unless such transfer meets the following conditions:

- (1) the instrument of transfer and other documents relating to or which may affect the transfer of ownership of such shares shall be registered, with a fee that shall not exceed the cap as prescribed from time to time by the Hong Kong Stock Exchange in the Listing Rules;
- (2) the instrument of transfer solely involves the foreign shares listed in Hong Kong;
- (3) the stamp duties payable on the instruments of transfer have been paid;
- (4) the relevant share certificates shall be provided, together with such evidence as reasonably required by the Board to prove that the transferor has the right to transfer such shares;
- (5) if the shares are intended to be transferred to joint shareholders, the number of such joint shareholders shall not exceed 4;
- (6) the Company has not created any lien over relevant shares; and
- (7) no shares shall be transferred to minors or mentally incompetent or other legally incapable persons.

If the Company refuses to register any transfer of shares, the Company shall provide the transferor and transferee with a notice of refusal to register such transfer, within two months from the formal application for such transfer.

Article 12 of the Supplemental Letter of Opinion

Rule 1(1)(2)(3) of Appendix 3 to the Main Board Listing Rules

Article 142 of the Company Law

Article 50 Shares of the Company held by the promoters may not be transferred within one year after the Company's establishment. Shares in issue of the Company before public offering may not be transferred within one year from the date on which the shares of the Company were listed and trading on Stock Exchange.

The directors, supervisors and senior management officers of the Company shall report to the Company their number of shares held in the Company and the subsequent changes in their shareholdings. The number of shares that such persons may transfer every year during their terms of office shall not exceed 25% of the total number of the Company's shares in his/her possession, except if the number of shares held is lower than 1000. Shares of the Company held may not be transferred within one year from the date on which the shares of the Company were listed and trading. Such personnel shall not transfer the Company's shares in their possession within half a year after they terminate their employment with the Company.

Where any director, supervisor, senior management of the Company and shareholders holding 5% or above of the Company's shares sell his/her shares or other securities of an equity nature within six months after their purchase, or repurchase shares in the Company within six months after their disposal, the gains so earned shall belong to the Company. The Board shall demand such gains for the benefit of the Company, except where a securities company holding 5% or more of the Company's shares as a result of its underwriting of the untaken shares in an offer, as well as and in other circumstances as prescribed by the securities regulatory authority of the State Council.

The shares or other securities of an equity nature held by directors, supervisors, senior management or natural shareholders referred to in the preceding paragraph include shares or other securities of an equity nature held by their spouses, parents or children and those held using the accounts of others.

In the event that the Board of the Company fails to enforce the requirement in accordance with the preceding paragraph, the shareholders are entitled to demand enforcement by the Board within 30 days. In the event that the Board of the Company fails to enforce the requirement within the said period, the shareholders are entitled to initiate litigation before the People's Court for the interests of the Company's in its own name.

Article 29 of the Guidelines

In the event that the Board of the Company fails to enforce the requirements in accordance with the Clause 3 of the Articles of Association, responsible directors shall be jointly and severally liable in accordance with the law.

Article 51 Upon the approval from the securities regulatory authorities of the State Council, the shareholders of the Company's domestic shares can transfer their shares to overseas investors, and have the shares listed and traded overseas. The transferred shares that are listed and traded on an overseas stock exchange are also subject to the regulatory procedures, regulations and requirements of the overseas securities market. The Company does not need to convene a class meeting to vote on the listing and trading of the transferred shares on overseas stock exchanges.

Article 52 No changes in the register of shareholders due to the transfer of shares may be registered within 30 days before the date of a general meeting or within 5 days before the record date of the Company's decision on distribution of dividends. Where otherwise provided in laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules, regulatory documents and requirements of relevant stock exchanges or regulatory authorities at the place where the shares of the Company are listed, such provisions shall prevail.

Article 53 When the Company convenes a general meeting, distributes dividends, enters into liquidation and engages in other activities that involve determination of shareholders, the Board or convener of the general meetings shall designate a date to be the record date. Shareholders whose names appear in the register of members at the closing of the market on the record date shall be the shareholders of the Company who are entitled to such rights.

Provisions

Article 55 Any shareholder who is registered in or any person requests to have his/her name (title) entered in the register of shareholders may apply to the Company for replacement share certificates in respect of such shares (the “Relevant Shares”) whose share certificates (the “Original Certificates”) are lost.

If a holder of domestic shares loses his/her share certificate and applies for a replacement share certificate, it shall be dealt with in accordance with relevant provisions under the Company Law.

If a holder of overseas-listed foreign shares loses his/hershare certificate and applies for a replacement share certificate, the application may be processed in accordance with the laws, the rules of the stock exchange and other relevant regulations of the place where the original register of holders of overseas-listed foreign shares is maintained.

If a holder of H shares loses his/her share certificate and applies for a replacement share certificate, the application shall be in compliance with the following requirements:

(1) the applicant shall submit an application to the Company in the standard form prescribed by the Company, accompanied by a notarial certificate or statutory declaration specifying the grounds for the application, the circumstances and evidence of the loss of the share certificate, and a declaration that no other person is entitled to register as the shareholder in respect of the Relevant Shares.

(2) before deciding to issue a replacement share certificate, the Company has not received a declaration from any person (other than the applicant) requesting to register as a shareholder in respect of such shares.

(3) if it decides to issue a replacement share certificate to the applicant, the Company shall publish an announcement of its intention to issue the replacement share certificate in such newspapers as designated by the Board; the announcement shall be published at least once every 30 days for a period of 90 days. The Board shall designate at least one Chinese and English newspaper recognized by the Hong Kong Stock Exchange, for such publication.

(4) prior to the publication of its intention to issue a replacement share certificate, the Company shall submit to the Hong Kong Stock Exchange a copy of the announcement to be published. The Company may publish the announcement upon receiving the confirmation from the Hong Kong Stock Exchange that the announcement has been displayed at the premises of the Stock Exchange. The announcement shall be displayed at the aforementioned premises for a period of 90 days. Should an application to issue a replacement share certificate be made without the consent of the registered holder of the Relevant Shares, the Company shall dispatch a copy of the announcement to be published to such registered shareholders by post.

(5) the Company may issue a replacement share certificate to the applicant, if no objection is received from any person in relation to the issuance of replacement share certificates upon the expiry of the 90-day period of announcement and display referred to in paragraphs (3) and (4) of the Articles of Association.

(6) when issuing a replacement share certificate in accordance with the Articles of Association, the Company shall forthwith cancel the Original Certificate and record the cancellation and replacement matters in the register of shareholders.

The applicant shall bear all the expenses relating to the Company's cancellation of an Original Certificate and issuance of a replacement share certificate. The Company may refuse to take any action until the applicant provides a reasonable guarantee.

