Resolutions in Writing

8. A resolution in writing signed by all of the members shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting of the Committee. Any such resolution may be contained in a single document or may consist of several documents all in like form.

Frequency of Meetings

9. Meetings shall be held not less than twice a year. The external auditor may request a meeting if they consider that one is necessary.

Authority

10. The Committee is authorised by the Board to conduct or authorise the investigations into any matters within its terms of reference. It is authorised to seek any information relating to the Company, its subsidiaries and consolidated structured entities (collectively the “Group”) it requires from the Company and the management of the Company shall co-operate with any request made by the Committee.
11. The Committee is authorised by the Board to obtain outside legal or other independent professional advice and to secure the attendance of outsiders with relevant experience and expertise if it considers this necessary. External auditor appointed by the Committee shall be accountable to the Board and the Committee.
12. The Committee will be provided with appropriate funding by the Company, as the Committee determines, for payment of (i) compensation to the Company’s external auditor for the purpose of preparing or issuing an audit report or performing other audit, review or attest services for the Company; any outside advisors employed by the Committee pursuant to these terms of reference; and (ii) ordinary administrative expenses of the Committee that are necessary or appropriate in carrying out its duties.

Responsibilities

13. The responsibilities of the Committee shall be:

(A) Relationship with the Company’s external auditors

- (a) to be primarily responsible for making recommendations to the Board on the appointment, reappointment and removal of the external auditor, and to approve the remuneration and terms of engagement of the external auditor, and any questions of their resignation or dismissal;

March 2023

- (b) to review and monitor the external auditor’s independence and objectivity and the effectiveness of the audit process in accordance with applicable standards. The Committee should discuss with the auditors the nature and scope of the audit and reporting obligations before the audit commences; and
- (c) to develop and implement policy on engaging an external auditor to supply non-audit services. For this purpose, “external auditor” includes any entity that is under common control, ownership or management with the audit firm or any entity that a reasonable and informed third party knowing all relevant information would reasonably conclude to be part of the audit firm nationally or internationally. The Committee should report to the Board, identifying and making recommendations on any matters where action or improvement is needed.

(B) Review of financial information of the Company

- (a) to monitor integrity of financial statements of the Company and the Company’s annual report and accounts, half-year report and, if prepared for publication, quarterly reports, and to review significant financial reporting judgements contained in them. In reviewing these reports before submission to the Board, the Committee should focus particularly on:
 - (i) any changes in accounting policies and practices;
 - (ii) major judgmental areas;
 - (iii) significant adjustments resulting from audit;
 - (iv) the going concern assumptions and any qualifications;
 - (v) compliance with accounting standards; and
 - (vi) compliance with the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (the “Listing Rules”) and legal requirements in relation to financial reporting;
- (b) regarding (B)(a) above:
 - (i) members of the Committee should liaise with the Board and senior management and the Committee must meet, at least twice a year, with the Company’s external auditor; and
 - (ii) the Committee should consider any significant or unusual items that are, or may need to be, reflected in the report and accounts, it should give due consideration to any matters that have been raised by the Company’s staff responsible for the accounting and financial reporting function, or for compliance function, or auditors.

- (C) Oversight of the Company's financial reporting system, and risk management and internal control systems
- (a) to review the Company's risk management and internal control systems covering all controls, including financial, operational and compliance controls;
 - (b) to discuss the risk management and internal control systems with management to ensure that management has performed its duty to have effective systems. This discussion should include the adequacy of resources, staff qualifications and experience, training programmes and budgets of the Company's accounting, internal audit and financial reporting functions;
 - (c) to consider major investigation findings on risk management and internal control matters as delegated by the Board or on its own initiative and management's response to these findings and review the statements concerning risk management and internal control systems to be included in the annual report;
 - (d) to ensure co-ordination between the internal audit function and external auditor, to review and approve the annual internal audit plan, to ensure that the internal audit function is adequately resourced and has appropriate standing within the Company for it to carry out an analysis and independent appraisal of the adequacy and effectiveness of the Company's financial reporting system, risk management and internal control systems, and to review and monitor the effectiveness of the internal audit function;
 - (e) to review the Group's financial and accounting policies and practices;
 - (f) to review the external auditor's management letter, any material queries raised by the auditor to management about accounting records, financial accounts or systems of control and management's response;
 - (g) to ensure that the Board will provide a timely response to the issues raised in the external auditor's management letter;
 - (h) to report to the Board on the matters in the code provisions as set out in the Listing Rules;
 - (i) to establish procedures for (i) the receipt, retention, and treatment of complaints received by the Company regarding accounting, internal accounting controls, or auditing matters; and (ii) the confidential, anonymous submission by employees of the Company of concerns regarding questionable accounting or auditing matters;
 - (j) to review arrangements employees of the Company can use, in confidence, to raise concerns about possible improprieties in financial reporting, internal control or other matters. The Committee should ensure that proper arrangements are in place for fair and independent investigation of these matters and for appropriate follow-up action;

(k) to act as the key representative body for overseeing the Company's relations with the external auditor; and

(l) to consider other topics, as defined by the Board.

(D) Review and reassessment of these terms of reference

At least annually, the Committee shall review and reassess the adequacy of these terms of reference and recommend any proposed changes to the Board for approval.

(E) Oversight of the Company's Corporate Governance Matters

(a) to develop and review the Company's policies and practices on corporate governance and make recommendations to the Board;

(b) to review and monitor the training and continuous professional development of the Directors and senior management;

(c) to review and monitor the Company's policies and practices on compliance with legal and regulatory requirements;

(d) to develop, review and monitor the code of conduct and compliance manual (if any) applicable to employees and the Directors;

(e) to review the Company's compliance with the code and disclosure in the corporate governance report as set out in the annual report of the Company; and

(f) to consider other topics, as defined by the Board.

Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, the Committee shall report back to the Board on its decisions or recommendations, unless there are legal or regulatory restrictions on its ability to do so (such as a restriction on disclosure due to regulatory requirements). The reporting shall be done by the chairman of the Committee or any such other person designated by the Committee.

Circulation of Minutes

14. The secretary of the Committee shall circulate the minutes of meetings of the Committee to all members of the Board within a reasonable time after the meeting.
