

Besunyen Holdings Company Limited 碧生源控股有限公司
(the “Company”)

Terms of Reference of Remuneration Committee (the “Committee”)

Membership

1. The Committee members shall be appointed by the board of directors of the Company (the “Board”), the majority of the members of the Committee shall be independent non-executive directors of the Company.
2. The chairman of the Committee shall be appointed by the Board and shall be an independent non-executive director of the Company.
3. The term of membership shall be determined by the Board and shall be governed by the provisions of the Articles of Association of the Company.
4. The appointment of the members of the Committee may be revoked, and new appointment can be approved, by resolutions passed by the Board.

Attendance at meetings

5. The Company Secretary or his/her nominee shall act as the secretary of the Committee.

Frequency and proceedings of meetings

6. The Committee shall meet at least once a year. Additional meetings should be held as and when the Committee considers necessary.
7. The chairman of the Committee may convene additional meetings at his/her discretion.
8. The quorum of a meeting shall be two members of the Committee, of whom at least one is an independent non-executive director of the Company.

9. A member of the Committee shall abstain from voting and shall not be counted in the quorum in the meeting in respect of the resolution regarding the remuneration payable to him/her.
10. Proceedings of meetings of the Committee shall be governed by the provisions of the Articles of Association of the Company.

Notice of Meetings

11. Notice of meetings shall be given to all members of the Committee at least three days before the meeting or any shorter period as all the members of the Committee agree.

Committee's Resolutions

12. A resolution in writing signed by all the members of the Committee shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting of the Committee and may consist of several documents in like form each signed by one or more of the members of the Committee. Such resolution may be signed and circulated by fax or other electronic communications. This provision is without prejudice to any requirement under The Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (the "Listing Rules") for a Board or Committee meeting to be held.

Authority

13. The Committee is authorised by the Board to review, assess and make recommendations upon any issue within its terms of reference and all employees are directed to cooperate as requested by members of the Committee.
14. The Committee is authorised by the Board to obtain outside legal or other independent professional advice if deemed required and to invite the attendance of outsiders with relevant experience and expertise if it considers necessary.
15. The Committee should be provided with sufficient resources to perform its duties.

Responsibility

16. The Committee is to review and make recommendations concerning the remuneration packages and benefits of the directors and senior management of the Company as an independent and impartial committee, who has no personal financial interest in the package and/or benefits recommended and who, in setting of those remuneration packages, will consider and give due regard to both the performance levels of, and a fair reward for the directors and senior management of the Company and to the interest of all the shareholders of the Company in the light of the financial and commercial circumstances of the Company from time to time. No director shall be involved in deciding his/her own remuneration.
17. The Committee should consult the chairman of the Board and/or chief executive about their remuneration proposals for other executive directors. The Committee should have access to independent professional advice if necessary.

Duties, powers and functions

18. The Committee is to:
 - (a) make recommendations to the Board on the Company's policy and structure for all directors' and senior management remuneration and on the establishment of a formal and transparent procedure for developing remuneration policy;
 - (b) review and approve the management's remuneration proposals with reference to the Board's corporate goals and objectives;
 - (c) determine, with delegated responsibility, the remuneration packages of individual executive directors and senior management. This should include benefits in kind, pension rights and compensation payments, including any compensation payable for loss or termination of their office or appointment;
 - (d) make recommendations to the Board on the remuneration of non-executive directors;

- (e) consider salaries paid by comparable companies, time commitment and responsibilities and employment conditions elsewhere in the Company and its subsidiaries;
- (f) review and approve compensation payable to executive directors and senior management for any loss or termination of office or appointment to ensure that it is consistent with contractual terms and is otherwise fair and not excessive;
- (g) review and approve compensation arrangements relating to dismissal or removal of directors for misconduct to ensure that they are consistent with contractual terms and are otherwise reasonable and appropriate;
- (h) ensure that no director or any of their associates is involved in deciding that director's own remuneration;
- (i) advise shareholders (other than the shareholders who are directors with a material interest in the service contracts and their associates) in respect of the service contracts that require shareholders' approval under Rule 13.68 of the Listing Rules;
- (j) review and approve matters relating to share schemes under Chapter 17 of the Listing Rules;
- (k) ensure the chairman of the Committee, or in the absence of the chairman, another member of the Committee or failing this his/her duly appointed delegate, to attend and be available to answer questions at the annual general meeting of the Company; and
- (l) consider other matters, as defined by the Board.

Reporting Procedures

19. The Committee should report to the Board at least annually. At the next meeting of the Board following a meeting of the Committee, the chairman of the Committee shall report to the Board on the decisions and recommendations of the Committee.

20. Full minutes of the Committee meetings should be kept by the secretary of the Committee. Draft and final versions of minutes of the meetings should be sent to all members of the Committee for their comment and records within a reasonable time after the meeting.

Availability and update of the terms of reference

21. Subject to Board approval, these terms of reference shall be updated and revised as and when necessary in light of changes in circumstances and changes in regulatory requirements (e.g. the Listing Rules) in Hong Kong.
22. These terms of reference shall be made available to the public on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited's website and the Company's website in English and in Chinese. The Chinese version of these terms of reference is for reference only. In case of any discrepancies or inconsistency between the English version and Chinese version, the English version prevails.