Article 56 After the Company issues a replacement share certificate pursuant to the Articles of Association, the name (title) of a bona fide purchaser who obtains the aforementioned new share certificate or a shareholder who subsequently registers as the owner of such shares (if he/she is a bona fide purchaser) shall not be removed from the register of shareholders.

Article 57 The Company has no obligation to compensate any person for any damages arising from the cancellation of the Original Certificate or the issuance of a replacement share certificate, unless the person concerned can prove that the Company has committed a fraudulent act.

Section 2 Convening a General Meeting

Article 71 General meetings comprise annual general meetings and extraordinary general meetings. An annual general meeting shall be held once a year and within six months after the end of the prior accounting year.

Article 52 of the
Mandatory
Provisions

Extraordinary general meetings shall be convened as and when necessary. Under any of the following circumstances, the Board shall convene an extraordinary general meeting within 2 months from the occurrence thereof:

- (1) when the number of directors is less than the quorum required by the Company Law or two thirds of the number of directors specified in this Article;
- (2) when the un-recovered losses of the Company amount to one third of the total paid-in share capital;
- (3) when the shareholder(s) individually or jointly holding more than 10% of the Company's shares demand(s) in writing the convening of an extraordinary general meeting;
- (4) when the Board considers necessary or as proposed by the board of supervisors;
- (5) when more than 2 independent directors so propose; and
- (6) in other situations stipulated by laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules, the listing rules of the stock exchange on which the shares of the Company are listed or this Article.

In any of the circumstances referred to in Items (3) and (4) above, the matter for consideration proposed by the party requesting the holding of an extraordinary general meeting shall be included in the agenda of the meeting.

Article 72 The place for holding the General Meeting of the Company shall be the domicile of the Company or other specific place informed by the convener of the General Meeting.

A venue shall be prepared for the General Meeting, which shall be held on-site. The Company may also provide online voting to facilitate the participation of shareholders in the General Meeting. Shareholders who participate in a General Meeting in the aforesaid manners shall be deemed to have been present at the meeting.

Article 100 of the Company Law

Article 44 of the Guidelines

Article 73 In convening a General Meeting, the Company shall engage a lawyer to provide legal opinions and announce the same on the following issues:

- (1) whether the convening and convening procedures of the General Meeting comply with the laws, administrative regulations and this Article;
- (2) whether the attendants and convener of the General Meeting are legal and eligible;
- (3) whether the voting procedures and voting results of the General Meeting are legal and valid;
- (4) legal opinions on other issues upon request by the Company.

Article 74 Independent directors shall have the right to make a proposal to the Board for convening an Extraordinary General Meeting. As for proposals of convening the Extraordinary General Meeting made by independent directors, the Board shall, in accordance with laws, administrative regulations and this Article, give a written feedback opinion on whether it agrees to convene the Extraordinary General Meeting within 10 days upon receipt of such proposal. If the Board agrees to convene the Extraordinary General Meeting, a notice of convening the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be issued within 5 days after a resolution is made by the Board. If Board disagrees to convene the Extraordinary General Meeting, reasons shall be stated and an announcement shall be made.

Article 75 The Board of Supervisors shall have the right to make a written proposal to the Board for convening an Extraordinary General Meeting. The Board shall, in accordance with laws, administrative regulations and this Article, give a written feedback opinion on whether it agrees convene the Extraordinary General Meeting within 10 days upon receipt of such proposal.

If the Board agrees to convene the Extraordinary General Meeting, a notice of convening the General Meeting shall be issued within 5 days after a resolution is made by the Board. As for changes contained in the notice made in response to the original proposal, consent shall be obtained from the Board of Supervisors. If the Board disagrees to convene the Extraordinary General Meeting or fails to give a written feedback within 10 days upon receipt of the proposal, the Board shall be deemed to have failed or refused to perform the duty of convening the General Meeting, and the Board of Supervisors may convene and preside over the General Meeting.

Article 76 Shareholders who hold, individually or collectively, 10% or more of the shares in the Company are entitled to make a written proposal to the Board to hold an extraordinary general meeting. The Board shall, in accordance with relevant laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association, give a written response on whether it agrees to convene such a meeting within 10 days upon receiving the proposal.

If the Board agrees to convene the extraordinary general meeting, it shall send a notice of general meeting within 5 days after making the Board resolution thereupon, and the changes to the original proposal as included in the notice are subject to consent of related shareholders.

If the Board disagrees to convene the extraordinary general meeting or fails to give a response within 10 days after receiving the proposal, shareholders who hold, individually or collectively, 10% or more of the shares in the Company are entitled to propose to the Board of Supervisors in writing to convene an extraordinary general meeting.

If the Board of Supervisors agrees to convene such a meeting, it shall send a notice of general meeting within 5 days after receiving the shareholders' proposal, and the changes to the original proposal as included in the notice are subject to consent of related shareholders.

If the Board of Supervisors fails to send the notice of general meeting within the specified time limit, it will be deemed as failing to convene and chair the general meeting, in which case the shareholders that hold, individually or collectively, 10% or more of the shares in the Company for more than 90 consecutive days may convene and chair such meetings.

Article 77 Shareholders who request the convening of a class meeting shall undergo the following procedures:

- (1) Two or more shareholders holding an aggregate of more than 10% of the shares carrying the right to vote at the meeting sought to be held may sign one or more written requests of identical format and substance, to request the Board to convene a class meeting and state the subject of the meeting. The Board shall, in accordance with relevant laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association, give a written response on whether it agrees to convene such a class meeting within 10 days after receiving the request.

- (2) The Board shall convene a class meeting as soon as possible after receiving the above-mentioned written request. The abovementioned shareholding shall be calculated as of the day on which the written request is made.
- (3) If the Board fails to issue a notice of convening such a meeting within 30 days after receiving the above-mentioned written request, the shareholders who make the request may themselves convene the meeting within four months after the Board receives their request. The procedures of convening such a meeting shall, to the greatest extent possible, be identical to the procedures of the general meetings convened by the Board.

Where shareholders convene and hold a meeting because the Board failed to do so pursuant to the aforementioned request, the Company shall bear the reasonable expenses incurred by such meetings and shall deduct the amount from the sums owed by the Company to the delinquent directors.

Article 78 The Board of Supervisors or the shareholders that decide to convene a general meeting by itself or themselves must notify the Board thereof in writing, and file it with the delegated authority of the CSRC and the stock exchange where the Company is located.

The shareholders that convene the general meeting shall hold at least 10% of the shares in the Company prior to the announcement of the resolutions of such meetings.

Upon issuing the notice of general meeting and the resolutions of the meeting, the convening shareholder shall provide relevant supporting documents to the delegated authority of the CSRC and the stock exchange where the Company is located.

Section 3 Proposals and Notices of General Meetings

Article 81 The substance of the motion proposed shall fall within the functions and powers of the general meeting. It shall have a clear subject of discussion and a specific resolution, and shall be in compliance with relevant laws, administrative regulations and the relevant requirements set forth in the Articles of Association.

Article 52 of the Guidelines

Article 82 When the Company convenes a general meeting, the Board of Directors, the Board of Supervisors and the shareholder(s) independently or collectively holding more than 3% of the Company's shares have the right to present proposals to the Company; shareholder(s) independently or collectively holding more than 3% of the Company's shares may submit provisional proposals to the convener in writing 10 days prior to the meeting. The general meeting convener shall send a supplementary notice of the general meeting to announce such provisional proposals within 2 days after receipt thereof.

Article 102 of the Companies Law

Article 54 of the Mandatory Provisions

Except as provided by the preceding paragraph, the convener of a general meeting shall not amend the proposed resolutions set out in the notice of general meeting or add any new proposals subsequent to the issue of the notice of the general meeting.

Article 53 of the Guidelines

Any proposal that is not stated on the notice of general meeting or that is incompliant with Article 81 of the Articles of Association shall not be considered or approved by the general meeting.

Article 83 To convene an annual general meeting, the Company shall give a written notice 20 clear business days before the date of the meeting. When the Company is to hold an extraordinary general meeting, it shall issue a written notice 15 days or 10 clear business days prior to the day on which the meeting is to be held (whichever is earlier). Such written notice shall notify all the registered shareholders of the matters proposed for consideration at the meeting and the date and place of the meeting. For the purposes of this article, “business day” shall refer to the date on which the Hong Kong Stock Exchange opens for securities trading.

Unless otherwise provided in the Articles of Association, the notice of general meeting shall be served to the shareholders (whether or not entitled to vote at the meeting), by special personnel or prepaid mail to the recipients’ addresses as recorded in the register of shareholders. For the holders of domestic shares, the notice of general meeting may also be issued in the form of public announcement.

The public announcement referred to in the preceding paragraph shall be published in one or more newspapers designated by the competent securities regulatory authority of the State Council prior to the date of the meeting. Upon the publication of the announcement, all the holders of domestic shares shall be deemed to have received the notice of the relevant general meeting. The Chinese and English versions of such public announcements shall be published in a Chinese newspaper and an English one recognized by the Hong Kong Stock Exchange on the same date.

The notice of general meeting served to the shareholders of overseas-listed foreign shares shall be published on the website of or in one or more newspapers designated by the Hong Kong Stock Exchange. Upon the publication of the announcement, all the shareholders of overseas-listed foreign shares shall be deemed to have received the notice of the relevant general meeting.

Article 55 of the
Guidelines

Article 86 Where the general meeting proposes to consider the election of a Director or Supervisor, the notice of the meeting shall fully disclose the details of Director or Supervisor nominees, which shall at minimum include the following:

(1) personal information, such as education background, working experiences and concurrent positions;

(2) whether they have a connected relationship with the Company or its controlling shareholder(s) and de facto controller(s);

(3) the number of shares in the Company; and

(4) whether they have been punished by the CSRC or other related authorities or reprimanded by any stock exchange.

Except the election of Directors and Supervisors by means of cumulative voting, the election of each Director and Supervisor candidate shall be conducted by a separate proposal.

Article 87 The accidental omission to give the notice of general meeting to, or the non-receipt of the notice of general meeting by, any persons entitled to receive such notices shall not invalidate the meeting or the resolutions passed at that meeting

Article 88 Once the notice of the general meeting is issued, such meetings shall not be postponed or cancelled, nor any proposal stated on the notice be canceled without a legitimate reason. In case of a postponement or cancellation, the convener shall publish the announcement to explain the reason at least 2 working days prior to the originally scheduled date for the meeting.

Where there is any other requirement in respect of the matters stipulated above under the listing rules of the place(s) where the Company's shares are listed, such requirements shall prevail.

Section 4 Convening of General Meetings

Article 89 The Board and other conveners shall take necessary measures to ensure the normal order of the general meeting. Measures would be taken to halt acts that disrupt the general meeting, seek to cause trouble or infringe upon the lawful rights and interests of shareholders, and would promptly report such acts to relevant authorities for investigation.

Article 58 of the Guidelines

Article 90 All shareholders of ordinary shares (including preferred shareholders with restored voting rights) or its agent whose name appears on the register of members on the record date have the right to attend the general meeting and exercise their rights to vote pursuant to relevant laws, regulations and the Articles of Association.

Article 59 of the Guidelines

Shareholders may attend and vote at the general meeting in person or by proxy.

Article 91 An individual shareholder who attends the meeting in person shall produce his or her own ID card or other valid documents or proof evidencing his or her identity or stock account card. If a proxy is appointed to attend the meeting on his or her behalf, such proxies shall produce their own valid proof of identity and the instrument of appointment from the shareholder.

Article 60 of the Guidelines

Shareholders who are legal persons shall be represented at a meeting by their legal representative or a proxy appointed by the legal representative. If the legal representative attends the meeting, he or she shall produce his or her own ID card and a valid proof of his or her legal representative status. If a proxy has been appointed to attend the meeting, such proxies shall present their own ID cards and the powers of attorney issued by the legal representative of the shareholder as a legal person.

Article 92 The shareholder with the right to attend and vote at the general meeting is entitled to appoint one or more persons (who need not to be shareholders) as his or her proxy to attend and vote at the meeting on his or her behalf. Such proxies may exercise the following rights in accordance with their appointment by the shareholder:

Article 59 of the Mandatory Provisions

- (1) speak at the meeting on behalf of the shareholder;
- (2) demand or join in the demand for a poll; and
- (3) vote by poll.

Article 93 Shareholders shall appoint a proxy in writing, which shall be signed by the principals or their agents appointed in writing. If the principal is a legal person, the instrument shall be under the seal of the legal person or signed by its director or duly authorized agent.

The instrument of appointment by which a shareholder appoints another person to attend the general meeting on his or her behalf shall include:

- (1) the name of the proxy;
- (2) whether the proxy has voting rights;
- (3) separate instructions as to whether to vote for or against or abstain from voting on each item stated on the agenda of the general meeting as an item for consideration thereat;
- (4) the date of issuance and terms of validity of the instrument of appointment; and
- (5) the signature (or seal) of the principal. If the principal is a corporate shareholder, the seal of the company shall be affixed.

Article 94 The proxy form for voting shall be placed at the domicile of the Company or such other place as specified in the notice of the meeting at least 24 hours prior to the meeting at which the proxy is entrusted to vote. Where such a proxy form for voting is signed by a person authorized by the principal, the power of attorney with authorized signature or other authorization documents shall be notarized. The power of attorney or other authorization documents upon notarization shall, together with the proxy form for voting, be placed at the Company's domicile or such other location as specified in the notice of the meeting.

Where the principal is a legal person, its legal representative or a person authorized by the Board or other decision-making bodies shall attend the general meeting of the Company as the proxy.

The shareholder that is a recognized clearing House or its agent may authorize one or more persons that it deems suitable to attend on its behalf any general meeting or any class meeting of shareholders. However, if more than one person is authorized, the power of attorney shall specify the number and class of shares involved in the appointment of each such person. The person so appointed may exercise the rights of the recognized clearing house (or its agent) as if he or she was or they were individual shareholder(s) of the Company.

Article 95 The power of attorney that the Board of the Company issues to shareholders shall allow them to freely direct their proxies to vote for or against, and to give separate instruction with respect to the voting for each item on the agenda. The power of attorney shall specify that the proxy may vote at his or her own discretion where no direction from the shareholder is available.

Save as provided above, the aforesaid proxy form shall also contain the following items: the number of shares represented by and name of the proxy; whether voting power is granted to the proxy; whether the proxy is entitled to vote on the interim proposals that may be included in the agenda of the general meeting; the instruction specifying how to vote if voting power is granted; the date of appointing a proxy and the effective period for such appointment. A shareholder who appoints more than one proxy shall specify the number of shares represented by each proxy in the proxy form.

A proxy who attends the general meeting on the shareholder's behalf shall produce his/her identification proof and a letter of authorization signed by the appointer or its legal representative which indicates the date of appointment. Where a corporate shareholder appoints its legal representative to attend the meeting, the legal representative shall produce the identification proof and a copy of the notarized resolution of the Board appointing the said legal representative or other authorities or other verified copy permitted by the Company.

Article 96 A vote by a proxy in accordance with the terms of an instrument of proxy shall be valid notwithstanding the death or loss of capacity of the appointer or revocation of the proxy or of the authority under which the proxy was executed, or the transfer of the shares in respect of which the proxy is given, provided that no written notice of such death, loss of capacity, revocation or transfer as aforesaid has been received by the Company before the commencement of the meeting at which the proxy is used.

Article 97 The attendance register of persons attending the meeting shall be prepared by the Company. The register shall specify the attendants' names (or the name of their entities), ID numbers, home addresses, number of voting shares held or represented, and the names of the proxies' principals (or the names of the principals' entities).

Article 65 of the Guidelines

Article 99 All Directors, Supervisors and secretary to the Board shall attend the general meetings of the Company, and managers and other senior management shall attend such meetings as non-voting participants.

Article 66 of the Guidelines

Article 100 A general meeting is convened and presided over by the Board. If the chairman of the Board is unable to or fails to perform his/her duties, the Board may designate a Director to convene and preside over the general meeting on behalf of the chairman of the Board. If no chairman is designated for a meeting, the shareholders present at the meeting may elect one person to chair the meeting. If no chairman of the meeting is elected by the shareholders for any reason, the shareholder (including his/her proxy) that is present at the meeting and holds the largest number of voting shares shall be the chairman of the meeting.

Article 73 of the Mandatory Provisions

A general meeting convened by the Board of Supervisors shall be presided over by the chairman of the Board of Supervisors. If the chairman of the Board of Supervisors is unable to or fails to perform his/her duties, a Supervisor elected by more than half of the Supervisors shall preside over the meeting.

Article 67 of the Guidelines

A general meeting convened by the shareholders themselves shall be presided over by a representative nominated by the convener.

Article 101 of the Company Law

When a general meeting is held and the chairman of the meeting violates the rules of procedure in such a way that the general meeting cannot proceed, a person may be elected to chair and carry on with the meeting, subject to the approval of more than half of the shareholders present who have voting rights.

If no chairman of the meeting is elected by the shareholders for any reason, the shareholder (including his/her proxy) that is present at the meeting and holds the largest number of voting shares shall be the chairman of the meeting.

Article 101 The Company shall formulate the rules of procedure for the general meeting, detailing its convening and voting procedures including notification, registration, consideration of proposals, voting, vote counting, announcement of the voting results, formation of resolutions, minutes, signing and announcement, as well as the principles for the authorization of the Board by the general meeting (where the contents of authorization shall be explicit and specific). The rules of procedure for the general meeting, as an annex to the Articles of Association, shall be drafted by the Board and approved by the general meeting.

Article 68 of the Guidelines

Article 102 At the annual general meeting, the Board and the Supervisory Committee shall report on their work over the previous year. Each independent Director shall also report on the performance of his or her duties.

Article 69 of the Guidelines

Article 103 The Directors, Supervisors and senior management officers of the Company shall answer and explain the inquiries and proposals from shareholders at the general meeting.

Article 70 of the Guidelines

Article 104 The chairman of the meeting shall, before voting begins, announce the number of attending shareholders and proxies and the total number of their voting shares according to the register of the meeting.

Article 71 of the Guidelines

Article 105 Minutes shall be recorded for the general meeting, and the secretary to the Board shall be in charge of recording the minutes. The minutes shall contain the following information:

(1) Time, place, agenda for the meeting and the name of the convener;

(2) Names of the chairman of the meeting, and of Directors, Supervisors, the president and other senior management officers in attendance or present in non-voting capacity;

Article 72 of the Guidelines

(3) Number of attending shareholders (holders of domestic shares and holders of overseas listed foreign shares) and proxies, and the total number of their voting shares and respective percentages to the total shares of the Company;

(4) Process of consideration, key points of the speech and voting results for each proposal;

(5) Queries or suggestions from shareholders, and the corresponding replies or explanations;

(6) Names of the lawyer, the vote counters and the scrutineer; and

(7) Other information to be entered into the minutes pursuant to the Articles of Association.

In recording voting results, it is also required to record the voting results of holders of domestic shares and holders of overseas listed foreign shares for each matter to be resolved.

Article 106 The convener shall ensure that the meeting minutes are true, accurate and complete. The minutes shall be signed by the attending Directors, Supervisors, the secretary to the Board, the convener or his or her representative, and the chairman of the meeting. The minutes shall be kept together with the book of signatures of the attending shareholders, the powers of attorney for shareholders who attend the meeting by proxy, and the valid information concerning voting online or by other means, and the meeting records shall be kept permanently.

Article 73 of the Guidelines

Article 107 The convener shall ensure that the general meeting continues until a final resolution is reached. Where the general meeting is interrupted or fails to reach a resolution due to force majeure or any other exceptional cause, necessary measures should be taken to resume or terminate the meeting as soon as possible and make an announcement in a timely manner. Meanwhile, the convener shall report it to the local office of the CSRC where the Company operates and the stock exchange.

Article 74 of the Guidelines

Section 5 Voting and Resolutions at Shareholders' General Meetings

Article 108 Resolutions of general meetings comprise ordinary resolutions and special resolutions.

Article 64 of the Mandatory Provisions

To pass an ordinary resolution, more than half of the voting rights represented by the shareholders (including their proxies) present at the meeting must be exercised in favor of the resolution.

Article 75 of the Guidelines

To pass a special resolution, more than two thirds of the voting rights represented by the shareholders (including their proxies) present at the general meeting must be exercised in favor of the resolution.

A shareholder (including his/her proxy) present at a general meeting shall indicate his/her intention to vote for or against the matters that are put to the vote. No blank votes and abstention votes shall be counted as valid votes for the purpose of votes counting.

Article 109 Shareholders (including their proxies), when voting at a general meeting, may exercise their voting rights in accordance with the number of shares carrying voting rights and each share shall have one vote. However, the shares held by the Company carry no voting right and shall not be counted into the total number of shares carrying voting rights held by the shareholders attending the general meeting.

When the general meeting considers matters that materially affect the interest of medium and small investors, the votes of medium and small investors shall be counted separately, and the results of such separate vote counting shall be disclosed promptly.

The Board of the Company, independent Directors, and shareholders who meet the relevant requirements may collect voting rights from other shareholders publicly. Information including specific voting intention shall be fully disclosed to the shareholders from whom voting rights are collected. Consideration or de facto consideration for collecting shareholders' voting rights is prohibited. The Company shall not impose any minimum shareholding limitation for collecting voting rights.

Under applicable laws and regulations and the Listing Rules of the Hong Kong Stock Exchange, if any shareholder is required to abstain from voting on any particular resolution or restricted to voting only for or only against any particular resolution, the votes cast by or on behalf of such shareholders in contravention of such requirements or restrictions shall not be counted.

Article 110 At the general meeting, voting is conducted by open ballot or other ways required by the listing rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed.

Implementation Rules for Online Voting at the General Meetings of Listed Companies of the Shanghai Stock Exchange

Article 120 The list of candidates for Directors and Supervisors shall be submitted to the general meeting for voting by way of proposal.

As for resolutions in respect of the election of Directors and Supervisors, cumulative voting system should be adopted at the general meeting pursuant to the Articles of Association or the resolution of the general meeting.

Article 82 of the Guidelines

The “cumulative voting system” as referred to in the preceding paragraph means that when a general meeting elects Directors or Supervisors, each share carries a number of voting rights equivalent to the number of Directors or Supervisors to be elected, and a shareholder may cluster his or her voting rights. The Board shall provide shareholders with the bibliographical details and basic information of the candidates for Directors and Supervisors.

Article 17 of the Code of Corporate Governance for Listed Companies

Article 121 At a general meeting, the approaches and procedures for nominating the candidates for Directors and Supervisors are as follows:

Article 4 of Supplemental Letter of Opinion Rule 4(4) of Appendix 3 to the Main Board Listing Rules

(1) the shareholder(s) individually or jointly holding more than 3% of the total issued and outstanding voting shares of the Company may present a written proposal to the general meeting about the candidates for Directors and Supervisors that are not assumed by staff representatives. However, the number of such candidates nominated shall comply with the provisions of the Articles of Association, and shall not exceed the number to be elected. The aforesaid shareholders' proposal to the Company shall be served to the Company at least 14 days before the convening of the general meeting.

Rule 4(5) of Appendix 3 to
the Main Board
Listing Rules

(2) within the number of head counts specified in the Articles of Association and based on the proposed number of candidates to be elected, the Board and the board of Supervisors may propose a list of recommended candidates for Directors and Supervisors, which shall be submitted to the Board and the board of Supervisors for review. After the Board and the board of Supervisors review and pass the resolution on the candidates for Directors and Supervisors, their decision shall be proposed at a general meeting by way of a written proposal.

(3) the written notices regarding the intention to nominate a candidate for election as a Director or a Supervisor, the written notices indicating the nominees' willingness to accept the nomination and the written materials about them shall be delivered to the Company no less than seven days prior to the date of holding the general meeting (the seven-day period shall commence no earlier than the second day after the issue of the notice of the meeting at which the election shall take place and no later than seven days prior to the holding of the shareholders' general meeting). The Board and the board of Supervisors shall provide shareholders with the bibliographical details and basic information of the candidates for Directors and supervisors.

(4) the period of submitting to the Company the aforesaid notices for nominating the candidates for election as Directors or Supervisors and such materials from the nominees shall be no less than seven days (such a period shall commence from the day after the notice of general meeting is dispatched).

(5) at the general meeting, voting shall take place for each candidate nominated for election as a Director and Supervisor on a one-by-one basis, except for candidates applying cumulative voting system.

(6) in the event of an ad hoc addition to or change of any Director or Supervisor, the Board or the board of supervisors shall propose such additions and changes to the general meeting, for selection or replacement.

Article 122 In addition to the cumulative voting system, the general meeting shall resolve on all the proposals separately; in the event of several proposals for the same issue, such proposals shall be voted on and resolved in the order of time at which they are submitted. Unless the general meeting is adjourned or no resolution can be made for special reasons such as force majeure, voting of such proposals shall neither be put aside nor denied at the general meeting.

Article 83 of the Guidelines

Article 123 When considering a proposal, the general meeting shall not revise it; otherwise such amendments shall be deemed as a new proposal and may not be voted on during the current meeting.

Article 84 of the Guidelines

Article 124 The same vote may only be cast once at the location of a general meeting, or by online voting or other means. Where the same vote is cast for two or more times, the first cast shall hold.

Article 85 of the Guidelines

Article 125 Before the general meeting votes on a proposal, two shareholders' representatives shall be elected to participate in the vote counting and vote scrutiny. When a shareholder has a material interest in a matter being considered, he or she and his or her proxies may not participate in the vote counting or vote scrutiny.

When votes are cast on proposals at the general meeting, attorneys, representatives of the shareholders and the representative of Supervisors shall be jointly responsible for scrutinizing and counting votes and shall announce the voting results at the meeting. The voting result shall be recorded in the meeting minutes.

Article 87 of the Guidelines

Shareholders of the companies or their proxies, who have cast their votes by online voting or by other means, shall have the right to check the voting results in the way in which they have cast their votes.

Article 126 The ending time of a general meeting shall not be earlier than that of online or other access to the meeting. The chairman of the meeting shall announce the outcome and results of the vote on each proposed resolution, and whether or not such proposed resolution has been passed according to such voting results.

Article 88 of the Guidelines

Prior to the formal announcement of voting results, the relevant parties from the companies, the persons responsible for counting votes and scrutinizing the conduct of the relevant poll, the major shareholders, the person in charge of the relevant internet service provider involved in relation to voting at the general meeting, online or by other means, shall be obliged to keep the status of voting confidential.

Article 127 A shareholder attending a general meeting shall express one of the following opinions on any proposal to be voted on: for, against or abstention. Save for the circumstance under which the securities registration and settlement institution acting as the nominal holder of shares under the mutual stock market access between the Mainland and Hong Kong makes reporting in accordance with the instruction of the de facto holders of relevant shares.

If a poll is blank, marked erroneously, illegible or has not been cast, the voter shall be deemed to have waived his or her right to vote and the voting results for the number of shares that he or she holds shall be recorded as “abstained”.

Article 128 In the event that the chairman of the meeting has any doubt as to the result of a resolution put forward to the vote, he or she may have the votes counted. In the event that the chairman of the meeting fails to have the votes counted, any shareholder present in person or by proxy objects to the result announced by the chairman of the meeting may demand that the votes be counted immediately after the declaration of the voting result, the chairman of the meeting shall have the votes counted immediately.

Article 129 In the event that the votes are counted at the general meeting, the counting results shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting.

The minutes of the meeting together with the attendance book for shareholders’ signing and the proxy forms for proxies attending the meeting shall be kept at the domicile of the Company.

Article 90 of the Guidelines

Article 76 of the Mandatory Provisions

Article 130 The resolution of the general meeting shall be promptly announced. The announcement shall state the number of attending shareholders and proxies, their number of voting shares and their percentages to the total number of the voting shares in the Company, the voting method or methods, the voting result for each proposal, and the details of each resolution passed in the meeting.

Article 91 of the Guidelines

Article 131 Where a proposal has not been passed or the resolutions of the preceding general meeting have been changed at the current general meeting, special mention shall be made in the announcement of the resolutions of the general meeting.

Article 92 of the Guidelines

Article 132 Where a resolution on the election of Directors or Supervisors is passed at the general meeting, the term of office of the newly-elected Director or Supervisor shall commence from the time when the relevant election proposal is passed at the general meeting.

Article 93 of the Guidelines

Article 133 Where a proposed resolution in relation to the payment of cash dividends, the issue of bonus shares or the capitalization of capital reserves has been passed at a general meeting, the Company shall implement the specific plans within two months after the conclusion of the general meeting.

Article 94 of the Guidelines

Article 134 Shareholders may examine the photocopies of the minutes of meetings during the Company's office hours free of charge. If any shareholder demands from the Company photocopies of relevant minutes of meetings, the Company shall send such photocopies within seven days after verifying his/her capacity as a shareholder and receiving payment of reasonable charges.

Article 77 of the Mandatory Provisions

Chapter 9 Special Voting Procedures for Class Shareholders

Article 135 Shareholders who hold different classes of shares are class shareholders.

Class shareholders shall enjoy rights and assume obligations in accordance with laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association.

Save for the holders of other classes of shares, the holders of domestic shares and the holders of overseas-listed foreign shares are deemed to be different classes of shareholders. Where the share capital of the Company includes shares which do not carry voting rights, the word “non-voting” must appear on the designation of such shares.

Where the share capital includes shares with different voting rights, the designation of each class of shares, other than those with the most favorable voting rights, must include the words “restricted voting” or “limited voting”.

Article 136 Rights conferred on any class shareholders in the capacity of shareholders may not be varied or abrogated, unless such a proposal is approved by way of a special resolution at a general meeting and approved by the affected class shareholders at a separate general meeting, in accordance with the provisions of Articles 138 to 142 of the Articles of Association.

No approval by a general meeting or a class meeting is required for the variation or abrogation of the rights of class shareholders that results from any change in domestic and overseas laws, administrative regulations and the listing rules of the place where the Company’s shares are listed, and from the decisions made by domestic and overseas regulators.

The holders of domestic shares of the Company referred to in Article 19 of the Articles of Association may transfer their shares to overseas investors and list the said shares overseas, which shall not be deemed to be a proposed variation or abrogation of the rights conferred on any class shareholders.

Article 78 of the Mandatory Provisions, Rules 10(1) and (2) of Appendix 3 to the Main Board Listing Rules

Article 79 of the Mandatory Provisions

Article 137 The following circumstances shall be deemed to be a variation or abrogation of the rights of a particular class shareholder:

(1) to increase or decrease the number of shares of such class, or the number of shares of a class having voting or distribution rights or other privileges equal or superior to the shares of such class;

(2) to effect an exchange of all or part of the shares of such class into those of another class or to effect an exchange or create a right of exchange of all or part of the shares of another class into the shares of such class;

(3) to remove or reduce the rights to the accrued dividends or cumulative dividends attached to the shares of such class;

(4) to reduce or remove the preferential rights attached to the shares of such class for receiving dividends or for the distribution of assets in the event that the Company is liquidated;

(5) to add, remove or reduce the rights attached to the shares of such class, including the rights of conversion, options, voting and transfer, pre-emptive rights, and the rights to acquire the securities of the Company;

(6) to remove or reduce the rights of such class of shares to receive the payables from the Company in a particular currency;

(7) to create a new class of shares having voting or distribution rights or privileges equal or superior to the shares of such class;

(8) to restrict the transfer or ownership of the shares of such class or to increase any such restrictions;

(9) to issue the rights to subscribe for, or convert into, shares in the Company of such class or another class;

(10) to increase the rights or privileges of the shares of another class;

(11) to restructure the Company where the proposed restructuring might result in different classes of shareholders bearing disproportionate burdens of obligations; and

(12) to vary or abrogate the provisions of this Chapter.

Article 80 of the
Mandatory
Provisions

Article 138 The affected shareholders, regardless of whether they had the right to vote at general meetings, shall have the right to vote at class meetings in respect of the matters concerning paragraphs (2) to (8), (11) and (12) of Article 137 in the Articles of Association, while interested shareholder(s) are not entitled to vote at class meetings.

An “interested shareholder” as referred to above has the following meanings:

(1) in the case of a repurchase of shares by pro rata offers to all shareholders or by public trading on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange in accordance with the provisions of Article 31 of the Articles of Association, an “interested shareholder” is a controlling shareholder within the meaning of Article 66 in the Articles of Association;

(2) in the case of a repurchase of shares by an off-market contract under Article 31 of the Articles of Association, an interested shareholder is a shareholder to whom the proposed contract is related;

(3) in the case of corporate restructuring, an interested shareholder is a shareholder of a class who bears less than the proportionate obligations imposed on other shareholders of that class or who has an interest different from the interest of the other shareholders of that class.

Article 139 Resolutions of a class meeting shall require the approval of shareholders present, who represent more than two thirds of the voting rights of that class meeting and vote in favor of such resolutions in accordance with Article 138 of the Articles of Association.

Article 140 A written notice of a class meeting shall be given by the Company with reference to the relevant requirements for convening a general meeting specified in Article 83 of the Articles of Association. The written notice shall notify all the registered shareholders, who hold the shares of that class, of the matters to be considered at the meeting and the date and place of the meeting.

Where there is any special requirement under the listing rules of the place(s) where the Company’s shares are listed, such requirements shall prevail.

The quorum for a separate class meeting (other than an adjourned meeting) to consider a variation of the rights of any class of shares shall be the number of holders of at least one third of the issued shares of that class.

Article 141 Notices of class meetings need only be served to shareholders entitled to vote thereat.

Class meetings shall be held in procedures most similar to those for shareholders' general meetings. The provisions of the Articles of Association relating to the procedures of such general meetings are applicable to class meetings.

Article 142 In addition to the holders of other class shares, the holders of domestic shares and those of overseas-listed foreign shares are deemed to be shareholders of different classes. Special voting procedures for holders of different classes of shares are not applicable to the following situations:

(1) where, upon the approval by its shareholders through a special resolution at a general meeting, the Company issues, either separately or concurrently, no more than 20% of each of its existing issued domestic shares and overseas-listed foreign shares once every twelve months;

(2) where the Company completes its plan (made at the time of its establishment) to issue domestic shares and overseas-listed foreign shares within 15 months from the date on which the plan is approved by the securities regulatory authorities of the State Council; and year, the Company shall allocate 10% of its profits into its statutory common reserve fund. When the cumulated amount of the statutory common reserve fund of the Company has reached more than 50% of its registered capital, no further allocations is required.

Where the statutory common reserve fund of the Company is insufficient to make up for the losses of the Company incurred during the previous years, before making allocation to the statutory common reserve fund in accordance with the preceding paragraph, the profits generated during the current year shall be used to make up for such losses.

After making allocation to the statutory common reserve fund of the Company from its after-tax profits, the Company may, subject to resolutions adopted at a general meeting, also allocate funds from the after-tax profits to the discretionary common reserve fund.

After making up for the losses and making contributions to the common reserve fund, any remaining profits shall be distributed by the Company to the shareholders in proportion to their respective shareholdings according to the resolutions adopted at a general meeting.

If the shareholders' general meeting has, in violation of the provisions of the preceding paragraphs, distributed profits to the shareholders before the Company has made up for its losses and made allocations to the statutory common reserve fund, the shareholders must return the profits distributed in violation of the provision to the Company.

No profits shall be distributed in respect of the Company's shares held by the Company.

Article 258 The capital reserve shall include the following items:

- (1) the premium gained from shares issuance in excess of the par value; and
- (2) other incomes that shall be included into the capital reserve as required by the competent financial authority of the State Council.

Article 259 The reserve of the Company shall be applied for making up for losses of the Company, and expansion of the Company's production and operation or conversion to capital increment of the Company, but the capital reserve shall not be applied for making up for losses of the Company.

Where the statutory reserve is converted into capital, the balance of such reserve shall not fall below 25% of the Company's registered capital prior to such conversions.

Article 260 After the profit distribution plan was resolved at the shareholders' general meeting of the Company, the Board shall complete the dividends (or share) payment within two months after the shareholders' general meeting.

Article 261 The Company may distribute dividends in cash, in shares, or in a combination of both cash and shares, while it gives priority to profit distribution in cash.

Subject to the conditions of dividend distribution, the Company shall distribute profits at least once a year, while interim profit distribution may also be made provided that the Company is guaranteed for normal operation and development.

The Board of the Company shall put forward differentiated cash dividend distribution policies in accordance with the procedures stipulated in the Articles of Association, after considering a combination of factors, including characteristics of the industry where it operates, development stage, business model and profitability of its own, as well as whether there is any substantial capital expenditure arrangement(s):

(1) where the Company is at the developed stage with no substantial capital expenditure arrangement, cash dividend shall be not less than 80% of the profit distribution at the time of profit distribution;

(2) where the Company is at the developed stage with substantial capital expenditure arrangement, cash dividend shall be not less than 40% of the profit distribution at the time of profit distribution;

(3) where the Company is at the development stage with substantial capital expenditure arrangement, cash dividend shall be not less than 20% of the profit distribution at the time of profit distribution; and

(4) where the Company has difficulty in identifying the development stage but there is substantial capital expenditure arrangement, dividend distribution may be made in accordance with the preceding provision.

“Substantial capital expenditure arrangement” means the proposed external investment, asset acquisition or purchase of assets by the Company in the next twelve months in an aggregate expenditure amounting to or exceeding 10% of the latest audited net assets of the Company.

Except for special circumstances, the Company shall give priority to dividend payment in cash out of its post-tax profits for the year after the accumulated loss (if any) are made up and legal and discretionary reserves are allocated. The cash distribution shall be no less than 20% of the distributable profits for the year. Actual and reasonable factors such as corporate growth and dilution of net asset value per share should be taken into account when profit is distributed in dividends on shares.

The Company may not distribute the cash dividends in the following special circumstances:

- (1) The auditors issue the non-standard qualified opinion in relation to the annual financial report of the Company.
- (2) The net operating cash flows for the year are negative.
- (3) The Company has major investment plan or significant cash expenditure (except for fund raising projects).

The Board shall, during the formulation of the specific cash dividend distribution plan by the Company, carefully study and analyse the matters such as timing, conditions, minimum ratio, adjustment conditions and decision-making procedures regarding the cash dividend distribution, and independent directors shall express their opinions explicitly.

Independent directors may solicit opinions from small and medium shareholders and put forward a dividend distribution proposal which shall be submitted directly to the Board for its consideration.

Prior to the consideration of a specific cash dividend distribution proposal at the shareholders' general meeting, the listed company shall proactively communicate and exchange views with shareholders, especially small and medium shareholders, through various channels in order to understand the views and demands of small and medium shareholders. The concerns of small and medium shareholders shall also be addressed promptly.

The Board of the Company shall disclose the reasons of not distributing dividends and the usage of such funds that are remained unused for dividend distribution retained in the Company, if no cash profit distribution is proposed, and independent directors shall express their independent opinions in this regard.

Article 262 Any amount paid up in advance of calls on any share may carry interest but shall not entitle the holder of the share to participate in respect thereof in a dividend subsequently declared.

Rule 3(1) of Appendix 3 to the Main Board Listing Rules

Article 263 The Company shall appoint receiving agents on behalf of shareholders holding overseas-listed foreign shares. The receiving agents shall on behalf of such shareholders receive dividends distributed by the Company in respect of the overseas-listed foreign shares and other amounts payable, and such payment shall be kept by the receiving agents on such shareholders' behalf for any payment to them.

Articles 140 of the Mandatory Provisions

The receiving agents appointed by the Company shall comply with the relevant requirements of the law of the place and relevant regulations of the stock exchange where the Company's shares are listed.

Article 8 of Letter of the Supplemental Comments

The receiving agents appointed on behalf of holders of overseas-listed foreign shares listed in the Hong Kong Stock Exchange shall be a company registered as a trust company under the Trustee Ordinance of Hong Kong.

Rules 13(1) and (2) and Rule 3(2) of Appendix 3 to the Main Board Listing Rules

Subject to compliance with the relevant laws and regulations of the PRC, the Company may exercise its right to confiscate the dividends which are not claimed by anyone but such right can only be exercised in or after the sixth year after the date of declaring dividends.

Rules 1(c) of Appendix 13D to the Main Board Listing Rules

The Company may exercise power to cease sending dividend warrants by post to a holder of overseas-listed foreign shares if such warrants have been left uncashed. The Company shall only exercise such power when such warrants have not been cashed twice in a row. However, such power may be exercised after the first occasion on which such a warrant is returned undelivered.

In relation to the exercise of right to issue warrants to bearer, no warrant thereof shall be issued to replace one that has been lost unless the Company is satisfied beyond reasonable doubt that the original warrant thereof has been destroyed. The Company shall have the right to sell, in such manner as the Board considers fit, any shares of a Shareholder of overseas-listed foreign shares who is untraceable, but is subject to the following conditions:

(1) the Company has distributed dividends for at least 3 times in respect of such shares within 12 years, but none of such dividends was claimed; and

(2) the Company, after the expiration of a period of 12 years, made an announcement on one or more newspapers of the place where the Company is listed, stating its intention to sell such shares, and notified the Hong Kong Stock Exchange.

Article 264 Cash dividends and other payments payable by the Company to holders of domestic shares shall be declared and paid in Renminbi. Cash dividends and other payments payable by the Company to holders of overseas-listed foreign shares shall be denominated and declared in Renminbi and paid in Hong Kong dollars. The Company shall arrange the foreign currency for payment of cash dividends and other payments payable to holders of overseas-listed foreign shares in accordance with the provisions of the PRC in relation to foreign exchange administration.

Article 265 Unless provided otherwise in relevant laws or administrative regulations, the Company shall adopt the average middle exchange rate of the relevant currency quoted by the People's Bank of China for the calendar week immediately before the date of declaration of the dividends and other payments as the exchange rate for payment of the cash dividends and other payments payable in HK dollars.

(1) To review the Company's books of accounts, records or vouchers at all times, and has the right to require the directors, the president or other senior management officers of the Company to provide related information and descriptions;

(2) To require the Company to adopt all reasonable measures to obtain any information and descriptions from its subsidiaries that are required by the accounting firm to perform its duties; and

(3) To attend general meetings, and to have equal access to notification of shareholder's general meetings or any information related to the meetings as available to all other shareholders, and speak at any general meeting on matters involving its appointment as the Company's accounting firm.

The Company shall provide true and complete accounting documents, books of accounts, financial and accounting reports and other accounting information to the appointed accounting firm, the Company shall not refuse to provide such information, conceal and misrepresent any facts.

The management of the Company shall ensure the presence of the external accountant at the annual general meeting to answer questions about auditing, the preparation and content of the accountant's report, the accounting policy and the independence of the accountant.

Article 272 Should there be a vacancy for the post of accounting firm, the Board may appoint an accounting firm to fill the vacancy before the convening of a shareholders' general meeting. Any other accounting firm which is still in service may continue to act as the accounting firm during the period the vacancy remains unfilled.

Article 273 Notwithstanding any terms stipulated in the appointment contract signed between the accounting firm and the Company, a shareholders' general meeting can, before the expiry of the tenure of the accounting firm, pass an ordinary resolution to dismiss the accounting firm. The accounting firm's right to claim for compensation from the Company for such dismissal, if any, shall remain unaffected.

(7) any other methods approved by the relevant regulatory bodies of the place where the Company's shares are listed or required by the Articles of Association.

Rule 2.07A(3) to the Main Board Listing Rules

Where a notice of the Company is sent by way of an announcement, the aforesaid notice shall be deemed as received by all relevant persons once it is published.

Unless otherwise stated, the "announcement" referred to in the Articles of Association shall mean, as to the announcements published to the holders of domestic shares or the announcements required to be published in the PRC according to the relevant requirements and the Articles of Association, an announcement published on any newspaper in the PRC as stipulated under the laws and administrative regulations of the PRC or designated by the securities authority of the State Council; notices delivered to the shareholders of overseas-listed foreign shares, if the notices are published as public announcements, shall on the same date submit the electronic version for immediate release on the website of the Hong Kong Stock Exchange to the Hong Kong Stock Exchange through the Hong Kong Stock Exchange's electronic publication system according to the requirements of the local listing rules.. Announcements shall also be published on the Company's website at the same time. In addition, unless otherwise required in the Articles of Association, the announcements must be served by hand or prepaid mail to the registered address as set in the register of holders of overseas-listed foreign shares so that the shareholders are fully informed and have enough time to exercise his/her rights or act as required by the provisions of the notice.

Articles 164 and 170 of the Guidelines

Shareholders of the Company's overseas-listed foreign shares shall select electronic version or mail in writing to receive corporate communication that the Company shall send to shareholders, and shareholders can also select to receive Chinese or English version only, or both. Shareholders can give written notice in advance to the Company within reasonable time to revise the method and language version of receiving foregoing information under appropriate procedures.

Shareholders or directors who want to prove that certain notices, documents, information or written statements have been served to the Company shall provide evidential materials showing the same has been served to the correct address by ordinary means or by prepaid mail within the designated periods.

Notwithstanding the aforesaid provision which specifies providing and/or dispatching written corporate communication to shareholders, as for the means by which the Company provides and/or dispatches its corporate communication to shareholders according to the Listing Rules of the Hong Kong Stock Exchange, if the Company has obtained shareholders' prior written consent or deemed consent according to the relevant laws and regulations and the Listing Rules of the Hong Kong Stock Exchange as amended from time to time, the Company may dispatch or provide corporate communication to its shareholders by electronic means or via its website. Corporate communication includes but is not limited to circulars, annual reports, interim reports, quarterly reports, notices of shareholders' general meetings, and other types of corporate communication as specified in the Listing Rules of the Hong Kong Stock Exchange.
